Many Brethren Of The Broom Will Unite Here On Tuesday

Big Bonspiel Begins at 2 O'clock on Tuesday Afternoon—About Thirty Rinks Will Participate.

The annual Peterborough Bonspiel begins on Tuesday afternoon of next week at 2 o'clock. The bonspiels here have always been of a particularly excellent variety but that of 1907 will, beyond a doubt, be the best in the history of the club. Excellent ice, which is essential to good curling, has been provided and as far as this is concerned there will be no kick coming from the visitors or their local brethren of the broom.

Clubs from far and near will be represented. Perth has signified its intentions to sending a rink while Napanee will have two at the 'spiel. Among the other clubs to be represented are Collingwood, Fenelon Falls, Cannington, Lindsay, Bobcaygeon, Lakefield, Oshawa, Port Hope, Cobourg, Keene and Norwood. The Secretary believes that at least 30 rinks will participate. Of these the local club will be represented by about ten rinks.

For the preliminary rounds the club has Brock street sheet of ice so that there will be 10 rinks available for the first games. Entries from local rinks end to-day.

From the fact that so many of Canada's towns and cities are playing the ancient Scottish game, it is easily seen that curling has obtained a deep root in the affections of lovers of sport. There is scarcely a spot in the Dominion where ice is available that cannot boast of having fond representatives of the great roarin' game. No doubt curling has done a great deal to mould the characters and minds of men. The friendly intercourse with brethren from other places, and the spirit of good will which invariably exists does much to make the game a popular one. The holding of Bonspiels is the best means of bringing together the men of common minds who believe curling to be the greatest of the great Canadian winter games.

PILL POUNDERS WON THEIR FIRST GAME

Did Things to the Seven From Fanning's Boarding House.

The Pill-pounders played and won their first game of the season last night, when they defeated the aggregation representing Fannin'sg boarding house, by 4—2. The skull and cross bones bunch led at half-time by 2—1, and had a shade the better of the argument throughout, although the game was always in doubt, as the locals never let up for a minute. The game was a good exhibition and was witnessed by an unusually large crowd. Seymour and Mann were the pick of the winners, while McNern and O'Connor were the star boarders.

The line-up:

Pill-pounders. — Goal, Huston point, Fitzgerald, cover point, Seymour; forwards, Mann, Tovey, Yelland, Dr. Frederick.

Fanning's — Goal, R. Best, (Bruce) point, E. Best, cover, O'Connor; forwards, Bruce, (R.Best) McNern, Herd and Stretton.

A GREAT GAME OF HOCKEY IN PROSPECT

The following bunch challenge any of the hockey teams known as the High Lifes, Auburns, Strathconas, Orphans, or any other team in the city, to a game of hockey, to be played at either rink, at the expense of the other team. The line up is as follows:—

Bill Beall, goal.
Mack Woodburn, goal.
Jack Wilson, Point.
Jim Museau, cover point.
Peter Hoolihan, centre.
Bob Pierrie, right wing.

The game will be played about the end of the month.

OSHAWA HAS ENTERED THE MIDLAND LEAGUE

Will be Represented by an Association Football Team This Year.

Oshawa is the first town in the Midland League which has signified its intentions of entering a team in the Midland Association Football League. Mr. J. E. Sullivan, the secretary of the League, has already received the annual entrance fee. It will probably be arranged to have Oshawa, Bowmanville and Cobourg in one district this year.

The League promises to be more popular than ever. The Bridgenorth team which has been out of the game for a couple of years, has again decided to make a try for the silver-ware. The annual meeting of the League will be held in about two weeks' time.

HOCKEY

The citizens that use the street cars and thus have their friends among those in charge of the cars, are anxious to hear from them regarding the proposed Conductors-Motormen game. There is going to be general disappointment if this game goes up in wind. So it's up to both sides to get into the game and quit trying to back out. One of the motormen had the audacity to state that it would happen on February 29. What do you think of that? The motormen have backed out, so it seems. It's up to Mr. Jimmy Gordon to put a little ginger into his pets and hand the motorman a whole basket of lemons.

Unless the 14th Regiment team can play about 100 per cent. better than they did against the Argonauts, it is difficult to see any chance for them to win from Midland next Monday. The style of hockey they play would never beat good team.—Toronto Globe.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE TURF CLUB

Treasurer's Report Showed Cash Balance on Right Side of Ledger.

The annual meeting of the Peterborough Turf Club was held yesterday afternoon when the officers for the year were elected.

The Club, since its re-organization, has been most successful and the report of the Treasurer, R. H. Jackson, presented yesterday, showed a small balance on the right side of the ledger.

The following officers were elected:
President—P. J. Clugan.
Vice-President—J. A. Lawless.
Treasurer—R. H. Jackson.
Secretary—J. H. O'Shea.
Track Manager—Martin Connors.

It was decided to hold a series of Saturday afternoon matinees in the summer. The big race meet will be held in August.

ONLY THREE MEN A SIDE IN GAME AT LINDSAY

Belleville and Midgets Had a Terrific Battle.

About fifty Peterborough people took in the Belleville - Lindsay game at Lindsay last night, and report that they got their money's worth of excitement. According to some of those who saw the game, Lindsay lead by 8—1 at one stage, but four Belleville men were hurt or quit until they had but three ready to continue. Lindsay accordingly dropped all but Newton, Koyle and McDougal, and the game went on with the teams playing three men a side. Belleville simply ran away with the Midgets, bringing the score up to 9—6. Lindsay got scared then and wanted to bring out their whole team, but Waghorne couldn't see it that way, and called the game off. PPhillips, the Belleville goal keeper, was knocked insensible by a blow from a Lindsay forward's stick, and had to be carried off the ice.

It was just such another case as the Marlboros-Smith Falls game in the latter place two years ago, and the O.H.A. may do as they did then, make the two teams play off on neutral ice.

NORWOOD CURLERS WERE DEFEATED BY LOCALS

Skip R. Neil Was Four Up in the Game—A Jolly Crowd.

A Norwood rink of curlers visited in the city last night and played a friendly game with one of the locals. The visitors were defeated in a close game played scientifically. The Norwood quartette left on the midnight for home and it is probable that club will be represented here at the Bonspiel nxt week.

Stabbed By Tramp.

Thedford Mines, Que., Feb. 16.—Geo. Lessard, 22 years of age, unmarried, was killed and his body horribly mangled by the express train from Quebec, about 7 o'clock Thursday night. Lessard got on the steps of a second-class car, in company with two friends, who were going to the next station, and after riding a short distance, jumped off into the snow and rolled under the cars. The body was found nearly a mile from where he had jumped.

Hearse Wrecked.

Kingston, Feb. 16.—The remains of the late Sidney Ham, of Liverpool, England, were being transferred to Cataraqui Cemetery from Watertown, N. Y., on Thursday afternoon, when the hearse swerved on the slippery roads. The driver was unseated and the horses ran away. Going down McMichael's Hill the hearse was upset and wrecked. The casket was thrown upon the road, but the body was not exposed.

Cheap Power for Kingston.

Kingston, Feb. 16.—Hon. Adam Beck addressed a public meeting in the city hall last evening under the auspices of the Board of Trade. He stated that Kingston could get power from the Trent River for $21.43 a horse-power by taking 2,750 horse-power. The rate for Kingston would be about half that paid in Winnipeg. After the meeting Mr. Beck was entertained at a banquet in the British-American Hotel.

ENGLAND

The Corporation of the City of London has an Irish question to deal with. The Corporation, through one of its committees, known as the Irish Society, owns and administers large estates in Ireland. These possessions, which include the City of Londonderry, have belonged to the Corporation since the time of Charles II. Out of the revenues arising from them the Irish Society makes certain annual grants for educational and charitable purposes. Among these is a sum of £225 for establishing scholarships tenable in Trinity College, Dublin. These scholarships are awarded to girl students belonging to Londonderry, who obtain the highest marks in the yearly examinations conducted by the Board of Intermediate Education in Ireland. The programme of the Intermediate Board, which Governs secondary education in Ireland, was selected by the Irish Society as forming the most fitting test of merit, and it appointed a local ladies' committee in Londonderry to arrange the details relating to the award of the scholarships. Then the trouble began. The population of Londonderry is made up of 18,000 Protestants of various denominations, and 25,000 Roman Catholics. In some way the committee was constituted without any Catholic lady being included. This was the first grievance. The second was that the ladies' committee made the scholarships tenable only at Trinity College, Dublin, a circumstance which excludes Catholic girls as completely as if the Irish Society had made "Catholics not eligible," a condition of its grant. Fuel was added to the fire when the committee proceeded to exclude marks given for proficiency in the Irish language from the total of marks qualifying for the scholarships, and a vigourous local agitation has sprung up in consequence.

A remarkable old woman, Widow Roffey, of Newdigate, near Dorking, who has just completed her 92nd birthday, has kept a diary in which she has recorded the cost of her maintenance as £1,913 1s 8., an average expenditure of eight shillings per week. The old woman was entertained to dinner on the anniversary of her birthday, and sang "A hunting we will go" and "My old gray mare." She records in her diary that she has has sung the songs 1,106 times since she learnt them from her father's lips. Her diary contains an inventory of the clothing she has worn. This includes:—

Dresses	41
Petticoats	47
Shoes and boots	80
Aprons	53
Stockings	274
Bonnets and hats	165
Shawls and wraps	34
Gloves and mittens	30

She calculates that during her lifetime she has consumed:—

Fish	4,784
Loaves of bread	11,960
Potatoes	50,730
Cabbages	19,136
Cups of tea	134,320
Glasses of milk	67,160
Glasses of water	33,580

The widow also states in her diary that she has walked 221,480 miles, and that at the age of 17 she walked to London and back, a distance of 54 miles, to get married. The now wrinkled face has been washed 67,060 times, her hands 423,424 times and her feet 2,208 times. She has slept 302,220 hours of her life away and drawn 33,584 buckets of water from the well in her garden.

Walter Bray, of Widnes, who has just died at the age of sixty-six, was one of the most remarkable working men in Lancashire. He was a Cornishman by birth, and 30 years ago took a position as time-keeper at the Gilding Davies chemical works at Widnes. He had a remarkable aptitude for languages, and early in life mastered Latin and Greek, while later he acquired French and German, and at the time of his death he was studying Hebrew. These he taught in his spare time to anyone who cared to learn. Phrenology was a hobby with him, and he was one of the first men in Widnes to master the art of shorthand. He had a remarkable knowledge of classics, especially the poets, and all his spare money was spent in adding to his library, which at the time of his death was a large one for a working man to possess. Philosophy, anatomy, and botany were among the other branches of knowledge which he had mastered.

SCOTLAND

Much interest has been caused in Argyllshire by the announcement that an important and exceptionally interesting document, namely, the original of the order for the massacre of Glencoe, by which the clan McDonald was completely exterminated, is to be offered for sale. The wording of the document reads as follows: "You are hereby ordered to fall upon the rebel McDonalds of Glencoe and put all to the sword under 70. You are to have special care that the old fox and his sons do on no account escape from your hands. You are to secure all avenues that no man escape. This you are to put into execution at five of the clock precisely, and by that time or very shortly after He strive to be att you with a stronger party. If I doe not come to you at five, you are not to tary for me, butt to fall on. This is by the King's special command for the safety of the country that these miscreants be cut off, root and branch. See that this be putt into execution without fail or favour, else you may expect to be dealt with as one not true to the King nor the Government, nor a man fitt to marry a commissione in the King's service. Extraordinary scenes recently occurred at a service in Straunger, Wytonshire, Episcopal Church. The relations between the minister, Mr. Godfrey, and the choirmaster and congregation have long been strained. A few days ago, after the formal entry of priest and choir into the chancel, and while the organist was playing the opening voluntary, Mr. Godfrey came and handed the organist the copy of the Te Deum he had placed in his stall, saying he would not have it, but would have some chants. The organist explained that it was too late to change, whereupon the minister proceeded to strip the short stalls of their copies. He announced that the Psalms, Te Deum and Litany would be said and not sung—an innovation of which the organist had received no intimation. The organist ignored the announcement and played the chant appointed for the Psalm. The choir rose up and began to sing, when Mr. Godfrey, in a towering rage, came out of his stall and dashed down the organ psalter to the ground. Thereupon the congregation rose and walked out, followed by the choir and the organist. Only the priest's daughter, the church cleaner, and one man remained.

The newly-laid cable between Shetland and the Faroe Islands will prove an inestimable boon to the Danish people, who are now for the first time brought into direct touch with the rest of the world. The cable link between Shetland and Faroe recalls an interesting episode in the history of the north. Seven hundred years ago the island groups were linked together, but in a very different fashion. At that period Orkney and Shetland, as well as Faroe and Iceland, were Norse colonies. Shetland was under the rule of the Earl of Orkney, who was, of course, subject to the King of Norway. Faroe was administered direct from Norway, while Iceland was a republic. In 1195 the then Earl of Orkney incurred the displeasure of King Sverrier, of Norway, who deprived the Earl of the lordship of Shetland as up unishment for his misconduct. Shetland was thereafter joined to Faroe, and the two groups formed one Norwegian dependency, having the name Bishop, Lawman and Foude. Matters continued thus for nearly 200 years, when Shetland was again united to Orkney.

Intense alarm was occasioned in Aberdeen recently when it became known that the handsome addition to Marischal College, completed last year at a cost of £200,000, and opened by the King in December, was in danger from fire. When it was ascertained that fire was raging fiercely in the facade of the extensive pile, the firemaster sent to the scene of an outbreak in another part of the city for additional men and appliances, and soon the brigade were coping successfully with what threatened to be a serious conflagration. The fire had broken out in the dark room of the photographic section of the Geology Department in the centre of the new buildings. The actual damage by fire will not probably exceed £500, but a good deal of destruction had been caused by water and smoke. Had the fire obtained mastery the loss would have been enormous, as apart from the value of the buildings, many of the specimens, pictures and books are exceedingly valuable and scarce.

IRELAND

A very strange outrage was committed in Clooney, county Clare, a few days ago, an attempt being made to blow up a dwelling house by means of a bomb. Edward O'Doherty was leaving home when he noticed a man in a field close by whose movements aroused his suspicions. He went towards the man who disappeared through a hedge in the darkness. Immediately after a revolver shot was fired. O'Doherty had his gun with him and he at once fired in the direction where he saw the flash of the shot. Just then there was a loud report near his house, and hurrying back, O'Doherty found that an attempt had been made to injure the house by means of an explosive. The axle-box of a cart had been used as a bomb and charged with guncotton or blasting powder. The contents had exploded but the gun had not burst. A hole had been ploughed in the ground close to the house. The noise of the explosion was heard a quarter of a mile away by a police patrol.

A Dublin harness maker named Edward Corcoran, a native of Cork, has by a recent decision of the United States courts, been declared heir to ground rents and house property to the value of half a million of money, the property of Mr. John Sullivan, who died intestate at Seattle, Washington, U.S.A. This decision concludes a case which has been carried on for six years. One after another the other claims were disposed of and the matter finally became a conflict between Mr. Corcoran and the city of Seattle, which sought to escheat the property to themselves on the ground that Sullivan had no heirs. A commission appointed by the Supreme Court of Washington held a number of sittings in Ireland recently and the investigation was carried on in the most thorough manner. At Cork graves were opened for the purpose of getting evidence. The commission also sat at Molesworth street in Dublin.

An extraordinary story was related in the Kilkenny police court recently in connection with the attack on John Fleming, a Waterford engineer, who was stabbed thirty-one times in the back. A girl named Margaret Ryan said that Fleming betrayed her under promise of marriage. She disclosed the fact to a man named Stallard, who said that he would act as her brother. He dictated a letter to her, inviting Fleming to Kilkenny. Fleming kept the appointment, and declared that he would not marry Ryan. She then carried out an arrangement previously made and invited him into Stallard's gardens. There he was seized by Stallard and another man, who handcuffed him and while the girl carried a lighted lantern, held a "court martial" on him, in the course of which a revolver was flourished in his face. After the "court martial" Fleming was dragged into a ditch and stabbed.

Amusing evidence regarding the working of an Irish light railway was given recently before the Royal Commission inquiring into the management of Irish railways, by Mrs. Amy Griffin, a member of the Kilkee, County Clare, Urban Council. Speaking of the West and South Clare Railway she said that it served Kilkee, sometimes called the Brighton of Ireland, a favourite watering place for English, Scotch and Americans, but they complained of the delay in getting to it. This railway had been made the subject of a comic song, which stated, "You may get to Kilkee before night; You may not, or you might." She told the commission of an incident which illustrated what she complained of in the matter of speed. A lady passenger had a canary, which escaped from its cage, and the train was stopped while she tried to capture the bird!

THE SPRINGVILLE CONCERT WAS SUCCESS

Most Enjoyable Affair Was Held in the Village Last Night.

ENJOYABLE PROGRAMME RENDERED.

Another successful concert was last night added to the long list that have been presented in the Presbyterian church, Springville. The programme was long but varied, and was greatly enjoyed by the large audience present. A feature of the evening was the presence of the Bethany orchestra, and the choir of the Bethany Presbyterian church, the contributions of both being much appreciated.

An interesting event was a demonstration of wireless telegraphy by Rev. Dr. Marsh. The subject was new to most of the audience and the address and experiments proved fascinating. The programme was as follows:—

POLITE ATTENTION — PROMPT DELIVERY

PRESENTATION TO A RETIRING FOREMAN

Mr. Albert Martin Given Suit Case, Accompanied by Address From His Fellow-Members on Examiner Staff

RETIRES AFTER EIGHTEEN YEARS.

Mr. Albert Martin, who for a number of years has been foreman of the news room of the Examiner, and who has been a member of the staff of this office for eighteen years to-day severs his connection with the office and at the noon hour was made the recepient, from the members of the staff of a handsome solid leather suit case, accompanied by an address in which the regret of his fellow employees at his retirement was expressed.

A majority of the fifty members of the Examiner staff gathered in the news room at noon, and Mr. Wm. Cowie, foreman of the bindery, and a member of many years standing, read the following address, while Mr. Walter Peters, also an old employee, presented Mr. Martin with the suit case, on behalf of the members of the staff:—

To Mr. Albert Martin:

Dear Friend,—Your fellow employees of the Examiner on the occasion of your retirement from the position you have occupied with so much efficiency, for so long a time, wish to express their regret at the severance of the office and personal relations, which will result from your withdrawal.

In regard to the former you have shown a capacity and industry, which have made your services not only valuable to your employers, but a credit to the printing craft. You have been long associated with this establishment, where you learned the business and where, by your industry and capacity as a workman and devotion to your duty you have been promoted through all the stages of employment, to one of the highest positions in the office. As a personal friend we have always found you obliging, genial and always willing to use your best endeavours to promote in every way the interests of your associates. We all heartily join with regret at the at the termination of all the relations you have held to us and, to mark the occasion in a slight way and in material form, we ask your acceptance at our hands, of this gift, hoping it may "suit" your "case," which we hope will always be "full" and that it may be long before you will need to use it in departing from Peterborough. We have the greatest confidence in wishing you every success in the future, for your capability, your industry and reliable qualities, will always secure recognition, where such qualities are in demand. We hope that "fat takes" will come to you in abundance, and that every prosperity will be yours in such "forms" as will "justify" you enjoying all possible happiness and good luck for many, many years.

Signed on behalf of the staff,
F. R. Yokome,
R. M. Glover,
William Cowie,
Harry Donnelly.
Harry Lasheur,
Walter Peters,
Chas. S. Brownlee.

In acknowledging the address and gift, Mr. Martin expressed his deep appreciation of the manifestation of good will as evidenced by the action of his fellow-employees. He had always entertained the most kindly feeling for them, and his relations during the last 18 years had been most pleasant.

There were, however, times when one felt that it was desirable to take a course other than one's inclinations prompt, and the present was one of them.

He hoped that the same pleasant relations would prevail in the future that had characterized the past.

BIRTH

VINCENT — ON SATURDAY, FEBruary 16, 1907, in Peterborough, at 307 Townsend street, the wife of Mr. J. Vincent, of a son.

A French company has secured the franchise for the construction of a trolley line in the city of Damascus. The concession is virtually a monopoly of all electrical privileges, including telephone, telegraph, light and power transmission. The power will be secured from the falls of the River Barada, at Et Tekiye, twenty-two miles from the city. At the present time, three and a half miles of trolley line connecting the suburbs with the city are under construction.

The General Electric Company has solved the problem of the training of apprentices by setting apart a certain portion of the plant for their instruction. A portion of their time is devoted to practical work in the shops, and the remainder is given up to the study of subjects which will be of value to them. At the end of a few years a boy is on the way to be a thoroughly skilled workman, not merely a machanic.

Common Sense As Well As Kindness Is Needed

Toronto Saturday Night.

Once upon a time a Man's house caught fire; much damage was done and he got a great scare and a bad Shaking Up. After the fire was out and while the Man was working like a Trojan to set things right again a fussy Neighbour who had heard of the Trouble came rushing to the Scene.

"It's all right, now, thank you," said the Man; "the worst is over and I'll be able to Manage."

"But I must Help you," gasped the excited Neighbour. That's what I'm here for. Besides, People saw me running this Way, and they will expect me to do great Things." So the Neighbour began making noises among the Furniture. Rushing into the blackened walls, he threw Crockery out of the Windows, and carried Pillows down ladders in his arms.

"Please leave Things alone," begged the man of the House. "Do go and sit on the fence—really you are doing wholly Unnecessary Things."

"Who, me!" exclaimed the Neighbour, "why I am helping you wonderfully. A Thief was carrying away your Safe just now with Five Thousand Dollars in It but I took it from him and brought it back. So you see where you'd be only for Me."

"Safe!" replied the man, "why I had no safe! Where is the alleged Safe!"

The Neighbour pointed it out among the Pots and Pans.

"Why, that's no Safe—that's a Gas Range," shouted the man. "I was Sending it to the Shed. Will you please quit Picking Things up and Throwing Them Down in the Wrong Place. You're only making more Work for us; you are very kind but we know where to put things."

"Oh, my dear Friends, it's lucky for you I'm here—I see Lots of Things to do that you Wouldn't Dream of. I'm Going to Help you on the Ground Floor, in the Attic, in the Cellar, but especially in the Front Yard, within view of the street." And the neighbours rushed in several directions.

But the Man Caught up to him. "See here," he said firmly, "I'm too Busy to-day to let you help me any. Come Back at another Time, and I'll be Glad to see you. Just at present—Chase yourself, Take a Run Around the Block, Vamoose, obsquatulate, Git!"

The Neighbour Blushed Crimson, turned out the Gate and Went. As he disappeared the Man's Family Scolded him for his rudeness to a Neighbour who at least was trying to be Kind.

But the Man turned on them:

"It's all very well for you to he said sternly, "but did you ever try to put up Stovepipes with a boil on the Neck!"

MORAL — It isn't enough for a Neighbour to be kind. He should also have some sense.

Buy Shares in Cobalt Property of Proven Value

Buy Trout Lake Shares at 25c each before the rise

Facts--You Can't Overlook The property of the Trout Lake Cobalt Mining Co., of Montreal, Ltd., is located in one of the most favorable sections of the Cobalt Mineral Belt. The property consists of three claims of 40 acres each (120 acres in all). In this immediate vicinity pure leaf silver is being mined. The property almost adjoins the famous Gillies Timber Limits, where phenominally rich deposits of silver ores have been discovered.

WEIGH THE ABOVE FACTS--- DECIDE AND BUY IMMEDIATELY

Buy before the shares go up—take advantage of the first increase in value. Your judgment tells you that this is an exceptionally good opportunity. The metal is there—Mr. Brown's report is on fyle at the office of the undersigned—and may be seen by all who so desire. It can be very economically mined and the smelting facilities are exceptionally favorably

As soon as operations commence the shares will increase considerably in value. The present offer of 25c per share in lots of not less than 100 shares may be withdrawn any moment. In fact as soon as sufficient capital is obtained to commence operations on a large scale it will be withdrawn. The Officers are men well known in Ottawa and Montreal business circles.

Such names behind any enterprise are in themselves a safe guard against fraud and loss.

THE TROUT LAKE COBALT MINING CO., OF MONTREAL, LTD.

Has an exceptionally profitable future before it—the three claims are situated in The Temiskami Forest Reserve. That is the section where all the richest finds of Gold, Silver and Copper were made last summer. It is significant that after thoroughly viewing the district—these three claims were selected as the best and staked out last summer by Mr. A. C. Brown, a mining expert of many years experience on the Rand Mines, South Africa and the Nile Valley Mines, Egypt. In the near future, as soon as operations are well under way, the three claims will become shipping mines. The ore which lies quite close to the surface is of extraordinary high value and very easy of access—hand drills and dynamite being all necessary to remove it.

Moreover the plant of Montreal Reduction and Smelting Co., of Canada, Ltd., which is quite close at hand, is expected to be ready early this Spring.

COLT BROKE OTONABEE FARMER'S COLLAR BONE

While Dressing a Wound on the Horse Received From a Kick From Another, Mr. Graham Weir Receives Injuries—Reared Up and Fell Upon Him

DOUBLE TROUBLES IN ONE DAY

Mr. Graham Weir, of Otonabee, met with a very painful accident on Saturday morning from which he emerged with a broken collar bone accompanied by severe pain. The old proverb that "troubles never come alone," was no exception to Mr. Weir. On Saturday morning when he went out to the stable to attend and feed the horses he found that one of a pair of colts had gotten loose during the night and kicked the other. A very large piece of skin had been cut from the thigh of the horse and this hung down leaving a large area of flesh bare.

Mr. Weir undertook with the assistance of Mr. Jno. Gillespie, a neighbour, to fix up the wound. He secured a pair of sheras and made an attempt to sever the flap of hanging skin. The colt reared up and fell heavily upon the unlucky man before he could escape. The injuries were so painful that Mr. Weir consulted a surgeon and discovered that his collar bone had been broken.

BROKEN ENGINE CAUSED A DELAY

G. T. R. Flyer Over an Hour Behind Time on Saturday Night—Distress Whistle Blown.

The Grand Trunk flyer which is scheduled to reach Peterborough at 10 o'clock, p.m., was more than an hour late on Saturday night. The cause of the trouble was a break to some part of the engine between here and Omemee. As there is no telegraph station intervening the officials here were at a loss to locate just where the train was disabled.

The distress whistle was blown but the sound did not reach the city, so that no aid was sent out. The break was partly repaired and, being a down grade, the train was easily brought into the city. The action of the frost followed by higher temperatures is, it is understood, the cause of an uneven road-bed in places along the line, and it is believed that this was the reason for the break to the engine.

DONATED ORGAN TO PRIMARY DEPARTMENT

The Sunday School of Charlotte Street Methodist Church Acknowledges Gift of Hon. J. R. Stratton.

Some few weeks ago announcement was made at the Charlotte street church that the primary department of the Sunday School was in need of an organ, the instrument which had done service for a number of years having outlived its usefulness. At the session of the school yesterday the superintendent, Mr. R. J. Kidd, announced that through the kindness of Hon. J. R. Stratton, this want had been supplied and in future the work of the primary department teachers will be made easier by reason of the fact that they will have a good organ with which to lead the singing.

TRENTON GETS OUTLET

Announcement Made From Ottawa That the Trenton Route Will Be Selected Instead of Port Hope.

WILL COST $40,000 MORE

But Canal Damages Avoided Make it the Cheaper Route—Port Hope Outlet Considered Risky.

Toronto Globe Special.

Ottawa, Feb. 17. — The long outstanding question as to whether the outlet of the Trent Valley Canal would be at Trenton or Port Hope has at last been decided in favour of Trenton. Careful surveys have been made of both routes by the Department of Railways and Canals, and the result has been to indicate that Trenton, on the whole, has more in its favour as an outlet for this waterway than has Port Hope. The surveys show that the difference between the two points, so far as construction is concerned, is not very material. In this respect Port Hope has a somewhat stronger claim. The distance, compared with Trenton, is somewhat shorter. The cost of construction therefore would be, according to the engineers' report, about $40,000 less to Port Hope than to Trenton. But this does not take into account the land damages and waterpower privileges, in which respect the Trenton route is found to be better. One great factor in favour of Trenton is that barges can be taken from Midland through the Trent Valley Canal to Montreal with perfect safety, being landlocked all the way. If Port Hope had been selected as an outlet these barges would have to be towed for a considerable distance out in the open lake, a rather risky if not impossible experiment in severe weather.

HEAD STUCK ON SPIKES IN THE PLANKS

East City Young Man Received a Severe Injury on Saturday Night.

On Saturday evening, while Mr. Wesley McCarthy, son of Mr. Allan McCarthy, of East City, was coming across the river, he met with a serious accident which required medical attention. The northern section of East City have arranged a short cut to the rear of the old McAllister mill by placing a number of planks in a row down the bank. Mr. McCarthy, while coming down one of them, slipped on the ice, striking his head heavily against the hard plank into which were driven some spikes. He fell off the narrow walk to the ground, about eight feet distant, but still remained conscious.

The back of his head was badly cut by the spikes, and this necessitated some half dozen stitches.

Big Lumber Cut Prospects Peterboro' Lumber Company

Six Million Feet Will be Cut in Local Mills This Season—Has Bought 1,500,000 Feet From Rathbun Company—4,000,000 From Cavendish Company.

The Peterborough Lumber Company has prospects of an unusually busy summer's work. The probabilities are that the cut at the local mills of the company during the summer of 1907 will total about six million feet.

Recently the company bought the whole season's cut of the Rathbun Company of Jacks and Eels Lakes amounting to about 1,500,000 feet. This timber is practically all cut now, and the purchasers will drive it to the mills here.

In addition to this the company will receive from the Cavendish Lumber Company, as it did last year about four million feet, and this together with the timber which will be secured from other sources will bring the cut up to the amount referred to above.

AN UNUSUAL RUNAWAY RESULTED DISASTROUSLY

Mr. Bruce Lee's Horse Ran Down the Belleville Track to the Railway Bridge Where it was Suddenly Stopped.

A peculiar runaway occurred yesterday afternoon, which resulted expensively for Mr. Bruce Lee. One of this horses started from Simcoe street and ran south on Bethune street, following the Belleville line of the G. T. R. until it reached the railway bridge that spans the Otonabee. It had almost crossed this in safety, when, unfortunately, its feet, which had met secure footing nearly all the way over the bridge, missed and the horse stumbled, leaving itself helplessly on the bridge with its feet hanging down between the ties. The animal broke two of its legs as a result, and it was several hours before the horse was liberated from its position. The animal was highly valued by Mr. Lee, but had to be shot as it was most seriously injured, having two of its legs rendered useless and having sustained other injuries.

OBITUARY

MARY COWAN

At the residence of Mr. William Hatherly of Otonabee, on Sunday, February 17th, the wife of Mr. John Cowan passed away. The funeral will be held in Haliburton county, near Minden.

MARTHA JANE BUSH

The death occurred on Saturday of Martha Jane Bush, relict of the late Thomas Nicholls, after an illness of three weeks. The deceased was born near Cobourg 53 years ago, and had lived in this city about twenty years. She was married to the late Thos. Nicholls thirty years ago, her husband having predeceased her six years ago. The children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nicholls are George, Hattie and William, of this city, and Mrs. A. E. Miller, of Edmonton. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church.

The funeral will be held from the family residence, 19 Waterford street, on Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

GEORGE BOWEN

A very untimely death was that of George Bowen, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Bowen, of Toronto, but formerly of Auburn, the northern suburb of this city. The deceased was a very bright boy and was well known in this city, where he attended the Murray Street School. He was 16 years of age and was employed in one of the large offices in the city. The cause of his death was pneumonia.

His remains were interred in Toronto on Saturday.

NO MEETING OF THE COUNCIL TO-NIGHT

Estimates are Not Completed and There is no Work for Aldermen.

The weekly meeting of the City Council will not be held to-night, and for once the aldermen will have Monday night to themselves. There is no business that could be taken up to-night. It was expected that the Council might consider the estimates for the year, but owing to the illness of Chairman Tovey, the Finance Committee has not been able to deal with the matter. It will, however, be discussed by the committee to-morrow night and their report will be presented at the meeting of the Whole Council next Monday night.

APPOINTMENTS TO THE ROYAL BANK

Montreal, Feb. 17.—Mr. H. S. Holt, of the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Company, has been appointed Vice-President of the Royal Bank. Messrs. C. E. Neill and F. J. Sherman have been appointed assistant general managers.

POLICEMEN MOVED THE CROWD

Followed by a Crowd From the Main Street and Thus Relieved the Crowded Condition of George Street.

Saturday night one of the policemen arrested Watson Marsh, on Simcoe street, for having been in a drunk and disorderly condition. A large crowd of the curious were on hand seeking a subject of gossip. Having lodged their prisoner in the police station, Police Officers Meharry and Newall went for a little jaunt around the city. The visages of both these guardians of the law wore that determined look which is dreaded by culprits and offenders. They walked out Charlotte street a short distance and returned and walked up George street. They, by this time, had a large gathering in their rear and created an excitement that increased as they went along.

They turned at Hunter street and went west with the crowd gradually becoming larger. Hunter street was as thronged as George street with the same eager, curious crowd.

The officers turned at Aylmer and walked south to Simcoe street, and returned to "Broadway" by way of Simcoe street and thence to their respective duties. The question that was being asked was, what the police had been after. And it was some time before the people realized that they had been individually handed a famous. The congested condition of the main street had been relieved for a short time and the officers had quietly accomplished that which they had set out for.

THE WEATHER

Although the weather is only moderately cold to-day, we had one of those sudden changes to a much lower temperature characteristic of this winter, last night. This morning at 7 o'clock the thermometer marked 7 degrees below zero, while during the night it had been down to 14 below. Some days of milder weather are now in prospect, and some more snow is not improbable.

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION

The present is marked by considerable activity in regard to legislation looking to the protection and promotion of the interests of labour. In the House of Commons, Hon. Mr. Lemieux's bill, to provide means for the settlement of disputes, is engaging attention. In the Ontario Legislature, Mr. Crawford has reintroduced a bill to amend the Workmen's Compensation Bill. The bill, it is understood, follows English legislation, designed to effect the same purpose, and seems intended to establish the liability of employers, whether or not they can be shown to be guilty of negligence. The only exception is in the event of "serious and wilful misconduct" on the part of employees. The British law, on which Mr. Crawford's bill is largely founded, provides that no compensation is in any event payable unless the injury disables the workman from earning full wages at his employment for at least one week, and that if the workman is so disabled for less than two weeks, no compensation is payable in respect of the first week. This proviso is intended to prevent malingering or false claims. The maximum compensation in any case is £300, and the minimum on the death of a workman whose relatives are wholly dependent upon him, £150. Within these limits the compensation is fixed at the average earnings for three years. There are proportionate reductions where dependents are only partially supported by the workman. If there are no dependents, the employer pays medical and funeral expenses within a limit of £10. Where total or partial incapacity results, the workman receives a weekly sum during the incapacity not exceeding 90 per cent. of his average weekly earnings during the preceding twelve months. If he is under 21 years of age, and his earnings are less than a pound a week, he receives 100 per cent. of his weekly average. In Mr. Crawford's bill, the scale of compensation is graded to allow the workman 50 per cent. of his wages during his disability, or in case of death, a maximum of $1500 to his dependents. The defect in this proposed bill, seems to be its drastic nature, inasmuch as it practically places responsibility upon employers, where no responsibility can be fairly placed—in cases where he is not to blame, and when the blame for accident may be due to the carelessness of the employee. It may, however, provoke discussion, which may lead to practicable and fair legislation.

AN ACT OF DISFRANCHISEMENT

The Whitney Government is a progressive Government, but its progress is of the crawfish variety — backwards. The Government has introduced a bill to deprive a large body of citizens of the franchise. Registration of manhood suffrage voters is to be greatly curtailed, by being removed from country towns, while being retained in cities. The retention of registration in cities admits the propriety and utility of registration and favours the residents of cities at the expense of districts of a more rural character. In the case of questions which affect the interests of cities as against towns, the latter will be disfranchised and not be in a position to express an opinion. The Conservatives are not consistent. In the election contests in this riding and county the Conservative stumpers found fault with the registration legislation adopted by a Liberal Government because it was restricted to cities and towns of a certain population. They demanded that it should also be extended to townships. Why this change of position? What Mr. Whitney's supporters have advocated, he is now opposing; and not only opposing an enlargement of the area of registration but greatly restricting it. If Mr. Whitney's legislation becomes law, and it doubtless will do, for he has an obedient, unthinking majority behind him ready to do his will, a large body of citizens will be disfranchised and manhood will in a measure cease to be a test of the privileges of full citizenship. The Whitney Government's move is a retrograde one.

CHARGE AGAINST MR. WHITE DISMISSED

W. M. Fowler Charged Mr. White With Having Sold Whiskey After Hours—Charge Not Substantiated.

This morning, at the regular Police Court session, Mr. Gus. White, proprietor of the White House, Charlotte street, was charged with selling liquor after hours on January 26, by Mr. Wm. Fowler, at that time a boarder in the house. The case apparently arose from a little difficulty which Mr. Fowler and Mr. White had on Wednesday of last week, and Mr. Fowler must have wished to get even by trying to make an exposure, in which he utterly failed. From the evidence presented, it seems that Mr. White had received an order from one of the boarders for a bottle of whisky, to be left in the latter's room. The boarder got this whisky later, and the point on which the case pivoted was whether it was unlawful to give the man the whisky after hours, although he had ordered it during open hours. Mr. Jas. Haverson, K.C., of Toronto, appeared on behalf of Mr. White, and maintained that nothing had been done contrary to law and asked that the charge against his client be dismissed. In his summary, Magistrate Dumble considered that Mr. White had committed no offence and dismissed the case.

A VERY SUCCESSFUL REPORT WAS PRESENTED

Last Year in Charlotte Street Methodist Church Was a Prosperous One—No Liabilities are Recorded.

REPORTS OF THE VARIOUS DEPARTMENTS

Yesterday the financial report of the Charlotte street Methodist church was distributed to the members. It is in many respects a most satisfactory statement, revealing, as it does, the fact that from a financial standpoint this church is in a healthy condition. In the statement of assets and liabilities, the former consisting of church property, are given at $19,000, and the church is in the enviable position of having no liabilities.

The report which covers the year 1906, shows a total revenue for all purposes of $6124.63, the important tems being Trustee Board receipts, $1,656.12, and Quarterly Board receipts, $1,940.23.

The revenue of the church is derived from pew rents, weekly offerings and loose collections, together with some yearly and half-yearly donations.

The pew rents are used to defray choir expenses, pay insurance, repairs, etc.

All expenses of church management, including pastor's salary, sexton, light, coal, etc., are paid from weekly offerings, loose and special collections.

The Women's Auxiliary Society's report, shows that during the year the receipts were $100.52, and the expenditure $2.70 less, $94.70 having been sent to the Branch Secretary to be devoted to missionary purposes. Mrs. J. Kilgour is president of the Society, and Mrs. J. K. Moore, Recording Secretary; with Mrs. T. Allum, Treasurer.

Young Men's Guild

The Young Men's Guild, through the officers, I. D. Moore, President; William McLaren, Secretary, and R. T. Carr, Treasurer, reported receipts of $58.62, and expenditures of $30.75, leaving a good balance in the treasury. A window was donated by the Guild to the Sunday school, costing $33.00.

Olive Mission Band

The receipts of the Olive Mission Band amounted to $105.02, and of this $48.81 was sent to the Branch Secretary, for Mission objects. The Band closed the year with a good surplus. Mrs. R. Neil is president of the Band, Miss Lulu Bushnell, secretary, and Miss Marion Lyle, treasurer.

Sunday School

The report contains some interesting information concerning the Sunday school, the secretary's report showing:

No. of scholars on roll, 570.
Average attendance for year, 365.
No. of visitors, 520.
No. of teachers and officers on roll, 43.
Average attendance of teachers and officers, 37.

The receipts of the school, including $776.56 for the Building Fund, amounted to $1437.94. There are balances on hand in the two funds of $883.57. Mr. R. J. Kidd is the superintendent of the school and Mr. Percy Hamilton, secretary.

Epworth League

The Epworth League commenced the year with a credit balance of 16 cents, and the receipts were $27.14. The balance at the close of the year was $2.19. Mr. C. F. Horsley is the president, Mr. D. W. Elliott, secretary, and Mr. I. D. Moore, treasurer.

Ladies' Aid

One of the most active organizations in connection with the church is the Ladies' Aid Society. During the year the operations of which the report covers, this society raised $390.52, and closed the year with a credit balance of $74.23. A contribution to the Sunday school building fund of $50 was made and to the Parsonage Account the Society gave $87.64. Mrs. H. A. Yenney is the president of this active organization, Mrs. A. B. Cunningham is secretary, and Mrs. M. B. Lyle is treasurer.

PIANO PUPILS GAVE A REGITAL

Miss Pollock's Pupils Delighed Large Audience at Conservatory of Music on Saturday.

At the Peterborough Conservatory of Music on Saturday afternoon there was a large attendance, to enjoy a recital given by the pupils of Miss Pollock, assisted by pupils of other teachers. The following programme was most creditably presented:—

Melody, Webb.....Jean Anderson
Waltz.....Hugh Carmichael
Recitation.....Greta LeBarr
Violin solo.....Frank Halpany
Mazurka, HenriWeil.....Frances Stone
Piano duet...Vera Peters and Nellie Mather
Play-time, Waddington..Cora Bradburn
Recitation.....Greta LeBarr
Gypsy Rondo, Haydn.....Pearl Ruth
Violin solo.....Edwina Palmer
Piano duet, Pearl Ruth and Cora Bradburn

Miss Pollock's pupils acquitted themselves in a most satisfactory way, their style and evident intelligence grasp of their pieces, giving evidence of capable, conscientious and painstaking instruction.

THE IDEAL WIFE

Shapes the Destiny of Men—The Influence of a Healthy Woman Cannot Be Overestimated.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

Seven-eighths of the men in this world marry a woman because she is beautiful in their eyes—because she has the qualities which inspire admiration, respect and love.

There is a beauty in health which is more attractive to men than mere regularity of feature. The influence of women glorious in the possession of perfect physical health upon men and upon the civilisation of the world could never be measured. Because of them men have attained the very heights of ambition; because of them even thrones have been established and destroyed.

What a disappointment then, to see the fair young wife's beauty fading away before a year passes over her head! A sickly, half-dead-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a damper to all joyousness in the home, and a drag upon her husband.

The cost of a wife's constant illness is a serious drain upon the funds of a household, and too often all the doctoring does no good.

If a woman finds her energies are flagging, and that everything tires her, dark shadows appear under her eyes, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams; if she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, or despondency, she should take means to build her system up at once by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

This great remedy for women has done more in the way of restoring health to the women of America than all other medicines put together. It is the safeguard of woman's health.

Following we publish, by request, a letter from a young wife.

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, of 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so that I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for other women who are in poor health and ailing.

Its benefits begin when its use begins. It gives strength and vigor from the start, and surely makes sick women well and robust.

Remember Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of woman's ills. This fact is attested to by the thousands of letters from grateful women which are on file in the Pinkham laboratory.

Women should remember that a cure for all female diseases actually exists, and that cure is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Meeting Postponed

It was the intention of Peterborough Lodge of Elks to hold a dramatic evening in the Foresters' Hall, Simcoe street, on Tuesday night of this week, but it will have to be postponed on account of the hall being engaged for that night. The date of the meeting will be announced later.

Life's Magnet

Rev. Alex. Graham, of Parkhill, was the speaker at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday, and gave a very timely and healthful address on "Life's Magnets," illustrating the two attracting forces—those of evil and good—of Satan and of God. At the close of the address a number requested prayer, and one man during the evening confessed Christ for the first time.

Stainer's Crucifixion

It is proposed to combine the choirs of the three Anglican Churches in this city to render the above work in each church during the present season of Lent. This should compose a choir of trained voices nearly seventy strong and should lay the foundation for an Anglican Choral Union. Active rehearsals commence this week under the direction of Mr. R. J. Devey.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND PLEASURES THEMES OF SERMONS YESTERDAY

Here the rector concluded his sermon to be continued next Sunday evening.

IS THE YOUNG MAN SAFE? QUESTION ANSWERED

Interesting Service for Young Men Held at Springville Presbyterian Church Last Night.

THE LADIES TOOK THE SERVICES.

The Presbyterian church in Springville last night was crowded to the doors, when the second sermon in the series to young men, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Marsh, on the subject, "Is the Young Man Safe?" was preached. The question from the standpoint of the mother was dealt with last night in an interesting manner. The ladies of the congregation took complete charge of the service, and conducted it entirely, outside of the sermon.

The order of service was as follows:—

Chant, by the choir, "My God and Father while I Stray."

Invocation.

"There is no name so sweet on earth," Choir.

91st Psalm in Unison.

"Tell Me the Old, Old Story," Choir.

Sermon.

"Saviour Breathe an Evening Blessing," Choir.

"Safe in Glory Land," Choir.

During the sermon the choir sang two selections impromptu, "My Mother's Bible," and "My Mother's Prayer."

In answering the question, "Is the Young Man Safe?" the preacher said that he was not if the mothers gave the best rooms in the house to the visitors and strangers and make the boy put up with the attic. He is not safe if the girls are given all the music and refinement.

The boy is not safe if the mother has lost her throne in the home, and is a drudge or a society-bound woman, neither is he safe if his mother is not a Christian. The boy should be taught the Bible in the home by the mother who should also pray with him, and finally every effort should be made to bring him into the kingdom and into the church.

Next Sunday night the boys of the church will take the centre seats and the sermon will be directed to them specially, and it is expected that on the following Sunday night there will be a service for men only.

ANOTHER WHISKEY CASE HEARD

Mr. T. Cavanagh Charged With Selling Liquor After Hours—No Conviction Was Made.

Mr. Jos. Stewart, the local License Inspector, brought a charge against Mr. T. Cavanagh, the Simcoe street hotel keper, for selling whisky after 7 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 16th. Mr. Haverson appeared for the defendant, and no conviction was brought against Mr. Cavanagh. A farmer named Lentic bought half a gallon of malt whiskey in Mr. Alex. Elliott's during the early part of Saturday, and left in the bar in Cavanagh's until he was going home. At 8 p.m. he called for it and Mr. Jas. Cavanagh handed it to him from the bar room. Mr. Stewart was present and misapprehended this action. He thought Mr. Cavanagh was selling it. Mr. Haverson said that any real cause for complaint against the defendant had surely been dislodged by the evidence that clearly showed the accused was not guilty. This concluded the case, the charge being groundless.

NICE HAIR FOR ALL

Once Destroy the Dandruff Germ, and Hair Grows Luxuriantly

Anyone can have nice hair if he or she has not dandruff, which causes brittle dry hair, falling hair and baldness. To cure dandruff it is necessary to kill the germ that causes it, and that is just what Newbro's Herpicide does. Cornelius Grew, Colfax, Wash., says:

One bottle of Newbro's Herpicide completely cured me of dandruff, which was very thick; and it has stopped my hair from falling out." It makes hair soft and glossy as silk; delightful odor, and refreshing hair dressing. It permits the hair to grow adundantly, and kills the dandruff germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in satmps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Young People And Pleasures
Themes Of Sermons Yesterday; Sunday In The City Churches

WINTER PLEASURES SUBJECT OF SERMON

REV. J. R. WEBB,
Who last night in Murray Street Church preached first of a series of sermons to young people.

YESTERDAY was first Sunday in Lent, and in view of this fact appropriate services were held in the Anglican and Roman Catholic churches, by the members of which Lent is observed. In All Saints' and St. Luke's churches the rectors commenced series of sermons in connection with the observation of Lent, and in St. John's church special reference was made to the season of self-denial.

In the Murray street Baptist church the pastor, Rev. J. R. Webb, preached the first of a series of special sermons to young people, his subject for last night being "Winter Amusements," and in the Springville Presbyterian church the second of a series of sermons on young men's problems was preached by Rev. Dr. Marsh. Special interest was lent to the services in the Charlotte street Methodist by reason of the fact that Mr. R. N. Jolliffe, of Toronto sang at both morning and evening services, and also because at the latter the pastor referred in his sermon to the tendency to unseemly and unwarranted mirthfulness of the present day.

INTERESTING MUSICAL SERVICES AT CHARLOTTE ST. METHODST CHURCH

The congregation in the Charlotte street Methodist church yesterday, and it was more than ordinarily large was given a musical treat. Mr. R. Norman Jolliffe, of Toronto, who has been spending a few days in the city visiting, was present and sang at both services. Mr. Jolliffe has been heard in Peterborough frequently since he left to pursue his musical studies in Toronto, and each time with increasing pleasure, and in this respect yesterday was no exception. At the morning service he sang two solos, "King David's Lament," by Swift, after the lesson and the offertory solo was Johnston's "Face to Face." At the evening service he was again heard with delight, his selection being Behrend's setting of Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar." In the morning the choir sang as an anthem, "O Worship the King," by Hall, with soprano solo by Miss Howell, and at night, "Sun of My Soul," in which solos were taken by Miss Bellegham and Mr. Clarke.

In the afternoon, in the Sunday School, Miss Scott, of Clinton, sang very effectively, "Jesus, Saviour, Pilot Me."

EVANGELISTIC BAND TOOK THE SERVICE AT MARK ST. CHURCH

Yesterday morning the service in the Mark Street Methodist Church was conducted by the Evangelistic Band of the Y.M.C.A., in the absence of the pastor, Rev. J. G. Lewis, in the country. Messrs. Williamson, Harding, Thornton and Northey comprise the band, and each took part in the service, Messrs. Williamson and Harding giving short addresses and Mr. Thornton sang. The congregation, which was a large one, thoroughly enjoyed the service.

To-night the Epworth League will meet, Miss Bessie Crowe taking charge of the meeting, and the topic will be dealt with by Mr. Armstrong, of the Charlotte street League. The prayer meeting will be held as usual on Wednesday night, and in the afternoon the W. M. S. reading circle will meet at the residence of Mrs. Wand, Burnham street. The cottage prayer meeting will be held on Friday at the residence of Mr. Porter, Mark street.

PEOPLE IN THIS AGE MAD IN PURSUIT OF PLEASURE

The incongruity of mirth-making at a time when the conditions do not warrant it, was the subject dealt with last night, in a sermon preached in the Charlotte street Methodist church by the pastor. In this age, said Mr. Manning, the people are pleasure mad, and the most prevalent sounds one hears are sounds of mirth.

Get up a hockey match between two teams of well-known ability, and ten thousand people will flock to the scene of the game, that they may be entertained and amused.

This is a time of impenitence, both in the church, and out of it. Whenever, he asked, did you see a man in this town deeply moved because of the fact that he had sinned?

The conditions to-day were similar to those described in old Testament times, when the people were warned that this was no time for mirth. In these days people want sensations — there is a mad craze for mirth.

The speaker did not wish to be understood as condemning mirth, under warranted conditions. It was permissable and commendable under some circumstances, but he held that in the condition of the people at the present time, this could not be said.

MANY SERVICES TO BE HELD THIS WEEK IN ALL SAINT'S CHURCH

A large number of meetings will be held in All Saints' Church this week. Services will be conducted on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock. To-night the Girls' Guild and Woman's Guild will meet at 7.30, and to-morrow afternoon at 2.30 the W. A. will hold its meeting. There will be a special practice of the choir on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock, and on Wednesday night the regular meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew will be held. The Junior Auxiliary will meet at 4.15 on Thursday, and the service will be held at 7.45, with choir practice at 8.30. The Boys' Brigade will meet on Friday at 8 o'clock.

THE MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY AT CHARLOTTE ST. CHURCH

The services in connection with the Missionary Anniversary of the Charlotte street Methodist church will be held on Sunday and Monday, March 3rd and 4th. On Sunday sermons will be preached by Rev. Mr. Norman, who spent several years in Mission work in Japan, and who at the present time is in Canada on furlough. The usual collections in aid of this fund will be taken up on Sunday. On Monday following a Missionary rally will be held in the Epworth League, when addresses on topics associated with Mission work will be given.

AN ASTRONOMICAL LECTURE BY NOTED ASTRONOMY STUDENT

On Tuesday night, Feb. 26 an address will be given in the Sunday School room of the Charlotte street Methodist church by Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Springville Presbyterian church on the subject of Astronomy, in which the reverend doctor is very deeply interested. The title of his subject will be "A Night in the Skies." The lecture will be given under the auspices of the Young Men's Guild, and will be free. This evening's programme promises to be one of more than usual interest, and no doubt many will avail themselves of the opportunity of learning something that will undoubtedly prove an interesting study. The lecture will be illustrated.

CANADIAN INDIANS AND MISSION WORK IN THEIR BEHALF

At the meeting of the Epworth League of the Charlotte street Methodist church to-night the topic, which will be in charge of the Missionary Committee will be taken by Miss Sherlock, and the subject dealt with will be one of more than usual interest—the Indian Mission work in the Canadian Northwest.

WEEK'S FIXTURES; MONTHLY MEETINGS, QUARTERLY BOARD

On Tuesday afternoon at 2.30 the regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of the Charlotte street Methodist church will be held. At night the adjourned meeting of the Quarterly Board of the same church will be held and on the following afternoon, Wednesday, the Sewing Circle in connection with the Ladies' Aid Society will meet.

MR. F. D. KERR WILL TELL STORY OF TRIP TO THE CONTINENT

To-morrow night the regular meeting of the Young Men's Guild of St. Paul's Church will be held, when Mr. F. D. Kerr will give an address in which he will describe his recent trip to Europe.

The monthly meeting of the Fraser Mission Band will be held to-morrow night at the residence of Rev. Dr. Torrance.

An important meeting of the Board of Managers and the Session will be held to-morrow night, when some matters of interest will be dealt with by those bodies.

SENSATIONS AND PLEASURE CRAZE

REV. H. M. MANNING,
Who last night condemned the mad craze for mirth, characteristic of present day.

YOUNG MEN'S GUILD OF ST. ANDREW'S MEET TO-MORROW NIGHT

To-night the regular meeting of the Young People's Society, of St. Andrew's church, will be held, when an interesting programme will be presented. The monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3.30, and at night the Young Men's Guild will meet. A debate is on the programme for to-morrow night and it will no doubt be of interest.

SEE THE GREAT ASSEMBLY OF
NEW SPRING DRESS GOODS
SIX WEEKS UNTIL EASTER

WE ARE READY FOR BUSINESS. During the past month every steamer crossing the trackless ocean has brought cases of New Spring Goods direct from manufacturers in England, Ireland, France, Germany and Switzerland and every case labeled,—direct and rush—addressed to R. Hall & Son's, Peterboro. We clearly foresaw the necessity of early delivery, owing to Easter coming early as it does, and now we take the people (as it were) by storm and make a complete showing of all the newest, richest and select Dress Fabrics that has ever been the privilege of the Dress department to display for public criticism.

It would seem absurd to suggest any improvement in texture and finish of the Fabrics of last Spring but improvement is the watchword to the artist weaver "it's a fact" every dress length in this assembly of Fabrics seems so different—new patterns, new weaves, new blending of shades and a certain elegance and degree of beauty that characterizes Fashion for 1907.

THESE NEW CREATIONS COMPRISE LIGHT GRAY TWEEDS AND WORSTEDS, SUPERIOR QUALITIES OF STYLISH CHECKS AND STRIPES, AND LARGE ASSORTMENT OF EXCLUSIVE DRESS ROBES OF FRENCH, GERMAN AND ENGLISH ORIGIN.

Young People And Pleasures Themes Of Sermons Yesterday; Sunday In The City Churches

Bible Class will be held at the residence of Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr.,' to which all members are invited. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock sharp.

On Wednesday, at 7.30 p.m., a meeting of the Chancel Chapter of the Guild will be held in the vestry. All members and others interested in the work are requested to be present.

The Wednesday evening service will be held at 8 o'clock, and Rev. Herbert Ben. Oliel, of Millbrook, will be the special preacher. After the Wednesday evening service a meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is called.

The Woman's Auxiliary meets on Thursday at 2.30 o'clock. A meeting of the Executive will be held after the evening meeting.

At the Friday evening Lenten service Rev. Edwin Daniel, Port Hope, will be the special preacher.

The Mission Band meets on Friday at 4.15 o'clock at Mrs. Scott's residence, Mark street.

Next Sunday morning the Sunday School children will attend service at 11 a.m.

At the evening service next Sunday several young men will be admitted as members of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

TORONTO RECTOR WILL ADDRESS THE WEDNESDAY SERVICE

The services in St. John's Church yesterday, the first Sunday in Lent, were well attended, the congregation at night being composed largely of men. The rector commenced his series of special Lenten addresses, his subject last night being "Jesus, the Good Shepherd."

To-night the King's Daughters and the Girls' Auxiliary will meet at 7.30, and at 8 o'clock the Young Peoples' Association will meet, when Rev. E. A. Langfeldt will give his lecture on "Success."

To-morrow night the cottage prayer meeting will be held at 7.45, and the Girls' Guild will meet at 8 o'clock. The W. A. will meet in the afternoon at 3 o'clock.

At the Wednesday evening service the address will be given by Rev. A. J. Fidler, rector of Grace Church, Toronto.

The Mission Band will meet Friday afternoon at 4.15.

At Matin in St. John's yesterday a large choir sang the service heartily and gave two of Chappell's "Offertory Sentences" during the offertory.

At Evensong the music was in line with the subject of the sermon, "The Good Shepherd," the offertory selections from Handel's "Messiah," "He Shall Feed His Flock" and "Come Unto Me," being admirably sung by Mrs. Seward and Mrs. R. J. Devey.

A large body of men attended this service, many coming in from the fellowship tea given by members of St. John's congregation under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, at 5.30 p.m.

WINTER EVENING AMUSEMENTS THE SUBJECT

Rev. J. D. Webb Preached First of Series of Special Sermons Last Night.

REFERENCE WAS MADE TO SKATERS.

At the Murray street Baptist church last night, the pastor, Rev. J. R. Webb preached the first of three special sermons to young people. As stated by Rev. Mr. Webb last night, these sermons are in answer to questions asked by some of the young people of the congregation, and are not intended to be sensational in the least. "I couldn't be sensational," said the pastor; "and I would not be if I could."

There was a very large congregation present last night, especially of young people.

Rev. Mr. Webb spoke from the text, I. Tim. iv, 8, "For bodily exercise profiteth little, but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come."

In commencing, he stated that the Bible always sympathised with young people; it was the young peoples' book. He enlarged this point by giving three messages of St. Paul to Timothy. The first was, "Let no man despise your youth;" secondly, "refuse profane and old wives' fables;" and, thirdly, the first part of the text, "bodily exercise profiteth little." This, he stated, should not read as if meaning bodily exercise profiteth but little, but, rather, profiteth a little.

REV. DR. MARSH, SPRINGVILLE,
Who is arousing deep interest by his series of special sermons on "Young Men's Problems."

The question was often asked,—"Am I, being a Christian, deprived from indulgence in amusements that are enjoyed by other young people?" "The young man who is really a Christian," said Rev. Mr. Webbb, does not need anyone to make laws for him."

The speaker went on to point out that man had a physical, social, moral, and spiritual side, and to neglect any one of these was deplorable. "Few things breathe more of vice than an unexercised body does," said the speaker. "Some of us," he continued, "need physical exercise as much as a carriage does five wheels, while others, whose employment is sedentary is is a necessity."

Speaking of the manner in which this was to be obtained, Rev. Mr. Webb said, "I can see no possible harm coming from a moderate indulgence in the most popular of winter sports; I refer to skating. It is however a matter to be deplored that when either a young man or a young woman becomes so thoroughly infatuated with it, that his or her mind and heart are centered upon the pastime." The speaker quoted from the address of Rev. Dr. Johnston, of Montreal, in Toronto, last week, to the effect that it was a serious thing that young men should pick up a newspaper and read only the sporting page.

The Christian should be one everywhere, whether he has skates on his feet or a hockey stick in his hand, the spirit of Jesus Christ should be manifested. He or she should choose his or her company. They should refuse to honour with their company those who refused to honour their principles. "The young man who asks you for a single hour of your time, that belongs to your God, your home, or your mother, does not honour your principles."

"The young man," continued the speaker, "who is a Christian, and who can shout himself hoarse over the result of some hockey match, cannot be excused for keeping dumb at prayer meeting. The young lady who can skate backwards better than she can sew a seam forwards, has not completed her education."

In conclusion the speaker dealt with the latter part of the text, "Godliness is profitable unto all things." The statement was made that when the final audit was taken, it would be seen that the wealthiest man on the earth, away from God, does not possess as much pleasure as the poorest saint in the world.

PRODIGAL SON THE SUBJECT OF SERMON

Rev. Wm. Major Preaches First of Series of Sermons for Lent--Some Lessons From This Parable.

CONTINUE THE SERIES OF SERMONS

The Prodigal Son was the topic of the first Sunday evening sermon in Lent in All Saints' church. It was the old story of a headstrong boy told in a new way, but with the same old meaning. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and the congregation was well repaid for attending. Rev. Wm. Major has chosen the parable of the prodigal son as a subject for a series of Sunday evening sermons, and as he has always given the people a particularly good address when he takes up a series of talks, everyone expected to hear something out of the ordinary and they were not disappointed.

Rev. Mr. Major took his text from the 15th chapter of St. Luke and the 11th and 15th verses: "A certain man had two sons and the younger of them said to his father—"Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me," and he divided unto them his living."

In opening his address Mr. Major drew a verbal picture of a household in easy circumstances. There was the father with great love for his two boys; the self-righteous son and the younger son, who was of a sinful nature. But preeminent was the love of the father. They had lived together for many years. The two boys had reached manhood and the younger became discontented and sinful.

The origin of sin is the assertion by the creature of its independence of God. Man's fall preceeded the fall of Satan and his colleagues when Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden asserted their independence by partaking of the forbidden fruit. Satan is a rebel and he is constantly exciting others to rebel against God's supremacy. Even to-day men listen to the sophistry of the devil until they get the idea that God is a tyrant instead of a loving Father.

Take the young son's request — "Give to me my portion of the goods." He had reached the age of manhood and he did not want to be treated as he thought, like a big baby. He wanted to have his own money, and to be his own "boss." He wanted to live as he saw fit and to never have to think.

His father heard his son's request, and without saying a word divided his goods and gave the younger son his portion. But there was a look of sadness in the old man's face which the boy saw and that was the bitter drop in his cup of happiness. He could not live at home and live the life he wanted to, so in a few days he gathered all his possessions together and went into a far country where he undertook to show the people how a young man with means should live.

VESSELS COLLIDED IN A GALE

Str. Orianda Sunk By the Str. Heliopolis Off Welsh Coast.

CAPTAIN AND 13 DROWNED

Six of Crew Were Rescued By a Pilot Boat But One of Them Died From Exhaustion—Collision Took Place In Gale, With Heavy Seas Running, But the Heliopoli's Drifted Away.

Cardiff, Feb. 18.—The British steamer Heliopolis collided Saturday midnight with the British steamer Orianda, outward bound from Penarth.

The Orianda sank and fourteen persons, including her captain, were drowned.

The Heliopolis put into this port with her bows damaged.

The steamer Helipolis had been chartered to convey 2,000 Spanish emigrants to Honolulu. She was at Barry, Wales, Saturday, and was to proceed to Malaga for the emigrants.

The Orlanda was of 1,500 tons displacement, and belonged to the Oriental Steamship Co. of Liverpool.

The night was clear, but there was a gale blowing and a heavy sea running. The Orlanda, which was coal-laden for Spezzina, was struck between the engine room and the stokehole and so badly damaged that she immediately began to fill and heeled over and sank within half an hour.

The Heliopolis drifted away without rendering assistance.

The captain mustered all the Orianda's nineteen men on deck.

Each was given a lifebelt and jumped into the sea. Six of them reached a waterlogged lifeboat, the only boat it was possible to launch, the other having been smashed at the time of the collision and all of them, with the exception of one who died from exhaustion, were rescued by a pilot boat after suffering greatly from exposure.

AWFUL DEATH OF 7 SAILORS.

Boiler Explosion on Fruit Steamer Results In Harrowing Loss of Life.

New York, Feb. 18.—The Hamburg-American line steamer Valdivia, fruit-laden from the West Indies, came into port Saturday with her forward decks shattered, her funnel flat upon the deck and the story of a boiler explosion on board last Wednesday morning which caused the instant death of seven members of the crew and the serious injury of another.

The exploding boiler was known as the auxiliary and supplied steam to the various hoisting engines, steam capstans, steam steering gear, etc. Steam was being increased by forced draught, when suddenly there came a "puff," as it was described Saturday, and [illegible] in the companionway of the forward "tween" decks. The companionway was literally choked with the dead. Many of the men were actually blown to pieces. The sight was appalling.

Raymore Committed Bigamy.

Toronto, Feb. 18.—The inquest into the death of Mrs. Mary C. Charlton, who was shot by John Raymore at 100 West Richmond street Friday night, was opened by Coroner Young at Humphrey's undertaking parlors Saturday at noon. After viewing the body, taking the evidence of the police as to the discovery of the bodies, the inquest was adjourned till Monday night. It developed that a marriage certificate found among the effects of the dead woman showed that Mrs. Charlton was really the wife of Raymore. The marriage took place at Buffalo on July 1, 1904. Young Charlton states that it was some time after the ceremony that his mother knew of the first Mrs. Raymore. Not wishing to have him placed in jail as a bigamist, she had resolved to go across the line at Easter and get a divorce. She told him she intended to do so; and this led to their final quarrel and separation.

AFTER SICKNESS.

HOW TO REGAIN STRENTH.

Our Local Druggists, McDermid & Jury, Give Some Suggestions—We Vouch for Their Sincerity.

During the past few months there has been a great deal of sickness of one kind and another in Peterborough, largely induced by the recent unseasonable weather.

In speaking of this to Mr. McDermid of the above firm, the other day, he said: "Yes, there has been, and is, a lot of sickness in the city, and while most people get over the acute stage rather quickly, it leaves the blood impoverished, and it is hard to regain lost vitality. The patient's strength is depleted, the system generally demoralized and relapses are continually feared.

The one thing to aid recovery is to give the patient a blood building and strength restoring tonic, one that will give strength to every organ in the body.

"Now, truthfully," continued Mr. McDermid, "I don't believe there is another remedy in the country equal to our delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, for making rich, red blood, and building up strength. I say this from an intimate knowledge of almost every medicine on the market, and after duly considering what Vinol is, and has done.

"Vinol contains every one of the body-building medicinal elements of cod liver oil, without one drop of oil to retard its work and this with organic iron, which is a needful constituent for the blood, dissolved in a delicious table wine, makes Vinol. It acts directly on the stomach, creates a healthy appetite, and enables the digestive organs to obtain the necessary elements to make rich, red blood, healthy flesh and muscle tissue, and create strength, and you know what your are taking."

Continued Mr. McDermid "You are no one need take my word for what Vinol will do, and it is because of such proof that we solemnly agree that if it does no good where it is recommended that it shall not cost a penny. That's fair, isn't it?" McDermid & Jury, druggists. Vinol is also sold at the Market Drug Store, The Ormond & Walsh old stand.

A TRAIN WRECK IN NEW YORK

New York Central Express Derailed In the Broux.

TWENTY PERSONS KILLED

Fifty Seriously Out of 145 Persons Injured—President of the Cape Breton Railway Among Dead—Train Was Running 70 Miles An Hour—Third Rail Broke At a Sharp Curve—Dead and Injured.

New York, Feb. 18.—Twenty dead, two fatally hurt, and 145 others more or less seriously injured, is the result of the wreck of the electric express train on the New York Central Railroad at 205th street and Webster-avenue Saturday night.

Of the large number of injured, fifty, according to hospital and police reports, are seriously hurt, and the death list may increase within the next 24 hours.

Most of the others are suffering from lacerations or shock, and will recover.

The wrecked train was the Pawling and Brewster local. It was made up of two motor engines, one combination smoking and baggage car, one regular smoking car and three day coaches.

Every seat in all of these cars were filled when the train left the Grand Central Station at 6.06 o'clock for the next stop at White Plains.

A Long Red Blur.

As the train drew northward Motorman Rogers increased the power and the houses on either side of the cars began to take on the appearance of a long red blur. The speed grew alarming, the survivors of the wreck declare. Many of them declared it was fully sixty miles an hour. Others said it was seventy miles an hour, though it was slowed slightly when they approached the curve that was to send some of them to sudden death and others to lifelong injury.

When on the very sharpest point of the curve when a sudden crash was heard.

When the Wreck Occurred.

When the wreck occurred the three rear coaches, filled with passengers, were thrown on their right sides just above a sharp curve at Woodlawn-road bridge. The shock was terrific. People were hurled violently from their seats and most of those who were killed were pitched through the windows as the cars slid along on their sides. The third rail held for a time, but finally broke with a flash and a roar seen and heard for a great distance. It was between the wreck of the "current" rail and the main track that the bodies were wedged. They were held here as the cars bounded along, and in this way were terribly mangled.

Motorman Rogers' Statesment.

The cause of the wreck is still a matter of speculation.

Perhaps the most significant statement of the day was the one made by Coroner Schwannecke. He had secured a statement from Motorman Rogers of the wrecked train. In this, according to the coroner, the motorman said that he was running of schedule time when the accident occurred, and he admitted that the speed of his train was 70 miles an hour. Rogers, the coroner said, declares that he did not know anything was wrong until an eighth of a mile beyond the place of derailment. Then, said the coroner, it was another eighth of a mile before the motors came to a standstill.

Rogers declared the motors did not leave the tracks.

The State Railway Commission is preparing to make a searching enquiry.

Prominent Engineer a Victim.

Myron E. Evans of White Plains, N.Y., killed, was president of the Cape Breton Railroad, and was one of the best known consulting engineers in the country. Mr. Evans was on his way to his home in White Plains from his office here. In the engineering world Mr. Evans bore a name second to few in prominence, and he was considered the greatest expert upon Canadian railway property and development in the country. He was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers. He leaves a family in White Plains.

The Dead.

Mrs. Florence Brady, Goldensbridge, died in Lincoln Hospital; Miss Linie Elwell, stenographer, Hawthorne; Myron E. Evans, White Plains; Mrs. Katherine K. Farrand, Pleasantville; Miss Jessie M. Jubin, teacher, White Plains; Mrs. Mary Kinch, Chappaqua; Clara L. Hudson, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Annie H. McLain, widow, aged 60, sister-in-law of Superintendent Lyons of the Bloomingdale Lusane Asylum; Miss Annie Moorhead, Briarcliffe Manor, also reported as formerly a resident of Pittsburg, Pa.; E. L. Page, White Plains; Cornelius Kelly, North Salem; Robert J. Rosborough, White Plains, employe of W. & J. Sloane, New York City; Julia W. Storm, Bedford station; Mrs. Isaac L. Seriously Injured.

Ira J. Dutton, White Plains; Emily Fendrack, White Plains; Miss Belle Fowler, Pleasantville; Sarah Merritt, Pleasantville, dangerously; Margaret Mahoney, Purdy station; Ernest Moll, Mount Kisco; James A. McNichol, New York City; Annie O'Shea, White Plains; Mabel Smith, aged 13, Onconta, probably fatally; Elsie Sniffen, Elmwood, N.J., probably fatally; Josephine Sharp, Briarcliffe Manor; Charlotte Young, Pleasantville; unknown girl, unconscious in Fordham Hospital, skull fractured.

The New York Central Railroad has a list of 125 names of other persons said to have been injured, but in the great majority of the cases the injuries were slight and most of the persons went at once to their homes.

Montreal Train Derailed.

Kingston, Dec. 18.—On account of rails spreading, G.T.R. passenger train No. 4, which left Toronto at 9 o'clock yesterday morning for Montreal, ran off the track near Rideau. All the cars were derailed, the engine alone staying on the rails. A special train was sent out from Brookville, transferred passengers and left for Montreal about 6.30 p.m.

Collision In Tunnel.

Hamilton, Feb. 18.—A T. H. & B. engine and freight train collided in the west end of the tunnel Saturday night. Two freight cars were wrecked, one being completely destroyed, and the other partly destroyed by a fire. Conductor Garson narrowly escaped injury in the collision.

Killed Between Cars.

Niagara Falls, Feb. 18.—Roy Cooper, aged 21 years, Grand Trunk yardman, had his head pinned between the beams of two coaches while fastening the coupling chains about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. He died during the afternoon.

Cannibalism In Papua.

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 18.—Advices from Australia say that H. M. S. Promotheus, a British warship, placed in the vicinity of the group to protect the returning blacks, shelled the Village of Sieuwa on Militia Island.

From Papua news was brought of a punitive expedition following a raid on a Cape Cupola village, two children being murdered and eaten at a cannibal feast.

Withdrawing Jap Troops.

Tokio, Feb. 18.—It has been learned that the Japanese Government in replying to Russia's notice of withdrawal of troops from Manchuria forthwith, called attention to the fact that Japan effected nearly complete withdrawal during last year and was even now contemplating reducing its railway guards to a minimum.

Leading Slowly to Paralysis

BE EARLY DETECTED AND CURE BROUGHT ABOUT BY USING

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

It is customary to consider paralysis, insanity and other diseases of the nerves as afflictions which come upon a person without warning and which are, therefore, unavoidable.

As a matter of fact such results are preceded by months, if not years, of symptoms which point to an exhausted condition of the nervous system. These symptoms are such, however, that many pass them by as not being of serious concern and thinking that they will wear away of themselves.

Sleeplessness, nervous headaches, indigestion, bodily weakness, fainting spells, twitching of the nerves, inability to concentrate the thoughts and loss of memory are among the most common indications of a run-down nervous system. It is sometimes only a step from such symptoms to prostration, paralysis, locomotor ataxia or insanity.

Stimulants and narcotics, though sometimes affording temporary relief, only hasten the exhaustion of the nerves. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, on the other hand, reconstructs and restores the wasted and depleted nerve cells.

Naturally, gradually and certainly this great medicine instils into the blood and the nervous system the life-sustaining principles which replenish the nerve force in the body and so effect lasting benefit.

Miss Emma Scott, Athens, Ont., writes: "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food has done me a world of good. I was troubled with fainting spells, bodily weakness and spent restless, sleepless nights. I frequently had cramps in the stomach and would at times become entirely insensible, not knowing what was going on until others told me afterwards.

"I doctored with several doctors and they told me I was threatened with paralysis. They gave me relief, but could not cure me. After suffering for three years I began the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and it has done me more good than all the medicines I ever used."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

WHAT BIG COMPANY WANTS.

Applies to Ottawa for Declaration That It Is For "the General Advantage of Canada."

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—Notice is given in The Canada Gazette of an application by the Hamilton Electric Railway Co. (incorporated in Ontario), to amend its charter by providing for the extension of its line of railway from Mimico to some point within the limits of the City of Toronto; for authority to purchase, lease or amalgamate with the Brantford and Hamilton Electric Railway Co., the Hamilton, Grimsby and Beamsville Electric Railway Co., and any other electric railway running into the City of Hamilton; to construct a line of railway from Brantford through the counties of Brant, Oxford, Elgin, Kent and Essex, to Detroit River at or near Windsor; to build and operate ferry steamers, and to conduct a ferry system across the Detroit River; to extend its line of railway to Niagara River, and to construct an international bridge over the Niagara River, or to enter into a contract or contracts for the use of any bridge, already or hereafter constructed, over Niagara River; to extend the time for the completion of the construction of its various branches and for power to contruct branches in different directions within the limits of the County of Wentworth, and for increasing its bonded power, with provision for special bonding powers in respect of terminals in the City of Toronto, a bridge over Niagara River and ferries over Detroit River; also for power to interchange traffic and freight and freight cars, with all steam and other railways crossed by or crossing or connecting with the petitioner's railway; and to be declared a railway for the general advantage of Canada."

STOMACH TROUBLES

To wrong action of the stomach and impaired digestion a host of diseases owe their origin.

When the food is imperfectly digested the full benefit is not derived from it by the body, and then stomach troubles start to appear.

Thus you become thin, weak, nervous and debilitated, energy is lacking, brightness, snap and vigor are lost and in their place come dullness, dizziness, loss of appetite, depression and langour. The great point is to get the stomach back into good shape again so it can properly digest the food, and the easiest, quickest and best way to do it is by the use of

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

Miss Lizzie Furlotte, Jacquet River, N.B., writes: "I was very much troubled with my stomach and did not know what to do. I consulted several doctors, got medicine from them, but all to no purpose, and was constantly growing worse. One day I had the good luck to meet with a friend who had been troubled in the same way as myself. My friend told me of the wonderful cure Burdock Blood Bitters had made with her and advised me to try a bottle. I did so, and what a happy change the first bottle made. I took two more and am completely cured, and I shall ever sing the praises of B.B.B."

Price $1.00 per bottle or 6 bottles for $5.00.

Whitcroft Pleased The Kenora Hockey Experts

The Kenora Miner and News, in its issue of Wednesday last gives a report of the game in that town on Monday night between the Winnipeg Strathconas and the Kenora Thistles. Reference is made to the work of Whitcroft, the Peterborough recruit on the Stanley Cup team, and the News says of him:—

Whitcroft the new rover, was also watched by the experts, and he made good. He is very much of the Kenora-bred type of hockeyist, which is at present the best in the world. Swift, steady, sure and at times dashing, no mistake was apparently made in the selection. He played a splendid game Monday night, and well-earned the approval of the crowd. He may have at times felt strange on western ice, but he exhibited no shyness. In addition to his qualities as a hockey player, he is a gentlemenly fellow, which is a recognized requisite for the champions.

ALL IN READINESS FOR THE BIG BONSPIEL

A Merry Time Awaits the Visiting and Local Lovers of the Curling Game.

PLAY BEGINS TO-MORROW AFTERNOON.

The Bonspiel Committee have everything in readiness for the reception of their visiting brethren to-morrow. They expect a larger number of rinks than have ever before assembled here for the great annual bonspiel. The six sheets of ice at the Charlotte street rink are not sufficient to accommodate the curlers so that they have made provision for the Brock street rink, thus giving an extra accommodation of four rinks.

The draws will be made at one o'clock to-morrow afternoon at the Charlotte street rink and immediately after the games will begin. It is not exactly known how many visiting rinks will be here but 10 local rinks have signified their intentions to enter.

There will be 5 prizes for the winners—two for the primary and three for the consolation competition.

The first prize for the primary consists of 4 pairs of red hone curling stones and the second, four Roman gold mounted clocks. For the consolation, the first prize is four handbags, the second, 4 pair solid gold cuff links, and the third, 4 fountain pens.

Fourteen ends will constitute a game until the finals is reached when 18 ends must be played.

The committee in charge of the bonspiel consists of Messrs. T F Matthews, C Rutherford, W J Thompson, R Neill, H R H Kenner, D Davidson, H Foote, W McIlroy, G Giroux and R M Waddell.

ORIENTAL TO HAVE RETURNS OF GAME

Bulletins of the Big Match in Toronto To-night Will be Given.

Arrangements have been made by which the Oriental Hotel will receive complete returns of the game between Midland and Kingston at Toronto to-night. This will be welcome news to the large number of fans who are interested in the result of the struggle. A special wire has been installed in the office and as each goal is scored the result will be announced.

HOCKEY

EACH HALF A GAME.

According to the following, each half of to-night's contest will count as a game: At the Mutual Street Rink, Midland and Kingston 14th Regiment will play a double-header. Only one game will be played, but each half will count as a contest in itself. It was originally arranged to play at Peterborough, but Midland objected. Both teams will be strong, and under the conditions the match should be fast.—Globe.

THAT LINDSAY TROUBLE.

Referee Waghorne reports that at Lindsay on Friday night, in the second game of the round with Belleville, the two cut loose, and tried to make a rough house of it. He ruled off 20 in the first half. At the close of the half Lindsay led by 7 to 1.

After the smoke cleared away only three were left on each side on the ice, and Referee Waghorne stated that under the circumstances he felt compelled to call it off, with 15 minutes to play, to prevent a burlesque, particularly as if he did his duty all but the two goal-keepers would have to be ruled off for illegal play.

The second half started with all players on the ice, but shortly after Stoddard of Lindsay went into the Belleville goal-keeper in making a shot, and a large-sized mix-up occured. The goal-keeper struck Stoddard with his stick, and Belleville says the Lindsay man whaled Phillips over the head, leaving him unconscious for an hour. As a result of this another fight occurred elsewhere and all four went off. Connelly and Randall were the pugilists and Connelly claimed he was unable to continue.

Belleville says that Lindsay agreed to finish three a side; and backed out when the eastern boys tallied five straight goals.

The O.H.A. sub-committee decided Saturday to order the two to play off the groups in a sudden-death game in Toronto on Tuesday.

Belleville will ask the O.H.A. to suspend Stoddard for deliberately striking Phillips.

St. Michaels, who were to play the Belleville-Lindsay winners, will instead go to Stratford on Wednesday, the return game being here on Friday.

MARRIED MEN AND SINGLE PLAYED TIE GAME

C. G. E. Machine Shop Championship is Still Not Decided.

WAS A MOST SPECTACULAR GAME.

In what will go down to posterity as the most spectacular contest ever seen at the Brock street rink, or any other sheet of ice, the married and single men of the C. G. E. machine shop played a drawn game on Saturday afternoon. The score at the end of an hour's strenuous playing was 5 all. Eight hundred and ninety-seven wildly excited spectators saw the contest, and thousands of dollars (conversation money) changed hands.

There was little to choose between the two teams — one was as bad as the other. The hockey was of a dazzling variety throughout with spectacular rushes, thrilling balancing feats, and other features that kept the crowd on its tip-toes continually.

Eugene Hurtubise was referee, and the single men claim that he double-crossed them. At one stage of the game he had four of them on the fence. He had an eagle eye for off sides and saw every one of them, although he quite frequently neglected to ring the bell, except when the Kids were in danger of scoring. Nigger Mowry was a star of the fulling variety, however, and owing to the damage he did to the ice will be barred from all future games in the Brock street rink. Dainard's work for the Benedicts was a feature. In the second half he picked the puck up and carried it in his hand the length of the rink for a score, while in the first half he very kindly played goal for the single men. Baldie Vass was a star in the nets, and was ably assisted by goal umpire Jimmy Callaghan, who helped him to turn the net around when the puck was near.

Buffalo Bill Denoon was clad in a suit of union blue and did all kinds of stunts for the Kids. Holland showed that he didn't belong to that game, as he played too much hockey for the rest of the bunch.

A WOMAN'S BACK WAS NOT MADE TO ACHE

Thousands of Women suffer Untold Misery Every Day with Aching Backs That Really have no Business to Ache.

Under ordinary conditions it ought to be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life.

It is hard to do housework with an aching back. Backache comes from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble sick kidneys cause.

But they can't help it. If more work is put on them than they can stand it is not to be wondered that they get out of order.

Backache is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from Kidney trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills

will cure you in the same way as they have cured thousands of others.

Mrs. Thos. Craig, Almonte, Ont., writes: "I was doctoring for six months for kidney trouble and my back was so lame I had to lie in bed. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills. I did so and in one week I was able to walk with very little pain, and in five months my back was as strong as ever.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers, or will be mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

THE PRINTERS HELD A DELIGHTFUL BANQUET

Fifth Annual on Saturday Night in the Foresters' Hall a Great Success.

AN EXCELLENT PROGRAMME PROVIDED

The fifth annual banquet of the Peterborough Typographical Union No. 248, held on Saturday night, was a delightful culmination to a week of labour. The Foresters' Hall on Simcoe street was the scene of the pleasant function, which was again the great success which has characterized the four similar events of the past. About sixty persons in all sat down to supper, including many members of the craft and their guests from the business and reportorial staffs of the three printing offices, and also representatives from other unions in the city.

The banquet hall was thrown open to the guests in the early evening and all sat down to the tempting spread about 9 o'clock. The toast list which followed was characterized by song, speech and story, which kept the merry company in a mirthful mood until almost midnight, when the gathering dispersed.

The committee in charge of the banquet are deserving of much praise for the smooth and excellent manner in which the affair was conducted. The printers demonstrated themselves to be good prophets in selecting a menu and programme in which all would be interested. There was no doubt that the wisdom and wit contained in many of the speeches were immediate results of the excellent variety of the provisions provided.

Mr. T. Hooper catered in his usual efficient manner to the wants of the assembly.

The Menu

Oysters.

Sugar-Cured Ham	Ox Tongue
Mashed Potatoes
Beet Salad	Potato Salad
Trifle	Wine Jelly
Raspberry Tarts	Fancy Biscuits
Tea	Coffee

The Toast List.

At the conclusion of supper, Mr. Chas. Reid, who presided, introduced the toast list by welcoming the representatives from the various unions and the other guests to the printers' banquet. He also read letters of regret from some of those unable to be present. After the King had been duly honoured, Mr. Albert Martin proposed the toast to the "Craft." Mr. Wm. Cowie responded by humorously giving a brief sketch of the growth of Peterborough during his forty years' residence here, and also of the advance which the printing trade had made.

Mr. Jas. Browne next rendered a tenor solo, with piano accompaniment by Mr. Geo. Schneider, which was greatly enjoyed. Mr. Browne was prevailed upon to respond to a hearty encore, which also delighted the audience.

"Our Guests" was then proposed by Mr. Robert Baker and responded to by Mr. J. J. Hartley, representing the Bricklayers' Union and others. Mr. Hartley was pleased to have the opportunity of attending the printers' banquet, and in a stirring address referred to the benefits of unionism and hoped that the Typographical Union would meet with continued success in the future.

Mr. Harry Theobald contributed a piano solo, which was followed by the toast to the "Employers," proposed by Mr. J. G. Perry. This was responded to by Messrs. F. H. Dobbin, F. R. Yokomo and R. M. Glover.

Coleman Bros. next contributed a comic song which greatly delighted the banquetters, and they responded to a spirited encore.

"The Sanctum," was proposed by Mr. T. J. Begley, and responded to by the representatives present.

The toast to the officers elect, was proposed by Mr. Chas. Reid, and responded to by Mr. T. J. Begley.

The Ladies were honoured by Mr. Thompson and Mr. Lorne Frank, who paid very many pretty compliments to the fair sex.

The delightful evening was brought to a close by a short address from the chairman, and the singing of the National anthem.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"THE GIRL PATSY"

"The Girl Patsy," which comes to the Grand Opera House on February 21, is from the pen of Jane Maudlin Feigl, the talented young authoress who has written many successes, chief among which may be mentioned the romantic Western play, "Texas," and the entertaining comedy, "A Paris Model." In "The Girl Patsy," the author has written a delightful story interwoven with comedy, pathos and tragedy. The production comes direct from the Savoy Theatre, New York. Miss June Mathis, in the role of the little blackberry picker, "Patsy," gives a charming performance. Other well-known artists in the cast are Miss Grace Cahill, Miss Lida Merab, Miss Jane Tree, Miss Lolo Downin, Miss Maris Haynes, Mr. Francis Herblin, Mr. Morris Burr, Mr. W. Clinton Hamilton, Mr. John Morris, Mr. John Sutherland, Mr. M. R. Scherwin, Mr. David Herblin, Mr. Chester Guyer, Mr. Wm. Long and Mr. Charles Soest.

BEER SERVED TO PUT OUT A FIRE

Cool-Headed Clerk Used Beverage to Save Community.

Shoshoni, Wyo., Feb. 17.—The inhabitants of this town are rejoicing over the settlement's escape from destruction and the manner in which the threatened misfortune was avoided.

During a high wind, Frank Gensley, a clerk, discovered that the floor of the Dusterhoff Brothers' store was burning. The flames were rapidly gaining headway, and no water was available. In the store was a barrel of bottled beer, and this, with great presence of mind, Gensley utilized for fire-fighting purposes. He threw bottle after bottle of beer into the flames until the fire was extinguished. Had the fire progressed and the store been burned, it is more than likely that the flames would have been communicated to adjoining buildings, and the entire town might have been destroyed.

Thirteen bottles of beer were required to put out the fire.

GOOD PROGRAMME AT THE "POP"

An Interesting Evening Was Spent at Y. M. C. A. on Saturday Night—A Varied Programme.

The third Y.M.C.A. Pop on Saturday night, drew the best attendance of the season thus far, the hall being well filled. Mr. C. E. Coleman, chairman of the Social Committee, is deserving of great praise for the excellence of the programme of the evening, in which thirteen persons took part. The numbers were well selected, and each participant did well. While there was a large element of humour, yet there was much that was educative and entertaining.

The audience was delighted, and encores were frequent.

Mr. W. J. Bennet presided at the piano. The others taking part were Misses M. Fanning, Bell, Rickey, and Elliott; and Messrs. Coleman Bros., D. Campbell, F. H. Dobbin, A. H. Hill, Will Dundas, W. MacLaren and Runnett.

The chairman of the evening proved to be the right man in the right place, and thanked all who took part.

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt will give his popular Travel Talk, on "The Rhine Tour," illustrated by stereopticon views, next Saturday evening. Mr. Duncan Walker, I.P.S., has consented to take the chair.

If you have any of the above symptoms, don't hesitate; don't delay. Take Bu-Ju, and cure yourself.

3 Taylor St., Toronto.

I am anxious that you should know the relief and benefit I have derived from taking Bu-Ju. The effect has been marvellous. I had suffered severely for years with pain in the back, especially on rising in the morning, and I am pleased to say that the pain has completely disappeared. Before using Bu-Ju, I had tried every remedy I heard of for Kidney Trouble, without even receiving relief. I would strongly advise anyone suffering from Kidney Trouble to take Bu-Ju without delay. CHAS. E. LUBTY.

It costs only 3c. a day to take Bu-Ju, and your money refunded if they fail to cure. 50c. a large box. At druggists, or sent on receipt of price.

Mr. Hossack To Mr. Whitney, Condemns Three-Fifths Clause, Government Lacks Courage

The Communication Charges That This Clause Has Forced Bar-rooms on Forty-one Municipalities, is an Interference With Established Rights, and Gives the Liquor Party Control of a Powerful Club.

In the course of the last Provincial Elections the Conservative platform speakers in the County of Peterborough, carried about with them, as a part of their campaign ammunition ab undle of Rev. Dr. Hossack's address tot he electors, condemning the Ross Government on account of its alleged attitude on the temperance question, and the majority of their speeches was composed of extracts from this address. Now Rev. Dr. Hossack has issued another address condemning the Whitney Government on account of crooked attitude on the temperance question. Rev. Mr. Hossack's view o fthe Whitney Government's position is reproduced below. Special copies of the Examiner may be procured at this office, by the Conservative speakers, who will thus be put in possession of the reverend doctor's revised views, as created by the utter failure of the Whitney Government, to measure up to their effusive promises upon the temperance question:—

"It is rather more than two years since I had occasion to speak publicly of you. You were not then Premier of the Province, but leader of the Opposition. Some of your friends seemed to think on that occasion that my words were of some advantage to you. At all events, I said what I thought I ought to say, and did not intend to do you harm.

"You will remember that you obtained power under rather peculiar circumstances. You had long been before the people, but you had not been chosen for office. You seemed to lack the pict que and magnetic qualities wh make a leader popular. "Notw nding that you continued y to offer yourself for the p , the people suffered long without you and only after an example of patience, the like of which history has no record, when the Ross Government became quite unbearable, the people returned you to power. You were chosen not because the people loved you more, but Ross less. They did not give you a mandate to govern; but Ross an order to go. You were possibly so labouriously engaged in the campaign, for you wrought hard, that you failed to see what others saw, that the uprising of the people was to defeat the old Government rather than elect you. I think it is the general opinion that the efforts you made during the contest had little effect upon the result. The people gave you little attention; they were absorbed in the pursuit of the Government.

The Three-fifths Clause

"I do not refer to this with any desire to disparage; indeed, I think it was fortunate for you that you obtained power under such circumstances. If the people had expected great things from you, doubtless you would have found it difficult to realize their expectations. Not expecting much and in good humour on account of the defeat of the Liberal Government, the people were not critical. At all events you became Premier.

"As I desire to confine my attention to one act of yours you will

One Bullet Hit Woman on the Cheek and Others Narrowly Missed Her.

THE ACCUSED MAN HAS DISAPPEARED

New York, Feb. 17.—The police of the Vernon avenue station are looking for Chas. Marshall, a clerk in prosperous circumstances, living at 384 Vernon avenue. Marshall is charged by his wife with having attempted to murder her. Up to the present time the police have been unable to find the man, and Mrs. Marshall is unable to assist them.

Marshall is 26 years of age, and his wife is six years his junior.

Sergeant Lynch was in charge of the police station at 1 o'clock this morning, when a young woman of prepossessing appearance suddenly appeared before him in a state of nervous excitement bordering on hysteria. She told the sergeant she was Mrs. Marshall, and declared that her husband had just tried to shoot her. Blood was streaming from a wound in her right cheek.

"My husband came home shortly after midnight in a very ugly mood," she said. "I took him to task for arriving home so late, and was quarrelled. After some more words I declared I would leave and spend the night with friends. As I left I heard a shot and felt a stinging sensation in my cheek.

"I fled in terror and heard two more shots. One of them broke the glass in the door."

Policeman Babington, who was sent around to the Marshall house, found the place in confusion. Chairs had been overturned and the glass in the hall door broken.

Marshall had disappeared. Judging from the appearance of his dressing room it seemed probable that he had hastily packed a bag.

Mrs. Marshall finally went back to her home, and a policeman was sent around to guard the place and watch for the husband's possible return.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE PEA STRAW

A Campbellford Man Who Got Into Trouble by Leaving His Horse On the Street.

The Campbellford Despatch says: John Blakely struck town a short time ago with a load of pea-straw. John stopped the load in front of a tavern and proceeded to lick 'er up. The drinks were coming fast, and John tarried. Meanwhile the horse got tired waiting for Johnny and started off. It proceeded down the Gravel road at a go-as-you-please gait until it struck the railway track. It managed to get over the track itself, but didn't have the gumption to pull the load of pea-straw over—and Johnny wasn't there to help. A light engine was coming along in a hurry, and when it came to the load of pea-straw it helped the horse over the stuck business wonderfully and piled it in front of a house 50 or 60 feet away. The horse scrambled out of the pea-straw and looked around to see if Johnny had done it, but not seeing him around, he started off on the hike again with a few pieces of hay and pea-straw dangling behind. A small boy who was present makes the statement that the horse, after he kicked himself out of the debris, winked at him and said, "Never touched me." A few nights after, the pea-straw went up in smoke as somebody had fired it. John will no doubt get unloaded the next time he comes to town before he proceeds to load up.

ANNUAL BANQUET OF EKO CAMP CLUB

Delightful Gathering Held at Long's Palm Parlours Last Night—Re-union of City's Oldest Club.

MANY BRIGHT SPEECHES WERE MADE.

The oldest social club in Peterborough, the Eko Camp Club, numbering about twenty of the best young men in the city, held its annual banquet last night in Long's Palm Parlours, and the event was in every particular a splendid success The enterprise and progressiveness of this social organization are proverbial, and evidence of the members' possession of these qualities, in addition to those of good fellowship and ability as after-dinner speakers was furnished in abundance last night when they gathered around the festive board, with a number of guests, and enjoyed their annual re-union and dinner. Witty speeches and bright repartee, with appropriate and well rendered songs were characteristic features of the gathering, and made it one of the most thoroughly enjoyable social functions ever held in the city under similar circumstances.

The catering, too, was a feature worthy of more than passing mention, and the dinner was one which did credit to Mr. Hooper, and, indeed would have done credit to any caterer in any Canadian city. Mr. Hooper was given a free hand and the result fully justified the wisdom of this course, on the part of those having the affair in charge.

About thirty gentlemen were present, comprising the members of the Club, all of whom attended, with several guests, representing some of the other clubs of the city, including the Peterborough Club, The Elks Club, the B.A.C. Club, and others, and in the addresses which constituted one of the most pleasing features of the evening congratulations were freely and sincerely offered the Eko Camp Club upon the success and prosperity which had characterized its course during the past eighteen years, for it was organized in 1889, and has enjoyed a continuous and constantly increasing popularity during that period.

The Menu

The tables were very prettily decorated, spun candy and coloured candles being used. The bill of fare was as follows:—

Mulpiques au Citron.
Boullion en cup.
Celery en blanche. Salted Almonds.
Baked White Fish, Sauce Hollandaise,
Stuffed turkey, Cranberry Sauce,
Petit Pies, Creamed potatoes,
Frozen pudding, a la Princess.
Roman Punch.
Assorted cakes. Coffee.
Bon Bons. Raisins. Nuts.

The Toasts

Mr. T. J. Wallace, the president of the Club filled the duties of toastmaster in a thoroughly acceptable manner, and proposed the first toast, that to His Majesty, The King, which was heartily honoured in the usual patriotic fashion.

Mr. W. C. Ackerman, an honourary member of the Club proposed the toast to Eko Camp, and this was responded to by Mr. W. Comstock, who spoke briefly, but interestingly in a reminiscent mood, recounting many of the experiences which the members of the Club had passed through in the past.

A patriotic toast, to Canada, "The Flower of the British Empire" was proposed by Mr. W. R. G. Higgins and appropriately replied to by Mr. J. W. Kelly, who waxed eloquent on the present prosperity and future prospects of Canada. "The City of Peterborough" was the toast proposed by Mr. L. B. Ramsden, who referred to the fact that this city had a reputation not only throughout Canada, but of international bounds, and the reputation was one of which any city might be proud. To Mr. Comstock was given the duty of respondiong to this toast and he performed it in a creditable manner.

Mr. S. Canniff in a neat speech proposed the toast to "Sister Clubs" and this toast brought to their feet Mr. E. M. Best and Mr. C. G. Graham, who referred to the kindly feeling which existed between the members of Eko Club and the other clubs in the city and paid a tribute to the qualities of good fellowship which characterized the attitude of Eko Camp Club members towards the members of the other clubs.

In response to the toast to "Our Guests," which was ably dealt with by Mr. H. Waram, Messrs. W. Mellroy, J. Brightman and M. J. Hutcheson spoke expressing their pleasure at joining the members of this club in their annual dinner and congratulating them upon the successful and progressive career of the organization.

Mr. H. T. Gillespie in a characteristically gallant speech called upon the banqueters to honour "The Ladies," which invitation was heartily responded to, and in reply speeches were made by Messrs. L. McCaughey, J. M. Watt, J. Comstock, D. Paton, H. A. Hamilton, W. Hatton, T. H. Glover and others.

"Our Host" was the last toast, and it was proposed by Mr. J. Gemmell, and responded to by Mr. Hooper. During the evening vocal solos were rendered by Mr. Rankin and Mr. McIlroy and Mr. Higgins gave a number of selections of a humourous character on a phonograph.

The gathering closed with "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem.

MR. W. O'BRIEN GIVES HIS IDEA

Irish Devolution Bill Is Merely An Experiment.

TO LEAD UP TO HOME RULE

Functions of the Councils Will Be Administrative and Are Not Likely to Include Legislative Power—Enlargement of Power May Come Within Ten Years—Cannot Raise Taxation.

London, Feb. 18.—In response to a request William O'Brien, member of Parliament from Cork City, has outlined the impending Irish measure, by which the Government proposes to meet the growing demand for Irish home rule.

Mr. O'Brien said he was not in a position to speak with authority upon what the Irish bill would be, but it was not a settlement of the Irish claim for self-government, but a preliminary experiment. Powers of council may be enlarged in ten years.

Functions of council will be administrative and financial, embracing control of all administrative departments with the exception of the constabulary and the judiciary. Will include the spending, but not the raising of the greater part of Irish taxation.

No legislative powers. Bill may be amended so as to enable council to pass upon at least one stage of all Irish bills.

Irish representation at Westminster to remain as at present or the whole representation may become members of the Irish council.

Wealthier Unionist minority to be given some special representation.

The council will be overwhelmingly Nationalist.

GREAT BRITAIN'S POSITION.

Expenditures On Armies and Navies of World Too Great—Points of the Russian Program for Peace.

London, Feb. 18.—It can be stated that Great Britain will continue to press for the inclusion in the program of The Hague peace conference, of the question of the reduction of expenditures on the armies and navies of the world.

While some of the members of the Cabinet would like to go even further and bring up the subject of disarmament, the majority believe that this would be futile.

The principal points of the program drafted by the Russian Government for the consideration of the peace conference are textually as follows:

First—Improvements to be introduced in the provisions of the convention relating to the Pacific settlement of international conflicts regarding the court of arbitration and international commissions of enquiry.

Secondly—Additions to be made to the provisions of the 1899 convention relating to the laws and usages of land warfare, including those concerning the opening of hostilities, the rights of neutrals on land, etc.

Third—The elaboration of a convention relating to the laws and usages of naval warfare, dealing with: The specific operations of naval warfare, such as the bombardment of ports towns and villages by a naval force; the laying of mines, etc.; the transformation of merchant vessels into warships; the private property of belligerents at sea, the period of grace to be given merchant vessels in which to leave neutral ports, or those of the enemy after an outbreak of hostilities; the rights and duties of neutrals at sea, including questions of contraband regulations applicable to belligerent ports; and the destruction of naval cargoes in merchants vessels captured as prizes. In said convention would be introduced provisions relating to land warfare, which would be equally applicable to naval warfare.

Fourth—The additions to the 1899 convention of the application of the principles of the Geneva convention of 1864 to naval warfare.

Chinese Missionary's Death.

Brockville, Feb. 18.—The death occurred at Bath, England, quite recently of Miss Stayner, a well-known Canadian missionary to China. The deceased lost her health while ministering to the Chinese, and was returning to recuperate when she was seized with a complete collapse. She was wealthy and supported herself in the mission field.

THOUGHT COLD WOULD TURN TO CONSUMPTION

READ HOW DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP CURED

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 20th, 1906.

The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs:—As I am one of the thousands that have been benefited by your Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I thought it my duty to give you a description of my case. "I am 19 years of age and was always in the best of health until last spring when I caught a severe cold by going about with wet feet. It settled in my chest and all the remedies I tried would not stir it. My friends began to fear it had turned to consumption and were advising me to go east and see a specialist. One day my father brought home a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I laughed at the idea of it being any good and refused to take it, and only as a last resource would I. When I had finished one bottle I had only a slight cold left and before I had taken a quarter of the next I was as well as ever I was, if not better, so you can see what a God-send this medicine was to me. I never fail to recommend Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to my friends and they all use it. To show my full appreciation of this remedy I will gladly answer any letters in reference to it. Believe me. Sincerely yours,

Miss Winnifred D. Smith.

Sick all the Time with Kidney Trouble

4 BOXES CURED HIM

Mr. Whellam was a mighty ill man this spring. He had been ailing for almost a year. Sharp pains in the back and through the hips. Dull headaches and dizzy spells. Appetite poor—nothing seemed to taste right.

Finally, an old friend told him about a friend who was in just that condition and who was cured by GIN PILLS.

Mr. Whellam tried them. And you would not know him for the same man now. That worried, strained look about the face is gone. His eyes are bright—his complexion rosy. He enjoys what he eats—has gained in weight—and sleeps like a top.

He had kidney trouble. GIN PILLS practically gave new kidneys—healed and strengthened these vital organs—soothed the bladder—and freed the system of uric acid that was poisoning him.

Broad Cove, C. B., July 6 1906.

I received a sample of your Gin Pills last fall. They did me a great deal of good. In fact, they are the best kidney medicine I know of. A neighbor of mine has tried them and they did him more good than all the Doctors' Medicine he took in three months. I will not forget during my lifetime the benefit your Gin Pills have been to me. JOHN WHELLAM.

Are your kidneys sick? Do you feel just as Mr. Whellam did? Then take GIN PILLS on our positive guarantee that they will cure you. To have you give them a fair trial, we send a free sample if you mention this paper. Write to-day to Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg. 84

GIN PILLS are sold by dealers everywhere at 50c a box—or 6 boxes for $2.50.

CLEMENCEAU'S SCALP.

Clerical Right In French Chamber Hops to Dangle It In the Ministerial Upheaval.

Paris, Feb. 18.—Just as an agreement as to the terms upon which the churches of France could be leased to the Catholic clergy was about to be reached between the representatives of M. Briand, Minister of Education, and Cardinal Richard, Archbishop of Paris, a ministerial crisis has loomed up on the horizon, and it is now doubtful whether Premier Clemenceau's Cabinet will survive the week.

The Premier left a sick bed Saturday to go to the Elysee Palace, where a Cabinet meeting under the presidency of President Fallieres, was being held, to insist that the Cabinet should alone assume the responsibility of authorizing the form of contracts negotiated.

Voice of Parliament.

The Premier doubted that parliamentary majority would approve these contracts, and in any event he insisted that Parliament must be given an opportunity to voice its opinion of them before the Government finally committed itself. The Premier said he was fully aware of the plots of the followers of M. Combes and other groups, and as an old parliamentary fighter, he agreed that it was better to get the consent of Parliament in advance than to run the risk of being outvoted later.

He declared also that he was, himself, ready to go into the chamber today and submit an interpellation on the question of confidence in the Government.

It is understood that M. Briand took sharp issue with his chief after the adjournment of the Cabinet meeting; it is declared that he intends to submit his views to his colleagues, and that on Tuesday either he will retire or M. Clemenceau will resign.

Want Clemenceau's Scalp.

The situation is complicated by the fact that the powerful financial interests which bitterly oppose the income tax scheme, would join any combination to overthrow the present ministry and that the clerical right naturally would be overjoyed to dangle M. Clemenceau's scalp at its belt.

Extraneous issues aside, however, a majority of Parliament and a majority of the country absolutely would support M. Briand's conciliatory policy. If M. Clemenceau falls, either Briand or former Premier Sarrien is most likely to succeed him.

At a late hour Saturday night a semi-official statement, minimizing the seriousness of the situation, was issued, but despite this, the best judges in parliamentary circles consider a crisis to be inevitable.

LIFE THROUGH CLERK'S ERROR.

Provided Wrong Cartridges and a Murder Is Averted.

Galt, Feb. 18.—A lively scene was enacted on Saturday in the moulding shop of the Goldie & McCulloch Co., when Evin Georgius, a husky Albanian, employed in the works, rushed at his wife's brother, Brusso Petro, with a loaded revolver and snapped the trigger four times.

Luckily the hardware clerk who sold the outfit to the would-be murderer supplied him with rim-fire cartridges, while the revolver was the centre-fire pattern. It appears Petro owed his brother-in-law $40, which he was tardy in repaying, hence the attack.

Georgius is now locked up on a charge of attempted murder.

Police Hurt In Street Fight.

London, Feb. 18. The fiercest street fight that has taken place in London for a long time occurred at the corner of Clarence and King streets on Saturday evening about half past seven.

As a result Policeman Harry Downs and Thomas Bolton are suffering from severe cuts on the face. Both were injured by a whiskey bottle. The fight was the result of a drunken row, and D. Mason, S. Fogerty, R. Devery, W. Flitton, C. Farmer, M. Mahoney and J. Mason are in custody. Other arrests will likely follow.

Brief, But Interesting.

London, Feb. 18.—(C. A. P.)—The King has confirmed the appointment of Sir Edouard Girouard as high commissioner for Northern Nigeria.

The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel has allocated funds as follows: Saskatchewan, £4,000; Qu'Appelle and Calgary, £300 each; Rupert Island, £1,500.

A large firm of chairmakers at Highwaycombe states that since the preference their trade with Canada has advanced by leaps and bounds.

CASE OF HARRY THAW.

Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw Will Tell How Providence Called to Her Husband to Kill.

New York, Feb. 18.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw will be called as the first witness this morning when the trial of her husband, Harry K. Thaw, for the murder of Stanford White is continued before Justice Fitzgerald.

This was announced last evening after an afternoon of consultation between the prisoner, his counsel, and his wife.

It is stated that Mrs. Thaw will tell to-day that Thaw told her, in the hearing of Brynton B. Evans, the alienist, that he had to kill White and that Providence had shown him that was the only way to end his troubles. Thaw's exact words, which it is said she will testify to, and which Dr. Evans will corroborate when he is put on later, were: "I had tried for a long time to put the brute behind the bars, because I thought that was the place for him. I was still trying when suddenly Providence showed me the way to end it. I had to kill him. That was the only way, and I did as Providence told me."

The words are regarded as significant as showing that Thaw labored under the delusion that he was directed by a force higher than himself to kill Stanford White.

MISSED DR. VAN RAALTE.

Insane Man Fires Five Shots At Dutch Minister of Justice.

The Hague, Feb. 18.—An insane man Saturday attempted to assassinate the Minister of Justice, Dr. E. E. Van Raalte.

While the Minister was standing in front of his residence the lunatic fired five shots at him with a revolver and missed him each time.

The would-be assassin was arrested.

ELECTIONS IN MANITOBA.

Nominations Feb. 28 and Polling March 7—Official Announcement.

Winnipeg, Feb. 18.—The Manitoba Legislature has been dissolved.

Nominations are announced for Feb. 23; election March 7.

Travels 11,000 Miles to Wed.

Detroit, Feb. 18.—Walter H. Wilson of Fairbanks, Alaska, was in Detroit Saturday on his way home after having traveled 11,000 miles to marry Miss Margaret Corbett of Durham, Ont.

Wilson, who was born in St. John, N.B., was injured ten years ago in New York. He was taken to Roosevelt Hospital. His nurse was Miss Corbett. Friendship between them ripened into love, and they became engaged.

Wilson determined to win a fortune before marrying, and went to Alaska. After several years of hard work he "struck luck" and came east to claim his sweetheart.

A SHOOTING SHOEMAKER.

Crippled, He Was Afraid of Intoxicated Man, Who May Die.

Montreal, Feb. 18.—A shooting affray, about which there are some mysterious features, occurred on Saturday night in a shoemaker's shop, near the corner of Vitre street and the City Hall avenue, when Dieudonne Frenette, the shoemaker, shot a man named George Paquette, who had entered the shop.

Paquette is in the General Hospital and may die.

Frenette's story is that Paquette had entered the shop in an intoxicated condition and endeavored to push his way to the rear of the shop. When he, Frenette, attempted to restrain Paquette he was gripped by the throat and being a cripple and afraid of being beaten, drew the revolver. In the moment of excitement he fired two shots.

Six Men For Coroner's Jury.

Quebec, Feb. 18.—A bill introduced by Premier Gouin in the Legislative Assembly will do away with the trouble experienced in country districts, of securing the twelve men necessary for the holding of inquests upon such corpses as were held by the coroner to require investigation into the manner of their demise. That number will be reduced in this province to six.

Salvation Army Prevents Suicides.

Philadelphia, Feb. 18.—Seven persons bent on suicide already have had their burdens of woe lifted through the anti-suicide bureau of the Salvation Army in this city, which only has been in business three days.

To Repeal 2-Cent Clause.

Ottawa, Feb. 18.—Mr. Bureau's bill to repeal the penny-a-mile clause in the charter of the G. T. R. was given its second reading on Friday night, and will be up for consideration by the committee on railways on or after Feb. 22.

Hurricane Wipes Out a Town.

Victoria, B.C., Feb. 18.—News has been brought here by the steamer Miowera that a hurricane has completely wiped out Cooktown, in North Australia. No lives were lost, but the monetary loss will amount to $2,000,000.

Wireless Approved.

Paris, Feb. 18.—The Cabinet Saturday approved the recommendations of the committee of national defence relative to the organization of wireless stations.

U. S. Senate Approves.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The administration's plan to settle the California Japanese question was approved by the Senate in the adoption of the conference report on the immigration bill.

This report contains a provision authorizing the president to exclude Japanese laborers from the United States, at his discretion.

The report will now go to the House for its approval, which it has been stated, is assured.

Lady Grenfell's Funeral.

London, Feb. 18.—(C. A. P.) The body of Lady Grenfell was received at Liverpool by Col. Grenfell and conveyed by special train to Howick.

MODISTIC DOINGS.

The Smart Touch of Gold and Silver. Ermine Stole.

A touch of gold or silver appears on nearly all of the newest French gowns, while in ribbon rosettes, or in large roses or other flowers silver and gold cloth trims any number of the smartest hats. In embroidery, worked directly upon the material or laid on as a trimming, or on fine textures, as net and chiffon, it is woven in.

For evening silver and gold slippers are still fashionable if they tone in with the costume. Gold may be worn with almost any shade, but silver slippers are only effective with light colors. Satin slippers to match the gown, embroidered with silver or gold to carry out the effect of the trimming on the dress, make an attractive finish to any costume.

Smart narrow stoles of ermine are to be seen in the shops, with muffs to match. A set of this kind looks well worn with a pastel cloth suit in pale green, rose or blue.

Dainty colors for house frocks are soft light shades of red, the rose tones, dull light blues, light browns, biscuits, grays and lavenders. The gayety and dressiness of such a gown are increased without loss of serviceable qualities if it is made up over a white lining.

The model in the cut is excellent for a house frock when carried out in any of the above shades. The waist can be cut square or round, as is most becoming to the wearer.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Instead of Ribbons.

The mother of a small girl whose ability to lose hair ribbons was a source of constant worry solved the problem by using strips of plain or flowered muslin.

These she hemmed neatly, making them the width of ordinary hair ribbons. They laundered nicely and always looked fresh and clean, while the loss of one of them did not mean so serious a thing as if a braud new hair ribbon had disappeared.

Of course these little muslin ties were not used for "dress up" occasions, but for ordinary home wear they proved to be as satisfactory as they were inexpensive.

A Linen Shower.

The latest evolution of the shower idea, which for so long has been popular with brides and their friends, is a set of linens for the table—fifty-two pieces in all—stamped to match with the bride's favorite flower made into an effective design. One of the bride's friends plans it and directs the stamping. Then the cost is divided among a number of her friends, among whom the work is also apportioned. When the set is done it makes the prettiest sort of shower, and its first time of using is often at the bridesmaids' luncheon the bride gives.

Picture Hats.

It is the fashion to trim picture hats with whole birds with wonderful tail feathers that are all curved, but no curls. Many of these adornments are made at the bird factories, and for this reason should not prove obnoxious to bird lovers.

A Smart Color.

A great deal of blue in dull, electric and Wedgwood tones is seen in fashionable millinery, giving an entirely new and rich effect to combinations of color which must make their own appeal to the artistic taste.

TO IMPROVE YOUR APPEARANCE

Retain your youthful freshness so that no one can remark, "she is past her prime." To appear younger and more attractive than the average woman, you must be particular that your Hair shows no sign of being thin, short or scrawny. A DORENWEND TRANSFORMATION, POMPADOUR, WAVE, CURL or SWITCH will substitute nature's defects. Even if you have plenty of your own hair, these light and airy artifices may be worn over it, saving you the worry of arranging your hair in the prevailing style. Your hair can be perfectly matched in color and texture, so that detection is out of the question.

Now, if you have in your mind any prejudice regarding artificial hair, it will forever be dispelled after seeing how natural and becoming our productions will prove in your case.

CONSULT PROFESSOR DORENWEND

DURING THIS VISIT

Advice regarding your hair and how you can make the most of it, also a personal demonstration of the newest styles in transformations, will be given the same as at our establishment in Toronto. Bear in mind that our styles are originated and designed by Professor Dorenwend, and they cannot be procured from any other makers. Their equal have yet to be produced.

MAN TO MAN—ABOUT BALDNESS

If you are bald, or partially so, you must realize that it makes you look old. Notwithstanding the desire to have back your one time bushy head of hair, you hesitate before wearing a natural hair covering simply because you imagine it is going to be noticed by others. Now you never made a greater mistake. Thousands of men, who thought the same as you do, are to-day wearing a and instead of carrying the handicap, that baldness proved to them, they are now enjoying the advantage of "looking young"—and that is what counts to-day in business and social life. Our Patent Toupee is a featherweight facsimile of your own natural hair and may be worn without fear of detection—impossible to remove from the head unless at will—not the least clumsy or uncomfortable. They act as a protection, preventing colds and catarrh, so common to bald men.

Now do not neglect this opportunity—come and see for yourself. A few minutes' demonstration will convince you that a Dorenwend Patent Toupee is not like the clumsy, wiggy affairs that are claimed to be "just as natural."

BAUBLES OF FASHION.

Bridesmaids' Costumes—Belt For Stout Women.

At a recent wedding the bridesmaids wore pale green frocks, large black velvet picture hats with plumes and tulle streamers and carried pink carnations tied with big bows of black velvet ribbon.

A band of fur laid loosely around the crown is noted on many dress hats in conjunction with feathers and lace and other trimming.

For the woman who by reason of the amplitude of her waist line must cling to black belts, yet has a yearning for novelties, there is one in black taffeta about three inches wide. Two strips of narrow black velvet ribbon are applied on the taffeta.

A canary yellow cloth evening cloak has a deep hem of yellow velvet and a border of mink fur and lace about the throat.

Among the darker waistings are shown some very pretty invisible plaids in green or navy blue. These look well worn with a plain skirt of the same color as the prevailing hue in the waist.

A very beautiful empire scarf is shown in deep Persian colors. The ends of this scarf are simply finished with a very narrow hem.

Dainty lace trimmed aprons are the smartest things out to be worn in the house when one is dusting or embroidering.

A novel fancy is to place a flower at the tip of the hat plume and another, generally a rose or dahlia, at the quill end.

The girl's coat illustrated is a box affair made of dark red broadcloth, with collar of black velvet. The fastenings are handsome black frogs.

FACTS AND FANCIES.

Don't Buy Cheap Materials In New Colors—Wash Flannels.

The wise woman never invests in the new shades unless she can afford a good fabric, for in cheap cloths they are horribly crude, and it is safer, if one's allowance is small, to keep to the well known browns, blues and black Purple, too, can be purchased in pretty shades, but directly old rose, louis blue and the new wine tones are sought for a good price must ge paid.

Wash flannels come in lovely designs this season, and the gray flannels in the different plaids are exceptionally good. A waist of this soft plaid is very attractive when lighted with the new gayly colored neck arrangements and belts.

All black hats draped in black ostrich plumes are much liked. All white will never lose their popularity with some women for special occasions and with the combination of white wings flaring high at one side will meet with the approval of her who likes that touch of black and white.

Very smart boleros have an open meshed background in flat black or white silk braid, the whole jacket covered with elaborate velvet and satin appliques in Persian colors couched in gold thread.

The woman who wants a suit that will stand hard wear and yet be suitable for ordinary daytime wear will be wise if she selects a rough cloth of a plain dark color or a mixed cloth on the dark gray tones.

Messaline is one of the most graceful materials for bridesmaids' gowns. It falls readily into the clinging lines Dame Fashion insists upon, and its price is not prohibitive.

The newest black marabou and ostrich feather stoles have a few white feathers showing here and there to relieve the dead black effect, which is apt to be too heavy except for mourning.

The gray voile afternoon gown illustrated is trimmed with velvet ribbon outlined with a tiny silk braid. The yoke is of lace, and the velvet is a shade darker than the material.

ANTIQUE JEWELRY.

Society Women Revert to Fashions of Their Grandmothers.

A revival of the old fashioned jewelry beloved of our grandmothers is worn this winter.

The chief characteristic of this jewelry is its enormous size. Great cameo brooches, medallions of Leeds pottery set in gold rims and worn as pendants and massive amethyst, jet or topaz ornaments are being unearthed from old jewel cases or hunted for in secondhand shops.

"This fashion is not likely to become a universal one," a well known art dealer said recently, "for the simple reason that the supply cannot meet the demand.

"To copy old cameos with any success is an almost impossible task, and in any case people object to copies. I have a priceless black Leeds medallion at present which will be converted into a pendant. Its fortunate wearer cannot be imitated, as there is not such another piece in existence.

"A prettier fashion is the delicate Wedgwood jewelry, carried out in its typical pastel tints, which tone so well with the dresses of today. These also are too rare ever to become common.

"Old necklaces are also fashionable, and many ladies appear this season wearing the old fashioned sets of sixty years ago. These consist of a massive necklace, a brooch and long drooping earrings."

IN EMPIRE STYLE.

Nightdress For the Girl Who Loves Dainty Lingerie.

A very attractive nightgown of empire style is illustrated by the accompanying drawing. It is made of fine jaconet and consists of a deep yoke trimmed with diagonal insertions of lace set in between clusters of tucks, both back and front, and finished at the bottom by ribbon beading wide enough for inch wide wash ribbon to be run through. The neck is a little open in front, being likewise edged with beading and a lace frill, and the puff sleeves are finished with lace insertion and full lace edged ruffles. The skirt of the gown is full and gathered to the yoke under the wide beading, which makes it much more desirable than having the beading insert between the yoke and skirt.

The pattern calls for five and three-quarter yards of forty inch width goods, two and one-half yards of insertion and three yards of lace edging.

The lace insertions run in diagonal lines from the shoulders and armholes in the bust, where there is a large rosette with many ends of baby ribbon, and the neck is finished with lace edging. The sleeves are shorter than those of the other model and are trimmed with three bands of insertion, lace edging and ribbon rosettes.

Making Baby's Hair Curly.

Young mothers may be glad to know that a baby's hair may often be encouraged to curl naturally if it is brushed upward and twisted round the finger while it is wet. Brushing downward rather encourages a child's hair to grow straight. The upward brushing is not becoming for the time, and this is no doubt the reason that so few care to persevere with the idea, but it well repays one afterward. Of course it is not every head of hair that responds to the treatment, but in many cases it has been successful.

Soft soap is a very good thing with which to wash the children's hair, but remember it froths a great deal and very little will suffice. If you use too much you will find a difficulty in rinsing it out thoroughly.

For Cleaning Kid Gloves.

This recipe may be applied to the most delicate tints, and there is no odor. It is more desirable than naphtha or gasoline.

Put the gloves on the hand and then take a piece of white flannel and moisten it very slightly with sweet milk.

Rub on gently a little piece of castile soap and carefully go over the soiled gloves until clean. Then rub with dry flannel cloth.

For the Toilet.

Put 5 cents' worth of flowers of sulphur and a quart of soft water in a clean glass bottle big enough to admit of violent shaking. Shake several times a day for a week, then let stand until the water is clear. Pour it off, strain and bottle. Rub well into the scalp with the tips of the fingers. This is a sure cure for dandruff, and it also gives the hair a beautiful gloss.

Water as Nerve Food.

"If nervous women would only drink more water they would not be so nervous," remarked a trained nurse the other day, according to Health.

"Nearly every physician will recommend a woman who is suffering from nervous prostration or nervous exhaustion to drink lots of water between meals, but many women who do not come under a doctor's care would feel better and look better if they would drink, say, a quart of water in the course of a day. Water is a nerve food. It has a distinctly soothing effect when sipped gradually, as one can test for oneself."

Meat Chopper Hint.

No matter how carefully the meat chopper may be kept, it will be found very difficult to avoid blackening any vegetable that may be put in after meat. The different parts of the machine should every now and then be separated and boiled after the meat has been chopped, but before doing this a little bread should be put through the mincer, as this will clean the interior perfectly.

HERE AND THERE.

Serviceable Theater Wrap—Silk Buttons For Trimming.

For a serviceable wrap for the theater or for afternoon nothing is better than a dark gray cloth trimmed with fur collar and cuffs or worn with a long fur boa or stole of some kind. This cloak should be sufficiently long, quite covering the dress unless intended for carriage wear, when a shorter wrap is generally preferred.

Multitudes of silk crochet buttons are used again, and they are to be had in all the fashionable colors.

Separate lace blouses still hold their own, and the embroidered ones are the handsomest. They are made with elbow sleeves.

One very important item for the home dressmaker to consider is where to place the skirt fastening. Many women prefer a front fastening, hiding the hooks under a box plait or strapped seam as the skirt happens to be plaited or plain.

The gown that is made in shirt waist style fills so many needs that almost every woman includes several in her winter outfit. The frock seen in the cut is of nut brown henrietta trimmed with plaid that shows shades of brown and tan with lines of silver.

Synopsis Of Canadian North-West HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situate.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act, as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

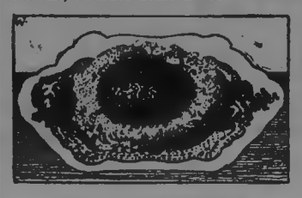
MACARONI RECIPES.

A FOODSTUFF NOT ENOUGH USED BY COOKS.

Always Buy the Best Quality of Macaroni—Hints as to How it Should Be Boiled—Two Good Formulas That Are Easily Made.

Macaroni is one of those foodstuffs of which the average cook does not avail herself nearly as much as she might with advantage. It lends itself alike to some of the simplest forms of cookery as well as to dishes of a more elaborate description. It may be employed in conjunction with all kinds of meats and poultry, or it may be served alone as a farinaceous dish, and it possesses the advantage that it contains in itself quite sufficient nutriment to qualify it to take the place of a meat dish when desirable. In buying macaroni it is well worth while to take a little trouble to procure the best quality, as the results are so much more satisfactory.

The water in which it is cooked should always be boiling fast when it is put in. As to the time necessary for boiling, it is impossible to give exact directions, because some kinds of macaroni require much longer than others, but it should be cooked until it can just be divided with a fork by pressing it against the edge of the pan, but not until it is pappy or loses shape. If, however, it is subsequently to be further subjected to the cooking process for any length of time, as is the case when it is baked or steamed, a somewhat shorter period may be given. From forty minutes to an hour must, as a rule, be allowed for the average large macaroni, about thirty minutes for spaghetti or nouilles and less still for vermicelli.



MOLDED MACARONI CHEESE.

Molded Marcaroni Cheese.—Break three ounces of macaroni—nouilles or spaghetti answers equally well—into small pieces, boil in rapidly boiling salted water. When tender, drain off the water and add half a pint of milk; cook slowly till the macaroni has absorbed most of the milk. To half a pint of thick white sauce add two ounces of grated cheese and mix with the macaroni. Last of all add two well beaten eggs. Butter a plain border mold, sprinkle it with browned breadcrumbs and pour in the macaroni mixture. Steam gently for about half an hour, turn out and fill the center with stewed tomatoes and mushrooms.

Spaghetti Timbales.—Boil three ounces of spaghetti in boiling salted water. Do not break it to make it go into the pan, but when the water boils fast take part of the spaghetti in the hand and hold the ends in the water, allowing it, as it softens, to gently slide into the water. It will soften almost at once and may in this way be quite easily managed. Boil for about twenty-five minutes, or until it is just soft, but be sure it does not lose shape. Then drain it, rinse in cold water and spread it out at full length to cool. Butter liberally some small molds and line them with the spaghetti, beginning at the middle of the bottom of the molds and coiling it up the sides. Fill the centers with a mixture of pounded raw chicken or veal mixed with a nicely seasoned white sauce and add one whole egg for every two of the molds. Cover with greased paper and surround with boiling water to one-third their depth. Steam for half an hour, but do not allow the water to boil fiercely. Turn out gently and serve hot. The filling may be varied according to circumstances, and cooked poultry may be used if more convenient.

A LIVING GHOST!

That is What Her Friends Said About Her

Read how Mrs. James Steele, Waterville, Que., was cured by the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

she writes: "For the past fourteen months I was nervous all the time, and became so run down I was unable to walk across the house without getting dizzy. My friends told me I looked like a living ghost and advised me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I got two boxes and within two weeks I had improved wonderfully and after finishing the fourth box I was completely cured. They are the greatest pills I ever used and I can recommend them to all sufferers."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills act directly on the disordered heart and nerves, and restore them to healthy action. They have no equal for reviving and strengthening the heart beat, invigorating the nervous system, and acting as a food for the blood, improving its quality, making it rich and red.

UNDERWEAR

DICTATES OF FASHION.

Butterfly Decorations Very Smart. Demiseason Flower Hats.

Butterflies play an important part in winter fashions. They appear on hatpins, hair ornaments, appliqued or embroidered on gowns and as bows for the tailored blouse and now in lace, ribbon or beads they are found on evening slippers.

Turbans or other small hats made entirely of leaves and flowers over a frame are liked just now. Fresh flowers on a hat that has been worn for the last few months brighten it up wonderfully, and many of the new turban shapes have been refreshed by this treatment.

Belts on smart reception and evening frocks have become a sash. Broad sashes carefully fitted and shaped to the waist in front are tied in enormous butterfly bows which extend up the back almost to the shoulders. They float in long ends on the skirt behind and are rounded lappet fashion and edged with kilted ribbon or lace or are knotted and finished off with tassels. Others have ends which hang down on the skirt in front from under the belt like stoles, three, four or five inches apart. Others are knotted into huge bows at one side of the waist or looped into different lengths at the side.

Chiffon is now used to place beneath the embroideries on suits and skirts. The design shows much more attractive through this soft lining.

The illustration pictures a practical apron for little miss when she feels like dusting the nursery or working with her paint brush. The model is carried out in butcher's linen trimmed with embroidery, but any wash material would be quite as pretty.

JUDIO CHOLLET.

Canadian Surgeons in Chicago.

The Chicago British American has this reference to a rising Canadian surgeon: "Canada is coming to the foremost ranks in the medical profession in Chicago. Only last week Dr. Alexander Hugh Ferguson was knighted by the King of Portugal, and now Dr. Frank O. Carter has successfully performed an operation for blindness that has been the wonder of the medical world. The operation was for cataract with a thickening of the lens capsule, in which the eye was successfully opened and the cataract and the lens capsule removed at the one operation. Dr. Carter is a native of Oshawa, Ont., and is a nephew of Wm. Wellington, of the nursery firm of Stone & Wellington, of Toronto. He is a graduate of the University of Toronto and immediately after graduating came to Chicago to practice."

A Happy Celebration.

On the last day of 1856 James Stewart, master of the Hudson's Bay post at Fort Garry, was married to the daughter of a fellow-servant, Robert McKay. On the first day of January, 1907, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart celebrated their golden wedding at Prince Albert, Sask. The wedding took place in the historic old Presbyterian church at Kildonan, Rev. Dr. Black, the first Presbyterian missionary in the west, performing the ceremony.

Mr. Stewart was one of those imprisoned by Riel in the winter of 1869 and 1870, and his wife cooked the daily meal for the prisoners during the two months. Many friends of the aged couple called to extend congratulation, and telegrams were received from George H. Ham, of the C.P.R., and others. A party of old-timers surprised them with the presentation of a purse containing $400 in gold, accompanied with a suitable expression of good wishes and of appreciation of many good deeds. Ald. Andrews, who figured in the presentation; Mr. J. M. Coombes, a fellow-prisoner with Mr. Stewart in 1869 and 1870, and ex-Speaker J. F. Botts of the Legislature, another Fort Garry friend, made short speeches.

A DIGESTIVE CURE.

LAUGH AND GROW FAT A COMMON SENSE REMEDY.

The Mental Condition Has a Subtle Influence Over the Digestive Organs—Rest if Possible a Half Hour After Meals.

Judging from the number of patent cures for dyspepsia and the ready following that each new one finds, it would seem that half the world was suffering from indigestion and the other half afraid of catching it. No end of dieting up to starvation point and self denial of all sorts of bodily comfort are cheerfully undertaken as a means of attacking the enemy, although such treatment may do more harm than good. The mental condition has a most subtle influence over the digestive organs, and a hurried state of mind communicates to the digestive organization a certain spirit of unrest which is anything but healthful. "Laugh and grow fat" has more sense than poetry in it, and the person who laughs and talks at meal time will be giving nature a helping hand in the intricate process of digestion.

SITTING LIKE THIS AIDS DIGESTION.

Solid foods being digested under one set of conditions and liquid under another, it is not wise to drink too often during the meal, although it is not necessary to be so rigidly abstemious in this matter as some people think. The greatest objection to drinking with meals is that it discourages the flow of saliva, which is necessary to the process of digestion. The temperature of the stomach needs to be normal and soothing in character, and therefore constantly interspersing warm food with cold drinks would give an unpleasant shock. For the same reason there is no better plan than commencing the meal with a plate of soup, which stimulates and warms the stomach.

Anything that brings the temperature of the stomach to a lower degree immediately after eating is injurious, and that is why a bath must not be indulged in till the process of digestion is fairly accomplished. Some people have a decided prejudice against sleeping after meals and declare that they are not so well for the practice. Of course the case of peculiar temperament has always to be taken into consideration, but the fact that babes and all the lower animals have the habit of sleeping directly after meals would seem to argue that there is not such harm in it for either man or beast.

Happy is he who can repose a half hour or so after each meal. The stress of life does not often admit of this, but a quarter of an hour in a comfortable chair, with the feet on a level with the body, has been known to work a complete cure for a suffering dyspeptic.

The trade is not altogether one-sided. The Japanese are taking more Canadian flour than formerly. Their imports of this prime necessity of life for the ten months of this year amounted to $64,240 as compared with $47,154 for the same period of 1905.

To Iron Sheets.

One of the greatest "time savers" on ironing day is the knowledge of how to fold a sheet, and I find that very few people know how to do this, even though it seems so simple. So many women iron one side of the sheet, then refold and iron the other. Minutes are money oftentimes and especially when a basket is well rounded with unironed clothes. Instead of folding the sheet in the old fashioned way, bring the upper and lower hems together, then fold from right to left, having the upper hem of the sheet on the outside. In this way the whole upper half of the sheet is ironed without refolding, and really that is all that is necessary, for when the sheet ironed in this way is on the bed one cannot distinguish that the lower half hasn't been smoothed.

Try this and see what a really practical idea it is.

VICTOR.

He was a hero, fighting alone,
A lonesome warrior, never one more brave,
Discreet, considerate and grave;
He fought some noble battle, but he gave
No voice to fame and passed away unknown.

So grandly to occasions did he rise,
So splendid were the victories he planned,
That all the world had asked him to command
Could it his native valor understand—
He fought himself and, winning, gained the prize.

Prof. Bell on Deafness.

Prof. Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone, first thought of the telephone when studying the human ear. Since the invention of the telephone he has continued his investigations into the question of deafness. In the United States there are 80,287 persons who were returned by the last census as deaf. The largest number of deaf people are found in the New England States where the proportion runs from 1,578 to 2,104 per million; and the smallest in Montana, Wyoming and Arizona, where the deaf are fewer than 526 per million. In this Dr. Bell is inclined to see some relation between sunshine and good hearing though he is not yet ready to state this definitely. In line with the sunshine statistics come the catalogued diseases which have been responsible for many thousand cases of deafness. As the chief cause of deafness at any age, catarrh holds the lead. The comparisons of diseases are: Catarrh, 11,702; scarlet fever, 7,424; ear diseases, 4,210; spinal meningitis, 3,991; colds, 3,074; measles, 2,467; malaria and quinine, 1,636.

Of the total number, 50,296 lost their hearing in childhood and 35,294 in adult life. Eighteen per cent. of the totally deaf where born so and the great majority of the remainder became deaf before the age of two years. Deafness in childhood is a double misfortune because those who become deaf after twenty years of age never become mute because of that misfortune. On the other hand the child of five or seven who becomes totally deaf quickly forgets how to articulate. All these things point to the necessity of closely observing in the home the condition in which diseases likely to produce deafness leave the patient, especially the small patient. Everybody who has talked to Dr. Bell privately, as has the writer, must have been impressed with the seriousness with which he regarded the hereditary aspects of the case and here are the results of his investigation so far. "Just here there is a striking showing in hereditary and in consanguinity in the marriage of parents. Where one or both parents have been deaf the disproportion of deaf children above the normal is 5 to 1 in their offspring. In those cases where the parents have been cousins three children are deaf to one under normal conditions."

A Cold Finds Your Weak Spot

THE BRONCHIAL TUBES AND LUNGS ARE PROTECTED AGAINST THE EVIL EFFECTS OF COLDS BY

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

You can never tell just what form a cold will take but you may be sure it will search out your weakest organ. With some it assumes a catarrhal nature, and affects the head principally; but with others it becomes bronchitis and there sets in a hard cough and severe chest pains. Then, again, it often leads to inflammation of the lungs, consumption, pneumonia or may settle on the kidneys or bowels.

Because colds do not always prove serious some people take great chances with them, but the risk is great. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is intended for people who want assurance against serious results from colds.

This great medicine has absolutely proven its extraordinary control over coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma and all such ailments, and for this reason has a place in the great majority of homes.

Mr. John Clark, coachman, Port Hope, Ont., writes:—"Being exposed to all sorts of weather I frequently catch cold. Last winter I was so bad with a cold that I could not speak above a whisper and had great pains in my chest. At last I feared that it would develop into consumption if I did not succeed in getting proper treatment. A friend advised me to take Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, and I began to improve before I had taken half a bottle. One bottle cured my cold which I believe would have proven very serious if I had not used this medicine."

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author are on every bottle.

HE WANTS A STRAIGHT MAJORITY

Mr. Graham's Local Option Bill Introduced.

HAS IMPORTANT FEATURES

Will Undoubtedly Precipitate a Lively Debate In Legislature — Some Stringent Proposals For Governance of Licence Commissioners —Report of Horse-Breeding Industry Commission Not Ready.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—The repeal of the three-fifths clause is the outstanding feature of the bill introduced by Mr. G. F. Graham, leader of the Opposition, in the Legislature yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Graham not only comes out for a straight majority vote in this measure, but proposes that the license commissioners and license inspectors shall neither directly nor indirectly have any interest in any contract, agreement or engagement with license holders other than that necessary by virtue of their official positions, and that upon the establishment of such business connections the powers of the commissioners or inspectors shall cease to exist.

There is little doubt that the bill will precipitate the most interesting debate of the present session.

Some Stringent Proposals.

The first part of the measure simply repeals the three-fifths clause, and it then continues:—

"The liquor license act is amended by inserting therein the following section as section 7a:

"It shall not be lawful for any license commissioner, license inspector or chief inspector during his tenure of office as such, directly or indirectly for himself, or through or on behalf of any partner, nor as agent for any other person or persons, to have any interest in any contract, agreement, business engagement, or business relationship with any licenseholder, or the wife or husband of any licenseholder.

"Any license commissioner, license inspector or chief inspector, who violates the provisions of this section shall forthwith cease to hold the office of license commissioner, license inspector, or chief inspector, as the case may be, and shall not thereafter exercise any of the functions or receive any of the emoluments of his former office.

"It shall be a sufficient answer on the part of any licenseholder, or the husband or wife of any licenseholder, as the case may be, to any suit or proceeding brought on or in respect of any such alleged contract, agreement or engagement that at the time the said alleged contract, agreement or engagement was entered into the person with or through or on behalf of whom the alleged contract, agreement or engagement was made, was a license commissioner, license inspector or chief inspector, as the case may be."

Amending Municipal Act.

Mr. J. Munro's bill to amend the Municipal Act was read a second time. It provides for the filing of qualifications of elected municipal officers in cities over 30,000 up to nine o'clock in the afternoon of the day after the election.

Mr. Graham asked if the report of the commission on horse breeding would be ready soon.

Hon. Nelson Monteith said it could not be ready before the close of the session.

PROVINCIAL READJUSTMENT.

Saskatchewan to Have Ten Constituencies and Alberta Seven.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—The committee of the House of Commons appointed to consider the readjustment of the constituencies of Saskatchewan and Alberta on the basis of the last census met yesterday morning. Under the new arrangement Saskatchewan will get ten constituencies and Alberta seven. The Chairman, Mr. J. J. Turriff, submitted a map embodying the proposals of the Government members suggesting adjustment of the constituencies as follows:

Saskatchewan—Souris, with population of 35,263; Qu'Appelle, 30,590; Saltcoats, 22,135; Mackenzie, 26,554; Regina, 29,705; Moose Jaw, 24,281; Saskatchewan, 27,757; Battleford, 17,359; Prince Albert, 20,222; Humboldt, 23,903.

Alberta—Edmonton, 26,391; Victoria, 23,888; Strathcona 29,431; Red Deer, 27,806; Calgary, 29,252; Macleod, 24,701; Medicine Hat, 23,963.

The committee adjourned in order to afford the Opposition members an opportunity to consider these proposals.

Liberal Elected.

London, Feb. 19.—The bye-election on Feb. 16 in Banffshire for a successor to William Alexander Black, advanced Liberal, who died from injuries sustained in a railroad wreck near Aberdeen in December last, resulted in the return of Capt. Waring, Liberal, who received a majority of 2,009 votes.

A SAD AFFAIR,

Accidental Death of Capt. George A. MacBeth of London At Wolseley Barracks By a Revolver Shot.

London, Feb. 19.—A sad accident occurred at an early hour yesterday morning at Wolseley Barracks, when one of London's best known and most popular young men, Capt. Geo. A. MacBeth, lost his life by shooting. The military authorities are reticent in regard to the affair, but it would seem that Capt. MacBeth and Major Mills were in the sitting-room chatting quietly together about 1 o'clock, when the conversation turned to a revolver that Capt. MacBeth had taken with him when he went on a trip to Cobalt. Capt. MacBeth observed that he had not seen the weapon since he came back and left for an adjoining room to get it. Soon afterwards Major Mills heard the report of a weapon, but thought that the Captain was playing a practical joke.

MacBeth, however, did not return and on entering the room Major Mills found the Captain lying dead on the floor with a bullet would behind the right ear. The Coroner investigated the case and was satisfied that the shooting was accidental.

Capt. George A. MacBeth was in command of No. 10 Co., R.C.R.I., at the barracks and was an efficient and highly esteemed officer. He served through the Boer war with the No. 1 Company, R.C.R.I., men, who went from London. He was about 30 years of age and son of Col. John MacBeth, Clerk of the High Court.

Body Severed By Train.

Quebec, Feb. 19.—Elsear Dionne, 70 years of age, was shoveling snow along the C.P.R. tracks yesterday when he lost his footing, fell on the tracks and was cut in two pieces by a shunting engine.

Brakeman Killed.

Winnipeg, Feb. 19.—A. Woodhead, aged 37, a brakeman on the Canadian Pacific, was run over and killed by his train at Mather while making a coupling at that point yesterday morning.

Saved From Drowning.

Brockville, Feb. 19.—Miss Mary Stephenson was crossing the ice bridge Sunday when she went through. Wilbert Blair heard her cries and saved her after she had been in the water for 10 minutes.

Coal Gas Kills Infant.

Hamilton, Feb. 19.—The infant son of William Braid, 167 North Sanford avenue, was asphyxiated Sunday night by coal gas.

Fatal Dose of Laudanum.

Goderich, Feb. 19.—As the result of an overdose of laudanum John Yule, a prominent electrical contractor and machinist, is dead.

Nineteen Frozen to Death.

Berlin, Feb. 19.—Nineteen persons recently were frozen to death in Prussia.

Italian Woman Suicides.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—Mrs. Floseti, an Italian woman, was found at her home on Besserer street yesterday with her throat cut from ear to ear. The detective department thinks it may be a case of suicide.

PASSING OF CO-FOUNDER.

Col. H. S. Olcott Dies In India After Painful Accident.

Adyar, India, Feb. 19.—Col. Henry Steel Olcott, co-founder with Mme. Blavatsky of the Theosophical Society, which has many branches in Canada, is dead. Col. Olcott who visited America last year, sailed for India in October. On the voyage he fell down the hatchway of the steamer and was confined for a month in a hospital at Genoa, Italy. Subsequently he recovered sufficiently to continue his journey, but upon his arrival at Ceylon he suffered a relapse and since then had been in a more or less precarious state of health. Death on Sunday was due to heart failure. Col. Olcott was 75 years old.

It is probable that Mrs. Annie Besant will be elected president to succeed Col. Olcott. Meanwhile the work of the society, which is an incorporated body, will be continued by the proper officers, in whom the property and valuable library at Adyar is vested.

Mayor Schmitz Announces Basis of Decision With the President.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Japanese children are to be admitted in the white schools of San Francisco under certain restrictions; skilled and unskilled laborers coming from Japan are to be barred from the mainland of the United States, and American laborers, skilled and unskilled, are to be excluded from Japan. This is the basis of agreement between President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Root, Mayor Schmitz and the San Francisco School Board as an adjustment of the anti-Japanese agitation brought about by the segregation of Japanese children in the schools of San Francisco.

KILLED BY CRAZY MAN.

Farmer Who Calls on Neighbor Is Shot to Death.

Plumas, Man., Feb. 19.—Yesterday morning James Alexander of Tenby went over to get Wilson Lyle, a bachelor living about a mile west of him, to come and help him draw hay.

Nothing is known as to what happened between them, but Lyle shot him with a shotgun and carried the corpse in and laid it on his bed. He then notified his sister, Miss Alexander, who keeps house for her brother James.

Lyle is supposed to be insane. He lived all alone.

Alexander was highly respected and widely known.

THAT RESIGNATION TURNS UP AGAIN

Referred to Committee On Privileges and Elections.

THE ELECTION IS STAYED

Another Turn In the Celebrated London Case—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Announcement Regarding the Colonial Conference—Railway Rates In the West—Prince Edward Island's Grievance Aired.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—The question of Hon. C. S. Hyman's resignation took a somewhat unexpected turn in the House yesterday afternoon, when, accepting a suggestion made by the Prime Minister on Friday, the leader of the Opposition moved that all letters or declarations made by Mr. Hyman to the Speaker of the House relative to his resignation as member for London be referred to the Committee on Privileges and Elections. The Prime Minister offered no objection to that course being followed, and the motion was agreed to on the understanding that proceedings on the warrant for the writ of election issued by the Speaker be in the meantime stayed.

In committee on the Lake Qu'Appelle, Long Lake & Saskatchewan Railway bill, Mr. McCraney sought to add a clause imposing a maximum passenger rate of three cents per mile, but the motion was not accepted.

Replying to a question put by Mr. Lavergne, the Prime Minister made an interesting announcement with reference to the approaching Colonial Conference. He declared that on the question of Imperial defence and contributions from the colonies towards the Imperial navy and army the attitude of the Government was the same as in 1902, and with regard to the proposal of an Imperial Council he stated that the views of the Government were to be found in a minute of Council embodied in the correspondence laid before the House.

The remainder of the session was occupied by a discussion introduced by Mr. Martin on the Prince Edward Island tunnel scheme. It was urged that the construction of a tunnel was one of the conditions upon which Prince Edward Island entered confederation, but the Minister of Marine and Fisheries controverted that view, and pointed out that during the past winter there had been no interruption of steambot communication. It was the Government's intention to put on another steamer. The leader of the Opposition suggested an inquiry by experts as to the practicability of the tunnel scheme.

At the close of the session the Postmaster-General read a telegram from Mr. Mackenzie King, giving the conditions of the settlement of the Toronto telephone strike.

Robert Goulnlock Is Dead.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—One of the oldest commercial travelers, and probably the oldest in the grocery trade, died yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. Robert W. Goulnlock was known from one end of the Dominion to all the others. For nigh forty years he had traveled out of Toronto. Coming here in 1869, at 21 years of age, having been born at Paris, Ont., on March 3, 1848, the son of the late Walter Goulnlock, he first entered the employ of Charles Moore & Co. From there he went to Michie & Co., and from them to Perkins, Ince & Co., in 1873. With the latter firm he remained until his death. He was the second of a large family, including Messrs. John, James and George, the last the architect of the exhibition, the Temple and other buildings—and five sisters. The deceased never married.

Col. Little Resigns.

London, Feb. 19.—Col. J. W. Little, who for the past five years has commanded the 7th Regiment of Infantry in this city, yesterday forwarded a request to the Minister of Militia that he be relieved of his command.

Major Cronyn, who has also been connected with the 7th for many years, sent in his resignation to the Department yesterday. Both decisions it is understood, are final.

Magistrate Asked to Quit.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—John J. B. Flint, police magistrate of Belleville, has been asked by Premier Whitney to resign. A reply was received by the Premier, but beyond stating that the matter was under advisement, Mr. Whitney declined to discuss it. Mr. Flint has held office for 20 years.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, Feb. 18.—(Special.)—Cable advices from Liverpool and London on Canadian cattle were weaker and noted a decline in prices of ½c per lb., with sales at 11c. Exports of cattle from Portland and St. John, N. B., last week were 2556. Receipts of live stock at the Montreal stock yards, west end market, for the week ending Feb. 16, were 3405 cattle, 1156 sheep and lambs, 3913 hogs, 833 calves, and the offerings to-day were 700 cattle, 1700 hogs, 50 calves. In sympathy with weaker advices from European sources on Canadian bacon and a decline in prices of two to four shillings in Liverpool, and one to two in London and Bristol, coupled with increased supplies of hogs here to-day, a weaker feeling developed in the market and prices declined 10c per 100 pounds. At this reduction there was a good demand from packers and dealers and some sales of selected lots were made at $7.40 per 100 pounds, weighed off cars, but a good many holders would not accept this figure, as they wanted $7.50 and in some instances as high as $7.65 was asked, consequently trade was slow. In cattle an active trade was done, there being a large attendance of butchers, and supplies were not in excess of requirement; the undertone to the market was firm, and prices showed no change. A feature was the demand from exporters and 200 head were bought at prices ranging from $4.50 to $5.25, for shipment to Manchester. Butchers bought freely, considering the fact that the Lenten season is now on. Choice beeves sold at 4¾c to 5c, good at 4¼c to 4½c, fair at 3¾c to 4, common at 3 to 3½c, and inferior at 2½c to 2¾c per pound. Supplies of sheep and lambs were very small, and prices were firm. Sheep sold at 4½c to 4½c, and lambs at 6c to 6¼c per pound. calves went with a good demand at prices ranging from $3 to $10 each.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, Feb. 18.—Cattle, receipts, 4400 head; slow and generally 15c lower; prime steers, $5.65 to $6; shipping, $5 to $5.50; butchers', $4.85 to $5.25; heifers, $3.50 to $5; cows, $3 to $4.85; bulls, $2.25 to $4.75; stock heifers, $2.50 to $3; stockers and feeders, $3 to $4.25; fresh cows and springers, steady, $18 to $55.

Veals, receipts, 1200 head; active and steady; $4.25 to $9.50.

Hogs, receipts, 18,600 head; fairly active and 5c to 10c lower; heavy and mixed, $7.35; yorkers, $7.30 to $7.35; pigs, $7.10 to $7.15; roughs, $6.50 to $6.75; stags, $4.50 to $5.25.

Sheep and lambs, receipts 26,000 head; sheep slow and steady; lambs active and 10c lower; lambs, $5 to $7.65; yearlings, $6.25 to $6.50; wethers, $6.50 to $6.75; ewes, $4.75 to $6.25; sheep, mixed, $3 to $6.25.

MR. HOSSACK TO MR. WHITNEY

pardon me, and not complain, if I do not now refer to the good of your administration. Of that you have heard much, I will not do you the injustice to think that you wish me to enlarge upon that subject. So long as you remain in power and control the spoils of office you will hear pleasant words and not lack admirers. I had a word to say for you when you were in opposition. I will let others who did little for you then flatter you now.

"I write to you to direct your attention to to a mistake you have made, and which it is not too late to rectify. I refer to the three-fifths requirement in the local option bylaw.

"It will be apparent to you that I have no personal object to serve in writing this letter, and that I believe I am acting in the interests of the public.

"My opinions are the outcome of some reflection, and are held by thousands in this Province. You may heed them or not, as you will, but I think it well that you should hear them.

An Illogical Course

"In regard to local option the Government has not reasoned well. Their course is illogical. A local option bylaw requires the support of three-fifths of the votes polled before it becomes law. A bylaw to repeal has the same requirement. It is said: 'What is fair for one is fair for the other.' But are both sides treated alike?

"The three-fifths requirement has been likened to a club. The party having first turn at the club has a marked advantage. If the party having second turn is beaten into insensibility before he gets the club the arrangement can hardly be said to be as 'fair for one as for the other.' The liquor trade has the club first. Better have no club. Let both local option and the repeal be decided by a majority vote.

'How large is the club? Having the advantage of three-fifths clause 41 can outvote 60, 101 can outvote 150, 667 can outvote 1,000. The party without the club must poll fifty per cent. more votes than the other party. The liquor trade having the club first a distinct advantage.

"If this arrangement is as 'fair for one as for another,' why not require a vote of seven-eights or nine-tenths? The club would be more deadly, but of course each party would have a turn at it, and the Government says this is 'fair play.'

A Dangerous Club

"Is the club dangerous? Eighty-five municipalities under license gave majorities for local option last January. Under the former condition all would have carried local option, but by the aid of the club—the three-fifths requirement—the desire of the majority in forty-one of these places was not granted and the liar-rooms remain. Is this as 'fair, for one as for the other'? Is it surprising that an indignant temperance advocate will sometimes forget that he is only a humble elector, and say that the object of the three-fifths clause was to aid the liquor trade and embarrass local option?

"The Government is illogical in its contention. The reason advanced for the three-fifths vote is that a prohibitory law requires strong public opinion to insure its enforcement. If this support is necessary when local option is carried surely it is necessary when local option is on trial at the time of the repeal vote. Yes, when the repeal vote is taken the Act requires no preponderance of opinion for local option for a minority of votes polled may retain it in force. When local option is carried the law requires 60 votes as against 40 in every 100; when the repeal peal vote is taken 41 votes for local option will defeat 60 against it, and retain the law, with a preponderance of public opinion against the measure.

Granting of Licenses

"To justify the three-fifths requirement it is said that the practice in voting on bonus bylaws is to require a large majority of the names upon the list in favour of the bonus. This practice is followed to protect the public, many of whom are not personally interested, and, therefore, indifferent, from the designs of corporations, seeking a bonus and through personal interest, making great and organized efforts to succeed. This is an argument not for, but against, the three-fifths requirement. The sum received in license fees is not at all equal to the value of the license. Therefore a license confers a valuable franchise. It is a monopoly; it is very like a bonus. To be consistent, a license should be granted only when a large majority of the electors indicate approval.

"What would be said if a law were passed that a corporation requiring a bonus must have it unless three-fifths of the electors oppose it? Yet this is the treatment received by the temperance people. There must be polled a three-fifths majority before a license, which is a valuable franchise—a monopoly — practically a bonus—can be withheld.

Unfair To Temperance

"Some seem to think that the three-fifths requirement will make public opinion or provide the preponderance of public opinion said to be necessary. What effect has the three-fifths requirement? It cannot make the majority larger than it otherwise would be. It may discourage temperance people from making an effort when they think the Government has armed the enemy with a club. It may, therefore, defeat local option when there is in favour of it a three-fifths majority, which will not be polled on account of the discouragement and injustice of the requirement. It will, of course, defeat local option when it has a majority less than three-fifths.

"When the three-fifths vote is polled it has not increased public opinion, which is the same, whether the required vote is polled or not. When the requirement defeats the will of the majority it cannot increase temperance sentiment. It forces the bar-room upon an unwilling community. Last January it forced bar-rooms upon 41 municipalities in which a majority voted for local option.

Liquor Dealers Want It.

"The liquor dealers were satisfied with the three-fifths clause when it became law; they want it now. It aids them, and only them. It discourages temperance people. It enables the minority to defy the majority. Looking at results, some temperance advocates ask if there can be a difference of opinion in regard to the design of the clause? Should temperance people be severely censured when they say that the three-fifths clause was passed to please liquor dealers and destroy local option?

"Can local option, carried by a majority less than three-fifths be enforced? Why should the Government think that opposition to local option produces such a spirit of lawlessness that majority rule cannot be trusted? The people who are denied the right to carry local option by a simple majority are trusted to elect the Legislature by a bare majority. Sixteen members of the Legislature in 1905 had majorities less than 100. Some of them were glad to have any majority. In every one of eleven municipalities the majority for local option in January was more than 100, yet in all of them the bylaw was defeated. With a majority of 248 local option was defeated in Collingwood.

"Only 14 of the 97 members of the Legislature polled a three-fifths vote. If law-makers are chosen by a majority, why not adopt bylaws by a majority? Has a majority a peculiar wisdom when electing the Legislature, and unusual folly when voting for moral reform?

Disproved by Experience

"Experience disproves the contention of the Government that a three-fifths majority is needed to ensure enforcement. In about fifty municipalities in which local option was carried by a majority vote, it is now in force. These elections were held before the three-fifths requirement became law. In these fifty places the law is enforced by the Government. The Government is too modest. It is stronger than it thinks.

"Temperance advocates claim that in these places the law is well enforced, and for it give Mr. Hanna and his officials praise.

Regarding Enforcement.

"The enforcement of local option depends, not upon a three-fifths majority, but upon the honesty and efficiency of officials appointed to enforce the Act, and upon the ability and sincerity of the Department from the Minister down. The reply to the Government's contention for a three-fifths majority is that where local option was carried, without this majority, the Government is gaining the admiration of the people for efficient enforcement of the measure, and the people are showing their satisfaction by supporting the bylaw in repeal contests.

"This is a democratic country. One man's vote is as good as his neighbour's and no better. In every state of the union which has local option, a majority vote is sufficient. It is stated as a fact that more than one half the territory of the United States is under local or State prohibitory laws. Under the Ross Government local option could be carried by a majority. The public had British fair play. Are we to be carried back to the Toryism of Family Compact Days when some votes were better than others?

Disfranchising Certain Electors

"A certain section of the electorate is disfranchised because they hold certain views. In a local option contest thirty three out of every 100 electors, who favour local option are disfranchised. The three-fifths caluse is in the interest of a certain class. This class is entitled to justice, but not to an unfair advantage over other people.

"It would be dangerous to legislate that an Irish vote should not have the same weight as an English vote. That would be tyranny. It has been considered wise to give to the French people of this province Cabinet representation. In other words this is a democratic country, and there should be equal rights for all, and no class distinctions. Why has the Government introduced class legislation and special privileges for special people? Has any class demanded such legislation? Not fair-minded people who believe in moral reform and equal rights? If the liquor dealers have not demanded it, why has it been introduced? If they have demanded it, why should the Government grant them special favours? One does not need to be in favour of temperance legislation to see the injustice of the three-fifths requirement.

Established Right.

"The majority in a municipality ever since Ontario became a province, has had the right to decide upon the granting of licenses. These rights were established. They were founded upon a British sense of justice, and were never hurtful, but always helpful to the community. Why have these rights been removed?

"It has been suggested that you introduced the three-fifths requirement to please the liquor vote because you feared it, and that there is no probability that you will rescind the objectionable clause and restore the majority vote, as you have not yet regained courage, and there still looms before you the power of the liquor dealers. Surely with forty majority this cannot be true! When one considers the weakness of the opposition and your large majority, how improbable this theory seems.

Remove Objectionable Provision

"Is it possible that you lack confidence in the ability of your Government and officials to enforce local option when carried by a majority less than three-fifths? If you think your colleagues are lacking in capacity how can you expect the people to have faith in them? I think it would be better to be more hopeful, to have courage, to remove the objectionable features in the act, and leave the matter to Hanna.

"There must be some explanation of your weakness on this question. Is it possible that your self-esteem is not commensurate with your ability? I have never heard this charge made but it may be that the public are only beginning to know you. I believe you have the ability and the courage to enforce local option when carried by a simple majority, if you only think so.

"I read an incident in the life of Mr. Lincoln, which I commend to you. Mr. Lincoln, it is said, closed a speech with the following statement. 'My friends, it is said, that in the Book of the Koran, there is a passage that reads thus, "Blessed is the man that bloweth his own horn, for verily he that bloweth not his own horn his horn shall not be blowed."' The moral is, Think well of yourself, have courage and be strong. I believe you can enforce local option when carried by a simple majority, if you have confidence in yourself and make an earnest endeavour.

Assistance Required

"About two years ago when you were in need of help, I said something for you. Probably you are not aware of it, but you need assistance now. I advise you to abolish unnecessary and unjust class legislation, to trust the people, and, without fear or favour, enforce the law.

"I have tried to give you some reasons for rescinding the three-fifths clause. You must see that it is reactionary legislation. You have a large majority — too large, many think. You will never have as large a majority again, for the politics of the province will assume a more normal condition. Be that as it may, after January 25th, 1905, one would think you would have learned to trust the people. Upon the people, who gave you power, you are forcing this unjust law. After another session you and your following will be obliged to trust the majority. You will do better then, if you trust them now.

"This letter is already too long, and I have intimated my intention of dealing with only one point; otherwise there are some little matters bearing upon your administration upon which it might be interesting to enlarge.

Liberty, Justice and Fair Play

"I have not entered upon this correspondence as a leader in moral reform. I make no claim to such distinction. But I was reared in a democratic country, taught to love liberty, justice and British fair play, and, therefore, I write to you.

"In this matter a great principle and established rights are involved and Governments stronger than yours and leaders more capable than you have been wrecked by ignoring great principles and established rights."

A DERELICT VESSEL ON ICEBERG SURFACE

A French Sea Captain Reports an Unknown Bark Carried High on Floating Ice Mountain.

SHE WAS A THREE-MASTED BARQUE

Examiner Special.

Portland, Ore., Feb. 18. — When near the Falkland Islands on her way to this port from London, the French barque Emilie Galline, Captain Amadtizon, ran into a field of icebergs, and in groping her way into open water brought up against one of the deepest mysteries ever produced by the sea.

Well up on the side of a monster berg Captain Amadtizon saw wedged in the ice a large iron barque, about the size of the Emilie Galline, dismasted, but apparently otherwise intact. How she had been lifted upon the crest of the giant berg is a puzzle equalled only by the mystery surrounding the fate of the crew.

Not far from Cape Horn the Emilie Galline encountered very cold weather the latter part of November. The barque met several icebergs In searching for a channel among the bergs the lookout made the discovery of the derelict vessel. He reported to officers and the barque's course was changed to run close to the berg. Captain Amadtizon says he ran within seven miles of the berg, and by the aid of glasses made out that the vessel was a three-masted iron barque. It was impossible to make out her name, for huge ice blocks covered her bow and stern. The lower rigging was standing, and from its character it could be made out that the vessel had been barque rigged.

So far as could be seen, there was no living thing on board, although the boats still appeared to be in the davits. It is thought if any one had been aboard alive distress signals of some kind would have been displayed.

It is possible there w may have put off in one of the ship's boats and subsequently been picked up by a passing vessel, or they may have landed on the bleak islands sprinkled in the ocean about the extreme portion of the South American promontory.

CANADIAN SOCIAL INTERESTING EVENT

Last night's meeting of the Epworth League of the Mark street church was one of more than usual interest. Mr. Armstrong, of the Charlotte street League, was present and gave an interesting address on the topic, which was of a missionary character.

Arrangements were made for a Canadian Social to be given under the auspices of the League on Tuesday, March 5th, when a programme purely Canadian in its character will be given. The invitations will be in the form of maple leaves, which will be sent to the friends of the members. There will be no admission fee, but a free will offering will be taken during the evening.

All Other Western Cities For Good Investments

Many people are availing themselves of this opportunity of securing some choice lots while the prices are yet low. These Lots are on the market at first values and are sure to advance when Spring opens up; hence the advisability of securing some of them NOW, and reap the benefit of the advance that is sure to take place.

Think of the opportunity of securing Lots adjacent to Saskatchewan's New Provincial Parliament Building Site, where Two Million Dollars will be spent in the near future.

The Streets and Avenues of this Beautiful Residential Property have all been graded, and Three Thousand Five Hundred Shade Trees have been purchased and will be planted on them during the coming Spring.

Chances for securing such HIGH CLASS PROPERTY don't come often; the opportunity is yours, take advantage of it now.

A call at our office to see our maps will convince you of the unequalled chance of a First Class Investment which we offer.

PETERBOROUGH TUESDAY FEBRUARY 19 1907

Tax Rate Will Be Increased To 18 Or 18 1-2 Mills This Year

Additional Money Will be Required by Council to Meet Expenditures for 1907 — School Debentures the Chief Item.

BOARD OF WORKS ASKS FOR AN INCREASE OF $3000.00

Some of the Causes Contributary to the Increased Expenditure —Some Comparisons with Those of Hamilton

The probabilities are that the ratepayers of Peterborough will have to go down in their pockets for more taxes this year.

The Budget of the Finance Minister of the Council, Ald. Tovey, has not yet been brought down, but the prospects are that the estimated expenditures for the present year will show an increase sufficient to make it necessary to increase the rate by at least half a mill, and probably by a full mill.

The direct cause of this increase in the rate is the additional expenditure necessary to pay interest and sinking fund on public school debentures, by reason of the erection of the new South Ward school.

There are, however, other causes contributing to this increase, and of the smaller items, the largest is the increased amount required by by the Board of Works, to carry on the work planned by this body for the coming season, the programme being an unusually heavy one, as the amount to be asked for—$20,000—would lead one to assume.

The Fire, Water and Light Coimittee will probably ask for as much as last year, when the appropriation on this head was $6200.

The rate of taxation for the city of Peterborough for this year will be increased by at least half a mill, making it 18 mills, while it is possiblet hat it may go up to 18 1-2 mills. This is accounted for by the fact that the interest on he public school debenture debt has increased by one-half mill, chiefly on account of the building of the King Edward school, while the interest on the ordinary expenditure of the schools will be decreased a quarter of a mill, making the net increase one-quarter of a mill. Then the interest on the ordinary city debentures will also increased by a quarter of a mill, which will leave the total increase one-half a mill.

There is a possibility that the debentures for the Collegiate Institute may be issued this year, in which case the increase in taxation will be one mill. This point has not been touched upon by the committee yet, but will be taken up at once.

What Will Expenditure Be ?

The Finance Committee held their first meeting to discuss the estimates last night, and the result of their labours will be made known at the Committee of the Whole Council next Monday night, when it is likely that they will be presented.

It is impossible at the present time to give in detail anything about the estimated expenditure for the year, although it is likely that it will be larger than last year when the amount to be raised by the city rate was $62,985. The estimated revenue last year was $15,175, which left the net amount to be raised by city rate $47,810.

It is hard to say at the present time what the appropriation for streets and bridges will be. This is the largest expenditure of the list and it is stated that this year $20,000 will be required. The Board of Works will meet to-morrow night, and the question of how much money the department will require, will be taken up. Last year about $18,000 was expended, and more will be required this year, to extend sewers, build pavements, etc. Some of this work has been left over from 1906, and will have to be finished this year.

Peterborough and Hamilton

It may be remarked that the estimated expenditure for such work in Hamilton is $40,000, just twice what Peterborough is asking, while the population of the Ambitious City is four times as large as Peterborough. The reason given for Hamilton's small outlay as compared with Peterborough's estimate, is that in Hamilton much of this kind of work is paid for on the frontage tax plan, which plan, if employed here, would make the appropriation much smaller.

The Board of Works could use $20,000 to advantage, but it is a question whether or not the council can afford to make that appropriation. As has been stated, the Board will discuss their needs to-morrow night, and the amount they are to be given will be threshed out later.

Some Extra Demands

Just what the Fire, Water and Light Committee will want this year is not yet known. Last year the estimated expenditure for the Fire Department was $6200, and it is not likely to be anything less this year.

One extra expenditure this year will be the salary of the Sanitary Inspector, which is a new posi-

BULLDOGS BITE A WOMAN TO DEATH

Mrs. Margaret Goss, of Abington, Mass., a Victim of Five Brutes in a Friend's House.

THE SHOCK CAUSED DEATH OF LADY

Special Wire to The Examiner

Abington, Mass., Feb. 18.—In the home of a friend with whom she had taken shelter on account of illness, Mrs. Margaret Goss, of Rockland, was fatally bitten by five bulldogs. She died before a doctor could be obtained.

The Coreys realized that it would be dangerous for her to go out into the cold, and gave her food and a bed in the kitchen for the night.

Inmates of the house were awakened about 3 o'clock this morning by a noise in the rear of the house, where five valuable bulldogs were kept. Mr. Corey found the woman unconscious on the kitchen floor surrounded by the dogs. Her neck, arms, and legs from the waist to the ankles were badly bitten.

Medical Examiner Durfey, of Brockton, viewed the body, but declined to make a statement until further investigation. Dr. Hutchinson says the bites were not sufficient to cause her death, which was probably due to shock in her weakened condition. She was about 59 years of age.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. D. Bryson, Montreal, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S. Lamb, 256 Aylmer street.

Mr. F. B. Haskill, conductor G. T. R., resumed his duties yesterday, after a month's illness.

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt is in Toronto to-day attending a meeting of the executive of Wycliffe College.

Mr. Walter Phelan, who has been visiting in the city for the last few days, left for Pittsburgh at noon to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jewett, Peterborough, are visiting in town the guests of Mr. S. K. Leake.—Lindsay Post.

Miss Allin, of Misses Allin & Fellon, has gone to New York, to attend the millinery openings and to make purchases.

Last night Mr. and Mrs. J. Smith, East City entertained the members of the Otherdum Club, and a number of other friends at the home to a pleasant dance. Mandell's Orchestra provided excellent music for dancing. Refreshments were served during the evening.

BABY NAMED AFTER EVELYN NESBITT THAW

Kalamazoo, Mich., Feb. 19. — Because her maiden name was Holman, Mrs. Alexander Babcock, mother of a daughter born ten days ago, christened the little one Evelyn Nesbit, after the wife of Harry Thaw, on trial for the murder of Stanford White in New York City. The father had serious objections, it is said, to the child being given the name. In attendance at the ceremony, however, were so many that voted in favour of the name that the gather finally consented to the youngster being named after the former chorus girl.

MRS. ATCHISON GOES TO THE MERCER FOR A TERM

Was Given Six Months by Magistrate Dumble for Keeping a House of Ill-Fame Witnesses Story.

MRS. FRANCES AMES TO LEAVE CITY.

Mrs. Louisa Atchison-Howell returns to the Mercer Reformatory as a result of the sentence imposed upon her by Magistrate Dumble this morning. The charge that was laid against her was one upon which she received a similar sentence some time ago, namely, of keeping a house of ill-fame at 65 McDonel street.

Standing room was at a premium in the dingy court room to-day when it was known that the famous "Lou" Atchison-Howell was on the docket. Wm. Austin was charged with being co-proprietor of the same establishment, and Frances Ames was charged with being an inmate. Austin was discharged because the evidence did not prove conclusively that he was guilty. Mrs. Frances Ames, alias Jessie Harris, was told to get out of Peterborough before Thursday and not to return. If she does not comply with the above she will be arrested on sight.

A Newsboy Badly Bitten By Collie Dog At C. P. R. Station

Last night a boy about eight years of age, a son of Mr. J. N. Watson, of Chambers street, was bitten by a dog at the C.P.R. station and lost the end of one of his fingers.

The lad, it appears, is a newsboy, and was at the station waiting for the arrival of the local to secure his supply of papers. His story is to the effect that he was standing on the platform when a collie dog ran up to him, biting his hand and tearing the nail off one of his fingers.

The screams of the boy attracted the attention of the bystanders and he was taken in a cab to a doctor, who dressed his finger. The dog was afterwards shot.

It is reported that the dog showed evidences of hydrophobia, and the injuries to the boy may prove more serious than they appear at the present time. He was able to be at school to-day, but was suffering considerably.

Mr. George Boucher Tells The Sad Story Of The Tragic Death of Dr. Flood

In a Letter Home, Mr. Boucher Describes the Incidents Surrounding the Death of Adventurous Man.

THE DOCTOR LOST HIS WAY

On a Wood Hunt and Went Back for Grub Box—A Kind Hearted Man — His Death Regretted.

In reference to the very lamentable death of Dr. Flood of the R. N. W. M. P., Mr. George Boucher, son of Dr. Boucher, of Peterborough, and now in charge at Fort Churchill, in the Hudson Bay service, writes in a letter home dated December: — "We have had a very sad accident and we are naturally pretty well cut up. About four days ago, Major Moodie, Mr. Thibeaudeau and the Doctor all of the Mounted Police, made up their minds to leave on a timber hunt, and to go by themselves. We warned the Doctor that it was not safe, as they might lose themselves, but he laughed at us and said there was no danger, as they did not intend to go far. They left on a Wednesday, which was a beautiful day; Thursday also a beautiful day up to 3 p.m. when it began snowing, and there was quite a squall. Friday it was cold, being 16 degrees below zero; also drifting and blowing a regular blizzard. Saturday, Sunday and Monday were clear and cold. Well, to follow the movements of the Major and his party:

Their Movements

On Wednesday they intended going only as far as Goosey Island, which is about ten miles from here. They lost themselves twice that day, and were put right by some of my men who were out cutting wood. On Thursday morning they left this camp and went to what they called North River, but which was Middle Point, 12 miles this side of North River. On leaving the camp that morning Mr. Thibeaudeau walked and the Major and Doctor went ahead with the dogs. Thibeaudeau says he had only walked two miles when he came to the flour bag, which he picked up and carried. A little further on he came upon the grub box, which had also fallen off. He took a small piece of bacon from the box and carried it also. He came up with the Major and Doctor at Middle Point, who laughed and wanted to know what the deuce he was carrying. When he told them the Major said: "Why not have left the flour with the box, as we have to go back for it; can't do without grub?" Thibeaudeau told them the box was about six miles back on the track, which meant no more than a two hours' run there and back for the dogs. The Doctor volunteered and the Major offered to go with him, but the Doctor did not see the use of it, and as it was only 6 miles, a beautiful day, a good track, and fresh dogs, no one dreamed of there being any danger. However, that night the Doctor did not show up, and it began to grow rapidly colder. The next day was terrible and the Major and Mr. Thibeaudeau could not leave the camp, for if they had they would never have found it again. On Saturday morning it was bitterly cold, but it was clear, and they started in to let me know, and with the hope that the Doctor might have struck the Fort. Alas! such was not the case.

The Search

The Major arrived here at 3 p.m., and his greeting to me was: "Is the Doctor here?" I said: "No." He said: "Good God; then he is lost. We lost him two nights ago at North River." Twenty minutes later I had Mr. Learmouth and my two best hunters off with orders to get to North River that night and start the search, of course they took brandy, blankets, etc. Sunday morning at day break I got off five teams of dogs and twelve good men with orders to search the woods and bay between here and North River and to make connections as soon as possible with Learmouth's party. In addition to this three policemen with the Rev. Mr. Siever's dogs joined my forces. I went along also and got home late Sunday night. When I left the Indians had found his tracks and were following them like blood hounds. Shortly afterwards they found his body. The following day they brought him into the Fort. It was very sad, he was only twenty-nine years old and was well liked for his kindheartedness and willingness. He was found by two of our men and was only three or four miles from the camp. He had gone too far to the north, in fact he passed the camp. Those who know him best say without a doubt he died from exhaustion or collapse. From the appearance of the body and the expression of the face, he certainly did not suffer. I realized how much I have to be thankful for, many a storm have I been caught out in, and yet was pulled through. Poor Flood, no one was to blame, it was an accident. It was "Kismet," Dec. 9th. The Doctor was buried to-day at 2 p.m., and we are now trying to recover ourselves."

Must Peterboro' Be Sacrificed?

Kingston defeated Midland last night and according to the understanding at the time the schedule was drawn up Peterborough should be considered with Kingston and the western team when the next round is to be played off. Now comes the question, Is Peterborough to be sidetracked by a manifestly unfair schedule arrangement for a team that has failed to prove their superiority in any way over the locals? In fact Peterborough have made the best showing of the two, defeating Kingston here by 7—3 and losing in the Limestone City by 4—2, thus finishing two up on the round.

The sudden death game in Toronto between Midland and Kingston practically put Peterborough out of the running. The only difference between Kingston and Peterborough was in their games with Midland. Peterborough broke even, losing one and winning one. It is a cinch that Kingston would have done the same if they had had to play home and home games with Gouldville. Why were they not compelled to do so? And the answer comes back — "To save travelling expenses." Is Peterborough to be sacrificed because Midland could not pay the expense of a visit to Kingston or vice versa?

The purpose of the O. H. A. championship race is to determine the best team in each series and not to make money for the teams. Then why should a team that has made as good, or better showing than any other in its district be thrown down to allow other teams to save a little money?

The O.H.A. should take action int he matter at once and in some way give Peterborough a chance to show that they are the best team in the district. They are clearly entitled to be given a chance as things have not broken very favourably for them all through the season. They were given the short end of it by the schedule arrangement and to make matters worse, had to play under a local referee at Midland. Peterborough has never received or sought any favours at the hands of the O.H.A., and it is but justice in this case that they are asking. Will the O. H. A. show that they realize the handicap under which Peterborough has been playing and give them another opportunity?

If the Peterborough team had lost with the schedule drawn up as it should have been, it would not have raised any objection, and if it loses on any re-arrangement, it will be the same. This objection has been raised by the local team ever since the schedule was drawn up.

Appetising Lenten Fare

We are receiving daily shipments of the very choicest fish, as follows: Sea salmon, halibut, mackeral, pickerel, fresh steak cod, fresh haddock, smelts, fresh herring, tomcods, salmon trout, whitefish, and always the very best Finnan Haddies, bloaters and oysters. We are sorry to disappoint a number of our customers who had given us their orders for bitter oranges. Owing to one consignment missing the steamer, they will not arrive until the beginning of next week. S. A. OKE, 376 George street; telephone No. 22.

CURLING BONSPIEL ATTRACTS THE LOVERS OF THE ROARIN' GAME

MR. W. G. FERGUSON,
The veteran skip who has figured in many of the Bonspiels of the past, but who now suffers from a cold and is unable to participate in the present

Forty-four Rinks Have Signified Their Intention of Entering Peterboro's Greatest Annual Bonspiel—The City in the Hands of the Curlers

GAMES BEGUN AT TWO O'CLOCK

The scoopin' fraternity are in possession of the city to-day and have launched into the greatest curling bonspiel in the history of Peterborough. About one hundred visitors are here prepared to do battle for the honour of their respective clubs. Both the Charlotte street and the Brock street rink are among the busiest spots in the city and are resounding with hilarious shouts.

The occasion is a memorable one for the city. Curlers from all over Ontario are here to do honour to the grand old Canadian winter game and to carry off, if possible, some of the beautiful mementoes that have been provided for the winners. There are staunch besom wielders from Perth, "braw, callants" from Lindsay, and "do or die" curlers from Napanee. There are members of the Bobsaygeon Club, of the Lakefield Club which made such an excellent showing in the District Cup games, of the Orillia, Beaverton, Norwood, Keene and Oshawa Clubs, and a number of others. Every sheet of both rinks is alive with the roarin' of the stones, with the "scoop, scoop" of the besoms, and the shots of "draw, draw," "in wick," "full toe," "come on, boys," and all the other parlance so familiar to the curler.

There was ample evidence in the interior of the rinks this morning that something noteworthy in curling was about to take place. The visiting brethren had mostly all gathered round and were looking after their stones and brooms.

Curling as a winter pastime is fast becoming infectious. Each year the ranks of the curlers are enlarging with recruits who, in enthusiasm, soon become veterans, so that in Canada to-day there are thousands who believe that the game is a right royal sport and stands unrivalled.

Curling was first introduced into Scotland about three hundred years ago by the Flemings. It made its advent into Canada about the year of Queen Victoria's accession, when the curling "stones" were made of rounded blocks of maple wood with bent pieces of iron for handles.

On the curling rink all rank and distinctions are laid aside, the ties of friendship are strengthened, the asperities of sect and party are abandoned and harmony and good fellowship promoted. It is this sense of brotherhood that accounts for the enthusiasm and contagious merriment manifested by the curler. It has the power of absorbing one's thought and giving oblivion to the troubles and worries of life. The curling rink supplies the necessary recreation for body and mind, an essential need to the perplexed professional or business man.

The game has prominent advantages for the body as well as for the mind and is most beneficial to the physical condition of its devotees. To be a successful curler one must be active, hardy, and capable of enduring strong, muscular strains, and practicing the game is the only certain method of obtaining these intrinsic qualities.

Curling develops the powers of quick observation, the activity of the foot and of the hand, and there is not a more healthy exercise for the propagation of all the physical powers. A level head and a steady nerve are required to place a stone where desired.

If the ice is keen, the element of making an accidental good shot is diminished and the result depends on scientific playing alone. The curler is therefore always striving for perfection and it is this impetus that entices him on, which fact produces an obvious ethical advantage. There is no sport in which merriment and good fellowship reign as much in curling, and those who have had awakened in them an interest in the famous game consider it a serious strain on their nerves to believe that the Garden of Eden was located in a country where the winters never congealed.

About 2 o'clock the curlers filed out onto the ice, and soon after playing commenced. There was a zealous brushing of stones, an adjusting of rakish Tam o' shanters, warming galls, a scrutinising of brooms. The various sheets of ice were much admired by the visitors. They had been carefully prepared, and every precaution had been taken by Mr.

CONFERENCE WITH THE RAILWAY OFFICIALS

With a View of Having Kendry Made Regular Stop for C. P. R. Trains— Mr. Nelson to be Here.

MEETING TO BE HELD AT ORIENTAL

The people of North Monaghan are in earnest in their efforts to secure better train accommodation and improved shipping facilities and are taking active steps to have their views placed before the proper authorities.

To-night the members of the North Monaghan Council, with a number of influential men from that township will hold a conference at the Oriental Hotel here with Mr. Nelson, superintendent of the C.P.R. for this division with a view of establishing Kendry, the nearest point on the C. P.R. to Springville as a permanent station, with regular stops. It will be remembered that at the last meeting of the township council this matter was taken up and instructions were given to the clerk to arrange a meeting between the council and the railway officials with a view of having an improvement effected.

There is, it appears, an increasingly large amount of shipping from the the vicinity of the Kendry station, and at the present time it is said to be most inconvenient for shippers to have to take their goods to a station where they can be placed on the cars. If Kendry is made a stop, this will to a large extent be overcome.

Post Cards in Art

By special arrangement with the publishers, the Peterborough Bookstore has secured an advanced assortment of postcard reproductions of the world's famous art galleries. These embrace the masterpieces of the greatest artists of the world. Every postcard an actual work of art. Also tinselled, bas-relief postcards of the crowned heads of Europe, His Holiness Pope Pius X., and fascinating postcard reproductions of the leading actresses of the day.

Administered Good Dressing Down To The Hoodlums

Yesterday afternoon a young gentleman who was at the toboggan slide at Jackson Park, in company with another young man and a couple of lady friends, administered a well-deserved trouncing to three or four young hoodlums who for some weeks have been frequenting the slide and annoying the patrons of the rink and slide. Yesterday their attentions became particularly obnoxious and the young man in question, who, by the way, is athletically inclined, decided to punish them. Telling his friends that he wanted a rest, he allowed the other three to go down the slide while he remained behind. While they were away he waded into the three or four youths, and by the time his friends had returned he was alone on the field of battle, his molesters having been driven, vanquished, from the scene, and his friends did not know what had transpired during the few minutes occupied in making the descent and the return.

It is probable that these lads will not be the source of annoyance in the future that they have been in the past.

HOW TO PREVENT STRIKES

The bill to improve the relations existing between capital and labour, and to lessen the friction attending the operation of natural monopolies in Canada, brought up in the House of Commons yesterday by Mr. Lemieux for a second reading, is a notable measure. It is a half-way house between governmental non-interference and compulsory arbitration. The country is not yet ready for compulsory arbitraion. Both employers and employees object, and public sentiment is scarcely strong enough to enforce both capital and labour.

In deference to this feeling, Mr. Lemieux's bill brings in a measure providing for the establishment of a tribunal which will, in certain cases, investigate the circumstances and give to the public an intelligent opinion upon the respective rights relative position of the parties before any strike or lockout can be declared. The public utilities, to which it is particularly intended the bill shall apply, are industries like mining and transportation—natural monopolies having other industries dependent upon them.

In effect, therefore, Mr. Lemieux says that before any strike or lockout shall be declared in the mines or on the railways of Canada, the public shall, by means of a public inquiry, be put in possession of the facts. That provision should prevent many an ill-advised industrial war. Inquire first, strike afterwards.—Brantford Expositor.

LEGISLATION IS CRITICIZED

"By that legislation not only has there been enlarged the monopoly of the liquor traffic and its entrenchment strengthened, but the requirements of the three-fifths vote to carry or repeal local option has placed the best sentiments of the Province at a disadvantage for fighting the traffic."

This was how the Rev. E. S. Starr Sunday night, in Berkeley Street Methodist Church, Toronto, described the result of the Whitney Government's temperance legislation. He pointed out that without any previous intimation this legislation was introduced into the Legislature and carried through. The Conservative party had probably more temperance votes in its ranks than had the Opposition, and yet the Whitney Administration antagonized that element. The banishment of the bars was the people's demand, and if Mr. Whitney refused to lead, then there is another, continued Mr. Starr, ready and waiting to do so. Further juggling with the liquor question was not to be tolerated. He hoped the Dominion Alliance, at its meeting here in a few days, would put itself on record as prepared to follow any leader, Conservative, Independent or Liberal, who will make the banishment of the bars an issue at the polls.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

When the Liberal Government went out of office in Ontario, there was in the yards of the Central Prison an immense stock of manufactured goods and lumber. What became of it? Where did it all go? Who kept track of its leaving the prison premises.?

It was to be expected that complaint would be made of a local establishment working on Sunday. In the case on which the complaint is based, it was clearly a work of necessity. An essential part of the machinery of an electrical lighting plant had become deranged, and it was necessary in the interests of continuity of service that the repairs should be immediately made. This was done. If it had not been so done, the public, and even the churches dependent upon this plant for light, would have been without light for domestic purposes and for church services.

The spoils system series of "investigations," or, more correctly, fishing expeditions, seems to have not been very fortunate. As far as the development of facts incriminating officials are concerned, the investigation into the affairs of the Institute for the Blind at Brantford, "pinched out," and the same will apply to the inquiry into the affairs of the Deaf and Dumb Institute, at Belleville. That nothing wrong of any moment was discovered will not avail anything. Mr. Whitney will doubtless regard the mere fact of an investigation being held, as a technical observance of his promise not to dismiss an official with investigation. And more heads will fall.

The indications are that the administration of license affairs in Toronto are not at all satisfactory, and it is doubtful if the investigation now under way in regard to the alleged illicit trafficking in licenses will reveal the true inwardness of the matter. If the Government had been anxious to probe affairs to the root, they would have accepted the offer of the Opposition to supply a cross-examining counsel and to provide witnesses. It is believed with, or without, justification, and currently reported that there has been more impropriety, not to say, malfeasance in connection with the administration of license interests in the matter of transferring and granting of licenses—in two years of the administration of the Whitney Government, than in the whole thirty years of Liberal administration.

NOT EDIFYING

The demoralizing effects of the operation of the smut machine, represented by the Thaw trial in New York, becomes daily more evident. We should expect the yellow journals to exploit the salacious details with all the amplitude their vicious ingenuity permits, but one would hardly expect the pulpit to enter the contest in nastiness. The latest despatches inform us that two clerical degenerates based sermons last Sunday, on the Thaw trial. A Boston, so-called, minister in a sermon on the "unwritten law"—a license to murder—predicts that Thaw will go free, both from the death penalty, and an insane asylum. He says that Thaw was insane at the time he committed the murder, but he is sane now. "A storm cloud broke over him for the moment." Another, a New York, so-called, minister, told his congregation that Evelyn Thaw was "not bad"—"she had just lived to be happy." Could any more odious immorality be promulgated in a bagnio? Could anything more vicious than the defense of murder and impurity from the pulpit be imagined? The name of the cities whose congregations are found to listen complacently to such iniquitous sentiments, enunciated by assumed teachers of morals, should be changed to Corinth, or Sodom and Gomorrah. An old copy-book headline read, "Shame being lost, all virtue is lost."

A CONTRAST

In the five years that Hon. Mr. Stratton had charge of the Central Prison the cash paid on account of the Central Prison Industries to the Provincial Treasurer of Ontario, with the balance on hand December 31, 1905, amounted to $87,967.60. This is not taking into consideration that during the same period there had been paid on Central Prison machinery from industrial earnings, not included in the above, over $40,000, thus making the total profits for five years $128,176.80, an average of over $25,000 a year. In the last half of last year alone the Whitney Government lost money on this same account and did not receive from the contractor three cents per hour for the labour of the men. This comparison constitutes a very sharp contrast in methods of management, and corresponding results. There are a lot of things in connection with the Central Prison in relation to the Government management that will stand investigation.

WHERE THE BOY WILL BE THE SOLE RULER

Complete "Boys Town" to be Established for Three Weeks Next Summer.

FIVE THOUSAND PERSONS IN THE CITY

Richmond Ind., Feb. 17.—Boys of Detroit and Michigan will be interested in the fact that the boys of the United States are to have a city all their own at Lake Winona, Ind.—a community of 5000 persons, ranging in age from 11 to 17 years, organized as a complete municipality, with wards, city council, mayor and administrative departments. Such is the plan for a boys' Chautauqua, to be associated with the Winona Assembly, which has been formed by philanthropists of that body. The "boy city" is to be conducted during three weeks of next August.

There will be eight wards in the city, each one of which will elect a representative to the city council. The council will meet once or twice a week. A grocery, a notion and candy store, a soda water fountain, a restaurant, a photographic supply shop, etc., are to be owned and operated by stock companies of boys, each member in charge of an adult. At the end of the season the profits will be distributed as dividends. These various enterprises will be organized by the management, and will be ready for business on the opening day.

Each boy will be expected to provide his own provisions. He may bring them with him or buy them at the grocery, and may eat his meals at the restaurant, where the prices will be only a little more than cost. Fuel, laundry and other necessities will be supplied by the management.

The boys will live in tents holding four and eight occupants. These will be set up by the management without cost to the boys, the small advance fee charged each for his three weeks' residence in the city, including this tent, cot, light, fuel and water. There will be five permanent buildings in the city—the assembly hall, general store and supply house, gymnasium, band stand, and electrical and photographic stops, besides study rooms.

MUST NOT MONOPOLIZE THE OZONE

So Thinks Sherbrooke Street Resident Who Wants His Neighbours to Lower Board Fence.

A somewhat novel claim for damages has been made by a Sherbrooke street resident against his next door neighbour for wilfully shutting out light and ozone by the erection of a high board fence. The complainant some time ago purchased a strip of land from the defendant, upon which a house had been built. The defendant erected a board fence about seven feet in height between his land and that of the other, and now the purchaser claims that not enough light is allowed to pass through his windows on account of them being so low. The plaintiff, too, believes that no one person should have a monopoly over the ozone, and thinks that the fence should not have been built so high in the air.

The case will come up before Judge Weller in the near future at the High Court, and no doubt will be an interesting one.

MRS. ATCHINSON GOES TO MERCER FOR TERM

street gave evidence that the house had a bad reputation. They said that drunken men were frequently seen around the house, loud noises, swearing, etc., were very commonplace, and on the whole it was a general nuisance to the people of the vicinity.

Several men who had been found there stated that, except for drunkenness, they had seen nothing else that was improper. One of these, stated that he had assisted Mrs. Howell home at various times, and she had taken him in, and, in fact, "had always been a good mother to him."

Wm. Austin

Austin stated that he was a boarder at the house in question, paying $3.50 to Mrs. Louisa Atchison-Howell. He had never seen anything very immoral. Friends of the prisoner frequently called, but the worst he had ever seen were a few drunken brawls.

Frances Ames

Mrs. Frances Ames, alias Jessie Harris, said that she was married in Toronto last August and had separated from her husband in September, and she had not been with him since. She met Mrs. Howell in the Queen City last summer, and the latter asked her to visit her if she ever came to Peterborough.

She came to the city a week before Christmas, and was engaged as a servant by Mrs. Howell, who was very ill, and under a physician's care. She gave the name of Jane Harris. She received $3.50 and her board, from her employer for household duties. She frequently saw liquor used to excess by Mrs. Howell but saw no money received for it. Saw no improper relations or anything immoral during her stay at 65 McDonel street. Men came to the house at times, she had seen them, but nothing had taken place that was improper.

Mrs. Howell

Louisa stated that she had been very ill and the only alternative to be taken to the hospital was to secure the services of a girl, and for that reason hired Mrs. Ames. The insinuations that had been generally voiced were entirely untrue. She might have been drunk, she said, but if so had procured her whiskey in the hotels and had not sold any under her own roof.

Mr. Gordon appeared on behalf of the accused and asked the Magistrate that he find the prisoner not guilty on the evidence that had been received. Mrs. Howell-Atchison was a very sick woman, besides any guilt that had not been made manifest.

Six months in the Mercer Reformatory was the sentence that the court imposed.

The evidence of P. C. Newhall was rather weighty. He had arrested the two Women on Friday, Feb. 15, in the afternoon. They were let out on bail, and that very evening four men were found in the house by the officers of the law.

Thus a bane to the general morals of the city has been removed, for a time at least.

HOTEL TRAFFICKING.

Curious Evidence of How They Do Things In City of Toronto—Dr. Beattie Nesbitt In It.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—Trafficking in hotel property in Toronto and some of the peculiar negotiations that arise from such traffic were strikingly brought out yesterday when the investigation demanded by Dr. R. J. Wilson, chairman of the Board of License Commissioners, opened before Mr. J. R. L. Starr, the commissioner.

The evidence given hinged upon property, 56 and 58 Yonge street, upon which Mr. F. W. Mossop is at present erecting a hotel.

It appears that Mr. John F. Hynes and Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, the former member in the Legislature for North Toronto, desired to obtain an option upon this property, which was owned by Mr. W. B. Reid. To do so they signed a joint note for $1,000, which was cashed by the Cosgrave Brewing Co., and secured the option. Previous to this a license for the property, which had formerly been taken away from the old Tymon House, had been granted to Mr. Frederick J. Hynes, a relative of Mr. John F. Hynes. Before the option expired it was testified by a witness that Mr. J. F. Hynes went to the Cosgrave Co. and expressed his inability to finance so large a scheme, at the same time asking the company to find a purchaser for the property, a purchaser being forthcoming in the person of Mr. F. W. Mossop.

How the deal was put through appeared from the evidence of the different witnesses called. Mr. Mossop agreed to take over the property, which the purchaser held at $17,000, plus $5,000, which was to be the profit of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt and Mr. J. F. Hynes, and also to assume a chattel mortgage for $10,000 given by Mr. Frederick J. Hynes and held by Mr. L. J. Cosgrave, or a total of $32,000 in all.

'PHONE GIRLS' SERVICE.

New System Includes Seven Hours Work In a Nine Hours' Day.

Toronto, Feb. 19.—The telephone inquiry came to an unexpected ending yesterday. After refusing to accept the verdict of any board of medical men who might investigate the working conditions of the operators, the officials of the Bell Co. put forward a new working system, and after a lengthy consultation the girls' committee decided this new system was more in the interests of their health than working for five hours a day with no regular reliefs. Seeing that the girls agreed to accept this system, though they still contended these hours were too long, the commission decided not to hear any more evidence, and adjourned sine die.

Two Hour Shifts.

The new proposal provides that operators work steadily for two hours, then have half an hour relief, an hour then half an hour relief, an hour lunch, and the same hours in the afternoon. By this system no girl will work longer than two hours continuously. Though the hours to be spent at the switchboard number seven a day, the girls will be required to spend nine hours each day at their work. The company and the long-distance operators will make some special arrangements among themselves.

THE BRITISH COMMONS.

Take Up and Debate Irish and House of Lords Questions.

London, Feb. 19.—The question of Ireland again played a prominent part in the House of Commons last night, the Opposition leaders accusing the Ministers of breaking their election pledges by the endeavor to give Ireland an instalment of home rule.

Chancellor of the Exchequer Asquith, in the absence of Premier Campbell-Bannerman, who is suffering from a cold, replied to the Opposition. He promised that nobody inside nor outside the House was yet in possession of the details of the Government's Irish plans, and contended that there was nothing novel in the declarations made by the Premier and Mr. Birrell that the ultimate solution of the Irish problem could be found only in some form of home rule.

Problem a Grave One.

A. J. Balfour strongly criticized the Government for the attempting to deal with the question of the House of Lords. Referring to the extraordinary gravity of the problem, he pointed out that in all other countries where representative institutions and second chambers existed, there was a written constitution, while in England there is practically no written constitution.

He said the people of the United States had so swathed and bound themselves in the limits of their constitutions, that they were unable o impose even an income tax, and could not alter this constitution without a proceedure so cumbrous and difficult that it would be the despair of any practical statesman.

Finally the amendment moved by Earl Percy, which raised the discussion concerning the House of Lords, by expressing regret that urgent social measures should be postponed in favor of making changes in the constitution was rejected by a majority of 263.

THE HYMAN PRECEDENT

The action of the Conservative press and politicians in throwing doubt upon the reality of the illness of Hon. Charles Hyman is neither chivalrous nor in good taste. In the desire to make a little petty party capital out of the situation, sneak enterprise has gone so far as to send spies all the way to California, where Mr. Hyman had gone for his health, to invade his privacy and dog his movements. Much is made of the fact that after staying a long time in California, Mr. Hyman was able to take drives, etc., the insinuation being that he was not sick at all, in spite o fthe possibility of a sick man recovering in the course of two or three months. Mr. Hyman, as the result of an investigation—with which result he was in no wise personally connected—which showed that improper means had been used in his election, honourably resigned his seat. In so doing, he established a precedent for a course of action which no Conservative member of Parliament has ever taken under similar circumstances. In 1891 it was shown, in connection with the McGreevy-Connolly scandal, that Sir Hector Langevin, at that time Minister of Public Works, was directly implicated. Did he resign? By no means—the Conservative majority in the House whitewashed him.

Without Colds no Lung Trouble

A person may be predisposed to consumption by heredity; he may be in unsanitary surroundings, and may breath impure air, but the beginning of trouble is always a neglected cold. In thousands of Canadian homes Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is kept as a sure cure for coughs and colds, and a protection against diseases of the lungs.

MAPLE SUGAR AND MAPLE SYRUP

Although the maple sugar industry is still a part of the future, yet a little consideration of a bulletin, lately issued by the Department of Agriculture on "Maple Sugar and Syrup as an Industry," may be of interest to some of its local consumers.

When cold winter begins to relax its grasp before the warm breezes of the approaching spring, the sugar-maker makes the necessary preparations for the annual run of the maple sap. The nights are still frost, but the sunny days are genial, and there is a suggestion in the air of the coming of spring. This is the time of the year to "tap," by boring through the sap wood of the maple tree and inserting a spout, from which the sap will fall drop by drop, quickly or slowly, according to the weather and time of day. The flow is irregular, and governed by a multitude of conditions. Alternate freezing and thawing, moderately warm days, followed by freezing nights, are the ideal conditions to promote the "flow." So long as the air temperature remains constant, whether warm or cold, there will be little or no sap flow.

Changes

Like every other industry, sugar-making has undergone many changes, but the same old principles remain still the elements of the process. Modern buildings, boilers and equipment have replaced the primeval methods of our great grandfathers. Also the greatest change is that many of our maple forests have been razed, and very often a questionable article has been manufactured by the retail grocer himself. However, of the genuine article that has been the delight of those who have tasted it, that which has made the maple famous and which would, in flavour and excellence, surpass the honey of the Highland bees, there is still a good annual output. From an investigation made by the Inland Revenue Department as to the quality of the maple sugar and syrup which is generally sold, out of 212 samples that were tested, 88 were genuine, eight were dubious, and 116 adulterated.

Operations

The first operation in the sugar bush after scattering the spouts and buckets, is tapping. The time to tap is when every indication points to warm sunny days with cold nights and care must be taken not to tap before the sap will run, as it only tends to dry up the sap fibres of the tree when left exposed to the atmosphere. After selecting a place to bore, remove only the loose bark from the trees, blazing or rosing being unnecessary. With a bit or tapping spoon bore a hole from one and a half to two inches deep, with the point of the bit slightly turned upwards.

The bucket is then attached to the spout by a hanger suspended therefrom and so placed as to catch the sap as it falls drop by drop from the spout.

The sap should be strained three or four times during the handling and kept free from all impurities and foreign matter. These impart an undesirable dark colour, besides spoiling the flavour of the clean maple goods. Heat is detrimental to the sap, therefore keep it as cool as possible in the sap-holder.

Before starting the fire place the evaporator on the arch and run in enough sap to cover the bottom of the pan to a depth of one quarter of an inch above the corrugations. Begin boiling as soon as sufficient sap has been gathered to keep the evaporator in operation. Always boil rapidly with the sap as shallow as possible in the evaporator.

As the syrup is drawn from the evaporator in small batches, pour through a felt filter or a piece of flannel cloth folded double ply, into a small vessel about the size of an ordinary bucket.

An imperial gallon of syrup properly strained and afterwards allowed to settle, should weigh when cold 13 pounds, 2 ounces.

Sugaring Off

After the syrup has been properly settled it is poured off through a felt filter or other strainer, into a 'sugaring off' pan, and then placed on an arch or stove, and boiled until it reaches a granulated state, hard enough to cake into sugar.

After the operator is certain that this granulated state has been reached, the pan of hot sugar is removed from the stove and slowly cooled until it begins to thicken, when it is poured into small tins for caking. If soft or tub sugar is required, do not boil so much. Just before filling the tins with the hot sugar dip them in cold water, to facilitate the removal of the cake of sugar when cool. An imperial gallon of syrup will make about nine pounds of sugar. Whether it is more profitable to make sugar or syrup is a question which must be left to the producer to decide. At the present time the prevailing market prices are much in favour of making more syrup and less sugar.

CITY MILITIA MEN MUST PASS THE DOCTORS

Warning Comes From Ottawa to This Effect—Must be Fit.

THIS SHOULD RAISE THE STANDARD

The following taken from the Toronto Star should be of interest to the members of the 57th regiment, as it means that every man enlisted must pass a medical examination and be declared physically fit before he is taken on the strength of the regiment. As the 57th is a city corps, these regulations have a direct bearing upon the regiment:

Militia regulations provide that every man enlisted in the various militia organizations of Canada shall be physically fit. It is no news to anybody who has been connected with the city corps that this regulation is seldom observed. Each city regiment has one or more surgeons on its regimental staff, but, except in the case of those corps which go to camp for their annual training, the regimental surgeons seldom go so far as to thump the chest of a would-be recruit. Indeed, it is a question whether 90 per cent. of the members of the local regiments ever squared up before the regimental doctor. It is a matter of good luck rather than of good management, that the physique of the volunteer Tommy Atkinses of Toronto to-day is generally good. This fact makes it all the more noticeable, however, that there are a number of men in various local corps who are below the standard.

As a gentle reminder that this medical rule is not a piece of unnecessary red tape, recent Militia Orders contained a paragraph calling the attention of all officers of city corps to this regulation. This is timely, as the recruit classes are being arranged for, and some of them will commence business next week. Recruiting is going to be brisk this year. The regiments can well afford to pick their men.

THE BIBLE CLASS' NEW OFFICERS

Annual Meeting of the Bible Class of St. Luke's Sunday School Was Held Last Night.

Last night the annual meeting of the Bible Class of St. Lukes' Church was held at the residence of Mr. J. J. Turner, Jr., when the officers for the year were elected and arrangements were made for holding the annual excursion of the class on Dominion Day. An interesting feature of the evening was an address from the rector, Rev. E. A. Lanefeldt, who explained to the members of the class the two mission funds of the church and to what purpose the money contributed to missions was devoted.

The officers for the year elected last night are as follows:

President—J. J. Turner, Jr.
Vice-President—Miss Carrie Whittaker.
Treasurer—Percy Crane.
Recording-Secretary — Miss Clara Mitchell.

THIRTY BELOW ZERO IN MINDEN

Some Severe Weather Being Experienced in the North Country.

Minden Echo.—The north country was visited on Sunday, the 10th inst., by one of the most severe snowstorms of the season. It commenced early in the morning and continued all day with more or less severity. The snowfall is said to have been five or six inches on the level. The lumbermen are much pleased to be supplied with such a fine quantity of snow, and just at the time, too when they were considering the advisability of resorting to some artificial means to lessen friction. The weather to-day (Tuesday) is quite noticeable, being 30 below zero this morning.

Varicose Ulcers Cured

Miss Elizabeth Campbell, No. 20, Sheridan avenue, Toronto, states: — "About eight years ago I hurt my leg near the ankle, and the result was what the doctors called varicose ulcers. I was treated in two Toronto hospitals and sent away without being cured. From the very start Dr. Chase's Ointment helped me, and by persistent use it has entirely cured me."

DIED.

KENT. — At 362 Hunter street, on Monday, February 18th, 1907, Lubin Kent. Funeral from residence, Wednesday, Feb. 20, at 2.30 p.m., to the Little Lake cemetery.

WEDDING BELLS

GREENSLADE--KEYWOOD

A recent English paper has the following account of the wedding of a brother of Mr. W. Greenslade, of this city, in Sampford Peverell:

A large number of friends were present at the Parish Church on Tuesday last to witness the wedding of Miss Blanche Robina Heywood, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heywood, of Boobier's cottage, to Colour - Sergeant - Instructor Greenslade, of Uplowman. The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly attired, and was attended by the bridegroom's two sisters, the Misses Emma and Ada Greenslade, as bridesmaids. Mr. Gilbert Bruce Heywood, brother of the bride, acted as best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. C. Rossiter, the bridegroom being married in his uniform. As the newly-married couple left the church, Sergeant-Instructor Ridd, Tiverton; Sweeney, Cullompton; Aplin, Crediton, and Pitt, Sidmouth, friends of the bridegroom, crossed swords for them to walk under. Sergeant-Instructor Hocking, of Croydon, was unable to be present at the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Greenslade left later in the day for their honeymoon at Plymouth amid the many good wishes for health and prosperity in their new home at Honiton.

OBITUARY

LUBIN KENT

An old and very highly respected resident of Peterborough passed away last night about midnight in the person of Mr. Lubin Kent, whose death occurred at his residence, 362 Hunter street, after a protracted, though not particularly painful illness, death being due to old age, or the ailments incident to that condition, deceased having reached the advanced age of 84 years, the last 22 of which he spent in Peterborough, where he was well known and very highly respected. The late Mr. Kent was born in Lincolnshire, England. He leaves to mourn his loss his widow and one son, Herbert, of Vancouver, B. C. One brother, Noel, of Kingston, also survives him.

The funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon from the family residence to the Little Lake Cemetery for interment.

TALK OF REVOLVER SCARED THIS BURGLAR

Cleveland Girl Found Man Under Her Bed But Strategy Got Rid Of Him.

HOW THE SITUATION WAS SAVED.

Cleveland, Feb. 17. — Miss Helene Bellows found a man under her bed on Friday night. As Miss Bellows is 18, golden-haired, blue-eyed and very feminine, and inasmuch as she was clad only in a robe de nuit trimmed with pale blue baby ribbon at the time, the situation was not lacking in dramatic element.

But let Miss Bellows tell it. She lives with her mother in apartments at the King Edward, 1805 East Nineteenth street.

'Mamma and I had been boring each other all evening," said Miss Bellows, "and at about 10 o'clock I said with a yawn, 'Well, I'm going to bed.'

"I went into my room, undressed and lay on the bed. I was thinking, perhaps half dozing, when I heard a sound like a deep-drawn breath, as if some one had been holding the air in his lungs so long that he couldn't hold it any longer.

"I thought I had imagined it, but I listened, and heard a scraping sound, and it came from under my bed. I looked over the edge, and there were two big feet.

"I couldn't believe my eyes. I looked again. Yes, the feet were there.

"I lay trembling, trying to think. I screwed up my courage, and looked a third time over the edge of the bed. I was fascinated by the sight of those motionless heels. They were high and military, and above them I could see the bottoms of striped trousers. The feet did not move.

"How long I lay there I do not know; it seemed an eternity. Then I said to myself, 'Well, I can't stay here all night with a man under my bed.'

"So, with a bound and a dash, I was off the bed and into mother's room. 'Mamma,' I said, and I could hardly talk, my voice shook so, 'Mamma, there's a man under my bed.'

"Mamma said, 'Pshaw! Nonsense! You imagined it.'

"But she saw how white and trembling I was, so she said in a loud, awful, mannish voice:

"'Helene get me my revolver!'

"Of course, mamma hasn't any revolver, but you've got to tell little white lies when there is a man under the bed. And no sooner had mamma said that than you'd have thought seventeen men were having a wrestling match in my room. You see, the springs of my bed are rather close to the floor, and it was a tight squeeze for the man.

"We heard him run out the back door, and I guess mamma and I had something like hysterics."

PRESENTATION TO THE RETIRING PRESIDENT

Mr. Chas. H. Reid Given Handsome Books by Members of A.Y.P.A.—Mr. Joseph Bell the New President.

ADDRESS BY REV. E. A. LANGFELDT

The regular meeting of St. John's A.Y.P.A., held last night, was of more than ordinary importance. Besides the excellent programme which always characterizes these meetings, a presentation was made to the retiring president, Mr. Chas. H. Reid, and a new president and treasurer were elected.

The evening's programme was in charge of the Biblical Committee and was one of the most educative and interesting of the many held by the A.Y.P.A. during the winter.

The special feature was the lecture on "Success" by the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, of St. Luke's Church. His talk was along the lines of "The key to success for the young men," and was of a particularly instructive character. A number of appropriate informal solos were also rendered during the evening.

After the lecture, the committee appointed to bring in recommendations for the position of president, of which Miss Birdie Dawson was convenor, submitted two names to the meeting. As a result, Mr. Joseph Bell was unanimously elected to the office of president. Mr. Davey was elected treasurer to succeed Mr. Jno. Hogan, who recently resigned.

The Presentation

An interesting portion of the programme was the presentation to Mr. Chas. Reid. Mr. Beverley Doneslf read the address, which was artistically inscribed in a small pamphlet containing a photograph of St. John's Church. Miss J. E. Layfield presented him with ten volumes of handsome, leather-bound books of the works of Sir Walter Scott, of Lord's history of England, and others.

Mr. Reid, in reply, thanked the members of the A.Y.P.A. for their remembrance and wished them continued success in their work. He hoped that the members in the future would give the same assistance to the incoming president as they had to the retiring one, and felt that if his hopes were realized the A.Y.P.A. would always meet with success.

RESPECTED LADY DIED IN TORONTO

Mrs. Jas. Madill, Mother of Mr. William Madill, Aged 82, Passed Away Yesterday.

There passed away in Toronto yesterday at the ripe old age of 82 years, Mrs. James Madill, mother of Mrs. William Madill, druggist, of this city. By her death there has been removed one of the oldest and one of the most respected personages of the Queen City, and one who has spent more than half a century of married life in Canada. Born in Ireland over four score years ago, she came to Canada at the age of 17 years, settling in Pickering township. Her maiden name was Margaret Finnie, and about five years after her arrival here she married James Madill, who yet survives her, at the age of 86 years.

Her death is attributed to a paralytic stroke which she received last Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Since that time she has never regained consciousness and died from the effects of the stroke last evening at 5 o'clock, at the residence of her son, James, 526 Ontario street, Toronto.

Of the 65 years in Canada, only about ten were spent in Toronto. The remainder of her life was spent in Pickering and Whitby.

Mr. and Mrs. Madill were among the longest married persons in Ontario. On the 28th of July last they celebrated their Diamond Wedding in Toronto. Ten years before their golden wedding was celebrated in Whitby. Besides her husband Mrs. Madill is survived by six sons, and one daughter. The sons are, William, of Peterborough James, Benjamin and Walter, of Toronto; Thomas, of Syracuse, U.S.; and John of St. Catharines; and the daughter is Mrs. Gadsby of Marietta, O. Two sisters also survive. They are Mrs. Clarke of Pontypool, and Mrs. Greer, of Balladuff.

The deceased lady often visited in Peterborough, where she was well known. Last summer, together with her husband, she paid her last visit to her son here. The funeral will take place on Wednesday, and the body will be interred in the union cemetery at Whitby.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THORNS AND ORANGE BLOSSOMS HERE SOON

A new dramatization of Thorns and Orange Blossoms, from Bertha Clay's novel, by Lem B. Parker, is one of the new Rowland & Clifford productions, which will come to the Grand Opera House on February 22nd. This play is making a telling impression en tour, and is called "one of the best comedy dramas of the year." The dramatization is in four splendidly mounted acts, At St. Phillip's Hotel on the Mediterranean; In the drawing room, at Riverswell; at the Mission, and the Cottages at St. Byno's. An exceptionally fine company interprets the various roles.

WOMEN'S LIFE IN WESTERN CANADA

Lot of a Woman in West Not by Any Means One of Drudgery—Interesting Story Entertainings Told.

The Canadian Pacific Railway has just issued an interesting booklet entitled, "Home Life of Women in Western Canada." It will be mailed to anyone applying for it, on the receipt of a two-cent stamp, and to anyone contemplating a removal to the west, or who is interested in that portion of Canada, it will prove entertaining. Applications for copies of the booklet should be addressed to W. T. Robson, advertising agent of the C. P. R., Montreal.

This booklet has but one purpose in view; to place before its readers a simple pen picture of daily life as it is lived by the farm wives of the great Canadian West. Any impression that life on a Canadian prairie farm means unceasing drudgery, is incorrect; and a visit to various farm homes will reveal the existence of a wonderful spirit of buoyancy, almost incredible returns in cash reward for pioneer labour, and men and women who have long passed life's meridian still actively engaged in service—but it is a service for home love and home building.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE CRESCENT SEVEN

Frank D. Woodworth Says New Yorkers Will Give Locals a Great Game.

THEY ARE NEARLY ALL CANADIANS

Mr. Chris. Graham, secretary of the Peterborough Hockey Club, has received a letter from Frank D. Woodworth, of New York, former sporting editor of the Toronto Mail and Empire, in which much interesting information is given concerning the Crescent Athletic Club hockey team of New York City, who will meet the locals here on Friday night in what should prove one of the best games seen here in many moons. Mr. Woodworth says that the Crescents are a gentlemanly lot of good sports who will give Peterborough a hard game.

The Crescent Athletic Club has a membership of 3000 and has a good record, both in lacrosse and hockey. With the exception of 1904 they have held the championship of the New York Hockey League since 1899, seven times in all. The players are all strictly amateurs in every sense of the word, and are all bonafide members of the club.

Following is a short sketch of each of the players, which should be found interesting. Local sporting men will remember Herbie O'Flynn, who played great lacrosse for the Athletics here some years ago.

The Players

Bert Mackenzie is the goal-keeper as well as the manager of the team. He is a Brooklyn boy and has played with the team for the last six years. He stands over six feet tall and is one of the best guardians of the nets playing in the New York League. Herbie O'Flynn, is a graduate of the University of Toronto and a former resident of Madoc, Ont. He played for Varsity before going to New York. Although the lightest man on the team by a good many pounds, O'Flynn plays a very aggressive game at point, lifting and rushing well. He is prominent as a lacrosse player, and formerly played with the Athletics of Peterborough.

Bob Wall is the veteran of the team and plays cover-point. He is the best defence player in New York and learned his hockey with the Montreal Shamrocks. He is over six feet in height and is a hard man to pass.

Artie Liffiton, the centre man, is a brother of Charlie Liffiton, of the Toronto professionals, and Ernie Liffiton, of Pittsburg, and is said to be faster and better than either of his brothers. He is very fast and is a dangerous shot at all times. He learned the game in Montreal.

Jimmy Sheriff is the rover of the team, and for speed and stickhandling non the otter New York forwards guessing the greater part of the time, handling sticks magnificently. He is a Brockville boy.

Sam Kennedy, one of the wing men, learned the game in Barrie, Ont. His shooting from the side is quick, and accurate and he is putting up a wonderful game.

Cub Scheibler is a Brooklyn boy, who has played for a number of years. He is a good checker and works in well with the combination.

Bill Dobby is another Montreal man who learned his hockey with Wall on the Montreal Shamrocks. He is a great check and a fine shot.

Johnny O'Rourke is another Brooklyn boy, who gives promise of becoming a star forward.

Tiny Gladney, the spare man of the team, is a graduate of Toronto Varsity, and hails originally from Marmora, Ont. He is one of the stars of the Crescent lacrosse team and plays an aggressive game of hockey.

Among the other well-known former Canadians who will accompany the team will be Levis J. Doyle, manager of the Crescent lacrosse team, and Archie Allen, captain of the lacrosse team.

Special Train

The team will be accompanied by about fifty rooters, and will arrive in Toronto at 11.15 o'clock on Friday morning. They will leave the Queen City on the 1.50 p.m. G. T. R. train, arriving here at 5.35, having two special coaches. They will have supper at the Oriental, and after the game will leave Peterborough by special G. T. R. train at 10.15 for Toronto, where they play on Saturday night. These two games are all they play on the tour.

There will no doubt be a monster crowd present at the rink for this game, which should be one of the most interesting ever seen on local ice.

"SQUARE DEAL" WANTS SQUARE RACING DEALS

Honest Conduct of Races the Price of Public Patronage and Approval.

Sporting Editor Examiner.

Dear Sir,—I see by your paper on Saturday that the Peterborough Turf Club elected officers for the coming year. This reminds me of the meet to be held, I have no doubt, the coming summer. With the passing of the ice races, local horsemen and race spectators will naturally begin to again think of the time when the Driving Park track will again resound with the hoof beats of the high strung flyers. Now, I am a horseman, not in the practical sense of the word, but in a broad sense, for I delight in a good, clean, square trotting or running race, just the same as I delight in any other sport that provides honest, healthy enjoyment and a fair contest.

This takes me back to the recent ice meet on the Driving Park, at which I was unfortunate enough to be a spectator. I went to see some good racing sport, and braved the intense cold for the purpose. I was by no means alone in feeling thoroughly disgusted with the exhibition of so-called racing—it seemed to me and others that there was deliberate crookedness in the manner of conducting some of the events. I may not be an expert in racing rules, but it seemed to me that the real contest was not between the horses entered, but rather, that the owners or backers or other interested parties were doing the racing. The worthy judges, however, seemed to be blind to the fact, but, as their knowledge of track rules is greater than mine, I suppose my humble opinion is worth little to anybody but myself. Still, I have reason to know that it is the opinion of a great many others I have spoken to on the subject. And this much I know, the public are not fools, and can see through things that are contrary to fair play and honest tests of speed. I have little or no sympathy with those who back the wrong horse or are beaten out of money placed on the right horse which is "pulled" or put out of the running in some way; if they play the game they must take what's coming. I don't blame the race officials or the officers of the club, but they must be well aware of crooked work which is plain to outsiders. I like to see a good, honest race, but I won't pay good money to see alleged racing, when the winners are decided off the track. And there are thousands like me. If the Peterborough Turf Club wants to have successful race meets they must see that the races are straight—that the horses, the drivers, the betting ring and the public get a square deal. With one of the best half-mile tracks in the country, there is no reason why, with honestly-conducted race management that would secure the confidence of both the public and the talent, there would not be a big field of good horses attracted by good purses, with the lawn at the Driving Park, crowded with spectators, insuring a great gate. But if the management that we had at the last race meet is a specimen buck, there are thousands of lovers of good turf sport who will not attend future meets, and among the absentees will be,

Yours truly,
SQUARE DEAL.

ORPHANS LOST.

The Orphans of the City League journeyed to Lakefield and played an exhibition game with the City League team of that place, losing after a good game by 11-4. The half-time score was 7-0 in favour of Lakefield, but the Orphans made a far better showing in the second half. Lakefield had the strongest line-up they have have this season, including Blomfield, the star cover-point of last year's team.

The game had begun in a most enthusiastic manner, and all the curlers were working hard for victory.

The primary competition was won last year by Dickson Davidson's rink, consisting of himself as skip, and S. D. Hall, S. T. Medd and W. J. Thompson. His first opponent was Jas. Connal, whom he defeated by the score of 13 to 9. The Consolation was won by Skip C. N. Brown, who had on his line-up R. Carton, H. D. Campbell and T. Brightman. His final opponent was Thos. Rutherford, the score being 14 to 7.

The draws were made at one o'clock, with the following results:

REPOSED IN VATICAN.

Complaint That Official of French Foreign Office Revealed Secrets.

Paris, Feb. 19.—Persistent rumors are in circulation of the discovery of treasonable practices carried on by an important official of the Foreign Office, who is alleged to have communicated to the Vatican the contents of diplomatic documents emanating from French ambassadors to foreign countries.

The official is said to have been peremptorily discharged.

Clemenceau would be able to report to M. Fallieres that the Ministry would present a united front in Parliament

HARRY THAW'S WILL IN COURT

Shows Clear Evidence of An Unsound Mind.

PRISONER FEARED WHITE

But Had Never Intended to Kill Him —Had Wanted Simply to Bring Him to Justice Through Legal Means, But Providence Took Charge of It—Thaw Had Complained of White to District Attorney.

New York, Feb. 19.—"I never wanted to shoot the creature. I never wanted to kill him. I knew he was a foul creature, destroying the mothers and daughters of America, but I wanted through legal means to bring him to trial. I wanted to get him into court —to bring him to justice. But Providence took charge of it; it was an act of Providence."

This is Harry K. Thaw's account of the killing of Stanford White. It was given by him to Dr. Evans, the alienist, last August in the Tombs. Yesterday Dr. Evans repeated the prisoner's words to the jury which is trying Thaw for his life.

Will in Evidence.

The will and the codicil, as read to the jurors yesterday, were offered in evidence as cumulative evidence of Thaw's mental unsoundness prior to the shooting of White. In his will Thaw provided that his executors should set apart the sum of $50,000 for the investigation of his death in case of a violent or suspicious end, and for the prosecution of the persons suspected of having had a hand in his taking off.

In the codicil Thaw left to a lawyer in Pittsburg the sum of $7,500 to be used as a legal redress from Stanford White and one other person, whose name was not allowed to be read, for the benefit of four young women who, Thaw declared, were the victims of "degrading assaults" in a house furnished and used for orgies by Stanford White and other inhuman scoundrels."

The names of the four young women were mentioned by Thaw, but were not made public. Thaw also bequeathed sums of $2,500 each to the Rev. Charles Parkhurst, to Anthony Comstock and to the lawyers named in his codicil, to be used to further discover alleged misdeeds by Stanford White and to secure redress for the women.

Delmas on Deck.

The trial yesterday entered its fifth week. The opening of court found Anthony Delphin Michel Delmas again in his accustomed place at the head of Thaw's counsel table.

Mr. Bolton was at the Criminal Court building early yesterday, and said that he felt perfectly able to go on with the trial. It was decided that the jurors be not again confined until they retire to reach a verdict.

Dr. Evans lengthily recounted his conversations with Thaw in the Tombs. He testified how Thaw declared that his lawyers and physicians were in a conspiracy with the district attorney "to railroad" him to an asylum and to prevent his case from coming to trial. He declared that Thaw asserted "they wanted to close this matter up." Thaw told the physician that in his attempts to bring Stanford White to justice he complained to District Attorney Jerome, and that the latter told him to let the matter drop; that there was nothing to it. He also complained to Anthony Comstock and to a detective agency.

Sharp Cross-Examination.

"He referred constantly to 'this man,' 'this creature,' 'the dead man,' 'the beat,' 'the blackguard,' and said the man had sought to take the virtue of every pure-minded woman who came within the sphere of his observation," said Dr. Evans.

Dr. Evans was corroborated as to most of Thaw's statements by Dr. Charles G. Wagner of Binghamton, who first figured as a witness early last week.

Late in the afternoon District Attorney Jerome cross-examined Dr. Evans briefly on the one point, of his expressed opinion that Thaw was of unsound mind at the time he executed his will. The prosecutor and witness struck fire at the first contact.

Dr. Evans met the preliminary attacks boldly and seemed as ready with his wits as the district attorney. This was illustrated when Mr. Jerome, in a tone of aggravation, asked the witness: 'Well, what can you say?"

"There are many things I could say, but I am not permitted to say them," retorted the physician amid laughter.

Mr. Delmas was on his feet during every part of Mr. Jerome's cross-questioning of the witness. He interposed many objections and generally was sustained. He looked sharply to Dr. Evans' interest, but the latter appeared well aware of his privileges.

Mr. Jerome in protesting against admission of the codicil as evidence referred to "these scandalous statements."

No Concessions.

Mr. Delmas objected and had his objection noted as due to the district attorney's misconduct. A wordy conflict ensued, which ended in Mr. Jerome declaring that in future he would concede nothing.

"It is your privilege," replied Mr. Delmas, "not to concede anything—not even common courtesy."

"I am exercising my privilege," the prosecuting officer retorted.

Thaw, the jury and everyone else in the courtroom enjoyed the encounter. Most of the jurymen smiled broadly.

Insane Over Thaw Trial.

Madison, Wis., Feb. 19.—Violently insane over the Thaw trial, John Ledolph was taken to an asylum yesterday. He talks only of the Thaw trial, and says he has $100,000 to help out "Evelyn and Harry.

DEPUTATION ASKS STATION AT KENDRY

Representatives of North Monaghan Council and Residents of Springville Confer With Railway Officials.

THE MATTER TO BE CONSIDERED.

The Council of the township of North Monaghan, with a committee representing the residents near Springville and Kendry Siding, met Mr. J. R. Nelson, superintendent of the C.P.R., and Mr. Brown, general freight agent, in the Oriental Hotel parlour on Tuesday night. The deputation petitioned the railway authorities to have the siding extended and a flag station established at that point.

The committee gave Mr. Nelson a large quantity of data relative to the amount of freight and passenger traffic to be developed if their wants were granted.

Mr. T. E. Wilson proposes going into grain buying and general freight traffic, while Mr. T. Brown would ship a large quantity of livestock. Then Dr. Marsh showed the passengen and mail business which would be secured by the granting of the committee's request.

There were present, Mr. J. Brown, reeve, and Messrs. G. H. May and W. G. Howden, and Mr. G. W. Bennett, township clerk, representing the Council. The committee was composed of Messrs. T. E. Wilson, Thos. Brown, Rev. Dr. Marsh, Mr. Dodd, the local C.P.R. agent, was also present.

Mr. Nelson expressed himself as gratified to meet the citizens, and was pleased with the way the committee presented their case and left a hopeful feeling in the minds of the representatives as to gaining their object. The matter has to be dealt with by the various departments and will be decided in the near future.

MR. MW. JACKSON WAS ALSO INJURED

The Bale of Sisal That Struck Mr. Delaire Injured Mr. Jackson More Severely

Fuller details have been received regarding the accident that occurred shortly after 1 o'clock on Monday afternoon at the Cordage Works, which was referred to in this paper. It was stated that Mr. Delaire, of Perry street, was injured. The exact statement should be that a bale of sisal fell upon Mr. W. Jackson, injuring his shoulder to some extent, and also striking Mr. Delaire with the result already mentioned. Mr. Jackson was assisted to his home on Albert street, and is progressing quite favourably.

ICE SUPPLIED FROM THE CHEMONG LAKE

Mr. Cullen's Cut Amounted to 5000 Blocks—Snowden House Supplied.

Mr. W. T. Cullen, of Bridgenorth, has almost completed his ice cut for the season on Chemong Lake. During the winter he supplied 5000 blocks to various persons. About 1000 of these were brought down to the city for Mr. Wm. Snowdon, proprietor of the Snowden House.

The Central Smith cheese factory, where there have been recently incently installed cool curing rooms, was supplied with 500. The remainder was distributed among farmers and dairymen of Smith township.

The ice on Chemong Lake at the present time is 20 inches thick.

Ask For Repeal Of Un-British And Un-Representative Law

The Quarterly Board of Charlotte Street Methodist Church Memoralizes Ontario Government Asking Repeal of "Three-Fifths" Clause of Local Option Act.

The Quarterly Board of the Charlotte street Methodist church, last night endorsed a petition which will be forwarded to the Ontario Government, asking that body to repeal the objectionable "three-fifths" clause of the Local Option Act. The matter was fully discussed at last night's meeting of the Board, and the members of the Board expressed themselves very emphatically in regard to a law so unrepresentative and so un-British, and hoped that remedial action would soon be forthcoming.

A temperance committee was appointed by the Board to assist in the furtherance of temperance legislatino and action.

The petition, which was endorsed by the pastor and the recording steward, and which was sent to-day to the Premier, was as follows:

To the Honourable the Legislative Assembly, of the Province of Ontario, in Parliament assembled:

The petition of the official board of the Charlotte street Methodist church of Peterborough, humbly showeth:

That the evils of intemperance, which are facilitated and encouraged by the licensed liquor traffic, results in this province in much poverty, disease, law-breaking, immorality, and general injury to the moral and material welfare of the people;

That previous to the last session of your honourable body, the power to prohibit the liquor traffic by municipal bylaw, approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon, was enjoyed by the people of this province, and the said power was exercised from time to time, in different places with beneficial results;

That at the said last revision the law was changed so that such a municipal bylaw cannot take effect unless approved by three-fifths of the electors voting thereon, and that such requirement is not in harmony with the principle of majority rule, and its operation has prevented the closing up of bar-rooms in many places in which the majority of the people desire to have them closed, and has been unfairly forced on unwilling communities a traffic that causes much damage and suffering;

Therefore, your petitioners earnestly pray your honourable body to amend the said law, and provide that, as formerly, a bylaw prohibiting the retail sale of liquor, shall become law, if it is approved by a majority of the electors voting thereon.

And your petitioners will ever pray.

Signed at Peterborough on behalf of the Official Board, this 19th day of February, 1907.

H. M. MANNING, Pastor.
M. A. MORRISON, Recording Steward.

Sun Spots Followed By An Electrical Disturbance

Rev. Dr. Marsh Reports That To-day There are Solar Spots—An Auroral Display May Be Expected To-night—A Pittsburg Disturbance.

There are spots on the sun to-day. They are not apparant to the naked eye, but they are there just the same. This is the information imparted to the Examiner by Rev. Dr. Marsh of Springville, a noted astronomical authority, and to-night those who go beyond the influence of the electric lights will probably notice an auroral display, the usual accompaniment to sun spots.

Last week there were spots of unusual size noticed on the sun by Dr. Marsh, and he predicted at that time that there would be some electrical disturbances. It appears, from reports that have been received since that he predicted correctly, the following despatch from Pittsburg confirming his statement. Prof. Brashear is a personal friend of Dr. Marsh, and the latter states that any assertions made by him may be taken as authentic:—

Pittsburg, Feb. 15.—The most phenomenal atmospheric disturbance ever seen in this city occurred at 12.52 yesterday in the midst of an extraordinarily heavy blizzard. Several heavy peals of thunder were heard, accompanied by vivid lightning, frightening many persons. Prof. John A. Brashear, of the Aleghany Observatory, who discovered the great sun spots said to-day that this disturbance was the most remarkable he had ever seen, and that when the sun spots were discovered they had expected electrical disturbances, and attributed them to the sun spots.

Ratepayers Object To The Whitney School Act

Examiner Special.

Bridgenorth, Feb. 20.—The School Trustees called a public meeting for Monday, February 18, for the purpose of discussing the new Whitney School Act. There was very little interest manifested, as was shown by the small attendance. None of the ratepayers were in favour of the new law and criticized it severely. However, they decided to put a new floor in the school, also new seats, as these improvements were deemed necessary owing to the dilapidated condition of the old ones.

More Help Is Required At The House Of Refuge

Examiner Special

Bridgenorth, Feb. 20.—Mr. Robert Scott, Chief Magistrate of Smith, is at present rooming at the House of Refuge, near Lakefield, where he is engaged looking up help for that institution. He states that they are in bad shape at present, the well has gone dry, the pipes have been frozen up, there is only one cow giving milk and only one woman to cook and care for seven inmates. Mr. Scott hopes to have things in better condition in a few days, when he will return to his home.

Jumpers And Intelligence, Not Fortune, Won Bride

Pittsburg, Feb. 20.—The announcement of the engagement of George Westinghouse, Jr., to Miss Violet, daughter of Sir Thomas and Lady Brocklebank, of England, caused a great sensation in Pittsburg to-day and there crept out a beautiful bit of romance connected with the matter.

Three years ago Miss Brocklebank was on a visit to Pittsburg with her father and was a guest of Mrs. Westinghouse. Miss Brocklebank did not know that Mrs. Westinghouse had a son, forget this time, George, the heir to $50,000,000, was busy in a greasy jumper in his father's immense works, learning the business. He was not even mixing with his father's household. One day, in being shown through the Westinghouse works by a guide, Miss Brocklebank was attracted by a large, intelligent-looking man with a jacket, who was mixing with the common workmen. She was impressed with him and asked for some information in the course of her search. He answered her kindly as a workman should, and she left not knowing who he was. The next time they met it was in a London drawing-room, and she recognized her workman friend of Pittsburg. Now they will be married.

OTTAWA'S HEALTH OFFICER'S RESIGNATION

Was Asked for by the Board of Health—Dissatisfaction Over Manner in Which Duties Were Performed.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—At a meeting of the Board of Health, on Tuesday, on a vote of four to one, Dr. Robert Law, Medical Health Officer was requested to hand in his resignation. This action is the result of dissatisfaction with the manner in which Dr. Law has performed his duties for some time past.

CRESCENT SUPPORTERS WANT SIXTY SEATS

The Crescent A. C. hockey team of New York, which will be seen here Friday night in an exhibition game against Peterborough, will be accompanied by 60 loyal rooters who are coming all the way from little, old New York to see their pets line up against Canadian teams. The Crescents have written Secretary Graham, of the local club, asking him to reserve 60 seats for their supporters. The game promises to be one of the even ts of the season.

HOSPITALS CROWDED

MAJORITY OF PATIENTS WOMEN

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Saves Many From this Sad and Costly Experience.

It is a sad but true fact that every year brings an increase in the number of operations performed upon women in our hospitals. More than three-fourths of the patients lying on those snow-white beds are women and girls who are awaiting or recovering from operations made necessary by neglect.

Every one of these patients had plenty of warning in that bearing down feeling, pain at the left or right of the abdomen, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, pelvic catarrh, dizziness, flatulency, displacements or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the female organs, and if not heeded the trouble may make headway until the penalty has to be paid by a dangerous operation, and a lifetime of impaired usefulness at best, while in many cases the results are fatal.

The following letter should bring hope to suffering women. Mrs. Robert Glenn, of 434 Marie St., Ottawa, Ont., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so well and widely known that it does not need my recommendation, but I am pleased to add it to the many which you have in its favor. I suffered untold agonies from serious female troubles for nearly three years, and the doctors told me that I must undergo an operation, but as I was unwilling to do this, I tried your Vegetable Compound and I am only too pleased that I did so, for it restored me to perfect health, saving me the pain of an operation and the immense bills attending the same. Pray accept my hearty thanks and best wishes."

Just as surely as Mrs. Glenn was cured of the troubles enumerated in her letter, just so surely will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure other women who suffer from female troubles, inflammation, kidney troubles, nervous excitability and nervous prostration.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all women who are ill to write her for free advice She is a daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

THE SPOILS SYSTEM

To the Whitney Government belongs the glory of having, by dint of diligent practice, reduced the spoils system to a fine art. It seems to be the most definite, and out-standing, and unalterable, feature of their otherwise shifting and vacillating policy. By it the interests of the public service in their relations to the public interests, is subordinated to partisan advantage. If the object were to improve the quality of officials, there would be some excuse, but wholesale dismissals are made of experienced officials, with no better apparent reason, than to provide places for clamorous, and hungry, partizans. We have only to look to this riding and city. What was gained, in improvement of service, by the dismissal of Messrs. Elliott and Moore? Are their successors any more capable and efficient than they were? Outside of purely partisan, and spoils reasons, there is no reason why a faithful and efficient license inspector, like Mr. George Cochrane, who possessed the confidence of both interests concerned in license law enforcement, and of the public at large, should be dismissed to make a place for Mr. Jos. Stewart. He has done little since his appointment, except to solicit, and get, a certificate of his efficiency, as a government official, from a complaisant Ministerial Association, on the initiative of a member whose partizan zeal in this regard, suggests as little sense of responsibility, in respect of the legitimate exercise of the functions of his sacred office, as one would expect a pound keeper to possess. Mr. Whitney has reason to be well pleased with the loyalty of his followers to his spoils policy, when he can recruit supporters of it from the dignified plane upon which the pulpit rests. Mr. Stewart, as a beneficiary of this spoils policy, if he were a better official than his predecessor, would not need to put partizan influences to work to gratuitously justify his appointment and, inferentially, justify Mr. Cochrane's dismissal. An official who does what is right, will win public approval, more valuable that meaningless praise, based on no more solid foundation than his own estimate of his official virtues.

Mr. Whitney's spoils system may be accepted in certain quarters, but it is a little too strong a dose for some of his supporters. The Toronto News, a thick and thin supporter of the Whitney Government, in speaking of his spoils policy, says:

We have a good illustration of the pettiness and meanness of the partizan method in the jail inquiry, and in the sort of espionage to which Mr. Bastedo, (of the Fisheries Department) was subjected. Mr. Bastedo was practically forced to contribute to a campaign fund, and, perhaps, he was too willing under both Governments, to regard the offices as a party asset. But he was an honest public servant, and suffered by the system which his superiors devised and sanctioned. It is too soon to pronounce judgment in the case of Mr. Vanzant, (Governor of Toronto jail), but at least he was subjected to intolerable treatment by busy spies, and eager partizans, who schemed to accomplish his dismissal. We shall know in a few days whether or not the patronage-monger has bedevilled the administration of the license system in Toronto. Generally, the inside service has been well treated by the Whitney Government; throughout the country there have been many unjust and cruel dismissals. In Great Britain and in many continental countries, the evil of party control of patronage, has been practically abolished, but the party system still exists in fullness and vigour and all classes of citizens maintain an undiminished interest in public affairs.

Doesn't Shakspere say something about an engineer being "hoist with his own petard."

COST OF SCHOOL BOOKS

It is possible to make even such a good thing as education so cheap that it is not appreciated. Take the item of school books. Many a man who raises a great howl over paying twenty-five cents a year for books for his child, will light-heartedly blow in 50 cents in an evening for whiskey and cigars. And if the Board of Education handled the matter well, the cost at the present price of books would be but trifling. In Toronto, by carring for the books, the trustees secure great economy. In ten years the average cost of books per pupil per annum has been less than 11 cents! When a man squeals about an outlay like that to educate his children he is hard up for an excuse for grumbling. Our Board could probably do as well as Toronto; why not? But instead, some of the trustees who do not care to seek economy by ways that would require exercise of care and effort on their part, are trying to put an additional burden of taxes on the people. When books are furnished free of cost, as if they grew by the roadside, they are valued cheaply and given little care. Even as it is, too often the pupils are seen pitching school books around, or using them as no books are intended to be used. Parents could do something to save the books from abuse; many of them doubtless do exercise supervision over them; but if the books came without a cent of cost, and there was no question of others coming when one lot was torn to pieces, it is not reasonable to suppose that the care exercised would be as great. Somebody must pay for the books. The cost need not be crushing, notwithstanding demagogic talk about high prices. When Toronto can supply books at less than 11 cents a pupil each year, it is plain that material for a grievance does not exist. If the trustees are lax in caring for the books, that is another matter; but they should not seek to penalize the taxpayer for that. —Hilton Times.

NOT ALL COLEUR DU ROSE

Premier Whitney claims that there is general satisfaction with his school legislation. In Oxford county there is some little dissatisfaction. The following refers to an action and attitude similar to those taken and assumed by many other school sections:

Woodstock, Feb. 16.—On Saturday afternoon, March 2nd, a meeting of the Public School Boards of the county of Oxford will be held to discuss the salary clause of the new education act that came into force this year, and to decide upon what action shall be taken by the public schools in the district in regard to this legislation. This step is the result of a movement inaugurated by the Bond's Corner School Trustees. Recently the trustees passed a resolution condemning the salary clause, but the resolution was ruled out by Public School Inspector Carlyle. The Board met again and adopted resolutions asking for the repeal of that portion in the new education act that directs that a compulsory minimum salary shall be paid to teachers; also portions of the act that give inspectors power to cancel certificates of teachers engaging to teach for less than the specified salary, and that raising the salary of inspectors and removing the power of their dismissal from the County Councils. They also oppose the closing of the Model School, and ask for an amendment to the act providing for a fairer representation of the trustees of the rural sections of Ontario on the Advisory Board of Education; for the amendment of that portion of the act that regulates the training and qualification of teachers, because poorer classes can have little hope of becoming teachers, although many of our brightest intellects come from this class, and a discrimination is created of the rich against the poor.

A big effort will be made by the trustees to have these views approved by the district meetings.

Examiner Special.

Greystock, Feb. 19.—The weather of the past week has been very cold and stormy, but the farmers do considerable teaming.

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. Nicholas Swan on the evening of February 13. The youngsters danced and amused themselves until a late hour.

Mr. Elmer Wood, who has been sick for the last three weeks, is once more able to be around.

If you have a summer kitchen you wish to have cleaned up for spring, just offer it for dancing purposes. You will see the young ladies come in by twos and fours.

Mr. Mark Manley, Cobourg, has returned home after spending a few days with his cousin, Mr. J. Manley.

Mr. and Mrs. John Monerief and family, of Peterborough, spent Sunday with his brother-in-law, Mr. Sidney Rutherford.

Messrs. Wm. Carter and John McWilliams, Peterborough, spent a few days last week renewing old friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Weaver, Millbrook, spent Sunday with their son, Mr. Wm. Weaver.

Mr. Henry Reid has rented the Hill farm, and Mr. Frank Dixon the adjoining one. They intend moving about the 1st of April. May good luck go with them.

One Ingredient of

Zutoo

Is soda—just old-fashioned soda, that our grandmothers took to settle the stomach.

The principal ingredient—the one that stops the headache, is a vegetable ingredient, imported for us from Japan. It wont hurt you any more than will the soda.

The other ingredients of Zutoo are just as harmless.

If you knew what the drug cures contain, and their ultimate effect on the system, you would discard them at once and take Zutoo, which is harmless as Soda.

OBITUARY

ELIZABETH JANE McDONALD

A sad death occurred this afternoon at 1.30 o'clock, when Elizabeth Jane McDonald, wife of Mr. W. G. Westlake, passed away at the family residence, 191 King street, after an illness of ten months. The deceased had been ill for some time and her death resulted from a complication of diseases.

The deceased was born in Bridgenorth 59 years ago and had been a lifelong resident of this county. Her marriage to Mr. W. G. Westlake took place 29 years ago and for the past 16 years they had lived in this city. The relatives of the late Mrs. Westlake who will mourn her loss are, besides her husband, two children, Mrs. W. S. Campbell, and Mrs. S. P. McFadden, both of this city; also her mother, Mrs. Neil McDonald; one brother, Mr. John A. McDonald, Toronto, and the following sisters: Mrs. A. A. Smeaton, Mrs. S. Cottingham, Mrs. D. A. Stonton, of this city; Mrs. J. G. Brown, of Lindsay; Mrs. W. A. Lewis, of London, Ont., and Mrs. J. H. Edmison, Smith township.

Deceased was an active member of the Methodist Church.

The funeral will be held on Friday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the family residence, 191 King street, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

Ennismore Farmers Preparing for Improving Property—Initiation of New Members in C.M.B.A.

MR. BURNHAM'S LECTURE ENJOYED

Examiner Special

Ennismore, February 19. — At the last meeting of the C. M. B. A. six new members were initiated, and the officers for 1907 were installed. Rev. P. J. McGuire, P. P., of Downeyville, assisted at the ceremony of installation, and at the close delivered a very strong appeal to those present on the benefits and advantages of being members of this excellent society. During the past year the has added 22 new members to this already flourishing society and the prospects for increased membership are most brilliant.

Mr. John Flood has all the material on the ground for his new brick residence, which he proposes to erect in the spring.

Mr. John Crough of Dakota, son of Mr. Michael Crough, sr., of Ennismore, is home with his wife and two children on a visit to his father. Mr. Crough has done well during his few years of absence, and at present is one of the well-to-do farmers of Dakota.

Last year at least a dozen new frame barns were erected throughout the township, and the prospects are that a larger number will be added during the coming summer.

Lecture By J. H. Burnham

Last week Mr. J. H. Burnham visited Ennismore, and delivered a very able lecture on the life and labours fo Sir John A. Macdonald, to a very good audience. Mr. Burnham, who is thoroughly familiar with the history of Canada, its early settlement, the trials and hardships of the first settlers, the difficulties between the early English and French settlers, the different modes of government experienced in our early history, gave a clear, graphic, and instructive narration of these events, and their subsequent bearing on the history of Canada. Having led his audience step by step, from the date of discovery to the year 1841, he explained fully the Act of Union, and the causes which brought about the Confederation of the Provinces in 1867. This, in brief, constituted the first half of his lecture. The remainder of his learned discourse was devoted to the part played by Sir John Macdonald in the building up of our fair Dominion. At the close a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer for his able and instructive address.

Owing to sickness, Miss Kate Gannon has been obliged to resign her position as teacher of S. S. No. 3, and Miss Lily Primeau, of Peterborough, has been engaged to fill her place.

Miss Begley of Emily, has charge of S. S. No. 7, Emily, since the resignation of Miss Galvin, two weeks ago.

Miss Hannah Sullivan of Peterborough, has been visiting friends in the township for the past two weeks.

Preparations are being made for the celebration of St. Patrick's Day, which will be held on Monday evening, March 18th.

FRIENDS TELL FRIENDS—"NOTHING LIKE PE-RU-NA."

PE-RU-NA'S POPULARITY IS IN NO SMALL MEASURE DUE TO THE GENEROUS PRAISE GIVEN IT BY GRATEFUL PEOPLE.

Tells Every One About Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. R. T. Fennessey, Bound Brook, N. J., writes:
"I have taken Peruna and find it a very good medicine. After I took one bottle of Peruna, I was cured of my cold. I cannot help telling every one I know about Peruna and asking them to try it. I would like every one to know of the good Peruna does."

Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Henry Ganther, R. R. No. 1, Necedah, Wis., writes:
"I recommend your medicine to every one who is in need of it. I have been using Peruna and have gained in health. I thank you for what you have done."

A Neighbor Advised Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. John Haynes, 107 E. Main St., Columbus, Ohio, writes:
"For over two years I suffered with headaches and severe pains in my head, and all these two years my friends would say, 'Why don't you take Peruna?'
"Finally one of my neighbors just insisted on my taking it. I tried it and before I had taken one-fourth of a bottle my headaches were gone. I am never without Peruna. I advise every one to take Peruna."

Friend Advised Use of Pe-ru-na.

Mr. E. W. Staley, 812 Fillmore St., Nashville, Tenn., writes:
"I was down for three months with pneumonia and had gotten very weak. A friend advised me to try Peruna, which I did, and soon found it was the thing I needed. When I finished the third bottle, I found I weighed more than I ever did in my life."

Spreading the Good News.

Prof. J. Ivison, dealer in musical merchandise, box 812, Cumberland, Md., writes:
"It is now five months since my wife began taking Peruna and from the first day improvement has been going on noticeably. She is now in good health. We never tire of making this fact known to our many friends."

A Friend Had Used Pe-ru-na.

Mr. Henry I. Goodwin, portrait artist, 38 Gove street, E. Boston, Mass., writes:
"For three years I have been suffering from a general rundown condition of the system. I tried many remedies.
"A friend of mine advised me to use Peruna, as it had benefited him.
"After taking two bottles I felt better. Now I am in the best of health."

HALF YEAR'S REPORTS EVIDENCE OF PROSPERITY

Semi Annual Meeting of C. G. E. Employees Mutual Benefit Society Was Held Last Night.

VARIOUS REPORTS WERE PRESENTED.

Last night the tenth semi-annual meeting of the Canadian General Electric Company Employees' Mutual Benefit Society was held in the Young Conservative Club rooms, with a good representation of members present. The president of the society, Mr. R. E. Harding, presided over the meeting, and the report of the secretary was presented by Mr. F. A. Shannon, while Mr. R. E. Layfield presented the treasurer's report, both of which showed the financial standing of the society to be most satisfactory. The reports were adopted.

It was decided to hold a social evening under the auspices of the society, for the members and employees of the works and their friends, about the first of April, and for that purpose the Grand Opera House will be engaged and a good programme will be presented. A nominal admission fee of ten cents will be charged.

The report of the treasurer, as presented by Mr. Layfield, was as follows:

Peterborough, Feb. 11, 1907.

A QUESTION.

WHAT WOULD YOU GIVE OUR WELL KNOWN DRUGGISTS, McDERMID & JURY,

If They Would Guarantee to Restore You to Health and Strength?

It seems as though any person who is in ill-health, all run down, without strength and ambition enough to hardly get around, would give McDermid & Jury, or anyone, all they possess in the world, for a guaranteed cure.

Such a guarantee McDermid & Jury offer to every such person in this city without any such sacrifice.

Read their Offer:

"We hereby guarantee that our famous cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, will restore to health all pale and ailing women and children, build up the run-down, over-worked and debilitated, give strength to tired, weak mothers, invigorate old people, cure hanging-on colds and hacking coughs, bronchitis and stomach troubles, restore strength and make rich, red blood for the convalescent, create appetite and cure nervousness and irritability.

"If there should be any case of failure we agree to refund the money for the Vinol taken. Is there any ailing person in Peterborough who is not willing to accept our generous proposition?"

When asked how they could do this, by our reporter, Mr. McDermid replied, "It is because we know so well of what Vinol is made, and have seen such wonderful results from its use that we are willing to back it with all we have."

You see, Vinol contains everyone of the active, curative principles contained in cod liver oil, but without a drop of grease to retard its work; it is a scientific rebuilder and a strength creator, and will in a marvellous manner restore the sick to health, and make life worth living. McDermid & Jury.

We believe the above offer to be generous and sincere, and would advise any of our readers who need such a medicine to try Vinol on their guarantee.—Editor.

THE MISSION BAND'S MEETING

Members of Fraser Mission Band Entertained at Residence of Rev. Dr. Torrance.

Last night an interesting meeting of the Fraser Mission Band of St. Paul's Church was held at the residence of Mrs. (Rev. Dr.) Torrance. There was a good attendance of members, and a most delightful evening was enjoyed. The study taken up was one of more than usual interest, dealing, as it did, with the islands of the Pacific. Three papers on this subject, read by the young ladies in the band, were instructive and gave those who heard them a better impression of the nature of the mission world carried on in those islands.

Miss Mamie Hamilton read a paper, illustrated with maps, on "The Island World," and Miss Agnes Hall followed with a paper, the subject of which was "World of the London Missionary Society on the Islands," while a third paper was read by Miss Jean Campbell on "The Life and Work of Missionary John Williams." During the evening a solo was sung by Miss Lillian Moore, and Miss Meldrum played a piano solo, both numbers being much appreciated.

It was decided to hold a musicale under the auspices of the Band at the residence of Mrs. Meldrum on March 7, the proceeds to be devoted to the funds of the organization.

Refreshments were served after the business had been concluded, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. P. G. Jameson, son of Mr. F. J. Jameson, of this city, has been promoted recently to the position of acting accountant of the Bank of Montreal, Saskatoon branch. Mr. Jameson, since his transfer from Lethbridge, has been in the Winnipeg office, and his removal to the Saskatoon branch means a good promotion for him. Saskatoon is one of the best towns in the West, and gives promise of becoming still more prosperous.

Band to-night at Street Railway Rink.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF FAIR DIRECTORS

Will be Held To-morrow Afternoon at 3 O'clock in Council Chamber.

A meeting of the directors of the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition will be held to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Council Chamber. The meeting will be a very important one as a number of suggestions will be made to change the rules and regulations governing the Exhibition. Among the things to be discussed will be the proposal to confine the Fair to four counties to eliminate, if possible, the professional exhibitors.

The reports of the various committees on prize list revision will also be submitted.

Mr. Dawson Kennedy, who has been selected to solicit names for the membership roll, already reports about 50 members.

Will A Domestics' Union Be Formed In Peterboro'?

Will the domestics of Peterborough form a union? Some of the Mistresses are looking for some such course, following the result of a similar action of the part of the domestics in New Zealand, as recorded in the following despatch from Wellington, N. Z.:—

"The domestic female servants here have formed a union under the Arbitration Act. Their demands include preference for unionists, a shilling an hour for work on holidays, work on Mondays, Tuesdays, Fridays and Saturdays to cease at 7.30 p.m., on Thursdays and Sundays at 2 p.m., and on Wednesdays at 10 p.m. All domestics are to be home by 10 p.m., except on Thursdays, when they may stay out till midnight.

"The mistresses object to the demands, and are threatened with citation before the Arbitration Court."

A REFERENDUM VOTE TO BE TAKEN

Congregation of St. Paul's Church Will be Asked to Answer Questions Relative to Church Matters.

At a joint meeting of the Session and the Board of Managers of St. Paul's church held last night a report of the special committee appointed a week ago to consider the question of ministerial relations, was presented and adopted.

It is understood that a referendum of the congregation will be taken in a few days on matters of great importance to the congregation. Ballots will be sent to each member and contributing adherent of the church, on which there will appear a number of questions, relative, among others, to the continuance of the pastorate of Rev. Dr. Torrance, a proposed increase in his stipend, larger individual contributions on the part of the regular church contributors, and the advisability, or otherwise, of retaining the services of an assistant pastor.

It is learned that the referendum will be taken on Sunday, March 3rd.

MR. WALTER KIDD LEAVES FOR BRITISH COLUMBIA

Accompanying His Brother Who Has Been Visiting for Some Time in Dummer.

Mr. Walter Kidd, of Warsaw, is in the city to-day on his way west to Vancouver, B.C. He leaves to-morrow morning accompanied by his brother Mr. F. A. Kidd, who has been visiting at his home in Dummer after having spent three years in Vancouver.

Mr. Kidd reports that the population of the Western City is rapidly growing and that at present there is a great boom in real estate with which business he is connected. Mr. Walter Kidd will remain in British Columbia at least a couple of years.

GEORGE ST. CHOIR GAVE FINE CONCERT

Enjoyable Programme Rendered at the Bethel Church.

The choir of the George street Methodist church drove out to the Bethel Methodist church last night and gave a very successful concert there. The church was crowded and the programme rendered by the local musicians was splendidly given and warmly received by the large audience present.

The outing was a most enjoyable one for the choir and a financial success to the congregation of the Bethel church. The following programme was rendered:—

Anthem—Rejoice Ye with Jerusalem—Choir.
Solo—Mr. S. H. Mitchell.
Ladies' Quartette—Far Away.
Recitation—Miss Cora Montgomery.
Mixed Quartette—In the Shadow of His Wings.
Anthem—God is the Refuge of His People—Choir.
Anthem—Magnificat—Choir.
Solo—Ninety and Nine. (Encore) In the Secret of His Presence — Miss Reesor.
Duet—Beautiful Moonlight— Misses Chasty.
Recitation—Miss Montgomery.
Ladies' Quartette—Beautiful Isle of Somewhere.
Anthem—In Heavenly Love Abiding—Choir.
Anthem—Not Unto Us—Choir.

After the concert the choir were entertained at a supper. Many good things had been provided and a pleasant time spent.

SEE THE GREAT ASSEMBLY OF
NEW SPRING DRESS GOODS
SIX WEEKS UNTIL EASTER

WE ARE READY FOR BUSINESS. During the past month every steamer crossing the trackless ocean has brought cases of New Spring Goods direct from manufacturers in England, Ireland, France, Germany and Switzerland and every case labeled,—direct and rush—addressed to R. Hall & Son's, Peterboro. We clearly foresaw the necessity of early delivery, owing to Easter coming early as it does, and now we take the people (as it were) by storm and make a complete showing of all the newest, richest and select Dress Fabrics that has ever been the privilege of the Dress department to display for public criticism.

It would seem absurd to suggest any improvement in texture and finish of the Fabrics of last Spring but improvement is the watchword to the artist weaver "it's a fact" every dress length in this assembly of Fabrics seems so different—new patterns, new weaves, new blending of shades and a certain elegance and degree of beauty that characterizes Fashion for 1907.

THESE NEW CREATIONS COMPRISE LIGHT GRAY TWEEDS AND WORSTEDS, SUPERIOR QUALITIES OF STYLISH CHECKS AND STRIPES, AND LARGE ASSORTMENT OF EXCLUSIVE DRESS ROBES OF FRENCH, GERMAN AND ENGLISH ORIGIN.

WE WILL DISPLAY NEW DRESS GOODS IN OUR WINDOWS THIS WEEK FOR YOUR APPRECIATION

Black and White Worsted Suitings in solid checks, in assorted sizes, Black and White Overchecks and Stripes, also White grounds with Black Hairline Checks, and stripe effects, 44 inches wide, at 50c, 65c, 75c, 85c, $1.25 and $1.50.

52 and 54 inches wide at $1.50; these goods suitable for the new tailored Suits and Skirts.

New Scotch, French, German and Canadian Tweeds in the light Gray tints, novelty stripes and checks, pretty color blendings, also dark colorings, for the New Spring tailored Suits and Skirts, 44 inches wide, at 50c, 65c, 75 and 85c.

54 and 56 inches wide at $1.00, $1.25, $1.35, $1.50, $1.75, $2, $2.75 and $3.

Black Fabrics for Spring as anticipated by us will be one of the most stylish colorings for tailored Suits and Skirts, our assortment of French cloths—guaranteed dyes—comprising Broadcloths, Cheviots, Panamas, Armures and Venetians are beyond comparison at 60c, 75c, 85c, $1.00 $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $3.00.

CREAM SERGES, CHEVIOTS and PANAMAS will be as usefnl and as much in demand as former seasons, we have a magnificent assortment at 50c, 60c, 70c, 75c, 85c, $1.00 and $1.25 for Tailored Suits and Skirts.

THE STORE THAT NEVER DISAPPOINTS

A TRULY MAGNIFICENT SHOWING OF THE POPULAR

WHITE WAISTS

WE have scored another triumph in this comprehensive showing of handsome Lingerie Waists. We have collected the best styles of Paris, New York and among the best Canadian makers—and, while we have raised the tone of each and every garment, you'll find prices are particularly pleasing. Discriminating women and women who know are buying liberally. Don't wait until the choicest models are picked up and gone. You'll find all the popular white materials and every one an artistic creation :—Fine Lawns, India Linens, Persian Lawns, Organdies, Irish Linens, Lace and Point d'Esprit, Jap Taffetas, Mousseline-de-Soie, etc., etc.

The New Black and White Silk Checks

FASHION'S prettiest and neatest are the dainty checks we are showing in the Silk Section, mostly white grounds in the shepherd checks, single and double hair-line checks, broken checks, etc., fine uncrushable quality taffeta silk, with that much-to-be-desired silvery sheen—they are rapidly being picked up, so don't wait until the most desirable patterns are gone.

Special Value ..... .75

Here are three model Waists that are specially attractive and economically priced :—

Fine Sheer Lawn Waist, with beautifully designed front in leaf and butterfly effect, in French eyelet embroidery, twelve fine pin tucks down front, hemstitched across shoulders, seven clusters of fine tucks down back, three quarter sleeves, with tucked cuff trimmed with fine Val. lace 3.00

Irish Linen Waist, with elaborately embroidered front in conventional lily-of-the valley design, embroidered collar and cuffs, box pleats over shoulder, clusters of fine tucks down back, full length sleeve with fine tucks and embroidered cuff 6.00

Fine Orientelle Net Waist, in floral design, pretty treatment of silk insertion, in front, sleeves and around collar, three-quarter length sleeves with new V shaped cuff, lined throughout with Japanese silk 6.50

Other stylish Waists from $1.50 up to $10.00

Higher Prices For Cheese This Season Is Predicted

Prospects are good for an increase in the price of cheese for the coming season, according to the reports from England, which indicate that there is a shortage in supply, and the natural inference is that the product this season will, as a consequence, be higher.

Advices from London report a rapid shrinkage in the stocks of cheese in store there.

At the beginning of this month at Surrey dock there were 128,000 boxes of cheese; on the 11th inst., just a week ago, these were reduced to 106,000 boxes. Yesterday's cable reported the stocks of cheese at Surrey dock to be 93,000 boxes.

With the large reduction above noted, along with the small stocks in Canada, there appears every prospect of 72 shillings per cwt., as mentioned in the Star some few days previously as being likely to be the price on the English market during the coming month.

Kidney Disease for Twenty Years

Mrs. Caswell Reid, Orrville, Muskoka, Ont., writes: "For twenty years I was troubled with kidney disease and have recently been completely cured by using three boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. MUSIC AND DRAMA

SLEEPING BEAUTY AND THE BEAST

The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast, the great Drury Lane spectacle, was the attraction at the Grand last night, and delighted a big house by the magnificence of the presentation. A combination of two old fairy tales, the play permits of a most lavish display of scenery and costumes and the spectacular effects were beautifully presented. Good comedians and a crowd of pretty girls coupled with catchy music well rendered, made the production a very pleasant means of whiling away two hours. Harry Devine as comical King Burdout, Chas. Saunders as Queen Spadin, the equally funny Queen, and Lester Bernard the Dutch nurse, supplied plenty of comedy, while Belle Williams as Beauty and Isabella Miller as Prince Charming, were both excellent. A specialty number by Belle Williams and Harry DeVine was a feature. In the spectacular line, the grand ballet "A Dream of the Year," was the most magnificent.

The Sleeping Beauty and the Beast lived up to its reputation and it is worthy of a crowded house on its every presentation.

Miss A. M. Beck will be here on Monday next, one week previous to opening of workrooms or the purpose of demonstrating and explaining the new styles for year 1907, and will be pleased to receive prospective clients

NOONDAY SERVICE IN HAMILTON'S SHOPS

Interesting and Helpful Address Given by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt at Peter Hamilton Co., Ltd., Works.

The special service arranged by the Brotherhood of St. Andrew in the Peter Hamilton Works was attended by a large number of the employees and some men from J. J. Turner's and the Peterborough Canoe Company. The hymn, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," was heartily sung, and after prayer, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt delivered a short address on the "Love of God." It is proposed to visit other factories during Lent, and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew officials heartily thank the proprietors of the Peter Hamilton Works for their courteous permission to hold the above service.

Clark's Jewellery Store Improved

The pretty jewelry store of F. R. Clarke & Son, corner of Brock and George streets, has been recently enlarged and improved. Mr. F. D. Kerr Gave Interesting Talk to St. Paul's Young Men's Guild Last Night on His Trip Last Summer.

A GOOD PROGRAMME WAS RENDERED

An interesting and profitable meeting of St. Paul's Church Young Men's Guild was held last evening. The feature of the gathering was an address given by Mr. F. D. Kerr, B.A., on his recent trip to the Old Country. Mr. Kerr told of his journey in a pleasant, conversational style that was delightful and made his talk so attractive that his hearers would gladly have listened to him for double the length of time that he spoke. Mr. Kerr related many anecdotes and incidents which added much to the interest of his remarks. At the close on motion of Rev. A. Bright, he was accorded a cordial vote of thanks.

A Guild Banquet.

President E. S. Clarry presided, and a good programme was provided. Mr. Clarry announced that the ladies of the congregation would banquet the members of the guild on Tuesday, March 5, and that later on an entertainment would be put on by the members of the guild. It will probably partake of the nature of an amateur minstrel show. Mr. Carl Halpany rendered a violin solo with such acceptance and skill that he was obliged to respond to an encore. Mrs. Halpany was the accompanist. Messrs. Lillie and Nelson contributed a duet in good style and were liberally applauded. Mr. Jas. Browne was heard to advantage in two vocal numbers and never sang more acceptably than he did last evening. Mr. Geo. Schneider played the accompaniments.

Trip To England

Mr. Kerr then gave a talk on his visit to Great Britain and Ireland in July of last year. He told of the ancient city of Londonderry in Ireland, the walls of Derry, the statute of General Walker, the ancient cathedral of the city and many other points of interest. The beauties of Ireland were vividly described, its sunshine and shadows seeming to reflect the temperament of the Irish people—joy and sadness. Inniskillen, where the speaker's grandfather was born, was next visited. A first trip in the peculiar compartment cars of Great Britain was dealt with, and then Dublin, the ancient capital of Ireland, was described, including College Green, Phoenix Park, one of the finest and largest breathing spots in the world.

Parks Needed

In this connection Mr. Kerr remarked that if Peterborough was going to be the great city that all hoped it would be, we could not have too many parks or breathing spots. Trinity University, the statues of O'Connell, Emmett and other Irish heroes and the famous Wicklow hills were described. Mr. Kerr said that he and his party were received with every respect and courtesy on their trip and so was every tourist who minded his own business. Mr. Kerr then referred to his visit to Hollyhead in Wales, his sightseeing expeditions in old London, his meanderings about the city on an omnibus, his trip to the tower of London, St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster Abbey, to the House of Commons, the House of Lords, being piloted about by Mr. Hamar Greenwood, a Canadian, who is now the representative for York in the Imperial House. He spoke of the great control that a London policeman has over the traffic of that great city, how the average "bobby" is a mine of information, and is always courteous and considerate. London had thousands of eating houses and restaurants and what struck him particularly was that these were always filled. Business men would often slip away from business in the afternoon about five o'clock for a half hour afternoon tea and would return to their offices afterwards. All London seemed to have the eating habit. The next points to which the audience in fancy was taken were Stratford-on-Avon, the birthplace of Shakespeare the beautiful county of Devonshire, Hampton Court, for many years the residence of England's Sovereigns, then a paddle on the famous old Thames River, in a Peterborough canoe; Oxford University, where one felt like remaining for weeks among the grand and historic old buildings; Windsor Castle, Frogmore, where the remains of our late beloved Queen Victoria are interred, the castle and quiet country burying ground where Earl of Salisbury sleeps his last long sleep, the great public school at Eton, then across the Trossachs into Scotland, the beautiful city of Edinburgh, the busy, thriving commercial centre of Glasgow, with its great ship building yards, and other places in the land of the heather, and then to Liverpool, that wonderful and wide-awake city so active and so progressive, where the ship for the return to Canada was taken. Mr. Kerr said that in his sojourn abroad he had seen nothing more majestic or inspiring than our noble St. Lawrence river. He advised all Canadians who could afford the time and money to pay a visit to the Old Country and Ireland. It was an outlay that would well repay them, and an experience which they would never forget.

CHEMONG LAKE FISH WEIGHED 34 1-2 LBS.

Caught Through the Ice on Friday of Last Week and Brought to the City.

The cold winter season seems to have no effect upon the aspirations of the Chemong Lake anglers. On Friday of last week a lunge was captured there, which has most of its last year's brethren faded to a standstill in weight. It tipped the scales at exactly 34 1-2 lbs., and certainly was a beauty. It was brought down to the city to a local party.

SILVER WEDDING WAS CELEBRATED

Enjoyable Affair at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Girvin, Otonabee.

On Friday evening last the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Girvin, Otonabee, presented a very festive appearance when, in spite of wind and storm, friends numbering about fifty braved the weather and came to do honour to the bride and groom of 25 years.

As soon as the guests had arrived supper was announced. The tables were very tastefully decorated with cut flowers and smilax and a sumptuous repast was spread.

After ample justice had been done to the good things provided, a most enjoyable evening was spent in a good old-fashioned way. The songs and singers of 25 years ago were heard with delight, also instrumental music, recitations and speeches. Stories were told and social chat was freely indulged in, and all were made to feel thoroughly at home and welcome by the genial host and hostess. All too quickly the evening passed "Auld Lang Syne" was sung with a hearty handshake, and the guests departed feeling brighter and better for an evening so happily spent.

Many gifts, handsome and useful, testified in some measure to the esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Girvin are held by their many friends.

An Absolute Cure for Rheumatism

If the skin or bowels are unhealthy, they won't throw off enough urea. This urea is changed into uric acid—carried by the blood to the nerves—and causes Rheumatism.

Fruit-a-tives surely cure Rheumatism and Sciatica because they act directly on bowels, kidneys and skin—and so strengthen and invigorate these organs that there is no urea and uric acid retained in the system to irritate the nerves and bring Rheumatism, Sciatica and Neuralgia.

"Fruit-a-tives" are intensified fruit juices with tonics and intestinal antiseptics added.

THE RIGHTS OF HIS PROVINCE

Drastic Measure to Maintain Them Proposed In House.

WIDE POWERS ARE INCLUDED

Plan to Assert Jurisdiction of the Province—The Bill Will Be the Subject of a Discussion on Its Second Reading — Powers Regarding Agreements Between Municipalities and Corporations.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—The Government has thrown down the gauntlet, and the fight for the control of railway and public utility companies enjoying special privileges obtainable only by the sanction of the Legislature of this Province, but which seek to evade Provincial jurisdiction by afterwards securing incorporation at Ottawa, declaring their organizations to be "for the general advantage of Canada," has begun.

Corporations Themselves Responsible.

Hon. Mr. Hendrie introduced the measure in the form of a bill entitled "An Act respecting certain railways and other corporations." After reading a few of the most important clauses of the bill, went on: "I may say, sir, that the necessity for introducing a measure of this nature was brought about by certain railroad corporations in the past three years going to the Dominion of Canada after getting many powers and privileges which could only be got from this Legislature, and there seeking to avoid the jurisdiction of this Legislature by being declared to be for the general advantage of the Dominion of Canada. We hope that this bill will control these corporations and leave them where they properly belong."

Mr. Graham—I do not quite catch the idea; is it that their rights given by this Legislature will terminate?

Hon. Mr. Hendrie—Yes.

The Measure Is Retroactive.

Mr. Graham—Is it retroactive?

The Premier—Yes—in the sense that any company who have received such privileges will lose them if they attempt to evade this act by going to the Dominion Government to have it declared they are for the general advantage of Canada. This will not affect purchasers of debentures issued by a municipal corporation for bonuses.

Mr. Graham—All interests will be safeguarded?

The Premier—There may be some questions with reference to the financial results which will need discussion at a later date.

Gist of the Bill.

The bill sets forth:

"In case the undertaking by any company or other corporation operating a public utility and incorporated under a general or special act of the Province of Ontario is, by the Parliament of Canada, declared to be a work for the general advantage of Canada, or is absorbed by, or amalgamated with, or controlled or operated by, any company or other corporation whose undertaking has been declared a work for the general advantage of Canada, or which is not subject to the legislative control of this Province, then, unless the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has otherwise declared, all powers and rights, privileges and franchises conferred upon such first-mentioned company by letters patent or by any general or special act of this Province, shall thereupon cease and determine, and every municipal bylaw passed and every agreement entered into with any municipal corporation authorising such company to carry on business, or granting any franchise thereto, shall thereupon become void and be of no effect, and such company shall forfeit all claim to any bonus or other aid granted by any municipal corporation. Provided that nothing in this section contained shall affect the validity of any debentures issued by a municipal corporation for payment for any such bonus in the hands of a bona fide holder for valuable consideration.

As Affecting Municipal Bylaws.

"Notwithstanding anything in any act contained, no municipal corporation shall hereafter enter into any contract with, or pass any bylaw in relation to any public utility company, which has been declared to be a work for the general advantage of Canada, or which is not within the legislative jurisdiction of this province, until the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council has approved of such bylaw or agreement, and every bylaw passed, or agreement entered into, in violation of this section shall be utterly void, and of no effect."

This important bill will be fully discussed by the House on its second reading next week.

Gets Increased Powers.

Another bill presented by Hon. Mr. Hendrie, amends the act respecting the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board by conferring on that body powers under certain acts now exercised only by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council in respect to specifications and plans of railways, or where information is required deriving the construction of the same. It empowers the Board to engage counsel at any time deemed necessary. The measure also clothes the Board with power to enquire into and report upon the rates charged by municipalities for service of utilities owned by them, in order that they may decide whether such are too high, or whether they are too low, and not sufficient in the latter case to meet the amounts required for operation, maintenance, indebtedness, etc. It further gives the Board the same powers in regard to arbitration under the municipal act of 1903 as are now held by county judges.

The Spoils System.

Mr. Currie, the Liberal member for Prince Edward, criticized the Government for some recent appointments and dismissals of officials, in the latter category specificially referring to the case of Mr. James Gillespie, formerly Sheriff of the county.

Premier Whitney responded with a defence of the Government and a declaration as to his own responsibility in respect to dismissals.

Abolish the Poll Tax.

Mr. Bowyer, in moving the second reading of his bill to amend the act respecting statute labor, explained that it was the purpose of the measure to abolish statute labor as well as the unpopular poll tax.

Mr. Graham said that the working out of the bill had proved farcical. It was a most unpopular tax, and the bill had his sympathy. The motion carried.

VALUABE FORMULA

A noted authority on diseases of the throat and lung, who established a camp for consumptives in the pine woods of Maine, and whose remarkable cures there have attracted great attention from the medical world, says that his entire treatment consisted of fresh air, nourishing food and the Pure Virgin Oil of the White Pine Trees mixed with Whisky and Glycerine, in the following proportions:

Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure),	1-2 oz.
Glycerine	2 "
Good Whisky	8 "

Used in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

It is claimed that the above mixture will heal and strengthen the lungs, break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable.

The ingredients can be secured from any good prescription druggist at small cost and can be easily mixed in your own home.

Inquiry at the prescription department of a leading local pharmacy elicited the information that Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) is put up only in half-ounce vials for dispensing. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case, with engraved wrapper, with the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Windsor, Ontario—plainly printed thereon. Only the cheaper Oils are sold in bulk, but these produce nausea and never effect the desired results.

G.T. R. ENGINEER KILLED.

Carried Nearly a Mile In G.T.R. Yards At Harrisburg.

Harrisburg, Feb. 20.—J. L. Miller of Sarnia tunnel, lost his life here Monday night. He was engineer on No. 99 merchandise train from Toronto to London, and had pulled in on the siding to allow No. 84 from the west to pass. In jumping from his engine to make an inspection he fell against the other train, which picked him up and carried him a distance of about three-quarters of a mile, where the remains were picked up badly mangled. Miller was about 26 years old, and leaves a young wife and two small children, all now on beds of sickness at Sarnia tunnel.

Both Legs Frozen.

Kingston, Feb. 20.—Nicholas Babcock of Olden reached the hospital yesterday in a dangerous state from frost bites. Aged 60, he went home on Sunday night, took a fit, and was found on Monday badly frozen. His legs have to be amputated.

Two Children Cremated.

Quebec, Feb. 20.—Burned to death in their beds in a fire which consumed the residence and store of their father, two children, aged 2 and 7 years, of Mr. Sayack, general storekeeper, Valcartier, a few miles north of this city, met a horrible fate yesterday morning. The building and contents, the stock alone being valued at about $5,000, were destroyed.

Fireman's Sad Fate.

Ottawa, Feb. 20.—Some time ago Joseph A. Mills, captain of No. 1 fire station, while at a fire had the base of his skull fractured along with other injuries. He is now insane. He has been 30 years connected with the department.

Killed by Train.

Montreal, Feb. 20.—At Lachine yesterday afternoon Louis Rauthier and Thomas Watson lost their lives by being struck by a Grand Trunk freight train. They were in the employ of the Canadian Radiator Works.

Caused by Rail Spreading.

New York, Feb. 20.—The fact that a spreading rail caused the wreck of the White Plains express on the New York Central Railroad Saturday night in which 21 persons were killed, was developed at the coroner's inquest yesterday.

FOR MURDER OF HER HUSBAND

Charged That Mrs. Perkins Killed Him With Poison.

ARRESTED AND LOCKED UP

Big Sensation at Cayuga, Carriage Containing Woman Being Surrounded by Big Crowd Who Followed It to the Jail—Prisoner Protested Her Innocence and Adjournment Taken Till Feb. 27.

Cayuga, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Mattie Perkins was arrested yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and locked up on a charge of poisoning her husband, Henry Perkins, of Canfield. The arrest was made by High Constable Farrell at the instance of the Attorney-General's Department. Provincial Inspector Greer has been working on the case for the past three weeks. John Perkins, a policeman, a brother of the deceased, who arrived from Winnipeg a short time ago, has assisted the crown.

Last night County Crown Attorney Murphy, accompanied by the detectives, searched the Perkins' house at Canfield. The arrest of Mrs. Perkins has been expected for the past few days.

The arrest caused a big sensation. Within a few minutes the carriage was surrounded by a crowd who followed it to the jail. Mrs. Perkins was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Romain Hislop, and another woman, dressed in black with heavy veiling.

When Constable Farrell entered the house he asked for Mrs. Perkins, who was dressing in a side room off the parlor. She slipped on a dressing-sacque and immediately came out. The officer read the warrant.

Declares Her Innocence.

Mrs. Perkins displayed great nerve and took the proceedings in a matter of fact way. She sat down in a rocker and hotly upbraided the constable for not giving her notice that she would have to go to jail."

"I'll just take my time," she said, "this is not the last of this. You know as well as anything that I am innocent of anything, and that this whole affair has been worked up against me by spiteful enemies. Oh, well, it's all right, but I have nothing to hide. I have done nothing wrong, and it will all come right in the end."

Ralph Curry, Mrs. Perkins' brother, watched the carriage drive away to the jail. He turned to the house with a look of utter anguish.

The ride to the courthouse was made rapidly, and immediately on reaching the top of the hill the prisoner was hurried before Thomas Cline, J. P., when the charge of murder was read. Crown Attorney Murphy moved that the preliminary hearing be adjourned till Feb. 27 at 1.30 p. m.

The prisoner remained silent. She was then taken from the courtroom to a cell. There Mrs. Perkins broke down and cried.

At the Curry house a trunk was taken away, but it was not given out what the officers found at the Perkins' home at Canfield.

THE EARTH SHOOK.

Buildings Trembled and Were In Danger for Two Minutes at St. George on the New Brunswick Coast.

St. John, N. B., Feb. 20.—A severe earthquake occurred at St. George, 40 miles down the coast, about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It lasted two minutes, and buildings trembled perceptibly.

It was feared they would be shaken down, but no serious damage was done. Residents of the town were greatly alarmed. A second but less severe trembling occurred 20 minutes later.

CURLERS LAUNCHED IN THE GREAT BONSPIEL

Ranks Gradually Being Thinned From the Brilliant Array Which Began the Game Yesterday.

OUTCOME STILL HANGS IN THE BALANCE

To-day, the second day of the big Peterborough Bonspiel, is of no less importance than the first. True, many famous curlers, aspiring for championship honours, who curled their first stone yesterday afternoon, have been defeated in both Primary and Consolation, and have nothing now to do but stand and wait, while their more skilful brethren climb up the ladder to where the mementoes rest. But the higher up they go, the more keener become the contests, and this morning's games were particularly interesting.

Rinks that were winning by scientific curling yesterday, were easily overcome to-day, and the general reason assigned by losing wielders of the besoms, is that it was "an off day" for them.

However this may be, the great games still go on with increasing enthusiasm, and the hilarity common only to the curling rink. Both rinks have been alive with the lovers of the games since the beginning of the 'spiel. The spectators have also been many, and even occasionally members of the fair sex drop in to watch the games progress, and intelligently pass their opinions on a good or bad play.

The interest in the contests by no means subsides at the conclusion of the plays. The one topic in the minds of the curlers is the bonspiel, and curling becomes uppermost in the conversation wherever two or three are gathered together. Last night many sat up and talked the greater part of the night away, explaining how the game was lost or won.

Of course it is as yet impossible to form any idea as to whom the winners of the bonspiel will be; probably, however, by to-night one may be able to pick the winners.

Many of the games have been exceedingly close and it has only been by the merest chance that the winners won and the losers lost. Many of the scores below would indicate that the games were easily won, but such was not the case. The victor in a large number of cases, tallied but one point, in each end, and in each case barely gained his point.

What amused the large number of spectators the most was not so much, the plays, good or bad, but the results they had upon the countenances of the players. "Sweep, sweep," "all the way up," and "play me a little running with an in turn," were frequent among the lengthy list of curling expressions. One skip cautioned, "Just heavy enough to play that stone through and roll on the ring," but, alas! the stone stayed, and the player's went through.

The Brock street rink, although it has been used for skating all winter, was transformed into an excellent curling rink, on Monday, by Mr. Jack Thirnbeck, who proved himself an adept at making ice for the curlers as well as for the skaters. His work was much complimented by the visitors.

Below will be found a full report of all games played yesterday and until noon of to-day:—

PASTOR AND PEOPLE PRAISE PSYCHINE

(PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

A Marvellous and Triumphant Record of Victory Over Disease.

No medicine has ever effected as large a number of wonderful and almost marvellous cures as Psychine. It has had one continuous record of victories over diseases of the throat, chest, lungs and stomach. Where doctors have pronounced cases incurable from consumption and other wasting diseases Psychine steps in and rescues numberless people even from the very verge of the grave. Coughs, Colds, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Chills, Night Sweats, La Grippe, Pneumonia, and other like troubles, all of which are forerunners of Consumption, yield quickly to the curative powers of Psychine.

Mrs. Campbell, one of the many cured, makes the following statement:

I cannot refrain from telling all who suffer of my remarkable recovery with Psychine. In April, 1902, I caught a heavy cold which settled on my lungs and gradually led to consumption. I could not sleep, was subject to night sweats, my lungs were so diseased, my doctor considered me incurable. Rev. Mr. Mahaffy, Port Elgin Presbyterian Church, recommended Dr. Slocum's Psychine to me, when I was living in Ontario. After using Psychine for a short time I ate and slept well, the night sweats and cough ceased. Months ago I stopped taking Psychine, as I was perfectly restored to health and to-day I never felt better in my life. Psychine has been a god-send to me. MRS. ANDREW CAMPBELL, Cottonwood, N.W.T.

PSYCHINE never disappoints.
PSYCHINE has no substitute.
There is no other medicine "Just as good."

LOCAL HORSES AT WESTWOOD

City Queen Won the 2:30 Trot in Races There Yesterday—Will go to Harwood on Thursday.

Peterborough horses did well at the Westwood races yesterday, Geo. Lipsett's "City Queen" winning the 2.30 trot, while in the Named Race Charles Fife's "Peggy" finished first in the one heat. The races were held on the River Ouse on a half mile track.

To-morrow the horses which took part in the Westwood races will go to Harwood, and Harry Direct will also take part in the events there.

The summary of the races yesterday was as follows:—

2.30 Class.

City Queen, G. Lipsett...	1	3	1	1
Little Will, A. Elmhirst	2	1	2	2
Little Girl, J. Elmhirst	3	2	3	3

WOULD PLAY THE SENIOR CHAMPIONS

Toronto University, champions of the Intercollegiate Hockey League, yesterday morning forwarded a challenge to the O.H.T., which reads as follows:—

"The University of Toronto Hockey Club, intercollegiate champions, hereby challenge the Senior Ontario Hockey Association champions to a hockey match to decide the amateur championship of Canada."

PETERBORO' TO HAVE ANOTHER CHANCE TO WIN

Will be Given Opportunity to Meet Kingston Once More—Date Not Settled Yet.

THE WORD WAS RECEIVED TO-DAY

If Peterborough wins to-night's game with the Marlboros and sends in a formal application to the O.H.A. they will be given a chance to meet Kingston in a sudden death game for the championship of the district. This was the welcome assurance given Secretary Graham, of the local club by Acting Secretary Fitzgerald of the O.H.A. this morning, in the course of a telephone conversation, and it seems certain that the O.H.A. has realized the handicap imposed upon the local club by the schedule arrangements, and are going to remedy it, by bringing together Kingston and Peterborough.

The news will be received gladly by the fans here, who will rejoice in the fact that Peterborough is still actively in the running for the O.H.A. silverware.

TO-NIGHT'S GAME WILL BE SPEEDY

Peterboro's Still in the Running But Will Have to Win.

There promises to be a big crowd at the game between Marlboros and Peterborough at Brock street rink to-night. The intelligence that Peterborough is still in the running for championship honours adding fresh interest to the struggle. In order to have any chance, however, the locals must win to-night, and they will have their work cut out for them as the Marlboros have struck their right gait and will be strong to-night. The ice is in good condition and a lightning contest should be the result. Mr. W. E. Wasson will referee and the game will be called at 8.30 o'clock sharp. The teams will line up as follows:

Marlboros.		Peterborough.

HOCKEY GAME COSTS MONEY IN STRATFORD

They get good prices for hockey games in Stratford. The seats for the game scheduled to be played in that city on Monday night with the Berlin team were selling for 50 cents, general admission, and the spectators were glad to pay that price for the privilege of seeing the two teams play. There were no letters published in the papers the next day either, objecting to having to pay the price

HOCKEY

The City League games this week will be of more than usual interest inasmuch as they have a direct bearing upon the league championship. The Charlotte street team will play Lakefield, and the Suburb team will have their work cut out for them as the Marlboros have struck their right gait and will be strong to-night. The ice is in good condition and a lightning contest should be the result. Mr. W. E. Wasson will referee and the game will be called at 8.30 o'clock sharp. The teams will line up as follows:

* * * *

Knox Church senior team defeated a C. G. E. team at the Knox Church Rink Monday night, by the score of 2-1.

* * * *

The production department of the C. G. E. accept the challenge from the Knox Church team, the latter to make arrangements for the rink

* * * *

The quality of hockey played in the western section of the senior series cannot be as fast as seen around here. Varsity trimmed Stratford last night in an exhibition game right on their own ice by 10 goals to 2. It will be remembered that Peterborough did things to the Collegians in a game here earlier in the season, when they defeated Varsity by 9-4.

* * * *

Knox Church Seniors will not play St. Andrew's Guards on Thursday night as reported but will play a C. G. E. team on that night.

* * * *

A picked team captained by Beasley played and defeated Knox church senior team last night by the score of 7 to 3.

GOOD CONCERT BY CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC

The Centreville Town Hall Was Crowded With Large Audience Who Were Highly Pleased With Programme.

SECTION OF THE ORCHESTA PRESENT

The Conservatory of Music last night sustained its reputation as an organization that never fails to delight an audience when a concert is conducted under the supervision of Mr. R. Gliddon, A concert was held in the town hall of Centreville last night under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Aid Society of that community, a 'bus-load of young people from the Conservatory providing the entertainment.

The hall, a commodious one for the size and importance of the hamlet in which it is built, was well filled with an appreciative audience who, generally, expressed their delight with the quality and quantity of the music. The Conservatory of Music has conducted several concerts very similar to that of last night, but it is safe to say that in many respects, their latest effort was most successful. The pupils in this way are given a chance to appear in a public performance and thus they receive a very important part of the training which otherwise might be neglected.

A section of the Conservatory orchestra was present and greatly augmented the evening's success. The following musicians composed it: Piano, Miss Sisson; Cornet, Mr. A. Seward; Violins, Miss Julia Choate and Mr. C. Seymour; Clarinet, Mr. Aikens; String Bass, Mr. W. H. Cunningham.

The numbers they played were well received by the audience, and in fact, they made a very creditable showing. Miss Mona O'Shea's vocal solos were well rendered and gained the favour of the gathering. Miss Choate in her violin solos, Miss Pollock and Miss Sisson in piano solds, and Mr. A. Seward in his cornet numbers, won many complimentary remarks, both for themselves and for the Conservatory by the excellence of execution and the brilliance that marked their different selections. Each had to respond to well-merited encores. The remainder of the performers were successful in their numbers, and individual mention is scarcely necessary as everyone did splendidly, in fact the whole programme was well presented and was received with heartiness by the large audience.

The following is a synopsis of the programme:

Selection by Mandolin Club.
Recitation—Miss Eva Stevenson.
Vocal Solo—Miss Mona O'Shea.
Piano Solo—Miss Pollock.
Violin Solo—Miss Julia Choate.
Selection by Conservatory orchestra and Mandolin Club.
Vocal Solo—Miss O'Shea.

"God Save the King."

Master O'Shea's dance was a decided hit and was repeated later by request. It may be said that he is not a pupil of the Conservatory, as dancing is not on the curriculum.

AFFIRMATIVE WON ST. ANDREW'S DEBATE

Great Britain Was Not Justified In Entering on Boer War.

A feature of the regular meeting of the Young Men's Guild of St. Andrew's church last night, was a debate on the subject, "Resolved.—That Great Britain was not justified in entering into the Boer War."

This was taken up after the routine business had been disposed of and was a decidedly interesting event. There was a good attendance, who followed the debate with interest.

The affirmative was taken by Messrs. R. Barrowman and T. Donaldson, while Messrs. Geo. Evans and H. McCulloch supported the negative. Many good points were brought out by the speakers on both sides. The decision was given in favour of the affirmative.

WILL REVIVE THE VICTORIA ENCAMPMENT

Local Oddfellows Will Take Part In Interesting Ceremony.

The officers and members of the Peterborough Encampment will arrive in Port Hope by special train on Friday evening and will revive the Victoria Encampment No. 25. They will be accompanied by the Grand Encampment Officers, and with Peterborough's beautiful paraphernalia, the occasion promises to be a grand success.

The three degrees will be conferred on all applicants, and already there is a very large number.

A committee meeting will be held after the regular meeting of Durham Lodge, No. 78, I.O.O.F., this evening to make all necessary arrangements. Let every member be on hand to-night and assist in preparing for a rousing reception for our northern brethren.—Port Hope Guide.

Hall's Glen, Feb. 19.—Mrs. D. Little is gradually recovering from an attack of lagrippe.

Mr. F. Jory is again at the service of some of the villagers of late. He has work suitable for the varied seasons of the year.

Mr. R. Little, of Pine Grove, is helping his brother for a few days cutting wood.

Two industrious farmers of McCracken's Landing are changing work at present. Mr. D. Brown thinks he has the best of the bargain and has accepted a large contract of buck-sawing wood as the result.

Mr. M. Carveth is taking up a series of studies this winter along the line of bookkeeping.

A sleigh load of young people left the village Wednesday night for a surprise party at Payne's Bridge.

Mr. Geo. Hamblin has at last accepted the honourable position of foreman for the Third Line Lumber Company.

Mr. Wm. Carveth, who was so seriously injured last week in a gas explosion, according to a new Hall's Glen correspondent, has dispensed with his ordinary domestic duties, and at present is spending a few days in Lakefield with friends for recuperation and the regaining of his health. Mr. Carveth might have been asphyxiated and his fine residence destroyed by fire in consequence of the ignition and explosion of the acetylene gas, had not the new waterworks system, which was successfully introduced recently by a clever merchant of our village, been applied in the nick of time. So that Mr. Carveth owes much to the company, and more particularly is he indebted to the inventor; and now, after seeing the waterworks so thoroughly tested, will surely, without hesitation, take steps at once to have his house insured by the adoption of this famous and never-failing means of safety and defence.

REGINA

You will make more money by buying lots in Regina City, than by any other source at the present time. It is no gamble, no chance, but an absolutely sure investment. Property will increase at least 100 per cent. in less than two years. Buy now. Prices will be advanced in the spring. Here are a few things that are making Regina grow and making property increase in value :—

REGINA, the wholesale and distributing centre for Saskatchewan and the west. $9,000,000.00 worth of farm machinery sold from Regina last year. Regina is the head-quarters for Saskatchewan of:—

The American-Abell Engine and Thresher Co.
Massey Harris Company.
Frost & Wood Company.
Fairchild Company.
Waterloo Manufacturing Company.
J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.
Garr-Scott Threshing Machine Company.
The International Harvester Company.
The North-west Thresher Company.
The New Hamburg Manufacturing Company.
Reeves Thresher Company.
Nichols & Shepherd Thresher Company.
Sawyer-Massey Company.
Noline Plow Company.
Canadian Port Huron Company.
Cockshutt Plow Company.

Besides the above there are a number of large eastern wholesale houses located in Regina. At the present time some eighteen more wholesale firms have secured sites in Regina to build on this year.

REGINA, the only railroad centre in Saskatchewan.
Besides the present roads which run north, south, east and west, there will be six more lines built into Regina during the next two years, being the Great Northern from the south, the Canadian Northern from the southeast, the C. P. R. north to Prince Albert, and three G. T. P. roads—one northeast, one east, one southwest.
The following is what Mr. Morse of the G. T. P. said in Regina on Aug. 6, 1906;
The Leader, Aug. 6, 1906.

FRANK MORSE IN REGINA

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P. Railway, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday morning, and had a short conference with Mayor McArs and W. G. Pettingel, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Morse had no new statement to make for publication regarding the plans of the G. T. P. in and around Regina. He repeated what he had said when in Regina on May 16th last, that his Company would get into Regina at the earliest possible date, as they realized there was a large business to be done here. He confirmed the statement, which was first published by The Leader, that in addition to a branch line to Regina, from the main line near Yorkton, and from Regina to the international boundary on the south, a branch would be run to Regina from Brandon.

"The construction of branch lines would be carried on simultaneously with the main line," said Mr. Morse.

REGINA leads all cities from Winnipeg to the Coast in building for 1906.
Capital of Saskatchewan ranks fifth among the metropolitan centres of Canada, being surpassed by Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. Leads all the Dominion in relative growth. Building permits in 1906:

Regina—$1,982,330.
Edmonton—$1,863,894.
Calgary—$1,109,161.

No other city in Canada shows as high a percentage of growth as Regina. 1907 will beat all records. A large number of expensive buildings are being erected. Among others include:—Four new hotels, at a cost of over half a million; municipal hospital, $100,000; Y. M. C. A. at $100,000; Baptist Church, $60,000; Masonic Temple, at $75,000; Dominion Land Titles Office at $110,000; New Public School at $84,000, and many other business blocks and residences. Chief amongst all buildings will be the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, at a cost of at least $1,500,000.

Facts About Regina City

Regina is the Capital of the Province of Saskatchewan.
Regina is the only commercial centre of Saskatchewan.
Regina is the only railroad and distributing centre in Saskatchewan.
Regina has eight chartered banks and four more coming.
Regina tax rate for 1906 is only 15 mills.
Regina has the finest sewer and waterworks system in the West.
Regina is the only city west of Winnipeg with paved streets.
Regina has a surplus of assets of over a million and a half.
Regina's population has increased over 300 per cent. in three years.
All public utilities are owned and operated by the city.
Regina is in the heart of the best farming country in the West.

WORST STORM OF THE SEASON IS REPORTED

Six Inches of Snow Fell Last Night, But It Drifted Badly and in Some Places Blocked Traffic.

TRAINS RUNNING BEHIND TIME TO-DAY

Last night the worst snow storm of the winter was experienced, and six inches of snow fell during the afternoon and evening, accompanied at times with a high wind. In the outskirts of the city and on the country roads, the snow drifted considerably, reports being received to the effect that few storms in recent years have been as severe as that which occurred last night.

The storm was general throughout the eastern part of the province, and the C. P. R. trains from the east were running late this morning, the 5.15 express being several hours behind the schedule time. The fall of snow also gave some trouble to the G.T.R., and the trains on that line were a little late, that from Toronto, at noon coming in fifty-five minutes behind time, while the C. P. R. noon express was also late.

An improvement was noticed this morning in the service of the snow ploughs, and on streets which in former storms have not been cleared at seven o'clock, the snow was removed this morning at that hour.

During the last twenty-four hours we have had a startling example of the vagaries of our Canadian climate. At noon yesterday the air was quite balmy and spring-like. The water was running on the pavements, where the sun could make its influence felt, and to the uninitiated it appeared that spring was at hand. However, during the afternoon, the weather became considerably colder, snow began to fall, and later, the wind to howl. During the night the thermometer went down to 4 degrees below zero, and this morning the mercury was still below the zero mark. During the day the temperature has risen but little. This cold spell will be with us for the remainder of the week.

NARROWLY ESCAPED AN ACCIDENT

Young Girl Was Knocked Down in Street and Team of Horses and Sleigh Passed Over Her.

At the noon hour to-day at Hunter and Aylmer streets, a little girl about seven or eight years old, who lives at 616 Aylmer street, had a marvellously narrow escape from a terrible death or mutilation. She had come down town on an errand, and, in trying to "jump a bob," missed her aim, and a team coming up behind her, whose driver did not notice her, knocked her down. The horses passed, one on each side of the child, and before the shouts of a bystander had caused the team to stop the child was under the sleigh, but perilously near the restless feet of the horses. The youngster was rescued and brought down to her destination on George street by a kind-hearted merchant, wonderful to say, in no way injured by her rather thrilling experience.

The Worst Marine Disaster In Many Years Reported From Coast Of Holland

Steamer Harwick Lost and 141 Persons Known to Have Perished—In Terrible Gale Steamer Was Driven Ashore.

Special Cable to The Examiner.

London, England, February 21.—Word was received here this morning of one of the worst marine disasters in recent years. The steamer Rerlin, bound from Harwick to Hook in Holland, was wrecked. The steamer encountered terrific weather, and was driven ashore on a reef, near the pier at Hook.

Reports say that the number of drowned will total 141, making it the most disastrous, from this standpoint, of any recorded in a number of years.

Searching for the bodies of the victims along the shore near where the wreck occurred, has been in progress for some hours, and a number have been recovered, but many are missing yet, and in the final count the number of lost will in all probability exceed the 141.

Increased Cost No Obstacle To Building

In Spite of Fact That Buildings Will Cost More This Year There Will be More Carried on Than in Any Year in the Past—These are the Present Prospects.

The cost of building is to see a decided increase in Peterborough this year, but there will be, nevertheless, more buildings put up then ever before. Such at least is the prediction, made by a number of prominent local builders and contractors, when seen this morning.

The building operations throughout the city will be on a rather extensive scale, much more so, in fact, than in other years. There is every indication of this at the present time. The activity will not be centred so much in the erection of private houses. In fact there are rather a fewer number of orders for residential plans filed with the architects so far this year, than in the past. One contractor stated this morning that whereas he had orders for five or six houses at this time last year, there were none that he had secured so far this year. The architects tell the same story, but all agree that the orders are sure to come very shortly. They expect that there will be more houses built this year than ever before.

It is in connection with erection of public buildings, schools and commercial houses, that the most activity is anticipated.

It is anticipated that the cost of building will be increased, and two factors will enter into this increase —higher wages to the building trades, and increase in the price of material. The bricklayers will meet on Saturday night, and it is understood that one of the important matters to be considered at that meeting is the proposal to ask for an increase of wages for this season.

Lumber will be higher this year, and other building material will also, in all probability, be increased in price.

When questioned as to the likely amount of the increase builders are unable to fix any regular amount, but place it somewhere in the neighbourhood of 15 per cent., or perhaps a little more.

HOW TO GET THE BEST AT LOWEST PRICE

If you want the best boarding or lodging house, at the lowest possible price, consistent with good service and good quarters, you can obtain such accommodations by reading over the list of rooms offered in the "BOARD AND ROOM" column in the classified pages of the Examiner. You can surely find the proper place as to price and location to suit your pocket and your convenience.

SLIPPED AND BROKE HIS ANKLE BONE

Painful Accident to Mr. Geo. Goheen, Grocer--Unable to Attend to Duties.

Mr. George Goheen, the grocer, at the corner of Dalhousie and Rubidge streets, met with a painful accident at noon on Tuesday. He was getting out of a cutter in front of his store, when his foot caught. He fell to the ground with the result that a bone in his ankle was broken.

Medical aid was summoned and the fracture was set. Mr. Goheen is unable to work, but is progressing rapidly.

BOARD OF WORKS LOOKS OVER GROUND

With a View of Arriving at a Decision in Connection With Proposal to Close Gilchrist Street.

A special meeting of the Board of Works was held this afternoon at G. W. Green's foundry for the purpose of looking over the ground with a view of better arriving at a decision in connection with the proposal to loose Gilchrist street, a request for which had been received from Mr. Green, who requires the land in order to make an extension to his shops. The Board looked over the situation, but nothing was decided, the matter having been deferred until the next meeting of the Board, when it will again be dealt with. Mr. Quinlan, who is interested in property in the vicinity, is opposing the proposition to close the street.

Electric lights are being installed in the Children's Shelter, Messrs. Alexander & Miller having been given the contract for the work.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL TO COST ABOUT $75,000

The Forest City Council Will be Asked to Provide That Sum for Provision of Contagious Disease Patients.

THE ERECTION AND EQUIPMENT.

At a special meeting of the finance committee of the London City Council and the Hospital Trust, it was decided to ask the Council to authorize an issue of $75,000 of debentures "for hospital purposes"—which means an isolation hospital.

The decision was reached inside of an hour.

The Cost.

Approximate figures of the cost of the building, land, etc., were presented by Mr. Screaton. He said that $75,000 will be needed to provide the city with a proper isolation hospital. The building alone will cost $40,000, and the remaining $35,000 will be required to buy the land necessary and to remodel the present isolation wards and administration building, when the contagious patients are removed to the new hospital. The building Mr. Screaton has secured a price on will have accommodation for 60 patients, which means practically 60 rooms.

FIRES UNNECESSARY IN BUSINESS PLACES

Authentic Report From Grandview, Man., Received by Dr. T. H. Prust Stating That Weather Has Been Ideal.

SNOW MAY BE FEW MILES BUT IS QUITE RARE

Recently many reports have been received from the West regarding the temperature and the general condition of the weather. Dr. T. H. Prust, who is visiting in this city, has received a letter from his brother, Mr. M. C. Prust, druggist, at Grand View, Manitoba, which gives a very favourable idea of the general conditions at present existing. Dr. Prust considers that the various reports that are in circulation are not only exaggerated, but may be detrimental to the best interests of the Northwest.

The letter is dated Feb. 15th, and states that it has been very mild there for about a week. On the 7th inst., the Chinook winds made their appearance, with the above result. The letter further states that it has been so mild that fires have not been necessary in the places of business. This is not quite coincident with other reports, but it is authentic.

Dr. Prust says that a fairly cold winter lasts in the west for about eight weeks, and that in Saskatchewan and Alberta the weather is now very warm, and in Quill Lake, about 150 miles west of Saskatoon, the sun is decidedly hot. That is what a friend of the doctor reports in a recent letter. Since the 7th inst., the thermometer has ranged between 30 degrees and 60 degrees, which should cause the climate to be agreeably pleasant.

In the country around Winnipeg, the weather is not so mild as that further west, being about the same as that in Minnesota and Dakota, across the border. In Alberta and Saskatchewan ideal conditions prevail, which appeal to the Americans, who are constantly increasing in numbers in these provinces.

FAMOUS CRESCENTS WILL MEET THE LOCALS

Well Known New York Champions Will Cross Sticks With Peterborough.

GAME WILL BE FINE EXHIBITION.

The game to-morrow night between the New York Crescents A. C. Team, and Peterborough, is attracting much attention in hockey circles, and is certain that a bumper house will be on hand to greet the seven times champions of New York. The visitors from across the line have a great reputation, and on paper look a most formidable team. On their line up are Wall and Dobbie, of the Montreal Shamrocks; Sherriff, formerly star forward of the Brockville seniors, Lifferton, brother of the Toronto and Pittsburg players of the same name; Gladney, formerly with Toronto Varsity, Herbie O'Flynn, the erstwhile star lacrosse player of the Peterborough Athletics, and other men who are well known in the hockey world. When an authority like Frank D. Woodworth says that the team is a star aggregation, the public may depend upon seeing one of the best and most interesting games ever seen here. Peterboroughs are not too sure of winning from the famous New Yorkers, but will play the game of their lives tomorrow night.

The Crescents will arrive on the 5.33 G.T.R. train to-morrow night accompanied by 60 supporters, who are coming all the way from New York, to see the game. They leave for Toronto after the contest by a special G.T.R. train.

ADDITIONAL AREA OF STREET WATERING

Requests to This Effect Must be Made to Proper Authorities by Wednesday, February 27th.

To-day the City Clerk is issuing a notice asking persons who wish streets or parts of streets added to the area watered last season to send their request to this effect to either the Clerk or the Board of Works, on or before Wednesday next, February 27, when their requests will be considered by the Board.

A SERIOUS CHARGE WAS PREFERRED

Thomas Minicola Will Have to Face Charge of Using Abusive Language in Lakefield.

On Monday morning, Thos. Minicola of this city, will appear in the county police court, to answer a charge preferred by Vito Blanco, of Lakefield, of using abusive language to him on Feb. 15th. The alleged offence is said to have taken place in Lakefield, and was the result of a wordy battle in which the two persons, both of whom are natives of Sunny Italy, engaged.

WEST MIDDLESEX

The result of the Provincial bye-election in West Middlesex, is a black eye for the "spoils" system as introduced and practised by the Whitney Government. Mr. Duncan C. Ross, the Liberal member-elect, who polled an increased majority over that gained by his father in the General Elections of Jan. 25th, 1905, fought out the contest on the platform of condemnation of the spoils system, the prostitution of the public services to rewarding party hangers-on. This of course was not the only issue. The general failure of the Whitney Government to live up to its promises and profession, was also an elem[illegible] It has ridden double on the [illegible] administration question, making it a political machine contributory to party advantage and an adjunct to the spoils system guillotine. West Middlesex is an indication that the headman's axe may be sharpened for its present industrious employees. Monsieur Guillotine who invented the French beheading instrument that bears his name, was the first to suffer death under its fall. Mr. Ross won against all the forces and influences the Government could master and bring into play. He was opposed by the strongest Conservative, the riding could produce, a well known man, who had twice been a candidate, a man eminently respectable and influential and personally irreproachable and unobjectionable. But it was not Mr. Stewart that Mr. Ross—an entirely new man in politics—defeated, it was the Whitney Government. Mr. Duncan C. Ross enters public life with a promise of distinction and usefulness, a worthy successor of his distinguished father.

LICENSE TRAFFICKING

When Mr. Whitney was masquerading as a champion of the principle of the separation of license administration from politics, there were many to believe him. In Toronto his first step in this direction was the removal of the License Commissioners appointed by a Liberal Government, and the substitution of a thoroughly Conservative board. It is believed that this action was taken at the instance of the spoils element, as a concession to the principle, to the victors belong the spoils, and that, owing to further demands in the matter of the inspectorate, this new board resigned, and was succeeded by another. Yet this beautiful divorce of license administration from politics, has created trouble, and there is now an investigation going forward in regard to alleged trafficking in licenses by party politicians. Mr. Whitney has departed so widely from his pre-office promises, that a little inconsistency in regard to bedevilling license administration by "the boys," is perhaps a venial offence. That he has not been true to his non-political administration promises, is sometimes suggested by odious Grits, but as strongly Conservative a journal as the Toronto Telegram speaks out in meeting, as follows:

The Flavelle - Davidson - Murray Commission resigned in defence of the principle that an inspector satisfactory to the commissioners should be kept in office.

The Whitney Government drove its own commissioners out of office by the assertion of the principle that inspectors satisfactory to the ward workers, should be put in office.

It is not the fault of the Wilson-Millichamp - Defoe commission, or even of the new inspectors, that partisans, of supposed influence, have undertaken to set up a toll-gate in connection with the handling of licenses in Toronto.

There was no talk of a toll-gate in connection with the Toronto license administration when the Flavelle - Davidson - Murray Commission was on guard, with a chief inspector, who owed everything to the commission and nothing to the party workers.

The talk of a toll-gate in connection with the administration of Toronto licenses, began soon after the new commission went on guard with inspectors who owed everything to the party workers, and nothing to the commission.

It is not the fault of the new commission or the new inspectors that party sharks sold for money the influence they did not have.

But partisan sharks could not have found simpletons to buy their influence with the license administration first chosen by the Whitney Government.

The new administration may not be inferior to the Flavelle - Davidson - Murray commission in its integrity and good intentions.

That is not the point.

Toronto's license administration was out of politics, and the worst elements in the local machine had no chance to set up a toll-gate and sell their influence over a commission, which was palpably beyond their control.

Toronto's license administration was brought into politics, and the baser elements of the party got their chance to set up a toll-gate and sell influence which they did not possess, but which their dupes thought they possessed.

The handling of liquor licenses in Toronto is rich in possibilities of danger to every Government. The Whitney Government had the whole business well out of politics, and lacked the strength and sense to keep it out.

Whatever the investigation into Toronto license conditions may reveal — whether or not the allegations as to crooked work are proven —there is little doubt, as many in Peterborough know, who know to what extent license law machinery in this city has been employed to serve other than administrative purposes, that Mr. Whitney has thoroughly failed in his promise to give non-partizan license administration, as he has failed to keep his promise not to practice the spoils system. The two things are interdependent, for the license administration is made to serve the purposes of the devotees and beneficiaries of the spoils system.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Whitney Government has been struck by a blizzard originating in the wild and wooly West — Middlesex.

They may anger that Hon. G. W. Ross is buried in the Senate, but his spirit and memory are not dead.

It would appear that Conservative ward politicians in Toronto encourage those engaged in the liquor traffic to believe that traffic in licenses is a natural adjunct.

PRIMARY FINALS WILL BE CONCLUDED TO-DAY

Bobaygeon supporters as the Aberdeen stone was shunted out of the ring and the game won, which lifted the winners into semi-final company. Flushed with the first impulse of victory, one of the curlers made a big attempt to perform a juggling act with the broom, but landed, feet upwards, on top of the tee.

In the consolation series, Skip T. J. Wallace, of the teachers' rink, made an exciting finish by winning by three up over the crack Hunr rink from Napanee. The teachers won two out of three games, but on account of their duties were unable to remain in the contest. They defaulted the rest of their games last night.

David Hall's game against Sam Ray in the consolation series was another of the more prominent contests. At the conclusion of the 13th end the latter was two up, but Hall was strong on the finish, getting three points and winning by one up. Needless to say, a few brooms touched the rafters and the shouts got out through the crevices.

The semi-finals this morning were great games. Jas. Connal was scheduled against the McMurty rink, of Oshawa, and obtained an early lead over Linz which could not be pulled down. The first end went to Oshawa, but Connal tallied in the second and gradually crept away from his worthy opponent, winning by 19 to 10. The other semi-final game was captured by Ridpath, of Lakefield, only after a hard battle with Reid, of Bobcaygeon. At the end of the eleventh round the score stood even, but Ridpath next tallied 1, 2 and 2, and made the score 12 to 7. The Lakefield rink deserves great praise for their excellent showing since the beginning of the bonspiel. Although they have had very little ice upon which to practice, they have done remarkably well in reaching the finals. His game against Skip J. Connal this afternoon is being keenly followed for upon it depends the resting place of the handsome curling stones offered for first prize.

A large number of rinks are still in the consolation race, which will probably be determined some time to-morrow.

TO-NIGHT'S CITY LEAGUE GAMES WILL BE FAST

League Leaders Must Win Their Games to Keep in the Running.

Two great games are promised for the City League series to-night when Charlotte Street will meet Lakefield and Strathcona will play the Orphans. The two league leaders must win to be in the running, but both of them will have their work out out. The Orphans are going to make a big effort to turn down the Strathcona and win the game. They will have a strong line-up and should make things interesting. Lakefield will have the fastest seven they have had this year, and Charlotte Street will have to extend themselves to win. Mr. Geo. Lynch will referee.

HOCKEY

The Strathcona will line up as follows in to-night's game with the Orphans:

Goal—Wilson.
Point—Meagher.
Cover—White.
Rover—McGrath.
Centre—McMillan.
Right—Seymour.
Left—Weatherston.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Always Stops the Cough

It combines the potent healing virtues of the pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth, is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe.

A cough is caused by the presence of phlegm in the throat and lungs, and continued coughing is liable to distend the bronchial tubes, congest the lungs and produce inflammation or hemorrhage.

A neglected cough can have but one result. It leaves either the throat or lungs, or both, affected.

A single dose of

will stop the cough, soothe the throat and heal the lungs.

Read what Miss Nettie A. Seeley, Ashland, N.B., says: "I take much pleasure in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, for I have found it a very valuable remedy for coughs. My mother has used it in our family for a long time and whenever any of them get a cough, mother will say: 'I will have to get some Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for I know it is good, and always stops the Cough when nothing else will.'"

Insist on getting Dr. Wood's as it is the genuine, put up in yellow wrapper. Price 25 cents at all dealers. 3 pine trees the trade mark.

It appears that some misunderstanding has arisen in connection with the statement that invitations were being sent out for "A Night in the Skies," by Rev. Dr. Marsh, in the Charlotte street Sunday school room on Tuesday night next. The invitations are being sent to the school teachers of the city, and a few interested especially in educational matters, but not to the general public, who, with the members of the congregation, will be cordially welcomed. There is no admission fee and a general invitation is extended to the public to enjoy, what is expected to be, a most interesting evening's programme.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Isaiah Sanderson of Napanee, is visiting in the city.

Mrs. W. D. Roberts and daughter, Thelma, have gone to Port Hope, for a two weeks' visit.

Mrs. William Irwin, will not receive to-morrow, but will receive on the second Friday in March.

Mr. William Irwin leaves this afternoon on the 5.15 C. P. R. train on a visit to British Columbia and the West.

Miss S. Stanger, of Stewart street, left on Tuesday morning, to resume her duties in Grimsby. She intends to spend a few weeks attending the millinery displays in Toronto.

Rev. W. J. Creighton of Lakefield, passed through Peterborough yesterday en route to Bobcaygeon, to officiate at the funeral of the late Mr. Devitt, a former parishioner.

Rev. E. A. Langfeldt is booked for a lecture at Oakville under the auspices of the A.Y.P.A. of St. Thomas' church. The lecture will be given next Tuesday, on "The Evolution of the Boy."

Kidneys Affected By Sudden Change

MOST PAINFUL AILMENTS FOLLOW —PREVENTION AND CURE OBTAINED BY USE OF

The sudden lowering of the temperature causes the pores of the skin to close, and thus throws on to the kidneys much work which is ordinarily performed by the skin. This, no doubt, accounts for the great prevalence of kidney disease during the fall and winter.

There is no treatment which so quickly affords relief to overworked and deranged kidneys as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, because they act on the liver, as well as the kidneys, and when in healthful action the liver does much of the work of filtering the blood, which is otherwise left for the kidneys.

Bright's Disease, dropsy, uric acid poisoning, stone in the bladder, and rheumatism are among the most painful forms of kidney disease, and these ailments can always be prevented by the timely use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. They can also usually be cured by this treatment, but if you are so fortunate as to be yet free of these dreadful ailments, keep so by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to keep the liver, kidneys and bowels in healthful working condition.

Mr. W. Ferguson, blacksmith, Trenton, Ont., states: "In my work I am bending over a great deal, and this, together with the constant strain on all parts of the body, and the sudden change of temperature when going to and from the forge, brought on kidney disease and backache. At times I would suffer so that I would have to quit work to ease my back, and felt so miserable most of the time that I did not enjoy life very much.

"At last I decided that I would have to get relief in some way, and having heard of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills as a successful cure for backache and kidney disease, I began using them. To my surprise and pleasure they helped me at once, and a few boxes entirely removed my troubles. Thanks to Dr. Chase, I am perfectly cured, and hope that others may take my advice and use Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, by their direct and combined action on kidney, liver and bowels, positively cure biliousness, constipation, and diseases of the kidneys. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

C. P. R. YARD ENGINE JUMPED THE TRACK

This afternoon the C. P. R. yard engine, with a car attached, jumped the track near R. C. Braund's store, west of Park street. The tender was somewhat damaged, and the car somewhat wrecked, but beyond this no damage was done, and the main line was not blocked.

PETERBOROUGH HAS DASH SAYS THE KINGSTON WHIG

According to the Kingston Whig the 14th Regiment team, already has the Senior O. H. A. championship clinched. That paper yesterday said:—

The 14th hockey team has remained intact right through the season, and will finish its series of games with the same players as it started out with. All of them are seasoned. They play well together, and have improved with every game. Midland and Peterborough may have shown more dash, but it is the steady and good work that counts. Good headwork won for teh 14th in Toronto on Monday night. The Kingston defence played their positions, while Midland's cover point and point were often enticed out to their sorrow. If the 14th continue their steady play, they can win the O.H.A. championship, of which they are now within reach. A little practice in short shooting on goal and in poking the puck in the nets during mix-ups, will be valuable to the locals. Several of their goals were scored in this way in Toronto, and the value of rendering effective that system of play can be seen.

EIGHTEEN LOADS OF HAY ON MARKET IN ONE DAY

A Record Breaker—Hay and Straw in Good Demand.

The hay market yesterday was one of the largest on record. Altogether there were 18 loads of good timothy hay for sale and it went very rapidly. The price now ranges around $13.00 per ton. The best clover hay is selling now at $11.00 and $12.00 per ton. Straw is now in good demand, the sale price being $8.50 to $9 per load.

GENTLEMAN COMPLAINS OF FEROCIOUS DOG

Attack Horses While Driving by and are a Source of Trouble to Drivers.

A gentleman living in the vicinity of Smith and Stewart streets, called at the police station to-day to complain against the dogs of two of his neighbours living further west. These canines have a very bad habit of running at passing horses and ferociously attacking them, snapping especially at the horses' throats. He did not wish to take any proceedings against them, but would do so if some steps are not taken whereby these dogs may be kept off the streets and allow horses to pass unmolested.

ENGINEER TO GO TO BURLEIGH FALLS

To Report on the Power Possibilities Existing There.

The representative of the Central Ontario Power Co., who was in the city yesterday, had a conference with the Mayor in reference to the offer of the company to supply cheap power to the city. He was not in a position to give definite figures, but engineers will be sent to Burleigh Falls next week, and when their report is handed in the company will be in a position to bring their proposition before the City Council. In the meantime nothing can be done.

PRICES GO QUICK ON MEN'S AND WOMEN'S FUR COATS

Mostly everybody knows how desirable it is for fur dealers to clear their stocks of furs just now. Instead of taking chances on carrying them over to next winter, they are making a slaughter in the prices, although the raw material has advanced considerably. An instance of how very cheap men and women can buy fur coats to-day will be found in the advertisement of Messrs. Merrill & Meredith in another column of this issue.

FRAME WORK CONCLUDED ON THE NEW STEAMBOAT

Mr. Hickey Expects to Begin the Planking of Hull by Next Week.

Good progress is being made on the new steamer for the Otonabee Navigation Co at the East City steamboat wharf. Mr. Wm. Hickey, in whose hands the contract has been placed, has already got the framework together, and by next week he expects to begin the planking.

The management propose having the steamer completed to carry excursionists by May 24.

Without Colds no Lung Trouble

A person may be predisposed to consumption by heredity; he may be in unsanitary surroundings, and may breath impure air, but the beginning of trouble is always a neglected cold. In thousands of Canadian homes Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is kept as a sure cure for coughs and colds, and a protection against diseases of the lungs.

LENTEN SERVICES LAST NIGHT

CHURCH INTENDED FOR SINNERS AND SAINTS

These Words Were the Gist of Sermon Given by Rev. A. J. Fidler Last Night at St. John's Church.

WAS NEVER FOR THE SAINTS ALONE

Last night the second of a series of Wednesday night Lenten services was held in St. John's Church. These special services are proving to be very interesting and have been attended by fairly large gatherings.

Sermon

At last night's service the special feature was a sermon by Rev. A. J. Fidler, of Grace Church, Toronto. The reverend speaker was listened to with deep interest throughout his discourse, which was one of general interest. The subject was "The Religious and Devotional Life." Rev. Mr. Fidler said in his remarks that to the beginner on the religious life there are two great and chief stumbling blocks, but as the habit of the religious life is formed and the soul learns to face and conquer difficulties, the devotional life follows as a matter of course. When one expects to begin the religious life with the love of St. John or the wisdom of St. Paul, he must be disappointed. The child begins the study of literature with the primer, and not with Plato. Musicians begin the study of music with the scale, and not with Beethoven, and as Plato becomes, in time, easier than was the primer in the beginning, and the music which requires ten fingers becomes easier than that which at first demanded two, so in religious life, that is the conscious and definite living of it, there are corresponding stumbling blocks.

First Difficulty

The first impediment that one usually meets at the gate of entrance is, "I am not good enough," and second, "Others are not good enough," and the latter is usually given precedence to the former. There are those who withhold themselves from a religious life because they feel that those who are Christians are not always, in reality, what they profess, and thus they take the stand that the church is intended for saints, and not for those who offend Almighty God.

In the history that is gone there have been men who have brought into being religious societies exclusively for saints, but in every case the sinner has gained admission. In the first Christian congregation of twelve, with Christ Himself as Minister, one, Judas, fell.

The church is not intended for saints to the exclusion of those who are otherwise. It is for the spiritually ragged, as well as those who are clothed in the purple and fine linen of holiness. Christ admitted all who were being saved. The church is not a veterans' home for those who have fought all their religious wars and battles in this life, but is the church militant.

How To Conquer

A stumbling block to many is, "Other people are not good enough." Christ, when speaking to St. Peter, when the latter was following the Master and criticised another follower, said, "What is that to thee? Follow thou me!" Christ will take care of the Pharisees. It is our individual duty to follow Him.

"I am not good enough," therefore I remain outside of the helps and graces of the church. When the multitude listened to the apostle's message, some of them remained in order that they might be baptized and made members of the church because they were pricked at heart and conscious of the need of help. Others withdrew, not because they were not good enough, but because they felt no need of the help which Christ could give them.

The religious and devotional life can only be developed by the mastery of the body, the subjugation of the mind, the restraining of the tongue and the submission of the will.

NO ACCIDENTS IN NATURE

Every Calamity, No Matter How Great, Has a Definite Beginning

There are no accidents in nature. The avalanche that without a moment's warning rushes headlong down the mountain side is not an accident.

For years previous tiny atoms have been crystalizing, and adding their minute weight to the mass which left its base when the accumulation reached a certain point.

Neither is baldness an accident. The infinitesmally small germ which is the cause of Dandruff and Baldness, feds silently and long before the result is seen.

The small germs which thrive on the scalp and which are the cause of Baldness and Dandruff cannot exist, however, when Newbro's Herpicide is applied.

THE CRUCIFIXION'S EFFECT ON WRONG-DOING

Rev. H. Ben Oliel Preached Second of Series of Special Lenten Lectures at St. Luke's Church.

VERY INTERESTING SERVICE WAS HELD

A large congregation attended the second of a series of special Lenten services at St. Luke's church, last evening. The preacher was Rev. H. Ben Oliel, of Millbrook, and he delivered a very able and inspiring sermon from the words found in the 36th verse of the 27th chapter of St. Matthew's Gospel, "And sitting down, they watched Him there."

These words, the speaker said, were spoken concerning the soldiers who crucified the Saviour. St. Luke tells of those who caused the crucifixion. This text concerns those who carried it out. The reverend gentleman then pictured the scenes of the crucifixion in a very vivid and graphic manner. He referred to the hill on which the crucifixion took place. Then the hardened soldiers, as they carried out their duties, appeared to glory in them. The great multitude of all classes who had gathered to witness the terrible death of the criminals, was also described. There were the idly curious, and then, lastly, there were the loving disciples of our Lord.

The preacher then asked, "Does there enter our hearts a wish that we could have been there? Would we have fought for Him, and for justice? But it was for our sins that He suffered there. The reverend gentleman said, we continued sinning day by day, and we did not mourn over it. It would have been good for us to have witnessed the crucifixion, so that the sight of it might have impressed us so that we would refrain from doing wrong. There are the soldiers now, the same as then. They are those who scoff at religion, and whose souls are hardened to the Scriptures. The "idly curious" at the present time are those who come to church in an indifferent mood and through curiosity only.

The preacher urged those present to be sincere, to strive against the powers of evil which exist in the world. He said, "Let us look with reverent awe into our Saviour's passion, at this season of Lent. Let us consider what He suffered, and thus try to lead a life consecrated to Him."

The Board Of Works Had A House-Cleaning Night

Cleared Up Practically All the Old Business Left on the Fyle—Ready For New Work.

MUCH ROUTINE BUSINESS WAS DONE BY THE BOARD

The regular meeting of the Board of Works was held last night and the most interesting thing which took place was the clearing of the fyle. Ever since the Board first met practically the whole time each evening was taken up with old business. From now on, however, the committee will have only new matters to take up and the meetings should prove more intresting.

Tenders were opened and read from a number of cement companies for the city's supply of 5,000 barrels of cement. But as there was no particular rush to close a deal and as it was considered advisable to get some information about one of the firms, the matter was left over until next Wednesday night.

After the business of the committee was completed the Mayor addressed the aldermen on the estimates for the year, which would be presented to the committee of the whole on Monday night. He outlined, briefly, the substance of the proposed budget speech and stated that the Board of Works would receive about $17,400 or practically the same amount as was actually expended by the Board last year.

Those present were Ald Duncan, in the chair. Ald. Johnston, McIntyre and Wilson, the Mayor, City Engineer Hay, and the Street Commissioner Evans.

Refuse To Pay

The first matter taken up was the account the city sent to the Peterborough Radial Railway Company for their share of the permanent crossings laid last year. The Board of Works and the Company last year agreed that if the city furnished the material the Company would pay for the cost of the labour of laying the crossing. The city was to do the work and charge it up.

The city, however, took the total cost of the crossings and charged the company with an equal portion. The company objected to that and refused to pay the cost of the material.

Moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. Wilson, that the City Engineer be instructed to adjust the bill and charge the company with the full cost of the labour and 25 per cent. additional, and that all other crossings built be charged on the same basis.

The latter clause was changed so that the company will be charged per square foot, the Engineer to make an estimate of the average. The motion then carried.

New Piling Ground

The Engineer and Street Commissioner notified the Board that they wanted a new piling ground in East City. The old lot on which the city's lumber was piled has been built on. A letter in connection with this matter was received from the City Engineer, stating that the McGregor property could be had if the city built a fence on the front side and allowed George Lipsett to pasture his cow on it.

Mrs. McGregor also wrote the Board, stating that she owned the property and that Lipsett had nothing to do with it. The city could have said property if the taxes were paid and street scrapings were drawn on to the land.

On motion of Ald. Wilson and Johnston, Mrs. McGregor's offer was accepted. Lease only good from year to year.

The matter of G. Walter Green's request for a portion of Gilchrist street was brought up. It was decided that the committee and members of the Council meet at the street some day this week. Two petitions against the transfer to Mr. Green were presented, but it is not known whether these are real. The committee felt that this would be the easier way to settle the whole question.

Moved by the Mayor, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, that all parties wanting to have their streets watered next summer be requested to put in their petitions at once.—Carried.

Moved by the Mayor, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that all petitions for sidewalks and sewers be referred to the City Engineer after they have been read to the Council and the Board.—Carried.

Sewer Pipe

City Engineer Hay introduced the matter of buying sewer pipe for this year. He said that by buying now the city could save considerable. The Canadian Sewer Pipe Co.'s representative was in the city yesterday and gave the following figures:

Up to the first of March, 6-inch and 9-inch pipe at 75 per cent. discount.

Up to the first of March, 12-inch pipe at 73 per cent. discount.

During the season the discount will be 70 per cent.

The Dominion Sewer Pipe Co. wrote that they would give a discount of 75 per cent. for pipe delivered in January, February or March, and 70 and 10 per cent. discount during the season.

The City Engineer recommended the Board taking the Canadian Co.'s offer because the other company had delayed delivery on several occasions.

Ald. Johnston and Ald. Wilson moved that the Engineer's recommendation be accepted and that he be authorized to purchase whatever sewer pipe is required.—Carried.

New Bridges

City Engineer Hay recommended the Board to order at once the steel beams for Dalhousie and Reid street bridges. It takes a long time to get steel orders filled and the work must be done at once.

Moved by Ald. Johnston and Ald. McIntyre, that the City Engineer be instructed to purchase the steel girders required.—Carried.

HORSE RACING IS ESSENTIAL TO SUCCESS

Some County Fair Presidents State They Cannot Make Them Pay Without These Attractions.

THE ACT IS FULLY EXPLAINED.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—The annual meeting of the Ontario Association of Fall Fairs and Exhibitions opened yesterday afternoon at the City Hall, President Sheppard of Cayuga in his annual address said he thought that horse racing should not be forbidden at country fairs and allowed at Ottawa, London and the Toronto Exhibition.

The evening session was opened by the chairman, Hon. Nelson Monteith, Minister of Agriculture, who delivered an address on the educative value of agricultural fairs and exhibitions. Though the new act may have defects he would like to see it given fair working trial, as he believed it would prove of benefit to all concerned. The horticultural societies were now separate, and perhaps it is better so, as the cultivation of fruit and flowers has become so enlarged that it became necessary to give them responsible government. The intention of the recent act was not to discourage fast horses or the breeding of such, but to relegate the professional trotting horse to his proper place on the race track and give farmers a fair ground for competition in the fast stock they own or raise in points of value, speed and style.

Some delegates declared they could not have carried on their exhibitions successfully and kept out of debt except by the attractions they offered in the way of horse racing, but the general consensus of the meeting seemed to favor the elimination of the latter practice.

STOREKEEPER WILL GO TO THE WEST

James Barrie Has Disposed of His Business at Douro to James McCliggitt.

James Barrie, who for the last twelve years, has conducted a general store at Douro church, has sold his building to Mr. Jas. A TRULY MAGNIFICENT SHOWING OF THE POPULAR

WHITE WAISTS

WE have scored another triumph in this comprehensive showing of handsome Lingerie Waists. We have collected the best styles of Paris, New York and among the best Canadian makers—and, while we have raised the tone of each and every garment, you'll find prices are particularly pleasing. Discriminating women and women who know are buying liberally. Don't wait until the choicest models are picked up and gone. You'll find all the popular white materials and every one an artistic creation :—Fine Lawns, India Linens, Persian Lawns, Organdies, Irish Linens, Lace and Point d'Esprit, Jap Taffetas, Mousseline-de-Soie, etc., etc.

The New Black and White Silk Checks

FASHION'S prettiest and neatest are the dainty checks we are showing in the Silk Section, mostly white grounds in the shepherd checks, single and double hair-line checks, broken checks, etc., fine uncrushable quality taffeta silk, with that much-to-be-desired silvery sheen—they are rapidly being picked up, so don't wait until the most desirable patterns are gone.

Special Value ..... .75

Here are three model Waists that are specially attractive and economically priced :—

Fine Sheer Lawn Waist, with beautifully designed front in leaf and butterfly effect, in French eyelet embroidery, twelve fine pin tucks down front, hemstitched across shoulders, seven clusters of fine tucks down back, three quarter sleeves, with tucked cuff trimmed with fine Val. lace 3.00

Irish Linen Waist, with elaborately embroidered front in conventional lily-of-the valley design, embroidered collar and cuffs, box pleats over shoulder, clusters of fine tucks down back, full length sleeve with fine tucks and embroidered cuff 6.00

Fine Orientelle Net Waist, in floral design, pretty treatment of silk insertion, in front, sleeves and around collar, three-quarter length sleeves with new V shaped cuff, lined throughout with Japanese silk 6.50

THE LOCAL REGIMENT IS FAVOURED

Members Have Received Their Pay for Last Year's Drills, While Others Have to Wait.

The men of the 57th Regiment are favoured. While they received their pay for last year's drills the Dufferin Rifles in Brantford, are still waiting for their money, expecting it every day, but, so far, expecting in vain. The Expositor of Brantford, has the following to say concerning the matter : "The Dufferin Rifles pay for the men has not been received yet. The arrival of the money from the Government is long overdue and the men particularly are anxious to receive the same. It might be some satisfaction to know that the 13th Regiment of Hamilton have received their allowance, and that the Dufferins may reasonably expect to receive theirs within the next few days."

GOOD ADVANCE SALE FOR FRIDAY'S GAME

Prospects are for a Good Crowd at the Game With the New York Crescents

The seat sale for the game to-morrow night at the Brock street rink with the New York Crescents opened this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the rink, and, judging by the large number of inquiries received there will be a good crowd. This will be the first time a representative United States hockey team has played in Peterborough, and it will afford a good opportunity of making a comparison of the respective playing abilities of the best amateur teams in the two countries.

That the game will be a good contest goes without saying; the both teams being determined to make as good a showing as possible.

ASSIDUITY IN RIDING ON PAVEMENT COSTS $4.60

Wm. Diasdale Has Already Paid $6.60 for This Privilege.

As a general rule it is the proper thing to get as much use out of an article as possible. However, in the case of riding a bicycle in winter time several matters have to be taken into consideration. Wm. Dimble has not considered that it costs just as much to ride a bicycle on the sidewalk in winter time as in the summer, when they are strictly in vogue. He had previously, about a week ago, paid a fine of $2 for that offence, and to-day was taxed $2 and costs, amounting to $4.80. A total of $6.60 has already been paid for the sidewalk privilege which is quite favourable from the city's standpoint.

Frances Ames, alias Jessie Harris, had one of her names called three times at the police court this morning, but she herself was not forthcoming. In all probability she complied with Magistrate Dumble's command, and folded her tent and departed.

It is learned that she was taken to Millbrook by the man Austin, who later returned to this city.

NORTH SMITH FARMERS RETIRING

Some Come to This City to Live and Others Will Make Their Homes In the West.

Examiner Special

North Smith, Feb. 21.—There have been a great many changes lately in this locality. Mr. Jos. Preston has just removed to Peterborough. Mr. Sanderson will soon be leaving for the west. Messrs. Northey will will also shortly be moving to the farms they have secured from Mr. Preston.

There was a very large attendance at the funeral of the late Mr. Kidd on Sunday last. Many drove fifteen miles. As a consequence, the attendance at some of the churches was very small.

A good many are expectantly awaiting the opening of the new Methodist Church at the Indian village Chemong.

Mr. Graham, whose services as a teacher have always been very acceptable, has decided to accept the position of teacher of S. S. No. 6, Smith. His duties there will begin after Easter.

Wood-cutting is the order of the day. The farmers are making good use of the favourable weather.

THE CHANCEL GUILD APPOINTMENTS

For April — Misses Lulu Scott, Edith Scott and Ethel Pakenham.
For May — Misses Bertha and Ella Curtis and Mary Pratley.
For June — Mrs. Reginald, Turner, Misses Jessie Crane, and Eva Nesbitt.
For July — Miss Kate Calcutt, Elsie Dawson and Ruby Quartermaine.
For August — Misses Helen Denne, Clara Adams and Eva Crane.

MASS MEETINGS IN THE OPERA HOUSE

Brotherhood of St. Andrew Arranges Two Meetings in Opera House on Fourth and Sixth Sundays in Lent

Mr. J. J. Turner, sr., has very generously placed the opera house at the disposal of Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, for Divine Service to be held on the fourth and sixth Sundays in Lent, at 4 o'clock p.m. It is contemplated to accept this generous offer, and to hold mass meetings there on these Sundays, under the auspices of the local assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

Further notices will be given later.

AUTOGRAPHS OF THE LOCAL PIONEERS WANTED

Ottawa Author Desires to Secure Autographs From Them.

PRESENT TO BE MADE TO THE KING

The letter given below should be of great interest to the pioneer citizens of Peterborough, who assisted in the reception given to the Prince of Wales in 1860.

Mr. Anson A. Gard is an Ottawa author, who has written a book entitled, "Pioneers of the Upper Ottawa." Copies of this book contained in handsome boxes made of rare woods, will be presented to King Edward and President Roosevelt. In addition to the book, there will be a collection of photographs and autographs of the persons who took an active part in the celebration of King Edward's visit to Canada in 1860, when he was Prince of Wales. In the book mentioned there is much space devoted to narrative and description of the now historic mission of the Prince, and no doubt His Majesty will peruse the pages with interest. The pictures of the men who met the scion of royalty, and their signatures, will be an appropriate volume to accompany the history.

Mr. Gard will secure, if possible, the names of persons who participated in the welcome in every city, which means a vast amount of labour and expense.

Following is the letter referred to, which was received by the Mayor:

To the Mayors of all cities and towns, in which the Prince of Wales was entertained during his memorable tour of 1860 :—

I am desirous of having the autographs and photographs of all persons, now living, who took an active part in the entertainment of the Prince. If you will have all such persons in your community send these to me, you will confer a favour on both myself and your own people, as I wish to feature all the cities and towns along the tour of the Prince.

It will be a favour if you will have sent to me the population of your place in 1860 and in 1906, that I may show the growth of the country since the Prince was here.

I am desirous of having bits of historic woods to be worked into the cases, which are to be most elaborately made.

If there is in your city anything in historic wood I will be pleased to have a small bit of it sent to me.

Nothing approaching these gifts to King Edward, and the President, has ever before been sent from Canada, and I wish that all places should join in the honours to the two great rulers.

ANSON A. GARD,
Ottawa, Ont.

There are many people in Peterborough who were active in welcoming the Prince of Wales, and for those who desire to have their names mentioned in Mr. Gard's book, the Examiner will see that all communications along the lines asked for, sent to this office, are forwarded to the Ottawa author. Those sending their photographs, etc., should also send to the Examiner a short account of their connection with the Prince's visit.

WEDDING BELLS

BOTHWELL--SEABROOK

The residence of Mr. Barthofemew Seabrook, Fraserville was the scene of an interesting wedding ceremony last night, when, at 6 o'clock his daughter, Miss Johanna, was married to Mr. George Bothwell, of Cavan, in the presence of about fifty guests, a number of whom were from Peterborough, while others were present from Havelock and Toronto, the bride's sister, Miss Flossie Seabrook, being one off the guests from the latter city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Allen, rector of Millbrook.

The bride, who was prettily gowned in white silk, trimmed with lace and chiffon and she wore the usual bridal veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Emma Seabrook.

After the wedding the usual dejeuner was served, and a delightful evening spent, after which Mr. and Mrs. Bothwell left for their new home in Cavan.

The bride, who is very popular in the community, was the recepient of a large number of very handsome and valuable gifts.

For the Man Who Works at a Desk

Not Doctors, But the Right Kind of Food is What He Needs.

You work at a desk and you are shut up in an office all day long, your brain overworked, your body absolutely idle. You get "out of sorts" and your meals don't please you and what you eat doesn't agree with you.

Maybe you think you are sick, but you aren't. You need one of two things—exercise or better food, or both.

It may be impossible for you to get the exercise. It's the easiest thing in the world to get the right kind of food. Ask your grocer for Malta-Vita.

This famous food is the whole of the wheat thoroughly steamed and cooked in absolute purity and mixed with finest malt extract, a powerful digestive agent, which quickly converts the starch of the wheat into maltose,—malt sugar. Maltose is great food, and the weakest stomach digests and assimilates it without effort. The malted wheat, rolled into little flakes, is baked under such intense heat that when it comes from the great ovens, every flake is crisp, brown Malta-Vita—the most delicious food in the world. Always ready to eat.

A perfect breakfast is impossible without Malta-Vita and it's good three times a day. All grocers sell it. Now 10 cents per package.

SOME NEW FACTS IN THAW CASE

Mrs. Thaw In Receipt of a Stipend From Stanford White.

GOT A WEEKLY ALLOWANCE

Payable When She Was Not Acting—District Attorney Forces Prisoner's Wife to Acknowledge That In the Early Part of 1902 She Was Receiving Money From White That She Did Not Earn.

New York, Feb. 21.—In continuing yesterday his cross-examination of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, at the trial of her husband, District Attorney Jerome brought out that in 1902 Stanford White deposited the sum of $1,350 with a New York trust company, with instructions that it be paid to the Nesbit girl at the rate of $25 a week. Mrs. Thaw frankly admitted receiving a number of cheques from the trust company, but she would not admit that there was a provision that she should receive the money only when out of employment. The prosecutor spent nearly the entire afternoon trying to make Mrs. Thaw reply that this was true, and in as many ways as he put the question to her, she gave the one answer, "Don't remember."

The Garland Divorce.

Mrs. Thaw's inability to remember a number of other things about which Mr. Jerome questioned her was by far the most material element in the cross-examination.

He interrogated her most pointedly as to her male acquaintances of the past. He laid especial stress upon her acquaintance with James A Garland, who figured for the first time in the case. Mrs. Thaw said she knew Garland before she met White.

Were'nt you named as co-respondent in the Garland divorce case?" asked Mr. Jerome.

Mrs. Thaw was shaking her head when Mr. Delmas sprang to his feet with an objection. He demanded that the record of the divorce case be brought into court that it might speak for itself. Justice Fitzgerald overruled the objection, but Mr. Jerome withdrew the question.

The Poses.

Mr. Jerome questioned the witness about her manner of posing for artists, and brought from her a denial that she ever posed in the nude. Mr. Jerome insisted on details on the subject. He did not mince words. Many photographs of Mrs. Thaw were introduced in evidence.

"Was there any exposure of the person or did you wear the so-called artistic draperies?" he asked.

"I would not say that," replied the witness, "I posed in a Greek dress and a Turkish costume with low neck draperies."

Asked for letters from White witness said Mr. Hartridge had some of them, and Jerome demanded their production.

"Was there a single work of impropriety or indecency in Stanford White's letters to you?"

"I don't remember."

Mr. Jerome questioned her about her first stage as partners.

"Mamma said I ought not to go out without her," replied the witness.

"When you went on the stage, your mother came for you every night?"

"Yes, until I met White."

"During this time did you ever pose for an artist in the nude?" he asked.

"Never."

"Ever have any casts made in the nude?"

"No."

During the morning session he plied the young woman with questions as to what disposition she made of the letters written to her by Stanford White. Some, she said, had been destroyed, and some she gave to her husband. In the midst of the district attorney's examination with regard to the letters, and when he was pressing the witness for an answer as to what had become of some of them Thaw leaned over and whispered to his counsel in a voice audible to those nearest him: "Stanford White stole them." Attorney O'Reilly thereupon said aloud: "Stanford White got them."

5 YEARS OF AGONY

ENDED BY BILEANS.

Indigestion and Constipation Defied All Treatment Till This Herbal Remedy Was Tried.

Have you ever had indigestion right down bad for a whole day? If so you will be doubly able to imagine the sad plight of a man who for five long years on and off had this terrible ailment, and try as he would, was unable to shake it off, until recently he tried Bileans. But read the whole facts.

Mr. Samuel Fisher, late of 156 Hill street, Owen Sound, but now of 91 Church street, Toronto, is the gentleman referred to and he says: "For five long years I suffered untold agony from indigestion and constipation. Some days I would be a little better, on others, worse. Even after a light meal I had an uncomfortable fulness in the stomach, acute pain in the side and a dull, heavy feeling. Each morning when I awakened I had a bad taste in my mouth and my tongue was thickly coated. My breath was foul and my eyes dull! I 'doctored' constantly and tried all sorts of remedies, but before I tried Bileans I had met with nothing which did me any good. Bileans seemed to act like a charm in my case and a few boxes put me on the highway to recovery. In such a bad case as mine a little perseverance was, of course, necessary, but Bileans have done what I had begun to think impossible—cured me completely."

This is what Bileans do — cure completely. They do not merely relieve. In all cases of constipation, piles, indigestion, foul breath, coated tongue, liver trouble, flatulence and dizziness, and biliousness, they will be found to give almost instant relief. They also cure female ailments, blood impurities, debility, gas pains, cold and chill, rheumatism, etc. All druggists and stores sell Bileans at 50c a box, or they may be obtained post free from the Bilean Co., Toronto, for price. 6 boxes sent for $2.50.

WEST MIDDLESEX.

Duncan C. Ross Carries Seat by Increased Majority—Great Gain in Strathroy.

Strathroy, Feb. 21.—Duncan C. Ross, the Liberal candidate in West Middlesex, was elected yesterday by 145 majority over G. A. Stewart, the Conservative nominee. This was an increase of 32 over the majority obtained by his father, Hon. Geo. W. Ross, at the last general election, and exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine of his friends. The big factors were the town of Strathroy, the Liberal candidate's home, which gave him 67 majority, as compared with 19 for Hon. Geo. W. Ross, and Mosa, where there was a majority of 69. By 8 o'clock Mr Ross knew he had won a notable victory. The Opera House, which was engaged by the Liberals, was packed eager to learn the results. Many ladies were present.

Mr. Calvert, M.P., was master of ceremonies for the celebrants last night. He claimed it was one of the greatest battles ever fought in Canada.

Mr. Ross when he entered the hall was carried to the stage on the shoulders of his friends. He was placed on a table, where he thanked the people for his election. This is the first time he had appeared before the electors. He said he had always done what he could for the people in private affairs, and he assured them that when he went to Toronto he would do all he could for them in public affairs, to the best of his ability.

He would not oppose good legislation if it came from the Conservatives, he said; neither would he further bad legislation if it came from the Liberals. If there were less party and more independence it would be better.

After the meeting, over 200 Liberals made a raid on the broom factory and a procession was soon formed.

Ross received his majorities as follows: Caradoc 87, Delaware 4, Ekfrid 29, Mosa 69, Strathroy 67.

Stewart's majorities were: Metcalfe 41, Glencoe 46, Newbury 11, Wardsville 13. Making a total majority for Ross of 145.

The majority of G. W. Ross in the general elections was 113.

FOR ALIENATION OF AFFECTIONS

Wife of R. M. C. Cadet Asks Court For $53,000 Damages.

Montreal, Feb. 21.—Suit for $53,000 for alienation of her husband's affections, has been brought by Mrs. Augustus N. Agnew, against her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Agnew, and his sister, Miss Catherine Agnew. Three thousand dollars of the claim is for expenses actually incurred by her in consequence of the marriage and subsequent desertion. The rest is for damages.

Mrs. Agnew, then Miss Mary Gober, was married in Augustus N. Agnew in Kingston in December, 1904, while he was at the R.M.C. He lived with her until the following February, when he returned to his people in Montreal and afterwards went to Europe. She has not seen or heard from him since.

THE CANFIELD MYSTERY.

E. F. B. Johnston, K.C., Retained to Defend Mrs. Perkins.

Cayuga, Feb. 21.—The arrest of Mrs. Mattie Perkins for the murder of her husband, is the sole topic of conversation. It is quietly rumored that before another day has passed Ralph Curry, brother of the prisoner, and also T. A. Macdonald, hardware merchant, of Canfield, Ont., may be placed in custody, pending the preliminary investigation next Wednesday.

E. F. B. Johnston, K.C., of Toronto, will conduct the defence.

PROPOSED TO BONUS THE HOTELS

A Novel Measure Introduced In the Legislature.

SOME OF ITS PROVISIONS

Number of New Bills Introduced—Mr. Craig's to Amend the High Schools Act — Two Assessment Measures Withdrawn at Government's Request—Premier Says Something About a Globe Report.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—In the Legislature yesterday Mr. Currie (Prince Edward) rose on a matter of privilege. He said that in recounting his story in the House on Tuesday concerning dismissals from office in his constituency he had named the Speaker. Notwithstanding anything that had been said of the hon. Speaker, he was a political opponent whom Dr. Currie held in highest esteem. In so far as there was anything in what he had said that reflected upon the honor of the Speaker, he wished to express his regret and to withdraw it.

The following new bills were introduced:—

Mr. Craig—An act to amend the high schools act. The purpose is to have the Department of Education furnish before March 1 in any year a statement as to the cost of maintenance per pupil after deducting from the total cost of maintenance the various legislative grants. Such statement shall be admissible as conclusive evidence of the facts stated in any legal proceedings under the act.

Where the cost of maintenance of county pupils at high schools exceeds the legislative grant and the fees received from county pupils, the county shall in lieu be liable to pay for each county pupil attending such high school an amount equal to the average cost of maintaining a pupil at a high school in Ontario, after deducting the fees paid by such pupil. In case of dispute between a county and a board of high school trustees the same shall be referred to the County Judge. This measure is intended as an attempt to settle difficulties constantly arising in cases where pupils in one county attend high school in another county. The Government have also had this matter under consideration, and it remains to be seen whether they approve of Mr. Craig's plan.

Bonus Unlicensed Hotels.

Mr. Preston (Durham)—A bill to amend the liquor license law. This is a bill to empower towns, townships and villages where local option by-laws have been passed by the people to give for the maintenance or establishment of hotels or houses of public entertainment annual grants. The proposed bonuses are to be restricted to $2,000 where the population is 5,000 or over; $1,000 where the population is 2,000 or over, and $500 where the population is 2,000 or less. This by-law must receive the assent of the electors of the municipality, and will remain in force after the repeal of a local option bylaw. No hotelkeeper shall be eligible for the grant who is found guilty of a breach of the liquor license law. The purpose of the measure is to encourage the providing of good hotel accommodation for localities where the licensed houses have been voted out of existence.

Read a First Time.

Mr. Downey—An act amending the charter of incorporation of the Guelph General Hospital.

Mr. Racine—A bill to permit J. Dippo to practise as a veterinary surgeon.

Mr. Clapp, for Mr. Fraser (Welland) who was absent from the House—A bill respecting the Niagara Peninsula Railway Co.

Mr. Preston (Lanark)—An act to amend the assessment act.

Mr. Craig—To amend the municipal act. This has in view the apportionment between the small towns and the counties, of the cost of the maintenance of bridges.

Mr. McCoig moved the second reading of his bill to make provision for the plugging of natural gas and oil wells and to prevent the wasting of natural gas. The bill was read a second time.

Mr. Torrance withdrew his measure to amend the assessment act by providing for triennial instead of annual assessments in townships.

Mr. Preston (Lanark) moved for the second reading of his bill to amend the assessment act.

The Premier opposed this, and stated that the assessment act, which had been thoroughly overhauled within a few years, should be allowed to stand for a while. The measure was withdrawn.

Magistrate Flint's Dismissal.

Before the House adjourned the Premier drew attention to a report, published in yesterday morning's Globe, and having reference to the case of Magistrate Flint. The Government, he said, had asked the magistrate for an explanation of some matters in connection with his office, and had afterwards asked for his resignation. None of the leading lawyers of Belleville and none of the prominent politicians had asked for the retention of the magistrate. The contrary statement in the report was not therefore correct. The resignation of the magistrate would not take place until March 1, and for very good reasons connected with the matter he hoped there would be no discussion until then. He did not propose to give any further explanation until that day arrived.

Mr. Graham said he had received a good deal of correspondence on the matter, but would not discuss the question until the date mentioned.

The Premier said the Government would then be ready to give any explanations and to bring down any papers in the case.

The House adjourned until this afternoon.

Thompson-Seton At Rideau.

Ottawa, Feb. 21.—Ernest Thompson-Seton was yesterday showing the Governor-General at Rideau Hall the methods of the Indians and their ways of living and hunting. He lit a fire by sticks in the wigwam which the Governor had set up since his return from the west.

HOTEL TRAFFICKING.

Curious Revelations At the License Commission Hearing At Toronto.

Toronto, Feb. 21.—That Thomas Jones, contractor, of Manning avenue, and F. P. Brazill, got $560 from Andrew Martin, former proprietor of the Parkdale Hotel, to use, as he believed in influencing the license commissioners to get him the hotel transferred back, was admitted yesterday. Some weeks ago Martin entered suit for a recovery of the $500. At that time both Jones and Brazill emphatically stated that they knew nothing whatever of the $500, and said they would sue Martin for libel.

To Commissioner Starr, Andrew Martin yesterday told his story. He had been proprietor of the Parkdale Hotel for 10 years.

Marlboros Were Easy Money For Peterboro' Last Night

Toronto Visitors Defeated in Senior O. H. A. Game by 13 Goals to 6 in Somewhat Hollow Fashion.

WERE NEVER IN RUNNING AT ANY STAGE OF THE GAME

The Marlboros were easy money for Peterborough in the senior O.H.A. game at Brock street rink last night, and the locals won in hollow fashion by 13 goals to 6, leading at the half by 6—3. As the score would indicate the Dukes were never much in the running and the superiority of the Peterborough team was pronounced. The game was not a brilliant exhibition of hockey, the play being decidedly listless in spots although at times the work was of senior character. The crowd was not as large as usual, but they were enthusiastic. The Marlboros were about all in when the final gong sounded and were evidently not in good shape. In the earlier stages of the game they checked well and held the play close but the speed and condition of the locals soon made their checking back of little avail and although Tyner put up a great game in the nets the scores were coming pretty fast.

The locals played good hockey throughout but not by any means the best they have done this season. They did not need to in order to win as they had it on the Dukes in every department. They played good combination and shot well for the most part working well in before landing the rubber at Tyner and in this respect were superior to the visitors. Peterborough had the most speed and checked better, all of which qualities enabled them to pull out an easy victory.

The forward line all showed up well. Morgan was as effective as ever in his work at centre, shooting with his usual accuracy and doing some decidedly useful stickhandling. Parnell rushed brilliantly and was always prominent, his splendid shooting from the wing, helping some. Moore played a hard and effective game. He was at rover in the first period and right wing in the second and in both positions did some great work, his fast checking back being a material assistance to the defence. Miller showed up well at left in the first half and was doing brilliant work as rover in the second when he was dropped off, when Quigley had to retire on account of an injured shoulder. Crowley and Glover put up their usual effective work on the defence and Lang made some brilliant saves.

The Marlboros had the speed and at times played good combination. Their passing was erratic, however, especially in the neighbourhood of the local nets, and they found it hard work to get in close. Moore scored one of their goals the puck rolling into the nets off his stick as he attempted to make a quick turn with the rubber in front of his own goal.

Birmingham and Kent were the pick of the forward line and of the two the famous Hebbie did the most effective work. He did a lot of splendid rushes and played good hockey throughout, and Kent was not much behind him. Rooster played a fine game at cover, checking cleverly and frequently relieving by a pretty rush. Tyner, though, is half their team, and the clever goal keeper fully lived up to his advance notices, getting away with numerous stops of a sensational nature. He several times skated out and blocked a man with the rubber in heady fashion, while his stops of both long and short range shots were magnificent.

The game was very clean, the best of good feeling being in evidence between the two teams at all times. Ernie Wasson refereed and gave eminent satisfaction to both teams.

The game was late in starting, owing to a delay caused by the fact that that the Peterborough team had to change their sweaters so as to not conflict with the blue and white of the visitors. When the locals returned to the ice they were found to be clad in the familiar old black and red sweaters of the T.A.S. team.

The teams were as follows:—

MARLBORO.

Tyner
Edgar Roesler
Kent
Forbes — Birmingham — Quigley
Miller — Morgan — Parnell
Moore
Crowley
Glover
Lang

PETERBOROUGH

The Marlboros were the first to score, getting the first counter on a little over three minutes. Peterborough tied the score in four minutes, but the Dukes came back at them with another one. The locals then landed four in a row past Tyner before the visitors found the nets again. Each scored one more before half time, leaving the figures at that point 6—3 in favour of the locals. In the second half Peterborough made a runaway match scoring seven goals to three by the visitors. Following is the summary:—

1 Marlboros—Quigley.
2 Peterborough—Parnell.
3 Marlboros—Kent.
4 Peterborough—Morgan.
5 Peterborough—Morgan.
6 Peterborough—Miller.
7 Peterborough—Moore.

Notes on the Game

Quigley was hurt early in the second half, and Milley was dropped to even up.

Crowley and Morgan were ruled off together a long period in the second half, and Parnell and Moore forced the play against the six Marlboro men, the former being near scoring on two occasions.

Tyner broke a skate in the first period and delayed the game for a short time.

The crowd was not as big as usual, the fans no doubt being confident of the locals winning easily.

Peterborough has won six out of the eight O.H.A. games played this season, and have scored 66 goals to their opponents' 44.

A Disgruntled "Sport" And His Senseless Whim

He Charges the Peterborough Hockey Team With Being Whiners—A Position With Which Few Good Sports in the City Will Sympathize.

To the Editor of the Examiner,—

Sir, — Peterborough accepts hockey schedules, and then whines because they didn't win. Peterborough accepts Midland referee, and then whines because they lost the match. Peterborough didn't get a victory this winter that was as good as a win over Midland on neutral. The Peterboroughs might as well make up their minds that they are down and out, as regards O. H. A. hockey for this season. I am surprised at the position taken on the front page of the Examiner on Tuesday, 19th inst.

SPORT.

Peterborough, Feb. 20, 1907.

The above communication was received at this office last night, and, though it was not accompanied by the name of the writer, the sentiments given expression to are so original that publication is given.

"Sport," though it is doubtful if one who so perverts the truth, and misrepresents a situation, deserves that appelation, is out in his facts. In the first place Peterborough did not accept the schedule without a protest, and in response to the assertions of the representatives of the local club, an understanding was arrived at, by which, if the sudden death game between Midland and Kingston, counting two wins, should affect the standing of any other team in the district, a re-arrangement should be made.

No one can dispute that the schedule, as drawn up, was unfair, and, as events proved, it did affect the standing of the Peterborough team, because it is certain that had Midland and Kingston played home and home games, as every other team in the district had to do, they would each have won their home games, leaving Peterborough and Kingston tied, just the position they are now in by the ruling of the officers, by which the two teams are asked to play a sudden death game for the district championship.

As to the charge that Peterborough accepted a Midland referee, and then whined because they lost the game—while it was manifestly unfair to ask the team to play under these conditions, it is safe betting, that had the same thing happened in Peterborough, the Midland team would not have played the game.

To accuse the local team of being whiners, is a new one, and the writer of the communication will find few persons to agree with him on this score.

It looks suspiciously like the ravings of one of the several "sports" who backed the Midland team to win against the local team here, and lost their money—as they deserved to do.

Primary Finals In Bonspiel Will Be Concluded To-day

The Battle Lies Between Skips Jas. Connal and J. W. Ridpath —Semi-Finals Played This Morning—Some Exciting Finishes Recorded—Bonspiel Drawing to a Close.

The great curling bonspiel still remains the uppermost attraction in the city and crowds daily gather at the Charlotte street rink, where the games are yet in progress. This afternoon will witness the conclusion of the primary games, the finals of which were begun at 10 o'clock. They were between Skip J. W. Ridpath, of Lakefield, and Skip Jas. Connal, of this city, and of course were witnessed by a large number of spectators who watched the stones curled that would bring victory and honour to the winners.

At the conclusion of last night's games only one Peterborough rink was left in the running for the primary honours. This was skipped by Jas. Connal who, during the afternoon, had put Larry O'Connor's crack quartette from Lindsay out of the game.

Undoubtedly the present bonspiel has been the greatest ever held in the city. Few can realize the intense excitement which has reigned supreme in the curling rink since the contest began, without having been present. From the fact that there were 44 entries, consisting of 176 players, one may be able to obtain some slight idea of the magnitude of the bonspiel and the hold that the grain game has upon the wielders of the besoms.

Among the runners up in the primary and who were defeated before the semi-finals were reached were J. Richardson, of East Toronto; McNab, of Claremont, and R. Neill, of Peterborough. The Neill-Ridpath game was close and sensational. The Lakefield man, however, won the game by 14 points to 13. McMurtry, of Oshawa, defeated McNab, of Claremont, by 15 to 13. The Bobcaygeon-Aberdeen game, which was not concluded until long after 11 o'clock last night, was the attraction of the games yesterday. Over a hundred spectators watched with unceasing interest each stone as it curled down the ice to make or break the standing of the curler. The fourteenth and last end was played with Read and Richardson tied. Each had obtained 13 points and the tie had to be broken. Some of the most scientific work of the day was then witnessed. The issue was in doubt to the finish. The Aberdeens were lying shot with the veteran Bobcaygeon curler left to bring up the rear with the final stone. It was an anxious moment. One inch to the right or left and his high hopes of victory would be annihilated. With a little more than ordinary precaution the stone shot from his hand. Would he lose? There was not a murmur in the big rink other than the "sweep, sweep!" of the vice.

A great shout went up from the

A Mysterious Cheque From Toronto Hotelman

Is Passed to License Commissioner Wilson, Toronto—Queer Evidences of Trafficking in Hotel Licenses Given at Investigation into Transfer of Licenses.

Trafficking in hotel property in Toronto and some of the peculiar negotiations that rise from such traffic were strikingly brought out when the investigation demanded by Dr. R. J. Wilson, chairman of the Board of License Commissioners, in which a certain cheque for $1,000 is mysteriously mixed, sent to one of the License Commissioners with the alleged explaination that "Dr. Nesbitt would explain," opened before Mr. J. R. L. Starr, the commissioner appointed by the Ontario Government. The evidence hinged upon property, 56 and 58 Yonge street, upon which Mr. F. W. Mossop is at present erecting a hotel. It appears that Mr. John F. Hynes and Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, the former member in the Legislature for North Toronto, desired to obtain an option upon this property, which was owned by Mr. W. B. Reid. To do so they signed a joint note for $1,000, which was cashed by the Cosgrave Brewing Company, and secured the option. Previous to this a license for the property, which had formerly been taken away from the old Tymon House, had been granted to Mr. Fredrick J. Hynes, a relative of Mr. John F. Hynes. Before the option expired it was testified by a witness that Mr. J. F. Hynes went to the Cosgrave Company and expressed his inability to finance so large a scheme, at the same time asking the company to find a purchaser for the property, a purchaser being forthcoming in the person of Mr. F. W. Mossop.

How the deal was put through appeared from the evidence of the different witnesses called. Mr. Mossop agreed to take over the property, which the purchaser held at $17,000, plus $5,000, which was to be the profit of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt and Mr. J. F. Hynes, and also to assume a chattel mortgage for $10,000 given by Mr. Frederick J. Hynes and held by Mr. L. J. Cosgrave, or a total of $32,000 in all.

A Cheque for Five Thousand

Mr. Cosgrave, on account of Mr. Mossop, he says, paid Hynes a check for $5,000 on the Bank of Hamilton, which check was deposited in the Crown Bank. Mr. Hynes then drew two checks, one for $1,000 in favour of Dr. R. J. Wilson, chairman of the License Board, which somehow or other found its way to Dr. Wilson; and one for $2,000 in favour of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, which Mr. Hynes subsequently tore up. Dr. Wilson swears that he returned the check through his lawyer. Mr. John A. Ferguson. Mr. L. J. Cosgrave testified that at a later date he met Mr. J. F. Hynes at the Farmers' Bank, where the latter drew up two notes signed by himself in favour of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, one of which was endorsed by Mr. Cosgrave. These notes it was explained, were in lieu of the check that Dr. Beattie Nesbitt had not received, and were turned over to him.

There is an important conflict of testimony in regard to the check sent to Dr. Wilson. Mr. James Cosgrave testifid that Hynes had sent the check, and this evidence was corroborated by that of Dr. Wilson, who said that Hynes admitted sending the check. Mr. J. F. Hynes, however, swore positively that he had left the check with Mr. James Cosgrave, and that he himself had nothing to do with the sending of it.

To Get Political Influence

At the continuation of the investigation into the charges of political and corrupt trafficking in licenses in Toronto, the unsigned agreement which Hynes said he made with Dr. Beattie Nesbitt was produced. This agreement was dated December 15, 1905, and provided for Adamson, Hynes and McEachren, representing Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, going into a hotel business. The latter, in giving evidence, said that Mr. McEachren, his representative, was going into the deal, but witness had advised him to draw out of it.

Hynes, re-examined, insisted that Dr. Nesbitt was behind McEachren in the deal, and James Cosgrave denied that he had sent the check to the License Commissioner.

To Dr. Nesbitt, Commissioner Starr remarked that it looked to him as if Cosgrave endorsed the thousand-dollar note in connection with the Yonge street deal simply to get Nesbitt's political influence.

Hynes admitted that the relations which he claims to have had with Nesbitt and Adamson (who has not yet been located in connection with the inquiry) were brought about with the idea of having a Conservative ring, "going into the hotel business generally."

Another Case of "Influence"

Messrs. Jones and Brazil were charged by Andrew Martin with taking $500 of his money as an earnest of their intentions to influence the Commissioners regarding the transfer of the license of the Parkdale Hotel. They also have been subpoenaed. Fifteen hundred dollars in addition, it is said, was to have been paid them if they succeeded in getting the Commissioners to agree to the transfer on the original basis.

Mr. Martin told how he had arranged with William Ball to take over the property at $29,000, on the understanding that the latter would would expend $4,000 of his own money in making improvements. Martin was forced in the end to accept $20,000, which he got in cash. From the tenor of the examination it would appear that the reduction was insisted upon because the Commissioners feared that Ball would not carry out his verbal agreement with Martin as to the repairs.

Martin swore that Ball had told him he had been offered $50,000 for the hotel as it stands to-day.

SUCCESSFUL CONCERT AND TEA

Given in S. O. E. Hall by Court Queen Alexandra A. O. F.—Large Attendance—Complete Success.

The Sixth Annual Concert of Court Queen Alexandra was held last night in the S.O.E. Hall. There was a large attendance. Mr. R. F. McWilliams acted as chairman for the evening and delivered a neat opening speech, congratulating the society upon their successful concert and expressed his pleasure at being a guest. The following programme was presented:—

Instrumental—Miss Mildred Moss.
Song—Miss Guerin.
Sketch, "Is marriage a Failure,"—Mr. and Mrs. Kyle.
Cornet solo—Mr. Harry Lloyd.
Song, humourous—Mr. Kyle.

Refreshments were then served by the following members of Court Stanley, A.O.F.: Messrs. S. Adlam, H. McWha, J. Moss, L. Honddrey, R. J. McWilliams and R. J. Goodenough.

The rest of the programme was then given:—

Instrumental—Miss Mildred Moss.
Comic song—Mr. E. Crow.
Vocal solo—Mr. King.
Vocal solo—Miss Guerin.
Comic song—Mr. Kyle.
Sketch, "A Touch of Nature"—Mr. and Mrs. Kyle.

Miss Moss acted as accompanist for the evening.

Praise is due the following committee who was in charge of the entertainment, for their efficient management:—Mrs. Wm. Stevens, R. J. Goodenough, Mrs. J. O. Moss, Miss M. Moss, Mrs. S. Adlam, Miss E. Record, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. J. McClellan, Mrs. W. Headiff, Mrs. White and Mrs. Howell.

The concert was perhaps the most successful of any that has been held under the auspices of Court Alexandra. Everyone seemingly was pleased and spent the time in a most enjoyable manner. The numbers given by Mr. and Mrs. Kyle were very amusing and served to lighten the evening's entertainment. The refreshments were of course appetizing and was probably the most pleasing event of the night.

REGINA

You will make more money by buying lots in Regina City, than by any other source at the present time. It is no gamble, no chance, but an absolutely sure investment. Property will increase at least 100 per cent. in less than two years. Buy now. Prices will be advanced in the spring. Here are a few things that are making Regina grow and making property increase in value:—

REGINA, the wholesale and distributing centre for Saskatchewan and the west. $6,000,000.00 worth of farm machinery sold from Regina last year. Regina is the head-quarters for Saskatchewan of:—

The American-Abell Engine and Thresher Co.
Massey Harris Company.
Frost & Wood Company.
Fairchild Company.
Waterloo Manufacturing Company.
J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.
Garr-Scott Threshing Machine Company.
The International Harvester Company.
The North-west Thresher Company.
The New Hamburg Manufacturing Company.
Reeves Thresher Company.
Nichols & Shepherd Thresher Company.
Sawyer-Massey Company.
Noline Plow Company.
Canadian Port Huron Company.
Cockshutt Plow Company.

Besides the above there are a number of large eastern wholesale houses located in Regina. At the present time some eighteen more wholesale firms have secured sites in Regina to build on this year.

REGINA, the only railroad centre in Saskatchewan.
Besides the present roads which run north, south, east and west, there will be six more lines built into Regina during the next two years, being the Great Northern from the south, the Canadian Northern from the southeast, the C. P. R. north to Prince Albert, and three G. T. P. roads—one northeast, one east, one southwest.
The following is what Mr. Morse of the G. T. P. said in Regina on Aug. 6, 1906:
The Leader, Aug. 6, 1906.

FRANK MORSE IN REGINA

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P. Railway, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday morning, and had a short conference with Mayor McAra and W. G. Pettingel, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Morse had no new statement to make for publication regarding the plans of the G. T. P. in and around Regina. He repeated what he had said when in Regina on May 16th last that his Company would get into Regina at the earliest possible date, as they realized there was a large business to be done here. He confirmed the statement, which was first published by The Leader, that in addition to a branch line to Regina, from the main line near Yorkton, and from Regina to the International boundary on the south, a branch would be run to Regina from Brandon.

"The construction of branch lines would be carried on simultaneously with the main line," said Mr. Morse.

REGINA leads all cities from Winnipeg to the Coast in building for 1906.
Capital of Saskatchewan ranks fifth among the metropolitan centres of Canada, being surpassed by Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. Leads all the Dominion in relative growth. Building permits in 1906:

Regina—$1,982,330.
Edmonton—$1,863,894.
Calgary—$1,109,161.

No other city in Canada shows as high a percentage of growth as Regina. 1907 will beat all records. A large number of expensive buildings are being erected. Among others include:—Four new hotels, at a cost of over half a million; municipal hospital, $100,000; Y. M. C. A. at $100,000; Baptist Church, $60,000; Masonic Temple, at $75,000; Dominion Land Titles Office at $110,000; New Public School at $54,000, and many other business blocks and residences. Chief amongst all buildings will be the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, at a cost of at least $1,500,000.

Facts About Regina City

Regina is the Capital of the Province of Saskatchewan.
Regina is the only commercial centre of Saskatchewan.
Regina is the only railroad and distributing centre in Saskatchewan.
Regina has eight chartered banks and four more coming.
Regina tax rate for 1906 is only 15 mills.
Regina has the finest sewer and waterworks system in the West.
Regina is the only city west of Winnipeg with paved streets.
Regina has a surplus of assets of over a million and a half.
Regina's population has increased over 300 per cent. in three years.
All public utilities are owned and operated by the city.
Regina is in the heart of the best farming country in the West.

NEW MANAGER IS PLEASED WITH PROSPECTS

Mr. Joseph G. Taylor, Now Head of Cordage Works, Speaks Hopefully of the Situation.

A WELL EQUIPPED PLANT FOR WORK

The prospects for the cordage business in Canada, and in Peterborough particularly, are, according to the opinion of Mr. Jos. G. Taylor, the new manager of the Canadian Cordage & Manufacturing Co., very satisfactory. Of course, Mr. Taylor appreciates that the sales, so far as the retail trade is concerned, will depend largely upon the harvest, but in anticipation of a bountiful harvest the local works will make a good supply of twine for the Canadian as well as the American market, for, though it may not be generally known, the local works send considerable of their product across the border, where it finds a ready sale.

Mr. Taylor, who succeeds Mr. Adam Hall in the management of the local works, has been associated with the cordage business for the last twenty years, though this is the first engagement he has had with a Canadian firm, his experience having been confined entirely to the American business.

The plant of the Peterborough works, Mr. Taylor considers thoroughly modern, and compares most favourably with those in the United States. The company, in the equipment of the factory, used excellent judgment and the result is that in no place on the continent is there a cordage plant with a better equipped plant than that of the Canadian Cordage Co., of Peterborough.

The decision of the Government to place a bonus on twine will help the local works to a certain extent, while at the same time it will not increase the price to the consumer.

ARMSTRONG BROS. WILL RECEIVE $12,000

Havelock and Dummer Men Win Out in Courts of Scotland in Interesting Case.

COMES FROM AN ESTATE IN SCOTLAND

A Havelock despatch says: By a judgment delivered by Lord Dundas, a Scottish judge in Ediburgh, Scotland, last month, Mr. Chas. Armstrong, of that place, and his brother Mr. Ed. Armstrong, of Dummer, will benefit to the extent of about $12,000. The estate from which this is payable is situated in Scotland and was placed in settlement in 1889 by one, John Anderson, who died in 1892, and it is under the will of a deceased son, who died recently, that the Armstrongs become entitled. The trustees in Scotland disputed the Armstrongs' rights and the matter was brought before the Scotch Court with the above result. Mr. S. C. Smoke, of Toronto, acted for Mr. Chas. Armstrong, and Mr. O. A. Langley, of Lakefield, acted for Mr. Ed. Armstrong. Messrs. Mackenzie and Black, solicitors, of Edinburgh, representing them before the Scotch Court.

Carpenters To Ratify Building Trades Rules

An Important Meeting of Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners Will be Held Monday—Proposal to Increase the Rate of Wages Will be Considered—Much Building in the City for This Year.

On Monday night an important meeting of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners will be held, when all the members are requested to be present, since matters of importance to the members of that trade will be discussed.

At this meeting the report of the Building Trades Council, composed of representatives from the United Brotherhood and Amalgamated Society will be submitted for the ratification of the members. This report will embrace what will be known as trade rules, and will govern the building trade so far as it relates to the carpenters and joiners of the city. The Council has spent some time in the preparation of these rules, which have never before been used in Peterborough, and at the first meeting of the two carpenters' unions they will be submitted to the members for their approval. The Amalgamated Society will hold its meeting a week from to-night, and the rules will be submitted to their members then.

The prospects are that there will be an increase in carpenters' wages this year. Last year the minimum rate of wages was set at 25 cents an hour, and there is a feeling among a number of the carpenters that this minimum should be increased to 27 1-2 or 30 cents. At the present time, it is stated, fully two-thirds of the members receive more than the minimum rate, a number getting 35 cents, and in some cases they receive as high as 40 cents. There are, however, many who receive only the minimum, and it is among this class that the demand for the increase is being made.

A representative of the Carpenters' Union to-day stated that he would not be surprised if there was a general increase among all classes of the building trades this year, amounting probably on the average to two or three cents an hour. Builders' labourers will, it is expected, ask for an increase, while the Bricklayers' Union is considering a similar proposition.

There will be more building in the city than last year, and plenty of work for all associated with the building trades is expected. The present prospects are for a decrease in the number of residences to be built, but the large contracts will more than make up for what it lost on this score.

Extension Of Radial Lines Discussed By Shareholders

Annual Meeting of Peterborough Radial Railway and Allied Companies Held Yesterday Afternoon. When Reports for Past Year Were Presented—Officers Were Elected.

Yesterday afternoon the annual meetings of three Companies allied with the Quaker Oats Company were held in the offices of the Company, George street, when the reports of the operations of the Peterborough Radial Railway Company, the Peterborough Hydraulic Power Company and the Peterborough Light and Power oCmpany for the past year were presented and the officers for the coming year elected.

A majority of the stock in all the companies was represented at the meeting and it is understood that the report as submitted by the various boards of directors were very satisfactory, showing the year 1906 to have been a prosperous one from the standpoint of volume of business and net receipts.

The officers of the three companies elected at the meetings yesterday were as follows:—

Light and Power Company
President—T E Bradburn, M.P.P.
Vice-Pres.—John Stuart, Chicago.
Secretary—Robert Gordon, Chicago.
Manager—J H Larmouth.
Directors—Messrs. T E Bradburn, city; H P Crowell, T E Wells, Robt. Stuart, John Stuart, Robert Gordon, all of Chicago, and J H Larmouth, city.

Hydraulic Power Company
President—Robt. Stuart.
Vice-Pres.—John Stuart, Chicago.
Secretary—Robert Gordon, Chicago.
Manager—J H Larmouth.
Directors — Messrs. Robt. Stuart, H P Crowell, Hon. Geo. A. Cox, John Stuart, J H Larmouth, Robt. Gordon and W H Denham.

Radial Railway Company
President—Robt. Stuart.
Vice-Pres.—Jas C Shook.
Secretary—Robert Gordon, Chicago.
Manager—J H Larmouth.
Directors — Messrs. Robt. Stuart, H P Crowell, J C Shook, T E Bradburn, John Stuart, Robt. Gordon and J H Larmouth.

The report of the directors of the Light and Power Company referred, it is understood, to the improvements which had been effected in the plant and equipment of the Company during the past year, new and larger mains were laid in the centre of the city and a new gas holder with a capacity of 150,000 cubic feet was erected at the gas house, while other improvements all with a view of perfecting the service were made. The increase in the gas consumption in the city was reported as satisfactory and the future prospects were bright.

The Radial Railway Company Directors had a bright report to submit to the stockholders. The past year was one in which the business of this company was quite satisfactory. The summer business to Jackson Park was a large contributor to the funds of the company, and the enterprise of the manager in his campaign for new business was commended.

Naturally, plans for the future were discussed by the shareholders, including the proposal to extend the lines of the company, according to the provisions of the charter granted the company. It is understood, however, that nothing definite was decided in this connection, but matters are taking shape, which will lead to a decision in the near future.

The question of a pleasure park outside the city was also one of the matters under advisement by the shareholders, and this too was left to a later date for final decision. It is understood, however, that for the present summer the company will conduct its pleasure business at Jackson Park, and the programme to be given the patrons will be on a larger scale than that of former years.

Thaw Collapsed Completely After Wife's Revelations

Refuses to Eat, and Will Not Accept Consolation Offered by His Friends.

Examiner Special

New York, Feb. 22.—The startling revelations of his wife upon the witness stand, caused Harry Thaw to collapse completely. Thaw refused to eat, declined the proffers of those who wanted to console and spent many hours pacing up and down the floor of his cell. Mrs. Thaw will take the stand again on Monday.

VETERINARY SURGEON TO ATTEND CHICAGO CLASS

Dr. R. B. Poole, Veterinary Surgeon, has received a letter from the Veterinary Director-General of the Dominion of Canada, requesting him to attend a special class in Chicago this spring. The class will be known as the Meat Inspection Class and lectures will be given on the inspection of meat. It will last for 5 weeks, from March 4th to April 5th.

Dr. Poole has answered the communication and has decided to attend the lectures.

VALUABLE RUG MADE BY BRINTON LIMITED

Magnificent Piece of Work Exhibited by Richard Hall & Son.

There is on view in the display window of Richard Hall and Sons the most expensive rug this establishment ever offered for sale. It is a Kildare hand-tufted carpet of two-toned green with gold border, and in size is 14 by 10 feet. The magnificent rug is to be retailed at $300. In addition to its cost, the rug is of further interest, owing to the fact that it was manufactured by Brintons, Limited, whose establishment has a branch in this city. It was not, however, manufactured here, but in the Naas, Ireland, factory of the company, and is a striking testimony to the high quality of the work turned out by this company.

MISS MARGARET EDWARDS WON THE FIRST PRIZE

In the Story Competition That Was Held at the Collegiate Institute—Miss Gertrude Yenny Received Second Honours.

This month's issue of the Collegiate Echoes has lately been published. The winners of the prizes in the story competition are mentioned. Miss Maggie Edwards of Form II was successful in winning the first prize; Miss Gertrude Yenney, of Form III, second; and Miss Maggie Mann, Upper 2, the third. Miss Carrie Barrett of Commercial Form II, is deserving of honourable mention.

The awards were given for the best story, and fifteen pupils entered the competition. Some, however, did not stay within the prescribed bounds, writing essays, etc. Mrs. R. F. McWilliams and Sheriff Hall, kindly acted as judges.

Mr. W. H. Hill's thoughtfulness and interest in the pupil's progress, is greatly appreciated, he being the one who offered the prize of $5 for the best story.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Our Conservative contemporary does not seem to be editorially aware that there was an election in West Middlesex on Wednesday.

Brantford says that it is going to celebrate Labour day this year. So will Peterborough, perhaps, if Labour is not too busy to take a day off.

In looking over the figures of immigration into Canada, it is noticed that the majority of foreign immigrants go to the West. Ontario gets a generous share of the best element, the British.

A Miss Holmes of Tilsonburg, is asking the Legislature to declare her a dentist. She evidently does not mean to permit her married sisters to enjoy a monopoly of jaw. If she is good looking she should be a drawing card.

With the strong grip curling takes upon its votaries in mind, the abnegation of the Peterborough teachers who defaulted games in the bonspiel in which they stood a good chance to win, is nothing other than heroic, and gives them a good claim to an increase of salaries.

It is questionable if the action of the management of the Peterborough Industrial Fair, in confining exhibitors to four counties, is wise. Would it not have been better to extend the area of exhibitors to the counties that surround and touch the county of Peterborough? This would bring in Hastings and Haliburton, which, under the adopted arrangement, are excluded.

The Conservative newspapers are not unduly elated or enthusiastic over the result of the West Middlesex bye-election. The World completely ignores the issue in its editorial columns and the Mail and Empire, in a brief paragraph, remarks that the Liberal majority is "slightly larger than that of 1905, but not so much as to indicate that there is any change of public opinion."

What comfort there is, remarks the Toronto Star, in the statistics of bye-elections for the Legislature goes to the Liberal party. Of bye-elections there have been four—North Toronto, East Hamilton, Kingston, and West Middlesex. The Liberals have retained Kingston and West Middlesex; Labour has won East Hamilton from the Conservative party; and the Government has kept its hold on North Toronto. When the Liberal party holds what it has, and even shows a disposition to gain in the face of the Whitney boom, it is fair inference that Liberalism in Ontario is but waiting to come back to its old love.

The fees for liquor licenses in Toronto should, the Toronto News thinks, be doubled. It says that during twelve months a million and a quarter of dollars have been pocketed by traders in licenses. Every dollar of this money should have gone into the Treasury. It is not intended that a license shall be a marketable commodity. It gives simply the right to conduct a licensed hotel. The holder's revenue should come from the management of the business, not from the transfer of the license. The value is created by the monopoly which exists in the limitation of the number of licenses and the value of the monopoly belongs to the public. The Government and the Council should take immediate steps to raise the license fee to something like the value which a license now possesses in Toronto.

THE MEANING OF IT

The Brantford Expositor says of the West Middlesex election:

The increased Liberal majority in the face of the determined contest waged by the Conservative leaders, including Hon. Messrs. Hanna and Beck, and Messrs. Downey, Gamey, McDiarmid, Pattinson and Neely, is a decided reverse for the Government. All attempts to minimise it must prove futile. In the outcome the Liberal opposition should find renewed encouragement to continue the splendid struggle which has been inaugurated along those lines which have been laid down in the policy of the Provincial party as lately announced by the new leader, Hon. Mr. Graham. To the Government, the result, following so closely on the Conservative defeat in East Hamilton, will probably prove a warning or, at any rate, will serve to impress the ministry, that there are already perceptible signs of a change in public opinion in this Province.

KICKING OVER THE TRACES

The Montreal Star, the chief Conservative organ in the east, seems to be kicking over the traces, according to a significant editorial today, headed "Women, Wine and Graft." After passing some strictures on Mr. Fowler's connection with the I.O.F. land deals, and declaring that his language in the House yesterday "would have been regarded as disorderly in Billingsgate Market," the editorial goes on to state that the Opposition is in a very perilous position. People should feel that they can depend at least on the honesty of the Opposition, which is too far from the plum tree to shake it.

"But it is the simple truth that this habitual feeling of confidence in the integrity of an Opposition has been shaken of late in the case of that which now sits to the left of teh Speaker. The revelations before the Insurance Commission were disquieting. The silence of the Opposition under the threat of Mr. Carvell was not reassuring. And now we have a prominent member of that body flying into a temper over an innuendo, and instead of challenging an investigation, pure and simple, into the facts of the charges insinuated against him, he brazenly threatens the Ministers with the exposure of their private lives, if they do not put a stop to this 'attack' upon him.

If the Opposition permits this to go out as its last word in the case it must be content to be judged as a party which does not hope to establish its purity by a full examination of the facts, but which thinks to keep the facts hidden by holding a threat over the Ministers of a counter-exposure."

In the course of another editorial on "Oppositions Without Policies" it admonishes the Conservatives of the Commons that the experience of the past is not encouraging "for an Opposition which proposes to wait for the empty shoes of its opponents."

AUTOMATIC 'PHONES IN BRANTFORD BY JUNE

Official of Canadian Machine Telephone Company States That System Will Be in Operation There.

NEW CENTRAL BUILDING TO BE ERECTED

Brantford, Feb. 22.—The Automatic Telephone Company will have completed the installation of their plant in this city within six weeks from April 1. The statement was made by a prominent official of the company this morning, who has been engaged for some time in the work of supervising the erection of poles and wires throughout the city for some months past. If the present plans are completed it will mean that the company will have their service ready by June. Asked where the headquarters of the Automatic company would be, the official stated that three options on properties had been secured, and the building would likely be erected on Dalhousie street. It is understood that the building plans of the company are about completed and a definite decision will be arrived at shortly as to the new company's quarters.

THE LAND COMPANY'S ANNUAL MEETING

Saskatoon Land Company Shareholders are Meeting This Afternoon—Reports Being Printed.

The annual meeting of the Saskatchewan Land Company is being held this afternoon in the offices of the company, Bank of Commerce block. The reports of the operations of the company for the past year are being presented and the officers elected. It is understood that the company made some highly profitable investments in lands in the West and a good dividend will probably be declared on the stock of the company.

CONSTIPATION CLOGS THE BOWELS

No other cause produces so much sickness as constipation, and therefore it is dangerous to allow the bowels to become clogged up. Bad blood, dyspepsia, headaches, biliousness, boils, pimples, and piles, are all caused by constipation.

Avoid all of these troubles by the use of nature's remedy for all diseases of the stomach, bowels and blood. It acts on the bowels and promotes their free and regular action, curing constipation and all troubles which arise from it. It has been on the market for over thirty years so you are not using a new and untried remedy. B.B.B. has cured thousands of others and will cure you. Mr. B. Woodcock, Nashwaak Bridge, N.S., writes: "For over two years my wife was troubled with constipation. She tried several physicians but could get no relief, but after taking three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters she was completely cured and is to-day in good health. My wife and I cannot speak too highly of B.B.B.

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for It. Two Relate Their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain.

When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely free of charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Powless and Mrs. Mann:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"In my opinion there is no medicine made for women which can compare with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you have no firmer friend in the Dominion than I am. At the time of change of life I suffered until I was nearly crazy, and was not fit to live with. I was so irritable, irrational and nervous that I was a torment to myself and others. I surely thought that I would lose my reason before I got through, when fortunately an old friend recommended your Vegetable Compound. I took it for five months and then off and on until the critical period had passed, and it restored me to perfect health. My advice to suffering women is to try your Vegetable Compound, and they will not be disappointed."—Mrs. E. Powless, Desoronto, Ont.

Another Woman's Case.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"As I owe my splendid health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I am very pleased to write and tell you my experience with it. I am the mother of three children grown to womanhood, and have safely passed the change of life, and feel as young and as strong as I did twenty years ago, and I know that this is all due to your woman's friend, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used it before my children were born, and it greatly assisted nature and saved me much pain during the change of life. I took it, off and on, for four years, and had but little trouble and sickness that most women have to endure."—Mrs. James K. Mann, 306 Bathurst St., Toronto, Canada.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Powless and Mrs. Mann, it will do for other women at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that utterly baffled physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Stole A Rifle

A young Englishman named Stanning, who has been a resident of the village for a year, was arrested on Monday, February 11th, accused of stealing a rifle from Mr. Philip Elmhirst. He appeared before J. P. Fisher on Tuesday, pleaded guilty, and was committed for trial. Constable Lynch took his prisoner to Peterborough, from where he was taken to the Cobourg gaol.—Hastings Star.

Cold Weather Stories

A Bangor man, says The Kennebec Journal in his effort to describe the coldest place in the world, spoke of a shed that was "too cold to keep wood in," and this was the limit until this correspondence came in from Mount Desert concerning the weather down there last week:—"A Tisherman of Otter Creek says a tug coffin was so attracted by the warmth of a gasoline heater in his dory that it jumped into the boat and tried to wrap itself around the heater. It froze in a half circle. Jed Jorkins, of Trenton, went to the barn to water his stock. He fell and upset the pail. Before he could step out of the water the boots froze to the floor. He had to take his boots off to get away."

Calgary In Trouble

Calgary must be in dire longing for Spring, when a citizen writes: "What with coal at $8 per ton, rotten firewood at $12 per cord, lumber from $30 to $60 1000 feet, rentals from $25 to $60 per month, and pay your light and water tax besides, taxes generally on the upward move; eggs 70c per dozen; butter 35 and 40c per pound; potatoes $1.75 per bushel; ponds going dry, water connections frozen all over the city, and the consequent scarcity and high price of milk, a blizzard raging and no coal or wood to be had; all building trades at a standstill and hundreds of our people out of work and much sickness and distress prevailing. You must admit, sir, that average wage-earners to-day in Calgary are facing an alarming condition of things."

The Season for Group and Colds

BUT SERIOUS RESULTS CAN BE AVOIDED BY THE TIMELY USE OF

DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE

With the return of wintry weather there comes again mother's anxiety for the health of her little ones — wet feet and chilled bodies, and then croup or severe colds. And what is to be done to prevent serious trouble?

Because it is pleasant to the taste, composed of simple ingredients of proven value, and positively free from anything of an injurious nature, Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is especially suitable as a treatment for children, and its popularity is due to its wonderful success in the prevention and cure of croup, chest colds and bronchitis.

In the hour of emergency you can depend on Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine to loosen the cough, aid expectoration, allay inflammation and bring speedy relief and cure.

This well-known preparation is not a mere cough mixture, but a medicine having thorough and far-reaching action on the whole system, and hence its remarkable success.

Mr. Wm. McGee, 49 Wright avenue, Toronto, Ont., writes: "There is no remedy, in my opinion, that can act more promptly than Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. It cured my son of croup, absolutely, in one night. We gave him a dose when he was black in the face from choking. It gave him instant relief and cure."

Don't take anything said to be "just as good." There is no throat and lung medicine just as good as Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Remember this when buying, and insist on having Dr. Chase's; the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle. 25 cents a bottle. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

MEN ARE POWERLESS

To Fight Against Disease Unless They Strike at the Underlying Cause

To treat dandruff and falling hair with irritants or oils, upon which a parasitic germ will prosper, is like scooping water from the ocean to prevent the tide from rising.

You cannot accomplish a satisfactory cure without having a right understanding of the fundamental causes of the trouble.

You must kill the dandruff germ. Newbro's Herpicide does this because it is specially made to do that very thing.

When the germ is removed the hair has no choice but to resume healthy growth and beauty.

"Destroy the cause, you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Ormond & Walsh, Special Agents.

LENGTHY DOCKET AT THE DIVISION COURT

About Twenty Cases on the List—Action Against Farmer for Breach Of Contract.

The dockst at the Division Court to-day was very lengthy one. There were about 20 cases in all before His Honour Judge Weller, most of which were of not much importance and were quickly disposedf of.

The most lengthy of the cases this morning was an action against a farmer for breach of contract. The plaintiff, who is the owner of a station, wished to recover $10 from the defndant. Judgmment was given in favour of the latter. F. D. Kerr appeared for the plaintiff, and E. L. Goodwill for defendant.

PROF. WADDELL'S TEST

"Orange Meat" had Dr. John Waddell, Professor of Chemistry at Queen's University, make periodical tests of their whole wheat food.

Dr. Waddell found that Orange Meat contains over 45% of wheat sugars. These build up muscles and feed nerves, and make people strong and cheerful.

Those who eat the most Orange Meat have a pecuniary encouragement as well as a health gain. "Orange Meat" will give Thirty Dollars to the one sending in the largest number of coupons taken from the 15c packages on or before March 30th, 1907.

WEDDING BELLS

WARTMAN--HOLMES

Warkworth Journal:—Mr. U. E. Wartman of Warkworth, and Miss Holmes of Madoc, were united in marriage on Wednesday of last week. They arrived home with his bride on Friday, and as usual the "savages" started that night to make the night hideous with their unpleasant howls and tin horns, as well as smashing picket fences, etc. It is nearly time that this barbarous charivari custom was cut out. It is said that on Saturday night between $75 and $100 damage was done to Mr. Wartman's property, besides the use of obscene language, until the occupant to release the hold up, and save his property, gave the infestors the money they were after. Surely the law will be administered to those who deserve it so richly.

DECISION GIVEN TO AFFIRMATIVE SIDE

In Debate Held in the Young Conservative Club Rooms Last Night—Side Led by Dr. Morrison Won Decison.

WARD SYSTEM VS. GENERAL SYSTEM

The regular "smoker," one of the series which the Young Conservative Club has conducted so successfully this winter, which was held last night, was somewhat beyond the ordinary. Up to last night these events were chiefly for the purpose of having lectures delivered by members of the club. As the meetings were open to the general public, and as the addresses were not characterized by the expression of any strong political feelings or views, other citizens than the members of the club became interested.

Last night, however, a distinctly new feature was presented for the first time this season, and was a success in every way. The subject was, "Resolved, that the ward system of election is preferable to the general system," without any significance to this city or any other city. The attendance was very good, the commodious assembly hall being well filled. A musical programme was presented, Mr. J. E. Firth singing "Only for Thee," and Mr. Coleman also being heard in a vocal number. Mr. R. F. Rumney presided at the piano.

Mr. J. H. Burnham, president of the club, acted as chairman in his usual commendable manner. He introduced the subject of the debate, and those gentlemen who composed the two sides. They were: Affirmative, Dr. Morrison, leader; Mr. E. A. Peck and Mr. Peter Gardiner; Negative, Mr. F. H. Dobbin, leader; Ald. A. Stevenson and Mr. R. H. Layfield. The last named speaker was greatly handicapped by having had no time for preparing any speech. He very kindly consented to take the place of Mr. C. S. McClellan, who was unavoidably absent. Considering this fact Mr. Layfield did exceedingly well, his speech, an impromptu one, being well up to the standard.

The Debate

Dr. Morrison, in beginning his remarks, said that he felt honoured on being asked to take part in the debate, since it was before such a progressive club, and that he fully appreciated this honour. In his speech he held that a representative of a particular ward would have a special interest in the general affairs of that section of the city. He cited several instances to substantiate his statements. He also claimed that the public money would be spent more evenly through the city. Moreover, he said that the general system does not result in a representative vote. He contended that the ward system would bring out more men and better men for the city. Another result which he considered would follow would be a smaller number of bylaws presented to the people, and, therefore, less expense to the public.

Mr. Dobbin, leader of the negative, was the next speaker. The voter, he said, had his vote to register in the best interests of the whole municipality, and the ward system resulted in dividing a city into contending sections. The general system brought forward the man who was best known throughout the city, and therefore a man who would have the interests of the whole city under his consideration.

Mr. Peck, for the affirmative, said that each ward has its own needs, and must have some direct means of having them remedied. A representative must know how to meet these, and therefore should be thoroughly acquainted with his locality. The ward system would partially provide for this, whereas the general system might not bring forth a single man who knew the real circumstances attending any improvements in a particular part.

Ald. Stevenson, for the negative, said that the fact that Peterborough had tried the ward system and had finally given it up, was an argument for the negative. An objectionable feature of the ward system was that it did not give the people of a ward any chance of voting for the representative of the others. Friendship and acquaintanceship are qualities chiefly considered in ward voting by the voters of that ward. Whereas, on the other hand, by the general system, such petty things are not at all considered, as a man is elected upon his merits. The result is, an alderman who has no favours to make to any particular section, but who has his city's interests at heart.

Mr. Peter Gardiner, the last speaker for the affirmative, said that the general system gave the individual too much scope, and therefore too much power, in voting. Each voter can use his influence for twelve men, which is objectionable. He mentioned, in a humourous vein, that East City has had a diminishing representation and was almost on the point of rebellion.

Mr. Layfield concluded the argument for the negative side. The ward system, he thought, brought into a council petty politics. It also led to a minority rule, giving an example of what might have resulted on one occasion in this city had this system been in vogue. The public money was spent for general good, and not reciprocative. He said that the ward system was all right if controllers were appointed, and if these were elected by a general vote.

Dr. Morrison then replied to statements made by the negative.

Mr. Burnham briefly reviewed the points that had been brought forward and then presented them to the audience for a decision.

The affirmative side were declared winners.

Investigation Into the Transfer of Liquor Licenses in Toronto Still Continues—Some Revelations.

WARD-WORKERS' INFLUENCE AT $500.

The Toronto License investigation is still going on. The Parkdale Hotel matter was again in evidence. Mr. Andrew Martin, a former porprietor, swore that he met Mr. T. J. Jones, a contractor, and who, Martin alleged, told him he was a former partner of Mr. W. L. Purvis, Chief License Inspector; Mr. Edward Adamson, former Chief Grain Inspector in Toronto, and Mr. Frank Brazil on the street, told them of the transaction, and said that he had lost nearly $11,000 on the deal. They, Mr. Martin stated, said that they could arrange the matter for him, and an agreement, he says, was made, whereby he paid them $500 and promised $1500 more if they were successful. Subsequently, Mr. Martin, believing that they had done nothing for him, entered suit for the recovery of the $500, but afterwards withdrew his action.

Dr. Beattie Nesbitt was again a witness and told how he had seen Mr. (John L. Davidson, one of the then License Commissioners, and asked him to continue the Tymon license, as he (Dr. Nesbitt) was personally interested in the matter. In the deal for the Clarendon Hotel, Dr. Nesbitt had suggested one of his own accountants, Mr. Oscar M. Hudson, as a good man to run the place. Hudson was displaced, however. Mr. J. F. Hynes, in his evidence, said that he understood that Hudson represented Dr. Beattie Nesbitt.

Messrs. Brazil, Jones and Adamson consumed most of Commissioner Starr's time Thursday afternoon explaining what they had done to merit a contribution of $500 from Mr. Andrew Martin.

Their story was to the effect that Martin had agreed to give them all that they might obtain in excess of the $18,000, the purchase price stipulated by the License Commissioners.

As Martin wanted $29,000, and that was the amount he believed he was entitled to get, the trio were evidently in on a soft thing.

Here was a chance to make eleven thousand dollars if the Commissioners could be brought to see matters through Martin's spectacles.

Commissioner Starr wanted some light on the subject. He wanted to know where Martin came in. The three evidently thought they were entitled to the $2000 advance that the Commissioners, through the efforts of Solicitor Kelly, finally consented to grant; Jones said as much.

An interesting feature in connection with hotel transfers in Toronto is the fact that in 1906 there were 67 applications for transfers; 54 were granted, 5 refused, 5 withdrawn and 5 are still pending. The total amount paid for the 54 licenses was $1,238,400. Ten of these were shop licenses, which sold for $122,750, leaving $1,115,650 as the selling price for 44 hotel licenses. Several instances are shown of hotel licenses being transferred twice during the year at an increase in value running from $10,000 to $20,000. The top price paid was $80,000 for the license of the Elliott House. The Tremont was second with $50,000. This does not include the building in any instance, nor the stock in the bar.

THE WEATHER

Last night and this morning the thermometer took another dip into low figures. During the night 16 degrees below zero was the lowest figure that was reached, where it stood when examined this morning about 7 o'clock. However, later on in the forenoon 2 more degrees were added, making the lowest 18 below. At noon it marked four below.

TONGUE-TIED ORATOR.

A Story Told to Illustrate a Valuable Every-Day Fact.

"To illustrate a point I wish to make," said Mr. McDermid, of the firm of McDermid & Jury, our well-known druggists, "let me tell you of an orator who had the most wonderful eloquence of any man I ever knew. Yet he had a great misfortune. He was tongue-tied, and when he got up to make a speech he would stutter and finally have to sit down. Yet about once in five or six times his trouble would vanish, and then I tell you he was simply grand.

"Now, my point is this: Old-fashioned cod liver oil is like that orator. Once in a great many cases it does immense good, but oftener than not the sticky, nasty oil, or the unwholesome materials used to make it into an emulsion so interfere with digestion that all its medicinal value is lost. Yet we know genuine strength-building curatives are enveloped in the oil.

How shall we get these valuable health-building, medicinal elements without taking the oil also?

That question was answered by the two great French chemists, Gautier and Mourgues, who gave the world their great discovery of separating the curative medicinal elements always known to exist in the cod's liver, from the oil or useless part.

The product is known as Vinol—which actually contains all that is medicinally good of cod liver oil, without a drop of oil or any disagreeable feature—thus producing the grandest tonic reconstructor known to medicine. Vinol is now making remarkable cures as a tonic and restorative where old-fashioned cod liver oil failed. We guarantee it to make strength for the weak, vitalize the cold, cure coughs, hanging on colds and bronchial troubles. If it does not, it won't cost you a cent to try it." McDermid & Jury, Druggists. Vinol is also sold at The Market Drug Store (The Ormond & Walsh Old Stand).

A VETERAN MISSIONARY VISITS CITY

Mr. George Buskin, Representing the International Evangelical and Colportage Mission Here.

Mr. George Buskin, agent and missionary of the International Evangelical and Colportage Mission, is making his 24th annual visit to Peterborough in behalf off the work of disseminating through the northern and western districts, Biblical literature, printed in 21 languages by the mission agency. Many scores of thousands of copies have been supplied in many languages. The only denominational interest in the work is faith in God and Christ, and His word, which implies the whole duty of man. The second part of the Ojibway Indian dictionary is in the printers' hands for publishing; $600 will be required to meet the costs, to meet which would require but a small contribution from those who now occupy the Indian's lands, thereby accumulating much wealth, and enjoying much comfort. Various editions of booklets, etc., have been published for use in the work, in five languages.

The contributions of Peterborough last year in the mission's behalf was $36.50, which the missionary gratefully acknowledges. The mission depot is still at 202 King street east, Toronto.

FAIR ENTRIES WILL BE CONFINED TO 4 COUNTIES

Directors Decide Upon This Important Change in Constitution of Exhibition.

THE MEMBERSHIP IS INCREASING

The entries for the Peterborough Industrial Exhibition will be confined to the four counties, Peterborough, Victoria, Northumberland and Durham. This important change in the constitution was decided upon at an enthusiastic and largely attended meeting of the directors of the Exhibition, held in the City Council Chambers yesterday. The proposal to make this change was carried unanimously, the directors feeling that it was a step in the right direction and would go a long way in making the Fair a success by barring out the professional exhibitors who are of benefit neither to the city nor Fair, and who generally carry off a majority of the prizes from the farmers of the district.

The president, Ald. R. H. Leary, was in the chair, and the characteristic feature of the meeting was the enthusiasm displayed.

Every indication points to the fact that the Fair will be a gigantic success this year. The officers and directors are energetic and are already working faithfully to increase the membership and boom the Fair.

Following is the partial list of the members already secured, and their number is being added to daily:—T H Vaughn, Wm Collins, C R W Booth, R H Leary, J J Turner, Sr., J M Brooks, W B Stewart, G A Gillespie, John Brown, S Dayell, Dawson Kennedy, S F Redmond, J H Garbutt, Robt Hanbidge, Keene; Wm. Miller, O. Carver, Wm Davidson, J W Collins, Chas Peters, John Miller, Chas Curtis, Thos Jewitt, W J Cox, J K Moore, R A Wilson, Jas Ruth, F Driscoll, Sandy Matchett, Thos Tindle, Israel Payne, Wm Rutherford, South Monaghan; Thos Thompson of Hiawatha, T T Milburn, Gordon Mann of Bridgenorth, S Thompson, J D Fowler, Chas Long, J. H. Mann of Bridgenorth, R Deane, W J McCallum, J Hill, Jas Hamilton, A Comstock, W Bunton, M Pappen, W B Warne, D Lawson, Ed Courtney, Thos Barrie, T G Might, B Shortly, A W Cressman, A J Johnston, F H Schneider, T H Adams, J D Tully, Messrs. Reports were received from the different special committees appointed to deal with the revision of the prize lists. The committee on cattle, swine, sheep and poultry, reported as follows:

To the Board of Directors of Peterborough Industrial Exhibition:

Gentlemen,—The Special Committee appointed by you at the last Board meeting to revise the prize list, re cattle, sheep, swine and poultry, met this afternoon. Present, Messrs. Kennedy, Redmond, Brown, Collins and Vance, at the president's office. On motion Mr. Kennedy occupied the chair and Wm. Collins acted as secretary.

After some discussion on the entry fees the revision was made as follows:—

Class, Durhams—52 to 59. Adopted.

Class, Herefords, 60 to 66. Adopted.

Class, Galloways—67 to 70. Adopted.

Aberdeen Angus—7 sections, same as Herefords.

Class, Grades—Adopted with those changes: No. 75, cow, entry $1.00, and Nos. 76 and 80, cancelled.

Dairy Cattle.—Class, Ayrshires—Adopted, 82 to 87.

Class Holsteins—Prizes reduced to same as Ayrshires.

Class, Jerseys—Prizes reduced same as Ayrshires.

Class, Dairy Grades—Nos. 100 to 103. Prizes reduced to $4.00, $3.00 and $2.00; 1st, 2nd and 3rd.

Classes, Sheep—All adopted, same as last year.

Classes, Swine—Adopted with entries reduced to 25 cts.

Class, Poultry—Entries 25 cents, and add 3rd prize of 25 cents.

On motion we recommend that the Board be asked to rescind the motion respecting unlimited entries.

Also, we recommend that the area from which entris are received be limited to the Counties of Northumberland, Durham, Peterborough and Victoria.

D. KENNEDY,
Chairman.
WM. COLLINS,
Secretary.

The Committe on Horses and that of Fine Arts made reports through their respective chairmen, Messrs. Garbutt and Conway, recommending some changes in the prize lists.

Communications were received in reference to expert judges, but the directors decided to secure their own judges. A discussion took place over the question of special attractions, but nothing definite was decided upon.

A committee was appointed to go over the rules and regulations with a view to making changes if necessary. The committee which will meet next Wednesday night is composed of Messrs. John Garbutt, T. Redmond, Conway, J. M. Brooks, J. J. Turner and R. H. Leary.

A LOCAL MACHINERY FIRM'S CONTRACT

Peter Hamilton Co. Supplies Implements for the County House of Refuge.

Reeve R. N. Scott, of Smith, was in the city yesterday on his way back from Lakefield, where he had been spending a few days in connection with the House of Refuge. He stated the trouble with the frozen pipes had been remedied, temporarily, but he anticipated that it would be necessary to dig a new well in the near future. This, however, was a matter which the Board would have to decide.

There are at present seven inmates in the institution; three from Smith, and one each from Dummer, Norwood, Asphodel and Belmont.

All the stock has been purchased, and the equipment now includes a team of horses, eight cows and one brood sow. The machinery has been bought, the Peter Hamilton Company, Limited, machines having been purchased.

Two Years Before Ontario Bank Shareholders Will Get Any Dividends. Says Mr. Braithwaite.

The Toronto News says: — When asked this morning what period of time was likely to elapse before definite information was given the shareholders of the Ontario Bank as to the result of liquidation, Mr. Braithwaite, of the Bank of Montreal, stated that it would probably be two years before actual conditions were made known. He would venture no assertion such as that which comes from Montreal on semi-official authority, that the shareholders could look for a considerable percentage after all claims were paid.

INTERESTING GAME WITH CRESCENTS TO-NIGHT

Famous New York Hockeyists Will be Here With Their Strongest Line-up.

WELL KNOWN PLAYERS WITH TEAM

There promises to be one of the biggest crowds of the season at the Brock Street Rink to-night when the famous New York Crescent A. C. hockey team will meet Peterborough in an exhibition game. The Crescents with sixty loyal rooters will arrive here on the 5.35 G. T. R. train this evening and the game will be called at 8.15 o'clock sharp, and should be one of the most interesting battles seen here in years. The Crescents are going to make a big effort to beat Peterborough. They have a fast, heavy and well-balanced team composed of former Eastern and Ontario stars who will put up a sterling exhibition of hockey. Bob Wall, the famous Shamrock cover-point, the well-known Artie Lifflotn, formerly of Montreal; Sheriff, the Brockville star, and other equally noted brilliants of the hockey world will all be seen in the game, and Peterborough will have a hard task in turning aside the New Yorkers, who have for seven years held the championship of their league.

The teams will line up as follows:—

Crescents.	Peterborough
Goal.
Mackenzie	Lang
Point.
O'Flynn	Glover
Cover Point.
Walt	Crowley
Rover
Sheriff	Miller
Centre.
Liffiton	Parnell
Right Wing
Dobbie	Graham
Left Wing
Scheibler	Moore.

One half will be played under the New York rules, which do not permit of skating a man on side, while the other will be governed by the O.H.A. rules. Mr. W E Wasson will referee the contest.

Ladies' Auxiliary

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A., will be held on Monday night at 7.30 in the parlours of the Association. Several matters of importance are to be considered and a full attendance is desired.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THE GIRL PATSY

The offering at the Grand Opera House last night entitled "The Girl Patsy" was one of the most pleasing of productions presented there this season. It is a beautiful and touching comedy-drama played by a splendidly balanced company containing some actors and actresses of more than the ordinary ability. The presentation is one of every day life, well balanced with humour, pathos and sentiment. It holds the attention of the audience from start to finish. The play hinges upon the changing of infants and the subsequent results are indeed fascinating. June Mathis in the title role has a good conception of her part and was a favourite with the audience. "The Girl Patsy" is well staged and the scenic effects rather pretty.

One of the interesting features of the show was the singing of Mrs. Harris, who delighted the audience with two Irish songs.

EXTEND AREA TO ADMIT HASTINGS AND HALIBURTON

Suggestion to the Directors of the Peterborough Industrial Fair—Two More Counties Wanted.

A member of the Peterborough Industrial Fair Association to-day, referring to the decision of the directors at the meeting yesterday to confine the Exhibition to the counties of Peterborough, Victoria, Northumberland and Durham, expressed the opinion that the limits were being too much confined. He quite agreed with the principle of preventing professional exhibitors from taking all the prizes, but thought that the counties which Peterborough on all four sides should be included in those from which exhibits would be accepted, and suggested that Hastings and Haliburton should be included. In many ways these counties have conditions similar to those in this county, and few, if any, professional exhibitors come from them.

WEDDING BELLS

GREENE--WEIR

Keene, Feb. 22.—A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Weir, of Otonabee, Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Janet Weir, was united in marriage to Mr. Bert Greene, of Glenburn, North Dakota. The ceremony was performed at 7 o'clock in the presence of about eighty guests by Rev. D. D. McDonald. The bride was handsomely attired in white silk voile trimmed with chiffon, and carried lilies of the valley and carnations. Little Miss Curtis was flower girl. The bride was the recipient of numerous handsome and costly presents. Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elmhirst, Carberry, Man.; Mrs. Spence, Glenburn, N. D., and Mr. Hawie, Fenelon.

The happy couple will spend a few days in Otonabee before leaving for their new home in Glenburn.

AMERICA'S EX-CHAMPION WRESTLER says:—

"After my great wrestling match with J. Mellor, of Staleybridge, at the Crystal Palace, England, for the International Championship, I was covered with cuts and bruises. I applied my favorite balm, Zam-Buk, and in a marvellously short time the abrasions and cuts were healed, and I was fit and well again. At another time I had a piece of flesh almost torn completely off my arm above the elbow. I anticipated being unable to do anything with the arm for a long time; to my delight, however, Zam-Buk closed up the wound in two days. In three days it was covered with new skin, and a few days after there was no trace of the injury. I recommend Zam-Buk for cuts, bruises or skin injuries of any kind.

Yours truly,

NOT JUST AS GOOD

If you ever inquire at a store for certain articles and get for a reply "We have something just as good"? Did it ever occur to you that "Something just as good" is something the dealer has been able to buy much cheaper than the articles you inquire for? This is true in drugs, fabrics, groceries, hardware, and in fact every line, including silver-plated ware. If you inquire for 847 Rogers Bros.' Knives, Forks or Spoons, don't accept any bogus Rogers' stamp because your dealer tells you it's just as good.

DEBATE ON CHARGES OF FOWLER

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Promises to Investigate.

DUNCAN ROSS EXPLAINS

Mr. Bourassa Says Political Atmosphere Must Be Cleared — Insinuations Not All From Liberal Side—Will Wait for Insurance Report Before Taking Steps—Mr. Fowler Explains His Position.

Ottawa, Feb. 22.—What has come to be known as the Fowler incident took another turn in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, producing a debate which may be regarded as a foretaste of that to come when the report of the Insurance Commission is before the House. Mr. Bourassa opened the ball by referring to the grave and serious language used by Mr. G. W. Fowler, and pleading that the political atmosphere should be cleared by investigating the case, where it was alleged that members had acted in a manner unworthy of the custodians of public rights. Mr. Bennett availed himself of the opportunity to express his own opinion as to his land transactions, and he was followed by the Prime Minister, who promised in no uncertain terms that at the proper time, when the Insurance Commission's report was before the House, all matters would be inquired into.

Until that report was received he did not think it was proper that the matter should be discussed. The leader of the Opposition agreed with Sir Wilfrid Laurier on that point, and at the same time protested against the statement appearing in the press to the effect that the Conservative party had endeavored to gag the Insurance Commission by promising not to raise any inquiry with respect to the London election. Mr. Foster followed with a complaint that he had been made a target for insinuations throughout the session, and said that he had heard that the Insurance Commission had been formed "to break Foster."

Owed No Apology.

Mr. Fowler did not think that he owed the House any apology, as his remarks had been provoked by an attack. Mr. Duncan Ross (Yale-Cariboo) gave a straightforward explanation regarding his alleged connection with J. J. Hill, which completely disposed of the insinuation made on Tuesday by Mr. Fowler. After dinner the House discussed at length the circumstances attaching to the granting of an Alberta grazing lease.

A bill, introduced by Mr. Macdonald, to amend the Railway Act, was read a first time. Mr. Macdonald explained that the intention of the bill was to bring Government railways under the provisions of the Railway Act with regard to damages caused by fires and the killing of cattle.

LONDON WANTS HYMAN.

Nominated Again Last Night at Enthusiastic Meeting.

London, Ont., Feb. 22.—A splendid turnout, perfect unanimity of purpose and unswerving loyalty to Hon. Chas. S. Hyman and the principles he represents were the characteristics of the great gathering at the London Liberals' headquarters last night. It was eminently fitting that the first mass meeting to be held in Hyman Hall should be marked by the unanimous nomination of the man for whom the fine structure is named. Prominent among those present were George C. Gibbons, K. C., Thomas H. Purdom, Senator Thomas Coffey, F. G. Leonard, ex-Mayor Rumball, Moses Masuret, Robert Boston, ex-M. P., Geo. A. Sippi (president of the Young Liberal Club), ex-Ald. Armstrong and many other well-known Liberal workers.

Mr. George C. Gibbons, K. C., president of the London Liberal Association, in his opening remarks, said he was glad to see such a crowd at the first large meeting in the new hall, which was a credit to the party and to the man after whom it was named. He regretted that London had to have so many elections—there were too many—but circumstances which the Liberals could not control had forced the present issue. The Conservative press had tried to make fun about it, as he (the speaker) knew from personal observation. Those who know Mr. Hyman best know that he is the last man in the world to feign sickness or turn his back to the enemy. Before he went away from London Mr. Hyman was suffering from nervous disorder, the result of overwork and want of sleep, and in the end he was compelled to go south to save his life. Mr. Gibbons went on to speak of Mr. Hyman as a London boy, who from his first entrance into public life had fought a good fight and had gained a position second only to that of the Finance Minister. When he found his health was failing he felt he must withdraw, and sent in his resignation. Mr. Gibbons said: "Sir Wilfrid Laurier sent a letter to Mr. Hyman through myself insisting that he should take back his resignation, for he (Sir Wilfrid) could not do without him in the Cabinet." (Tremendous cheers.) Mr. Gibbons went on to say that the Ottawa Government never had a better man at the head of the Public Works Department, and the people never had a more reliable or valuable man in counsel than Hon. C. S. Hyman. Mr. Gibbons said the letter, for the best of reasons, was not delivered at that time. Mrs. Hyman insisted that such a step would not be safe, but just as soon as they dared Mr. Hyman was given the message, and this was his answer: "I place myself entirely in the hands of my London and Ottawa friends."

Mr. Hyman was nominated by Mr. Thos. H. Purdom, K.C., seconded by Mr. Moses Masuret. The mover and seconder, Senator Coffey, ex-Mayor Rumball, and others made stirring speeches, and the meeting was a good indication of the triumphant return of Mr. Hyman.

THE CANFIELD TRAGEDY.

Witnesses Subpoenaed for Next Wednesday—No Fresh Developments

Cayuga, Feb. 22.—Crown Attorney Murphy, who is preparing a list of witnesses who will appear on the preliminary hearing of the murder charge against Mrs. Mattie Perkins on Feb. 27. The summons will be served on Monday and those required to attend include Thomas McDonald, the star crown witness, and Spencer, the G.T.R. foreman at Welland, under whom Perkins worked for three months before he died, and to whom he sent a telegram while on his death bed asking him to come at once. Mr and Mrs. John Darrah, tenants of the dead man's farm; Mrs. Hyslop and Ralph Curry, sister and brother, respectively, of the accused woman, are regarded as among the most important witnesses.

Chief Farrell said yesterday morning that there were no fresh developments in the case, but certain parties are under surveilance and will be arrested if necessary.

The defence is based on the assumption that Perkins' death was the result of ulcer of the stomach, and that for some time previous to his death he was subject to fits of violent vomiting.

The property of the deceased is valued at $6,000 and constitutes the comfortable home at Canfield, a 100-acre farm about a mile and a quarter northwest of Canfield and some hundreds of dollars in cash. John Darrah is in possession of the farm, and his lease does not expire for two years.

PREFERENTIAL TARIFF.

British House Defeats Amendment by 255 Majority..

London, Feb. 22.—The House of Commons yesterday, after a debate lasting two days, rejected by a majority of 255, an amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne, in favor of a preferential tariff with the colonies.

The address in reply to the speech from the throne was adopted unanimously.

May Turn Us to South.

London, Feb. 22. (C. A. P.)—The Scotsman, discussing the preference debate, says that if, as a result of the colonial conference, Laurier goes home with news that Britain will not even give consideration to any proposal for reciprocity, the United States will be quick to seize advantage of that section of Canadian opinion already favorable, and reciprocal relations with the States will be greatly strengthened.

Friendship Has Been Growing Ever Since He Remembers.

New York, Feb. 22.—James Bryce, the new British Ambassador to the United States, landed yesterday from the steamer Oceanic.

He declined to discuss the possibility of war between America and Japan, other than to say he did not think there was any chance of war.

Asked if he believed the Swettenham affair cemented the friendship of the two nations more closely, he said: "I think the friendship has been growing closer ever since I remember. Kingston is not the world."

Funeral of Sir Wm. Hingston.

Montreal, Feb. 22.—The funeral of the late Hon. Sir William Hingston, M.D., yesterday was one of the largest seen in Montreal in many years, all classes of the community being represented.

His Excellency the Governor-General was represented by Col. Hanbury Williams, and there was a large representation of the Senate and the House of Commons.

At St. Patrick's Church the body was received by Archbishop Gauthier of Kingston, Father Martin Callaghan was assisted in the celebration of the mass by Father Isidore Kavanagh as deacon and Father Gerald McShane as sub-deacon. Archbishop Bruchesi performed the benediction.

Gales Sweep Britain.

London, Feb. 22.—Tremendous gales accompanied by snow, hail and thunder storms swept over the whole of Northern Europe yesterday, and were especially severe in the British Isles.

There has been widespread damage to property in all directions, numerous fatalities and many shipping casualties.

Among the vessels still detained at Liverpool are the liners Teutonic and Haverford.

IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Latest Returns Show Majority for Nationalists and Labor Combinations.

London, Feb. 22.—Though all the results are not yet to hand it is beyond doubt, according to The Daily Chronicle, that the Transvaal elections have resulted in a majority of 25 for the Hetvolk, Nationalist and Labor combination.

Out of the 15 members of the Upper House there are nine Progressives and two Hetvolk.

The results of the Transvaal elections has been received with a certain amount of disappointment by Liberal M. P.'s. On the whole the appointments to the Second Chamber are regarded with satisfaction. Hamar Greenwood states in The Daily Chronicle that the application of self-government would solve all the troubles of the Transvaal, and therefore he is not concerned which way the elections went.

Liberal Majority Reduced.

London, Feb. 22.—The bye-election of a member to Parliament from the south division of Aberdeen, to replace James Bryce, who has been made British Ambassador to the United States, resulted in E. S. S. Lemon, Liberal, getting 3,779 votes; Ronald McNeil, Unionist, 3,412, and F. Branley, Socialist, 1,740 votes. The result shows a great reduction in the Liberal majority.

League Leaders Won Out; Two Hard-Fought Battles

Strathconas Trimmed Orphans by 3-1 and Charlotte Street Just Beat Out the Lakefield Outfit.

TWO OF THE BEST GAMES OF THE SEASON WAS PLAYED

As was expected the Strathconas and the Charlotte street team were the winners in the City League games last night, but they had not the easy victories doped out for them by the fans. The Strathconas beat the Orphans by 3 goals to 1, while Charlotte street just nosed out Lakefield, winning out in the last two minutes of play after a game that was anybody's until the final gong. A large crowd saw the contests, which were about the best of the League series.

The Orphans gave the Strathconas a hard argument in the first contest, and although the result was never very much in doubt, the game was always interesting. The Orphans were outweighed but never let up checking back like fiends, and in a manner to make it extremely difficult for the winners line to get clear away. The Kids were always aggressive and the the way in which they dug in was appreciated by the crowd.

The winners played fine hockey and look to have an excellent chance for the League honours. They have a fast and well balanced aggregation, who play hockey all the time, combining well on the forward line, and shooting accurately and hard. The defence is as strong as the forward line, blocking and relieving in decidedly clever fashion. The winners' forward line all showed up well and it would be unfair to particularly mention any one of the players. They wre always going strong, passed well, and took the passes in equally good fashion while as has been said, their shooting was all to the ginger. In this respect they have something on every team in the League. White played a fine game at cover, his work both on the offensive and defence, being decidedly useful. He got away with some splendid rushes. Meagher was ill, and unable to play and his place was well filled by Mann, who played a good game throughout. Wilson took care of the stray shots cleverly.

The light forwards of the Kids' outfit were always in the game and played fine hockey throughout, especially Ray and Pentland, whose stickhandling, skating and checking was splendid. Both did some great rushing and with more weight would make star forwards. The defence was good. Quinlan and Barber both used their bodies to good effect and their checking and relieving was fully up to the mark. McFadden's work was of the stellar nature. The game was clean and Referee Lynch had an easy time in preserving law and order.

Following were the teams:

Strathconas.		Orphans.
	Goal.
Wilson,		McFadden,
	Point.
Mann (McGrath)		Barber,
	Cover,
White,		Quinlan,
	Rover.
McGrath (Mann)		Pentland,
	Centre.
McMillan,		Ray,
	Right wing.
Seymour,		Sanderson,
	Left wing.
Weatherston,		Ryan,

Summary—
1—Orphans, Sanderson.
2—Strathconas, Seymour.
3—Strathconas, McMillan.
Half time.
4—Strathconas, White.
Penalties — Seymour 2, Barber 2, Quinlan 1, Ray 1, White 1.

And maybe the Lakefield team did not give the Charlotte street players and supporters a bad hour of it!

The boys from the north came down with the determination to do or die, and while they died they came within an ace of doing up their opponents. They had Charlotte street backing up, until the last fifteen minutes of play, and in the middle of the second half looked like they drove along a terrific clip all the way and if it wasn't hockey it was certainly interesting.

Long and Dusty were the best of the Charlotte street advance guard, playing fine hockey throughout. The winners' line had no combination to speak of, and it was through the good shooting and individual efforts of the above named players that they were enabled to turn out. More was effective both in defence work and rushing while Crowe made many pretty stops.

For Lakefield, M. Quigley, Quinn and Crawford were the stars. Quinn was the best man on the ice last night, his skating and stickhandling bringing down the house. He was ably assisted by Quigley, while Crawford put up a fine article on the defence.

The game was not rough, but neither was it an afternoon reception, thank you. Referee Lynch kept them going to the fence at regular intervals.

The teams were:—

Lakefield.		Charlotte street.
	Goal.
Gray.		Crough,
	Point.
Sabatino.		Roddy,
	Cover.
Crawford.		Moore,
	Rover.
M. Quigley.		Campbell.
	Centre.
Quinn,		Long,
	Right wing.
J. Quigley,		Grose,
	Left wing.
Moran,		Dusty,

Summary:
First half, no score.
Second half.
1—Lakefield, M. Quigley.
2—Lakefield, Moran.
3—Charlotte street, Long.
4—Charlotte street, Long.
5—Charlotte street, Dusty.

Whitcroft's Work The Feature Of Brandon Game

Whitcroft again distinguished himself in his second game with the Kenora Thistles, in Brandon last night, when they were defeated, though this fact does not reflect on the playing of the former Peterborough man, whose work greatly pleased the western critics. A despatch from Brandon last night says:—

"Brandon, Man., Feb. 20.—The first defeat of the year in a league match was administered to the Kenora Thistles champions of the world, last night by the Brandon team, in one of the hardest-fought games ever seen in the West. The low score of 3 to 2 is an indication of the play, but it by no means indicates the speed which both teams were travelling.

The appearance of Russell Phillips Fred Whitcroft, formerly of Peterborough, on the line of the champions, did not materially weaken their strength. Both men played a superb game, only a few occasional mistakes being chargeable to the account of young Phillips, and they cost the Kenoras nothing. Whitcroft, on the other hand, proved his stickhandling ability to be good enough for any senior company. He confined himself to combination and not until the last half displayed any individual form. Then his headwork brought down cheers time and time again.

A Tall Tale Anent The Belleville "Midget" Muss

When Lindsay Midgets refused to give Belleville a chance to reconsider their decision to default the game ordered in Toronto, for Tuesday, they unconsciously nipped in the bud one of the wildest schemes to "even up" that was ever hatched in the O. H. A., says the Toronto Star. It savoured of Temiskaming League methods.

When the Belleville juniors were trimmed in Lindsay in that backyard scrap last Friday night the Bay city contingent were separated from "M" dollars. It hurt some. It was just like pulling off a week-old capsicum plaster. It left a red mark and the Bay City boys wanted some salve.

After the Belleville club had formally decided to quit the competition, a scheme was hatched in Belleville to trim the hated Scugoggers. There was a little quiet wiring to the far north, where semi-professional hockey teams were straying around looking for Cobalt bloom. The answer received pleased the men from the banks of the Moira river, and they immediately asked leave of the O.H.A. to revoke their default and play here.

The O.H.A. was willing—if Lindsay was. Lindsay couldn't see anything except expense in the proposition, and said the Bellevillians nay.

Therefore there was no game on Tuesday.

Had the teams lined up here on Monday night, Belleville's team would have been:

Goal, Phillips.
Point, Connolly.
Cover, Pepper.
Rover, centre, right wing, left wing, Ottawa Victorias.

The wire north was to the Vics., who played for Haileybury Saturday night. Had Lindsay accepted the game they would have come down via North Bay, donned Belleville uniforms and climbed on the ice.

It was a fifty to one shot.

But fifty to one shots have come home on the bit before.

They had no hope of pulling the game through, as an O. H. A. fixture but were banking on the Midgets playing an exhibition game, in order that the crowd would not be disappointed. This sounds like a fairy tale, but it is the story that is whispered around anyhow and local men who were in on the deal, pooled to $500 to back the composite team.

KINGSTON OBJECTS TO PLAYING GAME

Threatens to Drop Out of the O. H. A. if Ordered to Play Off With Peterboro' for the District Championship.

MANAGER M'NEE'S STATEMENT GIVEN

Kingston, Feb. 21.—The 14th Regiment hockey team will not submit to a sudden death game with Peterborough to settle the eastern district championship. They claim that they have completed the schedule, and have won out according to O.H.A. Executive order.

They hold correspondence from the O.H.A. secretary giving the decision of the Executive upon the sudden death match with Midland. That match was to count two wins and two losses.

The 14th claim that they took a big risk in playing Midland a sudden death game, for had they lost they would have been down and out. They hold that they have travelled enough this season in making three trips to Toronto and one to Peterborough, and protest against another trip to please Peterborough.

If another game is ordered F. H. MacNee, manager of the 14th, says the Kingston club will simply retire from the series.

HARWOOD RACES WERE HELD YESTERDAY

Two Local Horses Took the Money in Free-for-All—Interesting Races.

The following gentlemen drove to Harwood yesterday to attend the races that were held there: Messrs. Martin Connors, P. Clunan, Harry Nesbitt, J. Cottingham, W. Dunoan and Mort. Mitchell. They report that there was a large attendance and that the races were of a fairly good variety. The result of the different events is as follows:—

Free for All.—
City Queen, Geo Lipsett... ... 1 1 1
Harry Dorest, J. Cottingham. 2 2 2
Little Girl, J. Elmhirst ... 3 3 3

Three-minute Class.—
Little Will, Elmhirst 1 1 1

GOT A PAIN IN YOUR BACK?

You get a pain in your back, and you wonder what is the matter. You perhaps pay no attention to it. Backache is caused by imperfect action of the kidneys, in fact, is the first sign of kidney trouble to follow.

The kidneys, proper, are composed of a close network of fibrous tissue, interlaced with tiny elastic fibres. Their object is the excretion of the uric acid, and other poisonous matter composing the urine, from the blood.

They are continuously at work to preserve the general health of the body and most people are troubled with some form of kidney trouble, but do not suspect it.

Some of the symptoms are: A feeling of weakness in the small of the back, sharp pains in back, puffiness under the eyes, and swelling of the feet and ankles, urinary troubles such as supressed urination, excessive urination, cloudy, thick or highly colored urine, etc.

Mr. J. L. Whiting, Conabrook Centre, Ont., writes: "I suffered for two years with kidney trouble. I had terrible pains in my back, hips and legs. I could not sleep and had a poor appetite. I took four boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, and the pains left me, my appetite returned and I now sleep well. I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney trouble.

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

J. H. Connal Victorious In The Primary Finals

Won an Easy Victory Over the Lakefield Rink—R. Neil and Geo. Fitzgerald Alone in the Consolation Race—Oshawa Rink Captured Third Consolation Prize —Bonspiel Drawing to a Close.

The climax of the Peterborough curling bonspiel was reached yesterday afternoon when J. H. Connal, of this city, met W. J. Ridpath, of Lakefield, in the final game for the highest honours. The contest belonged to Connal all the way through, and was not the close game to be expected from two crack rinks who had vanquished everything in sight for two whole days. The play was followed by a large number of spectators who has assembled to witness some scientific shots. The Peterborough skip was always master of the situation, and as in former games, displayed great generalship in the direction of his shots. His points were made mostly one at a time. At the conclusion of the eleventh round the score stood 18 to 0, and it looked like a whitewash. In the twelfth, however, Ridpath made two and also one in the fourteenth, Connal taking one in the second last. The champion's rink might appropriately be termed the silent four. A win or a spectacular play made no visible impression on them with the exception of a smile at long intervals. They played a consistent, steady game, paying strict attention to their work.

The Lakefield rink have no reason to feel ashamed of their connection with the bonspiel. With practically no practice during the winter they reached the finals and carried off the handsome Roman gold clocks offered for second prize.

The consolation race will be concluded this afternoon. Skips Geo. Fitzgerald and R. Neill are left in the finals and they will fight hard for the highest position in the Consolation series. Winning first place in this series means that the victors have lost but one game in the whole bonspiel.

Last night George Fitzgerald defeated Dickson Davidson, but only after a hard struggle. At the end of the thirteenth round both were even with ten points. The next end would decide which rink would play off in the finals, and every precaution was taken by both lest a bad mistake should be made. Davidson's rink was lying shot and the skip had guarded it splendidly. Fitzgerald seemed to have but one chance in ten to dislodge the stone, and leave his own on the tee. There was much speculation among the witnesses, the majority of whom believed it to be almost an impossible shot. Fitzgerald took a little more than ordinary precaution in the delivery and keenly scrutinized the stone as it glided down the ice to its intended destination. The rafters were almost rent assunder as it cleverly evaded all the guards, slightly touched the stone and rolled almost on top of the tee. Veteran curlers claimed it to be the best individual shot ever made at the local curling rink, and no doubt their claim is correct, even remembering a great last-stone shot made by Skip Sam Ray in a previous bonspiel — in 1896 — against Flavelle, of Lindsay. The losing skip was among the first to congratulate and applaud the victor on his spectacular play.

For third place in the Consolation McMurtry of Oshawa, defeated D. Davidson so the third prize goes to the Oshawa rink.

One of the finest finishes of the contest was that between Skips Larry O'Connor, of Lindsay, and R. Neill yesterday afternoon. In the fore part of the contest O'Connor had been playing a stellar variety of curling and looked an easy winner at the end of the twelfth round, with five points to spare. With the score standing 11 to 6 against Neill's rink, which was skipped by R. M. Waddell, they broke away from their strong opponents and tallied five points in the next. The fourteenth end was a battle royal between the two rinks. They were fighting hard for a place in the semi-final consolation, and could not afford to lose a single play. Peterborough was lying shot, but the Lindsay vice, in a combination play with two stones, changed the showing and left his own on top of the tee, sandwiched between two of his opponents. Then R. Neill, by one of the prettiest plays of the evening, caught the counter with the second stone and once more Peterborough was lying shot. Before the finish Lindsay again forged ahead, but Waddell overcame the lead by a well-placed stone which Larry O'Connor failed to remove.

Dickson Davidson, last year's champion, had little difficulty in winning from Dr. Greer by 22 to 8.

HUNGRY SEVEN ATE UP THE NEVER-SWEATS

Defeated Them by 9-1 on Gilmour Street Rink Last Night.

On the Gilmour street rink last evening, between 4.30 and 5.30 o'clock, the Gilmour street "Hungry Seven" defeated the South End "Never Sweats" by a score of 9-1. For the winners, Harry McConnell played a brilliant game, his deadly shots being the feature of the game. "Friggie" Perks also showed up well, but Vernon Henry was not up to the standard. The line-up of the teams was as follows:

The Auburns will play an exhibition game in Lakefield to-morrow night and will meet at the Brook street rink. The Lakefield bunch is behind in their finances and the Auburns are giving them a game to help them out. By the way, there is no gamer bunch of kids in the country than that Lakefield team. They have been coming down here nearly every week all winter and although they have not won a game, they have been close at all times and on several occasions only hard luck prevented them from getting away with a well earned victory. Although out of the running they never thought of defaulting and cheerfully drove ten miles down and an equal distance back to give the local teams a game. And some of the nights on which they had to make the trip were not of the tropical variety either. Here's to the Lakefield team; may they meet with better luck next year.

REGINA

You will make more money by buying lots in Regina City, than by any other source at the present time. It is no gamble, no chance, but an absolutely sure investment. Property will increase at least 100 per cent. in less than two years. Buy now. Prices will be advanced in the spring. Here are a few things that are making Regina grow and making property increase in value :—

REGINA, the wholesale and distributing centre for Saskatchewan and the west, $6,000,000.00 worth of farm machinery sold from Regina last year. Regina is the head-quarters for Saskatchewan of :—

The American-Abell Engine and Thresher Co.
Massey Harris Company.
Frost & Wood Company.
Fairchild Company.
Waterloo Manufacturing Company.
J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.
Garr-Scott Threshing Machine Company.
The International Harvester Company.
The North-west Thresher Company.
The New Hamburg Manufacturing Company.
Reeves Thresher Company.
Nichols & Shepherd Thresher Company.
Sawyer-Massey Company.
Noline Plow Company.
Canadian Port Huron Company.
Cockshutt Plow Company.

Besides the above there are a number of large eastern wholesale houses located in Regina. At the present time some eighteen more wholesale firms have secured sites in Regina to build on this year.

REGINA, the only railroad centre in Saskatchewan.

Besides the present roads which run north, south, east and west, there will be six more lines built into Regina during the next two years, being the Great Northern from the south, the Canadian Northern from the southeast, the C. P. R. north to Prince Albert, and three G. T. P. roads—one northeast, one east, one southwest.

The following is what Mr. Morse of the G. T. P. said in Regina on Aug. 6, 1906;

The Leader, Aug. 6, 1906.

FRANK MORSE IN REGINA

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P. Railway, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday morning, and had a short conference with Mayor McAra and W. G. Pettingel, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Morse had no new statement to make for publication regarding the plans of the G. T. P. in and around Regina. He repeated what he had said when in Regina on May 19th last that his Company would get into Regina at the earliest possible date, as they realized there was a large business to be done here. He confirmed the statement, which was first published by The Leader, that in addition to a branch line to Regina, from the main line near Yorkton, and from Regina to the International boundary on the south, a branch would be run to Regina from Brandon.

"The construction of branch lines would be carried on simultaneously with the main line," said Mr. Morse.

REGINA leads all cities from Winnipeg to the Coast in building for 1906.

Capital of Saskatchewan ranks fifth among the metropolitan centres of Canada, being surpassed by Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. Leads all the Dominion in relative growth. Building permits in 1906:

Regina—$1,982,330.

Edmonton—$1,863,894.

Calgary—$1,109,161.

No other city in Canada shows as high a percentage of growth as Regina. 1907 will beat all records. A large number of expensive buildings are being erected. Among others include:—Four new hotels, at a cost of over half a million; municipal hospital, $100,000; Y. M. C. A. at $100,000; Baptist Church, $50,000; Masonic Temple, at $75,000; Dominion Land Titles Office at $110,000; New Public School at $64,000, and many other business blocks and residences. Chief amongst all buildings will be the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, at a cost of at least $1,500,000.

Sprinkled Liniment On The Cooking Cabbage

A prominent farmer in Hamilton township, and his family, had a narrow escape from poisoning last week. In the stove cupboard were two bottles, one containing vinegar and the other containing a liniment for a horse, a strong poison. Cabbage was cooking in a frying pan on the stove. The farmer's sister took the poison bottle in mistake for the vinegar, which it much resembled, and began to sprinkle the poison on the cabbage. The mistake was then fortunately noticed by another person who happened to be in the room. Had it not been, the poison would probably have caused the death of several persons.

Is Besieged By Women Seeking For A Husband

Derby, Conn., Feb. 20. As a result of advertising for a wife, Geo. Moon, a widower, 40 years of age, of Third street, Ansonia, has just been so overwhelmed with applicants that he has posted a "No Wives Wanted" sign on his door.

He says he has done this only as a temporary expedient to enable him to give proper consideration to the many women who have offered themselves as matrimonial subjects. The conditions that Mr. Moon imposes are that the prospective wife must be between 25 and 35 years of age, a Protestant, five feet in height, and not a divorced person.

Every evening for a week Mr. Moon has had from fifteen to thirty woman callers, and he has received over a hundred letters, most of them with photographs enclosed. He has taken notes of the appearance and qualifications of all and has told them that they stand on an equal footing. He says he will take several weeks to make up his mind before selecting his affinity.

One woman came from New York and insisted on him paying her expenses. He demurred at first because she was a negress, but when she pointed out that his advertisement did not draw the colour line he gave her the amount of her car fare.

Mr. Moon has been a widower for five years and had been married fifteen years when his wife died. He has no children. He is a foundry worker and has a fair-sized bank account.

Furious Driving Annoys The Bridgenorth Residents

Examiner Special

Bridgenorth, Feb. 22.—Residents of this village are complaining of what they consider reckless driving on the part of some young men from across the lake on Wednesday afternoon. It appears that these men who are teaming to Peterborough make a practice of all riding on one sleigh on the return trip, while they tie their teams together. This was done on Wednesday evening, when two of the teams ran away, and made things lively in this village for a while. A number of the residents had some narrow escapes from serious injuries from the frightened horses as they tore through the streets, and threats are made to prosecute the offenders if it is repeated.

Mr. Harold Coone has gone to Toronto to visit his parents and intends to go to Detroit before he returns.

Mr. and Mrs. W T Cullen spent last Sunday in Bobcaygeon at their daughter's, Mrs. Silas Nicholls.

Bank of Montreal Moved To Their New Premises

Examiner Special.

Warsaw, Feb. 20.—The work of placing the new fixtures and the process of moving to their new building, by the Bank of Montreal, has been completed. The building is a two-storey structure recently erected by Mrs. D. Forsyth. Art metal work was used for decoration purposes on the walls and ceiling, and this was very tastefully finished by Mr. F. James. The fixtures, which were installed by the Peterborough Canoe Co., are of substantial and attractive design constructed of natural grain ash and figure glass. Mr. R. G. Hendren supplied the desks and other furniture, which are in keeping with the woodwork. The Bank of Montreal now has a roomy and convenient office building in which the rapidly-increasing business can be carried on satisfactorily to all concerned. The public are congratulating the local manager on the enterprise of the bank taking these quarters, and will no doubt show their appreciation by their continued patronage.

The members of the choir of the Methodist Church were in Peterborough Wednesday to bid farewell to Mr. Walter Kidd, who has been associated with them and who left on an extended trip to Vancouver, B.C.

Mr. G. L. McClennan was in Peterborough Wednesday.

The Misses Trotter, Peterborough, are guests of the Misses Tedford.

Services in the Presbyterian Church were taken by Mr. L. Graham, of Selwyn, on Sunday last.

Mr. J. J. McDonald has sold his farm to Mr. John Dewart, who takes possession March 1.

The Persistency With Which A Thief Follows His Victim

St. Louis, Feb. 22.—The persistency with which a thief will follow his intended victim from State to State and squander money was illustrated in the case of James C. Byrnes, a wealthy mine and ranch owner of Saratoga, Wyo., when Byrnes called at the Four Courts to report the loss of his purse. Before leaving his home two weeks ago Byrnes states that he went to Cheyenne, Wyo., and drew from a bank $4,000.

A stranger in the bank at the time followed Byrnes to the depot and boarded the same train. After the train had gone a few miles the stranger introduced himself. The two travelled together to St. Louis, back to Kansas City, thence to Durant, I. T. At the latter place the stranger took Byrnes riding through the country. Byrnes managed to give the man the slip one day in Durant and went out in the country and purchased a tract of land. This investment consumed most of the $4,000.

When he resumed travelling he found the stranger at his elbow. They came to St. Louis, where the stranger insisted on buying meals for Byrnes. As he began to walk through the revolving door at the postoffice, here two men behind him and the stranger pushed him hard. While there the stranger picked Byrnes' pocket, taking Byrnes' purse containing only $43, and then disappeared.

BLOW ON THE HEAD CHANGED HIS LIFE

A Chicago Lawyer Who Disappeared Thirteen Years After Highwayman's Assault is Found.

HIS MIND WAS A COMPLETE BLANK

Examiner Special

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 16th. "Jugged" in Chicago, eighteen years ago, and "awaking" three days later in Hammond, Ind., minus all the money he possessed and half of his clothing. Charles McGeo Williams, once a star University of Wisconsin baseball pitcher, a graduate of the Madison Law School, became temporarily a tramp. Given up for dead by his relatives and friends William's whereabouts remained a deep mystery until to-day, when he was found at Merrillville, Ind., by a friend of his youth. Williams' brother has been notified and the family re-united.

Declaring that his life is a wreck, caused by recurrent periods of loss of memory, due probably to a blow on the head, suffered at the hands of Chicago highwaymen, Williams has remained in obscurity all these years in spite of the repeated urgings of his wife whom he married in Merrillville that he write to his relatives in Wisconsin, and make known his whereabouts.

Williams came to Chicago in the latter part of June, 1894, to begin practising law. In July following he disappeared. Dean E. Bryant, of the Madison Law School, took a personal interest in the case, and engaged Chicago private detectives to trace the missing man. The detectives got no farther than the Higgs House, where Williams registered on July 3rd, and after a fruitless search of several months relatives and friends gave him up for dead.

This ends that portion of Williams' history, which was known before to-day, when he told the remaining portion himself.

"From the time that I walked out of the hotel on July 3rd," he said, until I came to myself in Hammond, three days later, my mind was completely a blank. My money, watch, and part of my clothing was gone.

"I wandered about the sand dunes through little villages, and finally I landed here in Merrillville. Since then at intervals my mind has played the same trick on me that it did at first. Sometimes the lapses continue for several hours and sometimes for several days.

Williams was married to Miss Clara Saxton of Merrillville, six years ago. They have no children. Mrs. Williams, who is 45 years old, three times her husband's senior, has never ceased her efforts to persuade him to make use of his education, instead of eking out a heavily living at jobs, as he has been doing.

Williams' family at White Water is one of the most prominent in that section of the Badger state. His father was a wealthy farmer, and a brother now conducts the farm homestead.

ALIVE AND KICKING WAS THE MESSAGE

From the Girl That Was Reported to Be Dead.

Charlotte, Mich., Feb. 17.—Is Marie Chappell dead? This question is bothering Charlotte relatives of the young woman who, who several months, has lived in Grand Rapids with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Chappell.

About ten days ago, Mrs. Frank Snyder, an aunt of the girl, received the startling news that her niece had died and the funeral services would be held at St. Andrew's Catholic Church the following day.

The communication was signed by Edith Adams, nurse, with the additional information that she had been requested to notify Mrs. Snyder. The address given by Edith Adams was 122 Third avenue. Mrs. Snyder wrote her sympathy to the family and sent clippings from the Charlotte papers relative to the deceased.

She received her reply this afternoon in the shape of a postal card from the "dead" girl.

The card read: "No. 464 East street, Grand Rapids; I am alive and kicking. I do not know who informed you of my death. Ever your niece, Mary Chappell."

The young woman is 18 years of age and has lived in Charlotte nearly all her life.

There are Thousands of Run-down Women.

Are You One of Them?

There are thousands of women here, there and everywhere, who are suffering from a run-down condition.

The tendency is, to let matters go, till serious illness or some chronic female weakness results.

Isn't this a foolish thing to do?

Don't do it. Get well. Be your old self again.

Do you ask, how? Do as Miss Clark and Mrs. Thomas did when they got run-down. They took Health Tablets.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets Make Healthy Women.

I was suffering from a run-down condition. My doctor gave me some brown tablets. I improved so much in two weeks that I congratulated my physician. He then told me I had been taking Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets.—Flora Clark, Island Pond, Vt.

The benefit secured from one box of Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets has been so great that I am satisfied one box more will effect what you claim for them, and make me again a healthy woman.—Mrs. Jennie Thomas, Dixville, Que.

Notice, too, that there was no waiting for results. Improvement began at once. And it always does. The 72 tablets in 50c box will start you on the road to health.

Crimson Blind

BY FRED M. WHITE

Author of "Tregarthen's Wife," "The Robe of Lucifer," Etc.

Copyright, 1906, by R. F. Fenno & Company.

"That is very kind of you," David said, modestly.

"One against Miss Enid Henson," Van Sneck went on. "I met that young lady once and I liked her; therefore, I say I will be no party to getting her into trouble. And Henson says I am one big fool, and that he is only giving Mr. Steel a lesson in the art of minding his own business. So I ask no further questions, though I am a good bit puzzled. With the last bank-notes I possess I go to a place called Walen's and buy the cigar-case that Henson says. I meet him and hand over the case and ask him for my money. Henson swears that he has no money at all, not even enough to repay me the price of the cigar-case. He has been disappointed. And I have been drinking. So I swear I will write and ask Mr. Steel to see me, and I do so."

"And you get an answer?" David asked.

"Sir, I do. You said you would see me the same night. It was a forgery?"

"It was. Henson had anticipated something like that. I know all about the forgery, how my notepaper was procured, and when the forgery was written. But that has very little to do with the story now. Please go on."

Van Sneck paused before he proceeded.

"I am not quite sober," he said. "I am hot with what I called my wrongs. I come here and ring the bell. The hall was in darkness. There was a light in the conservatory, but none in the study. Then the door of the study closed and locked behind me, and the electric light shot up. When I turned round I found myself face to face with Henson."

Van Sneck paused again and shuddered at some hideous recollection. His eyes were dark and eager; there was a warm moisture like varnish on his face.

"Even that discovery did not quite sober me," he went on. "I fancied it was some joke, or that perhaps I had got into the wrong house. But no, it was the room of a literary gentleman. I—I expected to see Mr. Steel come in or to try the door. Henson smiled at me. Such a smile! He asked me if I had the receipt for the cigar-case about me, and I said it was in my pocket. Then he smiled again, and something told me my life was in danger.

"I was getting pretty sober by that time. It came to me that I had been lured there; that Henson had got into the house during the absence of the owner. It was late at night in a quiet house, and nobody had seen me come. If that man liked to kill me he could do so and walk out of the house without the faintest chance of discovery. And he was twice my size, and a man without feeling. I looked round me furtively for a weapon.

"He saw my glance and understood it, and smiled again. I was trembling from head to foot now with a vague, nameless terror. From the very first I knew that I had not the smallest chance. Henson approached me and laid his hand on my shoulder. He wanted something, he gave that something a name. If I passed that something over to him I was free; if not——

"Well, gentlemen, I didn't believe him. He had made a discovery that frightened me. And I had what he wanted in my pocket. If I had handed it over to him he would not have spared me. As he approached me my foot slipped and I stumbled into the conservatory. I fell backwards. And then I recovered myself and defied Henson.

"'Fool,' he hissed, 'do you want to die?'

"But I knew that I should die in any case. Even then I could smile to myself as I thought how I could baffle my foe. Once, twice, three times he repeated his demands, and each time I was obdurate. I knew that he would kill me in any case.

"He came with a snarl of rage; there was a knife in his hand. I hurled a flower-pot at his head and missed him. The next instant and he had me by the throat. I felt his knife between my shoulders, then a stunning blow on the head, and till I woke here to-day I cannot recollect a single thing."

Van Sneck paused and wiped his face, wet with the horror of the recollection. David Steel gave Bell a significant glance, and the latter nodded.

"Was the thing that Henson wanted [illegible]

CHAPTER LIV.

Van Sneck looked up with some signs of confusion. He had not expected a question of that kind. There was just the suggestion of cunning on his face.

"A ring!" he murmured, vaguely. "A ring! What ring?"

"Now, look here," David said, sternly. "You are more or less in our power, you know, but we are not disposed to be hard on you so long as you are quite candid with us. Henson required something that he believed to be in your possession; indeed, you have as good as said you had it with you. Henson lured you into my house to get that more than anything else. That he would have killed you even after he got it, I firmly believe. But that is not the point. Now, was not Henson looking for Prince Rupert's ring that you got from him by means of a trick?"

Van Sneck dropped his hands helplessly on the bed.

"Gentlemen," he whined, "you are too much for me. The marvellous accuracy of your knowledge is absolutely overwhelming. It was the ring Henson was after."

"The one you stole from him years ago! But what did you know about it?"

Van Sneck smiled.

"There is no living man who knows more about those things than I do," he said. "It is a passion and a study with me. And some seven years ago, in Holland, Henson gave me the description of a ring he wanted me to copy. Henson never told me what the ring was called, but I knew it was the Prince Rupert ring. I made the copy, and Henson was pleased with it. Some time later he came to me with the original, and asked for another copy. I meant to be honest, but my love for those things got the better of me. I made him two copies: the one good, and the other an exact facsimile of the Prince Rupert. These I handed over to Henson, and he went away perfectly satisfied that he had a good copy and the original. I chuckled to myself, feeling pretty sure that he would never find out."

"But he did find out?" David said.

"Only lately. Probably he took it to an expert for valuation or perhaps for sale. Lately his idea was to offer the ring to Lord Littimer for a huge sum of money, but when he discovered he had been done he knew that Lord Littimer would not be so deceived. Also he had a pretty good idea that I should keep the ring about me. You see, I dared not sell an historic gem like that. And, as usual, Henson was perfectly right."

"Then you had the ring in your pocket the night you came here?" asked Steel, with a commendable effort at coolness. "Did Henson get it?"

"No, he didn't," Van Sneck chuckled. "Come what might, I had made up my mind that he should never see that ring again. You see, I was frightened and confused, and I was not properly sober, and I did something with the ring, though to save my life I couldn't say what I did. Do you know, Dr. Bell, I have lost my sense of smell?"

Steel wriggled impatiently about on his chair. The interruption was exasperating. Bell, however, seemed to take a different view of the matter altogether.

"Quite naturally," he said. "The blow on your head held all your senses suspended for a time. After the operation I should not have been surprised to have found you half blind and stone deaf into the bargain. But one thing is certain—your smell will come back to you. It may remain in abeyance for a few days, it may return in a few moments."

"What on earth has this to do with our interview?" David asked.

"I fancy a great deal," Bell said. "The sense of smell has a great deal to do with memory. Doesn't the scent of flowers bring back vivid recollections of things sometimes for years forgotten? Van Sneck was going to say the air was heavy with the fragrance of some particular blossom when he was struck down by Henson in your conservatory."

"Very clever man, Dr. Bell," Van Sneck said, admiringly. "He seems to see right through your mind and out at the other side. To a great extent I recollect all that happened that dreadful night. And just at the very last I seem to smell something powerful. That smell came to my nostrils just like a flash and then had gone again. Gentlemen, if I could have a good long scent at that flower I tell you what I did with that ring."

"Sounds rather complex," David said.

"Not a bit of it," Bell retorted. "Our friend is talking sound common sense, and our friend is going to rest now late into the afternoon, when we'll put him into an armchair with some pillows and let him sit in the conservatory. Associating with familiar surroundings frequently works wonders. Van Sneck, you go to sleep."

Van Sneck closed his eyes obediently. He was somewhat tired with the interview. But, on the whole, Bell decided that he was doing very well indeed. And there was very little more to be done for the present. The two men smoked their cigars peacefully.

"We have got to the end," Bell said.

"I fancy so," David murmured. "But we can't save the scandal. I don't see how Reginald Henson is going to get out of the mess without a prosecution."

Any further speculation as to the future of that engaging rascal was cut short by a pleasant surprise, no other than the unexpected arrival of Ruth Gates and Chris Henson. The latter was beaming with health and happiness; she had discarded her disguise, and stood confessed before all the world like the beautiful creature that she was.

"What does it all mean?" David asked. "What will Longdean village say?"

"What does Longdean village know?" Chris retorted. "They are vaguely aware that somebody was taken away from the house a short time ago to be buried, but that is all their knowledge. And there is no more need for disguise, Lord Littimer says. He knows pretty well everything. He has been very restless and uneasy for the past day or two, and yesterday he left saying that he had business in London. Early to-day I had a characteristic telegram from him saying that he was at Longdean, and that I was necessary to his comfort there. I was to come clothed in my right mind, and I was to bring Mr. Steel and Dr. Bell along."

"It can't be managed," said Bell. "We've got Van Sneck here."

"And I had forgotten all about him," said Chris. 'Was the operation successful?"

Bell told his budget of good news down to the story of the ring and the mysterious manner in which it had disappeared again. David had followed Ruth into the conservatory, where she stood with her dainty head buried over a rose.

She looked up with a warm, shy smile on her face.

"I hope you are satisfied," she said, "you are safe now?"

"I was never very much alarmed, dearest," Steel said. "If this thing had never happened I might never have met you. And as soon as this business is definitely settled I shall come and see your uncle. I am a very impatient man, Ruth."

"And you shall see my uncle when you please, dear," she said. "You will find him quite as charming as you say your mother is. What will she say?"

"Say? That you are the dearest and sweetest girl in the world, and that I am a lucky fellow. But you are not going off already?"

"Indeed, we must. We have a cab at the door. And I am going to brave the horrors of Longdean Grange and spend the night there. Only, I fancy that the horrors have gone for ever. I shall be very disappointed if you don't come to-morrow."

Behind a friendly palm David bent and kissed the shy lips, with a vow that he would see Longdean Grange on the morrow. Then Chris caught up Ruth with a whirl, and they were gone.

It was after ten that Bell and Steel managed to convey Van Sneck to the conservatory. The place was filled with brightness and scent and color and the afterglow of the sunshine. The artistic eye of the Dutchman lighted up with genuine pleasure.

"They say you islanders are crude and cold, and have no sense of the beautiful," he said. "But there are no houses anywhere to compare with those of the better-class Englishman. Look at those colors blending——"

"Hang those colors," said Bell, vigorously. "Steel, there is nothing like moisture to bring out the full fragrance of flowers. Turn on your hose and give your plants a good watering."

"It's the proper time," David laughed. "Turn on the tap for me."

A cooling stream played on the flowers; plants dropped their heads filled with the diamond moisture; the whole atmosphere was filled with the odor of moist earth. Then the air seemed laden with the mingled scent.

"I can smell the soil," Van Sneck cried. "How good it is to smell anything again! And I can just catch a suggestion of the perfume of something familiar. What's that red bloom?"

He pointed to a creeper growing up the wall. David broke off a spray.

"That's a kind of Japanese passion flower," he said. "It has a lovely full-flavored scent like a mixture of violets and almonds. Smell it."

Van Sneck placed the wet dripping spray to his nose. Just for an instant it conveyed nothing to him. Then he half rose with a triumphant cry.

"Steady there," said Bell. "You mustn't get up, you know. I see you are excited. Has it come back to you again?"

"That's the scent," Van Sneck cried. "The air was full of that as I fell backwards. And Henson stood over me exactly by that cracked tile where Mr. Steel is now. Give me a moment and I shall be able to tell you everything. . . . Oh, yes, the first time I slipped on purpose. I told you I stumbled. But that was a ruse. And as I fell I took the ring from my waistcoat-pocket. . . . Let me have another sniff of that bloom. Yes, I've got it now quite clear."

"You know where the ring is?" David asked, eagerly.

"Well, not quite that. I took it from my pocket and pitched it away from me . . . I saw it fall on to a pot covered with moss, but I can't say which pot or in which corner. I only know that I threw it over my shoulder, and that it dropped into the thick moss that lies on the top of all the pots. I laughed to myself as it fell, and I rejoiced to see that Henson knew nothing of it."

"And it is still here?" Bell demanded.

Van Sneck nodded solemnly.

"I swear it," he said. "Prince Rupert's ring is in this conservatory."

CHAPTER LV.

Reginald Henson had had more than one unpleasant surprise lately, but none so painful as the sight of Lord Littimer seated in the Longdean Grange drawing-room with the air of a man who is very much at home indeed.

The place was strangely changed, too. There was an air of neatness and order about the room that Henson had never seen before. The dust and dirt had absolutely vanished; it might have been the home of any ordinary wealthy and refined people. And all Lady Littimer's rags and patches had disappeared. She was dressed in somewhat old-fashioned style, but handsomely and well. She sat beside Littimer with a smile on her face. But the cloud seemed to have rolled from her mind; her eyes were clear, if a little frightened. From the glance that passed between Littimer and herself it was easy to see that the misunderstanding was no more.

"You are surprised to see me here?" said Littimer.

Henson stammered out something and shrank towards the door. Littimer ordered him back again. He came with a slinking, dogged air; he avoided the smiling contempt in Enid's eyes.

"My presence appears to be superfluous," he said, bitterly.

"And mine appears to be a surprise," Littimer replied. "Come, are you not glad to see me, my heir and successor? What has become of the old fawning, cringing smile? Why, if some of your future constituents could see you now they might be justified in imagining that you had done something wrong. Look at yourself."

"Littimer indicated a long gilt mirror on the opposite wall. Henson glanced at it involuntarily and dropped his eyes. Could that abject, white-faced sneak be himself? Was that the man whose fine presence and tender smile had charmed thousands? It seemed impossible.

"What have I done?" he asked.

"What have you not done?" Littimer thundered. "In the first place you did your best to ruin Hatherly Bell's life. You robbed me of a picture to do so, and your friend Merritt tried to rob me again. But I have both those pictures now. You found that because you were afraid of Bell—afraid lest he should see through your base motives. And you succeeded for a time, for the coast was clear. And then you proceeded to rob me of my son by one of the most contemptible tricks ever played by one on another. It was you who stole the money and the ring; you who brought about all that sorrow and trouble by means of a forgery. But there are other people on your track as well as myself. You were at your last gasp. You were coming to see me to sell that ring for a large sum to take you out of the country, and then you discovered that you hadn't really got the ring."

"What—what are you talking about?" Henson asked, feebly.

"Scoundrel!" Littimer cried. "Innocent and pure to the last. I know all about Van Sneck and those forgeries of Prince Rupert's ring. And I know how Van Sneck was nearly done to death in Mr. Steel's house; and I know why—good heavens! It seems impossible that I could have been deceived all these years by such a slimy, treacherous scoundrel. And I might have gone on still but for a woman——"

"A lady detective," Henson sneered. "Miss Lee."

Littimer smiled. It was good, after all, to defeat and hoodwink the rascal.

"Miss Chris Henson," he said. "It never occurred to you that Miss Chris and Miss Lee were one and the same person. You never guessed. And she played with you as if you had been a child. How beautifully she exposed you over those pictures. Ah, you should have seen your face when you saw the stolen Rembrandt back again in its place. And after that you were mad enough to think that I trusted you. My dear, what shall we do with this pretty fellow?"

Lady Littimer shook her head doubtfully. It was plain that the presence of Henson disturbed her. There was just a suggestion of the old madness in her eyes.

"Send him away," she said.

"Send him away by all means," Littimer went on. "But letting him go is another matter. If we do the police will pick him up on other charges. There is a certain consolation in knowing that his evil career is likely to be shortened by some years. But I shall have no mercy. Scotland Yard shall know everything."

There was a cold ring in Littimer's voice that told Henson of his determination to carry out his threat. The other troubles he might wriggle out of, but this one was terribly real. It was time to try conciliation.

"It will be a terrible scandal for the family, my lord," he whined.

Littimer rose to his feet. A sudden anger flared into his eyes. He was a smaller man than Henson, but the latter cowed before him.

"You dog!" he cried. "What greater scandal than that of the past few years? Does not all the world know that there is, or has been, some heavy cloud over the family honor? Lord and Lady Littimer have parted, and her ladyship has gone away. That is only part of what the gossips have said. And in these domestic differences it is always the woman who suffers. Everybody always says that the woman has done something wrong. For years my wife has been under this stigma. If she had chosen to keep before the world after she left me most people would have ignored her. And you talk to me of a family scandal!"

"You will only make bad worse, my lord."

"No," Littimer cried. "I am going to make bad infinitely better. We come together again, but we say nothing of the past. And the world sneers and says the past is ignored for politic considerations. And so the public is going to know the truth, you dog. The whole facts of the case have gone to my solicitor, and by this time to-morrow a warrant will be issued against you. And I shall stand in open court and tell the whole world my story."

Will be continued next Saturday.

GROWING OLD WHILE YET YOUNG

What a number of women there are who feel that these words exactly suit their case.

There are thousands of females all over our land, broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with disease peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young.

From early morn till late at night they have been on the go year after year, attending to the household duties. Is it any wonder then that sooner or later there comes a general collapse? Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, weakness, dizziness, sleeplessness and many other troubles follow. What a woman wants is something to build up the system and for this purpose you cannot equal

POSSIBLE ACCOMPLICE.

Mrs. Harry Thaw May Be Indicted—Life In Paris and New York —Witness In Tears.

New York, Feb. 23.—Under the stress of a cross-examination in which District Attorney Jerome gave no quarter, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw broke down yesterday upon the witness stand.

With blinding tears burning their way down cheeks which, from ashen white, flushed to crimson, she admitted that after her first experience with Stanford White her relations with the architect continued several months.

Thaw, his face buried in his hands, might easily have been out of the courtroom picture to-day, for none would have missed him. All eyes were upon the witness chair, the slight woman in blue who sat in it.

During the morning yesterday, and at all times heretofore, Mrs. Thaw has had to rest on the edge of the chair in order that her feet might reach the floor. To make her more comfortable for the ordeal still before her, a footstool and back cushion were provided during the afternoon.

Adjourned Till Monday.

At the close of the most eventful day of the trial, Mr. Jerome announced that probably he would keep her under fire for two more days. Adjournment was taken until Monday morning, being a holiday (Washington's birthday.)

There was no subject affecting the witness of so intimate a nature that the district attorney hesitated to hold it before the gaze of the world, all the while requiring that she recognise and own the fault in her own damning words.

When Mr. Jerome was flaying the witness with questions as to her relations with White, carrying her from place to place, and demanding to know every detail, and while bitter tears were welling to her eyes, two newspaper women, accustomed to harsher scenes of life, left their places in the courtroom and made a hasty retreat out of the big portals.

Was Not Drugged.

At last the prosecutor himself relented somewhat and suggested that the proceedings be suspended. Mr. Delmas thought he detected an unfavorable slant to this and protested that the witness would be able to proceed. Mrs. Thaw wiped her eyes, stiffened up a bit and nodded to Mr. Jerome to go on.

After bringing out that her relations with White continued for some time. Mr. Jerome went deeper. Mrs. Thaw admitted with astonishing frankness that the champagne which she had declared tasted bitter the night she lost consciousness in the mirrored bedroom, was no more bitter than other champagne she ever drank. In fact, she declared it tasted like all the rest. She denied that she intended the jury to assume otherwise.

Mrs. Thaw made what was considered perhaps her most damaging statement to the defendant when she said she had showed Thaw copies of cablegrams that were being sent to Stanford White from Europe asking him to use his influence with a certain man in London to prevent Mrs. Nesbit from "raising a fuss," and from interfering with her daughter Evelyn remaining in the company of Thaw.

Financed by White.

Mrs. Thaw was also forced to admit that when she and her mother went abroad with Thaw in 1903 they were still drawing upon the bounty of Stanford White.

Mr. Jerome dwelt for a long while upon the cablegrams which Thaw is said to have sent to White. He brought out that the cablegrams were sent after Thaw knew of the relations which had existed between Miss Nesbit and the architect.

May Indict Witness.

There seemed to be nothing in the witness' past life of which the prosecutor was not informed.

But the sensations did not all come from the district attorney. Mr. Delmas sent a thrill through the courtroom by declaring that he had been informed was the purpose of Mr. Jerome to indict Mrs. Thaw. Mr. Jerome denied that any such statements had been made, but he did not deny such a purpose.

Suicides.

Winnipeg, Feb. 23.—John L. Strusy, a real estate dealer, committed suicide in the Strathcona Hotel last evening by shooting.

Some think water

pure because it is carbonated—charged with carbonic acid gas. That is wrong. ¶ Carbonating water doesn't purify it. Carbonic acid gas doesn't cleanse water. ¶ Plenty of carbonated waters are just ordinary city water, charged with gas. That gas is mostly made by the action of sulphuric acid on whiting (such as is used for calcimining), or from the fumes of burning coke. Pleasant, isn't it? ¶ Even spring waters that are naturally fizzy, carbonated far within the earth, are not always safe to drink. Natural carbonation is likely to load water with more lime or magnesia than the system ought to get. So a natural fizzy water may be wholesome and it may not. ¶ The safe way—doctors think the only safe way—for people who like carbonated water, either plain as a beverage, or as a diluent for spirits—is to get an ideally pure spring water, charged with purified carbonic acid gas, and ¶ Carbonated and bottled under absolutely safe, cleanly, and scrupulously sanitary conditions. ¶ Water like that is zestful, refreshing, wholesome, and enhances the flavor of whatever it dilutes —liquors especially. ¶ The water that surely meets every requirement is sold in your neighborhood by merchants who care for the custom of particular people, and in your city by the right kind of hotels, bars and clubs. It is worth asking for; and it is labelled

HELP FOR THE ONTARIO SMELTERS

Will Pay Bonus On Ores Refined In Province.

NEW JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Mines Act Amended to Reduce License Fees—Increase the Powers of Railway and Municipal Board—Bill to Encourage Refining of Metals—Petitions Against the Three-Fifths Clause.

Toronto, Feb. 22.—That the bill introduced by Hon. Mr. Cochrane, Minister of Mines, to encourage the refining of metals in Ontario, did not go far enough, was the claim made by Mr. C. N. Smith, the member for Sault Ste. Marie, in the Legislature yesterday afternoon. The bill, which was up for a second reading, provides a bonus of six cents for the refining of metallic nickel and the same for metallic cobalt. For refining metallic copper one and one-half cents is to be paid, according to the bill, and on white arsenic one-half cent a pound. Mr. Smith thought a straight bonus would be better instead of so much per pound.

Local Option Petitions.

Again the proceedings of the House were prefaced by the presentation of a number of petitions from churches and church organizations asking for the repeal of the three-fifths clause in the local option act. Two of these were presented by the Attorney-General, Hon. J. J. Foy.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane moved the second reading of his "bill to encourage mines act of 1906. He explained that since the act came into force last May there had not been an appeal to the Divisional Court on the decisions of the Mining Commissioner. The amendment which he proposed to adopt was simply to make the clauses more clear, so that only one meaning could be taken from them. There had been a minor change in regard to miners' licenses. It was felt that it would be well to reduce the license fees to $10 and on the other hand to raise the filing application to $10. It was felt that the miner would prefer to pay the filing claim, for then he would have the knowledge that he had something to warrant the expenditure.

Mr. Harcourt (Monck) thought that while the bill might be ideal for Cobalt, it might not be satisfactory for other parts of the Province where the discoveries were not so rich.

Mr. Cochrane replied that no such representation had been made to him, and he could not see why there should be any difference in the application of the law in different parts of the Province.

Mr. Harcourt retorted that his point of view was perfectly clear to members on his side of the House.

The House will go into Committee of the Whole on the bill, and it is on the order paper for to-day.

Refining of Ontario Ores.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane moved the second reading of his "bill o encourage the refining of metals in Ontario." At the outset the Minister stated that Ontario's supply of nickel, corundum and cobalt was the finest in the world, yet it could not be bought in this country in a refined state unless first imported. He felt that by the offering of a bonus for the refining of these metals it would encourage their treatment in this country. The Minister stated that it was the Government proposal to lump the nickel bounty to $80,000, on cobalt to $30,000, on copper to $60,000, and on arsenic to $15,000. The bounty on arsenic, the Minister explained, was not applicable to Cobalt, owing to the bonus being otherwise appropriated to the output of that district. The arsenic bounty would apply to the output of Hastings county, the deposits of Temagami, Port Arthur and elsewhere in the Province. The Province would derive more than enough revenue from the tax on mines to offset the bonuses, and the whole of Ontario would derive some benefit from the measure.

Did Not Go Far Enough.

Mr. Smith (Sault Ste. Marie) thought the terms of the measure might be extended so as to include iron, and particularly iron of the Bessemer grade. Mr. Smith thought that if the proper encouragement were given, prospectors might be induced to try and find such a metal. It seemed to him that were a straight bonus offered capitalists for refining purposes it would be better than a bonus at so much per pound, as proposed.

The bill will be considered in Committee of the Whole House to-day.

Hon. Mr. Hendrie moved the second reading of bills to amend the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board act, to amend the Ontario railway act, and of an act respecting certain railway and other corporations. It had been found impracticable for returns to be made by the railways to the boards in three months, and the time had been changed to the 31st of June of each year, Mr. Hendrie explained.

The bills will be on the order paper to-day for disposal.

Mr. Foy, in explaining his bill to amend the registry act, said the changes were the results of the investigations of the inspector, who found some of the offices in a somewhat deplorable state. Mr. Harcourt thought that they would hear from the Registrars themselves and the County Councils in a few days.

For Government Ownership.

Regina, Sask., Feb. 23.—The Saskatchewan Grain Growers' Association passed a resolution yesterday regarding Government elevators to the effect that the problem of marketing the wheat crop of Western Canada can best be solved by Government control of all terminal elevators and the establishment of a system of internal elevators, the whole to be operated by a commission appointed by the Government railway commission and grain growers in the province, the whole cost to be borne by the grain trade.

A strong resolution was also passed advocating Government telephones.

Saskatchewan's Yield.

Winnipeg, Feb. 23.—The commissioner of agriculture of Saskatchewan Province states that the total wheat crop of the province last season was thirty-seven million bushels, an average of 20.40 per acre, an increase of eleven million bushels over the preceding year, only five per cent. of available land being cultivated.

WEAKENED BY LA GRIPPE

Health and Strength Regained Through Dr. Williams Pink Pills

The after effects of la grippe are more serious than the disease itself. Its victims are left low spirited and depressed; they are tortured with headaches and backaches; fever and chills. It leaves the sufferer an easy prey to bronchitis, pneumonia, rheumatism and often that most dreaded of all diseases, consumption. For the after effects of la grippe there is absolutely no medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose helps make new, rich, red blood that drives disease from the system, and makes weak despondent men and women bright, cheerful and strong. Miss Eugenie Donaldson, of St. Jerome, Que., found a cure through these pills after other remedies had failed to help her. She says: "I took la grippe and did not seem able to shake it off. It developed into bronchitis; I coughed day and night and grew so weak that I could hardly move about. I tried remedy after remedy but as nothing seemed to help me I began to dread that consumption was developing and that my case was incurable. A friend urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and following that advice I got a supply. For two months I took the pills faithfully, following the directions given for their use. I am thankful I did so for they fully restored my strength and I have since enjoyed perfect health. I will always advise sick and ailing people to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial for I firmly believe that they will find great benefit from their use."

Rich, red blood is the one thing needed to maintain health and strength. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make rich, red blood. That is the reason of their great popularity in every country in the world. That is why they cure anaemia, general weakness, rheumatism, neuralgia, indigestion, St. Vitus' dance, partial paralysis and the ills of girlhood and womanhood, with all its distressing headaches, sideaches and backaches. See that you get the genuine pills with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around each box. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Island of Jersey.

There was a time when a reverend bishop always walked from France to Jersey on a plank. This sounds somewhat like a modern Blondin performance, and one could imagine the crowd that would assemble to witness such a feat. In reality it was an event of common occurrence during the sixth century. Existing documents relative to the monastery of Mont St. Michel, in Normandy, reveal the fact that the island was separated from the French district of Coutances by a narrow stream only and that the stream was bridged by a single plank. The inhabitants of Jersey were compelled to keep this plank in good repair, for it was used by the bishop of the diocese when he made his periodical visits to that portion of his flock, and the worthy prelate desired to make the crossing in safety. In the year 709 and again in the year 824 there were seismic disturbances, called by ancient writers "cataclysms," which submerged towns and forests on the French coast, thus widening the stretch of water and making the separation of Jersey more complete.—London Standard.

Potted Revenge.

When the social climber heard that her ultra fashionable rival was to give the swellest supper of the year her jealousy knew no bounds. The next day, however, she was smiling in wicked triumph.

"Revenge!" she whispered. "Revenge is sweet! When that supper comes off, there will not be a single guest present."

"Gracious!" gasped her maid. "What has madam done?"

"What have I done? Why, I have simply bribed the butler to tamper with the announcement and change 'potted plants' to 'potted hams.' And yet they say that women have no brains." Chicago News.

THE LOOMS OF INDIA.

Wonderful Work That Has Been Done By the Natives—Almost Impalpable Tissues of Muslin.

The manufacture of cotton in India dates back to its earliest history. There are allusions to it connected with India in the Bible. In old Sanskrit records mention is made of it being used in India nearly 3,000 years ago. At the time of Alexander's invasion of India the dress of the Hindoos was described as consisting largely of calicoes, pure white or having figures. Among the imports into Europe during the first century, enumerated by the elder Pliny, muslins and calicoes from India are described as of superior quality.

Perhaps the earliest notice of cotton is by Herodotus, about 450 B.C., who speaks of the trees of India bearing as their fruit fleeces more delicate and beautiful than those of sheep and of the Indians using them for the manufacture of cloth. From India cotton cloth was gradually introduced into Greece, Rome and Sicily before the Christian era. Cotton awnings were used in the theatre at the Apollinarian games, and Caesar afterward covered the Roman forum with them, as also the sacred way from his own house to the Capitolian hill, which is said to have appeared more wonderful than the gladiatorial exhibition itself.

The cotton fabrics of the Hindoos have been excelled in fineness and excellence only by the productions of the most perfect machines of modern times. By these people were made the fine muslins known to the Greeks by a name which referred to their coming from the borders of the Ganges.

The City of Calicut, on the Malabar coast, which, with Surat, was an ancient cotton mart for the supply of the more western nations of Asia, gave its name to the variety of the fabric known as "calico." Some qualities of these were "so fine that one could hardly feel them in the hand, and the thread when spun is scarcely discernible." Dacca, once a considerable and wealthy city, lying to the northeast of Calcutta, sent out from its looms in the early centuries those wonderful tissues of fine muslins made from a staple too short to be woven by any machinery, named on account of their fineness "Abrawan," or "flowing water," "Shabman," or "evening dew."

Even after the advent of the English in India there is an instance recorded regarding the fineness of a piece of muslin twenty yards long and one-quarter yard wide, weighing only fourteen ounces. With the rudest of implements the Hindoo women spun those almost impalpable threads and wove fabrics that for fineness of quality have never been successfully imitated elsewhere. With the decay of the native Hindoo courts, the chief customers, the demand ceased, and the manufacture has entirely stopped. Dacca to-day exhibits little more than a ruin.

Weaving in India divides itself into two branches—hand loom and power loom weaving. The proportion of hand loom made cloth to power loom is fully two to one—that is, there is about twice as much hand loom cloth made in India as there is power loom made cloth.

The native hand loom is a most primitive affair. The Indian hand loom as it now is is the same as it was some thirty centuries ago. The old English fly shuttle hand loom of a century ago is ages in advance of the hand loom now in general use by the native weavers throughout India. Of course there are a number of fly shuttle looms in successful use in certain localities — for instance, those now in the mission schools, first introduced by the Danish or German Lutheran missionaries in Madras, and though in some instances they have met with a certain degree of success, yet they have not succeeded in inducing the native weaver to take to the "fly shuttle" in the same businesslike way as was done in Europe and in America in the days of our grandparents.

The power loom can make cloth, if not possibly better, certainly cheaper, than the hand loom, but on account of the disability under which manufacture labors in India the power loom is not worked to its full productive capacity.

Outside competition and advancement in the art of weaving will eventually force the improvement of the Indian power loom weaver and with the coming of that condition will witness the beginning of the end of the hand loom industry. It is claimed by the more conservative that it is perhaps well that India should keep to the hand loom, but this is the same economic question that has so often arisen in other and more advanced nations. America and European countries have had to face it before now, and as they have solved it so may India.—New York Herald.

TO PREVENT BRONCHITIS or CONSUMPTION

Do not neglect a cold or cough no matter how slight as the irritation spreading throughout the delicate lining of the sensitive air passages sooner or later will lead to fatal results.

If on the first appearance of a cough or cold you would take a few doses of you would save yourself a great deal of unnecessary suffering.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree combined with Wild Cherry Bark and other pectoral remedies.

It stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation and subdues inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts, loosens the phlegm and mucous, and aids nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulations.

Miss Belle Campbell, Long River, P.E.I., writes: "For some time I was troubled with bronchitis. A friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. So I procured three bottles but it only took two to cure me."

Be careful when purchasing to see that you get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark and the price 25 cents. All dealers.

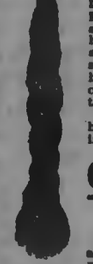
TO IMPROVE YOUR APPEARANCE

Retain your youthful freshness so that no one can remark, "she is past her prime." To appear younger and more attractive than the average woman, you must be particular that your Hair shows no sign of being thin, short or scraggy. A DORENWEND TRANSFORMATION, POMPADOUR, WAVE, CURL or SWITCH will substitute nature's defects. Even if you have plenty of your own hair, these light and airy artifices may be worn over it, saving you the worry of arranging your hair in the prevailing style. Your hair can be perfectly matched in color and texture, so that detection is out of the question.

Now, if you have in your mind any prejudice regarding artificial hair, it will forever be dispelled after seeing how natural and becoming our productions will prove in your case.



CONSULT PROFESSOR DORENWEND

DURING THIS VISIT

Advice regarding your hair and how you can make the most of it, also a personal demonstration of the newest styles in transformations, will be given the same as at our establishment in Toronto. Bear in mind that our styles are originated and designed by Professor Dorenwend, and they cannot be procured from any other makers. Their equal have yet to be produced.

MAN TO MAN—ABOUT BALDNESS

If you are bald, or partially so, you must realize that it makes you look old. Notwithstanding the desire to have back your one time bushy head of hair, you hesitate before wearing a natural hair covering simply because you imagine it is going to be noticed by others. Now you never made a greater mistake. Thousands of men, who thought the same as you do, are to-day wearing a

and instead of carrying the handicap, that baldness proved to them, they are now enjoying the advantage of "looking young"—and that is what counts to-day in business and social life. Our Patent Toupee is a featherweight fac-simile of your own natural hair and may be worn without fear of detection—impossible to remove from the head unless it will—not the least clumsy or uncomfortable. They act as a protection, preventing colds and catarrh, so common to bald men.

Now do not neglect this opportunity—come and see for yourself. A few minutes' demonstration will convince you that a Dorenwend Patent Toupee is not like the clumsy, wiggy affairs that are claimed to be "just as natural."

Burleigh and Anstruther Townships Do Not Owe Anything—Latest News From Apsley.

Examiner Special.

Apsley, Feb. 20.—Mr. Lord gave a phonograph concert on Monday evening. This is the second Mr. Lord has given, and both were well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Howland, of Regina, are the guest of Mrs. T. Eastland. Mr. Howland is an old Apsley boy.

Mr. Frank Young spent Sunday at Young's Point.

Mr. A. Brady spent last Sunday at Coe Hill.

A meeting of the council has been called for Wednesday.

The papers have lately published some statements concerning the small-pox debt in the back country. We would like to correct that report by saying the whole small-pox debt was paid out of current expenditure at the close of the epidemic over a year ago and not a dollar is owing by the townships of Burleigh and Anstruther.

There has been a number of small dances in the village lately which the young people have enjoyed.

The people of the village all got their ice in this week.

A Jew pedlar was the cause of a great deal of fun on Wednesday evening to the boys, they undertaking to help him dispose of his goods by auction.

Miss Jessie Reid, of Burleigh, was the guest of Miss Hattie Eastland on Sunday.

A good story was told on one of our young men who evidently is an love; for in the morning when his sister went out to the barn she found one cow with two ropes around its neck and the other one without any.

Mr. H. Eastland spent Sunday in Coe Hill.

Mr. Lord intends holding services every Wednesday and Friday night during Lent.

Is Being Looked Forward To—News Items From the Village.

Examiner Special.

Omemee, Feb. 19. — The village is quite lively at the present time. The farmers are busy getting their winter's work done. Quite a quantity of timber has been taken out.

Many of our farmers continue to drive to Peterborough every Saturday to attend the fine market.

The Rev. Mr. Peakory is meeting with large and appreciative congregations.

Prof. Cecil Forsythe of Peterborough, will give an entertainment the auspices of the Woodmen here, on February 26th, and the event should attract a large House.

Our hockey team has on three matches this week—with Lakefield, Bobcaygeon and a good club in Lindsay.

A musical treat is expected here in the visit of the famous S. A. band of Peterborough, next Saturday and Sunday.

A VERY EXCITING HOCKEY GAME

Examiner Special.

Bridgenorth, Feb. 20. — Blustery weather. St. Valentine's Day is over.

The thermometer is kept busy this weather, first one extreme and then the other.

Mr. Burritt Kelly is spending a few days under the parental roof.

Mr. Wm. Irwin, Peterborough, was in the village Tuesday on business.

Mr. Wm. Niabolla was at the hockey match Saturday.

Mr. Noble Kelly is in the back country this week measuring logs.

Miss M. Blewett, Lindsay, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Telford across the pond.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kelly, who have been confined to their home for the past ten days, have recovered sufficiently to be able to be out.

Mr. James and Miss Edna Blewett, Selwyn, spent Sunday with the Telford family in Ennismore.

Mr. Nathan Taylor is confined to his room with a severe attack of lagrippe.

Mrs. Pat. Gereghty has returned home again after having spent a couple of months visiting a sister in Boston.

Mrs. Norman McConkey spent last week visiting relatives at Selwyn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. McConkey and family are staying with Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Bell this month.

Mr. G. J. Jopling and family who have been stricken with that dread disease lagrippe have all recovered sufficiently to be able to assume their usual duties.

Rev. Mr. Metzler is conducting a series of revival meetings in the Methodist Church here. A large number of members and converts have gone up to the altar and expressed a desire to have their sins forgiven that they may hereafter live a pure and holy life, and also to pray for the unsaved.

Court Chemong, C.O.F. will hold their regular meeting Friday night, February 22. All members are requested to be present as business of importance is slated for that evening. An organizer is to spend the evening with the Foresters and if arrangements can be made to have him remain for a week or ten days, no doubt they will give him a right royal welcome such as is customary with the C.O.F. Bro. R. Scott, who at present is in Lakefield, and Bro. J. N. Telford, who is touring the county of Peterborough in the capacity of president of the Farmers' Institute, have kindly consented to address the members Friday evening, the former on "Protection and care of the widows," and the latter on "Why farmers hesitate to become Foresters before they reach the age limit."

The Buckhorn hockey team, accompanied by a few of their supporters, drove to Bridgenorth Saturday afternoon and played a friendly game with the local team here. The game was not the style of hockey the boys here dish out, as there was a heavy snowstorm in the afternoon, and it was impossible to keep the open-air rink clear. However, the locals succeeded in defeating the visitors by 4 goals to 1. Noble Kelly in goal was kept busy and stopped some hot shots. A number of players who lost their wind were given a chance to regain consciousness by decorating the boards. Burritt Kelly as referee gave good satisfaction, as he made the boys play hockey. About 200 spectators saw the game. After the match the visitors were taken in hand by the local team, and were tendered a banquet and supper at Mr. Thos. Block's residence. Much credit is due to Mr. and Mrs. Block for the able manner in which this part of the programme was carried out. The evening's entertainment was brought to a close by a few gramophone selections, and songs. Considerable delay was occasioned when the party were about to start on their long drive home. One of the party, a young man, could not be found, after considerable delay, and they decided to return without him. However, just about a mile east of the village they discovered their lost man entangled in a wire fence. They at once made haste to rescue him, which was done without much difficulty. When he joined the party all joined in singing "For he's a jolly Good Fellow." The young gentleman requested that his name be kept out of the press. However, his initials are, H. Mellmoyle.

Mr. N. G. Bell, who is engaged in the woods taking out ties and posts on the latter's farm, had a rather exciting experience last week. There is a shanty in the woods where George drives during the cold weather, when the mercury goes down to 24 below zero. One night George's nose became trimmed up with Jack Frost, and his moustache froze to the pillow. However an application of pine tar gave him ease and he has recovered.

Mr. Richard Fairbairn came down from the head of the lake on Saturday to see the hockey match.

Mr. E. Telford drove into Peterborough on Sunday morning to see some friends. On his return trip he got slightly mixed up on the concessions, which way they ran, and finally landed at Selwyn. Here he met some more friends who persuaded him to remain for tea, after which he accompanied some of the young ladies to church at Lakefield. He returned home on Monday morning.

TOO TIRED TO STIR!

ARE YOU ONE OF THE

WEAK WOMEN

To Become Bright, Happy and Healthy?—Use Ferrozone.

Modern life makes demands on every woman's strength that seem impossible to meet. Only the robust and strong can stand the strain. The weak, with their delicately balanced organisms, must fail. Blood gets thin, it's innutritious. Nerves go to smash, vitality declines, and then follows misery and suffering caused by interference with certain functions upon which the very existence of every female depends.

Don't let your condition grow worse. Check the decline of vital force before it is too late! The one sure remedy is Ferrozone—not a temporary stimulant—but an uplifting nutritive tonic that contains the kind of building material a weak body requires.

FERROZONE revitalizes the system by putting new life into the blood. Not only does it nourish the ordinary blood supply—it does more, it makes new blood, the rich, red kind that denotes health.

Energy is reinforced, strength is steadily and surely rebuilt. Keen appetite, strong nerves, more restful sleep, buoyant feelings, all tell of the enormous good Ferrozone invariably accomplishes. For restoring the weak, the pale, the despondent, there is no treatment so instant and permanent in effect as Ferrozone. A trial proves this. Won't you use Ferrozone yourself? It will surely make you well—its effect is instant.

BUILT UP HER STRENGTH

Mrs. M. E. Etherington, a well known merchant's wife, of Troy, writes: "I am quite willing to give a public testimonial for Ferrozone, believing it to be a tonic of superior excellence, and one that will rapidly build up strength and supply new energy to anyone not feeling well. Last Spring I was in a very poor condition of health. I was nervous, felt tired and completely worn out. No doubt it is quite a common complaint with ladies of my age, but I placed great reliance in Ferrozone, and took it for several weeks. It made me quite strong, and, in fact, I have been in better health ever since. I can heartily recommend Ferrozone."

Ferrozone Assures Good Health!

WARNING! Beware of the substitutor who urges you to accept something "just as good." Only FERROZONE can cure satisfactorily—see you get it, and nothing else. WARSAW FORESTERS INCREASE IN NUMBERS

A Most Successful Campaign for New Members Has Recently Been Closed—A Creditable Institution.

MEMBERSHIP NOW OVER ONE HUNDRED

Special Wire to The Examiner.

Warsaw, Feb. 20.—The Canadian Order of Foresters on Tuesday night closed one of the most successful campaigns for new members in the history of the Court, when the membership was raised to over one hundred. The campaign was under the leadership of Mr. G. R. Keys, an organizer for the Society, and was very ably managed. It was also a record-breaker for the organizer, and the number of new members was considerably in excess of previous records for the same length of time. The Court now stands among the largest in the county and as it has the most prominent citizens of the community, it is certainly a most creditable institution.

VICTORIA CROSS.

Heroes of the British Army Who Are to Be Remembered.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of the decoration of the Victoria Cross being delivered to the representatives of the undermentioned officers and men who fell in the performance of acts of valor, and with reference to whom it was notified on various dates in the London Gazette that they would have been recommended to her late Majesty for the Victoria Cross had they survived. The acts of bravery are recounted in the London Gazette, and, briefly, were as follows:

Private Edward Spence, 42nd Regiment, at attack of the Fort of Ruhya, April 15, 1858, volunteered with Lance-Corporal Thompson to assist in rescuing the body of an officer. Private Spence dauntlessly placed himself in an exposed position so as to cover the party bearing away the body.

Ensign Everard Aloysius Lisle Phillips, of the 11th Regiment Bengal Native Infantry, performed many gallant deeds during the siege of Delhi; wounded three times; killed in streets, September 18, 1859.

Lieutenant T. Melvill, 24th Foot; efforts to save the Queen's Color at Isandlwanha, 1879.

Lieutenant N. J. A. Coghill, 24th Foot; efforts to save a brother officer's life, Isandlwanha, 1879.

Trooper F. W. Baxter, Bulawayo Field Force; dismounted and gave his horse to wounded comrade when closely pursued, April 22, 1896.

Lieutenant H. L. S. MacLean, Indian Staff Corps; heroism in rescuing comrade at Vama Kili, Upper Surat, 1897.

Grass Snakes.

The somewhat natural prejudice which exists against vipers is extended, unfortunately—though not, perhaps, unnaturally—to everything resembling a snake, and on this account the common grass snake is often needlessly destroyed. It is perfectly harmless and in its fresh grayish green skin is quite unmistakable, yet if suddenly encountered in a hedgerow or issuing from a ditch death is generally its portion. The way in which, on its own account, it deals death to frogs is somewhat awful in the denouement. The victim, seeming to realize the hopelessness of any attempt to escape, becomes literally paralyzed with fright and, leaping with enfeebled power, is soon seized by a hinder leg and drawn into the jaws of the enemy. The adder's method of feeding is similar, but death is more speedy from the wound inflicted by its tubular teeth. The grass snake altogether lacks these teeth and swallows its prey alive. A frog has been heard to scream after being entombed.—London Times.

It Isn't Due.

"I wouldn't marry the best man on earth."

"Well, don't worry. It isn't customary for the bride to marry the best man."

The "Jolts" and "Jars" of Life are what use people up.

Most people live pretty well up to the limit of their powers, and so long as everything goes smoothly that is apparently all right; but a "jolt" or a "jar" in the shape of business worries, domestic anxieties, or an attack of La Grippe, Pneumonia, Typhoid, or other wasting disease, suddenly reveals the fact that there is a sad lack of reserve force to meet these contingencies and the result is serious, often fatal. A wise man will see to it that his system is fully fortified against sudden attack. To attain this result nothing is so sure and effective as

FERROL

This fact has been fully established by actual experience. If, therefore, you feel you are not in first-class shape physically, do not fail to take a course of FERROL at once. It contains Cod Liver Oil, Iron and Phosphorus—just what you need, it is easy to take, never fails, and you

TO MOUNT RUWENZORI

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI TAKES GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY.

Lectures Before King Edward, Who Pays Him a Splendid Tribute, on His Nile Discoveries—Royal Explorer's Thrilling Account of His Recent Explorations of the Snowy Mountains in the Heart of Africa.

The Duke of the Abruzzi is only 34 years old, but he has already won distinction in the Arctic zone as well as in equatorial regions. He is pale, thin, and good looking, with flashing black eyes, and a charming manner of speaking English. He called his recent lecture, delivered to the Royal Geographical Society at Queen's Hall, London, Eng., "The Snows of the Nile," and gave a thrilling account of his recent exploration of the snowy summits known as Ruwenzori, in the heart of equatorial Africa, and between two of the great lakes of the Nile sources, the Albert and Albert Edward.

The range, he said, was probably seen for the first time by Europeans by Sir S. Baker in 1864, and later by Gessi in 1876. Neither traveler formed any exact idea of the importance of the ranges, and to Sir Henry Stanley was reserved the distinction of being the true discoverer. Stanley saw the mountain in 1888, and in the following year traversed its western slopes, while one of his companions, Lieut. Stairs, climbed to a height of 10,677 feet on its northwestern spurs.

From among the various native designations of the range Stanley chose that of Ruwenzori, which means "Rainmaker," and he identified the range with Ptolemy's Mountains of the Moon. Ruwenzori was the only snowy range in the Nile basin, added the duke, and therefore the only mountain that met Ptolemy's statement that the Nile was fed from mountain snows.

After describing previous attempts to explore the mountain, the duke told how, on April 16 last, his expedition started from Naples to Mombasa, and went by rail to Kisumu or Port Florence, having made in 48 hours a journey which a few years ago took nearly three months to accomplish. Thence they traversed Lake Victoria by steamboat, arriving at Entebbe, or Port Alice, on May 7. A week after a formidable caravan of over 400 native carriers, soldiers, "boys," and grooms set out on a 15 days' march to Fort Portal.

After describing the big game observed on the march, the games and dances of the natives, the visits of chiefs to the caravan offering food (carried by women), the young explorer told of his first glimpse of the lofty snow peaks of Ruwenzori, and an excellent photograph of the view was thrown on the screen to awaken applause.

Thence afterwards, though the duke did not say so, it was a dogged climb upwards to Ibanda and Bibunga, which latter is 6,320 feet above sea-level. Here are the last huts of the Bakonjo mountaineers, of gentle manners and peaceable habits, who, despite the rigors of the climate, go habitually naked. There were slippery descents into villages, climbs up steep spurs, wrestlings with swamps, drenchings by rain and moisture. The duke spoke cheerfully of them as being all in the day's work. Some of the native followers stuck bravely to the expedition until a height of 13,780 feet was reached. Then they were left behind. For the three days of June 12, 13, and 14 rain kept the expedition prisoners at Bujongolo.

"We remained during these three interminable days confined in the narrow dungeon and buried in dark, dank fog.

"It was 11.30," continued the duke. "A fresh breeze blew from the southeast; the clouds swept past but a few yards under us, leaving clear only the two peaks, that we had left and that on which we were standing. And to these summits, the only ones in view at this moment which crowned my efforts, I gave the names of Margherita and Alexandra.

Acting on his prerogative as the first successful explorer of Ruwenzori, the duke said he proposed to call by the name of Mount Stanley the mountain or mass of which carries the five highest peaks—Margherita (16,816 feet), Alexandra (16,750 feet), Elena (16,389 feet), Savoya (16,340 feet), and Moebius (16,227 feet). To the second group in order of height he gave the name of Speke, the discoverer of the origin of the Nile; to the third, the name of Mount Baker, in memory of the traveler who discovered Lake Albert; to the fourth the name of Mount Emin; to the fifth, Mount Gessi; and to the sixth, Mount Thomson. The highest part of Mount Baker (15,990 feet) he named after the King of England.

His Majesty's Speech.

His Majesty King Edward paid, at the conclusion of the lecture, the following graceful tribute to the young explorer and his work:

"I feel convinced that I am expressing the wishes of the Royal Geographical Society, as well as those of this large assemblage to-night, when I tender our thanks to his Royal Highness the Duke of the Abruzzi for the interesting and exhaustive lecture which he has just given us. He has traveled a long way for this purpose, and it has been, no doubt, a great strain on his voice. I feel sure that all of us will go home fully impressed with the able manner in which this expedition was fitted out, and the successful results which it has attained.

"We have been interested and helped by the lantern slides which have been taken from the splendid photographs of the distinguished Mr. Sella, who accompanied the duke on this expedition; and I am sure everything we have seen has brought before us, as vividly almost as if we had been with him, the successful adventures which he encountered, and the success in surmounting those high peaks of the Ruwenzori.

"But his royal highness is a great traveler and a great explorer. He has done more even than he has told us to-night. If I refer back 10 years ago, he organized an expedition to attempt to ascend the still unclimbed peak of Kinchinjunga, the second highest mountain in the world; but owing to the outbreak of plague in India, difficulties arose, which led him, I believe, to leave Darjeeling, and turn his attention to Mount Elias in Alaska, over 18,000 feet in height, which he was the first to ascend.

"In 1899 and 1900 the duke led an admirably organized expedition in an attempt to reach the North Pole. One branch of this expedition attained a latitude of 30 miles nearer to the Pole than the record established by Nansen and not far short of the latitude which has since been attained by Commander Peary.

"Our distinguished lecturer is, fortunately for him, a young man, and I hope he has a long life before him in which he will continue to make explorations which are of such value both to science and geography.

"He belongs also to an illustrious and distinguished race—I am happy to think good friends and allies of ours (cheers).

"Above all things he possesses great courage, great coolness, and great will. These will, I am sure, carry him through any further expeditions or explorations he may make.

"I thank him again in the name of us all for his lecture, and I wish him continued success in the course of any future expedition he may attempt."

Loud cheers greeted the conclusion of his majesty's remarks, which were of quite an impromptu character.

In replying to the King's speech the Duke of the Abruzzi said that no praises could be more gratifying than those coming from the Sovereign of the nation which had always taken the lead in every kind of daring discovery and geographical enterprise over land and on sea, from the Equator to the Pole. The reception given to him in Great Britain by his majesty and the Prince of Wales and the Geographical Society would remain one of the dearest recollections of his life, and be deeply appreciated by all Italians.

even moderately well to do parents enjoys far more luxury than is permitted to the little Italian princesses and their brother. They must wear short socks even in winter, and they are obliged to have a cold bath every morning. They must stay outdoors a good part of every day and be trained to robust physical exercise. They also have German, French and English governesses. Princess Yolande, the oldest, not quite six years old, is already an admirable linguist, speaking English perfectly.

FASHION NOTES.

Artificial Flowers For Corsage—Dark Blue Pumps.

A modish fancy of the moment is the wearing of bunches of artificial flowers on the bodice of any frock that has a long V shaped chemisette. The flowers must be of a small variety and of the very best make. The leaves are not used, but in their place is a tiny spray of maidenhair fern. Several pieces of heliotrope and two fuchsias are a pretty combination.

With winter weather colored shoes are relegated to house wear. Tan and black are the really good ones, yet dark blue morocco leather pumps are worn with dark blue coat suits with good effect.

Smartly designed fur stoles, boas and collarettes are worn with nice distinction with prim little runabout suits, with which they harmonize as nicely as when worn with the dressier frock.

The glove garter seems to be a useful adjunct to the long glove. Every one knows how the loose wrists of long gloves annoy one by slipping down and showing a bare piece of arm purple with cold. So the plain band of elastic to match would seem to fill a want. Some of them are so elaborate as to be considered more in the light of an ornamentation than as a support to the glove.

Chamois gloves, both in white and in natural color, are quite the things for morning street gowns this winter.

Broadcloth gowns trimmed with velvet are very smart this season, and the one shown in the picture is a pretty example in dark green. The jacket is one of the double breasted Etons that are really warmer than they look and are so fashionable just now.

Sweet Potato Pie Without Eggs.

This is the Baltimore way of making sweet potato pie, and very good it is: Peel and cut in quarter inch slices a quart of sweet potatoes. Cook until tender with one pint of very strong ginger tea, a generous cup of butter, three cups of sugar and plenty of lemon peel. Stew gently, so that the slices will not break. Line a deep pie plate with a rather thick crust, fill with the potatoes and their sirup to within an inch of the top, then cover with a crust with a cross cut in the center.

Turn back each corner of the crust and bake with a moderate heat until the pastry is done. Ten minutes before serving pour through the hole in the top a wine sauce made by creaming together one cup butter, two cups sugar and the juice of a lemon beaten in a little at a time, set the mixture over boiling water and beat in gradually one cup sweet wine. Stir vigorously to prevent the butter separating from the rest of the ingredients.

Walk This Way, Please!

It is impossible for a woman to be awkward in her walk if she walks straight and keeps her knees stiff. The act of swinging the feet out gives one a graceful gait.

Walk slowly. Skirts wind around your calves when you walk rapidly, and all semblance of grace is lost. Walk in a leisurely manner, as if you were a princess, not a hurried, worried, overworked woman.

Don't swing your shoulders.

Don't swing your arms.

Don't twist yourself in sinuous motions. Don't contort. Don't wriggle.

Hold your chin in. This is the most important thing of all.

Fun For Valentine's Day.

A valentine luncheon party was given last year to ten girls. The favors were silver heart shaped key rings. These were put into a covered basket decorated with white satin ribbons. The basket was passed about the table, each girl drawing out her key ring without looking. To one ring was attached a spray of orange blossoms (artificial, of course). The girl who drew that was prophesied to be the next bride.—Harper's Bazar.

Does This Remind You?

An applicant for the post of mistress in a country school was asked, "What is your position with regard to the whipping of children?"

She replied, "My usual position is on a chair with the child held firmly across my knees, face downward!"—Home Magazine.

LETTERS FROM MOTHERS

Every day we get letters from mothers telling of the benefit Baby's Own Tablets have been to their little ones. Some praise them for constipation, stomach and bowel troubles; others for breaking up colds and simple fevers; some as a great help to teething babies, while others go so far as to say that the tablets have saved their little one's life. We have thousands of letters—all praising the Tablets, for they never do harm—always good. Mrs. Robert Pierce, Bell's Rapids, Ont., writes: "I would not be without Baby's Own Tablets in the house for a day. When anything ails my little one I give her a Tablet and she is soon all right. I am sure other mothers will find them quite as satisfactory." Sold by druggists, or by mail at 25 cents a box, from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A New Idea.

Corset covers made of dotted swiss are among the new ideas in dainty underwear.

They are made full, edged with valenciennes lace. The row of dots across the top is embroidered in silk to correspond with the color of ribbons chosen to run through the beading.

Extremely dainty underskirts and chemises are also worked out in the spotted swiss with rows of dots covered with colored silks or the mercerized cottons.

Fitting Candles.

The uninitiated still continue to laboriously shave down the end of a wax candle which is too large for its candlestick, but it should never be pared to make it of the right thickness, says Home Chat. A better method, says Tit-Bits, is that of holding it in hot water for a few moments, when the end becomes softened and will fit firmly into the candlestick as soon as the wax hardens again.

To Keep Cake Fresh.

Cut a slice of new bread about an inch thick and place in the tin with the cake. This will help to keep the cake fresh for some time. The bread must be renewed when stale. An apple placed in the cake tin will answer the same purpose as the bread and should also be renewed when withered.

FORECAST OF THE MODE.

Trimming For Ball Dresses—Mandarin Coats For Evening Wraps.

The hems of many of the season's prettiest ball gowns are weighted with an ornamentation in the form of embroidery in lightly woven metal ribbons, either silver, gold, oxidized silver or green gold.

Chinese mandarin coats were first worn as evening wraps in this country about two years ago, and ever since then their popularity has been steadily increasing. Owing to the handsome embroidery they cannot well become ordinary, nor can they be successfully imitated in machine work. The Chinese and Japanese seem to understand effective color combinations better than other nationalities and obtain certain tones which with us only make violently glaring contrasts.

PONY COAT SUIT—954-4907.

Flower trimming is coming back again, and, while the imitation wreaths and garlands are of the best quality of silk and velvet, still they are not the chiffon and velvet flowers that were so much used last winter, though of course the latter are still used. Soft pinks and blues are combined attractively.

A sable turban with two large roses in shaded orange poised on the left side and a sweeping paradise plume in lighter orange is one of the handsomest creations of the season.

The pony coat suit in the cut is designed for a young girl and is carried out in Russian green broadcloth trimmed in plain and fancy braid.

SHOE WRINKLES.

Economy to Keep Several Pairs of Shoes In Commission.

Shoes, like gloves, wear longer and better if kept for some time before wearing. A cheap shoe is always an extravagance. It seldom fits, nor is it comfortable or smart.

Brown shoes may be cleaned by rubbing them with milk to which a drop of ammonia has been added. Afterward they should be polished with a dry cloth.

Those who suffer with aching feet should occasionally sponge the insides of their shoes with a moderately strong solution of ammonia. The shoes must be perfectly dry before they are worn.

BOY'S WINTER COAT—4340.

As each shoe is removed it should be stretched and pulled while still retaining the warmth of the foot. Then put on the foot tree, which will get rid of the half dozen creases which the action of the foot is bound to form on the shoe. It is wiser to stick to black shoes when one is limited in the number of pairs. One can get along very comfortably with two pairs of shoes—one for street wear, one for dress occasions—if these are supplemented by a pair of low cuts and a pair of slippers.

The boy's coat illustrated is of the Russian style, carried out in dark blue kersey trimmed with black astrakhan cloth. The belt is of patent leather.

A Fair Exchange.

A mother is always a mother, but there is scarcely a man wearing the mortal coil who wouldn't exchange baby during teething time for a well bred fox terrier.

Beautiful Women

Rely Upon

Newbro's Herpicide

Pilar Morin, the strikingly beautiful Parisian actress, of whom America's leading theatrical manager says: "I consider her the greatest actress in her line in all the world", writes as follows about Newbro's Herpicide:

"It is the most delightful hair dresser that has ever come to my notice, it prevents the hair from falling out, does away with dandruff, and gives the hair a beautiful lustre."

Cordially yours,
(Signed) PILAR MORIN.

The fact that leading Parisian women prefer Newbro's Herpicide is certainly conclusive evidence of its superiority.

Beautiful, glossy hair, full of snap and life, is just as essential to a beautiful face as is the frame around a beautiful picture.

Nature does not permit every woman to have a great or unusual abundance of hair, but every woman who has reasonably good health may have beautiful hair if she will give it some care and attention.

First of all she must constantly strive to keep it free from the invisible vegetable growth (the dandruff germ) that causes dull, brittle and lustreless hair with, later, dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

The only rational remedy for this purpose is Newbro's Herpicide, the original remedy that "kills the dandruff germ." In addition to its germ destroying power, it is the most exquisite hair dressing in the world, for no other substance tends to beautify the hair as does Herpicide.

A TRUE BEAUTY TEST FOR WOMEN.

Just begin the intelligent use of Herpicide in secret, and see how quickly your friends will notice the improvement in your hair.

Herpicide contains no grease, it will not stain or dye. Stops itching of scalp.

Practical Pillow Covers.

In a living room where all things receive constant use, and hard use at that, it is often something of a problem to know what to have as coverings for the couch cushions, beauty being desired as well as durability.

The materials that have proved most satisfactory from every point of view are the art tickings, cretonnes and chintzes. These all stand repeated laundering as well as hard wear. They are pretty and possessed of great variety as to color and design.

Stripes, floral designs galore and beautiful Persian patterns may be had in these cottons and linens, and when used in conjunction with each other they make of the living room couch a most cozy and living spot, luring the unsuspecting on to many an idle hour.

Another thing to consider in this room is the number of pictures. Too many small pictures scattered about draw the eye unconsciously and prove very wearying.

Wear a serge or cheviot traveling suit with silk blouse.

Take along a handsome broadcloth tailored suit.

Also two or three silk and crepe gowns for dinner wear at the hotels.

These gowns will do for afternoon wear in the Florida climate.

Have a separate cloth wrap for traveling and evening wear at the hotel.

In the mornings wear one of the cloth skirts with shirt waists.

If more variety is needed, take several linen and white lingerie gowns.

Besides the traveling hat, a dressy afternoon hat and at least one or two white hats will be needed.

Peppermint Drops.

Place over the fire in a granite saucepan one large cupful of granulated sugar and four tablespoonfuls of hot water. When the mixture comes to a boil cook three minutes. Meanwhile have ready four tablespoonfuls of confectioner's sugar mixed with a few drops of peppermint. Turn this into the boiling sirup and stir quickly. Take from the fire, set the pan in a larger one of cold water and with a spoon drop the hot liquid in spots about the size of a nickel on oiled paper or marble. Do not place the lozenges so close together that they will run into each other or they will not be a good shape.

Prize Winners in Diary Contest

Results of the Competition in Which $200 in Gold is Given for the Best Diaries Kept in

DR. CHASE'S ALMANAC

If there were any doubt as to the interest taken in this Diary Competition, it would soon disappear at sight of the piles of Dr. Chase's Almanacs which came flooding into these offices during the early part of January. And during the last few days the number of enquiries as to the results reminds us that some time as well as much labor has been required to have the judging carefully and accurately done.

The committee of judges, Mr. J. F. MacKay, Bus. Mgr. "The Globe"; Mr. Geo. E. Scroggie, Adv. Mgr. "Mail and Empire," and Mr. H. B. Somerville, "The World," have, after due consideration, made the following awards:—

1st.	$100 in gold,	Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Hear, Scott Road, Petitcodiac, N.B.
2nd.	$50 "	Mrs. Joseph H. Cook Beachville, Ont.
3rd.	$25 "	Rev. Jos. H. Chant, Newburgh, Ont.
4th.	$5 "	Mrs. Joseph Halliday, Williamsford, Ont.
5th.	$5 "	Mrs. Lucy A. B. Smith, 322 Cambie Street, Vancouver, B.C.
6th.	$5 "	Mr. James Arthur, North Rustico, P.E.I.
7th.	$5 "	Miss Eunice Watts, Waterville, King's Co., N.S.
8th.	$5 "	Mrs. John Ranta, Makinak, Mass.
9th.	$5 "	Madame Marie Louise Patenaude, St. Marie, Vercheres Co., Que.

Many who did not obtain a prize deserve special commendation for well-kept diaries, while others made the mistake of putting in items from newspapers, etc., instead of entering up the every day events of home life which make a diary both useful and valuable for future reference.

The 1907 edition of Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac contains full particulars of the competition now going on, and if it has not reached you we shall be pleased to send a copy to your address. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

An extraordinary series of outrages, including burglary, incendiarism and attempted train-wrecking, has occurred in the district between Nottingham and Mansfield, causing a feeling of panic throughout the countryside.

The following list indicates the desperate nature of the outrages:

January 15 — Attempted train-wrecking near Kirby-in-Ashfield.

January 16—Another attempt at train-wrecking three miles away.

January 16—Kirby Parish Church destroyed by fire.

January 17—The church of adjoining parish of Annesley also burnt down.

January 29—Attempt to wreck trains at Kirkby and Hucknall.

January 30—Attempted burglary at Kirkby and two railway stations broken into.

In addition to these crimes, a platelayer's hut has been broken into and many minor depredations have occurred.

It is the belief of the police that all these offences have been committed by the same gang, and that a man of singular cunning and ferocity is directing them. It is suggested that he is akin to the Professor Moriarty who is the Napoleon of crime in the Sherlock Holmes stories.

Mr. James Ritchie, a Gourock ex-magistrate, who had been in failing health for some time, died in his 74th year. In his early days he had a yachting connection and was for a long time steward of the famous schooner, Selene, which belonged to Mr. Richardson, sugar refiner, Greenock. On the late Mrs. Gamble giving the Gamble Institute to Gourock in the seventies, Mr. Ritchie was appointed the first curator. Afterwards he was steward of the river steamer Glen Rosa, and still later, superintending steward of the Isle of Man Packet Company.

The Marquis of Tweedadle, who kept his 81st birthday recently, both by reason of his ancient lineage, and his large possessions, must be accounted one of the most important members of the peerage. The tenth holder of a marquisate dating to 1694, he is a baron by a creation of 1487. His father was the famous field marshall, who was A.D.C. to the Duke of Wellington in the Peninsular War, and also Governor of Madras from 1842 to 1848. Lord Tweeddale himself was in India during the mutiny, and with three of his brothers made one of the earliest journeys to Thibet.

Referring to the development of the Clyde, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman recently said he did not think the world could produce anything finer. He discovered that it was in the very year 1840, while his father was Lord Provost, that the act of Parliament was passed, for the making of quays and wharves along the river, with a view to improving its navigation. That was the beginning of great things. He trusted that in what remained of his life he might never do anything which they might consider unworthy of the relationship which existed between the citizens of Glasgow and himself, nothing that could be in any degree unworthy of those who had gone before him and of the family to which he belonged, and to the father from whom he sprung.

Bleak, wintry weather experienced in Glasgow and district at the beginning of February was followed by a severe storm of wind and rain. storm began in the early hours of the morning, and the wind gradually rose until it blew with the force of a gale, and in the course of the day did a great deal of damage to property in different parts of the city. Considerable havoc was done in various districts, by the gale, but fortunately no serious accidents to persons have been reported to the police. The force of the wind may be gathered from the fact that that there were gusts blowing at the rate of 64, 68 and 78 miles an hour.

The year 1907 has opened with a better record of shipbuilding work for its first month than that of the previous year, and if it continues as it has begun, it should easily improve even on the large tonnage that was launched in 1906. The January output from Scottish shipyards tonsconsisted of 28 vessels, of 35,909 tons, as compared with 23 vessels of 36,343 tons in January of last year. Of the 28 vessels, 24 of 35,309 tons, were launched on the Clyde, two of 200 tons on the Forth, and two of 400 tons, on the Dee. The Clyde tonnage is the largest on record for the month, being 3,062 tons more than that of January 1899, which was the previous highest. The new contracts reported make a total of seventeen vessels, fo about 47,500 tons. Of the Clyde output four vessels of 18,220 tons were built at Patrick, three of 6,363 tons at Dumbarton, Bowling and Old Kilpatrick, three of 4,500 tons at Renfrew and Paisley, two of 1767 tons at Port Glasgow, one of 1,250 tons at Campbelltown, and one of 400 tons at Ardrossan.

A miniature portrait of Queen Mary at the age of 25 years has been discovered in America; but unfortunately it is painted on ivory, which was not used by the artist till a century after Mary's death.

A speaker of the Gospel Temperance Union at Dundee declared that if Burns had lived to-day he would have been a leading temperance reformer.

The Rev. Neil Ross, Edinburgh, has been elected minister of St. James' Parish Church, Kirkcaldy, in succession to the Rev. D. Bruce Millar (resigned).

The Edinburgh Royal Oak Club sent to London a big battle-axe made of red flowers, with the letters "C" "R" in yellow flowers, in memory of Charles the First.

Another of the few surviving Crimean veterans has died in the person of John Cleland, who resided with his son-in-law, George Byers, at 86 Glebe street, Glasgow.

The anniversary of Burns' birth was celebrated in all parts of Scotland, and the appeal on behalf of the fund for the preservation of the Auld Brig met with a ready response.

At a representative meeting in Dundee, the proposal to establish an Art School in Dundee was discussed, and generally approved. The matter was remitted to a committee drawn from the various public bodies.

Rev. John Smyth, St. Joseph's Blantyre, Scotland, has been appointed to a curacy in his native diocese of Killaloe, Ireland. The vacancy created at Blantyre has been filled by the appointment of Rev. Patrick O'Grady, from Tuam, Ireland.

Speaking at the regimental gathering of the Glasgow Highlanders, Col. Birrell, commanding officer, said that he might claim for the battalion that in all respects it was in a thoroughly healthy condition. In physique it was second to no volunteer corps in the Kingdom.

There will probably be another military row. It is rumoured that Leith Fort is to be abandoned as unsanitary. Perhaps the apparently general unsanitary condition of our country, remarks the Glasgow Weekly Herald, will frighten any foreign foe from attempting invasion.

The blast o' January wind seems to have been specially severe down Berwick way on the 25th. Many present at the Burns dinner sat with their greatcoats on, while between the speeches the crowds gathered around the fireplace with a view to keeping up the steam.

The death has occurred at Union Villa, Lockerbie, after a short illness, of Mr. Robert Bell, a prominent Dumfriesshire agriculturist. He was a successful arable farmer and a successful breeder of Clydesdale horses. He had been a tenant on Sir R. Jardine's estate for a period approaching half a century.

Ex-Provost Gibson, J.P., Wishaw, who recently retired from the civic chair on account of ill-health, was also obliged to sever his connection with Wishaw Evangelical Union Congregational Church Sunday School, in which he had been teacher for forty years, and for thirty years had acted as superintendent.

A bi-centenary banquet in celebration of the union of the English and Scottish Parliaments was decided on at a meeting of the committee of Convention of the Royal and Parliamentary Burghs of Scotland, held in Edinburgh. Several members of the committee objected to the proposal on the ground that the union had not been so beneficial as to call for public celebration.

At the annual meeting of the Glasgow Sailors' Home, it was stated that plans for the reconstruction of the Home at a cost of £6000 had received the approval of the directors, and that a further sum of £1500 was required for the liquidation of the debt on the institution. Subscriptions to the amount of £3305 towards the reconstruction scheme was intimated at the meeting.

Mr. David Bisset, retired farmer, was found dead in bed at his residence, Blair Mount, Blairgowrie. Deceased, who was 70 years of age, was a son of the late Mr. John Bisset, the founder of the well-known firm of agricultural implement engineers at Blairgowrie, and was associated with his father and late brother, Thos. S. Bisset, in the inventions connected with reapers and binders.

The date of the Gaelic Mod of An Comunn Gaidhealach has now been fixed. It will be held in the St. Andrew's Halls, Glasgow, on the 18th, 19th and 20th September. The Lord Provost and Magistrates have given their patronage to the Mod, as well as a donation of £20 to the prize fund. The test tunes for choirs will shortly be announced, as well as the subjects for the literary competitions.

The old colours of the 74th and 91st Highland regiments have been handed back to Lord Archibald Campbell as representing the ducal family of Argyll, for safe keeping in Inveraray Castle. These interesting mementoes had been considerably damaged by the fire that occurred some years ago in Inveraray Castle; but, having now been renovated by the skilful needlework of Miss Jessie Campbell, of Connel, they were placed in the central hall of the castle, in the presence of a large company.

The Glasgow cars ran 389,128 miles last week, as compared with 359,446 in the corresponding week last year, while the number of passengers carried was 4,061,854, an increase of 70,290, and the receipts were £15,715 14s. 9d., an increase of £554 7s. 4d. Since the beginning of the financial year on 1st June the revenue has been £580,620 9s. 2d., an increase of £48,571 3s. 8d., as compared with the corresponding period twelve months before, while the number of passengers carried was 146,241,482, as against 135,768,265.

IRELAND

At a wedding in Ireland the other day the bridegroom was 75 years of age, while the bride was 17.

Very Rev. Dr. Chas. Seaver, dean of Connor and incumbent of St. John's, Belfast, is dead, at the age of 87 years.

The death is announced from Lakeview, Killarney, in her 86th year, of Emily Cluney, Lady O'Connell, the youngest daughter of Rear-Admiral Sir Richard O'Connor, K. C. B. Herself the member of an old Irish family now seated at Charleville, County Louth, the deceased lady was married in 1855 to Sir Maurice Jas. O'Connell, second baronet of Lakeview, a nephew of the famous "Liberator." Lady O'Connell's eldest son was killed in action in South Africa in 1881. Her only daughter is Lady Tucker, wife of Lt.-General Sir Charles Tucker, who was recently in command of the Scottish district.

Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M.P., at Coatbridge, said that the Irish demand was for a parliament in Dublin, with an executive responsible to that parliament but that by no means implied that they would not take an instalment, if that instalment were not an obstacle but a help towards the payment of the full debt.

The death in Leeds of Mr. Owen Kiernan, organizing secretary for Yorkshire and the northern counties of the United Irish League of Great Britain removes one of the best known Irishmen in that part of the United Kingdom. Born in America of Irish parents, hunchbacked owing to a fall in his childhood, at an early age settled in Glasgow, where twenty-six years ago he became an organizer of the old Land League. For two or three years he had studied for the medical profession, and had passed some of the preliminary examinations, but he decided to abandon all to work for the Irish cause, of which the late Mr. Parnell was then taking up the leadership.

In the King's Bench, Dublin, judgment was given in reference to the application to issue writs of attachment against Mr. Walter Long, M.P., and the editors of the Irish Times and the Dublin Daily Express, for contempt of court, in connection with a speech delivered in the rotunda, in which allusion is made to a case now down for re-trial. Justices Kenny and Madden held that Mr. Long's words amounted to contempt of court but that they were not likely to interfere with the course of justice, and therefore the motion for attachment should be refused; but that as the language used was of a character to be deprecated, the respondents pay their own costs. The Lord Chief Justice also deprecated Mr. Long's language and concurred in the decision. The Chief Baron, who dissented, held that Mr. Long was guilty of aggravated contempt of court.

Mr. Bryce at Dublin Castle the other day, received in private deputations from the Roman Catholics and the higher education committee of the Irish Presbyterian church, on the subject of the report of the Royal Commission on the University of Dublin, and afterwards made a public announcement as to the Government scheme of Irish University education. It is proposed to create and equip a new college in Dublin free from theological tests, to enlarge the University of Dublin into a University of Ireland, which will include Trinity College, the new college and the Queen's Colleges of Belfast and Cork. The Royal University would be abolished. No public money would be granted for theological teaching, but any church might maintain a theological faculty in the university. The new college would mainly be Catholic, but would give no more to Catholics than Protestants had in Trinity College.

REGINA

You will make more money by buying lots in Regina City, than by any other source at the present time. It is no gamble, no chance, but an absolutely sure investment. Property will increase at least 100 per cent. in less than two years. Buy now. Prices will be advanced in the spring. Here are a few things that are making Regina grow and making property increase in value :—

REGINA, the wholesale and distributing centre for Saskatchewan and the west. $6,000,000.00 worth of farm machinery sold from Regina last year. Regina is the head-quarters for Saskatchewan of :—

The American-Abell Engine and Thresher Co.
Massey Harris Company.
Frost & Wood Company.
Fairchild Company.
Waterloo Manufacturing Company,
J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.
Garr-Scott Threshing Machine Company.
The International Harvester Company.
The North-west Thresher Company.
The New Hamburg Manufacturing Company.
Reeves Thresher Company.
Nichols & Shepherd Thresher Company.
Sawyer-Massey Company.
Noline Plow Company.
Canadian Port Huron Company.
Cockshutt Plow Company.

Besides the above there are a number of large eastern wholesale houses located in Regina. At the present time some eighteen more wholesale firms have secured sites in Regina to build on this year.

REGINA, the only railroad centre in Saskatchewan.

Besides the present roads which run north, south, east and west, there will be six more lines built into Regina during the next two years, being the Great Northern from the south, the Canadian Northern from the southeast, the C. P. R. north to Prince Albert, and three G. T. P. roads—one northeast, one east, one southwest.

The following is what Mr. Morse of the G. T. P. said in Regina on Aug. 6, 1906;

The Leader, Aug. 6, 1906.

FRANK MORSE IN REGINA

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P. Railway, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday morning, and had a short conference with Mayor McAra and W. G. Pettingal, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Morse had no new statement to make for publication regarding the plans of the G. T. P. in and around Regina. He repeated what he had said when in Regina on May 16th last that his Company would get into Regina at the earliest possible date, as they realised there was a large business to be done here. He confirmed the statement, which was first published by The Leader, that in addition to a branch line to Regina, from the main line near Yorkton, and from Regina to the international boundary on the south, a branch would be run to Regina from Brandon.

"The construction of branch lines would be carried on simultaneously with the main line," said Mr. Morse.

REGINA leads all cities from Winnipeg to the Coast in building for 1906.

Capital of Saskatchewan ranks fifth among the metropolitan centres of Canada, being surpassed by Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. Leads all the Dominion in relative growth. Building permits in 1906:

Regina—$1,982,330.

Edmonton—$1,863,894.

Calgary—$1,109,161.

No other city in Canada shows as high a percentage of growth as Regina. 1907 will beat all records. A large number of expensive buildings are being erected. Among others include:—Four new hotels, at a cost of over half a million; municipal hospital, $100,000; Y. M. C. A. at $100,000; Baptist Church, $50,000; Masonic Temple, at $75,000; Dominion Land Titles Office at $110,000; New Public School at $54,000, and many other business blocks and residences. Chief amongst all buildings will be the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, at a cost of at least $1,500,000.

PETERBOROUGH SATURDAY FEBRUARY 23 1907

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP TESTED

Mr. Geo. H. Rapsey, a Visitor Here and Ex-Councillor of Port Arthur, Explains the Working of the Scheme in the Lake Superior Town.

PROFITS LAST YEAR $50,000

Port Arthur Growing Rapidly—Many Fine Buildings in Course of Construction, but Labourers are Scarce—Work Progressing on G. T. P. Right of Way.

One of the most important questions occupying the minds of the Aldermen of Peterborough is that of Municipal Ownership and it might therefore be interesting to know how the scheme is progressing in the town of Port Arthur where the citizens own the Street Railway, the Light and Power Plant and the Telephone system. An Examiner representative obtained an interview yesterday with Mr. Geo. H. Rapsey of that town and secured some valuable information with regards to municipal ownership there, and the growth and development of Port Arthur as a whole. Mr. Rapsey, who is here visiting his brother-in-law, Mr. Wm. Pringle, for a few days, was a member of last year's council in the Lake Superior town and is therefore well versed in the conditions prevailing.

The people there, he states, are very much in favour of municipal ownership. As stated above they own the telephone, the street railway and the electric light plant all of which are bringing in substantial profits and which are being extended gradually. Last year alone the profits of the three combined, over and above all depreciations were between $50,000 and $60,000. The profits from the telephone was about $2,000 and from the electric light plant about $25,000.

The Central Energy Telephone system is the one utilized there and is very much similar to the improved Bell. The street railway franchise, Mr. Rapsey states is increasing in rapid bounds. At present there is about 8 1-2 miles of track built, which extends through Fort William and a mile beyond. Fort William council had an opportunity to take over their section of the railway last year but they let it slip by and were exceedingly sorry. They will again have another opportunity in a few years and Mr. Rapsey thinks it altogether probable they will then be on the alert.

Belt Line Proposed

This year the corporation have planned to construct a belt line about five miles in length to connect the prominent residential section with the centre of the town.

Port Arthur is very fortunate in being able to obtain cheap power. Their power is developed on Current River a short distance from the city and is delivered at the small cost of $12.00 per h.p. The power here is now all utilized and the city has made plans to obtain their future supply from Dog Lake where at least 30,000 horse power is available. The town will then have all the power it needs and be in a position to make terms with manufacturers who locate there.

A Commission Appointed

The work in connection with municipal ownership is superintendended by a commission known as the Electric Light and Railway Commission. It is composed of five members. One of these is elected each year by the people for a three year term, the council appoints one each year while the Mayor, ex-officio, is the other. Each department has a man in charge and to him falls the greater part of the duties of that department. The Commission cannot carry through any legislation of its own accord but must first submit a requisition for all requirements and supplies to the council.

A Rapid Growth

Port Arthur, says Mr. Rapsey, is increasing in population very rapidly. The last census which was concluded in March of 1906 gave the population as 12,216. During last year between 700 and 800 residences were erected so that now the population will be over 14,000. What is remarkable about these residences is their substantial quality. The average cost amounts to between $1,000 and $10,000, and are erected mostly from native stone.

The demand for labour is very great. Common labourers receive about $2.50 per day, carpenters 40c per hour, and bricklayers 65c per hour. The Grand Trunk Pacific is now busy on their right of way in the vicinity of Port Arthur and upon this many labourers are at work.

Building Operations

According to Mr. Rapsey, Port Arthur has and will have many more fine public and other buildings. Last year the city erected a magnificent firehall at a cost of $20,000 for the building alone. They also have erected temporary municipal offices, three storeys high, at a cost of $23,000.

TWO POPULAR APPOINTMENTS ON THE 57th REGIMENT'S STAFF

MAJOR HAYES, the New Paymaster

MAJOR CLEGG, Succeeding Major Hayes

Major L. M. Hayes Appointed Paymaster Of 57th Reg't.

Important Militia Orders Issued To-day—Capt. Clegg Promoted to Office of Major—Successor to Major Dennistoun is Major Hayes.

To-day's militia orders from Ottawa give notice of two important changes so far as the local regiment is concerned. Major Dennistoun, who for a number of years has been paymaster of the 57th, has resigned on account of his contemplated departure from Peterborough, and in his stead, Major Hayes has been appointed paymaster; the appointment taking affect immediately.

Major Hayes will be warmly congratulated upon his appointment, which is a popular one, none of the officers of the regiment being more highly respected than the genial major, who has been associated with the local regiment for the past 18 years, and is a thorough soldier, and one who is deeply interested in the welfare of the regiment, of which he has been a member for so many years.

Capt. Clegg is gazetted to the office of major, vice Major Hayes, in view of the latter's promotion.

BARNARDO GIRLS ARE COMING HERE

Report from London to the Effect That 350 Children are on Their Way to Canada

A special Canadian Associated Press despatch from London to-day says that 350 Barnardo children have sailed from England for Canada by the steamer Dominion. Among this number are great many girls, for whom there is a big demand in this country, and they will come direct, upon landing, to the Home in this city, and will be sent from here to the homes from which applications have already been received for them.

THE SILVER BIRD MINE SHOWING WELL

A Double Shift of Men Will be Put to Work in Course of a Short Time At This Mine.

Cobalt, February 22. — Superintendent Gauthier, of the Silver Bird mine, reports that the vein on the west wall of the shaft is broadening out perceptibly and showing increased values. The shaft is now 85 feet in depth. At the 100 foot level drifting will commence north and south, when the present day and night force of twenty men will be doubled.

Miss Lora Newman's Pianoforte Recital

On the invitation of the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, a large and musically intelligent audience filled Association Hall last night to be delighted, as they most certainly were, by hearing, in recital, Miss Lora Newman, pianiste of the Conservatory staff. Miss Newman very fully realized the highest expectations and by her splendid work justified her title to the claim of being one of the foremost, if not the best, lady pianistes in Canada, or on the continent. Just why the sex distinction should be employed in her case is not clear, for Miss Newman possesses a virility of style and execution most remarkable in a lady of her apparently somewhat delicate physique. Her programme was a strong one, embracing both the classic and romantic school and in either she seemed to be at home. Her performance of the piece de resistance of the list, Beethoven's Sonata Appassionata, op. 57, was artistic to a degree. The more heroic passages were grasped and disposed of with firm hands and with robust effects. Her presentation of the second movement, the beautiful andante con moto, was a fine expression of musical sentiment, sympathetic and affecting; her tone was full, round and warm, and the nuances of expression very effectively observed. Her performance of this number left little to be desired in the way of execution or interpretation. Her playing of the second number, Schumann's "Papillons," while differing in treatment from that of other first rate performers, adhered pretty closely to what is generally regarded as the composer's meaning. Miss Newman's other selections included Chopin's Nocturne, op. 27, No. 2; Massenet's Elegie, op. 10, Le Coucou, a numuet, by Stavenhagen, and Nicholas Rubinstein's waltz, in A flat., Miss Newman's technical skill is quite equal to all demands of the most exacting passages of her work, and eliminates all evidences of effort and conduces to a charming smoothness and fluency of execution. If she can instruct as well as she plays, the pupils of the Conservatory who come under her teaching will indeed be fortunate, for last night she showed herself to be a first-rate pianiste, both as an interpretant and executant. Contrast was given the programme by the beautiful singing of Miss Carrie Bessor, a delightful soprano, with a well developed range of good quality, used with exellent judgment and subordination to the demands of her themes. She gave a very effective and artistic production of Strelezki's "Happy Days" and Blumenthal's "Sunshine and Rain." In the former the violin obligato was charmingly supplied by Miss Julia Choate, a very talented young violinist whose unmistakable natural artistic temperament, gives promise of large things. Miss Frances Pollock, a local pianiste, distinguished by rare talent both as a performer and teacher, supplied the accompaniments in a very sympathetic and meritorious manner. All these are members of the Conservatory staff, and last night's very successful recital afforded evidence of its excellence of faculty equipment.

A BANCROFT BIGAMIST

A Woman Twenty Years of Age Married to Her Second Husband—First Man Serving Term in Jail.

COUPLE TO BE PROSECUTED

Bancroft, Feb. 23.—A marriage, which will likely end rather seriously for the parties concerned, took place last week. The contracting parties were Jas. Hawley, of Monteagle, and Mrs. Fred Lott, of this village, a daughter of Gilbert Beaumbour. The bride is about twenty years of age and was married four or five years ago to a man named Fred Lott. Lott was a worthless sort of a character and deserted his wife less than a year ago. He is said to be serving a term in goal at present for robbery. We understand proceedings will be taken to prosecute the guilty parties.

ANNUAL MEETING OF SASKATCHEWAN LAND CO.

Officers Not Yet Elected—Large Attendance of Directors—Financial Report Very Encouraging.

MOST OF OLD DIRECTORS RE-ELECTED

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Peterborough-Saskatchewan Land Corporation, which was held yesterday afternoon, there was a large attendance of shareholders. Among those from out of town represented in person or by proxy, were the following: W J Bragg and Richard Osborne, Bowmanville; J S Pratt, Toronto; Jonathan Channon, Tyrone; Wm Rowan and Thos Rowan, Bethany; Albert Hilton, Cavanville; W J Buck, Norwood; R J Jory, Lakefield; Geo Dawson, Ballieboro; and J G Armstrong, E C Howson, G H Howson, C H Moore, John Wasson, Dr Carmichael, Wm Stewart, R M Glover, Jas Davidson, W K Payne, Geo Ruth, R A Garbutt, Frank Sandy, Ernest Wasson, Thomas Hooper, Wm Eyres, G Walter Green, W C Austin, G L Hay, Jos Mills, Miss P Wescott, Geo H Edmison, S T Medd, and W S Davidson, Peterborough.

Dr. Carmichael acted as chairman, and W. C. Austin as secretary. The financial report brought down showed that the company had now on hand some 12,000 acres of choice lands in Saskatchewan. These lands are situated in the celebrated Tramping Lake District, one of the richest tracts of wheat land in the province. They were secured a little over a year ago at a low price. One section was sold last year at $12.50 per acre, and higher prices are vouched for this year, so that those who were fortunate enough to secure stock in the company at that time are likely to realize very handsomely on their investment.

Most of the board were re-elected. The following, were the directors elected for the ensuing year: Dr. Carmichael, John Wasson, William Eyres, C. H. Moore, Wm. Rowan, J. G. Armstrong, Jas. Davidson, Frank Sandy, W. J. Bragg, J. Channon.

A meeting of the directors will be held shortly for the election of officers. Messrs. Frank Adams and G. L. Hay were unanimously re-elected auditors.

A PECULIAR CASE AT THE POLICE COURT

A Local Milk Vendor Charged With Indecent Exposure, but no Prosecution Could be Made

An extraordinary case was that which was heard at the police court this morning. A young married woman, aged 16 years was the plaintiff in the case, and one of the milk vendors of the city was the defendant. The latter was accused by the young woman of indecent exposure. The accusation was proved to be groundless, even on the evidence of the witness for the prosecution. As was stated in court it must have been an hallucination on the part of the young woman. The milkman is a respected gentleman, the father of a family, and has an excellent reputation in the city. The charge was dismissed.

"FORTUNE CAN'T EXCEED $300,000,000" SAYS JOHN D.

New York, Feb. 23. — Standard Oil headquarters to-day furnished an estimate of John D. Rockefeller's wealth.

"There have been a great many amusing misstatements," said F. T. Gates. "Several years ago Senator Hoar in the Senate, credited Mr. Rockefeller with a fortune of $100,000,000. Quite recently a statement has been made and published widely throughout the country that his annual income exceeds $100,000,000.

"Mr. Rockefeller has at various times himself authorized a statement that his fortune exceed $250,000,000 to $300,000,000. Furthermore, his income, instead of being $100,000,000, cannot in his most prosperous years have exceeded $15,000,000 to $20,000,000."

REPORT OF A BIG CUT

Present Season Most Satisfactory in Many Years for Lumbermen of This County and District.

WEATHER CONDITIONS GOOD

Reports received from the northern part of the county indicate that the present winter has been most satisfactory for the lumbering interests. The weather has been the most favourable in years, and as a result it is probable that the largest out in a number of years will be recorded.

The snow has not been too deep to prevent operations, while there has been sufficient to enable the lumbermen to get their logs to the rivers and lakes. The companies in which local interests centres have had extraordinarily large outs, and as soon as the spring opens will be ready to commence the drives.

In some cases, all the logs cut have been hauled to the water and prepared for the drive and the men are now in the woods again cutting.

The present prospects are that the coming summer will be, in many respects the most prosperous in the history of lumbering in the county.

WARSAW EXPECTS THE GRAIN ROUTE

Latest Blue Prints Indicate That the Proposed Railway Will Go That Way

The latest intelligence that can be gleaned of the action of the C. P. R. in regard to their proposed Victoria Harbour grain route, is that it will touch the village of Warsaw. It is reported that the company recently got out blue prints with the plans of the various extensions which they intend to make in the near future and among these it was shown that the grain route would pass through Warsaw.

The citizens of Dummer's capital have heard the good news but are not very much surprised over it. They have always believed that the resources of Dummer could not be ignored by the C. P. R., and that they will have at least a branch line there.

The Examiner's informant learned of the above mentioned plans on good authority and therefore it is quite probable that the situation will be seriously considered before the final route is decided upon.

It has been understood here for some time, that the grain route would touch Peterborough, but if Warsaw is included in its main line, Peterborough would likely be favoured with only a branch.

KNOT STRUCK CHOPPER IN THE EYE

Bridgenorth Man Received a Very Painful Injury Yesterday While Working in the Woods

Mr. James Cullen, son of Mr. W T. Cullen of Bridgenorth, met with an accident yesterday while working in the woods, which may have serious results. He was engaged in chopping wood for Mr. J. H. Mann, when the accident occurred. In attempting to cut through a knot in a limb part of it flew up and struck him fairly in the eye. The eyeball was very painfully injured, and medical aid had to be summoned.

The accident has given him much pain, and as yet it is not known how serious is the injury.

FOR HIGHER WAGES

Building Trades Will Probably Ask for More Money This Season—Effect On Operations.

BRICKLAYERS HOLD MEETING

With the approach of spring, the question of the readjustment of wages of the members of the building trades unions is one which claims the attention of those interested in building.

That there will be a demand on the part of the building trades mechanics for increased wages now seems probable, and, with the increased cost of building material, this much is assured, that building in Peterborough this year will cost more money than it has done in the past.

To-night there will be a meeting of the Bricklayers' and Stone Masons' Union, and it is stated that the important question for which the meeting is being called, is the consideration of the wages for the coming season. It is probable that there will be an increase asked for in keeping with the other building trades.

The Builders' Labourers' Union, too, are considering this same question, and a meeting will be called in the near future to deal with the proposal. Wages for builders' labourers at the present time range from $2 to $2.50 per day, and it is felt that this is not high enough, in view of the nature of the work and cost of living.

Reference has already been made in these columns to the movement among the carpenters looking towards an increase in the minimum rate of wages, though it is pointed out that, should the minimum be raised, it will affect comparatively few, in view of the fact that fully two-thirds of the members of this union at present receive more than the minimum rate of wages.

COOK CLASSES PROVE VERY POPULAR

Miss Bawden Meets With Success in Her Efforts.

The complaint of some of the sterner sex in the recent matrimonial controversy that girls of the present day do not make good wives because they cannot cook, promises to be soon remedied in view of the cooking classes at the Y.W.C.A., which are being conducted by Miss Bawden. There are several classes each day, including classes for children and classes in plain and advanced cooking. The kitchen which is situated in the basement of the building is fitted up as much as possible like that in the Technical School, Toronto. Each pupil has a drawer of her own containing the necessary utensils, bakeboard, etc., while there is an individual gas burner for each one. A pantry, well equipped with everything needed in the culinary art, is conveniently situated to the kitchen.

The children's course consists of ten lessons and they are at present being taught breakfast cooking, learning different dishes every day. At the end of the course the children will serve a breakfast to six guests.

Saturday afternoon is devoted to candy making and this class is one of the most popular and interesting of the series. French creams, chocolates and other forms of candy are made.

On Thursday night of each week Miss Bawden gives a lecture and demonstrates some line of cooking. There is always a large attendance and the demonstration is found both interesting and helpful.

The plain cooking classes are taught how to deal with vegetables, cereals, etc., while in the fancy cooking, the making of salads, etc., is taught.

An Illegal Act.

It may not be generally known, but it has been decided that any merchant, while selling goods by weight, who weighs paper or wrapper with the article sold is liable to be punished for so doing. The courts have held he can be properly convicted for selling light weight.

MINISTER PROMISES TO USE HIS FISTS ON THE MASHERS

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 23.—One hundred young men in Minneapolis, led by Rev. G. L. Morrill, have organized themselves into a club to slug mashers. The minister and his cohorts purpose to drive mashers from the streets of the Mill City. Dr. Morrill organized the "sluggers" at a service at the Auditorium, where he berated the practice of young fellows annoying women on the streets. He declared he intended using his fists on such offenders, and 100 sturdy members of the congregation declared that they will "punch the stuffin' out" of any masher caught at large."

ERUPTION ON THE SUN

A Disturbance 50,000 Miles Long and 20,000 Miles in Width, Seen on That Body by Astronomer To-day

DR. MARSH MAKES DISCOVERY

The intelligense was conveyed to the Examiner to-day, by Rev. Dr. Marsh, of Springville, in answer to a question as to the condition of the sun, that there was a marked disturbance near the equator of that body, extending about 60,000 miles in length and 20,000 miles in width.

In addition to this disturbance there is an individual eruption below the equator, about twice the size of the earth. These disturbances, however, need not cause the inhabitants of this insignificant member of the constellation of planets any particular alarm, for the reverend doctor is the authority, in answer to the startled suggestion that it might affect the earth, for the statement that these conditions are by no means rare and are not attended by any serious results so far as we are concerned, though they are usually accompanied by magnetic influences, which affect the earth to a certain extent.

It appears that there is, every eleven years a maximum and a minimum sun spot period, and the maximum period is just now passing away. For the next twelve months the spots will be gradually becoming diminishing in number, until the minimum is reached.

The sun to-day is a very beautiful object of study for the astronomer, and the conditions when the observation was taken this morning, pointed to the probability of the presence of an auroral display to-night, though it may not be visible in the city.

At the meeting of the Charlotte street Young Men's Guild, on Tuesday night, Dr. Marsh will explain in his talk on "A Night in the Skies," the presence of the solar disturbances noticed to-day.

MR. WALTER BELLEGHEM HAS GONE TO TORONTO

To Acquire an Extensive Experience in the Undertaking Work with the Harry Ellis Company

Mr. Walter Belleghem, one of Peterborough's popular young men, went to Toronto on the local this morning. He has accepted a position in Mr. H. Ellis' undertaking establishment, one of the largest concerns of its kind in the Queen City. It is Mr. Belleghem's intention to become thoroughly acquainted with his business and for that reason he chose this opportunity of instructing himself. It may be after an experience of a year or more with this large company he will return to engage in the undertaking work with his father, Mr. D. Belleghem. He will be greatly missed by his many young friends in this city who will, however, wish him every success in the Queen City.

Evelyn's Mother Prompting Jerome's Bitter Attack

Pittsburg, Feb. 23.—It came out here to-day that ever since Mrs. Harry K. Thaw gave her sensational testimony on the stand, Mrs. Charles J. Holman, her mother, has been in almost daily touch by telephone with the office of District Attorney Jerome, and many embarrassing questions, fired at the young matron by Jerome in his cross-examination, have been prompted by suggestions made over the telephone by Mrs. Holman during the previous evening.

EDUCATION OR LEARNING?

A little Belleville girl has received the Governor-General's medal for obtaining the highest number of marks at the last Entrance examinations. The donation of this medal was, doubtless, influenced by good motives, but it is, possibly, a mistaken kindness. The exhibition of mental precocity, which argues more intelligence than intellectuality, may be very gratifying to the parents of the unfortunate child, and the teachers, who, possibly, crammed her little head as a machine would stuff a sausage. But the child has not, in the short space of time available for school attendance, been educated. Her mind, it is to be feared, has been merely stuffed with a lot of arbitrary facts and in the process her growth has been retarded, her health, possibly, impaired, and hopes of future advancement lessened. It is not likely that the child will have her name in the papers again, except, if the cramming process is continued, till her physical or nervous collapse, or her premature death, is announced. Precocious children, like what she probably is, who reach mental maturity four or five years in advance of a healthy, normal period, are liable to suddenly cease growing intellectually, and to drop out of the nine days' wonder class, into mediocrity. What becomes of the multitudes of infant wonders, who delight the hearts of doting parents, who bore their best friends with tireless tales of the premature "cuteness," and "cuteningness" of the "little dears!" They may die young, for they comparatively seldom grow up clever. But they don't always die young; they grow up physically, but the mental brilliance having been expended prematurely, they may, and often do, develop, or, rather, degenerate, into very common-place individuals, who are frequently outstripped in the real race of life by lads and lasses, who in their pastoral days, were not infant prodigies of "cuteness," but ordinary healthy youngsters, probably ugly ducklings, whose little brains were not burned out in nursery fireworks, or exhausted in kindergarten and school cleverness, via cram. There are, of course, exceptions to the too frequent outcome of conditions of infant or scholastic precocity, instances in which preternatural cleverness in early youth is maintained in maturer years. But the exceptions serve to prove the rule, and it is to be feared that the trend of the ways of these days inclines to undesirably foster scholastic precocity. As a general thing, the tendency of modern educational, or, perhaps, more strictly speaking, school, methods, is to force learning —to achieve examination results rather than lay a solid educational foundation. So burden the childish mind with knowledge, more than to expand and broaden its capacities and develop its faculties, and make it a creative workshop, self-contained, rather than a lumber room of dry facts. In contrast with these conditions, some great thinkers, perhaps, unduly disparage the value of mere acquirement of knowledge. Dr. Emil Reich holds and utters the opinion that up to thirteen years of age, a child should learn reading only, and that from thirteen to eighteen, the study of poetry only should be practised, with the object of cultivating the imagination. As in other things, it is perhaps wise to take the middle course between Dr. Reich's way and the system of cramming knowledge into a child's head. Education, both as to methods and manner, is a large problem, and we have not yet reached a satisfactory solution.

PROMISE AND PERFORMANCE

Our evening Conservative contemporary commends a "frank utterance" of Hon. J. P. Whitney in reply to the remonstrances of Dr. Currie, M.P.P., of Prince Edward County, in regard to the arbitrary dismissal of the Sheriff of that county, in these terms:

"Mr. Whitney unhesitatingly told Dr. Currie that there had not been one dismissal from office that had not received his (the Premier's) own earnest and active endorsation. He accepted the onus, if any, of the whole matter, and did not seek to put it on his colleagues. He had not been constrained to act, and, while mistakes might have been made—for all governments were human and therefore liable to err—he would say solemnly and earnestly that no dismissals had taken place that would not be repeated. This is a straightforward and unequivocal declaration and leaves no doubt as to where the present administration stands in dealing with any officials who are offensively partisan and notoriously incompetent."

Mr. Whitney is a champion at the game of "bluff." But he can't bulldose everybody always. His autocratic manner may go down with his obsequious followers in the House, but the electors and public opinion have to be reckoned with. The Review may think it a fine example of "frank utterance" for Mr. Whitney to declare that he would do again what he has done in dismissing officials. What has he done? He has flatly departed from the code of honor which constrains every public man, at every risk, to religiously refrain from breaking his plighted word. Mr. Whitney publicly and explicitly pledged himself that no public official should be dismissed without charge regularly made, and investigation held. He has flagitiously and notoriously outraged this promise in numerous instances. And now he boasts of his perfidy, says he would repeat it, if possible, and the Review pats him on the back. Mr. Whitney bravely assumes all responsibility in one sentence, and in the next places the responsibility on the Government, "for all governments are human and liable to err." But disregard of assurances solemnly given on the faith of a Minister of the Crown, cannot be classed as an error, it is—something worse.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

As a money maker Cobalt seems to be only a fair second to license-brokerage in Toronto.

Hon. Geo. E. Foster has got to be Opposition leader at last—leader of the scandal section of His Majesty's loyal Opposition.

It is now clear, says the Globe, why Mr. Whitney dismissed License Inspector Hastings, (Toronto) and forced the resignation of Messrs. Flavelle, Davidson and Murray.

MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP WARMLY DISCUSSED

and have planned for a more extensive city buildings to cost about $100,000. A handsome ward school has been built, costing $35,000, from Milton pressed stone, and a similar one is contemplated in another ward. An addition is being placed to the large hospital there. This institution, with the exception of a small one at Fort William, is the only one for miles around. It receives patients from lumber camps, etc., for a radius of 100 miles and is a necessary requisite for that country.

The C. P. R. have the foundation laid for a new station which will cost between $40,000 and $50,000, while the C. N. R. have recently finished one at about the same cost.

The city is opening a pretty park at Current River, about a mile and a half from the centre of the city, and Mr. Ramsay states that it will certainly be a handsome summer resort.

Several miles of granolithic pavement were laid last year, and the Council intend to pave the streets this coming summer. In this respect at least, they have preceded Peterborough.

Manufacturers Attracted

Port Arthur is getting a good share of manufacturing institutions. The Meisel Manufacturing Co., of Port Huron, a large machinery concern, will erect a $50,000 building there next year, while Seaman and Kent Co., of Manford, will also locate there next year.

The large grain vessels are the most important on Lake Superior and most of these call at Port Arthur, where is located the largest single elevator in the Dominion, which has a capacity of 7,000,000 bushels. The C. P. R. and Northern Navigation Co. are among the more important owning vessels on the lake.

Change in Peterborough

Mr. Ramsay visited in Peterborough five years ago and sees a great many changes since then. He arrived in the city Thursday night, accompanied by his wife, and will remain east about two weeks before returning.

BUTTER AND EGGS ARE NECK-AND-NECK IN THE RACE

Prices Are Becoming Higher, Much Against the Citizens' Wishes

The prices of butter and eggs are now at the same level, thirty cents. The run up the scale has been steady but sure, the only hope at present is that the prices will not soar higher. The market to-day was not a brisk one; the farmers report that the roads are generally rather heavy, and this may account for the rather small number of farmers who were on the market. The supply of fowl was rather limited, and the prices were not encouraging. Beef sold at 5 and 6c., and pork at 10 and 11c. There was no fruit for sale, and practically no potatoes. There were not many loads of wood on the market for sale; a good cord of beech sold for $5.50, and certainly was a bargain. There were also other varieties of the heat-producing elements.

Varicose Ulcers Cured

Miss Elizabeth Campbell, No. 20, Sheridan avenue, Toronto, states: — "About eight years ago I hurt my leg near the ankle, and the result was what the doctors called varicose ulcers. I was treated in two Toronto hospitals and sent away without being cured. From the very start Dr. Chase's Ointment helped me, and by persistent use it has entirely cured me."

FIRE WORKS HAVOC.

Quebec Telegraph Gutted—Employes Have Difficulty Escaping.

Quebec, Feb. 23.—The Daily Telegraph offices were totally destroyed by fire yesterday morning, together with the whole block of buildings in which it was located, that were owned by Frank Carrell, who suffers a loss of $75,000; fully covered by insurance.

The entire staff was at work at the time, comprising about fifty hands, including a dozen young women employed in the bookbinding department, who had all they could do to make their escape from the building.

Fireman Donnelly had his hip broken by falling debris. The following is a partial list of the insurances: North British and Mercantile, $8,000; Aetna, $4,000; Manitoba, $3,500; Western, $2,000; North American, $1,000; Atlas, $2,000; Royal, $5,000; Queen, $4,000; Quebec, $4,000. Total, $33,500.

HOUSE MAKES PROTEST.

Newfoundland Legislature Condemns Recent Modus Vivendi.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 23.—The Legislative Council, the Upper House of the Newfoundland Legislature, adopted by a vote of 11 to 2 an address to Lord Elgin, British Secretary of State for the Colonies, protesting against the modus vivendi last October between the British and American Governments for the regulation of the herring fisheries on the west coast of the island.

The Lower House adopted the same address last week by a vote of 23 to 3.

The address, sets forth that the modus vivendi was agreed upon by the two Governments without the British officials consulting the Newfoundland Government or endeavoring to learn the views of the residents of the colony.

HAS ANOTHER CHANCE.

Condemned for Murder, But Judge Did Not Charge Jury Fairly.

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 23.—The Supreme Court yesterday afternoon gave judgment unanimously in favor of granting a new trial to Thomas Collins, sentenced to be hanged on the 26th for the murder of Mary Ann McAulay, on the ground that Judge Gregory, the trial judge, in his charge to the jury, did not lay the facts fully and plainly before them.

KILLED ON TRACK.

Woman Killed and Husband May Die While Returning From Wake.

Lindsay, Feb. 23.—While returning from a wake yesterday evening Mr. and Mrs. Primeau of this town were caught at Pottery Corners crossing by the C. P. R. train, due here at 7.20.

Mrs. Primeau was instantly killed, and Primeau was so seriously injured that he is not expected to live. The horse was also killed.

The train stopped and carried the bodies to Lindsay station.

Mr. Primeau is a highly respected merchant.

Sad Drowning Fatality.

St. John, N.B., Feb. 23.—Charles McGinn, while working on the Bengore Head yesterday, fell overboard and was drowned. He was 19 years old, and leaves a widow, having been married a short time ago.

Who Gets the Most Out of Life?

Not the wealthiest, not the most learned, nor the idler—but the man who has good health and works for his living. This truth is trite, but not trivial.

Every man should guard his health as his most valuable possession. The more so because health is easier to retain than regain.

Keep your grip on health by regular exercise, reasonable care in eating and requisite sleep. Take Beecham's Pills occasionally, to tone the stomach and keep the liver and bowels in good working order. And don't worry.

Observe these simple rules and you will agree that the one who gets the most from life is

NOT THROUGH YET.

Mrs. Thaw's Life To Be Still Further Probed—Trial Will Cost Half a Million Dollars.

New York, Feb. 23.—Evelyn Nesbit Thaw has three days to rest and prepare for a continuation of the ordeal which she is undergoing at the hands of District Attorney Jerome. The Thaw trial was adjourned Thursday night until Monday morning, after Mrs. Thaw had spent the entire day on the stand under a searching flaying cross-examination at the hands of the district attorney. On Monday morning she will again take the stand and there is considerable question whether even on Monday the district attorney will be through with her.

More Sensations to Come.

Her associations with both White and Thaw after her return from Europe in 1903; the interviews with Abe Hummel when was drawn the famous affidavit which she has denied she had any part in framing; the European trip of 1904; the incident of the Cumberland Hotel and other incidents with Thaw, following her return; her marriage and the subsequent events—up to the fatal night on the Madison Square Garden—none of these has been inquired into on cross-examination. It would seem that the climax of sensationalism had been reached Thursday, but it is said the district attorney expects to bring out on Monday incidents of at least as sensational a character as those of Thursday.

Cost of the Trial.

The trial will have cost more than half a million of dollars before it is ended.

Of this vast sum the Thaw family will have paid nearly $400,000, while the burden on the taxpayers will be in excess of $121,000.

Terrorists Rob Postoffice.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Feb. 23.—The postoffice on Wapolna street was attacked at noon yesterday by a band of terrorists, who shot and killed the postmaster, two postal clerks and two soldiers guarding the place and wounded a score of bystanders. The terrorists robbed the safe of the cash and stamps and escaped in cabs.

The robbers belong to the organization known as the Fighting Socialists and displayed a red flag while making their escape.

WAS HE POISONED? IS THE QUESTION

Further Evidence In Canfield Murder Case.

CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE

Mrs. Perkins Alleged to Have Been Buying Poison for Years — Crown Believes Motive For the Crime Has Been Found—Lawyer Gives Startling Information—Widow Would Get About $4,000.

Cayuga, Feb. 23.—Interest in the Perkins case is at fever heat. In fact the public feeling has had not a little to do with the affair. The arrest of Mrs. Perkins, it is said, was at least precipitated by a movement on the part of a section of the community to petition the Attorney-General's Department to hurry up and do something. Inspector Greer had been doing a lot of useful work, as the evidence to be submitted will show, but he had been doing it quietly, if none the less thoroughly, and neighbors were getting tired of waiting for a climax.

Evidence Circumstantial.

While the case against the accused is wholly circumstantial the authorities claim to be justified in placing Mrs. Perkins in custody.

At the inquest into Perkins' death Dr. Kerr, the family physician, stated that he knew of no strychnine being about the house. The poison book at the local drug store, however, shows that Rolph Carrig, brother of Mrs. Perkins, purchased a quantity in October. It is said, too, that strychnine was found in the trunk owned by the dead man. On this the defence will, it is believed, base an argument that deceased ended his own life. In rebuttal the crown will produce witnesses from Welland to show that Perkins was in good health and good spirits when he lived there and when he left there to go home for Christmas.

Line Crown Will Take.

It was learned yesterday that the crown will endeavor to show that Mrs. Perkins has been buying poison for years in St. Thomas, Windsor and Detroit. While in Welland Detective Greer interviewed the persons with whom deceased boarded. On one occasion Perkins remarked to his boarding-house mistress that he was always well when away from home. When home he was invariably troubled with his stomach. It is the crown's endeavor to connect the alleged purchase of the poison which has been going on for years with Perkins' statement.

New Piece of Evidence.

A new piece of evidence will be furnished by a lawyer, who says that a short time before Perkins came home Mrs. Perkins enquired of him how she would share should Perkins die without making a will. She said he would not make a will and she was afraid he would die suddenly. The lawyer told her she would get $1,000 insurance and about $3,000 in property.

Perkins' father died under somewhat similar circumstances. It is said that Perkins got about $6,000 in property from the estate.

Reported Railway Smash.

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 23.—Train No. 21, known as the Chicago and St. Louis Express, is reported to have gone over an embankment at Mineral Point, eight miles east of this city. A relief train bearing all available physicians left here at 12.47. Officials refuse to allow newspaper men to accompany the train.

It is reported that 100 lives have been lost.

More Vessels Wrecked.

London, Feb. 23.—Two steamer wrecks were reported late last night by passing vessels.

One off Slamborough Head in the North Sea and the other off Beachy Head in the English Channel.

No details have been received.

The weather is still stormy, especially in the North Sea.

Gruesome New York Mystery.

New York, Feb. 23.—The feet and portions of the legs of a human body were found in a box in a snow bank in the back yard of a tenement house in Third avenue yesterday. The legs had been chopped off apparently with an axe. From the appearance of the feet and legs it is believed that an attempt was made to destroy them by fire.

ELEVEN ARE SAVED FROM THE WRECK

Lifeboat Crews Render Splendid Service.

PRINCE CONSORT HELPS

Thirty Bodies Already Recovered—Many Pathetic Scenes—Officer Tells Story of the Wreck — Survivors Cheer Their Rescuers — Scores of People Struggling In Water —Sea Ran Mountains High.

Hook of Holland, Feb. 23.—After over thirty hours of almost incessant efforts the Dutch lifeboat men have succeeded in rescuing eleven survivors on the afterpart of the British steamer Berlin, which went ashore here Thursday morning. Buffeted and driven back time after time, the sturdy Dutchmen refused to relax their attempts to rescue the handful of shipwrecked persons, and throughout last night and this morning they launched their boat repeatedly, only to be foiled by the mountainous seas. In the early afternoon the lifeboat again went out. The receding tide and some improvement in the weather gave better hope of success, and after a hard tussle with the seas the few persons still living were safely taken off at 3.30 p.m.

Prince Consort At the Scene.

Prince Henry of the Netherlands, the Prince Consort, arrived here yesterday and twice went out in a steam pilot boat to as near the wreck as it was possible to approach. Subsequently the Prince visited the building which is being used as a morgue and passed down the line of white-draped figures, stopping with bowed head for a few minutes before the body of a fair-haired child.

Bodies Battered Beyond Recognition.

The straggling little village of the Hook of Holland was filled with anxious relatives of the crew of the Berlin, and heartrending scenes are witnessed at the improvised mortuary, where the 55 bodies which already have been washed up are lying. Many of these are battered beyond recognition, and some are without heads, and others without arms or legs.

Eye Witness Tells Story.

London, Feb. 23.—The Great Eastern Railway Co.'s steamer Clacton returned to Harwich from the Hook of Holland. An officer of the Clacton yesterday gave a graphic account of the wreck as follows:—

Tremendous Sea.

"We found the Berlin broadside on at the north pier end and we at once set to work in an endeavor to succor the stranded steamer. A tremendous sea was running. The waves were 40 feet high, for the tide was flood and a fierce gale was blowing bang on shore. We got in close to the rocks but nearly went on them ourselves, and had to put about in order to escape the fate of the Berlin. It was impossible for us to get out a life boat, as it would have been smashed to pieces in the raging waters.

Victims Raised a Cheer.

"We could see people in groups on board the Berlin, some on decks and some in the smoke room on the forepart of the vessel. As we approached in an attempt to rescue them the persons on board raised a cheer. Apparently the best of discipline prevailed on board. All the passengers had been furnished with life belts and had gathered off the lee side, endeavoring to shelter themselves from the awful seas which were breaking over the vessel, submerging her decks, funnels, and almost her masts at times hiding her entirely from view. When within a hundred yards of the Berlin we threw out all our life belts with lines attached, but they failed to reach her."

Vain Fight For Life.

"It was impossible to take a line on board the stranded steamer, as nothing could have lived in the terrible waves. When the Berlin broke in two the passengers and crew were swept off her decks in batches and drowned within a few yards of safety. We could hear their shouts for help, but could do nothing to assist them. We saw scores of people struggling in the water, many clinging for brief periods to floating wreckage. But in their benumbed state they were unable to long resist the tremendous force of the waves and dropped off one by one."

VETEARN GENERAL SAILS.

Says Army's Work Is Misunderstood In Canada.

London, Feb. 23.—(C. A. P.)—General Booth has stated the Army is receiving enquiries for emigration to Canada at the rate of 2,000 a day; 10 per cent. were of unsuitable ages, boys ranging from 7 to 18.

General Booth, who sailed for New York yesterday, interviewed, said the Army was still misunderstood in parts of the Dominion.

"We are opposed, not because our methods of work seem irrational or unlikely to succeed, but simply because they are novel. What we preach even the drunkard and semi-idiot can understand."

General Booth added, though, that the Army now stood very high in the estimation of the Canadian people. It was generally hoped to make arrangements between the home and colonial Governments to transfer pauper and deserted children before they had time to contract bad habits.

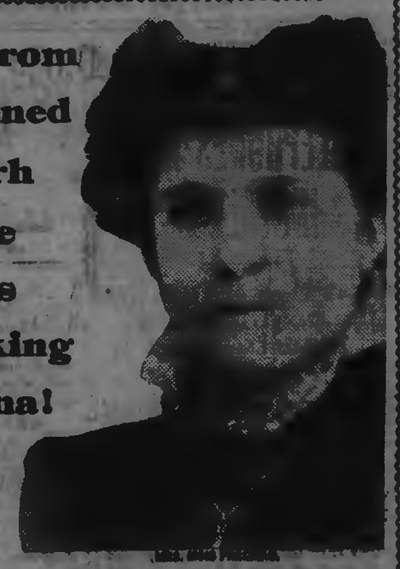
New Division Court.

Toronto, Feb. 23.—A new division court has been established in the united counties of Lennox and Addington, to be hereafter referred to as the eighth division court. The new clerk is James M. Defoe of Flinton P.O., and the new bailiff Thomas A. Freeburn of the same place.

Invite the Premiers.

London, Feb. 23.—(C. A. P.)—Henniker Heaton on Tuesday asks the Premier whether he will take steps to invite the Premiers of Canada, Australia and New Zealnd to address the Commons from the bar of the House on a question affecting our relations with the colonies.

Saved From Threatened Catarrh of the Lungs By Taking Pe-ru-na!



Mrs. Mois Parizeau, Ste. Julie de Verchere, P. Q., Canada, writes:

"I hardly know how to thank you for the good Peruna has done me.

"I suffered five years with pain in the stomach. About a year ago it became so bad I could hardly bear it.

"I coughed day and night and grew weaker and weaker. The pains extended through my body and I also had difficulty in breathing, which made me cough. Everyone thought I had consumption.

"My husband heard of Peruna and bought five bottles.

"This treatment virtually cured me and now I recommend Peruna to every one who is suffering.

"I thank Dr. Hartman for this excellent remedy."

—MRS. MOIS PARIZEAU.

A NEGLECTED cold is generally the first cause of catarrh.

Women are especially liable to colds. These colds occur more frequently during the wet, sloppy weather of winter and spring than any other time of the year. Often they are not considered serious and so are allowed to run on, or they are treated in such a way as to only palliate the symptoms, while the cold becomes more deep-seated and the patient finally awakens to the fact that she has a well-developed case of catarrh.

WOMEN SHOULD BEWARE OF CATCHING COLD.

By reason of their delicate structure, the lungs are frequently the seat of a cold, especially if there is the slightest weakness of the organs. The treatment of catarrh of the lungs is also more difficult and discouraging than catarrh of any other organ of the body.

It would be wise, therefore, to guard against it by every precaution possible.

Peruna has been found the most reliable of all remedies for coughs, colds and catarrh, by reason of the fact that it goes at once to the very seat of the trouble.

It searches out every crevice, every duct of the body. It quickens and equalizes the circulation of the blood, thus relieving the congested mucous membranes. It exercises a healing and soothing effect upon the mucous membranes, no matter whether they are the more exposed membranes of the head and throat, or whether they line the remotest cells of the lungs.

PE-RU-NA THE REMEDY FOR CATARRH OF THE LUNGS.

A word to the wise woman is sufficient. Take Peruna at the first appearance of a cold.

Those desiring special instructions regarding the use of Peruna, should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

British Consul Resigns.

New York, Feb. 23.—Sir Percy Sampson, who has been the British Consul-General in this city for about 13 years, has forwarded his resignation to the Foreign Office, to take effect in April. During his tenure here he has become a well-known figure, both in the commercial and social life of the metropolis. Sir W. Ward, now at Hamburg, is believed, is next in line of promotion.

King Edward Holds Court.

London, Feb. 23.—King Edward and Queen Alexandra had the first court of the year at the Buckingham Palace last night.

The beautiful floral decorations were most noticeable, there being tons of cut flowers from Windsor and Sandringham.

The function was attended by a brilliant assemblage of diplomats.

Two Asphyxiated by Gas.

Yonkers, N. Y., Feb. 23.—James F. McKay and his wife Mary were found asphyxiated in their home here yesterday.

It is supposed that when they retired Thursday evening one of them accidentally knocked the tube from a gas stove.

BETTER THAN SPANKING

Spanking does not cure children of bed-wetting. There is a constitutional cause for this trouble. Mrs. M. Summers, Box W. 61, Windsor, Ont., will send free to any mother her successful home treatment, with full instructions. Send no money, but write her to-day if your children trouble you in this way. Don't blame the child; the chances are it can't help it. This treatment also cures adults and aged people troubled with urine difficulties by day or night.

Engineer Seriously Hurt.

Sarnia, Feb. 23.—Engineer Joseph Daniels met with a serious accident last night. He was bringing a westbound freight train into the tunnel yards and had his head out of the cab window when it came in contact with a small shanty, the force of which pulled him through the window and he fell within a foot's distance of the wheels of the train. The fireman brought the train to a standstill. Daniels was found unconscious. By noon yesterday he was in a partially conscious condition, and there is some hope of recovery.

VICTORIA ENCAMPMENT WAS REVIEWED

Joint Degree Team from Peterborough Went to Port Hope Last Night for That Purpose

Last night thirty-three of the members of Mount Hebron and Hiawatha Encampments of the I.O.O.F. went to Port Hope by special train to assist in the resuscitation of the Victoria Encampment, No. 25, of that town which has not been holding meetings for two or three years. The local Oddfellows who were there state that the meeting was a very successful one and that the encampment was again revived. There were 3 new members initiated and besides these a number of the former members were present.

Officers were elected and afterwards installed by Mr. Alex. Smith, D.D.G.P., of Whitby District, assisted by Ex-G. P. Blackely, of Kingston, and the joint degree team from Peterborough.

Those who went from Peterborough arrived home at 5 o'clock this morning.

TO BREAK UP A COLD IN 24 HOURS AND CURE ANY COUGH THAT IS CURABLE

Mix one-half ounce of the Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) with two ounces of Glycerine and half a pint of good Whisky. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses every four hours.

A famous throat and lung specialist, who established a camp for consumptives in the pine woods of Maine, and whose wonderful cures there have attracted the attention of the civilized world, declares that the above formula will strengthen weak lungs, relieve the cough, heal the bronchial tubes and cure any case of lung trouble that is not too far advanced, providing the patient will assist by taking plenty of outdoor exercise, inhaling long deep breaths every few minutes.

It is said the mixture will break up an ordinary cold in twenty-four hours, and being free from opiates and drugs, is far preferable for use among children to the ordinary cough mixtures.

The ingredients can be secured from any good prescription druggist at small cost and easily prepared in your own home.

Inquiry at the prescription department of one of our leading druggists elicited the information that Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) is put up only in half-ounce vials, securely sealed in a round wooden case, with engraved wrapper, showing the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Windsor, Ontario—plainly printed thereon. There are many rank imitations of Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) which are being put out under similar names and style of package. Never accept these as a substitute for the Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), as they will invariably produce nausea, and never effect the desired result.

A local physician who is familiar with this treatment says it is undoubtedly the most effective known to medical science at the present time and, save for the open air life in the forest, would prove just as effective if used in the home. He says the formula given above is the one used in the pine woods, and that it has the unqualified endorsement of the leading physicians of the country.

The physician added, if this formula was known and used generally by the people, throat lung and bronchial affections would rarely reach an acute stage.

The Pure Virgin Oil of Pine is also a perfect neutralizing agent for uric acid. A few drops taken on sugar, night and morning will heal and regulate the kidneys and relieve the most obstinate case of rheumatism, if caused by uric acid in the system.

Dissertation On Bridge Whist.

BY MR. BARTON EARLE.

NO. I.

We hear much in these days of the Strenuous Life, and, since force, even if it be brute force, always commands a certain amount of respect, we generally have the strenuous man held up to admiration.

By the Strenuous Life I understand a life in which the powers of mind, or body, or both, are exerted to the utmost for the accomplishment of some person. Now, while it may be doubted whether the pursuit of even the most worthy object, can justify the leading of so intense a life to the exclusion of those softer virtues, which must be wooed during periods of repose and calm contemplation, there can be no doubt that the object sought must be in itself meritorious. I cannot but admire the old Grammarian who "Gave us the doctrine of the enclitic De, dead from the waist down;" but such a life does not meet with my unqualified approval. I would rather, with Bacon, believe in the "love-making or wooing" of Truth, feeling sure that our loving moods are the most favourable to inspiration.

All will admit that there is no lack of subjects of unquestioned merit to engage the attention of the strenuously inclined, but, though many of them are such as might be expected to call forth the greatest efforts, most of those who may be said to lead strenuous lives may be arranged in three classes, more or less intimately connected. Their pursuits are Wealth, Pleasure and Ambition.

I think it is Voltaire who says, or, rather, Voltaire, among others has said that vices are sometimes virtues carried to excess, and he might, perhaps, have gone further, and said that all vices are virtues carried to excess. The pursuit of gain is not, in itself reprehensible, nor are pleasures necessarily vicious; while ambition may be a positive virtue. But, while I would not strongly condemn those who, in a moderate degree, seek pleasure for its own sake, it is well to bear in mind that there can be no real joy without sacrifice. Happy, indeed, will he be who makes the happiness of others the object of his pursuit.

This may seem a rather ponderous and portentous introduction to the subject upon which I sat down to write, and I am quite aware of the fact that I should have stated long ago that my subject is Bridge Whist.

Now, I can see the look of disgust on the faces of those of my readers who have seen me attempt to play the game, and, for the benefit of those who have not been so unfortunate, I may say that I was a dismal failure. To those who know the estimation in which this game is held, the value attached to a knowledge of its nice points, and the importance (self-importance) of the successful player, this confession will appear most humiliating. I feel the humiliation and hasten to say that of the game itself I do not intend to speak except that, judging from its effect on others, it is most fascinating. It is with this fascination and its effect on society that I am now concerned. I say society advisedly, since it is in what is commonly called society that its influence is mainly felt.

I know that my slight knowledge of the game and my humble position in life are poor qualifications for speaking authoritatively on the subject; but I have read a little and thought more, and, though I know that what I am going to confess is unfashionable and will not be believed, I have actually felt. I do not mean that I felt financially, I never played any game for money—partly because I never had money, and partly because I would have lacked the necessary courage. I have done almost every other thing that I ought not to have done; but this thing, owing, no doubt, to poverty and cowardice, I have escaped.

I am not, however, without some personal knowledge of the effects of Bridge, and I am betraying no confidence and running no risk of injuring any one by speaking of it.

Being a lonely old man, and time hanging heavy on my hands at times, I accepted the kind invitation of some very estimable gentleman, and watched the game for many evenings with considerable interest. I know enough of whist to understand the play, and admired the skill and perfectly honourable conduct of the players. I could not fail to notice the intense interest, amounting to a passion, which they took in the game. Indeed, to a considerable extent, I shared that interest.

Of course, there was always a money consideration. The real votaries of the game do not like to waste their time playing without this additional interest. I know that I shall be met with the assurance that the amounts are insignificant. I do not know the rules of the game, but I do know that the amounts played for are not constant; and I know, further, that nothing in which human beings engage is insignificant.

The players would, of course, deny that they were affected in any way by a consideration so sordid as a desire of gain, and they would, probably, be honest in such denial; but the intelligent observer would know better.

Most of the gentlemen belonging to the set to which I refer were married men. Some of them had been married but a few months. Who will dispute the dangerous attraction of a game which has the power to keep a young man, almost every night, for months at a time, to a late hour, from the arms of a lovely young wife?

Now this is Bridge Whist under favourable circumstances, played by gentlemen of undoubted respectability. In this I have said nothing of the time lost from more profitable pursuits and higher pleasures—such as family and friendly intercourse, reading, attending lectures and other pleasurable and profitable entertainments; nor of those duties of a semi-religious character — such as visiting the sick and relieving or reforming the unfortunate.

Some who read this will wonder what it has to do with the strenuous life. If there were no more to say, this would, certainly, not have been said, though the thoughtful person will think this much. Before I am through with these articles, I shall, perhaps, make it clear that there is a very strenuous side to this question.

DEPUTATION TO VISIT THE PROVINCES

Resolutions Passed by the Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association.

A deputation composed of delegates from the Branches of the Ontario Fish and Game Protective Association, will formally present to Premier Whitney and his Cabinet, on Tuesday, March 5th, at 12.00 o'clock, by appointment, the resolutions and findings of the Convention of this Association, held last August in the University of Toronto.

It is greatly desired by the headquarters of the Association that as delegates as possible be present.

The attention of the local branch of the Fish and Game Protective Association has been called to this deputation, and its importance has been emphasized. This district is one which is peculiarly interested in the preservation of the fish and game, and it is hoped, in view of this fact that a number of delegates will join in this deputation to Toronto.

Miss Maude Crothers, violinist, and Miss Crothers and Mr. W. J. Bennet, pianists, will assist. Mr. Duncan Walker, I.P.S., will preside. Admission—10 cents.

DISGUSTING POSTAL CARDS DESTROYED

Sent Through Post Office Minus Stamps —Money Lost to the Sender.

The local postoffice department are in receipt of some disgusting picture postal cards without stamps. These have been destroyed by the post office so that the sender, in probably trying to get even for something, has only wasted his money. The depredators had better beware in the future lest their actions be discovered.

At any rate, they should know better than to send postal cards of the above description and expect them to be delivered, stamps or no stamps.

How Can You Test the Blood

Paleness of the lips, gums, and the inside of the eyelids, tells of weak, watery blood, while other indications are languid, worn out, and despondent feelings, headaches, nervous troubles, and weakness of the bodily organs. To say that the blood is thin and weak is to say that it lacks iron and the other elements of which Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is composed. There is no greater blood builder.

Peterborough Boys Do Not Fight Fair, Says Writer

To The Editor of The Examiner.

Dear Sir,—Last night, on leaving the C. G. E. Works, I noticed two boys having a pretty stiff fight. I was asked by a lady to interfere, but refused, feeling that after a good and fair fight boys appreciate and understand each other better. But to my disgust I saw these two combatants, often a while, were using their boots on one another. This is the second fight I have seen in Peterborough, and I contend that both were lacking in the tenour of fair play that I was taught, not that I advocate fighting, but the method and principle are what I question.

I believe that it is suggested that ethics should be taught in the schools as a cure for national evils, political and private. Teach the boys fair play, and so build up a strong, moral and noble character.

Thanking you for this opportunity,

Yours truly,

A SPARROW.

FARMERS' EXCURSION TO GUELPH

Will be Run via C. P. R. Special in June Executive Committee Makes Arrangements

The Executive Committee of the East and West Peterborough and East Durham Farmers' Institute met this morning at the Munro House to make arrangements for their annual Union Excursion to the Ontario Agriculture College at Guelph, in June, next. Mr. Birdsall occupied the chair while Mr. Wm. Collins acted as secretary.

It was decided to travel via C.P.R. special, beginning at Tweed, if satisfactory arrangements could be made.

Those present were Messrs. Birdsall, O'Reilly, and Hawthorne, of East Peterborough; Kelly and Fallis, of Durham, and Telford and Collins, of West Peterborough.

Andirons.

In regard to andirons, a writer in The Connoisseur points out the curious fact that the older specimens rarely come in pairs, but are of different heights and sizes. It was the custom in the middle ages, it seems, to make them uneven so as to facilitate the moving and raising of the huge blocks employed for firewood. He continues: In the middle ages they were also planned to hold a splint, and it was not until the late sixteenth century that they were much ornamented. According to Viollet le Duc, since the most remote ages, from Etruscan times down to the Romans, such andirons were made of iron. Vasari speaks of andirons made with "meravigliosa magistero" for the captains of the Arte delle Sete, but I have not found much ornamentation upon them as early as he says. I have a theory of my own, which is contrary to that of Viollet le Duc. In England andirons are called fire dogs, and in the Bargello there is a splendid specimen made in the form of crouching hounds. I hold that the andirons were in the first instance made in the shape of animals lying at rest, shaped of clay or stone, and it was much later that they were made of iron, when they often ended in animals' heads, most often in that of dogs.

The Field Marshal's Mistake.

In The Manchester Guardian G. W. E. Russell tells, or re-tells, this good Wellington story. Mrs. Loudon was an accomplished lady, who wrote not only on floriculture, but on arboriculture and landscape gardening, and illustrated what she wrote. In one of her works she desired to insert a sketch of the "Waterloo Beeches" at Strathfieldsaye—a picturesque clump planted to commemorate British deliverance from the Corsican tyrant. Accordingly, she wrote to the Duke of Wellington requesting leave to sketch the beeches, and signed herself, in her usual form, "J. Loudon." The duke, who, in spite of extreme age and with perceptions not quite so clear as they once were, still attended to his own correspondence, replied as follows: "F. M. the Duke of Wellington presents his compliments to the Bishop of London. The bishop is quite at liberty to make a sketch of the breeches which the duke wore at Waterloo, if they can be found. But the duke is not aware that they differed in any way from the breeches which he wore in peace."

WEDDING BELLS

ELLIOTT—GARDNER

A pretty wedding was celebrated at "Claylands," the residence of Alex. Gardner, Dummer, on Wednesday, February 20th, when his eldest daughter, Isabelle, was married to Mr. Harold W. Elliott, of Norwood. The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father, to the strains of the Wedding March played by Miss Edith McConnell of Belmont, and was gowned in white silk, and carried white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss Fannie Hughes of Peterborough, a cousin of the bride who wore white silk collenne, and carried pink roses, while little Miss Marjory Hutchinson of Peterborough, carried the ring, hid in a dainty basket of pink and white roses and looked sweet in white organdie trimmed with insertion, and lace. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. McLennan. After the ceremony, the guests to the number of 150, sat down to a sumptuous repast.

The bride was the recipient of a large number of beautiful and costly presents, amongst which a purse from her uncles at a distance. The groom's gift to the bride was a crescent with pearl setting, to the bridesmaid a locket with pearls, and to the ring bearer a gold bracelet. The young couple will reside in Norwood, and have the best wishes of a host of friends.

BUY SILVER BIRD!

The safest and best purchase in the whole Cobalt camp to-day, considering capitalization, location, work done, results obtained, and price of stock. There has never been a stock offered in the Cobalt district, from the opening up of the camp to the present day, that could compare with it when taking these points into consideration. Silver Bird is situated directly in the centre of the most active operations, and is surrounded by some of the most wonderful producing silver mines the world has ever known.

We are now offering for public subscription the first allotment of 200,000 shares at the low price of 15 cents per share. Now, just think of it! Compare this price with the price of the Colonial, only a stone's throw away, now selling at $3.50 to $4.00 per share, at a valuation of about four million dollars. Compare it also with the stock of the Right of Way, selling at from $7.00 to $8.00 per share. If the O'Brien mine was an incorporated Company to-day and offered for sale its stock would undoubtedly bring on the open market $10.00 to $12.00 per share on the capital of a million and a half. We have been informed from a trustworthy source that the ore blocked out and in sight in the Timmins mine is estimated at from $10,000,000 to $15,000,000. We venture to say that if this property were incorporated for $10,000,000 and placed upon the market, it would sell for $2.00 per share. It should be understood that we are in no way endeavoring to depreciate the values of the Colonial, Right of Way, O'Brien or Timmins stocks or properties, for, indeed, we believe they would be bargains at those prices and valuations. We are only endeavoring to show that Silver Bird, which is located in close proximity to these mines, is at

15 CENTS PER SHARE

In comparison with those valuable properties, positively the greatest and best purchase that has ever been offered in the Cobalt camp.

About eighteen months ago there were several Cobalt companies organized, and their shares offered for subscription in Cobalt and near-by towns. Many of the laborers, clerks and other wage-earners, being on the ground, manifested their faith in the camp by placing their earnings in sums varying from $100.00 to $1,000.00 in these shares. There is not a single exception known where these shares have not advanced from 10 to 100 times the first price. This seems almost like a fairy tale, but it is the truth. There are many men who can be seen every day walking about the uneven streets of Cobalt who eighteen months ago were known as common day laborers, working for $2.00 per day, who are now actually worth from $30,000.00 to $100,000.00, all gained from pinning their faith in Cobalt and placing their savings in Cobalt mining stocks.

One of the highest recommendations for the shares of Silver Bird is the fact that the investors at Cobalt and Haileybury are buying heavily of these shares. Within the last several days we have received orders from investors in that section for more than 40,000 shares. The employees of the Nipissing, the O'Brien and the Red Rock are buying these shares.

Silver Bird is situated between and close to these mines, and these miners should know what they are buying.

Now, just consider for a moment! Here are men right on the ground, employed on the properties that surround and are in the immediate vicinity of Silver Bird, placing their money in these shares at the present market price—15 cents. THESE MEN ARE MINERS. They know the property. They can see Silver Bird every day. They are in a position to know whether these shares are a bargain or not. It is no trouble to see the property, as it is only about 15 to 20 minutes' walk from the railway station or postoffice at Cobalt to the Silver Bird mine.

Many people are visiting the property, and we do not know of one exception where they have not purchased these shares after once examining Silver Bird.

Just recently a gentleman claiming to be a mining engineer and mineralogist came into our office, stating he was just from Cobalt and had made an examination of Silver Bird Property. He placed his order for 20,000 shares for himself and friends. This speaks for itself!

Now, a word to investors: Buy the shares of Silver Bird at the present first allotment price of 15 cents. Buy all you can of these shares. Place your faith in the most wonderful mining district the world has ever known. Back it up with all the money that you can see your way clear to invest. You will never regret it, but will always rejoice.

WATCH SILVER BIRD!

Silver Bird will be paying dividends equal to its present purchase price within the next year on every share of its stock. Invest your money in Silver Bird, the greatest bargain that has ever been offered in the Cobalt camp.

The property of the Silver Bird Mines, Limited, consists of 20 acres (patented), being the west half of the northeast quarter of North half of lot 3, concession 6, Coleman. Silver Bird lies in the immediate vicinity of the O'Brien, Timmins, La Rose, Colonial, Violet, Trethewey, Right of Way, and immediately between these great mines and the Green-Meehan, Red Rock, Cobalt Contact and Nipissing extension. Silver Bird is working day and night shifts, operating two boilers, steam hoist, steam drills, sinking on three veins, and in the same formation identically as the famous O'Brien, Colonial, Timmins and Right of Way mines, and on the extension of their leads. We predict this first allotment will be largely oversubscribed, and we urge that early application be made.

To guard against over-issue, and to guarantee to investors the genuineness of the certificate when issued—also the prompt and safe delivery of the same—arrangements have been made with the Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, 14 King Street West, Toronto, to act as Trustees, Transfer Agents and Registrars.

MAY BUILD RAILWAY TO THE BAY

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Makes Important Statement In House.

NEW OUTLET HUDSON BAY

Need For a Railway In Northern Canada Is Recognized by Government—Mr. Knowles Wants Matter Hurried on — Suggested Railway Commission for West — Additions to Parliament House.

Ottawa, Feb. 23.—The House of Commons followed the lead of the Senate yesterday afternoon and discussed the proposal to construct a railway to Hudson Bay. The discussion was opened by Mr. Knowles, who made out a good case for the new outlet for the Northwest. The Prime Minister acknowledged the need for a railway in northern Canada, with an outlet on the Hudson Bay, and stated that the matter was receiving the consideration of the Government. He hoped before the session ended to make a definite announcement. The remainder of the session was given over to supply.

Yukon Wheat Is Good.

Dr. Thompson laid on the table a sample of wheat grown in the Yukon Territory in latitude 63. (Cheers.) He said he had submitted the sample to the Committee on Agriculture and to experts at the Experimental Farm, and they had pronounced the wheat to be of first-class quality ,equal to anything they raised in the North-

Mr. Knowles moved an amendment to the motion to go into supply, urging the necessity of the Government taking all possible steps for the speedy construction of a railway to Hudson Bay. Construction of a railway to Hudson Bay would relieve a situation which was growing intolerable. He had been advised by experts that the country would present no great engineering difficulties. Fort Churchill was one of the finest natural harbors in the world, and he believed that Hudson Straits would be open for navigation for four or five months of the year.

Car Shortage In West.

Mr. Lake complained that the matter had been sprung upon the House, and went on to discuss the question of car shortage in the west. He was confident that if the projected railway was proceeded with it would immensely develop the northwest portion of Canada.

Mr. Greenway said he was satisfied that the route would be open for four months of the year. Manufacturing interests of the east were wrapped up in the expansion of the west, and therefore it was incumbent on the Government to attempt to solve the problem of transportation, or at least give it their serious consideration

Railway Commission Asked For.

Dr. Cash supported the amendment, and Mr. McCraney pointed out that business conditions in the west were such that the farmers were greatly dependent on the banks. Therefore, if he could not get his grain to market when prices were suitable the farmer was liable to suffer a double loss. The remedy seemed to be in the decentralising of the Railway Commission, creating a new body which could deal with the conditions arising in the west.

Mr. Foster said that for some time he had been convinced that the Hudson Bay route would become an outlet. He thought that the time had come.

Sir Wilfrid Replies.

The Prime Minister said the question was not a new one, but it had become more acute because of recent conditions which had prevailed in the new Provinces. While the railways had not been able to overcome the congestion of traffic he was not prepared to say they had been in any way remiss. He knew that in Manitoba and the new Provinces the railways had been doing more for the eastern Provinces than for the west, but conditions in the west were not peculiar to that portion of the Dominion. I may say to the members of the House, especially from the Northwest Territories, who are interested in this, that at this very moment the subject is engaging the attention of the Government

Is Being Considered.

I am not prepared at this moment to make any further statement than that, but I say this, with all the authority which I have in this House, that at this moment the subject is engaging the attention of the Government. I am not prepared to say that next week or the week after, or within a very short time, we will have an announcement to make to the House, but I hope before the end of the session we will have something to declare upon this subject."

The House again went into Committee of Supply and considered the Public Works estimates.

Addition to Parliament Buildings.

Mr. Henderson took exception to the vote of $175,000 for the addition of a new wing to the Parliament buildings and asked for an explanation of what the Government intended to do.

Mr. Fisher reminded Mr. Henderson that last session the House consented to go on with the construction of another wing. An order in Council had been signed authorizing the contract.

He had seen the plans prepared by an architect of the department, and was delighted and surprised at the complete success with which the architect had been able to make a considerable addition to the Parliament buildings without in the slightest degree destroying or marring the architectural effect. The addition would add to the beauty and imposing character of the buildings.

Replying to Mr. Bennett, the Minister said the contract was for $237,000.

The item was allowed to stand over until the plans are produced.

Regarding the proposed improvements at Rideau Hall, for which $100,000 was asked, Mr. Fisher stated that the total cost would be $130,000.

The House adjourned at 11.15 p.m.

Strike Leader At Buckingham Was Incensed At the Maclarens.

Ottawa, Feb. 23.—Monday will probably see the end of the Buckingham manslaughter charges against Alex. Maclaren, Constable Kiernan and Bailiff Cummings.

Yesterday Richard E. Birtch, a Salvation Army man, testified that the deceased strike leader, Belanger, told him he would blow all the Maclaren mills up, and was not going to leave one Maclaren alive.

"No man," said Belanger, "had a right to be rich and the rest poor."

The witness wrote warning letters to the Maclarens, whom he did not know. It is estimated that the Buckingham riot cases will cost fully $5,000.

British House Passes "Deceased Wife's Sister" Bill.

London, Feb. 23.—The House of Commons yesterday by 263 to 24 votes adopted the second reading of the bill legalizing marriage with a deceased wife's sister.

This is the eighteenth time the measure has passed its second reading, but there seems to be better prospects than heretofore that it may become a law during the present session of Parliament.

Peterboro' Won One Of The Best Games Ever Seen Here

Defeated the Famous New York Crescents in a Lightning Fast and Hard-Fought Contest.

SMALL ATTENDANCE—GAME WAS NOT A SUCCESS FINANCIALLY

The Crescent Athletic Club's hockey team of New York City went down to defeat at the hands of Peterborough last night in a game that, for fast, aggressive, unceasing hockey, has seldom been equalled in this city. The score was 7 to 4 in favour of the locals, and at the half was three all. The pace was terrific from start to finish, and the small crowd were constantly on their tiptoes and wildly excited as the puck travelled incessantly up and down the ice. It was fifty minutes of hockey of the best and most exciting type, the teams checking like fiends, while brilliant stickhandling, individual dashes and combination rushes made the contest an ideal one to watch. It was the meeting of two heavy and fast teams, both of whom were not backward in checking hard with their bodies, and the result was a magnificent exhibition of skill and endurance. One forward line would get the puck and start away, but back would come the other advance guard and, clipping the rubber, would make a similar dash in the other direction. It was no wonder that the enthusiasm of the crowd knew no bounds, and that the game was voted the best in years. The teams hammered along at an astonishing pace for the whole distance and there was not the slightest let-up throughout. Both teams were game to the core, took their bumps when handed out and came back for more without a murmur. It was a treat for the spectators and worth a dozen games of the milk and water variety.

The Peterborough team went on the ice with the determination to beat the famous visitors, and beat them they did, although they had to work every minute to turn the trick. At that they pulled out with a comfortable margin of three goals, but the Yankees were not beaten until the last tap of the bell. The aggressive, never-let-up spirit that characterized the play of the local team, coupled with their superiority in combination and shooting, won them the game. They had nothing on the Crescents in skating or stickhandling, but their play was more systematic and they worked their way around the defence and away from their checks in better fashion than did the visitors. The local line played a grand game throughout, passing and taking the passes for the most part faultlessly, and few opportunities for a shot were thrown away. The rubber was generally heaved straight and hard at the nets wherever there was an opening, and when they lost the rubber they were back at the heels of the visitors' line to help out the defence.

And accurately. He received a bad change to centre ice made a wonderful difference in his playing. His good stickhandling and shooting were of far more service to the team than when he was on the wing and he played a fine game throughout, getting six of Peterborough's goals. Moore's grand work in checking back was a feature of the contest. He doubled back on the Crescent forward line and on at least a dozen occasions skated the man with the rubber into the corner before he had a chance to shoot. And Moore was as aggressive in his carrying of the puck, too. Wallie Parnell played great hockey all the way, stickhandling beautifully and passing neatly and accurately. He received a bad cut on the nose in the second half, but pluckily finished out the game after having it patched up. Chris. Graham was aggressive at right wing, checking his man to perfection, while he did much useful work in carrying the puck. Capt. Crowley and Glover made few mistakes on the defence, checking in grand manner, as well as breaking away for frequent rushes that were always dangerous. Crowley used his body to good advantage, and the Crescents found him an awkward obstacle to get around. Lang in the nets stopped and cleared well.

The Crescents went down with their colours flying, and though Peterborough's win was well merited, the Crescents have nothing to be ashamed of. The strength of the winners' line lay in the persistence in which they followed the Crescents around, never letting up in their dogging tactics and never worrying of the continual chase up and down the ice. They were down to help out the defence in ever

Crescent attack, and while the New Yorkers themselves, as a rule, followed out the game style, it was not with the perseverance or the success of the locals, and this had an important bearing on the final result.

The Crescents' line is as speedy as has been seen here this season. Liffiton and Kennedy especially are forwards of the first water. They skated in whirlwind fashion and handled their sticks magnificently. The line, while as fast as Peterborough, did not, however, display the same generalship in working in close. Nicholls was decidedly effective at cover and handled the Peterborough forwards without gloves, while our old college chum, Herbie O'Flynn, of lacrosse fame, played a fine game at point. Mackenzie, the educated goal keeper, made some clever stops.

The O.H.A. rules governed the first half of the contest, while the second half was played under the eastern rules, which do not permit of skating a player on side. The change in rules did not seem to have much effect on the play. The game was played in twenty-five-minute halves.

W. E. Wasson refereed the game and his work was satisfactory to every one.

Financially, the game was not a success, and the team is in the hole as the result of bringing the Crescents here. The game was worthy of a bumper house.

Following were the teams:

CRESCENTS.

Mackenzie
O'Flynn
Nicholls
Dobby
Shiebler — Liffiton — Kennedy
Moore — Parnell — Graham
Miller
Crowley
Glover
Lang

PETERBOROUGH.

The play was lightning fast from the start and both teams were going the limit. It was rush and counter rush, attack and counter attack all the way through, with few slow moments. Neither seemed to have much advantage in the initial moments of play. Liffiton was the first to be penalized, going off for a heavy body check, although he did not seem to see where he erred. He was from Missouri, he said, and had to be shown. Wasson went ahead with the show and ruled him off. Moore followed him a minute after for slashing. They were both on again, however, when the first goal was scored.

Kennedy, the fast little left wing of the Crescents went down the side and sweeping out in front of the nets, shot from outside Glover and scored on a fine shot. Score 1—0.

In the next few minutes' play Dobby received a bad cut on the head from the puck in following in on Crowley. The game was delayed until Dobby was repaired and he came back on the ice with a piratical bandage on his head. Peterborough soon evened up the score, Miller breaking the ice on a good shot after a neat pass from Moore. Score 1—1.

Kennedy was hurt by a body check into the boards by Crowley, and the locals' big captain was penalized. Liffiton tried to tell the referee that he was off for five minutes, but Ernie couldn't see it that way. Miller put Peterborough in the lead on a pass from Graham. Score 2—1.

The local rover repeated the trick shortly after, following a combined rush with Moore. Score 3—1.

The play was still fast and the checking hard. The New Yorkers took a hand in the scoring at this stage. Kennedy strayed down the ice on the wrong wing, but managed to centre cleverly to Liffiton who scored neatly. Score 3—2.

Matters were evened up just before half time and again Kennedy was the man who carried the rubber down. His shot was hard and true but Lang nailed it. The puck bounded out to Liffiton, however, and he made the score 3—3. Before time was called Miller was penalized for tripping.

The play showed no let up in the second half, in fact, it was even faster than the initial period. A few minutes after the start, Parnell was hurt in a collision with Glover. Referee Wasson did not see the accident and let Parnell lay on the ice until the Crescents scored which they did immediately after on a shot by Liffiton. Score 4—3.

Parnell went off to be patched up, taking Nicholls with him. They were back in a few minutes. Miller pulled the locals up even on a pretty shot from the boards. Score 4—4.

Crowley went off for body checking. Peterborough had assumed the aggressive at this stage and soon went out in front, Miller once again scoring on a pass from Moore. Score 5—4.

Crowley bowled over Kennedy and O'Flynn in a heap while he was making a rush and was sent off again. Moore made a pretty rush and Miller scored again. Score 6—4.

Miller and Nicholls had a little argument in the middle of the rink and both were sent away. Moore scored the final game on a pass from the corner. Score 7—4. Before time was called Shiebler was ruled off for slashing.

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Crescents arrived in the city shortly after 6 o'clock last night, their train being a little late. They were accompanied by about forty rooters, whose vocal work was excellent.

The local club had made arrangements to entertain the visitors at the Elks club rooms, but the New Yorkers had to leave immediately after the game, going on a special G. T. R. train. They play Varsity in Toronto to-night.

Wallie Parnell's nose was split open and he had to have five stitches put in it after the game.

The visitors' line had a tendency to loaf off side and got away with it quite often.

PETERBORO'S CLAIM TO BE HEARD ON MONDAY

Executive Will Meet to Deal With the Matter Then.

THE GLOBE'S VIEW ON THE MATTER

Secretary Chris. Graham this morning was notified by Acting Secretary Fitzgerald of the O.H.A., that Peterborough's protest has been received by him and that a meeting of the executive will be held on Monday night to consider the matter. The meeting was to have been held to-night, but it was necessary to postpone it owing to the fact that President Darroch was not able to be present. The result will be awaited with great interest here.

The Globe, the semi-official mouth piece of the O.H.A., to-day has the following one-sided summary of the situation which does not argue much for the success of Peterborough's claim:—

"Peterborough's desire for a chance to play again with Kingston for the championship of the eastern senior district is natural, but the claim has no very substantial foundation. As the Kingston Whig says, when the clubs in the group drew up their schedule, they agreed, Peterborough included, that Kingston and Midland should play a sudden death game, the winner to be considered winner of the home-and-home series.

"Secretary Graham, of the Peterborough Club, says: 'It was understood at the meeting of the District Committee when the schedule was drawn up, that in case the fact of the game between Kingston and Midland, being counted as two games, should affect the standing of any of the other clubs, that then they were to play home-and-home games,' but this has no bearing on the case. No one club is affected more than another. Kingston has a clear lead over all the others at the expiration of the schedule, and Peterborough has no shadow of right to have the schedule extended."

AN INDEPENDENT LEAGUE NOW PROPOSED

Berlin Despatch Says Movement is on Foot Looking Toward This End—The Teams Mentioned.

CHUCK TYNER PLAYS WITH BERLIN

The Toronto News of last night, had the following story from Berlin, relative to the formation of a proposed independent hockey league for next season, which the despatches state, Peterborough is expected to enter. So far as the local club is concerned, the matter has not been under consideration, the affairs of the present season having been sufficient to engage their attention.

The despatch says: Chuck Tyner, of the Marlboros, is to play goal for Berlin in the Toronto games. An offer has also been made to play here by a hockeyist who is a member of the O.H.A. executive; so much for adherence to amateur principles. A letter was received to-day from two men, one from Toronto, claiming that they can produce evidence that would professionalize Ingram, of the Saints, but the Berliners will take no action. They are down and out and will not bother again with O.H.A. matters. Berlin men claim to have assurances from Peterborough, Toronto, Waterloo, Galt, Brantford, London and Woodstock, to enter an independennt circuit next season.

THE BERLIN TEAM NOW INTO THE PRO. RANKS

Dutch Company Will Now Play Professional Hockey—A Desertion of Players Promised.

The Toronto News last night said: The Berlin club has decided to jump the amateur ranks and play professional hockey, and this morning arrangements were made with the Toronto Pros. for a game at Berlin, on Tuesday night next.

A return game will be played in Toronto.

The Dutchmen have been contemplating this step since the muddle here on Saturday last and last night definitely decided to play pro. out and out.

WHOLESALE DESERTION!

At least one other senior O.H.A club is considering the same question and will decide within a day or two.

In fact there are rumours of a wholesale desertion by O. H. A. senior clubs and players, and when the local Pros. play Berlin on Tuesday night it would not be surprising to see a couple of well-known amateurs in the line up. It is expected that the Canadian Soo will play the Toronto professionals on Wednesday next.

HOCKEY

On Monday night between 6 and 7 o'clock, Turnbull's All Stars and Cressman's Ragged Heroes clash in what promises to be a red hot game. Turnbull's line up will be as follows:—

Goal, Storey.
Point, Shea.
Cover point, Maude.
Centre, McNichol.
Right wing, Wilson.
Rover, Gillespie.

Two Business College teams from the Shorthand and Commercial departments met in the Brock street rink this morning and played a fast game of hockey which resulted in a twin for the latter by 6 3. The first half was more even than the latter, each team scoring three goals, but in the latter half the Shorthand boys faded away and allowed their opponents to tally three to their none.

H. W. Wallace refereed the game, while T. J. Miller and S. A. Smithson acted as goal umpires.

PETERBORO BONSPIEL NOW BELONGS TO THE PAST

Final Consolation Played and Won Yesterday Evening by R. Neil's Rink Over That of Geo. Fitzgerald.

GREATEST PETERBORO' BONSPIEL ENDED

The dying stages of the great Peterborough curling bonspiel were by no means the least exciting. The final game, which was to declare the winners of the Consolation match, was begun yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, by Skips Geo. Fitzgerald and R. M. Waddell, and finished about 7.30, with the latter victorious by the large majority of 15 points. Both rinks had been playing an excellent game from the beginning of the bonspiel, so that a more exciting game was expected. Nevertheless, the many spectators who gathered around to witness the final contest, were repaid by seeing some spectacular shots.

R. Neill's rink, which was skipped by R. M. Waddell, forged ahead in the early stages of the game, and although later his opponent made a strong effort to overcome the lead, his efforts were in vain. Archie Moore, his vice, took charge of the rink for a few ends and by some good plays made a few counters. Arthur Blade was replaced on the rink last night by Oscar Dumble.

The last few stones of the last end were watched with interest. With his last stone, Waddell dislodged his opponent's, which was lying shot, but his own went outside the ring with it. Fitzgerald bringing up the rear and by a strong shot carried the only remaining stone of his opponent's off the ice, but followed it up with his own. The final end of the bonspiel had been played with neither team scoring. The Consolation winners are therefore R. Neill, Geo. Fitzgerald and T. H. McMurtry of Oshawa.

FREIGHT TRAINS COLLIDE.

Trainmen Lucky Enough to Escape in Montreal Smashup.

Montreal, Feb. 23.—A rear-end railway collision occured between 1.30 and 2 a.m. yesterday near the residence of Mr. Terroux at St. Lambert.

A Grand Trunk freight train from Montreal, bound south, going at a fast rate around the curve, ran into another slower freight train ahead, smashing the van and two freight cars to kindling wood. The wreckage caught fire from the locomotive of the rear train.

The crew of the fast freight saw their danger in time to jump and saved their lives. Nobody was hurt.

The lines were blocked for some time.

Britain's Army Bill.

London, Feb. 23.—An official memorandum issued yesterday announces that the army estimates, which will be introduced in the House of Commons Feb. 25, will provide for the expenditure during 1907-8 of $138,800,000, a reduction of about $10,000,000 from last year.

Synopsis Of Canadian North-West HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even-numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situate.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act, as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THORNS AND ORANGE BLOSSOMS

The Grand Opera House was well filled last night on the occasion of the production of "Thorns and Orange Blossoms." In spite of the season and counter attractions, it was a fairly large audience that greeted this melodrama. The story is one that has been widely read and therefore claimed the interest of many in its dramatised form. The story is told in four acts and is above the general class of stories of love and hate.

The company playing it is a well-balanced one, and the manner in which the play was acted elicited hearty applause from the audience. Miss Marie Dale, as Lady Violet Rivers, received two curtain calls at the close of the second act. As the wife of Lord Randolph Rivers, Miss Dale was very true to the original and acted her part exceedingly well. Mr. Paul Anderson, in the double role of Randolph Rivers and Lord Randolph Rivers, had an important part to play and did it well. Mr Roy Laidlow, as Tommy Swift, the young American, and Flora Fairfield, as Monica Rivers, provided much of the humour in the play and both had a delightful stage presence. As a whole, the play was a good one and served as an enjoyable evening's pastime. It was worthy of a full house, but circumstances were not favourable.

THE WEATHER

This morning about seven o'clock the thermometer marked 17 degrees below zero. The self-registering pin showed, however, that the temperature had been down to 20 below during the night. The temperature has been gradually rising to-day and a change in [illegible] conditions is near.

SOBRIETY AS THE SOLUTION OF PROBLEM OF THE UNEMPLOYED

"It is nearly always the man in his prime or the young, able-bodied man, who bulks so largely among the unemployed," asserts Mr. Mercer, secretary of the Charity Organization Society of Blackburn, England, in a recent magazine article. He states that by far the greater portion who applied to the local Distress Committee last winter were in the prime of life, and the same thing was noticeable among the applicants to the corporation Labour Bureau. The opinion of Mr. Mercer is that sobriety would work wonders in helping to provide more employment.

LIFE OF THE PRESENT ONE WHICH SHOULD GIVE US CONCERN

How significant, how exhilarating are these words: Not the life when we have passed the gate of pearl, but the life that is now; not our life when we stand on the brow of the transfiguration mount, but the life at home, or in the daily walks and common places of existence. It is possible that there is a life to be lived in the common round and the daily task, so loyal, so radiant, so blessed, that those who live it may be said to reign in life.—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

THE OMNIPOTENCE OF THE QUALITY OF THE DIVINE LOVE

Everything becomes possible to those who love. The commands of the Lord are no longer grievous, for the soul that loves is gifted by that love with fresh energies; it discovers in itself unsuspected possibilities and is supplied with overflowing currents of new vigour. We shall be enabled to do so much if we only love. We live by loving, and the more we love the more we live, and, therefore, when life feels dull and the spirits are low, turn and love God, love your neighbour, and you will be healed of your wound. Love Christ, the dear Master; look at His face, listen to His words, and love will weaken, and you will do all things through Christ, who strengtheneth you.

GROWN-UPS JOINED FUN OF COASTING BRIGADE

Elders Withstood Temptation for Long Time—Dignity at Last Vanquished and Fun Started.

NIGHT'S FUN ON ICE-COVERED HILL

New York, Feb. 22.—It began with the heavy trucking that hauls through West Ninety-Sixth street quits for the day and the youngsters got out their sleds and put them on the glaze of ice that yesterday afternoon's mean rain laid on West End avenue. West End avenue makes a fine drop from One Hundredth street to Ninety-Sixth street. Wagon traffic was impossible in the absence of any footing, so the police let it go at that.

Grave citizens of the brown-stone-front type watched sidewise as they scaled the frozen sidewalks to their stone stoops. When they got to their groaning boards they mostly boasted to their wives and grown-up sons concerning the dizzy coasting they used to do when boys were real boys forty years ago. After dinner the result was that second-storey windows were lined with grown-ups regretting their years and dignities.

Then a crowd of tab 'cab boys from Columbia came along with whizzing bobsleds and joined the kids in the middle of the sloping street. Their presence was encouragement to everybody and an excuse.

The sudden exodus from happy homes was comical, the "cop" on the beat said, except that it was so natural. Within five minutes the curbstones were lined with staid fathers of families, athletic young men and beautiful girls in captivating party hoods, beseeching the coasting kids to lend them a sled.

"For how much?" demanded an urchin, whose father drives a hansom cab, and the foolish ball began to roll.

Sleds came as high as a dollar. In some cases, especially where to the discerning eye of Young America it was apparent that the chappie with the good-looking girl would pay any price rather than argue.

And once started:

Whizz—

Whing-g—

Scrunch—and a flutter of draperies and shrieks mingled in the snow that was indistinguishable in many cases from what was rolling in it.

The fun kept up till nearly midnight, and the cabman's son made twice as much money as any of the others.

WAIT TILL THE SUN SHINES NELLIE

Superstition of Bride Spoiled Double Wedding—An Example of the Popular Song

Jersey City, Feb. 22. — Dripping with rain, two pretty young women, in gowns of white, entered yesterday morning the office of City Hall Custodian Powers, in Jersey City. They were followed by two young men.

"We wish to get married," the older girl announced.

Justice of the Peace Lehane was summoned. The young women said they were Annie and Delia Ryan, of 573 Grove street, aged 19 and 21 years. The men described themselves as Michael Flannia and William Donaldson, of 106 Fairmount avenue.

Justice Lehane thought the would-be bridegrooms too young, and when they admitted that their parents were not aware that they intended to marry he refused to officiate. The quartette left disappointed and hurried to the office of Justice of the Peace Robert Miller, who consented to marry them.

After he had performed the ceremony for Delia Ryan and William Donaldson, the younger sister refused to become the wife of Flannia.

"I am a little superstitious," she said. "I believe in the old saying of 'Happy the bride the sun shines on.' It is raining now, and I feel we will be unhappy if we marry."

"But what will become of all the furniture I have purchased for our home?" questioned the downcast Flannia.

Miss Ryan would not relent, and the bridal party left. Two hours later the sun appeared through the clouds. At the same minute Miss Ryan and Flannia entered Justice Miller's office, Miss Ryan saying:

"I am ready now to become Mrs. Flannia. The sun is shining."

Justice Miller married them and kissed the bride. The couples will live together in an apartment in New York.

KEENE IS GETTING VERY CITY-LIKE

Residents Want Cattle Barred From the Streets—Mrs. McDermott Refuses To Go to the House of Refuge.

Examiner Special

Keene, Feb. 18. — A meeting of the Otonabee council was held today, all the members being present.

The clerk was instructed to notify the pathmasters to improve the ditches and sides of the roads when required, to make them fit for winter travel. This is considered necessary on account of the high grading of the road, and the clearing of the country, causing the snow to drift off them.

J. H. Taylor was present re Mrs. McDermitt's unwillingness to be removed to the House of Refuge. Mr. Taylor and Mr. Stewart were appointed to interview her with regard to removal.

One copy of the Municipal World was ordered for the office.

A petition was presented signed by a majority of the ratepayers of Keene, asking the council to pass a bylaw to prohibit horses, cattle, sheep and pigs from running at large in the village of Keene, to be in force day and night from the 15th of Oct. to the 15th of May, and from the 15th of May to 15th Oct., during the night, and to appoint an offficer to enforce it. The clerk was instructed to prepare a bylaw in accordance with the petition.

A deputation from the Agricultural Society was present asking the council to purchase a new gate to replace the one between the town hall and the skating rink, and two bags of cement to keep the posts in place, the society to provide the posts and place them. The request was granted. Patrick Doherty was present interviewing the council with regard to damages for his brother's broken leg. The reeve was appointed to see the township solicitor in regard to the matter.

Edwin Braden applied to have two pine trees cut on the road opposite his farm. Mr. Miller was appointed to view the trees and if an injury to the road to advertise and sell them.

The clerk was instructed to ask for tenders for 2500 feet of 5 inch cedar 16 feet in lenght.

The auditors' report was presented, and on motion was received and adopted, and the treasurer's accounts finally audited.

John Mather was present, asking for compensation for a sheep that was killed by dogs. The council explained that the bylaw in force in the township does not provide for paying for damages, the dog tax being applied to the general expenses of the township.

The following accounts were passed: Mrs Pue, $5, for five weeks' keep of Mrs Metcalfe and conveying her to the station on her removal to the House of Refuge; Adam Primett, $5 for one cord of 2 ft. wood; William Wedlock, one cord wood, $3.50; D Hayes, gravel damages, $4; W E Wood, gravel damages, $4; Jas Stewart, draining culverts, $2.50; Shearer & Drummond, making cement culverts, $3; J J Moore, auditing, $5; J C Hope, auditing, $5; Peterborough Hardware Co., nails, $1.16; E J Lynch, Otonabee portion of repairing scraper, $1.45; W T Mather, repairing account, $24.15; J M Drummond, salary, $275, balance of account, $7. The treasurer reported that he had received from the Provincial Treasurer a cheque for $99.98, being Otonabee's portion of the Provincial tax on railways after deducting 10c per day for township patients in the asylums, whose friends pay less than $1.50 per week; $8 from the county treasurer for cement culvert for repair of the approach to Allandale bridge; $7 from C. Thurson, for cement culverts; refund wood, re W. Bateman, $3.37.

Council adjourned to the 18th of March.

BOBCAT SPOILS GAME OF POKER

Jumped Through a Window and Scatters Money, Players and Everything

Blackville, N. B., Feb. 18. — Some lumbermen logging in a camp a dozen miles west of here, received a shock a few nights ago, when a bobcat leaped through a closed window and alighted in the middle of a group intent upon a game of draw poker. The light through the glass attracted the animal.

The men, five in number, were seated about a round table engrossed in winning a jack pot, containing the unprecedented wealth of 37 cents. A chopper, known by his companions as "Seedy Bill," held three tens and just raised Sandy Small, who held three nines, two cents, the limit. The other three had dropped out and were watching the game, when the glass crashed and in came the cat, just as Sandy was thoughtfully fingering a small pile of seed beans, which represented one cent each.

It is needless to explain that the advent of the bobcat caused intense excitement. He struck the exact centre of the table, emitted a blood-curdling yell doubled and tried to jump out again. But in his flight of exit his body came in contact with the head of "Seedy Bill," who had leaped to his feet, and the feline bounded against the smouldering back log in the fire place. Singed hair and scorched paws added to the discomfiture and around the room he went like a tabby seized with a fit.

The men grabbed chairs, axes, stovewood used in the messhouse range and other implements, and got after the feline, which was far more terrified than they were surprised, and after the contents of the room had been pretty well wrecked a blow on the head put the cat out of business.

THE MEDICINAL VALUE OF FRESH FRUIT JUICES

One of the Greatest Wonders of the Age.

Hundreds Have Been Made Well by Taking Advantage of an Ottawa Physician's Discovery.

Everyone knows how beneficial fruit is, when eaten regularly. Fruit is nature's laxative—the finest kidney regulator—and the ideal skin tonic. Unfortunately, the medicinal principle of fruit occurs only in minute quantities. In order to consume enough fruit to relieve Biliousness, one would also consume a large amount of woody fibre or pulp, which would upset the stomach and impair digestion.

An Ottawa physician discovered a way to get around these difficulties. He pressed the juice from apples, oranges, figs and prunes—and then forced one more atom of the bitter principle from the discarded orange peels, into the concentrated juices. This formed a new compound, having all the curative effects of fresh fruit—and in a highly intensified degree. Then valuable tonics and internal antiseptics were added and the whole pressed into tablets.

These are "Fruit-a-tives" the wonderful Liver Tablets you hear so much about. "Fruit-a-tives" cure the most obstinate cases of non-action of the bowels, biliousness, headaches, sleeplessness, nervousness, kidney trouble, rheumatism, sciatica and neuralgia. They are the greatest blood purifying medicine in the world, while their action on the skin, in clearing and beautifying the complexion, is nothing short of marvelous. Ask your druggist for "Fruit-a-tives" and see that you get them. 50c a box. 6 for $2.50. By mail, postpaid, from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa. 118

DEPUTATION AFTER IMPROVED MAIL SERVICE

Monaghan Residents Waited on R. R. Hall, M.P., on Saturday to Ask His Support to Secure It.

SPRINGVILLE'S PECULIAR POSITION.

On Saturday afternoon a deputation of residents of North and South Monaghan, interested in effecting an improvement in the mail service to Springville, waited on Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., with a view of enlisting his support to their proposal, which is to have the mails sent to that village via the C.P.R., instead of as at present by the G.T.R. An argument in favour of their contention is the fact that while Springville is only half a mile from the C.P.R., it is three miles from the nearest station on the G.T.R.

The deputation was introduced by Mr. John McIntosh, and Mr. F. E. Wilson, of Springville was the first speaker, and expressed the desire for an improvement in the mail service. He explained the present conditions. There was but one mail a day and it left Springville at 4 p.m. for Fraserville, connecting with the 5.20 train for the north, and returning arrived at the village between 6 and 7, leaving only about an hour and a half, sometimes less, between the time of the mail arrival and the hour for closing the office. As a matter of fact the office was frequently kept open after eight o'clock, but it was only by courtesy of the postmaster. This service was far from satisfactory, and he considered that the method proposed would effect a great improvement. He suggested that arrangements be made by which the mail should be carried by the C.P.R., and set off at Kendry station, the mail from the west from the train passing there at 11.15, and from the east at 5.30. This would give two mails instead of only one as at present, and would enable the residents of that section to get their Toronto papers at noon instead of waiting until night for them.

Rev. Dr. Marsh recited a number of instances of delay in mail service, pointing out that it frequently took three days for mail to reach him from Toronto by the present system of delivery. Mails were often delayed, through the blocking of the railway and the public highway.

Reeve Brown, of North Monaghan also spoke, supporting the proposition. He wished to keep posted with current events and it was impossible for him to secure the Peterborough daily papers until they were twenty-four hours old, and this in spite of the fact that the post office was but seven miles from the city.

Mr. George Bidgood pointed out that formerly there were two mails a day to Springville, but that recently only one was given. The business transacted had increased, but in spite of this fact the mails had been decreased.

Mr. Albert Sanderson referred to the inconvenience the late arrival of the mail caused those who lived a few miles from the office. He frequently found it difficult to get to the office in time to secure his mail before closing hours.

Though not personally interested Mr. George Hunter spoke supporting the claims of the other speakers. He stated that there was nothing but justice in their claims, and requests.

Mr. McIntosh pointed out the reasonableness of the request and emphasized the fact that it would save the Department money to have the Springville mail sent by C.P.R., instead of by G.T.R., because of the shorter distance from the station.

Mr. Hall replying to the deputation promised to give their request his careful consideration and to call the attention of the Department to the matter. The deputation left, feeling confident that their request would be given favourable consideration and that the desired end would result.

Mrs. Alfred Primeau Killed By Accident At Lindsay

Lady Known in This City Instantly Killed and Her Husband Seriously Injured on C. P. R.

DID NOT HEAR THE WHISTLE

On Friday evening a fatal accident occurred on the C. P. R. near Lindsay, by which Mrs. Alfred Primeau was killed, and her husband seriously injured. The Lindsay Post, of Saturday, referring to the deplorable accident says:

Mr. and Mrs. Primeau left town about 5.30 in a cutter to drive to the brickyard, where they paid a visit of condolence. On their return journey they reached the vicinity of Pottery Corner crossing on the C.P.R. about 7.30, the time at which the evening train from the city usually passes that point. Being heavily wrapped up owing to the biting cold they evidently failed to hear the whistle sounded by the engineer of the approaching train, and probably did not know of its proximity until it was almost upon them. The train was running at a speed of about 30 or 35 miles, there being a downgrade at the point mentioned, and the unfortunate travellers were struck with fearful force.

Engineer N. LeBar brought the train to a stop as quickly as possible, and accompanied by Conductor Croker, Col. Sam Hughes, and other passengers, ran back to the aid of the unfortunate travellers. They were quickly joined by Mr. Michael Curtin and Mr. Jas. Robertson, near neighbours, who had been led to fear an impending disaster by the shrill whistling of the engine as it neared the crossing. They found the body of Mrs. Primeau in the ditch on the south side of the track, apparently lifeless. Mr. Primeau had been thrown to the north side of the track. He was breathing but unconscious, and was beyond doubt very badly injured. The horse was dead and the cutter completely demolished.

The late Mrs. Primeau leaves a family of eight children, all living in town with the exception of Rev. Father Primeau, S. J., who arrived from Montreal this morning.

Referendum Of St. Paul's Congregation Being Taken

Some Questions Which They are Asked to Answer With Reference to the Pastoral Relations—Proposed Increase in Salary and Assistant Pastor Dealt With.

The members of St. Paul's congregation will vote upon the following questions during the coming week. The ballots which have been sent out are returnable by Monday, March 4:

No. 1—Do you believe it to be in the best interest of St. Paul's Church that Rev. Dr. Torrance be continued as pastor of the congregation?

No. 2—If so, do you approve of an increase in his stipend?

No. 3—If your answer to question No 2 is "Yes," then what increase will you make in your contribution to current expenses?

No. 4—If your answer to No. 1 is "Yes," then are you in favour of engaging an assistant pastor?

No. 5—If your answer to No. 1 is "No," then what do you propose?

The Cause

In connection with the foregoing the committee appointed by the Session and Board of Managers has sent out notices which read in part as follows:

To the members and adherents of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, Peterborough, Ont.:

Owing to the discussion that has arisen to the relationship between Dr. Torrance and the congregation of St. Paul's Church, and also as to the advisability of employing an assistant pastor, the office bearers are anxious to obtain an expression of opinion from the members and adherents of the church upon those important questions, and with that in view you will find enclosed five questions which you are earnestly requested to answer. * * You may or may not sign the ballot papers, as you please.

INDEPENDENT PARTY

Peterborough Trades and Labour Council Asked to Send Delegates to Attend Convention at Toronto

OBJECTS OF CONVENTION

The Peterborough Trades and Labour Council, which is affiliated with the Trades and Labour Congress, will receive notice in a short time of the convention to be called in Toronto on Good Friday, March 29, when the question of organizing an independent labour party in Ontario will be discussed.

The circular calls upon all unions affiliated with the Trades and Labour Congress to elect delegates "at once," the basis of representation to be as follows:

Trades Councils, 25 delegates; local unions, 10 delegates for every 100 members; Federal unions, 10 delegates for every 100 members.

Delegates and ex-delegates of the Dominion Trades and Labour Congress will also be entitled to seats at the convention.

The circular states that the time is favourable for the advocacy of independence in political matters, and adds: "We feel that the time has come when the labouring class should be represented in the Legislatures and Parliament by men from their own ranks. The working people have a more immediate concern in the measures annually before the Parliament than any other class in the community, and it is believed that the presence of a large number of labour representatives in the House will make for better government, better citizenship, a higher regard for the rights of the public, more economic administration of the public finances, and a readier attention to the wants of the people."

The British battleship Athermarle and Commonwealth, which were participating in manoeuvres off Portugal, collided during the night of Feb. 11th, and were obliged to proceed to Gibraltar for repairs. There were no casualties.

ALD. WILSON CHOSEN INSPECTOR FOR ARMOURY

Will Fill the Dual Duties of Inspector and Clerk of the Works During Construction Operations.

WILL COMMENCE WORK IN APRIL.

Ald. T. J. Wilson has been offered, and has accepted the position of inspector of the new armouries' construction. This announcement is made to-day from an official source.

Ald. Wilson, when asked in reference to the report, confirmed it, and said that he would probably commence work about April 1st, as it was expected that work would be started about that time. About two years would be required to complete the work, and he would be acting as inspector during the whole time of construction.

Ald. Wilson will combine the offices of inspector and clerk of works. The original intention was to have two men do the work, on who would act as clerk and the other as inspector, but the Department of Public Works later decided to combine the two positions, and the duties of both will be performed by Ald. Wilson.

LINDSAY TRAIN WAS DELAYED THIS MORNING

An Accident to the Engine Delays Train About an Hour.

This morning the Lindsay express train that leaves this city at about 8.30, met with a mishap near the Wm. Hamilton Company's building, on McDonel street. It necessitated the yard engine being sent to the assistance of the Lindsay train and brought it back to the station. The engine off the Belleville express proceeded to Lindsay with the passengers. The damaged engine was taken to Lindsay for repairs.

BRICKLAYERS WILL ASK FOR 40C. PER HOUR

Unanimous Decision Reached at Their Union Meeting—Raise of 5c. Per Hour.

The Bricklayers' and Masons' Union, No. 17, held a meeting in the Foresters' Hall, George street, on Saturday night of a very important character, particularly affecting those contemplating building during the coming year and the bricklayers themselves. The meeting was very largely attended and it was unanimously decided that the wages of bricklayers be increased from 35 cents per hour to 40 cents hour.

This revised scale, however, will not take effect until after June 1st. The chairman of the meeting on Saturday night was the President, Mr. H. Phillips.

From the above it will thus be seen that building this year, will be higher in price than in the past. The carpenters also contemplate raising their wage schedule in the near future, so that there will probably be a material difference in the cost of house building during the coming year.

IN ONTARIO INTERESTS

It is a short-sighted policy, and an exceedingly expensive policy, for our people to buy Manitoba wheat flours, when we have the best flours in the world right here at home.

It is high time that we all realize that every dollar spent for Manitoba wheat flour means a dollar taken out of the pockets of the Ontario people and put into the pockets of the Manitoba farmers and millers. We, in Ontario, are much to blame for this. Our farmers raise too little wheat, and what little is raised is sold outside the Province in either wheat or flour. Then they turn around and buy Manitoba wheat flours. They sell at the wholesale price and buy at the retail price, which includes expensive freight charges from the Northwest. And the western farmers make all the profits. How much better to grow Ontario wheat, sell Ontario wheat, buy Ontario flour, and keep all this money at home among our own people. It means not only money saved, but it also means giving our wives and mothers and sisters better flour for their baking. It is a fact that a blend of Ontario wheat, with a little Manitoba wheat, makes the best all-round flour that can be milled. In the open markets of the world—in Great Britain, in Europe, in the United States—the blended flours command the highest prices. Down in Nova Scotia, and, in fact, throughout the Maritime Provinces, blended flours are properly appreciated and used in preference to all others. Our farmers should get the idea out of their heads that "there is no money in Ontario wheat." There is a steady and increasing demand for prime Ontario wheat, and wheat nets an excellent profit. The demand regulates the supply. With more Ontario flour being used, more wheat will be grown. Our farmers will plant larger wheat fields, harvest larger crops, and make more money.

The whole Province will share in the benefits. On the prosperity of the farmer depends the prosperity of the nation. And the prosperous community is the one that is able to live within itself and selling to its neighbours its surplus, and to buy from them only that which they can supply to better advantage.

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION

Manitoba in the throes of a general election, and the result will be watched with interest, for the issue will be of interest to Ontario, since the Roblin Government makes the extension of the boundaries of Manitoba a chief issue, though it can hardly be an issue between the parties, for the Liberals are also fierce for a huge extension of the boundaries of the province. The immense district of Keewatin, bordering on the north on Hudson Bay, permits of the extension of the area of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Ontario. All these provinces want access to Hudson Bay, a good port to be included. The best harbour on the west coast of Hudson Bay is Fort Churchill. The extension of territory demanded by Manitoba, would give that province the monopoly of this port. It is however easily possible to give Manitoba practically all the area she demands, and at the same time provide that Saskatchewan and Ontario, and Manitoba itself shall have a right of access to the Bay at Fort Churchill. Manitoba Conservatives, for political purposes, may take an unreasonably grasping attitude, but with fair dealing and reasonable demands, the question may be settled without injury to the interests in the regard in question, of any of the three provinces concerned.

DRAWING ROOM VS. BLACKGUARDISM

There seems to be a serious split in the ranks of the Federal Conservatives, judging by the way the Montreal Star, following up its onslaught of Wednesday on the incapacity of the Opposition, again wracks the tactics of the party in the Commons, under Mr. Borden's leadership, in an editorial on Friday, under the caption, "A Drawing-room Opposition." The editorial is especially significant in view of the fact that Mr. Hugh Graham, who controls the paper, is generally credited with being business manager of the Conservative party in Federal politics. To-day's editorial, after severely commenting on the mild manner in which "this polite Opposition" bowed to Sir Wilfrid's desire that the old-age pensions bill introduced yesterday by Mr. Pringle (Cornwall) be withdrawn, goes on to say: "That is an admirable way to conduct an Opposition if the Oppositionists covet their position as a permanent job. They would go to war with fans and umbrellas so as to be ready for all kinds of weather. They utterly fail to take themselves or their proposals seriously, and they will find that the country will be quite as unable to do so. An Opposition which merely introduces carefully selected topics for academic debate, and then withdraws them the moment the leader of the Government makes a suggestion to that effect, can hardly hope that the electorate will become very much in earnest in supporting so fragile a programme. As between the ferocious 'naw-off' proposals of Fowler and the timid politeness of Pringle there is precious little to choose."

Farther on the editorial says: "Votes of want of confidence in an Opposition are not infrequent, and they are likely to become even more frequent if this policy of alternating 'dilly-dally' and blackguardism is to go on."

THE REFUGE OF LIES

The Examiner received to-day a letter from Dixon Bros., of Maple Creek, Saskatchewan, former Peterborough residents, in which they state that the reports sent out in connection with the losses in stock, etc., caused by intense cold, have been very much exaggerated. The great bulk of the ranchers in this district have had their stock come through the winter with very small losses. At present they are having spring weather and the lakes and streams are filling with water. The sensational stories which have the past few weeks been sent broadcast, the harrowing tales of sufferings and loss invented are not hard to trace to an interested source. The newspapers of the United States which regard with alarm the depletion of their population by immigration to the Canadian West, are only too willing to print anything no matter how absurd, so long as it sets forth the west as an undesirable home for settlers.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

License Commissioner McNaught, of Toronto, Now, the Conservative member in the Legislature for North Toronto, in giving evidence before the Commission of Inquiry on Friday, was asked the question, "What did you find with regard to the records in the office?" and his answer was, "With the exception of one envelope, there were no records whatever."

Mr. Hastings, the inspector, whose dismissal by the Whitney Government caused the resignation of the License Commissioners appointed by the Government only a few weeks previously, upon this point, said:

"There are, in the office at the present time, the minutes of every session of the Board since the establishment in 1876.

"Those minutes contain a record of the proceedings—set forth every decision reached by the Board.

"Aside from the minute books, there is now in the office a record of every conviction secured during thirty years, both of licensed and unlicensed houses."

It should be an easy matter for Commissioner Starr to discover whether Mr. McNaught or Mr. Hastings is telling the truth. These statements should not be allowed to pass without further investigation. The family quarrels of the Conservatives of Toronto over the division of the license administration spoils may be regarded as a matter of their own, but the public interests demand the elicitation of the whole truth.

Dyspepsia of Women

Caused by Female Disorders and Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A great many women suffer with a form of indigestion or dyspepsia which does not seem to yield to ordinary treatment. While the symptoms seem to be similar to those of ordinary indigestion, yet the medicines universally prescribed do not seem to restore the patient's normal condition.

Mrs. Pinkham claims that there is a kind of dyspepsia that is caused by a derangement of the female organism, and which, while it causes a disturbance similar to ordinary indigestion, cannot be relieved without a medicine which not only acts as a stomach tonic, but has a peculiar tonic effect on the female organism.

As proof of this theory we call attention to the case of Mrs. Henry Beaubien, 58 Sparks St., Ottawa, Ont., who was completely cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after everything else had failed. She writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I had been troubled with indigestion and general stomach disorders for nearly a year. I had a soreness in my stomach and was unable to digest my food. I dieted and doctored without success; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me permanent relief. I used three bottles and it cured me of my stomach trouble and built up my general health. I now enjoy a splendid appetite, can eat all kinds of food, have no trouble with indigestion, and know that I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement, or has such a record of cures of female troubles, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"A MORAL CALAMITY"

The Rev. Dr. Bland, Professor of Theology, in the Wesley College, Winnipeg, has made his first public declaration of a political nature. In an appeal to the electors, he says he would regard the return of the Roblin (Conservative) Government of Manitoba, as "nothing short of a moral calamity." The only hope of the Government in the country seems to lie in the fact that the campaign is so short that the revolt of the Conservatives may not be sufficiently complete to convert the disorganization of the country into a rout. The Attorney-General, in his effort to retain the support of the German electors, has announced that his elastic flag-flying policy will not be made applicable to the Mennonite schools.

PROVINCE OR DOMINION

The Government Bill introduced into the Ontario Legislature regarding Provincial and Dominion incorporation of companies, is one that should not be rushed, but is entitled to most serious consideration. Its enactment in its present form might have more widespread effects than are contemplated by the framers. In accordance with its terms, if the undertaking of any company operating a public utility and incorporated under any act of the Province of Ontario is by the Parliament of Canada declared to be a work for the general advantage of Canada, or is amalgamated with, or controlled by, any other corporation whose undertaking has been so declared, all privileges and franchises conferred upon the first-mentioned company, by the province, shall cease, and any agreement entered into with with any municipal corporation authorising such company, to carry on business, shall become void, and the company shall forfeit all claim to any aid granted by any municipal corporation—Financial Chronicle.

A JAMAICAN VISITOR IS WELL PLEASED

Mr. J. Ellington Daly, Returns to the Island After Spending Several Weeks in Peterborough.

Mr. J. Ellington Daly, of Kingston, Jamaica, to-day took the 11.45 Grand Trunk express on his way home via New York after a visit of some weeks in the city, the guest of Mr. Ed. Roe, and many citizens. Mr. Daly had a most delightful visit, marred only by the earthquake disaster in which several of his old school mates and personal friends lost their lives. This was his first visit to Canada. He is greatly pleased with the country, and says that with proper arrangement the present small volume of trade as compared with the United States, trade between Jamaica and Canada could be very largely increased to material profit and advantage.

He is delighted with Peterborough and the warm hospitality of its people. He sampled our winter sports and enjoyments, skating, tobogganing, snowshoeing, sleigh driving, etc.—all new and enjoyable experiences. If Mr. Daly carries back to the tropical island pleasant memories, he leaves behind other and many pleasant memories of his gentlemanly geniality. If Jamaicans generally are as thoroughly British in their sentiments, as Mr. Daly, there is no danger of annexation of the island to the United States.

THE REPORTS OF LOSSES EXAGGERATED

Not as Much Stock Lost as at First Reported—Spring Weather at Maple Creek.

While the eastern people are shivering with the cold and looking anxiously for the appearance of spring, the West is rejoicing in warm, springlike weather. A letter to-day from Messrs. Dixon Bros. to the Examiner states that they are experiencing spring at Maple Creek, and the lakes and rivers are filling with water, and no further cold weather of any account is looked for. The reports sent East to the effect that there have been serious losses of stock have, the writers of the letter affirm, been greatly exaggerated, the great bulk of the ranchers in that district having come through the winter with very few losses. This will be welcome news to eastern people, who have feared that the present winter was going to prove a very serious set-back to the prosperity of the West.

ENTERTAINMENT AND TEA ON TUESDAY, MARCH 5

Will be Held in Temperance Hall, 4th Line of Smith—People From This City Will Attend.

On Tuesday evening, March 5, a tea meeting and entertainment will be held in Lakevale under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church of that place. The fourth line Temperance Hall in the township of Smith will be the scene of the festivities and a very enjoyable time is promised. Tea will be served from 5 to 7 o'clock, after which a concert will be given.

Addresses will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Peckover, Rev. Mr. Teeney, of Omemee; Rev. Mr. McKinnon, of Gilmour, and others. The programme will also consist of readings, recitations and musical numbers by home and outside talent. The Omemee Male Quartette and the Telford Brothers, of Emmaboro, are expected, and Mrs. (Dr.) Prust, of this city. Many people from Peterborough are expected to attend.

The Doctor's First Question

Almost the first question a doctor puts to his patient is in reference to the action of the bowels. By keeping the bowels regular you avoid the serious derangements of the liver and kidneys, and can defy colds and contagious diseases. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills ensure prompt movements of the bowels, and by their action on the liver thoroughly cure constipation.

The French mail boat Le Nord, when leaving Calais harbour ran into a Dunkirk fishing smack, cutting her completely in two, and two men were drowned.

The Largest Jack Manufacturer in the World Writes about

Zutoo

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost.

REVISED RULES AND REGULATIONS

Trent Canal Officials Return After Conference at Ottawa on Canal Matters.

Mr. J. B. McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Canal, returned yesterday morning after spending a week in Ottawa, where he went to hold a conference with the superintendents and superintending engineers of the various canals in the Dominion, for the purpose of revising the rules and regulations governing the operation of the canals. Almost the whole week was spent in this work, and as a result of the conference the rules are now in much better shape than they have ever been in the past. The revised rules, as adopted by the conference, will be passed by an Order-in-Council, and will, therefore, be given the same force and effect as an Act passed by Parliament. They will be published and will be circulated among those interested.

Mr. McClellan will issue the new rules to the lockmasters and overseers on the Trent system. Those present at the conference were Messrs. J. B. McClellan, superintendent Trent Canal; A. J. Grant, superintending engineer; Mirehand, superintending engineer of the Quebec Canals; Stewart, superintendent of the St. Lawrence canals; Walter, superintending engineer of the Welland Canal, and Philips, superintending engineer of the Rideau Canal. Mr. Dixon presided at the conference, which will, it is believed, result in a much improved condition so far as the operation and management of the canals and waterways of the Dominion are concerned.

COLORED GOODS.
Maybe you've found it hard to bring your colored clothes out of the wash clean and bright, without fading or running or looking messy.
If you try "SURPRISE" Soap you will see the difference in results. You know, "SURPRISE" is a pure soap, and there's nothing in it to hurt either the color or the fabric. And then no hard rubbing or boiling is necessary, so the colors don't get weakened and smudgy.
Some folks say they would buy and use "SURPRISE" Soap for colored clothes if it cost a dollar a cake, so it's pretty plain why so many people use it when it costs no more than common soap.

MEN'S SERVICES FOR SUNDAY

Rev. Dr. Marsh Will Conduct a Purely Men's Services at Springville Next Sunday.

There was a large attendance last night at the special service held in the Springville Presbyterian church, for young men, the sermon being preached by Rev. Dr. Marsh. Next Sunday there will be a service for men only, and the pastor will be assisted in this service by Rev. H. G. Livingston, pastor of the Barton street Methodist church, Hamilton, who will be the guest of Dr. Marsh for a few days, and will preach at the morning service and at Bethany in the afternoon. Mr. Livingston is also a singer of note and will sing at these services. No doubt the men's service at night will be largely attended.

SALVATION ARMY SENT DETACHMENT TO OMEMEE

Band and Soldiers to the Number of Thirty-two Held Special Meetings in the Northern Hamlet.

About thirty-five of the members of the local branch of the Salvation Army visited Omemee Saturday night and returned this morning. Mr. J. M. Greene, the bandmaster, accompanied the band section which gave a splendid concert in the Omemee Hall on Saturday night. They were the guests of Capt. Gibbons, of Omemee, who was thoroughly satisfied with the result of the trip. Yesterday special meetings were held and large attendances featured them. The trip was a most successful one and was appreciated by the residents of that village.

FARMERS FAVOUR SPEEDING IN THE RING

A Resolution to This Effect Passed at the Executive Meeting of West Peterboro' Institute on Saturday.

WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEETING JUNE 15

The Farmers' Institute on Saturday, declared in favour of speeding in the ring at the country fairs, and the views of the West Peterborough Institute to this effect, will be sent to the Minister of Agriculture, with a view of having him modify to a certain extent, the present regulations. At the meeting of the Executive of the Institute, held on Saturday, the date of the annual meeting, June 15th, was set.

The proposal of the Eastern Ontario Dairymen's Association, was also under consideration, and the institute will render any assistance possible.

A petition asking the Government to pass a law making it compulsory to label all feed stuffs prepared in the province, was circulated, and received a number of signatures. It appears that in the past some feed makers have been in the habit of mixing mill sweepings in with feed and the farmers want this practice stopped.

The question of a seed show was also discussed, but the opinion appeared to be that since the Department would make no extra grant to the Institute for this purpose, it would be undesirable to undertake it. A number of other matters of minor importance were under discussion.

THE WEATHER

During the last couple of days the weather has been exceedingly changeable. Last Saturday morning we had a temperature of 20 degrees below zero, and as high as zero was not reached during the day. Sunday morning 15 below was the figure, but later on in the day the weather moderated greatly, until 25 above zero was reached, a difference of 40 degrees in less than 12 hours. The sleet and rain forecast by the Toronto observatory failed to materialize but a light fall of snow came in its stead. This drifted greatly last night, and the snow shovel had to be brought into use this morning. There has been but comparatively little snow this winter as yet, but March has still to be heard from.

PLAINTIFF IN CASE DID NOT APPEAR

Charge Against Minnicolo Dismissed Costs Charged Against the Other.

The Italian case which was to have come up before County Magistrate Edmison this morning was dismissed. The plaintiff, Bianco of Lakefield, who had accused Thos. Minnicolo, of this city, of using abusive language to him, failed to put in an appearance. It was discovered this morning that Bianco had left Lakefield and gone east so that the Magistrate dismissed the case against Minnicolo and charged up the costs against the complainant.

ADMITTED MEMBERS IN BROTHERHOOD ST. ANDREW

Four Young Men Were Received at Evening Service in St. Luke's Church Yesterday.

At Evensong last night in St. Luke's Church, four young men were admitted into full membership with the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. After the sermon the ceremony took place at the altar steps. After assenting to the customary questions put to them by the rector, they took the vow of St. Andrew, and received the right hand of fellowship.

Electricity Threatened By Producer Gas Engine

$12 to $14 Per Horse Power Per Year is the Price Quoted as Compared With $17.50 to $23.50 for Electricity—The Experience of a London Firm.

Is electric power developed by hydraulics to be superseeded by producer gas engines?

It begins to look like it, so far as London is concerned, and if in London, why not in other communities?

Perhaps electric power, at the present prevailing prices in this province is not the cheapest power after all. In view of the fact that it has generally understood that one of Peterborough's chief claims to distinction as a desirable manufacturing centre was the fact that there was here an abundance of electric power available, the following from the London Advertiser, concerning the experience of one of the largest industrial concerns will be read with interest here. The Advertiser says:

Power at from $12 to $14 a horsepower per annum is what a London Manufacturing Company has decided it can secure from producer gas engines.

Col. Gartshore, manager of the company, states that after a most thorough investigation he is convinced that is the cheapest power the company can secure from any source, and as a result tenders have been asked from American firms to supply the pany with a producer gas plant and engine capable of producing 150 h.p.

The new engine will be installed in the mammoth works in the southeast end of the city, where massive buildings have lately been added to the already very large works.

There is at present a steam engine 250 horsepower there, and it will be allowed to remain, as the company requires steam for heating, etc., and cannot afford to dispense with the engine and boilers. Thus with steam and gas engines the company will be using shortly 400 horsepower at the southern works.

The new gas engine is to be installed not later than the 1st of June.

Col. Gartshore says the selection of the producer gas engine is a matter of business pure and simple.

After going thoroughly into the question it was ascertained that power for a ten-hour day would cost between $12 and $14 per horsepower per annum.

A few days ago Engineer Richards, the expert of the hydro-electric commission, was in the city, and with Assessment Commissioner Grant endeavoured to ascertain the amount of Niagara power which would be sold in London if the power were brought here. He called on Col. Gartshore, and and asked him how much the McClary Company could use.

Col. Gartshore said the company was willing to go in for Niagara power if the price was right.

"We can get power from a producer gas engine at from $12 to $14 a horsepower," the colonel said. "Can you give up power at that price?"

"We couldn't touch it at these figures," Mr. Richards replied. "At least, not just yet. We might later on be able to get the power for you at $12 to $14 a horsepower, but at present we could not touch it."

This settled the matter with the McClary Company, and tenders for a producer gas engine to be installed as soon as possible were invited.

The hydro-electric commission has guaranteed the city of London power at from $17.50 to $23.50 per horsepower per annum for a day of 24 hours.

Col. Gartshore says, however, that the 24-hour-a-day power would be of no advantage to his company. They could not as a general thing run longer than ten hours a day, so that producer gas power is cheaper than Niagara power as guaranteed by the hydro-electric commission.

LICENSE INVESTIGATION IN TORONTO

Money Must be Paid to Have License Transfers Go Through.

The inquiry into the peculiar conditions associated with the administration of the license law in East Toronto, was adjourned at noon on Friday for a week. In the morning the alleged existence of a Tammany Ring in connection with the transfer of licenses was thrashed out before Commissioner Starr.

James J. McCaffery, proprietor of the Bay Tree Hotel, did not deny that he might have made some such suggestion in a spirit of jest.

Pressed for details as to his belief in this respect, Mr. McCaffery said that he had had no particular meaning to convey. Some Liberals, notably Messrs. Mulqueen and Shea, had got good things from the Board, through the intervention of Solicitor Stephen Burns, and he took occasion to reprove Mr. Burns for his energy in behalf of those who were not in the Conservative fold.

From evidence given by Messrs. Ballantyne, Gibb and Cohen, another unsavory demand for monies in connection with a license transfer arises. Mr. S. W. Burns, it was alleged, wrote to Gibbs, asking him to call at his office. Subsequently, as a result of the conference that took place, Gibbs told Ballantyne that monies would have to be paid if the transfer was to go through.

WHITBY HAS A CIVIC TANGLE

Three Contests for Mayoralty Already and There are Good Prospects For a Fourth.

Whitby, Feb. 25. — The town has had three municipal elections this year, and a fourth is in sight. First, there was the regular one on Jan. 7th. That satisfied most towns. This was followed by the resignation of some of the councillors, who, 'tis said, didn't like the rest of the sitters around the horseshoe. This made election the second. Mr. Lyman Barclay, registrar, decided to get even with his successful opponent, Mayor Jackson, for aspersions thrown on his own qualifications, and challenged him to the court room to prove that his were proper. Whereat, Mr. Mayor went out, Not out, however, for on Thursday he was re-elected by a vote of 280 to 52 over a new opponent, Mr. Robson. Whereat Mr Barclay gives notice that he will again move to unseat the aforesaid Mayor. Whitby now gets busy guessing at the size of the new majority.

ESTIMATES WILL BE BROUGHT DOWN

Busy Session of the City Council is Provided for To-night.

The sessions of the City Council and the Committee of the Whole to-night promise to be long and interesting as there are a number of important matters to be taken up. The aldermen will meet in council first and will take up the Otonabee Power Company's resolution, which has been in the hands of a committee for some time. The request of Mr. G. W. Green for part of Gilchrist street will be settled in one way or another. At the meeting of the Committee of the Whole, Ald. Tovey, chairman of the Finance Committee, will bring in his estimates for the year and the rate will be decided, while the question of the advisability of printing the assessment roll will also be settled.

Another matter that will be taken up is the application of T. Kinnear & Co. for a siding into their new warehouse on George street. The City Engineer has reported that it is practically impossible to build a siding behind the building. So that the only way left to build one is across George street, north of the C. P. R. main tracks.

The Coates Co. agreement will also be discussed to-night.

THE ANT

Facts About One of Natures Most Industrious Creatures

When spring comes with all its wealth of opening buds and new flowers, the ant is preparing for a season of profitable industry.

It comes out of its winter quarters and locates a new home where it can store away, during the summer months, the sustenance for the long winter days.

Just as industrious as the ant — but in a different way — are the countless infinitesimal germs which burrow into the scalp and eat away at the roots of the hair.

As they burrow away, dandruff forms, and if the germs are not all killed baldness results.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known remedy which kills the germs.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

OBITUARY

MRS. HUGH WRIGHT

The Millbrook Reporter of a recent date had the following:

It is with the deepest regret that we are called upon to chronicle the death of Mrs. Hugh Wright, which said event took place in Peterborough at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Mitchell. She was predeceased by her husband some seventeen years. Mrs. Wright was born in the County Down, Ireland, and came to this country with her husband and two children in the year 1846, settling near Millbrook. In the early days when they had to travel, they blazed paths through the woods.

Mrs. Wright lived to see five generations: twenty-four grandchildren, eighteen great grand children, and one great great grandchild. She was beloved by all who knew her, old and young, and her life was a living example of the Bible Christian. A member of the Methodist church for over fifty years, she was a loving, affectionate mother, and realized her greatest joy in doing good to others. She was in possession of all her faculties to the last moment, expressing her strong belief in Jesus Christ, telling her children that He was the only way; she recognized each one of them, and then passed peacefully away on the morning of Wednesday, February 13th. The deceased was 87 years of age. She leaves to mourn her loss, two sons, J. A., of Rockford, Ill., and M. J., of Sydney, Man., and four daughters, Mrs. James Porter, of Cavan; Mrs. W. H. Mitchell, of Peterborough; Mrs. S. Pritchard, of Toronto; and Miss Julia, who has always lived with her mother. One brother, Rev. Jas. O'Hara, of Toronto, also survives her. The sorrowing friends and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral left the Millbrook station, on the arrival of the noon train from Peterborough, on Friday, Feb. 15th, for Zion church, for service, and interment at Zion cemetery.

GARRETT J. GALVIN

The death occurred in Douro township last night of Mr. Garrett J. Galvin, one of the oldest and most respected and best known residents of the county. The deceased was born in the township of Smith in 1834. In 1860 he was married to Miss Anna Garbutt, daughter of the late Isaac Garbutt, one of the pioneers of Peterborough county. In 1868 the deceased moved to Douro township, where he has resided ever since. His wife predeceased him fifteen years. Their family consisted of eight children, five of whom are now living. They are Mrs. T. Adams, of this city, John Edward, at home, Miss Ada, at home, Isaac, of Anetor, Sask., and Gordon, of Carstairs, Alberta.

The deceased was secretary of the Lakefield Dairy Company for many years and also represented the company on the Peterborough cheese board. He was well and favourably known. The deceased was a Liberal in politics.

MRS. JOHN J. JORY

The death occurred yesterday after a short illness, from pneumonia, of Veletta Garbutt, wife of Mr. John W. Jory, of Dummer, at the age of 35 years. The late Mrs. Jory had lived in the vicinity for a number of years and was very highly respected. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon, at 1.30, from the family residence, lot 20, con. 2, Dummer, to St. Mark's Cemetery, Warsaw, for interment.

She leaves her husband, and one son, Clayton, and four brothers.

Without Colds no Lung Trouble

A person may be predisposed to consumption by heredity; he may be in unsanitary surroundings, and may breath impure air, but the beginning of trouble is always a neglected cold. In thousands of Canadian homes Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine is kept as a sure cure for coughs and colds, and a protection against diseases of the lungs.

THE FOURTH "POP" AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Weather Was Not Very Favourable—Latest News From the Y. M. C. A.

The unfavourable weather no doubt interfered with the attendance at the Pop on Saturday night, although there was a goodly number present to listen to the lecture by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, M.A.

Mr. Duncan Walker, I.P.S., presided in a very happy manner, and explained that the lecture had to be changed owing to the loss of the manuscript of the "Rhine Tour." Mr. Langfeldt had consented to give his new lecture on "Success" instead.

Miss Maude Crothers gave an admirably well rendered selection on the violin, and was accompanied by Miss Crothers on the piano.

The lecture on "Success" was greatly enjoyed by those present, and it abounded with good advice which, if followed, will surely bring success.

The lecture had in it a good deal of good humour. It claimed the hearty applause of the audience.

Mr. Langfeldt will likely deliver his Rhine Tour lecture later.

DELIVERY TEAM MADE A SENSATIONAL RUN

Mr. H. P. Kennedy's Team Ran From Auburn to the Market Square.

The team of horses attached to Mr. H. P. Kennedy's meat delivery sleigh made the liveliest run of their lives this morning from Auburn to the Market Square. While the driver was delivering some meat, the horses—a gray and a chestnut—made a break for liberty, coming down the hill at the Oval like a runaway freight on a down grade. All the corners were safely turned, but on reaching the Market Square, where they were captured, it was discovered that blankets, cushion and waght were gone. The rear end of the sleigh was smashed and will need a few repairs. On the market they made a lightning fast right turn and went between two posts, where it would be scarcely possible for a driver to guide a team. Their wild run was checked just after they passed the posts.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Will be Celebrated Next Sunday at Park Street Baptist Church—The Services of Yesterday.

The male quartette of the Y.M.C.A. was greeted by a large congregation at the Park street Baptist church last night, and sang two numbers with much effect and a third by special request, Miss Ida Sanderson playing the accompaniment. The subject for the evening was "Does God Keep His Word," and took the form of a responsive public service on "The Promises," some fifteen or twenty taking part. The Rev. A. H. Brace was in charge of the meeting. This was a most inspiring service, calculated to do much good, and will surely be repeated in the near future. This ends the February programme.

The first Sunday in March is the Sunday School Anniversary, to be followed during the month with revival services, in charge of the Rev. Alexander Torrie, B.A. The Y.M.C.A. quartette have kindly consented to assist.

Monday night, B.Y.P.U., Miss Maud Everson, in the chair.

Wednesday, public service with a Bible reading.

Tuesday, Ladies' Aid; Mrs. M. Mowry in the chair.

EXCELLENT MUSIC AT CHARLOTTE STREET CHURCH

Miss Scott, of Clinton, Delighted Congregation With Solo at Morning Service—Other Music.

Those who attended the Charlotte Street Methodist Church yesterday morning enjoyed a special musical treat. Miss Scott, of Clinton, who is visiting in the city, sang instead of the usual anthem, her solo being Arthur Sullivan's "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears." Miss Scott has a most exquisite voice, rich and full, and her enunciation was perfect. She gives evidence of possessing a well-trained voice and sings with excellent expression. At the evening service the anthem was "Sing, O Daughter of Zion," by Button, and after the sermon, which was of a temperance character, Miss Bellegtem sang, as a solo, the verse of "You're Starting, My Boy, on Life's Journey," the choir joining in the chorus.

THE BRIBERY STORY IS DENIED

Mrs. Thaw Says Story Is False and Cruel.

CHUMS TURN ON EVELYN

Former Confidantes Now Helping Jerome Assail Her Character—Request for Lunacy Commission Seems Likely—Family Anxious to Close Trial—No Money Has Been Offered—Thaw Insane.

New York, Feb. 25.—It was reported Saturday that Mrs. Wm. Thaw and other members of the Thaw family are anxious that the trial, with all its shocking revelations, shall stop.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, wife of the man who shot Stanford White for her sake, sadly needed the three days' grace, brought by the holiday, from District Attorney Jerome's searching cross-examination.

Mrs. Thaw looked but a shadow of her former self, and those who have seen her almost daily since the trial began, and who saw her Saturday, said the change was almost ghastly.

Judging from the progress of Mr. Jerome's cross-examination, as so far developed, he cannot possibly finish with the witness under two days.

Thaw a Lunatic.

Saturday reports were revived that Mr. Jerome is ready to bring on his application for a lunacy commission to examine the defendant. The district attorney, it is said, has questioned Drs. J. T. Deemar and C. F. Bingaman, the Thaw family physicians, who were summoned as witnesses for Thaw, and from what he heard from them regarding insanity in the family of Mrs. William Thaw, he has become convinced that the strain has descended to Thaw and that he is now insane.

To Discredit Testimony.

It is also learned that Jerome is working out a secret plan to discredit the testimony of Evelyn Thaw. In this the prosecutor is being aided by Mazie Follette and Hattie Forsythe, the chorus girls and former intimate friends of young Mrs. Thaw.

Evelyn Thaw has brought in the name of Mazie Follette more than once during the trial, when she whispered secret names to Jerome. The testimony was shown to Mazie Follette.

What she did not know about Stanford White's attentions to Evelyn Nesbit before her marriage to Thaw she has got by correspondence with friends. Every line of correspondence has been turned over to Mr. Jerome.

It is said also that Miss Follette has acquainted the district attorney with brutal treatment of Evelyn Nesbit by Thaw before she became his wife.

Mrs. Thaw's Reward.

Both Thaw and his wife were concerned about a statement printed Saturday, that no matter what was the outcome of the trial, young Mrs. Thaw would receive $300,000 as a reward for her testifying for her husband. It was intimated that soon after her husband's arrest she talked of going abroad, but gave this idea up after it had been arranged that she was to get $300,000. She refused to say anything about the story, but Lawyer Gleason characterized it as "malicious, cruel, false and inhuman."

This statement was given out Saturday by Mrs. William Thaw through her attorneys:

"Mrs. William Thaw desires it understood that the statement that she or any of her family gave any money or any other inducements to Mrs. Evelyn Thaw for the position she has taken is untrue, unwarranted and unjust."

Drank Wood Alcohol.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Feb. 25.—As the result of drinking wood alcohol by mistake, three members of the family of E. S. Boyce of Elizabeth, Wirt County, are dead. Boyce purchased the alcohol, and, after arriving home, drank some of the alcohol by mistake, and also gave some to two of his children, who were slightly ill.

Crushed to Death.

Amherst, Mass., Feb. 25.—By the derailment of an electric car Miss Helen Linehan, a teacher in the Cambridge public schools, was instantly killed Saturday night. In going down a slight grade the car jumped the track and toppled over an embankment. Miss Linehan was crushed to death.

KILLED BY DYNAMITE.

Workman Accidentally Strikes Explosive With Pick.

New York, Feb. 25.—A premature explosion in the Belmont tunnel of East Forty-Third street, Saturday, killed one workman and injured 2 others, two of the latter seriously. The accident occurred in a lock 170 feet below the surface of the East River, where 30 men were employed.

While the gang was working with picks, John Johnson, aged 30 years, colored, accidentally struck a stick of dynamite that had been placed in the earth wall. n the explosion that followed, Johnson was instantly killed; Harry Douglas, aged 25 years, colored, sustained a broken wrist and lacerations, and Alexander Thompson, 28 years of age, also colored, was badly torn about the body. The two latter were removed to a hospital.

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH.

Found Dead By Neighbors With Broken Lamp Nearby.

St. John, N.B., Feb. 25.—Mrs. Amelia Case, wife of John Case, was burned to death Saturday evening.

She had been alone in the house, when neighbors thinking they smelled smoke, went up to investigate. Mrs. Smith, one of the party, fell over an object, which proved to be the body of Mrs. Case. Her clothing was all burned off and she was quite dead. At her feet were the fragments of an oil lamp. Mrs. Case was about forty-five years of age. She is survived by her husband.

WHILE PLAYING BEAR.

Boy Arrested For Killing His Brother With Gun.

Belleville, Feb. 25.—Some time ago it was reported that a boy named Claude Godfrey, living on the Monk road, near Bancroft, was shot and killed by his brother whilst they were "playing bear." The affair having been brought to the attention of the authorities, it was decided to investigate.

County Attorney Anderson has instructed Police Magistrate Jarman of Bancroft to institute proceedings, and the brother will be placed under arrest, pending the investigation.

Merchant Prince Dead.

New York, Feb. 25.—Edward C. Cooper, vice-president of the Seigel-Cooper Co. of Chicago and this city, died at his residence here last night of double pneumonia. Mr. Cooper was 26 years of age and a son of the late Frank Cooper, one of the founders of the Seigel-Cooper Co.

WAS ELECTROCUTED.

Falls Against Switchboard and Is Instantly Killed.

Toronto, Feb. 25.—While on a ladder fixing a wire near lower switchboard of the Electric Co.'s Niagara power station early last evening, William Powell, aged 24 years, fell backwards against the switchboard and was electrocuted. The ambulance was immediately summoned and the unfortunate switchman taken to St. Michael's Hospital, where every effort was made to restore respiration, but without success.

Two holes were bored through the right wrist, and the arm was horribly burned.

MINE EXPLOSION.

Spark From Man's Pipe Causes Serious Injuries.

Halifax, Feb. 25.—Twenty-five men were hurt, five of them seriously, one not being expected to live, and two horses were killed as a result of a miner dropping a spark from his pipe at Meadow quarry, about five miles from Windsor, N. S., at 10 a.m. Saturday.

To Visit England.

Montreal, Feb. 24.—It is understood that Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Frederick Borden have taken their passage by the Canadian Pacific R.M.S. Empress of Britain, which sails from St. John, N. B., April 5. They go to London to attend the colonial conference.

Messrs. Fielding, Brodeur and Paterson will go by the same steamer if the closing of Parliament will permit them doing so.

Shot In Self-Defence.

Ottawa, Feb. 25.—The trial of Alex. McLaren, Frank Kiernan and J. C. Cummings on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the Buckingham lumber strike riots, ended in Hull Saturday evening by the acquittal of the accused.

Judge St. Julien decided that the first shots were fired by the strikers, and that the accused merely shot in self-defence.

NONE KILLED, BUT MANY WERE INJURED

Train Rolls Over 60-Foot Embankment.

FIFTY-FOUR WERE INJURED

Passengers Have Miraculous Escape From Death—Pullman Cars Turn Completely Over—Train Was Running 50 Miles an Hour—Was a Pure Accident—Thieves Loot Luggage and Get Away.

Pittsburg, Feb. 25.—A statement issued by the Pennsylvania Railroad Saturday is to the effect that 54 passengers and a train crew of about a dozen persons were injured in the wreck of the Pennsylvania special, the fast 18-hour train on the Pennsylvania Railroad, between New York and Chicago, which occurred at a sharp curve at Black Diamond, Pa., seven miles east of Johnstown early Saturday morning.

No one was killed and all the passengers have been accounted for.

The engine and combination smoking car remained on the rails, but the three Pullmans plunged over a 60-foot embankment into the Conemaugh River. Fortunately, the cars were not submerged.

Scene of Confusion.

A scene of wild confusion resulted. All the passengers were in their berths and were thrown promiscuously around the cars.

Everybody on the train was injured more or less, but with the exception of John F. Kline of Joliet, it is said, none of the injuries are dangerous.

The train was running 50 minutes late and was trying to make up lost time.

Cause of the Wreck.

The wreck was caused by an unavertable accident. The brake rigging on the first Pullman following the combination coach on the train dropped down and tore up the right rail for a distance of 300 yards, but the four Pullmans following ploughed over the embankment to the river bank, 100 feet below, overturning when they reached the bottom. When the brake rigging fell it either stripped the heads off the bolts holding the rails to the ties or tore up the rails themselves.

Thieves Were Busy.

Much disorder followed the accident, which was greatly increased by the attempts of the officials of the railroad to prevent newspaper men from getting the facts. In the midst of the confusion a number of foreigners were detected plundering the Pullman cars. One was arrested and the others were driven away by a display of firearms. Considerable jewellery and valuable wearing apparel will be lost as the result, however.

All the passengers were thankful and happy that they had escaped death, and the Rev. Edward Cope of Philadelphia, conducted brief services on the relief train, in which he thanked God for their deliverance.

Express Has Narrow Escape.

Pittsburg, Feb. 25.—The Philadelphia express on the Pennsylvania, due here at 6.30 last night, ran into an open switch at the yards at 16th street about 7 o'clock last night. Ambulances were hurriedly summoned to the Union Station, but according to officials no one was injured.

The New York express, due here at 7 o'clock, narrowly escaped running into the Philadelphia train, and caused a panic among the already frightened passengers.

One coach on the Philadelphia train was telescoped and two others were derailed. The train was late, and was running faster than usual through the yards.

WAS JUST IN TIME.

Montreal Man Wakes Up and Saves Five Lives.

Montreal, Feb. 25.—Early yesterday morning fire broke out in a wooden house in Verdun, occupied by Alex. Squire, his wife and three children and his brother. The brother woke up, and unable to get to the part of the house where the others were, dashed outside almost naked and climbed up the back kitchen.

He found his brother and his wife and children unconscious, and carried them out, but they were so severely burned that they had to be sent to the hospital, where they lie unconscious. The rescuer was also burned in the hands and face, and his feet, having no shoes on, were frozen.

OMEMEE DEFEATED THE KNOCKERS

Locals Defeated on Omemee Ice by Score of 9-3 in a Fast and Clean Game.

The Knockers' Club hockey team journeyed to Omemee on Saturday night and met the senior team of the little northern village. The home team started out with a winning streak and scored four goals in almost as many minutes. The half-time score was 5-0 in favour of Omemee. In the second half the Knockers had become more accustomed to the dim lights and the small rink and had the puck the greater part of the time. The final score was 9-3 in favour of the home team, but the game throughout was hotly contested, with Omemee slightly the stronger in the first half. The line-up was as follows:

Knockers		Omemee
	Goal.
W Allen		C Banks
	Point.
W Denoon		R Bradley
	Cover-point.
Henderson		R MacPherson
	Centre.
Doris		P Parsons
	Rover.
Theobald		M Sherin
	Right Wing.
Hillier		W Mitchell
	Left Wing.
F Hollan		M Magee

Mr. B. Holland refereed to the entire satisfaction of all.

The Knockers have nothing but words of praise for the Omemee hockey team and the crowd. They received the best of treatment from everybody. The Omemee team is a well-balanced one and on their own ice can make the best of them travel. MacPherson at cover-point was very effective and aggressive and their forwards were fast. For the Knockers, Doris played a fine game, scoring the three goals and checking back on all occasions. The game was a clean one, but few penalties being imposed. Towards the end it became rougher, but faster.

PETERBORO'S CLAIM COMES UP TO-NIGHT

If Successful Will Likely Play Kingston On Wednesday.

Peterborough's claim for a chance to play Kingston another game for the championship of this district will come up before the O.H.A. to-night and in case of the locals' claim is sustained they will likely be ordered to play a sudden death game with the 14th team on Wednesday night probably in Belleville.

The O.H.A. sub-committee has arranged the senior O.H.A. finals as follows:—

Stratford or St. Georges at Peterborough or Kingston, on Friday, March 1st.

Peterborough or Kingston at Stratford or St. Georges, on Tuesday, March 5th.

WHEN TWO MIDGETS MEET THERE'S TROUBLE

A Great Game Promised When the Giant "Midgets" Come Together In Junior Finals.

The Stratford Herald says: It looks as if the Lindsay Midgets will yet have a chance to demonstrate that they are superior to the Stratford Midgets. The local Midgets are not adept at blowing their own horn, but they play hockey. When the town aforesaid can get up enough gumption to produce a "sure-nuff" hockey team, then and not till then can we accept the Post's words of wisdom at face value.

When the Stratford Midgets have finally been taught their hockey A B C's and sent back to the tall timbers, there'll be many a sorehead and heart in that eastern city. But the lump will have to go down before the pill will.

IMPOSSIBLE TO STOOP OR BEND

SEVERAL DOCTORS COULD DO NO GOOD.

PAIN IN BACK AND KIDNEYS.

People often say, "How are we to know when the kidneys are out of order?"

The location of the kidneys, close as it is to the small of the back, which is not affected materially by other organs, renders the detection of kidney trouble a simple matter.

The note of warning comes from the back. Backache is the signal sent out by the kidneys the minute they become overtaxed. Those who heed the warning when it first comes, usually have but little trouble. The danger lies in delay. A few doses of taken in time, often saves years of suffering, and in many cases life itself.

They stimulate the action of the kidneys, enabling them to perform their duty perfectly.

Miss S. O. Fyr, Econ Secum, N.S., writes: "For the past three years I have been troubled with a very bad pain in my back and kidneys. It was so bad it was impossible for me to stoop or bend. I had several doctors attend me, but found no relief until I picked up one of your Egyptian Dream Books, and found out about your remarkable remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills. I procured two boxes and their action surprised me, for they completely cured me. I don't think they have an equal for kidney trouble."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

POINTS COMPETITION GAMES TO BE PLAYED

Fourth Round of Junior and Senior Series Must be Concluded by March 2.

Now that the Peterborough team is in past, the curlers intend finishing up the points competition games which have been under way for some time. The fourth rounds of both the junior and senior series have been reached and must be played off by Saturday, March 2.

In the junior series, F. Merritt will be drawn with against the winners of Stevenson and Wiley, and and R. N. Merritt against the winners of Maitland and Talbot.

The schedule for the senior series shows that the following games are left to be played:

T. F. Matthews vs. J. Stanger.
T. Brightman vs. W. J. Thompson.
J. E. A. Fitzgerald vs. T. J. Wallace.

HOCKEY

The interest in the decisive game for the City League championship on Thursday night between the Strathcona and Charlotte street is already at fever heat, and speculation is rife as to the result. The supporters of both teams are confident that their sevens will win. The Charlotte street outfit say that they will turn the trick, while the Strathconas claim that there will be nothing left in the fruit basket but lemons when they hand it to the Guild team. There will be the biggest crowd of the series present.

The Little Petes beat the junior Knox Church team in a fast exhibition of hockey on Knox Church rink Saturday afternoon. The Petes were six up at the finish, the score standing 7-1 in their favour. W. Patterson refereed to the satisfaction of all. The Petes lined up as follows:

Goal—Tovey.
Point—White.
Cover—Stratton.
Centre—Phelan.
Rover—Morrow.
Right—Hateber.
Left—Donaghue.

• • • •

Ernie Wasson will referee the Stratford—St. Georges game in Toronto to-night. The Classic City team with a lead of eight goals should have no trouble in winning the round although the Saints with Irving Ardagh on the defence will give them a hard argument.

• • • •

At the Brock street rink to-night between six and seven o'clock, the Cressman counter hoppers and Turnbull's all stars, will clash in a friendly game of hockey, to decide which store shall wear the tin medals this year. Cressman's did the trick last year, but Turnbull's have several new stars on their line up this year and expect to win hands down.

The teams will line up as follows:

Cressman's.		Turnbull's.
	Goal.
Koen,		Storey,
	Point.
Meredith,		Shea,
	Cover.
Anderson,		Maude,
	Centre.
Little,		McNicholl,
	Rover.
Darling,		Gillespie,
	Right wing.
Cressman,		Wilson,
	Left wing.

Referee, Galley.

The juvenile hockey team known as the Blue Jays, played and trimmed the Jolly Hunters by 10 goals to 1, on Saturday, on the Otonabee rink. The teams lined up as lows:

Blue Jays — Goal, R. Rose; point, E. Kitney; c. point, O. Taylor; rover, H. Smythe; centre, A. Rose; r. wing, E. Kidd; l. wing, L. Rose.

Jolly Hunters — Goal, W. O'Connell; point, H. Rogers; c. point, T. Barnett; centre, O. Leplante; r. wing, F. Green; l. wing, V. O'Connell.

Referee, "Jimmy" McMartin.

• • • •

The Crescents will go back to Brooklyn with two defeats to their credit and it is likely a higher opinion of the standard of hockey played in this section of Canada. The tourists were defeated by Varsity in Toronto on Saturday night by 15 goals to 5 in easy fashion. A Toronto paper in reporting the game says that the Crescents bore tangible evidence of their hard battle in Peterboro the other night and that Shiebler and Dobby both wore big bandages. This statement is apt to be misleading; Scieb ler had the same bandage when he went on the ice here and Dobby's injury was an accident, he being struck on the head by the puck on a life from Crowley.

• • • •

Another interesting game in the Manufacturers' League took place on Saturday night at the Brock street rink. The B. F. Ackerman & Sons' harness-makers met the rope-makers of the Cordage Works and put them away by the score of 3-0. It was a duck egg for the twine twisters, who failed even to hit the goal keeper. The game was a good one, however, and was hotly contested. There was some toe-chopping, but Wallie Parnell kept the players well under his control. The line-up follows:

Ackerman		Cordage
	Goal.
Garside		Kilbenbeck
	Point.
McWha		W Trainor
	Cover-point.
Dobbin		Teddy Crowe
	Rover.
"Dug" Loomis		C Dobson
	Centre.
Jos Goselin		"Fat" Webb
	Right Wing.
Robertson		Bill Dickson
	Left Wing.
J Calnan		Vic. Wilson

Referee—W. Parnell.

The B. F. Ackerman Sons & Co hockey team challenge any of the other factory teams to a games of hockey Saturday night from 6 to 7, for the factory championship.

WEEKLY SHOOTING MATCHES INTERESTING

Messrs. Bert Lang and C. Duggan Were Week's Winners.

Bert Lang and C. SONG SERVICE AT GEORGE STREET CHURCH

Choir Gave Enjoyable Musical Programme at Last Night's Service.

Last night, a song service was held in the George Street Methodist Church. The following musical numbers were given during the service, and were much enjoyed:

Anthem, "The Dawn of Hope," by the choir. Solos by Miss T. Christy and Miss Reesor.

Mixed quartette, "Over the Line," by Miss E. Christy, Mrs. Doidge and Messrs. E. Doidge and Ed. Walton.

Solo, "At the Feet of Belshazzar," by Miss Reesor.

Anthem, "Lay Hold of the Life Line," by the choir, Miss Reesor taking the solo part.

GUST OF WIND CARRIED HAT INTO THE RIVER

East City Workman Lost New $4 Hat From Hunter Street Bridge.

While three or four East City workmen were crossing the Hunter street bridge at noon to-day they stepped into the centre to have a look at the beautiful picture caused by the rays of the mid-day sun on the pebbles in the bottom of the river. As they were thus watching intently, a sudden gust of wind took a gazer's new stiff hat off his head and laid it gently in mid-stream. The owner reached far out over the railing, but was unable to regain the head-gear, which quickly floated down with the strong current.

MEDICAL PROFESSION ATTEND CHURCH

An Unique Service Was Held Last Night in St. John's Church—Tea Followed Service.

Last night, a service of more than usual interest was held in St. John's Church, when the rector spoke especially to the members of the medical profession, who were present as invited guests of the church. The subject dealt with was "Christ, the Great Physician," and the questions of medical science, Christian Science and religion were dealt with. During the sermon the speaker referred to the self-sacrifice of the members of the medical profession, and paid a tribute to their work in the interests of suffering humanity. Following the service, the doctors and a number of invited guests adjourned to the guild room, where refreshments were served and an informal discussion took place on the subject of the sermon.

On behalf of the members of the profession, Dr. Halliday expressed their appreciation of the invitation to be present. Representatives of the Nicholls Hospital were also present.

Editor Post Card Column,—

Dear Sir, — I was on the market on Saturday, and noticed a carcass of beef brought into the city by a farmer, which was a ridiculous looking sight. Being a butcher and somewhat of a judge of meat, I would have no hesitation in stating that the beef was absolutely unfit to eat. By its appearance the animal had been ill fed and had died from some disease. I think the authorities should keep a sfrict eye on all produce offered for sale, not only on the market, but elsewhere.

I do not mean to infer that the farmers as a class do not bring good meat to the market, for I believe the opposite to be true. I do know, however, that occasionally one does bring poor stuff to market. I think the authorities should keep watch and hustle him off.

Yours, etc.,

HEALTH.

Synopsis Of Canadian North-West HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situate.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

WERE RESCUED FROM THE BERLIN

Gallant Rescue of Three Surviving Women.

BOATMEN BRAVE DEATH

Total Number Rescued is Now 15 Out of 143—Lifeboat Men Make Gallant Efforts to Approach the Wreck—Obliged to Use a Raft—Survivors Were Half Dead From Exposure — Brave Woman.

Hook of Holland, Holland, Feb. 25.—In the early hours of Saturday morning the three remaining survivors were taken off the wreck of the British steamer Berlin by the same lifeboat crew which has done such splendid work during the past 48 hours. The rescued persons are all women—Frau Weintberger, her 16-year-old nurse girl, Mina Repler, and Fraulein Theile. This brings the total number of saved up to fifteen out of the 143 who were on board the vessel.

Twenty-two bodies were recovered this afternoon from below the deck of the Berlin.

Watched All Night.

The lifesavers watched the wreck all night for a chance to get alongside, but they had to wait until low water, at about 1 a.m., when they put off on board the tug Wodan, which had a raft in tow for the use of the rescuers.

On getting as near the wreck as possible, Capt. Sperling of the lifeboat crew boarded the raft, which was allowed to drift alongside the Berlin, and the captain managed to clamber on board by means of a line. He then lowered the helpless, half dead women, one by one, to the raft, whence they were conveyed to the Wodan.

The last survivors of the wrecked steamer arrived here at 3 o'clock, and were taken to the Amerika Hotel, where they received every attention.

Brave Woman.

"The nurse, Fraulein Repler, insisted that her companions should first be saved before she was removed from the wreck, so I carried Fraulein Theile to the side, fastened her into a rope cradle and lowered her upon the raft. Frau Weintberger was next taken off. She was in pitiful distress, weeping for her husband and child, who were drowned. Finally Fraulein Repler, who was able to walk with assistance, was placed on the raft, which was hauled alongside the Wodan.

"The whole rescue took only half an hour."

Insane From Grief.

Stuttgart, Germany, Feb. 25.—The fiancee of Herr Dara, one of the members of the German Opera Co., drowned in the wreck of the Berlin, became insane when the news was communicated to her.

YET ANOTHER WRECK.

Forty Sailors Drowned Off the Island of Crete.

Canea, Isle of Crete, Feb. 25.—The Austrian Lloyd steamer Imperatrix, while bound from Trieste to Bombay, ran on to a rock on Friday evening near Cape Elaphonisi, and sank soon afterwards.

The latest report received here is to the effect that 17 persons on board the vessel were rescued and that a French cruiser, an Italian gunboat, and a Russian cruiser were assisting in the work of rescue.

It is stated that those rescued are in such an exhausted condition that they are unable to give coherent details of the accident.

Those on board, it is said, numbered about 150.

A letter late yesterday to the company's agent at Canea, from a lieutenant on the steamer, said:

"Twelve persons and myself have been saved; the others are on board the steamer, the position of which is extremely dangerous."

All the passengers were saved, but 40 members of the crew, of whom 32 were Austrians and eight were Indians, perished. Among those rescued are the captain, the doctor and the first engineer of the Imperatrix.

Foreign warships brought 63 survivors to this port and others were transferred to the Austrian Lloyd steamer Castore, which was sent from Trieste to assist in the work of rescue. Several persons, who were injured at the time of the disaster, are being attended here.

It has been learned that the first boat launched from the Imperatrix was swamped immediately.

The bows of the steamer are above water, but her stern is submerged.

Workingmen Organize.

Kingston, Feb. 25.—There was an Independent Workingmans' League formed here Saturday night.

The object is the promotion of the interests of workingmen generally, and, in particular, to secure an independent exercise of the franchise. In addition to members of unions, many others not connected with the unions have handed in their names for membership.

Mr. Harty, M. P., is asked to support the eight-hour day bill now before Parliament.

BOTHA'S CABINET.

Advocate Smuts to Be Colonial Secretary, Botha Premier.

Pretoria, Transvaal Colony, Feb. 25.—The first Transvaal Colony ministry will comprise:

General Botha—Premier and Minister of Native Affairs.

Advocate Smuts—Colonial Secretary.

T. Cullinan—Minister of Lands and Public Works.

H. C. Hull—Treasurer.

Advocate de Villiers—Minister of Justice.

J. Rissik—Minister of Mines.

Colonial Secretary Smuts was a general during the war, and formerly was states attorney in the Government of President Kruger.

Minister of Justice de Villiers was Attorney-General during the late war.

Messrs. Cullinan, Hull and Rissik are connected with mining interests.

OLD AGE.

Depends Not Upon Years, But Upon Vital Force.

A GREAT DISCOVERY TO WARD OFF OLD AGE.

In Peterborough lately there has been a good deal of discussion in regard to old people. Some at 50 years call themselves old, and really appear so; while others at 70 years seem active, vigorous and young.

A reporter happened in the store McDermid & Jury, our local druggists, the other evening, and this subject was brought up. Said Mr. McDermid: "It is a fact, and we see it illustrated every day right here in Peterborough; it is not years, old age does not begin at any set time, but it is loss of vital force that makes a person old. Weakened digestion, thin blood and poor circulation soon start functional powers and vitality on the wane, and then the symptoms of old age quickly appear. You know a man is as old as he feels.

"On the other hand," continued Mr. McDermid, "that old feeling may be warded off, and I wish every person in Peterborough who feels old, whether they are so in years or not, would try the great discovery, Vinol. I know that it has vital principles which will in a natural manner strengthen digestion, assimilation and all the functional powers, send rich, red blood coursing through the veins, and give new life to every organ of the body, and this is what makes the old feel young again."

Vinol repairs worn tissues, checks the natural decline and replaces weakness with strength. It is an ideal body builder for old folks.

We promise you that Vinol is, first of all, agreeable, because it contains no fishy oil. Second, that it is a genuine cod liver medicine, containing all the medicinal curatives and strength-making elements taken direct from fresh cod livers; and third, we will return your money if it does not do exactly what we claim for it. McDermid & Jury, druggists. Vinol is also sold at The aMrket Druggstore The Ormond & Walsh old stand.

FIREMEN INJURED.

Three of Them In Hospital Result of Planing Mill Blaze.

London, Feb. 25.—Firemen Thomas Aitken, A. Davis, A. Scott, E. Dean and J. Riddell were seriously injured by falling timbers in a fire which completely gutted the Grand Trunk planing mill at the corner of Adelaide and Simcoe streets on Saturday night.

Aitken, Davis and Scott are in Victoria Hospital, and are reported to be improving. Aitken is the worst injured, having a broken rib and severe injuries to his back and head. Davis and Scott have internal injuries, and Riddell and Dean are injured about the head.

The loss will amount to $30,000; no insurance.

Four Firemen Injured.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 24.—Property valued at $125,000 was destroyed and four firemen were injured late last night in a fire that wiped out the wholesale hardware house of the Baldwin & Robbins Co. One of the firemen, D. J. Hurley, was blown from a ladder by a hot air explosion and had both arms broken and his forehead gashed.

LIEUT.-GOV. SNOWBALL DEAD.

Passes Away Suddenly While Going to Church.

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 25.—Hon. James Buntin Snowball, Lieutenant-Governor of New Brunswick, dropped dead about 7 o'clock last evening.

He spent the afternoon quietly, and at 6.45 he left the hotel, closely followed by his valet, to attend service at Christ Church Cathedral. After having walked a block and a half his honor complained of weakness and turned about to retrace his steps to the hotel. Soon after doing so he grabbed his valet by the arm, and when nearly in front of the Parliament Buildings, he suddenly sank to the sidewalk and expired before several members of the Legislature and employes of the hotel had time to arrive and carry him back to the hotel.

His Public Life.

In 1892 he became Senator, and on Feb. 5, 1903, he was sworn in as Governor of New Brunswick. He acted as inspector of savings banks at Chatham; consular agent for France on the Miramichi; president of St. George's Society, as well as taking an active interest in militia matters. He was captain of a company that was under arms at the time of the Fenian invasion in 1867. He was also drill instructor of the company.

POLICE MAKE RAID.

Fifty-Four Men Arrested in Gambling Houses In Hamilton.

Hamilton, Feb. 25.—The police made a series of the most sensational raids in the history of the city early yesterday morning, when they made a clean-up of three alleged gambling joints, arresting 54 men and gathering in two or three patrol wagon loads of paraphernalia.

The raid was well planned and carried out without a hitch.

Shortly before midnight all the constables on night duty, numbering about 25, were given instructions to be at one of the three places shortly before 1 o'clock.

At the word of the chief, the constables closed in, battered down the doors and invaded the places, placing everyone present under arrest.

The prisoners were conveyed, ten at a time to the police station.

Those arrested took the matter very coolly When the officers battered down the doors, marched in, and announced that everybody was under arrest, the men offered no resistance, and they "joshed" each other at the police station while waiting for bail.

Frozen to Death.

St. John, N.B., Feb. 25.—James Kendall, aged thirty-two, was yesterday found frozen to death in a vacant house, some miles from St. John. He was employed in the Mispec Pulp Mill, and had started to walk to town. He had been drinking and went into the house, partly undressed and went to sleep.

3 YEARS IN BED WITH RHEUMATISM! NOW WELL

It is simply marvelous, the effect Bu-Ju has on Rheumatism. It not merely relieves the pain but completely rids the system of the disease. Bu-Ju, THE GENTLE KIDNEY PILL, does this, because it cures the kidneys.

UXBRIDGE, ONT., Aug. 31st 1906

"Was an invalid for 3 years with Inflammatory Rheumatism, and was bed fast until about 6 months ago, when a friend left me some Bu-Ju Pills. I was helpless as an infant. I continued taking them, and now I am able to get out of bed, dress myself, and walk without crutches. JOHN McCLOUTH

REGINA

You will make more money by buying lots in Regina City, than by any other source at the present time. It is no gamble, no chance, but an absolutely sure investment. Property will increase at least 100 per cent. in less than two years. Buy now. Prices will be advanced in the spring. Here are a few things that are making Regina grow and making property increase in value :—

REGINA, the wholesale and distributing centre for Saskatchewan and the west. $8,000,000.00 worth of farm machinery sold from Regina last year. Regina is the head quarters for Saskatchewan of:—

The American-Abell Engine and Thresher Co.
Massey Harris Company.
Frost & Wood Company.
Fairchild Company.
Waterloo Manufacturing Company.
J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.
Garr-Scott Threshing Machine Company.
The International Harvester Company.
The North-west Thresher Company.
The New Hamburg Manufacturing Company.
Reeves Thresher Company.
Nichols & Shepherd Thresher Company.
Sawyer-Massey Company.
Noline Plow Company.
Canadian Port Huron Company.
Cockshutt Plow Company.

Besides the above there are a number of large eastern wholesale houses located in Regina. At the present time some eighteen more wholesale firms have secured sites in Regina to build on this year.

REGINA, the only railroad centre in Saskatchewan.

Besides the present roads which run north, south, east and west, there will be six more lines built into Regina during the next two years, being the Great Northern from the south, the Canadian Northern from the southeast, the C. P. R. north to Prince Albert, and three G. T. P. roads—one northeast, one east, one southwest.

The following is what Mr. Morse of the G. T. P. said in Regina on Aug. 6, 1906:

The Leader, Aug. 6, 1906.

FRANK MORSE IN REGINA

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P. Railway, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday morning, and had a short conference with Mayor McAra and W. G. Pettingel, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Morse had no new statement to make for publication regarding the plans of the G. T. P. to and around Regina. He repeated what he had said when in Regina on May 16th last that his Company would get into Regina at the earliest possible date, as they realized there was a large business to be done here. He confirmed the statement, which was first published by The Leader, that in addition to a branch line to Regina, from the main line near Yorkton, and from Regina to the international boundary on the south, a branch would be run to Regina from Brandon.

"The construction of branch lines would be carried on simultaneously with the main line," said Mr. Morse.

REGINA leads all cities from Winnipeg to the Coast in building for 1906.

Capital of Saskatchewan ranks fifth among the metropolitan centres of Canada, being surpassed by Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. Leads all the Dominion in relative growth. Building permits in 1906:

Regina—$1,982,330.

Edmonton—$1,863,894.

Calgary—$1,109,161.

No other city in Canada shows as high a percentage of growth as Regina. 1907 will beat all records. A large number of expensive buildings are being erected. Among others include:—Four new hotels, at a cost of over half a million; municipal hospital, $100,000; Y. M. C. A. at $100,000; Baptist Church, $60,000; Masonic Temple, at $75,000; Dominion Land Titles Office at $110,000; New Public School at $54,000, and many other business blocks and residences. Chief amongst all buildings will be the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, at a cost of at least $1,500,000.

PRESENTATION AND ADDRESSES FOR MRS. GREER

Members of Centreville Presbyterian Congregation Honour Devoted Lady Who is Leaving That Community.

SERVICES ARE GREATLY APPRECIATED

On Wednesday afternoon, February 20, the members of the Auxiliary of the W. F. M. S. and the choir of Centreville Presbyterian Church met in the Sunday School hall for the purpose of paying a tribute of respect and appreciation to Mrs. James Greer, who is leaving that community. Nearly forty ladies of the congregation were present. The meeting was opened by the president of the Auxiliary, Mrs. McKenzie. After the devotional exercises were concluded, and a piano selection given by Miss Maggie Berry, Mrs. Greer was called to the platform.

The first address was on behalf of the choir and the Auxiliary of the W. F. M. S. and was read by Miss Amy Donaldson and the presentation was made by Miss Mary Eagleson. The address was as follows:

Mrs. James Greer.

Dear Friend,—The members of the Auxiliary of the W. F. M. S. and the choir have met to express their deep regret in your removal from us. For a long time you have been a faithful and energetic worker in our Centreville Church. You will be missed not only in the choir, where you have rendered such efficient service, and in our Sabbath School, where you taught a class of girls, but also in the Auxiliary, where your devotion and sympathy for the cause of missions inspired us with the spirit of the Master.

We have learned to love you for your beautiful Christian life, and for your loyalty to God and sympathy with everything that brings help and cheer to mankind. We are assured that wherever you journey through life you will always carry with you the fragrance of a life of loving service. We feel that we cannot permit you to leave us without an expression of our high appreciation of your valuable services among us.

We ask you to accept this certificate of life membership in the W. F. M. S. as a slight token of our love for you. Our united prayer is that God may abundantly bless you and make you instrumental in winning precious souls from sin to Christ.

When your labours for the Master are over may He say to you, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

Signed on behalf of the W.F.M.S. and choir,

ALICE J. M'KENZIE,
President.

AMY DONALDSONm
Secretary.

Centreville, Feb. 20, 1907.

The second address was on behalf of the Sabbath School class. This was read by Miss May Byers, and the presentation of two pieces of china was made by Miss Muriel Porter. The address read:

Dear Mrs. James,—

We regret your leaving us very much, and, as we have learned to love you during the time you have taught our class, we wish you to accept this little gift as a slight token of appreciation from your Sunday School Class, all of whom wish you every happiness in your new home.

Signed on behalf of the Sunday School class,

MAY BYERS.

Centreville, Feb. 20, 1907.

Mrs. Greer was completely taken by surprise. She made a suitable reply, expressing her gratitude for the splendid gifts, and her deep regret in leaving Centreville. Her labours for the Master had been a blessing to her and she would carry sweet recollections of the happy years spent in Christian service there.

The ladies of the congregation served refreshments.

MR. GREEN TIRED OF THE BICKERING AND DELAY

Council Worried With Gilchrist Street Closing for Nearly Two Hours—Back to Committee.

MR. GREEN DOESN'T WANT IT NOW

After discussing the matter for over an hour and a half, last night, the council referred the clause in the Board of Works' report, recommending that steps be taken to close Gilchrist street, back to the Board. Whereupon Mr. G. Walter Green, who was present in support of the claim, told the council they could keep the street. "I won't take it," he said as he retired.

There was a lengthy discussion over the question, a deputation of those opposed to the scheme being present, and they were not backward in stating their views. Mr. Green was also on hand, to deal with his side of the case. The arguments advanced were much the same as at the previous meeting.

The Troublesome Clause

The clause in the Board of Works' report, which caused the discussion, and which was finally referred back, to the Board, was as follows:

"2. That steps be taken to close Gilchrist street from the south side of McDonel street to the north line of the Grand Trunk Railway property, and that notices be given that the council will on the evening of April 1st, 1907, at 8 o'clock, consider a bylaw for that purpose and to convey the part of the street so closed to G. Walter Green."

A Serious Matter

Ald. Stevenson said that he did not know much about the affair, but he thought that the closing of a street was a serious manner. He could not, he said, take a stand either way, with any degree of satisfaction, until he had learned more of the matter.

The mayor explained that the subject had been carefully considered by the Board of Works, and they had been unable to see that anybody would be injured by the closing of the street.

Ald. Morgan concurred with Ald. Stevenson. He was not conversant with the matter, but thought that the council should not act hastily.

Parties Heard

Ald. Johnston moved, seconded by Ald. Phelan, that the parties wishing to be heard objecting to the closing of the street, be given a hearing.—Carried.

Mr. Quinlan was the first speaker. He said that the council and himself were looking at the matter from two different standpoints, and he proceeded to go over the arguments that he had advanced before the Board of Works.

Thomas Gunn also objected to the closing of the street, saying that the residents in that neighbourhood were very strongly against the erection of a building on the property.

Mr. J. J. Lynch also spoke against the project, explaining that Park street was not as good a thoroughfare as formerly, owing to the street car line, and stating that he thought it probable that Gilchrist street would have to be used.

Mr. A. E. Dixon, who is representing Mr. Quinlan, in the matter, denied the report that the property in question was owned by himself and Mr. T. J. O'Connell; the land belonged to Mr. Quinlan. He considered that the closing of the street would be a serious matter to Mr. Quinlan, and he thought Mr. Quinlan would be entitled to damages.

Mr. Green's Side

Mr. Green was present and stated his position briefly. He said that if the council thought the objections were valid ones, he did not want the street. If however they were satisfied that the closing of the street would do no damage to anyone, then he wanted the property.

Mr. J. T. O'Connell was also heard and spoke against the closing of the street.

Ald. Tovey was against the closing of any more streets, and referred to other cases in which this had been done.

Ald. Phelan said that he agreed with Ald. Tovey, and asked why the street should be closed in the face of objections.

Ald. McIntyre and Ald. Elliott both spoke against the closing of the street in view of the strong objections made against the step.

Ald. Wilson, on the other hand, was in favour of granting Mr. Green's request. That gentleman, he said, deserved a great deal of credit. He had never asked the city for a bonus or any other aid.

Ald. Leary concurred with this opinion, saying that it was not likely that a bridge would ever be built over the creek. There were bridges on Park and Donegal streets, and there would be no need of another.

Back To The Board

It was finally moved by Ald. Stevenson that the clause in question should be referred back to the Board of Works. While in sympathy with Mr. Green, he did not think that if the closing of the street was an injustice to anyone that it should be closed. Ald. Phelan seconded the motion.

Ald. Duncan said that he did not think it was any use referring it back to the Board of Works. "Settle it to-night," said the chairman of the Board.

"Keep The Street."

After a little more discussion, Ald. Stevenson's amendment was put and carried by a vote of 8—5, and the interested parties withdrew. Mr. Green was the last to leave, and made a speech on retiring that was somewhat of a shock. "You may as well throw that clause into the waste paper basket," he said; "I don't want the street now, and refuse to take it."

"Very well, the Board of Works will understand that," said the Mayor as Mr. Green withdrew.

SOME DISTURBING DEVELOPMENTS AT LICENSE INQUIRY

Municipal Hotel, June 28, 1906, transferred from Trebilcock to Cohen, price $5,000; December 20, 1906, transferred from Cohen to Prentis, price, $25,000.

Increase in six months, $20,000.

Daly House, corner Front and Simcoe streets — January 24, 1906, transferred from Doncaster estate to W. R. Membery, price $25,000; June 28, 1906, transferred from Membery to Hurst, price $40,000.

Increase in six months, $15,000.

The startling record of these two license transfers should make Mr. Foy reconsider his decision to wait for a copy of the evidence in the license inquiry before taking any action. He should at once—this very morning—order the cessation of license transfers in the city of Toronto until the suspicions of wholesale graft are cleared up.

There is another branch of the case that Mr. Foy cannot ignore. Mr. Stephen W. Burns, barrister, and "Tory" ward manager, appeared in 33 license transfer cases during 1906. It is shown in evidence that his fee in one, and that by no means one of the largest, was $414. That average maintained would give Mr. Burns an income from this little side line of legal practice equal to that of the leaders of the bar before the Court of Appeal.

There is no use blinking the question. Mr. Foy must tell the public whether Mr. Burns gets these fees because he is an eloquent pleader or because he is a "Tory" ward manager. The matter will not down.—The Globe.

HAS BEEN CARRIED 3,600 MILES BY PARENTS

Quarrel Between Them Resulted in Girl Getting Long Trip.

THE FATHER KIDNAPPED DAUGHTER

Melbourne, Feb. 23.—A pretty fair-haired girl of nine summers, Australian born, is the fascinating little heroine of a drama which has its scenes of action 12,000 miles apart—in Melbourne and London. She is Muriel Doris Knipe and her father, Roderick Knipe, lived with his wife and child in Melbourne.

The parents went to London on a visit, but while there had a falling out, and the husband took Doris and fled to Australia. Mrs. Knipe followed and a reconciliation resulted, but she soon suspected Knipe, and with the girl made her way to London again.

Knipe followed her there, kidnapped the daughter and is now believed to be back in Australia.

The child has been carried 36,000 miles by her quarrelsome parents in four years.

BOY'S SWING IS A DEATH-TRAP

Playing in Mill, Grasped Belt and is Crushed in Shafting.

Examiner Special

Mount Moris, Mich., Feb. 23. — Louis, the nine year old son of Christopher Mulvaney, while playing with a companion in the Eagon Company's sawmill, spied a loose belt. It had been slid off a pulley on a rapidly revolving shaft. The little chap laughed as he grasped the big belt, thinking to make a swing of it.

Instantly there was a whir, and Louis, caught in the rapidly moving belt, was hurled 12 feet into the shafting and was crushed. The mill machinery was stopped, while the crazed father loosened the mutilated body of his boy, which had wedged in the shafting, and carried it home to the mother.

WOMAN FINDS HER FATHER BURNING ALIVE

Michigan Woman Fights the Flames Then Tries to Drag Out Body.

MAN BURNED SO BADLY HE WILL DIE

Examiner Special.

Traverse City, Mich., Feb. 23. — Throwing bed clothes over her father, who was burning to death, Mrs. E. C. Brower, of Fife Lake, extinguished his clothing. Kneeling on the floor, she put out the blazing carpet by patting it with her bare hands. Then she put out the blazing furniture with water from a pitcher. Grasping firmly the old man's body, she attempted to drag it from the room.

Her father, though 83 years of age, was too heavy for her, and not until she found that she was unable to move him did she call for help.

E. F. Adams, who makes his home with his daughter, Mrs. Brower, had gone to bed as usual last night. He always set the lamp on the floor while he removed his shoes, and he lost his balance and fell over on the lamp. He tried to crawl away, and when found he had his head under the bed and the flames were licking his back, which was burned to a crisp. He will die.

EXCELLENT YEAR FOR LUMBER INDUSTRY

News of Week From the North—Galway Items of Interest.

Examiner Special

Galway, Feb. 25. — The la grippe has passed through this settlement, and has left much sickness in its wake.

The roads are blocked up badly, on account of the recent storms.

Mr. Maurice Hickey is having a very severe attack of rheumatism.

This has been an excellent year for the lumber industry, and the result is that in the majority of camps they have all the timber drawn to the lakes, and rivers, and are again cutting.

Mr. James O'Brien intends returning to the west in the near future. This community will wish him all kinds of luck in those stormy regions.

Some of the young ladies went calling on Wednesday, the 20th, and as they have not returned they must be snow-bound, similar to those in the West.

One of Mr. William Doherty's horses received a severe wound in the lumber camp, and he had to return home on Monday with his team.

Miss Loretta Collins was the guest of Miss Nora Collins last week.

Mr. Patrick Collins is at present drawing poles to Kinmount.

The past week has been a very busy one for Mr. Peacock, distributing the valentines to the lads and lasses of the community.

As we have now entered the holy season of Lent, all kinds of amusements are suppressed for the present.

C. P. R. SNOW PLOUGH PASSED THROUGH CITY

During the Night—The Road is in Good Condition in Most Places and But Little Trouble Experienced.

The C. P. R. snow plough passed through the city some time during last night. Although in the immediate vicinity of the city the track is comparatively clear, still there are some sections of the line which are being continually blocked. In the neighbourhood of Pontypool there are numerous cuts, and these are generally blocked when a high wind is blowing. The snow is blown across the fields and into the railway cuts and even the sand is packed with the snow in these places. This was the second appearance of the snow plough during the past week, the wind storm of last Thursday having caused some inconvenience. Last winter, as far as is known, the plough was not used over this division at all, thus showing that the railway lines of this district have but little trouble in the form of snow banks, etc., and the scheduled time is followed closely.

"Klingsole" Made for Men and Women

People who wore "Daisy" Rubbers last winter will wear them again this winter, even without reading our ads. For no amount of talk about "Daisy" Rubbers tells so much as a season's wear of the rubbers themselves. The good service they give under the test of every day ruff-scuff hard usage, in all kinds of bad weather,--that's what shows the honesty that backs "Our Daisy" advertising. But even that test doesn't tell why there's double wear in every pair—though it proves there is. It's a simple matter of using toughened honest rubber in the right way, in a factory that's as modern as the idea of honest quality is ancient.

You'll hardly know you've got rubbers on when you wear the Klingsole,— they are so light in weight. But they will outwear common rubbers that are twice as heavy. Klingsole Rubbers don't heat the feet; they can't slip off until you want them off—and then a touch removes them. Made in the right toe shape for the shoes you wear

Synopsis Of Canadian North-West HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS

Any even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba or the North-west Provinces, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded upon by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section, of 160 acres, more or less.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office for the district in which the land is situate.

Homestead Duties.—A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required to perform the conditions connected therewith under one of the following plans:—

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act, as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

Application for patent should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homestead Inspector.

Before making application for patent the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

LAST BRITISH HERETIC

VIEWS OF REV. R. J. CAMPBELL, OF LONDON CITY TEMPLE.

Much Discussion, Some Very Acrimonious, Has Been Created By New Theology of a Noted Preacher—Main Conclusions Reached In Recent Sermons Containing His Views of the Christian Religion.

Throughout the country much discussion is taking place regarding the views of the Christian religion that have been expressed by the Rev. R. J. Campbell, of the City Temple. These are his main conclusions, says Lloyd's London Weekly:

"To say that Jesus was born without a human father is untrue.

"Whatever Jesus is now, He certainly was not co-equal with God when on earth.

"We believe that the story of the Fall, in a literal sense, is untrue. It is literature, not dogma; the romance of an early age used for the ethical instruction of man.

"We reject wholly the common interpretation of the Atonement—that another is beaten for our fault.

"We do not believe in Eternal punishment. Ultimately every soul will be perfected."

Preaching to a crowded congregation at the City Temple recently, Mr. Campbell said views varied greatly as to the scope and functions of the society founded by Jesus. He was perfectly sure Jesus appointed neither bishop nor priest to carry on any mere mechanical machinery. Such a foundation was too flimsy. "In the primitive sense of the word," added the preacher, "I am a bishop. I do not say that the sacerdotal view is wholly bad, but it has wrought much harm. We want a Christian federation to take in all—even the Church of Rome—united for common action."

REV. R. J. CAMPBELL.

He did not believe in eternal damnation. Man was constituted for immortality. The true Church of Christ existed to make the world better and gladder—to make it the kingdom of God. The Labor party believed in making the world better. The spirit of brotherhood was necessary. To achieve anything men must get together—must form a society.

In an exposition of his views given at Tynemouth Congregational Church Mr. Campbell emphasized the difference between religion and theology. The starting-point of "the new theology," as it had been called, was belief in the immanence of God and the essential oneness of God with man. There was no real distinction between humanity and the Deity. Our being was the same as God's, although our consciousness of it was limited, and His was not. Every man was a potential Christ, and all that could be said about the love of Christ must be said about all the humble sons of toil. Jesus came to call us up to God. The "new theology" looked upon evil not so much as a positive, but as a negative term—a shadow where light should be.

While recognizing the value of the Bible as a unique record of religious experience, it was handled as critically as any other book. It was the slow growth of centuries, not let down by a string from Heaven. It was the religious experience articulating itself as it went along. The real seat of authority was not without, but within, the soul.

The "new theology" believed in the immortality of the soul. A ray of the universal consciousness could not be destroyed and must go back to God, but they believed there were many stages in the progress. It seemed probable we should go on ascending when we crossed to the other shore, and ultimately every soul, they believed, would reach its fore-ordained home.

It had been stated that the new theologians denied the Atonement. This was far from being the case; they merely denied the usually accepted theories of the Atonement. Every Christian sect believed in living the Christ life, but "the new theologians" went further, and believed a man's life should be like Christ's, a daily atonement. If all Christians lived this life all social problems would be solved.

At Brunswick Chapel, Newcastle, Mr. Campbell spoke on "The Atoning Will," and was received with alternate cheers and marks of dissent.

When Christ died on Calvary, the preacher said, they were sometimes still told He bore all the sins which had been committed and all that would be committed.

This was not true, and it ought not to be true, but there was a grand truth behind the sacrifice of Christ. It must be repeated in human hearts.

Magical and mechanical the work of Christ never was. The gift of Christ to the world was His perfect self-sacrificing life—the kind of life which ought to be and must be theirs. No one need wish to dethrone the Jesus who was the Christ.

Death and evil were defeated at Calvary, which proclaimed the perfect example which they sought to destroy. It was a sublime victory for truth over falsehood, for light over darkness. The spirit of Jesus the Christ was that of ideal manhood. He showed man what he could do, how he could attain to one Christhood.

To say that Jesus paid some mystical penalty for human sin was to entirely mistake the meaning of His sacrifice.

Here there was audible dissent among ministers on the platform.

The atoning work of Jesus was much misunderstood. There were vague statements about the mystery of the Cross, and some held it to be beyond explanation.

On the contrary, he believed that he could get a child to see his explanation of it. The preacher then cited, by way of illustration, an instance of rash speculation on the part of a brother, which had involved the welfare of his two sisters. By refraining from condemnation, and showing a readiness to forgive and forget, they saved their brother, body and soul. They had drawn forth his better manhood by the spirit of Christ which they had shown.

Here was the Christ assumed in two lives, and by the bearing of that cross they had saved a soul. This only atoning love, the spirit of Jesus, needed to be repeated in all their lives. It was the only atonement.

The sacrifice of Christ continually repeated on the altar of human hearts was the only power that could lift mankind out of darkness into light.

The other day, some music-hall artists assisted in entertaining a party of poor children at the City Temple. If he had been there he might have come down on some of the songs which they sung. But he said with conviction that those music-hall artists were acting in the very spirit of God, and had everything to do with Calvary.

Here there was applause and dissent among the congregation.

Referring to the Lord Mayor of London's care for crippled children, Mr. Campbell remarked that in the days in which Christ lived a little crippled child would not have been allowed to live, but whilst learned theologians were contending about the Atonement they were in these ways living it (loud cheers).

Doctors Tried for 8 Years to Cure Me

BUT I AM WELL NOW AND BELIEVE I OWE MY LIFE TO

DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS

There is a remarkable cure described in this letter which should prove of vital interest to anyone suffering from derangements of the kidneys.

Mrs. Dave W. McCaff, Lombardy, Leeds Co., Ont., writes: I desire to acknowledge the benefits I have received from Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I was troubled with kidney disease for eight years and doctored with several doctors to no avail until my husband got me Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and I began using them. Altogether I used ten boxes, and can truthfully say I would have been dead long ago only for Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. Words cannot express my praise for them, for I believe there is no medicine so good for kidney and liver disorders."

In the treatment of Bright's disease or inflammation of the kidneys, the first consideration is rest for these filtering organs and this can only be obtained by quickening the action of the liver and bowels.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills succeed where mere kidney medicines fail because they act promptly and directly on the liver, take the work off the kidneys, and then by their invigorating action on the kidneys restore them to health and vigor.

Because of the intimate and sympathetic relation of the liver and kidneys it is useless to treat them independently of one another. This fact was in the mind of Dr. Chase when he prepared the formula of his celebrated Kidney-Liver Pills and the phenomenal success of this great medicine has proven his wisdom.

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills positively cure liver complaint, biliousness, constipation, backache and kidney disease. One pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co. Toronto. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box of his medicines.

KENNETH J. DUNSTAN.

KENNETH J. DUNSTAN.

Toronto Manager of the Bell Telephone Company In Public Eye.

Kenneth J. Dunstan, the Toronto manager of the Bell Telephone Co., is a man of rather kindly demeanor, with eyes which smile quietly and persistently. Persistence, in fact, is his outstanding characteristic. Even to the chance acquaintance, who will find him more than polite, the determined jaw hints that there is resolution behind the smile. His is the face of one apt to despise the bludgeon as uncouth and the stiletto as patently unfair; of one, nevertheless, accustomed to gain his end in an effective though unassuming way. One fancies that if the smile faded it might leave a countenance of almost grim tenacity, writes one who knows him well in The Toronto Star. To men who seek the overthrow of corporations, he appeals chiefly as an opponent—still frank. Still open-minded, and still honorable. He is looked upon, indeed, as one of the ablest of those who might be termed "corporation men." He is impatient with municipal ownership; dubs it the outward swing of the pendulum; prophesies that things will swing back again to a happy mean. "Thus it is through the years," he says, "the pendulum swinging now in this way, now in that. When the limit is reached in one direction, it halts, swings then in the opposite direction. When people find the faults of over-municipalization, they will be more open to conviction that municipal ownership is something with bounds, whereat it is well to draw the line."

Though shrewd enough to be Scotch, the manager is of English parentage. He was born at Hamilton, Ontario, and used to experiment with the 'phone when the instrument was in its infancy. He has studied telephones ever since telephones were. He has had practical experience as an electrician, and is a past-president of the Electrical Association. About eighteen years ago he came to Toronto, and has resided here since that time. He has made many friends socially as well as in a business way; was formerly a member of the Canadian Club Executive, and is a past-president of Ionic Lodge, A.F. and A.M., G.R.C.

Feeling Overcrowded.

It was doubtless Mrs. Howe's "sympathetic nature," to which she constantly referred, that made her carry so many burdens which did not belong to her. Her sufferings were many, but the statement of them often roused her family to mirth.

"How's your head this morning, my dear?" inquired Mr. Howe one morning in a properly solicitous tone.

"It's no better," came in a hollow voice from behind the teapot. "It won't be any better while I can't get Cousin John's lungs and Mary's china and mother's eyes and Harriet's wisdom teeth out of it for one minute."

"Put Into a Book."

Thomas Mitton was Dickens' solicitor as well as his schoolfellow and used to say that he was the only one of all of "Charlie's" friends whom the novelist had never "put into a book." Mitton's hearers smiled inwardly, because they recognized obvious pieces of Mitton in several of the novels, the most conspicuous fragments being in Wemmick ("Great Expectations") and Tappertit ("Barnaby Rudge"). Not much in common, it may be said, between these two eccentrics. Nevertheless, life being more various and more inconsistent than fiction, there he was visibly. Dickens was greatly and long attached to him, and it was in a letter to the lawyer that he described most admirably the frightful railway accident from which he escaped physically unhurt, but gravely shaken in nerve.—London Chronicle.

The Cab Horse Won.

A gentleman who was anxious to catch a train hailed a hansom, gave instructions as to his destination and jumped in, but the horse made terribly slow progress, and the "fare" was afraid that he would miss his train.

"Look here, cabby," he said, "can't you make your gee-gee go faster? I must catch the 3.45."

The cabman winked knowingly.

"Yes, sir, he can go faster," was the reply, "but it's like this: Yer see, my horse is an old racer, and the best way for you to make him go faster is for you to bet me half a crown he won't catch the 3.45. That'll put him on his mettle, and he'll fly like the wind."

The horse did it.—London Express.

FOR AN ALL-EMPIRE CABLE

Principal Gordon Outlines Scheme For Gathering News of the Empire.

"Those of us who are Imperialists are not so because of a desire for gain, neither is it a desire for militarism, but it is a desire for a closer union, and for a more friendly intercourse among the various dominions and possessions of the Crown," said Principal Gordon of Queen's University when addressing the Empire Club in Toronto recently. Principal Gordon pointed out how little, after all, Canadians knew of the other possessions of Britain, and these possessions probably knew as little of Canada. The ignorance of otherwise fairly well informed people in Britain of Canadian affairs was so well known that it was not necessary to give instances. The Canadian press, excellent as it was, did not supply the information required by Canadians relative to British colonial affairs. What news the Canadian newspapers had was largely gathered and supplied by agencies which catered to other than British people. What was required to insure a better knowledge of each component part of the empire was, first, an all-British cable service constructed and operated by the Governments interested, and the establishment of bureaus to gather news in Australia, India, New Zealand, South Africa, Canada and other parts of the empire.

What Imperial federationists desired was that the cable now running from Vancouver to Australia should be supplemented by the completion of three other sections of cables. The first section should be a cable from Britain to Nova Scotia, and across Canada to Vancouver to join the Pacific cable there; then from Australia and New Zealand to India, and a third section from India to Cape Town, South Africa, thence to the West Indies, with branches from these latter islands to Nova Scotia, and to Great Britain. This was the proposal which Sir Sandford Fleming had outlined, and for which he was still so loyally working, even though he was eighty years of age. There had been two plans suggested for the gathering of the news—first, that the Government of each colony should gather such items of interest and importance as would be of value to all readers, and, second, the formation of an organization, on the lines of the Associated Press, and there surely could be no serious difficulty in the way of the formation of such a great bond of union. The greatest opposition at present came from the Eastern Telegraph Co., which had practically a monopoly in the east. The influence of that corporation was used in Britain, Australia, and India to prevent the construction of this all-British cable service, which if properly used would form a bond of union binding all parts of the empire more closely together and giving information which would be valuable in trade and commerce. The cost of such a cable would be about twenty-five million dollars, not a sum which should prevent its construction by a united empire.

Helping an Invalid.

A trained nurse mentions as among the little things that help make an invalid feel comfortable and rested the frequent brushing of the hair and bathing of the hands and face. "I don't know what it is, whether these actions just divert the invalid's mind or really do effect some physical change for the better, but they certainly help the sick one to get through the day. Eau de cologne and the various toilet waters are very refreshing when added to the water or used independently. I once heard a man say that if he couldn't both wash his hands and face and comb his hair in the morning when he got up he would choose to comb his hair. It would wake him up better. He felt something of the same sense of physical comfort as the average convalescent or invalid."

Carlyle.

Thomas Carlyle, "the sage of Chelsea," died without winning much personal popularity, a fact, however, which is forgotten in admiration of his genius. Carlyle exerted a greater influence on British literature during the middle of the nineteenth century and on the religious and political beliefs of his time than possibly any other British writer. He never wrote a line that he did not believe, and in regard to style he certainly had no superior. From the position of schoolmaster in an obscure village this great Scotsman rose to be a leader in the world of letters.—London Standard.

Here's the Cure for Sick Kidneys

TEST THEM FREE

Perhaps you are skeptical about GIN PILLS. So was Mr. Brown. He had tried so many things for his kidneys, without getting any better, that he had just about made up his mind that he couldn't get well.

When he first read about GIN PILLS he laughed. The second time, he thought. The third time, he said "he would write for a sample just to see if there was any chance of getting well."

He was pretty nearly tickled to death over that box of GIN PILLS. They did him so much good that he would have paid $5 a box for the second, if necessary. The dizziness, headaches and backaches stopped. Those shooting pains in hips and legs died away. Urine lost its high color. He slept through the night without being disturbed by bladder trouble. His appetite began to pick up and he felt better than he had been for years.

Being a sufferer from my Kidneys and Dizziness in the Head, and could get nothing to help me, I saw in the papers what good Gin Pills were doing. I got a sample box, and they did me so much good, I bought three boxes and am taking them. They have worked wonders for me. I can recommend them to any similar sufferer. Geo. A. Brown.

Don't be prejudiced. Give Gin Pills a fair trial and they will cure you just as they cured Mr. Brown. Mention this paper and we will send you a free sample. The Bole Drug Co., Winnipeg, Man.

IN FASHION'S REALM

SKATING COSTUME FOR GIRLS WHO LOVE THIS SPORT.

A Color That Is Especially Becoming Should Be Selected—Corduroy Makes a Most Attractive Costume—Red Is Effective Trimmed With Mink.

Now that the skating season is here it behooves every lover of this sport to procure at once a smart skating costume, provided that this gown was not purchased some time since in order to be ready for the first real freezing spell. It's every bit as essential to have a skating costume perfect in its way as it is to possess the correct style of reception gown or ball dress, and it is the greatest mistake to think that any old dress will pass muster simply because it is to be put to hard usage.

Corduroy makes a most attractive skating costume. A color that is peculiarly becoming should be selected, for the dress must be most simply made, relieved only by the fur collar at the throat and possibly by some bright shade in the hat. Red is most effective and is always charming for winter. White corduroy is scarcely practical, but, trimmed with mink or sable, it would be difficult to conceive of a more charming costume. Any rough cloth is better than one with a smooth finish, and the bright shades of blue, red, green or brown are all attractive against the dark fur. It is better to have the collar and sleeves directly lined, or, rather, faced, with fur or to have a double fur collar attached to the coat than to wear a separate stole or boa, which is sure to be continually snapping off and so be a constant norm of annoyance. A brilliant red cheviot trimmed with mink or brown marten worn with a hat of the same kind of fur does not make such an expensive costume, and nothing could be more effective.

OF MOUSSELINE AND LACE.

PEAU DE SOIE AND DOTTED NET.

To be correct a skating skirt should be unusually short—if becoming it need come but an inch or so below the high boot—for if too long it will be continually catching in the skate and, besides, will quickly become damp from the ice. It should be full, but have as few points as possible, for it is a nuisance to have this style of skirt constantly pressed off, and yet plaits that have "come out" are exceedingly ugly. A plain three-quarter or hip length coat with fitted or semi-fitted back and box front is altogether the smartest model. The so called three-quarter jackets are some inches shorter than those of last year, and save in the elaborate coats for afternoon there are few of the long models. Long sleeves with turned back cloth or fur cuffs are alone sensible.

A smart skating costume may be made of pastel blue cloth, with a simple cloth waist, short full skirt and plain three-quarter jacket. To be slipped on after skating in this suit, a long loose fur lined coat of the same shade of cloth, trimmed with wide mink collar, revers and cuffs, is a charming combination. A little blue velvet toque trimmed only with mink head and tails sets off this skating suit to advantage. It is a jump from skating gowns to French blouses, but the illustrations show two of these waists carried out in the latest mode. Both are elaborately trimmed with lace and embroidery, and they have the short sleeves, which are to continue their popularity throughout the spring and summer.

Simple Contrivances That Save Time and Temper.

The more simple the idea the more valuable it often is, and the contrivance illustrated is well worth attention. It is a sheet for hanging at the back of a wardrobe, for keeping all dust from the clothes, and for this purpose it has rings sewn on at each end. The rings at one end are passed over the pegs and the clothes hung up. The sheet is then folded upward, and the rings at the other end are passed over the pegs, effectually covering the clothes and keeping out all dust. On either side are sewn tapes, so that the sides can be tied together if required, the whole contrivance when closed being of the nature of a large bag. A glance at the sketches will explain the way in which the sheet is used. In Fig. 1 it is shown attached at one end only, and in Fig. 2 it is folded up with clothes inside. One of its merits is that the rings are easily placed over the pegs, and the tapes are quickly tied or untied when it is necessary to remove a garment.

TO PROTECT CLOTHES.

A Novel String Box.

A very useful little box for string can be made out of a small square cigar box or any other little wooden box of a suitable size. The box we illustrate is intended for hanging on the wall, rather high up, beside a writing table, and the string is pulled through a hole cut in the bottom of the box.

In the upper sketch the box is illustrated tilted forward, and this is done to show the two holes that are cut in the side of the box on which the lid is hinged. Through these two holes nails are driven into the wall, and by this means it is fixed in its place. It can be lifted off and taken down when not in use, and a new ball of string is easily inserted. If securely fastened to the wall the top of the box will form a nice place for standing a small fern or a vase of flowers. The exterior of the box lends itself to decoration in many ways and may be painted, stained or covered with prettily colored paper. On a small brass headed nail at one side scissors may find a place and be ready to hand to cut off a length of string when required.

pretty, for they are a good white, and the wool seems especially appropriate for the babies.

A crepe de chine blouse has a bolero effect of coarse Irish lace and a deep pointed yoke of valenciennes outlined with applique of shaded flowers.

A charming afternoon gown is of old rose voile, with masses and masses of wee tucks like lingerie work and a trellis of satin ribbon of the same exquisite shade.

A lovely and unusual hat is of pale gray cloth edged with the same colored velvet and two large shaded gray feathers across the front. It is raised at the side to show ribbon choux in pale mauve, blue and pink tones.

An evening gown of light yellow ninon has a broad band of satin at the foot and a satin edged fichu. This year women's umbrellas are smaller and the silk so fine that they can be rolled up into a very small compass. The mulberry colored umbrella with a handle of mother-of-pearl is very new and fetching. On the knob the owner's pet name is set in diamonds.

There are smart short skirts made of material guaranteed not to shrink when wet. The fabric is chemically treated to shed water.

The pretty plaid costume illustrated is trimmed with black velvet ribbon. The chemisette is of lace, or all over embroidery is an excellent substitute.

PUZZLE TO THE WORLD

DANISH THOUGHT READERS MYSTIFY ENGLAND.

The Zancigs Are Now Performing Marvelous Feats of Supposed Mental Transference—Trick Or Genuine Transmission?—Stead, Sir William Crookes, Sir Oliver Lodge Would Be Glad of Enlightenment.

For once England has been obliged to confess that it is completely mystified. Two Danes, it seems, man and wife, under the rather disconcerting name of Zancig, have done the business. This clever pair have set the British metropolis guessing by their marvelous and utterly unexplainable feats of what our transatlantic cousins are quite sure, you know, to be mental transference. W. T. Stead, who is always open to conviction, no matter what the source, has been keenly interested. Sir William Crookes, foremost in the ranks of science, admits that he would be glad to be enlightened, and Sir Oliver Lodge is equally carious. Lord Rothschild declares that he is "profoundly impressed," and the English nobility "wants to know, you know."

The most amazing feature of the business is that the Zancigs, apparently upright persons that they are, disclaim every suggestion of supernatural aid and will not even admit that telepathy, thought transmission or the possession of a sixth sense has anything to do with their wonderful doings. They wish it to be understood that they are merely entertainers and that there is no witchcraft about their show.

THE ZANCIGS, PUZZLE OF SCIENTISTS.

Nevertheless it is all past comprehension. To be explicit, these two persons appear to be able to read each other's mind instantly and with absolute accuracy. No matter what are the conditions, no matter whether or not they are together, or whether or not they are tied in sacks, the process goes on. Whatever the husband sees his wife sees also, and whatever he thinks she divines perfectly.

If this be trickery, it is a royal game. If it be invention pure and simple, the genius responsible for it is of a kind never before made public. No one has been able to give a rational explanation of it, and the ingenuity that has hoodwinked the race thus far is worthy of a title loftier than any to be obtained by mere successful trickery.

Alfred Harmsworth believed that he could solve the Zancig mystery. To that end he invited the pair to his office and took the precaution of having present a staff of keen investigators, every man and woman among them alert to discover some flaw in the test. The man, surrounded by investigators, was kept in one room while the woman was locked in another. Then Harmsworth selected the longest word he could find in a German dictionary, showed it to Zancig, and almost instantly Mme. Zancig wrote the word on a slate. Mr. Harmsworth and his friends could not understand how it was done, and they do not know to this day.

Then Mr. Stead became investigator. He has investigated almost everything in his time and is understood to know a great deal about telepathy, psychometry and various other occult matters. He tried all these things on the Zancigs, but they brought only the most discouraging failure. He took Zancig upstairs, leaving madame in the parlor surrounded by his personal friends. Stead showed Zancig a picture hanging on the wall of a room upstairs, and at that very moment madame, in the room beneath, said quietly, "It is the picture of a man hanging on the wall."

Zancig looked at numbers on checks, examined postmarks and all sorts of personal trinkets in the upper part of the house, and the madame downstairs, rattled off descriptions as if she were looking at the objects. Mr. Stead was completely dumfounded, and he was honest enough to say so. He admitted that the Zancigs had shown him more of the wonders of telepathy than all he had ever learned from his study of the subject.

The Zancigs are Danes by birth. Zancig was born in Copenhagen about forty years ago. His wife, who was Agnes Claussen, was also born there.

The Zancigs maintain that their knowledge of the power of thought transference, or whatever it may be, dawned upon them gradually. Zancig observed that when he and his wife were sitting at table and he became engrossed in some particular thought his wife would begin to converse on that particular subject without any reference having been made to it. Then she would leave the room and return with books and other articles for which he had not expressed a wish, but which he really did want. Finally she fell into the habit of repeating to him the exact words he had spoken when away from her, besides giving the names and descriptions of all the persons in whose company he had been.

After awhile this peculiar gift became known to their friends and at last they were asked to exhibit it at small social gatherings. They were still doubtful of their powers, but consented to make a test. To their great astonishment they found that the madame's "guesses" were never at fault, and the couple began to attract a good deal of attention. It occurred to the Zancigs that they could cultivate this newly discovered field, and they proceeded to do so. They gave themselves up to the practice of the mental feat and made great progress. Before long they had acquired an accuracy which astonished even themselves.

The Zancigs do not seem to be convinced that what they are doing is especially wonderful. They are inclined to the belief that it is not beyond the ability of any intelligent person who knows how to develop his latent power in this direction. When the couple visited India an old priest sought an introduction, and in the course of the conversation that followed assured the mind readers that they were only on the threshold of their career; that far greater things were to come if they would accept the proper conditions and lead the life of those who are worthy.

The Zancigs were greatly interested and asked the old man to give them some evidence of his authority to speak of these matters. The oriental folded his arms across his frail body, gathered his feet beneath him and almost immediately began to rise in the air. When his body had reached a height of several feet it hung suspended in the air. Zancig believed that he had been mesmerized and he called out loudly to his wife, who was in an adjoining room. When she entered Mme. Zancig saw the fakir suspended. Her husband concluded that both were hypnotized and seized his cane and thrust it into the space between the floor and the suspended body. This convinced them that there was no mental or optical illusion. According to the testimony of those who have lived in India, this feat of suspension is practiced quite extensively by the native seers. It made a great impression on the Zancigs and convinced them that they still had much to learn.

The Zancigs appear to be very simple, unostentatious, frank and genuine in their manner. The wife is slightly below the medium height, with a rather sharp countenance, dark eyes and firm mouth and chin. Still her face is kindly, and its most frequent expression is a frank and even maternal one. She wears eyeglasses and is rather timid and retiring. Her husband seems much younger and is tall and somber complexioned, with a slight, dark mustache. He also wears eyeglasses and might easily be mistaken for a college professor. He speaks with a slight accent, as does his wife, but there is no suggestion of anything occult about either of them.

A SOCIABLE COMPANION.

The Chatty Traveler Who Charmed Ralph Waldo Emerson.

It is related that Ralph Waldo Emerson was once on his way to California when he was joined by a man who was altogether so sociable and chatty that an otherwise tedious journey was rendered quite cheerful. This man's name was Sackett, and he told Mr. Emerson that he resided in San Francisco. Mr. Sackett indicated all the points of interest along the way, related a lot of amusing anecdotes and, best of all, was also an attentive listener. The consequence was that Mr. Emerson came to the conclusion that Mr. Sackett was as charming a man as he had ever met, and it was in this positive conviction that he accepted Mr. Sackett's invitation to dine with him immediately upon their arrival in San Francisco. The next morning Mr. Emerson was astonished and annoyed to find in all the local papers this startling personal notice: "Professor Ralph Waldo Emerson, the eminent philosopher, scholar and poet, is in our city as the guest of J. Sackett, the well known proprietor of the Bush Street Dime museum. Matinees every half hour. Admission only 10 cents. The double headed calf and the dog faced boy this week."

Disillusioned.

"She had played in amateur theatricals, you know, and threatened to go on the stage if her parents wouldn't let her marry the duke."

"And what did her parents do?"

"They let her go on the stage, gave the duke a check for a front seat and were not at all surprised when he sailed back to France the next morning."

TO MOUNT RUWENZORI

DUKE OF THE ABRUZZI TAKES GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY.

Lectures Before King Edward, Who Pays Him a Splendid Tribute, on His Nile Discoveries—Royal Explorer's Thrilling Account of His Recent Explorations of the Snowy Mountains in the Heart of Africa.

The Duke of the Abruzzi is only 34 years old, but he has already won distinction in the Arctic zone as well as in equatorial regions. He is pale, thin, and good looking, with flashing black eyes, and a charming manner of speaking English. He called his recent lecture, delivered to the Royal Geographical Society at Queen's Hall, London, Eng., "The Snows of the Nile," and gave a thrilling account of his recent exploration of the snowy summits known as Ruwensori, in the heart of equatorial Africa, and between two of the great lakes of the Nile sources, the Albert and Albert Edward.

The range, he said, was probably seen for the first time by Europeans by Sir S. Baker in 1864, and later by Gessi in 1876. Neither traveler formed any exact idea of the importance of the ranges, and to Sir Henry Stanley was reserved the distinction of being the true discoverer. Stanley saw the mountain in 1888, and in the following year traversed its western slopes, while one of his companions, Lieut. Stairs, climbed to a height of 10,677 feet on its northwestern spurs.

From among the various native designations of the range Stanley chose

that of Ruwenzori, which means "Rainmaker," and he identified the range with Ptolemy's Mountains of the Moon. Ruwenzori was the only snowy range in the Nile basin, added the duke, and therefore the only mountain that met Ptolemy's statement that the Nile was fed from mountain snows.

After describing previous attempts to explore the mountain, the duke told how, on April 16 last, his expedition started from Naples to Mombasa, and went by rail to Kisumu or Port Florence, having made in 48 hours a journey which a few years ago took nearly three months to accomplish. Thence they traversed Lake Victoria by steamboat, arriving at Entebbe, or Port Alice, on May 7. A week after a formidable caravan of over 400 native carriers, soldiers, "boys," and grooms set out on a 15 days' march to Fort Portal.

After describing the big game observed on the march, the games and dances of the natives, the visits of chiefs to the caravan offering food (carried by women), the young explorer told of his first glimpse of the lofty snow peaks of Ruwenzori, and an excellent photograph of the view was thrown on the screen to awaken applause.

Thence afterwards, though the duke did not say so, it was a dogged climb upwards to Ibanda and Bibunga, which latter is 6,320 feet above sea-level. Here are the last huts of the Bakonjo mountaineers, of gentle manners and peaceable habits, who, despite the rigors of the climate, go habitually naked. There were slippery descents into villages, climbs up steep spurs, wrestlings with swamps, drenchings by rain and moisture. The duke spoke cheerfully of them as being all in the day's work. Some of the native followers stuck bravely to the expedition until a height of 13,780 feet was reached. Then they were left behind. For the three days of June 12, 13, and 14 rain kept the expedition prisoners at Bujongolo.

"We remained during these three interminable days confined in the narrow dungeon and buried in dark, dank fog.

"It was 11.30," continued the duke, "A fresh breeze blew from the southeast; the clouds swept past but a few yards under us, leaving clear only the two peaks, that we had left and that on which we were standing. And to these summits, the only ones in view at this moment which crowned my efforts, I gave the names of Margherita and Alexandra.

Acting on his prerogative as the first successful explorer of Ruwenzori, the duke said he proposed to call by the name of Mount Stanley the mountain or mass of which carries the five highest peaks—Margherita (16,816 feet), Alexandra (16,750 feet), Elana (16,389 feet), Savoya (16,340 feet), and Moebius (16,237 feet). To the second group in order of height he gave the name of Speke, the discoverer of the origin of the Nile; to the third, the name of Mount Baker, in memory of the traveler who discovered Lake Albert; to the fourth the name of Mount Emin; to the fifth, Mount Gessi; and to the sixth, Mount Thomson. The highest part of Mount Baker (15,990 feet) he named after the King of England.

His Majesty's Speech.

His Majesty King Edward paid, at the conclusion of the lecture, the following graceful tribute to the young explorer and his work:

"I feel convinced that I am expressing the wishes of the Royal Geographical Society, as well as those of this large assemblage to-night, when I tender our thanks to his Royal Highness the Duke of the Abruzzi for the interesting and exhaustive lecture which he has just given us. He has traveled a long way for this purpose, and it has been, no doubt, a great strain on his voice. I feel sure that all of us will go home fully impressed with the able manner in which this expedition was fitted out, and the successful results which it has attained.

"We have been interested and helped by the lantern slides which have been taken from the splendid photographs of the distinguished Mr. Sella, who accompanied the duke on this expedition; and I am sure everything we have seen has brought before us, as vividly almost as if we had been with him, the successful adventures which he encountered, and the success in surmounting those high peaks of the Ruwenzori.

"But his royal highness is a great traveler and a great explorer. He has done more even than he has told us to-night. If I refer back 10 years ago, he organized an expedition to attempt to ascend the still unclimbed peak of Kinchinjunga, the second highest mountain in the world; but owing to the outbreak of plague in India, difficulties arose, which led him, I believe, to leave Darjeeling, and turn his attention to Mount Elias in Alaska, over 18,000 feet in height, which he was the first to ascend.

"In 1899 and 1900 the duke led an admirably organized expedition in an attempt to reach the North Pole. One branch of this expedition attained a latitude of 30 miles nearer to the Pole than the record established by Nansen and not far short of the latitude which has since been attained by Commander Peary.

"Our distinguished lecturer is, fortunately for him, a young man, and I hope he has a long life before him in which he will continue to make explorations which are of such value both to science and geography.

"He belongs also to an illustrious and distinguished race—I am happy to think good friends and allies of ours (cheers).

"Above all things he possesses great courage, great coolness, and great will. These, will, I am sure, carry him through any further expeditions or explorations he may make.

"I thank him again in the name of us all for his lecture, and I wish him continued success in the course of any future expedition he may attempt."

Loud cheers greeted the conclusion of his majesty's remarks, which were of quite an impromptu character.

In replying to the King's speech the Duke of the Abruzzi said that no praises could be more gratifying than those coming from the Sovereign of the nation which had always taken the lead in every kind of daring discovery and geographical enterprise over land and on sea, from the Equator to the Pole. The reception given to him in Great Britain by his majesty and the Prince of Wales and the Geographical Society would remain one of the dearest recollections of his life, and be deeply appreciated by all Italians.

LOOK TO THE FUTURE.

And Do Not Let the Past Spoil the Days That Are to Come.

There is nothing more depressing than dwelling upon lost opportunities or a misspent life. Whatever your past has been, forget it. If it throws a shadow upon the present or causes melancholy or despondency, there is nothing in it which helps you, there is not a single reason why you should retain it in your memory, and there are a thousand reasons why you should bury it.

The future's your uncut block of marble. Beware how you smite it. Don't touch it without a programme. Don't strike a blow with your chisel without a model, lest you ruin and mar forever the angel which lives within the block. But the past marble, which you have carved into hideous images which have warped and twisted the ideals of your youth and caused you infinite pain, need not ruin or mar the uncut block before you. This is one of the merciful provisions that every day present to every human being, no matter how unfortunate his past, a new uncut block of pure marble, so that every day every human being has a new chance to retrieve the past, to improve upon it if he will.

Nothing is more foolish, more positively wicked, than to drag the skeletons of the past, the hideous images, the foolish deeds, the unfortunate experiences of the past into today's work to mar and spoil it. There are plenty of people who have been failures up to the present moment who could do wonders in the future if they could only forget the past and start anew.—Success.

His Favorite.

"What is your favorite recitation?" asked the hostess.

"'Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight,'" answered Mr. Blykins, with a promptness which was almost defiant.

"Why, nobody recites that now."

"That's why I like it."

A BAD COLD SETTLED ON THE LUNGS

All the most serious affections of the throat, the lungs, and the bronchial tubes, are, in the beginning, but coughs and colds, and failure to take hold at once and get rid of them will cause many years of suffering.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree and will certainly cure all coughs colds and lung troubles.

Mrs. Jas. McDowell, Langton, Ont., writes: "In November, 1905, I caught a bad cold that settled on my lungs, so I got two bottles of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, and used one and a half of them and by that time I was cured. I laid the balance of the bottle away for future use. A few days after our eight months' old baby took the whooping cough.

He was so bad we had to call the family physician, but he said he could do but little.

I commenced using the Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup and to my great satisfaction the baby was cured. I only used four 25 cent bottles; a small doctor bill.

I believe there is no other remedy for coughs, colds, etc.

Price 25 cents a bottle at all dealers.

MRS. THAW'S TERRIBLE ORDEAL

Jerome Has Nearly Finished Cross-Examination.

TWO GAINS FOR PRISONER

Thaw's Wife Explains That Her Husband Said Stanford White's Money Was Poison and She Must Not Touch It—Cablegrams Referred to Someone Else — Her First Acquaintance With Thaw.

New York, Feb. 26.—Except for one brief moment Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw had a decidedly easy day of it yesterday during the continuation of her cross-examination by District Attorney Jerome. When adjournment was taken the prosecutor announced that he had practically concluded with the witness.

Mrs. Thaw was in much better spirits when she took the witness stand yesterday and looked decidedly better physically than she did last week.

Should Be Considered.

Instead of further hurting the cause of her husband, Mrs. Thaw managed to make two decided gains. When court adjourned last Thursday it appeared from her own statements that she used a letter of credit from Stanford White while traveling in Europe and turned the latter over to Thaw. Yesterday she explained that Thaw took the letter of credit from her, saying the money was "poison," that neither she nor her mother must touch it, and that he would provide them with funds. Whatever of the money was spent, she declared, was for her mother.

Thaw's Cablegrams to White.

The second point Mrs. Thaw made was concerning the cablegrams Thaw is said to have sent to Stanford White from London. It appeared Thursday that these cablegrams were requests to White to use his influence to keep Mrs. Nesbit from "raising a row" and interfering with her daughter in her continuing in company with Thaw.

Mr. Jerome took up the subject again yesterday, but his questions elicited the information that the letters did not concern Mrs. Thaw at all, but related to a man—a secretary of the American embassy—in London, who Mrs. Thaw said "sneaked up to mamma's bedroom and insulted her." She said the man also insulted her, and that Thaw went in search of him, but failed to find him.

The district attorney has almost completed his array of interrogatories based upon the long statement furnished him by Mrs. Holman, mother of young Mrs. Thaw, and in continuing the cross-examination is expected to make use of a series of happenings recounted to Assistant District Attorney Garvan by Mazie Follette, one of the former chorus girl chums of Evelyn Nesbit and a still loyal admirer of Stanford White.

Unless he changes his plan completely, Mr. Jerome will not put Mazie Follette on the witness stand. That interesting young woman, it is said, might do the prosecution more harm than good, if adroitly cross-examined.

BODY MAY BE EXHUMED.

Further Startling Developments Likely to Take Place In Canfield Alleged Murder Case.

Cayuga, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Perkins continues much more cheerful, and is seemingly satisfied that her case rests in good hands. She spends her time in writing, but makes no mention of the case. But despite her tranquility, the Crown case is strengthening instead of weakening.

It is rumored that the body of Henry Perkins' father will be exhumed this week. Mr. and Mrs. Perkins, senior, resided on their farm in North Cayuga, near Canfield. Henry Perkins and wife living with them. Mrs. Perkins, senior, died rather suddenly some few years ago, and it is nearly two years since her husband died, after having been troubled with supposed cancer, his death at the last being also somewhat sudden. The farm then passed into the hands of his son, the late Henry Perkins. Should the body be exhumed and death found to have resulted from anything but natural causes the case will become much darker.

The case will be called on Wednesday, but it is stated positively that there will be another remand.

TAX ON NATURAL GAS.

Hon. Mr. Cochrane Says It Will Go Through In Spite of Protests—Mining Properties Profitable.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—A large deputation, representing the small owners of natural gas wells, waited on Hon. Mr. Cochrane and other members of the Government yesterday and protested against the proposed tax on natural gas. Hon. Mr. Cochrane suggested that the deputation send in a written memorial stating their views as to what the tax should be, but he plainly intimated that there would be a tax. He pointed out that the Government was putting a tax on the output of mines and on mineral lands, and expected that others than the mining men would bear their share of the cost of administering the affairs of the Province. Alluding in this connection to the building of the Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway, and the consequent development which had followed, he made the interesting statement that it was expected that the portion of the mining lands preserved by the Government (the Gillies limit) would give returns enough to pay the cost of the railway.

Mr. F. R. Lalor, M. P., Haldimand, introduced the deputation; and among the speakers were Messrs. W. T. Henderson, E. L. Gould of Brantford, and Louis Wigle of Kingaville.

EAST KENT'S CANDIDATE.

Mr. R. L. Gosnell Nominated to Stand At Next Election.

Ridgetown, Feb. 26.—At the Liberal convention for East Kent for the Legislature yesterday nominations were received as follows:—Angus Gillanders of Oxford, S. P. Sturgis of Dresden, R. L. Gosnell of Blenheim, W. Ferguson of Thamesville, A. Parrott of Chatham, Dr. Wiley of Dresden, Dr. McPhail of Highgate, John Cochrane of Ridgetown, Capt. Isaac Robble of Dresden, David Coughel of Harwich, L. J. Reycraft of Ridgetown. All retired except Messrs. Gosnell, Sturgis and Ferguson. The latter was retired on the first ballot, and on the second ballot Mr. Gosnell was selected over Mr. Sturgis by 106 to 83. After acknowledging the honor, a stirring speech was delivered by Col. Atkinson, M.P.P. for North Norfolk.

CHARGED WITH KILLING.

But May Not Be Sufficient Evidence—Police Were Not Notified.

Berlin, Feb. 26.—Heuser and Reitz, the two men who are charged with manslaughter, in having caused the death of John Orazek, came up for their preliminary hearing yesterday, and were sent up for trial.

Orazek's death is said to have been the result of a cruel beating administered by the two prisoners during a row in the American Hotel.

Orazek died in the hospital last Monday night, and, it is alleged, that no ante-mortem statement was taken by the attending physician, Dr. Lackner, before death, nor was the chief of police notified of Orazek's approaching end, although it was known for days that he could not recover.

SENATOR GOWAN ILL.

Barrie's Aged Legislator Has Resigned From the Senate.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—Senator Jas. Gowan, of Barrie, aged 92 years, has placed his resignation in the hands of the Government. Sir James was appointed in 1885, and up to a couple of years ago had been one of the most active members of the Upper Chamber. He has been prevented on account of physical infirmities, from attending the Senate for the past two sessions.

When a law student Sir James figured in the rebellion of 1838, and was present in the fight against the rebels at "Gallows Hill." He was later colonel of the North York Regiment.

SEVERE BLIZZARD.

Storm at St. John Paralyses Traffic Completely—Trains Held Up.

St. John, N.B., Feb. 26.—A terrific storm raged here all yesterday, and street cars are stalled all over the city.

Last night the snow stopped falling, but a blizzard, piling huge drifts, is threatening to paralyze traffic completely.

The like has not been known here in years. All I.C.R. trains from the north are held up on account of the drifts.

CANADA ALONE OPPOSED.

Hen-and-Chicken Imperialism and Colonial Democracy.

London, Feb. 26.—(C. A. P.)—The Morning Post points out that practically all the colonies except Canada favor an Imperial Council. It remarks that nothing is more discouraging to a great movement than an ill-judged advance which ultimately involves a greater retreat. Hen-and-chicken Imperialism does not fit in with the modern instincts of colonial democracy.

THE NEW REGULATIONS MAKES CHANGES

War Secretary Divides Forces Field and Home Service.

160,000 MEN WILL BE ON CALL

Territorial Force of 300,000 Men Will Be Complete Army In Itself—Yeomanry, Militia and Volunteers To Be United—Field Body to Consist of 160,000 Troops—Always Ready For Mobilization.

London, Feb. 26.—The latest scheme for the reorganization of the British army was unfolded by War Secretary Haldane in the House of Commons yesterday.

It contemplates dividing all the forces into two categories, a field force and a territorial or home force.

The former with 160,000 officers and men is to consist of four cavalry brigades and six infantry provisions, with a full complement of horse and field artillery, all to be ready for immediate mobilization on the outbreak of war.

The territorial force, totaling 300,000 men, shall be a complete army in itself, and as nearly as possible of the same pattern as the regular troops.

This plan would unite all the present auxiliary forces, yeomanry, militia and volunteers, with a complement of regular artillery, into one homogeneous body, all to be paid at service rates during the time they are used.

The territorial forces would be so trained and organized as to enable their immediate mobilization simultaneously with the field forces.

The present militia principle of the county organization would govern the whole home army organization, with the army council in supreme control.

STRIKE LOOMS UP.

Expiration of Three Years' Agreement Next Week May Result In Cessation of Work In Coal Mines.

Regina, Sask., Feb. 26.—Word has been received here of the prospects of a coal strike and the general tie-up of the mines, which may be expected at the termination of the three-year agreement between the operators and miners, which expires on March 4 next.

This strike would affect every coal mine in the mountains, Alberta and Saskatchewan. The tieing up of the Crow's Nest would mean the closing down of the supply on which the C. P. R. depends for operating their engines between the mountains and Fort William.

The men are demanding higher wages, a uniform eight-hour day and fortnightly pay rolls, none of which the operators are inclined to concede.

Unless a settlement is reached before March 4 a complete tie-up of all the western Canadian coal mines must result.

EXCITED OVER TAXES.

Twenty Killed In Attack By Natives On Villages.

Brussels, Feb. 26.—Mail advices received here from the Congo Independent State, say that the natives of Cubanghi are excited over the taxes imposed upon them, and that the Bourjos are on the verge of revolt for the same acuse. Some villages have already been attacked by turbulent natives, and a score of persons have been killed.

Water Tower Collapsed.

Pittsburg, Feb. 26.—Fire yesterday gutted the Derby Desk Building in Liberty avenue, and spread to the buildings adjoining, the Seventh avenue Hotel being scorched.

The water-tower of the fire department collapsed, wrecking the windows in the Academy of Music and tearing down electric wires. During the fire one woman and two men were slightly injured.

The loss will reach $350,000.

Nearly An Accident.

Kingston, Feb. 26.—An axle on the Bay of Quinte train broke as the Kingston station was reached yesterday.

If the accident had occurred while the train was at high speed disastrous results would have followed.

Dissertation On Bridge Whist.

BY MR. BARTON EARLE.

NO. II.

My limited experience, and my fear of betraying confidence and wounding the feelings of worthy people, make it necessary for me to confine myself to general statements of the impressions I have received from personal observation, intercourse with others, reading, and my own thoughts. I have no fear that my opinions will be seriously disputed, since most of them would be equally true of all games into which money enters as an element. I say "most of them," for there are some features of this game that make it especially dangerous. The game is, in itself, exceptionally interesting, and the gambling is introduced in such a way as to deprive it of much of its repellant character.

Before entering upon the most serious part of this question, I shall take the liberty of stating some of what I believe to be the effects of the game as it is played by men. When I say "men" I do not forget that though women and children may not become active, they will scarcely escape being passive, participants.

General Arraignment.

To say that this game has filled its votaries with a frenzy little short of that which is claimed for Harry K. Thaw; that it has converted social clubs into training-schools for gamblers; that it has done much to destroy the taste for elevated and refined pleasures; that it has interfered with friendships, and kept men from the humanizing and sacred influences of home; that it has caused business and professional men to neglect their material interests and the calls of humanity; that, under its baleful influence, husbands and fathers have been hardened against wives and children; that it has catered to the, already too prevalent, sordid love of gain, and weakened and brutalized the finer sensibilities, will not be regarded as using extravagant language by thoughtful people who know most about it.

But it was not a knowledge of all this which led one of our most prominent citizens to suggest the writing of these articles. There is a still darker picture to present.

Women and Bridge

Before speaking of the influence of Bridge on women, I may say that I have never seen a woman play the game; that I have taken pains to obtain correct information on the subject; and that I am convinced that the women of Peterborough do not play for money. It is but fair to state, however, that I learned from the same sources that the fondness for play is much more intense among women than among men, and that the introduction of the money element is, by some, looked upon as imminent. And, why not? If the fathers and sons find that money makes the game more attractive, why should the mothers and daughters be denied the additional pleasure? Since there does not appear to be any inherent reason why a woman should not, in this game, have the same rights as a man, surely the young husband will not grudge the small amount, which the advocates of the game claim is necessary, to enhance the pleasures of his young wife.

A young married man, who is an inveterate Bridge player, said to me, a short time ago:—"If the game invades the family, it will be time to stop it." He must have meant if the women begin to play it with the usual concomitant; for, surely, there can be no harm in a game of cards as an amusement for the evening.

Now, I am not a prophet, but I will, for once, venture to predict. Bridge Whist, like many other things of a more or less harmless character, will prove of but transient interest, among women, without the stimulus which men find necessary; and, further, I will say that it is only reasonable to believe that it will not be long before the women of Peterborough play Bridge after the manner of their sisters in other cities.

For the present, I propose to speak of some of the effects of this game as it is played by the women of Peterborough.

I am an old man, in humble circumstances, and care very little about the value which the general public place on my character. I even agree with Ruskin, that poverty is disgraceful, and hope that I feel sufficiently humble on account of this and my other shortcomings. True, I could not be ignorant of the fact that, if I were rich, my offenses would be condoned and my society courted.

Respect for Women

It is not with my character, however, but my opinions that my readers have to do, and the respect paid to them should depend upon their truthfulness and their importance.

I yield to none in my veneration for the character of women, and never fail to treat with respect the poorest and the most degraded. It is enough for me that she is a woman. I have long thought that women are superior to men, intellectually, morally, and even physically. If, therefore, I say in this article, anything which, at first, may appear offensive, I ask my fair readers to weigh the matter with some care, and, at least, give me credit for honest intentions.

Both outdoor sports and indoor amusements, if moderately indulged in, are to be commended. Those who know me are not likely to accuse me of Puritanical leanings. I enjoy a game of cards, and see no wrong in playing it. But when any amusement has become so engrossing as to take up a great part, if not the greater part, of the time; when women meet, for play, at each other's houses, week after week, forenoons, afternoons and evenings; when household duties and children are neglected; when husbands and their affairs have become secondary considerations; when little or no attention is paid to the cultivation of the mind; when there is no time to spare for the sacred duties which all owe to our common humanity; when, I say, these things are done and left undone, that the votaries of this new, and apparently jealous, god, may offer sacrifice at his shrine, then, indeed, it is not an amusement, but, shall I say—a worship?

I do not pretend that this condition of affairs has become even general in Peterborough, but I do say that these things are found here.

Gambling Considered

Before speaking of the peculiarly baneful effects on women of the gambling habit, I propose to say something of gambling in general.

That there is a feeling, deep down in the human heart, that gambling is wrong, is proved by the pains self-respecting men take to hide its deformity. Gambling—the very name has an ugly sound—is an attempt to take an advantage, to get something for nothing, or, at least, for less than it is worth. No honest man will question its prevalence. It enters, in some form, into most of the affairs of life, and is the outcome of selfishness, the chief, if not the only sin. Appealing, as it does, to man's lower nature, it acts as a drag on his efforts to reach a higher plane. The spirit behind it is the real antichrist. The Master taught the brotherhood of man; the gambler recognizes in every man, an enemy. In the dens of vice, among degraded wretches, the evil spirit is easily recognized: in the parlours of the rich, among lovely women and rosy children, he might be mistaken for an angel of light.

Cheating Essential Element.

I have heard much of honour among gamblers, and we know there is "honour among thieves." Permit me to say, that where there is gambling, there will be cheating. It is in the nature of things. The desire to possess what belongs to another is the chief incentive, and covetousness is theft. It will not avail to say that the risking of small sums, to add interest to the game, does not constitute gambling. The passion is there and will grow by what it feeds on.

If, then, men are so powerfully influenced by the gambling habit, its effect on women will be much stronger; and it will not be denied that, though the women of Peterborough do not play for money, the same cannot be said of their sisters in all other cities. It is, perhaps, due, largely, to the very fineness of her nature, that a woman who begins the indulgence of her coarser appetites will go faster and farther than a man; and, when a woman has once fallen, the difficulty of rising is great, indeed. Character-building is a slow and laborious work; character-wrecking is rapid and comparatively easy.

Women's Influence Needed

There has never been an age in which the influence of good women was more needed. The harsh and unfeeling rule of wealth acquires all the softening and refining influence of women to make it tolerable. The world is moving very rapidly and temptations are multiplying on every hand which demand the mother's careful and untiring attention; while the pitfalls which await the man of business could in many cases be avoided through the loving sympathy and heaven-born intuitions of a wife.

I have spoken thus far chiefly of sins of omission due to this popular craze. Let us look for a short time on the positive side of the question.

The Positive Side

The woman who plays for money gives herself up to one of the most hateful of human passions, greed. Instead of cultivating the noblest and most lovely characteristics of her nature, she caters to her lowest and most debasing instincts, and, what is worse, she drags others down with her. Even her intense desire to win games, independently of the money consideration, makes her less lovely in the eyes of the worst as well as the best of men. So far from watching and guiding the gradual unfolding of the characters of her children, she is setting them the worst possible example, and, perhaps, assisting in laying the foundation of infamous lives. No husband, worthy of the name, can look with complacency on such a picture, and innocent children, even of tender years, must feel some shock. I include the children, for surely the mothers do not add deception to their other offences, and thus confess the wilfulness of their sins.

Women Less Honest.

I have said before, that, where there is gambling there will be cheating, and I am now going to say that women are less honest than men. I ask my fair readers, who are going to denounce me for this assertion, to pause. While I have said some things in praise of women, which, I am free to confess, fall far short of their deserts, this, I believe, is the first case in which I have praised men: and, even in this case, I fear the praise must be qualified. I do not, necessarily, mean that women are inherently more dishonest than men, though I am not quite certain that this is not the case. Aside from this, however, I think there is a reason for the difference. Most of the business of the world is done by man, and the transaction of business necessitates some attention to honesty. What had its origin in self-fishness, becomes, after a time, a settled habit. However this may be, if it is true that women are less honest than men, it is an additional reason why they should not play cards for money.

ROUTINE BUSINESS WAS DONE BY COUNCIL

Several Committee Reports Were Passed at Last Night's Meeting.

MR. BOGUE'S CLAIMS TO BE ARBITRATED

At the meeting of the City Council, held last night, the chief business was in connection with the closing of Gilchrist street, and the Otonabee Power Company's resolution, reports of which will be found in another column. The routine business consisted of the hearing of reports and passing of bylaws.

There were present the Mayor, Ald. Johnston, Tovey, Elliott, Morgan, Leary, Stevenson, Bradburn, Duncan, Wilson, McIntyre and Phelan.

The first business taken up after the reading of several communications and the referring of them to the Property Committee, was the reading of reports.

Fire, Water and Light Committee

The Fire, Water and Light Committee reported and recommended as follows:

1. That this committee be authorized to dispose of any furnishings in the old firehall that it does not think advisable to take to the new firehall.

2. That this committee be authorized to purchase the following supplies for the fire department: One set of swinging harness, 6 smoke masks, 12 common hose keys, new hose for the Babcock extinguishers, 2 pair of rubber boots, 6 rubber coats and 300 feet of fire hose.

W. J. JOHNSTON,
Chairman.

Finance Committee

The Finance Committee reported and recommended as follows:

1. That action be taken on an account from B. C. Yelland for repairs to a vehicle belonging to B. J. Webster-helm, as the city is not responsible for it.

2. That the Mayor and Clerk sign and seal a bond on behalf of the corporation indemnifying the Bank of Montreal against loss in paying a duplicate cheque for $4 to W. G. Johnston, issued to replace cheque No. 1025 of 1906, which be lost.

3. That the following accounts be paid:

G. J. TOVEY,
Chairman.

Bylaws Passed

On motion of Ald. Tovey, seconded by Ald. Johnston, a bylaw was passed, providing for the paying of a salary of $100 per year to Mr. Geo. Cochrane, Truant Officer.

Ald. Duncan moved, seconded by Ald. Morgan, that a bylaw be passed regulating over-hanging, illuminated signs.—Carried. The bylaw enacts—that the signs must not project more than four feet over the sidewalk.

On motion of Ald. Duncan, seconded by Ald. Morgan, a bylaw was passed providing for submission to arbitration the claims of Jas. Bogue re outfall sewer. It is likely that the difficulty over the outfall sewer and Mr. Bogue's claims in the matter will be speedily settled. Mr. Spence is acting as arbitrator, and the city and Mr. Bogue are bound to accept his award.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People Were Content To Take Things Easier Than Now

If our forefathers could behold the modern locomotives, automobiles and electric cars they would hold up their hands in astonishment.

The stage-coach was fast enough then—people were more content to take things easy.

They used to be satisfied with any sort of a hair lotion that came along—if it did not prevent Baldness they thought it was because Baldness could not be prevented.

It's different now. Pepople know that germs cause Baldness and that Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ, thus curing Dandruff and preventing Baldness.

REGINA

You will make more money by buying lots in Regina City, than by any other source at the present time. It is no gamble, no chance, but an absolutely sure investment. Property will increase at least 100 per cent. in less than two years. Buy now. Prices will be advanced in the spring. Here are a few things that are making Regina grow and making property increase in value :—

REGINA, the wholesale and distributing centre for Saskatchewan and the west. $8,000,000.00 worth of farm machinery sold from Regina last year. Regina is the head-quarters for Saskatchewan of :—

The American-Abell Engine and Thresher Co.
Massey Harris Company.
Frost & Wood Company.
Fairchild Company.
Waterloo Manufacturing Company.
J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.
Garr-Scott Threshing Machine Company.
The International Harvester Company.
The North-west Thresher Company.
The New Hamburg Manufacturing Company.
Reeves Thresher Company.
Nichols & Shepherd Thresher Company.
Sawyer-Massey Company.
Noline Plow Company.
Canadian Port Huron Company.
Cockshutt Plow Company.

Besides the above there are a number of large eastern wholesale houses located in Regina. At the present time some eighteen more wholesale firms have secured sites in Regina to build on this year.

REGINA, the only railroad centre in Saskatchewan.
Besides the present roads which run north, south, east and west, there will be six more lines built into Regina during the next two years, being the Great Northern from the south, the Canadian Northern from the southeast, the C. P. R. north to Prince Albert, and three G. T. P. roads—one northeast, one east, one southwest.
The following is what Mr. Morse of the G. T. P. said in Regina on Aug. 6, 1906:
The Leader, Aug. 6, 1906.

FRANK MORSE IN REGINA

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P. Railway, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday morning, and had a short conference with Mayor McAra and W. G. Pettingel, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Morse had no new statement to make for publication regarding the plans of the G. T. P. in and around Regina. He repeated what he had said when in Regina on May 16th last that his Company would get into Regina at the earliest possible date, as they realised there was a large business to be done here. He confirmed the statement, which was first published by The Leader, that in addition to a branch line to Regina, from the main line near Yorkton, and from Regina to the international boundary on the south, a branch would be run to Regina from Brandon.

"The construction of branch lines would be carried on simultaneously with the main line," said Mr. Morse.

REGINA leads all cities from Winnipeg to the Coast in building for 1906.
Capital of Saskatchewan ranks fifth among the metropolitan centres of Canada, being surpassed by Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. Leads all the Dominion in relative growth. Building permits in 1906:

Regina—$1,982,330.
Edmonton—$1,863,894.
Calgary—$1,109,161.

No other city in Canada shows so high a percentage of growth as Regina. 1907 will beat all records. A large number of expensive buildings are being erected. Among others include:—Four new hotels, at a cost of over half a million; municipal hospital, $100,000; Y. M. C. A. at $100,000; Baptist Church, $50,000; Masonic Temple, at $75,000; Dominion Land Titles Office at $110,000; New Public School at $54,000, and many other business blocks and residences. Chief amongst all buildings will be the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, at a cost of at least $1,500,000.

Facts About Regina City

Regina is the Capital of the Province of Saskatchewan.
Regina is the only commercial centre of Saskatchewan.

PETERBOROUGH TUESDAY FEBRUARY 26 1907

Rate Of Taxation For Year Will Once Again Be 17½ Mills

Finance Minister, Ald. Tovey, Brought in His Estimates of the Receipts and Expenditures for the Year Last Night.

EXPENDITURE BEEN KEPT DOWN

Collegiate Institute Debentures Will Not Be Issued This Year, It Was Decided by Council—Board of Works Gets $17,400

The rate of taxation for the year will be 17 1-2 mills. This was unanimously decided by the Committee of Whole Council last night on motion of Ald. Tovey, seconded by Ald. Phelan, and there was no discussion as to what the rate should be. The finance minister, Ald. Tovey brought in his estimate of the receipts and expenditures, the latter of which has been cut down as much as possible in order to keep the rate as 17 1-2 mills, the same as last year, as the aldermen deemed it unwise to raise the rate this year if it were at all possible to keep it at 17 1-2.

It had been decided between the Board of Education and the Council that the demand for the new Collegiate Institute will not be made on the council this year, and the debentures will not be issued until next year. The city will advance the money as it is needed for construction demands.

It will be noticed that the Board of Works' appropriation this year is $17,400, which that committee do not regard as any too much for the amount of work that there is on hand.

A VISIT FROM F. D. MONK, CONSERVATIVE, OF QUEBEC

To the Conservative Club of This City—An Address Will be Delivered by Him Before the Club.

The President of the Young Conservative Club, Mr. J. R. Burnham, announced to-day that after the prorogation of Parliament the club was to be honoured by a visit from Mr. F. D. Monk, K.C., leader of the Conservative party in Quebec. He is one of the ablest and most eloquent of the Conservative speakers, and while here it is expected will deliver an address before the club.

On Thursday evening of this week a progressive euchre tournament will be held in the club rooms for two prizes, a first prize and a consolation.

METER WORKS ENLARGED

Indications Point to the Necessity for the Enlargement of the Local Prepayment Meter Works This Year.

GOOD BUSINESS PROSPECTS

There is said to be a strong probability that during the present year a new building will be erected for the Pre-payment Meter Company, the business of which company since it commenced manufacturing operations, has increased to such an extent that it is probable that this course will have to be taken. The capacity of the present fatory is thirty meters per day, but plans which the company have under contemplation, if they are carried out, will make it necessary to erect a larger factory to handle the output which will then be assured.

A meeting of the officers of the company will be held to-night, when some important matters touching the future of the concern, will be considered.

Since this factory commenced operations, its progress has been most satisfactory, the meter has become popular with the electrical supply companies, and is so meritorious that no trouble is anticipated in disposing of the entire ouput of the works. It is probable, however, that in the near future an important change will be effected, and that the factory here will be run as a branch of one of the largest iron working firms in the Dominion, and the whole output will be handled by it. This is said to be one of the matters which will be considered at tonigght's meeting. The offer of the big concern has been received, and if the local company is willing to accept it, an agreement will be entered into.

In any event the future of the company seems assured, a good demand having been built up for the product of the local works.

$40,000 FOR A CAR-LOAD

Some Instances of Valuable Output of Local Industries—Great Increase in Volume of Freight Traffic.

TRADE ALWAYS GROWING.

Few men are in as good a position to judge of the industrial progress of a city as the railway officials, and, in conversation with a local railway may in this city last night some interesting facts concerning the progress which Peterborough has made in recent years were given. He stated that few persons outside of those actually associated with transportation interests in the city had any idea of the magnitude of the freight traffic in and out of Peterborough.

Not only is there a great volume of traffic, but the goods shipped are very valuable. Cars have been shipped from one of the local iron-working establishments valued at no less than $40,000, and the freight alone on some cars amounts to no less a sum than $1,200. Rope is one of the most expensive products sent from the city, car-loads of these goods mounting up into thousands of dollars.

The freight traffic is increasing rapidly all the time, and there seems no reason to doubt that this condition will continue for an indefinite period, the local manufacturing establishments are enlarging their output constantly, and with the new industries which are coming here there is every reason to believe that the present industrial prosperity will continue.

WITHOUT MATERIAL FOOD- FOR 18 DAYS

Mr. John Harris Almost a Victim of Tetanus, Commonly Called Lockjaw—Was Ill for Fifteen Weeks.

JAWS TIGHTLY LOCKED FOR 18 DAYS

The Examiner is pleased to state that Mr. John Harris, who for the past fifteen weeks has been suffering from a severe attack of tetanus, commonly called lockjaw, and whose recovery was for some time a matter of extreme doubt, was able to return to his work yesterday. It will be remembered that in a previous issue of this paper reference was made to his illness, and Mr. Harris' recovery is particularly fortunate, as tetanus, in the great majority of cases, has proved fatal.

This disease attacks the voluntary muscles and cramps them for a considerable period, death usually resulting. One can imagine what the experience may be like by considering the ordinary cramp, which is often felt; tetanus, however, affects all the muscles.

For eighteen days Mr. Harris suffered this pain, his jaws being closely locked, and his only sustenance was in liquid form. Circulation of the blood was stopped for some time, and his death was expected at any moment.

However, Mr. Harris proved the exception and under the care of his physician, Dr. Marshall, he withstood the awful siege, and yesterday recommenced his duties as boss polisher in the Shovel factory. A trivial injury was the remote cause of the trouble, but complications gradually set in, with the above result. Mr. Harris states that he is not entirely recovered yet; at times slight spasms occur, and his facial muscles are still very sore. In fact, his muscular system has received a severe strain, and it will be some time before he is himself again. He is yet a young man and is an expert in the shovel-making industry.

AN ADVENTURE WITH WOLVES

Mr. "Sandy" Hall, Formerly of This City, Sends Word of an Exciting Experience Which Quill Lake Residents Had.

HAD A VERY SEVERE FIGHT

Mr. Sandy Hall, son of Sheriff Hall, of this city, who is manager of the Bank of Toronto at Quill Lake, Sask., near Prince Albert, sends word of a wolf adventure which some residents of his town had recently. The Quill Lake Quill, a copy of which was sent, tells the story in the following terms:

One day last week while in the bush cutting wood, north of Wimmer, Messrs. T. D. Bailey and another gentleman named Bannister, were assailed by three wolves. Happily they had with them a 22 calibre rifle which Bannister endeavoured to fire. For some reason it refused to go off and he was attacked by a wolf and severely bitten on the hand before he could get the gun discharged. In the mantime Bailey was bitten in the face by one of the brutes. After a severe fight they succeeded in killing one of the brutes and scaring the others away.

The snow is so deep that it is difficult for the wolves to get rabbits and small game and they are therefore becoming very daring and ravenous, even more so than they have ever been reported to be heretofore.

The gentlemen in question did not, so far as we can learn, receive any serious wounds. The information to hand is not as complete as we would desire, but the facts given have been well authenticated.

Carpenters Join In The Move For Increased Wages

Thirty Cents an Hour Will Probably be the Minimum Rate Guages for This Year—Meeting of Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners Held Last Night

Thirty cents an hour will, in all probability, be the minimum rate of wages for carpenters in the city this year, though the members of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, who met last night and considered the question of wages, refuse to divulge the result of their deliberations, the statement of the president being that all the members were pledged to secrecy.

The meeting last night was called for the purpose of dealing with the proposed rules and regulations governing union carpenters, and good progress was made with them. They will not be formally adopted until after the Amilgamated Carpenters have considered them at their meeting on Friday night.

The question of the rate of wages was the important matter under discussion last night, and, though the officers of the union refuse to discuss the situation, it is understood from a reliable source, that it was practically decided last night to increase the minimum rate of wages from 25 to 30 cents an hour.

There was a large attendance of members at last night's meeting, and it is stated that there was practical unanimity of opinion in reference to the proposal to increase the wages.

EXCURSIONS CUT OUT

Order Issued by G. T. R. Directs That No More Civic Holiday Excursions May Be Arranged On This Railway—Other Lines in Canada Take Similar Action.

An important circular was received to-day by Mr. Bunton, city ticket agent of the G.T.R., and it is one, the subject of which will be of more than usual interest to many persons and societies in the city. The circular states that in future that railway, in common with all other railways in Canada will run no excursions on Civic Holiday.

The result of this order will be that so long as it remains in force no more civic holiday excursions will be run out of the city, and the general exodus which has been experienced in the past on this day will be eliminated in the future.

So far as Peterborough is concerned Civic Holiday has been recognized as a day on which everyone who possibly could, left the city on one of the many cheap trips arranged, generally by some of the fraternal societies, but this condition will not prevail in future. No reason is assigned in the circular for this action, but it is understood that the C.P.R., as well as the other railways in the Dominion have adopted a similar course.

Mr. Bunton has on file already applications for a number of Civic Holiday excursions, and he has been instructed to try and arrange to have them run on another day, but whether he will be successful in this or not has yet to be found out.

There is no doubt that this order will effect a very radical change in the manner in which the citizens of Peterborough will spend their holiday.

A Flourishing Family Tree---Ten Photographed

A Remarkable Recore—Ten Members of the Payne Family Photographed To-day—Youngest Member is 50 and Eldest 69 Years of Age.

A notable family gathering, which it would be, perhaps, impossible to duplicate in Canada, centered in Peterborough to-day. The ten sons and daughters of the late George Payne of Dummer township, Assembled in the city to have a group photograph taken at Richmond's studio, Hunter street. The late George Payne invaded the wilderness of Dummer in 1831 or 1832. He married a Miss Edwards, and to this marriage were born ten stalwart sons and five fair daughters. Everyone of these "olive branches" is living, and in robust health to-day. The oldest, Joseph, of Dummer, is 69 years of age, and the youngest is 50 years of age—Mrs. Samuel Spence, Lakefield. All the members of the family live in Canada, and all in this county, except two — Mrs. Hamblin of Manitoba, and Mrs. Rowley Bruce, who are at present visiting here. Four live in Lakefield, and four in Dummer. If any family tree in Canada is as large, and in as flourishing a condition, it would be a pleasure to know it.

The Report on Canal Outlet In The House This Afternoon

The Minister of Railway and Canals expects to be able to present to the House to-day the report of the engineers on the routes of the Trent Canal, for both the Lake Ontario and Georgian Bay entrances.

This is the information given in the House yesterday by the Minister, in reply to a question from Mr. H. A. Ward, M.P., of Port Hope. Mr. Ward referred to the report in the Globe, to the effect that Trenton would be the outlet, but Hon. Mr. Emmerson, in reply, stated that the information had not come from his Department, and that he had no knowledge as to how they had come into possession of the information which formed the basis of the article. He hoped to be able to bring down the report on Tuesday.

The Lethbridge Residents Are Playing Baseball

While we in the East are shivering in a temperature of about 20 below zero a greater part of the time, the much-despised West is experiencing baseball weather. The Herald of Lethbridge, in its last week's issue, has the following:

Lethbridge, the balmy hub of Sunny Southern Alberta carries off the palm as usual in the baseball line. The first game played in all Canada in the year 1907 was pulled off here last Saturday afternoon. It was a perfect day, and a big crowd congregated to see the contest.

The teams were those of Taber and Lethbridge, and after a six innings game had been played the local team were declared the winners by a score of 3 to 2. It was a real good exhibition of ball and the spectators thoroughly enjoyed the battle.

OBITUARY

THOMAS REGINALD McFADDEN

The death occurred at Niagara Falls, N. Y., of Thomas Reginald MacFadden, second son of Mr. Thos. M. MacFadden, city, from typhoid fever. He had been ailing since Christmas, but only took to his bed a couple of weeks ago. Everything was done that could be done for him, but he kept growing worse, and passed away on Monday night about 11.30 o'clock. The deceased young man was a native of Peterborough, where he was born 27 years ago, and where he passed the most of his life, enjoying the respect of all who knew him. He was married about four years ago to Miss Callin, of Stratford. He leaves behind him, his wife and little daughter, aged three years, as well as his father and mother, and one brother, Percy, and one sister, Miss Estella MacFadden, living at home.

The funeral will take place Thursday, at 2.30 o'clock, from 204 Dublin street, to the Little Lake Cemetery.

STARTLING GRANDEUR OF ACTIVE VOLCANO APTLY DESCRIBED

Mrs. Boswell, a Resident of Hawaiin Islands, Writes to Her Sister at Bailieboro Telling of Trip to the Crater of One of the Burning Mountains

HUSBAND OF LADY KNOWN HERE

In the far away Hawaii Islands of the Pacific Ocean is an active volcano but one only sufficiently in eruption to enable a person to visit and form some idea of the startling grandeur of that mighty force. The Examiner is in possession of a letter from a lady whose husband was an old Peterborough boy and who, about the end of last month made a 500 foot descent into the very mouth of the fiery monster and has written home to her sister a graphic account of the condition of the volcano and its surroundings.

The letter was written by Mrs. M. Boswell to her sister, Mrs. Wm. Campbell, of Bailieboro. Mrs. Boswell is a daughter of Geo. Farr, of Harwood, and the husband of Harry Boswell, who has many relatives and friends in this city and who as stated above was a former resident of Peterborough. The writer lives at Ewa, Hawaiin Territory, and is at present at the Kilauea Volcano House resort, about 200 miles away. Her letter was written on Jan. 29th, 1907, and arrived in Bailieboro on Feb. 16th. It is in part as follows:—

"This Volcano house is 4,000 feet above the sea level. I am spending a week here so I thought to while away the time, I would write you a description of my surroundings as I see them and tell you a few things which probably may be interesting.

Last Monday, a party including myself, secured a pony apiece and started down to see the active volcano. We had first to descend 500 feet by a winding path down the sides of the old crater, which is now nothing but cold lava, but the fire must be pretty close to the top as steam is constantly pouring out through cracks in all directions. Some places the heat comes up through the cracks so hot that it would burn the hand were it held above it.

Lava Boils and Seethes

"We travelled for four miles across lava, horribly rough, as it had been heaved up in all kinds of ways. Some times the openings were so wide they were bridged over and at times the steam was so thick we could scarcely see each other. At the end of the four-mile trip we came to the pit, 700 feet deep and one and a half miles around, with the sides almost perpendicular. The floor of the crater is about 12 acres in area. Down in that awful place the fire was burning so that the whole spectacle was a sight never to be forgotten. The red hot lava was boiling and seething and fountains of it were being sent up into the air about 200 feet. Then rivers of molten lava would open up and close again in a few moments.

Visitor Was Nervous

"I can tell you I was nervous, I was so much afraid that an earthquake would tumble the walls into that awful place which no one can describe. This pit sometimes fills up and the lava runs over for miles around. When this occurs, the fire dies out and leaves this awful hole in the earth or lava bed. This volcano is active about every six years and when it begins people flock to see it by the thousands.

"It is a terrible sight yet I feel that I would like to see it again. It is pretty expensive, however, as the hotel charges $5.00 per day, $3.00 for a pony and $2.00 for a guide. I am only staying here a week. I expect my daughter, Eva, will come up after I go home, but it is worth it all. I have felt a little nervous ever since I made the descent but will be over it after I leave.

Sulphur Fumes Rising

"For miles around this house, steam is oozing up through cracks here and there in the earth and from some places sulphur fumes strong enough to choke a person are emanating. The only trouble is that one cannot go any distance without a guide and they are very expensive. Yesterday our party went out from the house about two miles through the most beautiful forest of ferns, big trees and wild roses. We picked a large basketful of red raspberries which were served at dinner.

Fascinating Scenery

"The scenery here is indescribable. Just a short distance away can be seen two beautiful snow-topped mountains, 14,000 and 16,000 feet in height. There are ferns that look like palm trees; calla lilies are in bloom all the year round and nasturtiums are climbing trees everywhere. But, oh! That awful fire down there makes me feel as if this is a dangerous place to live. I am sending you a card that I put into a split stick and held over a crack to scorch it.

A Prominent Resort

"The hotel management to-day is getting ready for a party of 50 people which are due here to-night. Cots are being erected wherever a place can be found to put one. Many persons remain here for months, it is so cool and such a pleasant temperature prevails. It is rather cool to-day at 50 degrees F., which would no doubt be considered warm in your country."

PRESSURE AND GRAFT

There has never before in Canada been such an amazing development of the most up-to-date Tammany methods as in the dealings of Mr. Whitney's political friends with the license transfers of Toronto during the past two years. Under Liberal administration it was charged that license-holders were sometimes unwilling contributors to political subscriptions. That, if true, was reprehensible, but it was child's play compared to the conditions brought about under the domination of the Nesbitt-Burns machine. License-holders were worried into selling at a sacrifice under official threats of cancellation of licenses, and the purchasers were in not a few cases prominent Conservative workers, who made big sums by passing the licenses on to men who, in Mr. Hanna's historic phrase, proposed to "keep hotel."

The Globe understands that the most potent influence in securing licenses in Toronto during the past two years has been the Tory ward machines, captained by the underlings of Nesbitt and Burns. The bosses at the top and the ward workers beneath must have made the lives of the Commissioners a burden.

Why does Mr. Starr not call Messrs. Flavelle, Davidson and Murray to tell why they resigned, and who the men were that were trying to make the granting of licenses a matter of ward patronage? Mr. Wilson, too, would be a valuable witness on this point.—Globe.

A TURPENTINE WORKS

First Manufactory of its Kind in Canada Described by Mr. Knapman—Is Made of Red Pine Stumps

43 DEGREES BELOW ZERO

A few years ago no one would have thought that any use could be made of pine stumps, the greatest trouble being experienced in getting rid of them, but the farmers in the vicinity of Barrie's Bay, on the Madawaska River have none of this trouble, a turpentine manufactory recently established there, paying the farmers one cent each for the stumps and blasting them out of the ground and hauling them away. The farmers took upon it as a cinch and are glad to be rid of them so easily.

Mr. J. S. Knapman recently returned after a few weeks spent in the northern Ontario regions, along the line of the Canada Atlantic Railway and described to the Examiner to-day the first turpentine plant in Canada, that at Barrie's Bay. From a cord of red pine stumps, the only kind that is any good for this purpose, 20 gallons of turpentine is obtained, so that it will be seen that these same stumps are of considerable value after all. After being cut into small pieces the stumps are ground into pulp and placed in retorts until the liquid is extracted by a process of distillation from the pulpy mass.

The industry as one which gives promise of developing into an important one. At present thirty men are employed, and this number will be increased in the near future. Up to the present time the turpentine used in Canada has been received from the Southern States where it is manufactured extensively, but in future it will be unnecessary to go beyond the bounds of this country to secure a supply of this commodity.

Mr. Knapman reports that the people in that region are experiencing colder weather than that which gives rise to complaints here, the other day the thermometer registering 43 degrees below zero. Mr. Knapman leaves to-night for Orangeville.

THE SUPPORT PREFERRED

It seems to be a constitutional infirmity with Hon. Mr. Whitney, leader of the Conservative Government of Ontario, that he cannot assume a position, or back down from it, gracefully or graciously. He plunges into a position or declaration, with native bluntness, and withdraws from it in a manner to arouse hostility, instead of sympathetic acquiescence. He rather bluntly assured the Dominion Alliance deputation, that it is not the intention of the Government to modify the three-fifths local option clause, which requires that it shall take five votes of temperance supporterrs to equal three votes of the friends of the liquor traffic. His argument is that if it requires a strong majority to bring local option into force, it requires an equally strong majority to secure its abolition. He quotes British precedent in favour of his position, forgetful of the fact that in Great Britain temperance sentiment is a third of a century behind what it is in Ontario, thanks to the Liberal administration of the license law for a third of a century. In the United States, the birthplace of Local Option and with which a comparison with Ontario could reasonably be made, a simple majority vote is all that is needed. The results of the three-fifths handicap in the recent voting, shows plainly how greatly it hampers the adoption of repressive measures, which the majority of the people think desirable. Mr. Whitney's declaration to the Alliance clearly defines the issue, between his party and the Liberals, the latter having placed itself on record in favour of a fair fight—as represented by a simple majority vote. Thus the fight is on between plausible, if not specious, argument in favour of the three-fifths clause, and the cold facts of actual voting results. Mr. Whitney has plainly indicated what support he prefers.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM

The spoils system, as introduced into Ontario and practised by the Whitney Government, has this one solo redeeming feature—it arouses public opinion as to the necessity of civil service reform. It is not, perhaps, going too far to assume that civil service reform, apart from the moral regeneration of the electorate, is the most effective means for the minimizing of corrupt practices in elections. The zeal of election workers, which leads them to tempt the electorate with corrupt offers, is very largely inspired by the hope of reward in the shape of some office or some other "graft." Remove the patronage or office-giving power from political or partizan control and make the gift of an office dependent upon qualification—decided, if desired, by examination, and not upon party services—and the tap root of the evil of political corruption is cut, and the monstorously vicious spoils system effectively ended. In Great Britain it is said that the evils arising from party patronage have been largely eliminated by the adoption of a system of competitive examination as the only way of entrance to the civil service, and by placing the service under the control of a commission, independent of party. It is probable that a representative finds the patronage element of his functions the most hair-whitening and exacting of any, and would welcome the transference of patronage responsibility to a commission. The Orillia Board of Trade, at a recent meeting, adopted a strong resolution in favour of civil service reform, and requested the co-operation of other Boards of Trade in the endeavour to place civil service patronage beyond partizan control. This endeavour is to include both the Dominion and Provincial Parliaments. It may be said that the present Dominion Government has not abused the dismissing and appointing power.

According to the estimates just furnished Toronto by C. B. Smith, for the Hydro-Electric Commission one horse-power used one hour a day for 300 days will cost $15.30; one horse-power used 10 hours a day for 300 days will cost $45. Ten horse-power used ten hours a day will cost $33 a horse-power. If this is the best that can be done in the way of cheapening electric power for manufacturing purposes, Niagara power will not be the Cobalt, which it has been claimed to be. Neither will Peterborough with electricity at $15 per horse-power need fear the competition of other cities in the matter of attracting industrial concerns by the medium of power transmitted from Niagara Falls, especially if a London manufacturing concern can furnish a gas engine, as it claims to be able to do, that will make the price of power $12 or $14.

THE ASSESSMENT ROLLS

That Alderman Johnston found no seconder to his motion to provide a sum for the publication of the assessment rolls indicates that the great majority of the aldermen are not in touch with popular feeling on the subject, nor solicitous for a fair and proper assessment of city property. No one will deny that there is grossly unfair and unequal assessment of property; property of practically identical value, being appraised at widely and ridiculously different values. It will also not, perhaps, be denied, that the only means of making thorough and deliberate comparison of assessment, and thereby conducing to the provision of a remedy, is by publication in a clear, tabulated form, the assessment of the city. The aldermen should take this matter into consideration. Upon reflection and study of the situation, they can hardly avoid the conclusion, that the difficulty of making a satisfactory assessment will be greatly lessened by letting the public know, in an easily comprehended form, how the general assessment of city property is made.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Will Mr. Whitney be consistent and provide that in the next general election it shall require a three-fifths vote to sustain a Government? Very probably not.

Rev. Dr. Hossack was a hero in the eyes of the Conservative press when he was abusing the Ross Government. The same press now accuses him, says the London Advertiser, of gratuitously insulting Mr. Whitney, and describes him as a case of "exaggerated ego."

Mr. Robert Bell, M.D., D. Sc., chief geologist, Ottawa, went by invitation last week to New York to receive the magnificent medal awarded him by the American Geographical Society. It is a beautiful piece of work, unusually large and contains probably $250 worth of pure gold. The artist's work is of a high order, and suited for the decoration of such a worthy man.

THE BREAKDOWN OF THE LICENSE SYSTEM

The license system, instead of curing the evils of the liquor traffic, only creates a powerful monopoly, which in turn promotes the liquor habit on the one hand and is an agent of political corruption on the other. Three years ago it was the custom in temperance circles to charge the common violation of the liquor law against the lax administration of the Liberal Government. It was said, and by none oftener or with more emphasis than by the present Premier who then lead the Opposition, that the license department of the Government was honeycombed with graft and blackmail. It was charged that license holders were either the victims of the Government's extortion or the beneficiaries of the Government's patronage. A change of Government was hailed as the cure for all the sorrows alike of the liquor dealers and of the temperance advocates. For two full years the new Government has been in power. What are the results?

For a while there was a great show of activity among the license officials and it was proclaimed, with much trumpet-sounding, that there was no selling after hours and that every licensee must "keep hotel." Now this city and now that town was reported "dry" on Saturday night and all of Sunday. Does anybody suppose that the liquor law was strictly enforced yesterday in Toronto or in Hamilton, or in Woodstock, or in Port Hope, or in Ottawa, or in any other town or city in Ontario? The new broom swept clean but presently the novelty wore off, and the zeal of the officials died out and their courage waned. There was scarcely a complaint made under the former Administration that was not repeated at the temperance convention in Toronto last week—complaints about lax enforcement, open violation, repeated first offfences, and party favouritism. It took less than two years to cool the ardour and cut the nerve of the new reformation.—Globe.

Interesting Evening's Entertainment Promised at Charlotte Street Sunday School To-night.

The talk to be given to-night in the Charlotte Street Sunday School room, under the auspices of the Young Men's Guild, on "A Night in the Skies," by Rev. The talk will be illustrated with actual photographs of the heavenly bodies, and solos will be given by Miss Reesor and Mr. Duncan Campbell.

There will be no admission fee, and the public is cordially invited.

How Can You Test the Blood

Paleness of the lips, gums, and the inside of the eyelids, tells of weak, watery blood, while other indications are languid, worn out, and despondent feelings, headaches, nervous troubles, and weakness of the bodily organs. AGREEMENT WITH OTONABEE POWER COMPANY

Ald. Stevenson Submitted the Conditions to the Council at Last Night's Meeting.

500 H.P. WILL BE HELD FOR TWO YEARS

At the meeting of the City Council last night, Ald. Stevenson, chairman of the special committee appointed by the Council to deal with the matter, submitted a copy of the terms agreed upon by the committee, in consideration of which the city will endorse the application of the Otonabee Power Company's application for the lease of Dam No. 4, from the Government. The agreement provides that the company will hold for the city, 500 horse-power at $15 per h. p. for two years, for the accommodation of new industries. Whatever amount of power the city arranges for within two years, will stand good for 21 years at $15 per h.p. It is hoped that the Coates Co. will be using 500 h.p. in two years. In the event of the city not using the whole of the 500 h.p. within two years, they will have no claim upon the company for any unused portion of the power not under contract.

The agreement, which was carried unanimously by the Council, is as follows:

Moved by Ald. Stevenson, seconded by Ald. Bradburn:

1. Whereas the Otonabee Power Company, Limited, has applied to the Hon. the Minister of Railways and Canals for a lease of dam number four on the Trent Canal on the terms and conditions set forth in its tender sent in pursuant to an advertisement of said dam No. 4;

And whereas, the corporation of the city of Peterborough is interested in securing the supply of cheap electrical power for the purpose of encouraging the establishment of new industries in and adjacent to the city, and has received an offer from the Otonabee Power Company to supply at any time during and for the ensuing twenty-one years to the corporation, or at the request of the council, to any new industry established in or near the city of Peterborough, electric power up to at least 500 horse power at a rate not exceeding $15 per horse power per year, provided said company should acquire a lease of Dam No. 4 on the Trent Canal.

2. Now, therefore, the corporation of the city of Peterborough resolve that the Hon. the Minister of Railways and Canals be, and he is hereby respectfully requested to grant such lease of said Dam, No. 4 to the Otonabee Power Company, Limited, provided such lease contains the several clauses set forth in the paper writing hereto attached together with other such reasonable terms and conditions as shall compel the Otonabee Power Company, Limited, to proceed with all due speed to develop to its full reasonable capacity the said water privilege at said Dam No. 4.

3. It is further agreed between the lessors and the lesses that the lesses during the term of the lease hereby granted, shall reserve for the use of the corporation of the city of Peterborough, five hundred electrical horse power, and shall, during the said period furnish to the said corporation or to any new manufacturing industry or industries which the said corporation may indicate, the said five hundred horse power, or parts thereof (in units of not less than fifty horse power) as the corporation may from time to time demand, at the rate of $15 per horse power per annum, for a 24 hour service, delivered to the consumer for such term or terms of renewals thereof as shall not extend beyond the terms hereby demised.

4. The said leases shall not be called upon to deliver said power or any part thereof at any place distant more than one-quarter of a mile from there then existing main or distributing lines.

5. The said leases shall deliver said power at a pressure of 2240 volts, or thereabouts.

6. The total power to be supplied shall be the sum of maxima as determined each consumer; the maximum in each instance being ascertained by taking daily readings of the power used during one month in each year, such readings to be made at ten minute intervals during the hours of maximum consumption, and the average power as calculated from said readings being taken to be the maximum for such consumer. The leases are to have the right to select and vary the month and hour at will.

7. Provided that after the expiration of two years from the date said power is ready for delivery from said dam, (Notice whereof shall be given to the corporation in writing) the lessees shall have the right to dispose of said power or such part thereof as shall not have been applied for by the corporation, to new industries at the price and on the conditions here mentioned, and that any such power so disposed of to new industries shall be deducted from the five hundred horse power agreed hereby to be reserved.

8. It is further agreed that the lessees shall not be liable to any new industry for any damage or loss which such new industry may sustain through the non-supply of power from time to time for any cause or reason other than misfeasance or negligence on the part of the lessees; but an abatement pro rata of the rent to be paid for such power shall be made during the time when the said power is not available for said new industry.

9. It is further agreed that the lessees shall furnish to the said corporation or to such new industries as they may designate, any additional power which the said lessees may have from time to time developed and unused on the same terms and subject to the same conditions as apply to five hundred horse power reserved herein.

10. It is further agreed that such other and additional reasonable terms and conditions may be inserted in the power lease or leases between the said lessees and the new industry, as may be agreed upon, and in the event of dispute such reasonable terms and conditions shall be defined by the Chief Engineer of the Department of Railways and Canals.

The sections in the accompaning map marked solid black illustrate the magnificent location of the Company's properties.

Two full mining claims of forty acres each, titles to which are perfect.

Situated within one and one-half miles of Cobalt town, and lying one on each side of the Cleveland Cobalt Company's claims. Next east of the south claim is the famous Hudson Bay, and on the south-east corner is the Argentite, while again ten chains east is the Silver Queen, the large vein of which runs through the Lake George Company's claim.

EACH OF THE COMPANY'S PROPERTIES has a Lake, and from one of these the Company derives its name. The vein, which undoubtedly runs into the south claim, from Silver Queen, has been traced from the east boundary through Lake George and a forty-foot shaft sunk on it, and an 18-inch vein discovered, besides four other promising veins, in some of which native silver and cobalt were discovered.

There is no better opportunity for investing in Cobalt than in Lake George Company's shares, because the capital is small and only half is offered for sale, and the location is magnificent in its prospects.

SERIOUS GAS EXPLOSION.

Large Furniture Store Demolished—Hundreds of Dollars' Worth of Glass Shattered by Shock.

Sandusky, Ohio, Feb. 26.—Accumulated gas in the basement of the Bittner building, a three-storey brick structure on Market street, in the heart of the city, exploded with terrific force yesterday. The building and the big stock of furniture of Dilgart & Bittner, retail dealers, is a total loss. Hundreds of dollars' worth of glass was shattered throughout the city by the explosion.

Thirty girls employed in Beilstein's laundry next door were thrown into panic. Several of them fainted and had to be carried out. No lives were lost. The flames, which the firemen were unable to combat on account of low water pressure, was being swept toward other buildings at the side and rear, and the whole city square opposite the Federal building seemed doomed.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

Damage Estimated At $300,000—Man Killed By Falling Wall.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., Feb. 26.—The plant of the Acker Process Co. was destroyed by fire this afternon.

Henry S. Fairchild, an electrician, was caught under a falling wall and was killed.

Buffalo firemen came down with two engines, but the fire was out when they reached here.

Several cables from the power houses were torn down by falling walls.

The loss is $300,000.

The company manufactured bleaching powder, caustic soda, tin oxide and other products.

C. E. Acker, who started the plant, withdrew from the company two years ago.

There was a wild scramble for the several exits, and 300 partly-clad men rushed and jostled one another in their endeavor to save themselves, many leaving their street clothing inside.

A fireman named Donohue was badly hurt about the body by falling debris and taken to the hospital.

Henry S. Fairchild, an electrician employed in the plant, mounted a ladder that was thrown up against one of the walls, saying, "Let me see how things are in here." No sooner had the words left his lips than the brick wall against which the ladder was leaning collapsed. Fairchild was pinned beneath the falling debris.

LOOTED THE TREASURY.

$130,000 Mysteriously Disappears—Officials Are Under Suspicion.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Somewhere between $175,000 and $200,000 was stolen from the local sub-treasury last week.

The loss was discovered on Tuesday.

All the money taken was in bills of the denomination of $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

At first it was believed that there must be some error in the bookkeeping. It was thought to be impossible that such a large sum of money could have been abstracted.

Every employe of the office is under surveillance day and night, and should one or more of them prove to be the thief or thieves escape will be impossible.

When interviewed yesterday, Mr. Boldenweick admitted that a theft of $173,000 had been perpetrated, but refused to go into details.

NOTED AUTHOR DEAD.

Archibald Clavering Gunter Succumbs to Apoplexy.

New York, Feb. 26.—Archibald Clavering Gunter, publisher, novelist and playwright, died suddenly Saturday night from apoplexy at his home in West 73rd street. He had not been ill and was engaged in writing the last page of the manuscript of a play, when he was fatally stricken. Mr. Gunter was born in Liverpool 59 years ago. Mrs. Gunter, who was Esther Lisbeth Burns, survives. They had no children.

Mr. Gunter used the immense profits from the sale of his first successful novel, "Mr. Barnes of New York," which went through edition after edition, and of which more than 1,000,000 copies have been sold here and in England, to establish a publishing business and had published his own recent works. He was proprietor of the Home Publishing Co. in East 14th street.

GOVERNOR'S FUNERAL.

Large Procession Accompanies the Remains—Legislature Adjourned.

Fredericton, N. B., Feb. 26.—After a short service in the parlors of the Queen Hotel yesterday afternoon the body of the late Lieutenant-Governor Snowball was taken to Chatham, N.B., for burial on Thursday. Despite a terrific snowstorm a large procession of Cabinet Ministers, legislators and prominent citizens followed the hearse to the railway station, where a special train carried the funeral party to Chatham.

The Legislature held a short session yesterday and adjourned till March 5, pending the appointment of a Governor.

Canada's Invitation.

London, Feb. 26.—(C. A. P.)—Austen Chamberlain, speaking at the Jewelers' Association banquet at Birmingham, said the Canadian introduction of an intermediate tariff was an invitation to negotiate to every country which desired to do trade with Canada.

Ice Bridge At Quebec.

Quebec, Feb. 26.—The St. Lawrence River was frozen over Saturday night and an ice bridge was formed at Cape Rouge and below the city. The ferry boats manage to keep a narrow channel clear opposite the city.

It is the first time in years a good bridge has formed, and many skaters are out on it.

Fell Through Trap Door.

Ingersoll, Feb. 26.—James A. Buchanan, auctioneer, fell through an open trap-door in the fire hall yesterday afternoon, breaking his right leg near the knee.

This is the fourth time that the same leg has been broken.

MAKES PLEA FOR THE FRENCH TONGUE

Mr. Lavergne's Plea That It Be Given More Prominence.

PREMIER SAYS ARE EQUAL

Two-Cent Fare Bill is Hoisted For Six Months—Committee Turned It Down and Sir Wilfrid Stands by Them—Mr. Borden's Labor Resolution Defeated—Hyman Correspondence Crops Up Again.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon Mr. Armand Lavergne brought forward a resolution to the effect that the French language, in terms of the B. N. A. act, should be placed on an equality with the English language in all public matters, such as in the coinage of money and the administration of postal affairs. He complained that operators employed by telegraph companies were not compelled to speak French, that notices on the Intercolonial Railway were not posted in that language, and that, with the exception of the Ministers of Justice and Agriculture, the English-speaking members of the Cabinet showed no desire to learn French.

Were On Equal Footing.

In the course of the debate which followed the Prime Minister said that the two languages were already on an equal footing, and moved an amendment expressing that view. The debate, not being concluded at 6 o'clock, was adjourned.

To Enquire Into Labor Questions.

Mr. R. L. Borden's motion for the appointment of a committee to inquire into labor questions, with the accompanying amendment by Mr. Smith, of Nanaimo in favor of the House proceeding with the legislation now before it, also went to a vote, with the result that the amendment was carried by a large majority. The House then took up the adjourned debate on Mr. Bennett's motion that immediate action should be taken on the report of the Transportation Committee. Mr. Turgeon (Gloucester) earnestly advocated the shortening of the mail route between Canada and Great Britain during the summer season by the creation of a calling point for mails at Shippigan, N.B., and carrying mails to and from that point, via Newfoundland. Hon. Mr. Fisher charged the mover of the resolution (Mr. Bennett) with having made misstatements, and warmly defended the transportation policy of the Government.

Mr. Hyman's Resignation.

Dr. Sproule said that at a recent meeting in London for the selection of a candidate a Mr. Gibbons said that Sir Wilfrid Laurier had written to Mr. Hyman, through him, asking him to withdraw his resignation, as he could not do without him in the Cabinet. That letter had not been brought down, and he asked if there was any reason for not laying it on the table of the House.

The Prime Minister said that all the correspondence he had had with Mr. Hyman had been brought down.

Two-Cent Fare Bill.

After dinner Mr. W. F. Maclean's two-cent fare bill, which the Railway Committee recommended should not pass, was taken up. On motion to go into Committee, Mr. Maclean again urged the success which had attended similar legislation in the United States as an argument in favor of his proposal. He did not think that it was a matter which should be left to the Railway Commission, because there was an important principle involved which should only be dealt by the Parliament. The G. T. R. had been defying the law for years and now had a bill before Parliament asking that the two-cent rate clause in their charter should be repealed.

Mr. Emmerson's Reply.

The Minister of Railways said a considerable amount of time had already been spent in the House in discussing this question, and it had been disposed of by a large and important committee. He disputed the statement that this was wholly a question of policy. It was necessary in order to deal with the question intelligently that they should have statistics. He had already stated before the Railway Committee, at the end of the present fiscal year, the department would be in a position to place before the House such statistics as would enable the members to arrive at an intelligent opinion in the matter.

The six months' hoist was carried by 80 votes to 37.

Mr. Ames was informed that the total amount of bonds issued by the G. T. Pacific and guaranteed by the Government on the western division was £3,200,000. There was but one issue, on Oct. 1, 1906.

Alleged Gaming House Raided.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—Staff Inspector James Stephen, new head of the Morality Department, raided last night Alexander Burns' store at 667 Yonge street, and placed five men under arrest. In the Police Court yesterday Burns was charged with keeping a common gaming house, and Thomas Lane, Thomas Bligh, Clarence Vinsen, Herbert Raymer and Benjamin Wase were charged with being frequenters. They all pleaded not guilty and were remanded for a week. The defendants were admitted to bail in one surety of $300 each.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Easier—Cattle 10c, Hogs 5c Lower at Chicago.

Liverpool, Feb. 25.—Liverpool and London cables are steady at 11c to 12½c per lb., dressed weight; refrigerator beef is quoted at 9c to 9½c per lb.

Toronto Junction Live Stock.

Toronto, Junction, Feb. 25.—Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 68 carloads, composed of 1406 cattle, 8 hogs, 32 sheep and lambs, and 24 calves.

Exporters.

Prices for exporters ranged from $4.85 to $5.25 per cwt., the bulk selling from $5 to $5.25; bulls, at $3.75 to $4.50 per cwt.

Butchers.

Trade was good for best butchers', of which there was not enough to supply the demand, and dealers had to go to the export class to get enough good cattle.

Several loads exported bought for butcher purposes cost $5.15 to $5.25, which were bought by the Levack Dressed Beef Company: Best butchers', $4.75 to $5; good butchers', $4.40 to $4.65; medium, $4 to $4.35; common mixed, $3.25 to $4; cows, $3 to $4.50 per cwt.

Milch Cows.

About a dozen milkers and springers sold at $40 to $49 each.

Veal Calves.

The market for veal calves was firm at $6.75 to $7 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Export ewes sold at $4.75 to $5 per cwt.; bucks, $4 to $4.50 per cwt.; lambs, at $6.10 to $7 per cwt.

Hogs.

H. P. Kennedy reports hogs 25c per cwt. higher, or $6.90 for selects, and $6.65 for lights.

Montreal Live Stock.

Montreal, Feb. 25.—(Special.)—Cable advices from Liverpool and London on Canadian cattle were stronger, and prices showed an advance of ½c per lb., with sales at 11½c. Exports last week from St. John, N.B., and Portland, were 2967 cattle and 1600 sheep.

At the Montreal stock yards' west end market, the reports of the stock for the week ending Feb. 23, were 3230 cattle, 1005 sheep and lambs, 1941 hogs, 340 calves, and the offerings to-day for local consumption were 650 cattle, 50 sheep and lambs, 1300 hogs and 80 calves. There was no important change in the condition of the market to note from a week ago. The gathering of butchers was larger, and it is now almost assured that the trading at this market will be one of the leading features of the live stock business in the very near future. Altho the Lenten season is now in full swing, it seems to have but little effect upon the consumption of beef, as the demand from butchers was good, and an active trade was done. There was also some demand from exporters, but the volume of business done on this account was not as large as a week ago, owing to the fact that the quality of stock for this purpose was somewhat scarce, but 'Sheep bought a number of bulls, for which 4¼c per lb. was paid. Supplies of butchers' cattle were not in excess of the requirements, and in consequence prices were well maintained. Choice beeves sold at 5c to 5¼c; good, 4½c to 4¾c; fair, 4c to 4¼c; common, 3½c to 3¾c, and inferior, 2½c to 3c per lb. There were no new developments in the hog situation. Cable advices on Saturday from the leading foreign markets were easier, and in some instances noted a decline in prices of 1s to 2s per cwt., but this fact did not seem to have any influence on the local hog market, it being offset to a great extent by the continued good demand from dealers for supplies, and prices ruled steady, but packers state at present values for hogs there is no money to be made in exporting bacon; however, an active trade was done here in hogs at $7.40 per 100 lbs for selected lots, weighed off cars, and at $7.25 for lower grades. There was considerable enquiry for sheep and lambs, but owing to the limited offerings trade was quiet and prices firm. Sheep sold at 4¼c to 4½c, and lambs at 6c to 6½c per lb. The quality of the calves offered was only medium, and sales were made at prices ranging from $3 to $10 each.

GIRLS ENTERING WOMANHOOD

FIND BILEANS A BOON.

Mothers who have daughters just on the critical borderland over which the girl passes into the fuller life of womanhood, will find Bileans a great boon. They make rich, red blood, and strengthen and invigorate the internal organs involved in the great change. Mrs. T. Beadle, of Home Place, Toronto, says: "My daughter, Elsie, 13, was feeling far from well this winter. She complained of frequent headache and was always weakly, tired, and drowsy. She seemed altogether without energy or strength. Each morning her tongue was coated and her appetite failed. She was sometimes so dizzy that, on stooping, she almost fell, and she was also troubled a great deal with constipation. One single box of Bileans made a world of difference in her, and as I continued to give her this remedy. Within a few weeks they built her up wonderfully and they are keeping her in the best of health."

Bileans also cure anaemia, green sickness, debility, sick headaches, constipation, piles, rheumatism, sciatica, and all liver and kidney ailments. They tone up the system and enable it to throw off colds, chills, etc. All druggists and stores sell Bileans at 50c a box, or obtainable from the Bilean Co., Toronto, for price. 6 boxes sent for $2.50.

COLONIAL CONFERENCE.

Defence and Emigration Primary Subjects For Consideration.

London, Feb. 26.—A parliamentary paper was issued yesterday containing a despatch from Lord Elgin respecting the agenda of the forthcoming colonial conference.

He says that in future conferences on preferential trade, defence and emigration may be regarded as primary subjects for consideration, and advocates that certain subjects should be separately discussed with the Minister of the State primarily concerned.

He expresses the hope that the questions of universal penny postage and imperial cable system will be discussed in this way, and suggests three sittings of the conference each week, and the conference may be expected to last three weeks or a month.

Referring to reciprocal admission to certain professions, Lord Elgin says the question of reciprocity in professions is complicated by technical considerations and it is doubtful whether the discussion could result in anything further than an academic resolution.

It had been found impossible, he says, to overcome the difficulties in regard to a uniform system of patents and public opinion in this country was not ripe for the adoption of the metric system.

Canada's Enterprise.

London, Feb. 26.—(C. A. P.)—Ex-Provost Fleming of Aberdeen, on a lecturing visit to Canada, said what impressed him most was the virility and enterprise of the people. The magnificence of the public buildings made him think "we are not so extravagant here after all."

Earl Grey's Aunt Dead.

London, Feb. 26.—(C. A. P.)—Mrs. Geo. Clive, the aunt of Earl Grey, is dead, aged 91.

A Very Great Laird.

Lord Breadalbane, who has just been appointed Keeper of the Privy Seal of Scotland, is a very great laird indeed, says M. A. P., owning miles and miles of the most exquisite scenery, populous with red, roe and fallow deer of Perthshire and Argyllshire, and living most of the year among his "ain fowk." Yet he is democratic in his notions and very "approachable." Taymouth Castle is often thrown open to the public, and the noble owner is fond of acting as anonymous cicerone. On one such occasion a departing tourist heard a whistle behind him, and turning beheld the Marquis running after him waving a gamp, which was returned with a hearty, "Hey, man, you've left your umbrella."

Lord Breadalbane is a Knight of the Garter, but he has two other decorations which are in a sense even more distinguished. One of these is the medal of the Royal Humane Society, conferred on him for saving the life of a servant at the imminent risk of his own, and the other is the Swedish Order of the Seraphim, conferred on him by King Oscar four years ago in acknowledgment of his princely hospitalities to Prince Gustavus Adolphus when his Royal Highness came over to marry Princess Margaret of Connaught. This was a remarkable honor, for this ancient and exclusive order had never before been conferred on any non-Royal British subject. Lord Breadalbane is Colonel of the Black Watch and holds office in a dozen volunteer regiments. From 1893 to 1895 he was Lord High Commissioner of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

An Ideal Citizen.

The ideal citizen is the man who believes that all men are brothers and the nation is merely an extension of his family, to be loved, respected and cared for accordingly. Such a man attends personally to all civic duties with which he deems himself charged. Those which are within his own control he would no more trust to his inferiors than he would leave the education of his children to kitchen servants. The public demands upon his time, thought and money come upon him suddenly, and often they find him ill prepared, but he nerves himself to the inevitable, knowing that in the village, state and nation any mistake or neglect upon his part must impose a penalty sooner or later up on those whom he loves. INCREASE FOR THE CITY ENGINEER IN SALARY

Committee of the Whole, After Much Discussion, Decided on Step.

WILL NOW BE $1,400 PER ANNUM

When Ald. Johnston, at the meeting of the Committee of the Whole Council last night, introduced a motion increasing the salary of the City Engineer to $1,400, it caused considerable discussion and trouble before the matter was decided by the passing of the motion to that effect. The committee was taking up the estimates for the year, and the question was not of the claim of the Engineer to an increase of salary, but rather, of where the necessary money was to be secured. The chairman of the Finance Committee had cut down the expenditure as far as possible in order to keep the rate at 17 1-2 mills. The Board of Works strenuously objected to their appropriation being cut down, pointing out that the money allowed them in the estimates was small enough as it was. It was necessary also to give some assistance to the Engineer, and this would also have to be paid by the Board of Works. Finally, Ald. Johnston consented to the appropriation of the Fire, Water and Light Committee being reduced by $200, and this amount was placed to the credit of the Board of Works.

Ald. Johnston, in bringing the matter before the Committee, refrred to the fact that Mr. Hay had more work to do than formerly, and said that he thought his remuneration should be increased. He spoke of the good work done by the Engineer, and finally moved that his salary be increased from $1,200 to $1,400. The motion was seconded by Ald. Phelan, who said that the Engineer was overworked and underpaid. The aldermen seemed to be of the opinion that Mr. Hay was entitled to the increase proposed, but there was the question of how the money was to be obtained. Ald. Tovey said that to make the increase asked for it would be impossible to keep the rate at 17 1-2 mills, as was proposed. Some one suggested that the Board of Works would have to pay the additional sum, and this brought forth a strong objection on the part of Chairman Duncan and Ald. Wilson, of that Committee. Both stated that they were not opposing an increase to Mr. Hay, but said that the appropriation for the Board of Works was not too large as it was.

Ald. Morgan said that he did not want to pose as a kicker, but he thought that there were more officials and salaries now than the people would stand for.

Ald. Johnston asked if the Council was perpared to do anything with the question of the assessment.

Ald. Duncan moved, in amendment to Ald. Johnston's motion, that Mr. Hay's salary be not increased, but that he be supplied with assistants. This was seconded by Ald. Morgan.

Ald. Johnston's motion was carried on a vote of 7 to 4, after several shows of hands had been taken. Ald. McIntyre had not voted, and some of the aldermen claimed that every one should vote. The alderman, accordingly, voted in favour of the motion.

Ald. Wilson moved, seconded by Ald. Leary, that $200 be taken from the appropriation of the Fire, Water and Light Committee and be placed to the credit of the Board of Works to pay for the assistance of the City Engineer.—Carried.

Ald. Johnston moved, seconded by Ald. Elliott, that Mr. T. Q. Quartermaine be employed to assist the City Engineer in making the special assessment for the local improvement work done last year at a salary of $2 per day.—Carried.

Ald. Johnston moved that the sum of $500 be placed in the estimates to provide for the publishing of the assessment roll. In doing so, he said that the people of Peterborough had been clamouring for such a step for many years. There was no seconder to the motion, which was declared lost.

Labour Report For January Is Satisfactory

Labour Gazette Correspondent Reports Activity in All Lines—Good Prospects for Business This Season—Industrial Development.

The report of the correspondent from Peterborough to the Labour Gazette this month is one of more than usual interest, indicating, as it does, increased activity along industrial lines. Ald. Johnston, in his report for this month, says:

Labour during January was exceptionally active in mills and factories. Outside work has been suspended, owing to the cold weather. There were many houses under construction which were being rapidly pushed forward to completion. A number of mechanics were overhauling stores. The work on the King Edward public school was being pushed along. January custom receipts up to the 18th of month, were $22,000, an amount that has never been reached during the same time before. Repair and construction work at Young's Point and Burleigh, is now under way; the Government is spending $5,000 on various improvements. A new steamer, 100 feet long and 23 feet beam is being constructed to ply between Peterborough and Idyl Wild, and a new tug and two new scows are being built for transportation purposes. The contract for the new Normal school has been let for $53,800. A bylaw to provide funds for a new Collegiate Institute was carried at the recent municipal election. The building will be constructed this summer. Wholesale and retail trade has been good. The rates of wages remained unchanged. The labour market was free from unrest and industrial troubles.

At a recent meeting of the contractors of Peterborough it was unanimously decided to form a builders' exchange for the protection of local contractors. It was considered that with the great demand for building material of all kinds the exchange would be of valuable assistance in helping to keep lumber, etc., from being exported to outside places. By so doing the local men will have a better choice and get lumber of all kinds when wanted. It would also assist local contractors in obtaining local contracts. It would establish and maintain uniformity in wages, give valuable business information, avoid, if possible, and adjust trade difficulties and misunderstandings, and promote good feelings amongst all engaged in the building trades.

Condition of Local Industries

Agriculture. — The farmers are being educated in procuring the best class of cows for dairying purposes. There is a strong movement on foot between dairymen of Eastern and Western Canada to establish a dairy show to be held once a year. In Lindsay a dairy association has been recently formed.

Port Perry Winter Fair was a great success, all kinds of farm produce and stock were exhibited, and good prices were given. In Lindsay a poultry show was held; over 1000 birds were shown from different sections of the Province. The Farmers' Institutes are also taking up the matter of better dairying equipments throughout the districts of Peterborough.

Fishing—Conditions were dull.
Lumbering—Very dull.
Manufacturing—Very busy.
Mining—Dull.

Manufacturing — Mann's planing factory and cheese box mill were very busy. This firm has procured a large tract of land (wooded) and is busy getting timber into its mill, and having it cut into lumber of all dimensions. It is also doing a large custom trade with farmers who have logs to cut. The Rapid Tool Co. has got its factory in order now. It has from twenty to thirty men employed, fifteen of whom are local, and the others experienced men brought from other places. The J. J. Turner Co. was very active for this season of the year; large orders for export trade are always on hand. This firm has bought out the Grand Opera House and will run it in conjunction with its business. All other industries in Peterborough were running full time. The Wm. Hamilton Co. was running overtime in part of its foundry. The Madison-Williams Foundry, of Lindsay, is now in running order. The Port Perry Canning Co. is increasing its capital stock to $40,000, shares to be $10 each. This firm employs during the canning season 90 female and 50 male employees, pays in wages $10,000, pays to farmers for produce $16,000, and manufactures 40,000 cans during the season.

Condition of Particular Trades

Building—Bricklayers and masons, gas and steamfitters, stone cutters and builders' labourers were dull. Carpenters and joiners, lathers and plasterers, painters and paperhangers and plumbers were active.

Metal, Engineering and Shipbuilding—Iron moulders' workers and helpers, machinists and engineers and steam engineers, electrical workers and tool sharpeners were active. Linemen, brassworkers, blacksmiths, boiler-makers, ship workers, sheet metal workers, horse-shoers and jewellers were busy, with bicycle workers dull.

Woodworking and Furnishing — Woodworkers, upholsterers, varnishers and polishers, carriage workers, car builders (on repairs) and pattern workers were busy. Coopers were dull.

Printing and Allied—These trades were busy.

Clothing—Journeymen tailors, garment workers, boot and shoe workers were busy. Hat workers were very dull.

Food and Tobacco Preparation—Bakers and confectioners, butchers and meat cutters, ice cutters and drivers were busy. Cigar makers and tobacco workers were active.

Leather—Leather workers, harness workers and collar makers were busy.

Miscellaneous—Barbers were active, Broom makers, clerks and stenographers and furriers were busy, as well as laundry workers. Delivery employees, hotel and restaurant and theatre employees were very busy.

Transport—Railway workers of all classes at this season of the year were busy. All classes of steamboat workers were very dull. Street railway employees were busy. Cab drivers and hackmen were very busy. Carters and draymen were active. Teamsters were dull, but expressmen were busy.

Unskilled Labour—This class of labour was dull.

TOOK COLLECTION FOR FAMINE FUND

The Epworth League of George Street Methodist Church Contributed $20.25 for This Purpose Last Night.

At the meeting of the George street Epworth League last night, a collection was taken for the Chinese famine fund, and the handsome sum of $20.25 was realized. This will be sent to the Central fund in China in the hope that it may relieve some of the suffering of the starving millions. Mr. Stanley Young had charge of the meeting, and during the evening Miss Sherin sang as solo, which was much enjoyed.

LADIES' AUXILIARY BIRTHDAY PARTY

A Novel Entertainment Will be Held in the Association Parlours in Near Future.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. last night decided to hold a Birthday Party about the middle of March in the Association parlours, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the fund for furnishing the rooms in the building. An interesting evening is promised. A good programme will be given and refreshments will be served.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"THE RAGGED PRINCESS"

The Marks Bros. No. A1 Company, supporting Grace Marks, opened their week's engagement at the Grand last night. The house was literally packed and even standing room was at a premium. The play, entitled "The Ragged Princess," a good comedy drama, held the interest of the audience throughout. The specialties were splendid and were carried out without a hitch. Singing, dancing, illustrated songs, musical Nalon's number, playing various instruments, and Jessie and Beatrice Sours, contortionists served to fill in the time between the acts. They were all very good and pleased the large crowd.

The cast is a good one, and needs no special mention, being well-balanced and capable of providing a splendid pastime for a night.

Church and stage are becoming more closely linked every day. One of the latest examples of this agreeable "rapprochment," says an English paper, was provided recently, when the Rev. H. A. C. Townsend, preaching to a large congregation, reproved his flock sternly for not helping forward the movement for refinement in the theatre by supporting the introduction of really good plays when they were brought to their towns.

SASKATCHEWAN'S WHEAT PRODUCTION

Regina, Sask., Feb. 26.— At the Grain Growers' Convention recently, President Hopkins stated that he had just been informed by the Commissioner of Agriculture that the wheat crop of Saskatchewan last year totalled 37,000,000 bushels, an average of 20.40 bushels per acre and an increase of 11,000,000 bushels over the preceding year. "When I state," said Mr. Hopkins, "that there were 37,000,000 bushels of wheat produced, and that we are only cultivating five per cent. of the available land in the Province, you will only begin to realize the possibilities of this country."

THE MEN'S GUILD WILL HOLD ENTERTAINMENT

St. Luke's Guild Spent Evening at Residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott—A Delightful Evening.

The meeting of the Men's Guild, of St. Luke's church held last night was one of more than usual interest. It was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Scott, Mark street, at their invitation, and a thoroughly enjoyable evening was spent. The routine business of the Guild was transacted, and following the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Scott and her daughters. Prior to their departure Mr. Potter, president of the Guild, moved a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Scott for their kindness and it was seconded by Mr. Whitaker. Mr. Scott replied briefly, expressing the pleasure it gave Mrs. Scott and himself to have the members of the Guild at their home.

MOUNT CLEMENS, MICHIGAN.

Mount Clemens is famous throughout America, as an all-the-year-round health resort, and thousands of people testify to the benefits derived from its mineral waters in cases of rheumatism and kindred diseases. For bilious and liver troubles, digestive troubles, nervous disorders, general debility, etc., the efficacy of its waters is wonderful. Seventy-five per cent. of rheumatics are cured, and ninety per cent. benefitted. Write to J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Grand Trunk Railway System, Toronto, for handsome descriptive booklet, telling you all about it. 2d48

CONFECTIONERY STORE HAS CHANGED HANDS

Messrs. Tisdall & Sons, of Uxbridge Succeed Mr. G. R. McGregor

The confectionery establishment which has been in charge of Mr. G. R. McGregor, George street, for the past three or four years, has changed hands. The new proprietors are J. Tisdall and Sons, of Uxbridge, Ont., who have been three years in the confectionery business in that town. They took charge of the store here to-day.

Mr. McGregor has not announced yet what line of business he intends following, but it is understood he will go West.

WOULD MARRY A CANADIAN MAN

There is a romance connected with the action of a young Canadian who, in packing a barrel of apples for England, inserted a note asking the recipient, if it happened to be a young woman, to correspond with him, with a view to matrimony. The note fell into the hands of the Canadian Immigration Agent, and was published in one of the London papers, with the result that he has received a number of letters from young women who would like to make a good wife for a Canadian. The following was one of the responses received:

A. writes: "I am a lady of some means and position, and am gifted with many traits of character dear to the mankind. I have had many opportunities to marry, but never the right one has appeared. I am now forty; this will be a shock, and no doubt you will put this epistle in the fire. But I know that I am right in saying I am very young for my age, having a happy disposition, and little to worry about. It does sometimes seem a pity that what I have to leave will go to strangers, as all my family are fairly well off, and that the help I know I could be to a strong man has no call upon it."

WILL PETERBORO NOT EVEN BE ALLOWED A HEARING?

The Toronto Press Say That President Darroch Has Ruled Out "The Matter.

NO MEETING WAS HELD LAST NIGHT

Is the O.H.A. going to side-track Peterborough's claim for another game with Kingston, without giving the matter a hearing at all? The reports in the Toronto papers would lead one to think so, but the locals have not yet lost hope. There was to have been a meeting of the O.H.A. sub-committee last night to deal with the matter but President Darroch was not able to be present with the result that the meeting was postponed until to-morrow night when it is expected that the matter will be settled one way or the other. It looks as if the locals will not be ordered to play Kingston for the championship of the district but that they may be given an opportunity to play the winner of the Stratford-Kingston game for the Senior honours:

The Globe says:

The O.H.A. Senior Championship is now down to Stratford and the 14th Regiment of Kingston. The claim of Peterborough for an extension of the schedule in the eastern district was practically dropped, although it would not have been considered even if pressed, as President Darrooh properly ruled that it had no ground and could not be entertained. The executive has the power by a two thirds vote to allow Peterborough or any other club to play the winner of the finals for the championship and an effort will be made by Peterborough to bring this about. Stratford will therefore go to Kingston on Friday, and Kingston will play the return visit on Tuesday next, the total score of the two games to decide the championship.

CHARLOTTE STREET TEAM SATISFIED WITH REFEREE

Report That Waghorne Would be Asked to Referee Final Game in City League Series.

A report has been circulated in the city to the effect that the Charlotte street team was asking for Waghorne as referee for the final game in the City League, on Thursday night. The manager of the team, however, informed the Examiner today that there was absolutely no foundation for the rumour. The team was quite satisfied to accept the referee who has officiated at the games so far this season, Mr. Geo. Lynch, and had no desire to change.

KNOCKERS DEFEAT EAST CITY SEVEN

Score in a Loose Game Last Night Was 4-0—Across-the-River Team Weak

In a game that dragged along in the first half and gradually became faster until at the end both teams were travelling at their best, the Knocker Club hockey team last night defated the East City septette by the score of four to nothing. It was a rather ragged exhibition during the first part but in the second half was fast enough from the Knocker standpoint. The whole team from the Eastern section played defence in the second half, but were often drawn out and then a pretty rush on the Ashburnham goal would result. Leo Derocher refereed and caught everything that was contrary to good hookey. The teams lined up as follows:—

Knockers		East City.
	Goal.
Allan		Paint
	Point.
Duncon		Swainson
	Cover Point.
Henderson		Brisbin
	Rover.
Bartley		Geals
	Centre.
Doris		Cox
	Right Wing
Holland		Ferguson
	Left Wing
Hilker		Dustin

Referee—"Lajoie" Derocher.

Cox and Brisbin played good hookey for Alderman Graham's bunch; Bartly and Doris perhaps put up the best style of hookey for the stub swingers.

PETERBORO'-LINDSAY CUP GAMES NEXT WEEK

The Old Rivals Will Again Compete for the Possession of the Silverware.

The curling games for the possession of the Peterborough—Lindsay silver trophy will be played during next week, but the exact date has not yet been agreed upon. Four Peterborough rinks will journey to Lindsay while the same number will come down from the northern town to play here.

The Peterborough-Lindsay trophy has already been up for competition for eight years. Lindsay won the first three years and Peterborough five years.

WILL PLAY FOR THE CHAMPIONSHIP

Series of Games Scheduled to be Played This Week, Commencing To-night.

The draws for the Club Championship, and the prizes in the President and Vice-President's matches, at the curling rink have been made, and the schedule of games which commence to-night, is as follows:—

TUESDAY.

President.	Vice-President.
G Fitzgerald	B Hicks
T Brightman	R Neill
D Cameron	S T Medd
J Stanger	D Hall
R M Waddell	T Rutherford

WEDNESDAY.

On Thursday night, following the games there will be a smoker in the club rooms, and the losing side will provide the refreshments. All the curlers are invited to be present.

CRESSMAN'S TEAM AGAIN A WINNER

Defeated Turnbull's in Fast Game of Hockey Last Night by Score of 5-1.

Last night at the Brock street rink Cressman's scored their third successive victory of the season, defeating Turnbull's aggregation, strengthened by Hall's fastest man, by the decisive score of 5-1. After the first five minutes the winners were all over their opponents and showed them things in every department of the game. For the losers, Maude played a great game until he was handed that lemon against the boards, and for the winners, Anderson at cover-point played a regular "Woodstock" game. The teams lined up before referee Seymour as follows:

HOCKEY

Excitement is at fever heat over the final game for the championship of the City League which will be played on Thursday night between the Stratheonas and the Charlotte street team and indications point to a crowd of record-breaking proportions. There is keen rivalry between the teams and as the championship depends on the result the game should be of the red hot variety. On their past performances there is little to choose between the teams. Each has won four games without a loss and their scores have been about equal. As a fan expresses it: "There are even up and take your choice." It will be a treat for the spectators when the two get together.

* * * *

The Stratheonas will practice at Brock street rink to-night between 10 and 11 o'clock in final preparation for their game with Charlotte street for the city league championship. Every player is requested to be out to-night.

* * * *

The Bell Telephone Company's team challenge the Machine Telephone Company to a game of hockey to be played as soon as arrangements can be made for the rink.

* * * *

The hockey department representing the brass department of the C.G.E., wish to accept the challenge of Ackerman's to a game for the factory championship of the city.

* * * *

The Furniture Men's team would like to secure a game with the team representing Ackerman's factory.

* * *

The G. N. W. hockey team asks why the C. P. R. team has not accepted its challenge to another game, and wants to know if the staff of the down-town opponenents are afraid.

CURLING

The President versus Vice-President games, the schedule of which was published yesterday, will begin to-night and continue until Thursday night. To-night's skips are as follows:

THE TYRANNY OF CLOTHES.

Eve the Only Woman on Record Who Dressed as She Pleased.

Clothes and all their little accessories are without doubt the invention of the devil.

The other day I was at a garden party, and there I realized, as perhaps never before, writes Mrs. John Lane in The Fortnightly Review, the appalling nature of the top hat. In towns one accept it as one does motor omnibuses and traction engines, but when it meanders among trees, and does the polite with sloppy ices and tea that spills its way to its destination, one's soul cries out against it.

The Achilles heel of a man is his hat. He must guard that as he does his reputation, for it is at once his strength and his weakness. It would hurt an archbishop less in the eyes of the public to commit a crime than to wear his hat on the back of his sacred head.

It is the aim of all human creatures to look alike. If it were not so each would dress as he pleased. As it is we spend half our life trying to look like everybody else. To be conspicuous is nearly a crime, and for this reason we so frantically pursue the fashions.

Eve is probably the only woman on record who could dress just as she pleased, and for that reason she is the only woman we know of since the world began who had leisure to cultivate her mind.

To think of the amount of time a woman wastes on her clothes? Why, if men were to spend as much time at their tailors or buying their neckties the world's work would never be done. When one looks back on one's life—one's feminine life—it is melancholy to realize how much of one's troubles are owing to one's clothes.

I remember the despairing cry of a woman looking hopelessly through her wardrobe: "I should have been a better woman if I had been born with feathers!" How well I knew just what she meant! She was examining disconsolately a shabby white satin dress—the kind of satin that betrays its plebeian cotton origin. "I wish I were a guinea hen with respectable speckled feathers!" she cried, as she gave a discouraged slam to the wardrobe door. "Then I wouldn't use up three-quarters of my intellect getting the wrong things cheap!"

Sunday clothes are the most tyrannical in the world! It takes a heroic woman to go to church in anything but her best. Sub-consciouness is the precious faculty bestowed on a privileged few of hearing the sermon, and at the same time studying the hats. I have known a tulle dress—the sweetest and most innocent-looking thing in the world—go out on an icy cold winter night—would go, you know!—and kill the girl inside.

I assure those feminine pioneers who clamor for their rights that above everything else they should demand an equality of pockets. Try to imagine a man doing his errands with a purse, handkerchief, and shopping list in one hand, the tail of his skirt in the other, his umbrella under one arm, meanwhile making an effort to keep his head clear for business problems, and at the same time keeping a wary eye out for motors. He couldn't do it! If the worthy ladies who have so much enthusiasm, and who will interrupt our great orators while they are busy being eloquent, would only demand a law requiring every woman to have sixteen pockets, what a splendid service they would do their bothered sex.

Once I met a man who was lured from the joys of Piccadilly, just as he stood, in frock coat and top hat, to a rural retreat, five miles from a railway station. "Good-bye," he said, in an impolite burst of rapture. "I fear my soul has not been in harmony with nature." "Don't blame your soul," said I, as we shook hands; "your soul was all right, but you had on the wrong hat."

Yes, when one comes to think about it, men, too, are the victims of clothes. Question the taste of a man's necktie or his gloves, and see him writhe. Say you don't like the color of his new suit, and you rouse the slumbering lion. Have you ever, in the pursuit of your social studies, fastened your eyes on a man's boots? It causes a man unexplained suffering.

Is not every woman in the clutches of a little private serpent who urges her to want the things she oughtn't to have? It is all that is left to her of the Garden of Eden except Adam, and, really, the less said about Adam the better.

The only solace I have in the tyranny under which I languish is that Adam languishes also. I rejoice to watch him struggle into a pair of tight new gloves. I was so pleased the other day at a dinner party when Adam came bashfully down in a dress coat and shepherd's plaid trousers—the guardian angel who had packed his kit bag having been a little absent-minded.

And yet, after all's said and done. Eve is to blame. There is no getting over that. But how she has suffered ever since! Consider the tragedy of every milliner's bill, and the awful moment when she has to confess to Adam! If she had only let that apple alone!

THE ROARIN' GAME.

Perhaps It Was Brought Into Scotland by the Flemish Migration In the Sixteenth Century.

The Scottish people regard the history of curling seriously, as a chapter of interest and importance in the history of the nation. They claim that no other game so well illustrates the national character or tends so much to the healthy development of physical, mental and social qualities. They regard it as a valuable institution of civilized life, and trace its origin back four centuries, but it was only about the middle of the eighteenth century that it began to take on the dignity of a truly national game. During the last seventy-five years it has spread among all the English-speaking people in climates where winter bestows the necessary conditions of ice. The great bonspiels of Scotland draw 50,000 people on the lochs, and in Canada, where the climate is favorable, curling devotees are numbered by tens of thousands.

The game was originally played with rough bowlders. The smooth rounding of the stone occurred at the beginning of the nineteenth century, and the stones now used are polished work of art made of granite, and the twisting motion employed gives them a drawing power on corrugated ice of from three to four feet on either side of the ice, as determined by the in-turn out outturn given in delivery. The variety and precision of the modern game place it in the rank of a science. Curling has taken a firm hold upon its votaries, and has drawn around it a delightful literature of narrative, poetry and anecdote.

The history of curling is given in large volumes, in which the etymology, history and literature of the game have been treated exhaustively. A cold climate and man's inherent tendency to throw stones make the foundation of the game, but its origin, like other origins, is uncertain. Though the game has been scientifically developed in Scotland, it had its origin probably in the Netherlands, which have had a great influence on the arts and industries of Great Britain. Many of the terms used in the game point to the Low Countries as the place where it originated. It was probably brought over to Scotland by the emigrant Flemings in the sixteenth century, and from that time its development as a game of science has been the work of Scotchmen of all professions.

The ministry is especially well represented in the history of the game. In Scotland the laird and the minister encourage this innocent and exhilarating pastime for the sake of its many moral and social influences. Curling is a manly sport; the associations of the game are honorable, and it has been noted that the character of curlers in public and professional life is kind and honest.

The first type of stone used was the kutting stone, without handles, with a hollow or notch for the finger and thumb of the player and probably thrown for a part of the course; they weighed from five to twenty-five pounds, and were generally picked from the channels of the streams, whence the old name of channel-stones. The ancient game resembled quoits, and the stone bore the name of kuting or quoiting stone. Specimens of the old quoiting stones are preserved, some of them dating back to the year 1600.

The second type of curling stone was a rough block with a handle attached. Stones of this type were often unshapely, but the handle gave more power to the player, and many of these stones weigh as much as 75 and 85 pounds. One, called the Jubilee stone, weighs 117 pounds, and was used by three generations of the same family. There was no regulation weight, and the stones had an individuality of their own. Many of them are preserved in the Scottish museums and club collections, and some bear names suggestive of their history, structure or shape, as Black Meg, the Doctor, the Town Clerk, the Bailey, the Grey Hen, the Goose, the Girdle, the Grey Mare, and the Bible. There were giants in those days, and stories are told of strong players hurling a 75-pound stone across a mile of loch ice.

The third type of stone is the rounded and polished stone, which possesses a capacity not possessed by the old irregular shaped stones. The inventor of the circular curling stone is a great unknown. The stones of modern days differ in character, lacking the individuality of the irregular stones of olden times, on corrugated ice they give a precision and a variety to the game unknown before.

There have been changes from time to time in the distances and relative measurements of the rink of ice on which the stones are played.

Luncheon for Eleven Cents.

A dainty and well-appointed practice luncheon was served recently at the Technical School, to seven guests, at the enormous cost of 75 cents, for the whole meal, which as may be seen, averages a little less than 11 cents a head. By "practice" luncheon is meant a luncheon served by one of the students taking the Domestic Science course at the school, who demonstrates in this practical way what she has been learning. The hostess, this time a very young girl in the High school course, arranges the menu, buys the supplies, and, with the assistance of two fellow students as cook and waitress, cooks and serves the meal. As the luncheon was an achievement in good cooking, and economical buying combined, The Toronto Star asked permission to publish the menu with a few general pointers as to the making of the dishes.

Tomato soup, with croutons.
Fried haddock, stuffed baked potatoes.
Salad of celery, cabbage, and walnuts, baking powder biscuit.
Moulded rice. Coffee.

The soup was cream of tomato soup, made with milk, the thickened milk and strained heated tomatoes being mixed at the last moment. The haddock was cut in cross sections, dipped in bread crumbs, then in egg, then in bread crumbs again, and dropped into deep boiling fat. The stuffed potatoes were baked first, the contents scooped out, and thoroughly mashed with milk, butter and seasoning, replaced in the skins, and heated again.

The salad was of equal parts of celery and cabbage, shaved fine, mixed with chopped walnuts, and served with boiled mayonnaise dressing on small cabbage leaves.

The rice was cooked with shavings of lemon rind, then molded with gelatine, and whipped cream.

Grain As Foodstuff.

To most people of the present time, says Dr. A. E. Gibson in the Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette, the necessity of bread consumption for the maintenance of bodily existence stands as a central, unquestionable fact. That such a high regard for grain as food stuff, however, is overdrawn is evident from the circumstance that entire races of men have been and are yet found to sustain a magnificent physical health and strength on a diet wholly exempt from bread.

SEVERN ROUTE FOR NORTHERN INLET

Belief That Report of Engineers Will Recommend This Route for Entrance to Canal From Georgian Bay.

TRENTON IS NOW SURE OF OUTLET

Toronto Star Special.

Ottawa, Feb. 26.—The report of the Government engineers on the northern stretch of the Trent waterway, from Lake Simcoe to Georgian Bay, will be ready for presentation to Parliament in a few days, but from what your correspondent is informed it is a practical certainty that the outlet will be found by the Severn River. The cost, indeed, of that route is said to be not more than one-half what would be expended if the alternative route were adopted. However, the Government engineers have made a most careful examination of both routes, and will have their report ready for submission to the Minister of Railways and Canals this week. As soon as this has been done the information will be laid before Parliament. In addition to the data supplied by the engineers, Hon. Mr. Emmerson has had the advantage of a personal inspection of the Trent waterway, and is so thoroughly impressed with the natural advantages of the route that it is understood that the supplementary estimates of the present session will contain an appropriation for this work, substantial enough to warrant the vigorous prosecution of the enterprise.

As already stated, the southern outlet of the Trent Canal will be at Trenton, on the Bay of Quinte.

A JUDGESHIP IS PROBABLE FOR MR. BECK

Former Peterborough Man Will Likely be Made Judge of the Supreme Court of Alberta in Short Time.

MR. EDWARDS TO BE HIS SUCCESSOR

The Calgary Albertan says that the name of N. D. Beck, K. C., of Edmonton, is mentioned in connection with the next appointment to the Supreme Court of Alberta. The Lethbridge Herald also understands that the name of H. C. Taylor, K.C., of Edmonton is also mentioned.

Mr. Beck, who is mentioned in the above item is a former Peterborough boy, and is a son of the late Rev. J. W. R. Beck, rector of Peterborough. He has a great many friends in this city who will be glad to learn of his appointment to a judgeship.

Another feature of interest in connection with this Supreme Court appointment is the fact that in all probability he will be succeeded as City Solicitor of Edmonton by another Peterborough man, Col. E. B. Edwards whose knowledge of municipal law has already been recognized in the western city and his name is freely mentioned in connection with this position.

The Associated Flax Spinners of Ireland announce that they have decided to increase the wages of the workers 10 per cent. in all the Irish mills from March 1. Considerably over 30,000 hands are affected.

PETERBOROUGH CHILD WAS KILLED IN BAD WRECK AT GUELPH

Two Year-Old Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Walker Among the Dead in Wreck on the G. T. R.—Mrs. Walker Was Seriously Injured—Four Year-Old Boy Had Miraculous Escape.

Guelph, Feb. 27.—The frightful accident on the G. T. R., two miles east of here, yesterday afternoon, caused by a broken rail, and in which John O'Donoghue and Chas. Rankin, of Stratford, and the two-year-old child of H. G. Walker, of Peterborough, were killed, is all that is talked of here to-day.

The whole train plunged down a high embankment into a swamp, the cars overturning at the bottom.

Mrs. Walker, of Peterborough, is suffering severely this morning. A large oak sliver pierced her arm at the elbow and protruded at the waist. She was also shaken up and bruised.

Her little boy, four years of age, escaped miraculously. A deep collar he wore was cut clean across his shoulder, and a red mark across his shoulder is all that shows to-day.

Mr. Walker arrived here last night. Of the others injured, Mrs. J. L. Doran, of Toronto, is the most serious. She may not recover. Mrs. Walden, of Acton, is also in a serious condition.

The remainder of the two score injured are able to be around, but many of them with arms in slings and heads tied up.

The word which was received in the city last night conveyed the first intelligence of the death of the little daughter of Mr. Walker, in the wreck, and later despatches to The Examiner, and to the Toronto papers, confirm the sad news.

It appears that Mrs. Walker, with her young daughter, less than two years old, and her son, Vaughan, four years of age, was travelling on the ill-fated train, the father not accompanying them. The despatch to the Globe, referring to the death of the child, says:

The Walker child that was killed was seated beside her little brother, the children being accompanied by their mother. When the cars left the track the little one disappeared from view, and it is thought she went through the window and underneath the car. Her little brother was not seriously hurt. The mother was injured, but not badly. She was almost prostrated by the stock of the death of her child.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker have lived in the city for some years and were very well and favourably known by many, particularly those living in the north end of the city, by whom they are better known. They live at 804 George street. Mr. Walker's father and mother have been visiting them here, and only left a few days ago to return to their home in Western Ontario.

Mr. Walker is a commission traveller, handling furniture, and representing the following, among other firms: World Furnishing Co., Orillia; The Selzer holtz-Dinkemm Co., Waterloo; S. M. Knechtel Chair Co., Southampton, and the Knechtel Company, Hanover.

He does business with a number of local firms in the furniture business and is highly respected. His bereavement will be deeply regretted by his business and social friends in this city.

Cobourg Man Invented Great Rail-Joint But Has To Work Hard For Living

Though a $2,000,000 Company Was Formed at Spokane, Wash., to Manufacture It—Was Persuaded to Sell It For a Few Hundred Dollars—Was Well Known in Peterboro.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 26. — John B. Cline who was raised in Cobourg, Ont., and who is well known in Peterborough, although he invented a railjoint that is now being manufactured by a $2,000,000 company in Spokane, Washington, is compelled to work at a labourer's wage in this city to keep body and soul together. He received his first patent on the railjoint in 1903, and in 1906 he received two more patents on the same invention. Thinking that perhaps he could interest some railroad man in his invention, he went to work on the Canadian Pacific Railway in British Columbia, leaving his family in London, Ont. While at work there he met a Western man who had money, and to whom he explained his patent. The Westerner at once saw the superiority of the invention, and offered to take an interest in it. His offer was accepted, and money was furnished Cline to pay the costs of patents in Great Britain, the United States and Canada. The two men then went to Spokane, Washington, where a stock company was organized, and preparations made to manufacture a large model railjoint. Railway men to whom the new device was shown were enthusiastic over it, and experimented with it on their lines. The results were gratifying. The railjoint prevents passenger cars from pounding and jarring the passengers. With the common system now in use the square ends of the rail meet the wheels as an obstacle, causing a certain stoppage, and jolting and jarring is the inevitable result. The Cline railjoint insures a continuous tread of the wheels, prevents spreading, and thereby averts accidents.

The inventor knew he had a superior article, something every railway in the world would want, yet when the company was organized at Spokane for its manufacture, the men who were financing the enterprise would not take hold of it, unless he would sell the patent outright. They finally gave him a few hundred dollars for an article that is now making them each independently rich. While these men are reaping their harvest of dollars Cline, the man with the brains that gave the invention, is working for a paltry salary.

Propose Celebration For Civic Holiday This Year

Instead of the Excursions Held in the Past—Many Trips of Past Year Must be Cut Out This Year—Suggestion That Societies Join in Holding Celebration.

The announcement made in the Examiner yesterday to the effect that the Canadian railways had decided to run no excursions in future on Civic Holiday has caused a feeling which almost amounts to consternation in many quarters. For years this holiday has been taken advantage of by several thousands of the city's residents to take a trip, and for many it was the only trip they had during the whole year. The new regulation will put a stop to all this, for while the railways may and no doubt will, offer cheap rates for the holiday it will not be less than single fare, which will prevent many from taking the outing they otherwise would.

The Civic Holiday trips have in the last been very popular, and their discontinuance will leave many persons with no way to spend the day. While cheap rates may be given on the railways still, it will in many

SEMI-READY WARDROBE

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN
Semi-ready Tailoring has a wardrobe in every important city or town from the Atlantic to the Pacific—it speaks wonders for its popularity and aggressiveness. It tells vividly of its tremendous output—the enormous quantity of material consumed in making up garments for all these wardrobes. It hints too at the low mill prices paid which materially lower the price of the garment. Every observing man knows of the high standard of excellence maintained in Semi-ready tailoring.

OPPOSITION FOR THE HEALEY FALLS COMPANY

Mr. Culverwell Alarmed at Statements of Kingston Alderman That Another Company is After Rights at Healey Falls.

THEY WILL CONTEST THE MATTER.

Kingston, Feb. 26. — J. A. Culverwell, managing director of the Northumberland - Durham Power Company, was startled at the city council yesterday when Ald. Carson said another company was after Trent River rights. Mr. Culverwell said the Dominion Government was to give his company full control of Trent rights, and 33,00 h.p. would be available. Ald. Carson said another company was to get part of the rights. Mr. Culverwell said it was impossible.

"But I know," said Ald. Carson, "I have been to Ottawa, and I know what I say."

Then Mr. Culverwell said his company would vigorously contest any other company's rights.

THE BRITISH WAY

A brave experiment in self-government is being made in South Africa. The elections in the Transvaal have resulted in the return of a majority of members representing the Boer element, and, true to British precedent, the Governor has called upon a Boer, General Botha, to form a government, and the majority of the members of his cabinet are Boers. This may seem to many a dangerous condition, but if it is attended with as much success as the conditions which have followed a similar policy in Canada, which has given Canada a great Premier of French-Canadian extraction, there will be little fault to find. The secret of Great Britain's success as a colonizer consists chiefly in her generous treatment in the way of self-government and civil rights, of subject peoples. She first conquers a people by warlike means, and then reconquers them by trusting them. If the Boer element in South Africa proves unworthy of the confidence reposed in them, so much the worse for themselves. But the probabilities are that they will show themselves worthy of trust. Self interest—which is so portent a factor in human affairs, if not gratitude—will move them to be true subjects of the Empire.

THE APPROACHING COLONIAL CONFERENCE

On Monday Sir Wilfrid Laurier presented to the House the correspondence between Great Britain and Canada regarding the approaching Colonial Conference. So far the Canadian Government has not suggested any special resolutions for discussion. Those to be brought up by Australia, New Zealand and Cape Colony comprise a long series of topics including among others, preferential trade, an Imperial Council, an Imperial Court of Appeal, treaty obligations, coasting laws, decimal currency, and the metric system. Replying to a question asked by Mr. Lavergne, the Premier stated that on the question of Imperial defence, and contributions from the colonies towards the Imperial navy and army, the attitude of the government was the same as in 1902, and with regard to the proposal of an Imperial Council he stated that the views of the Government were to be found in a minute of Council embodied in the correspondence laid before the House. The minute thus referred to contains the reply made by Canada to the suggestion of the Imperial Government that the term Imperial Council be applied to the forthcoming conference. This reply intimates that the members of the Canadian Government prefer that the appellation Imperial Conference as denoting a more or less unconventional gathering for informal discussion possessing no faculty or power of binding action." It is stated on the other hand that the term Council "indicates a more formal assemblage possessing an advisory and deliberative character, and in conjunction with the word Imperial suggesting a permanent institution which, endowed with a continuous life, might eventually come to be regarded as an encroachment upon the full measure of autonomous legislative and administrative power now enjoyed by all the self-governing colonies."

THE WHITNEY SURRENDER

If the following editorial article printed in the Conservative Toronto Telegram, at the time of the resignation of the Davidson-Flavelle-Murray License Board in Toronto, had its point at the time, that point has become far more acute in view of the recent developments of license administration rottenness in Toronto. The Telegram then said:—

"All honour to J. W. Flavelle, John I. Davidson and J. E. Murray.

These retiring license commissioners of Toronto acted like gentlemen, or, better still, like men.

The members of the Ontario Government who surrendered to the spoilsmen, and thus compelled the resignation of Messrs. Flavelle, Davidson and Murray, acted like the dupes of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt.

It is not conceivable that Hon. W. J. Hanna wanted to drive out the commissioners, whose acceptance of office originally brought so much glory to the Provincial Secretary and Premier of Ontario.

It is certain that Dr. Beattie Nesbitt wanted the Flavelle-Davidson-Murray commission out of office, and he well understood that a sure means to that end was the substitution of his own partisans for the inspector or inspectors who possessed the confidence of the commissioners.

Three of the Toronto members, Hon. J. J. Foy included, are so much clay in the hands of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, and the Ontario Government was no better when it virtually decided to partially Tammanyize the license administration of Toronto, with Dr. Beattie Nesbitt as the boss thereof.

The whole proceeding, beginning with the dismissal of the inspectors and ending with the resignation of the commissioners, is a brutal, cowardly and discreditable episode in the hitherto bright history of the Whitney Government.

Do the Conservative spoilsmen ever think how many heads would have fallen if the Laurier Government had gone through the Toronto postoffice and custom house in 1896, as the Whitney Government went through the Toronto License Commission in 1905?

When the Whitney Government strikes its flag to the spoilsmen its surrender is an unspeakable disappointment to the Canadians who had reason to hope for better things from Hon. W. J. Hanna, and who regarded the incoming of Hon. J. P. Whitney as the dawning of a better day in Ontario politics.

The directorship of Beattie Nesbitt over the Whitney Government must drive thousands of Ontario Liberals back to the party lines which were broken last January for the country's good, and which must be broken again and again if the country's good is to be served.

The independent journals which urged Liberals to leave their party and vote Mr. Whitney into power are made to look like dupes or rogues by proof that the Beattie Nesbitt type of spoilsman is in the ascendant.

A Government that can be taken by the throat and shaken until it does the bidding of Dr. Battie Nesbitt, is not the sort of government that Hon. J. P. Whitney promised to the people of this province.

A government that stoops to the meanness of warring on women and children by wantonly throwing breadwinners out of office on account of their politics cannot be accepted as the exceeding great reward of the Independent and Liberal patriots who voted that government into power.

The partisan trickery and greed that drove Messrs. Flavelle, Davidson and Murray out of office supplied an example of bad faith and bad tactics on the part of the Whitney government.

The manifest virtues of the Whitney government were developing a strength that was largely obliterating party lines in this province, a strength that could have kept Mr. Whitney in power by the excellence of his appeal to Canadians who were being taught that they could afford to break loose from party lines and party names, to stand and fight together for the good of their country.

If the Ontario Government has once and for all revealed its true character on its first great surrender to the Nesbitt howlers, Canadians who might be united for the good of the country will again be divided for the gain of party.

The one redeeming feature in this whole miserable business is the conduct of J. W. Flavelle, John I. Davidson and J. E. Murray. Their public ideals would be a safer guide for the Whitney government than the partisan appetites of Beattie Nesbitt and Company.

In the light of the facts brought out and suggested by the present Toronto license investigation, the above article was prophetic. Dr. Beattie Nesbitt did not cease to be a "boss" when he became registrar of Toronto. He is still the boss and the Whitney Government is the bossed.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Hon. Senator Gowan is a resurrectionist. He has actually waked up long enough to say that he is too old for the Senate, and has resigned.

The Whitney Government has been false to its spoils policy. It has actually allowed one "Grit" officeholder—the sheriff of Renfrew—to die a natural death.

Mr. Whitney has loyal supporters of his spoils policy. Mr. Hugh Clark, M.P.P., in a speech at Toronto said some Conservatives were complaining that the Government had not dismissed more Grit officials, and he didn't blame them for complaining.

No stronger evidence of the prosperity, and industrial and commercial activity prevailing in Canada, can be furnished than the fact that within the past year the chartered banks of Canada have increased the grand total of current loans by the large amount of $100,000,000. When times are good money can be profitably used and it is in demand.

Mr. W. F. Maclean, Conservative, once charged that he was beaten for the mayoralty of Toronto by boodling and ballot-stuffing, engineered by the local Tory machine. The license inquiry now in progress at Toronto shows, says the London Advertiser, that the manipulation of the license business so as to line the pockets of Tory workers, has been reduced to a science. Politically, Toronto is a whited sepulchre.

The Toronto News, one of the most zealous supporters of the Whitney Government, in concluding an article on the revelations of the license investigation in Toronto, says:

As we survey the whole situation, we are reminded of a profane, but expressive rhyme of our unregenerate youth:

Mary had a little lamb,
Its fleece was white as snow,
Mary took the lamb to Pittsburg,
And now look at the damn thing!

Referring to the dismissal of the postmaster of Cannington the London Free Press says: "Mr. Talbot was appointed by the Conservative Government. That was his crime. There was no other. For this he was put into the street without notice and his place given to a Liberal-worker." The Advertiser explains: "The postmaster was dismissed, not because he was a Conservative, but because although in receipt of a good salary he insisted upon carrying on another business — contrary to the regulations. Not a single postmaster of the thousands appointed by the former government has been dismissed on party grounds."

Mr. Whitney drew great comfort from the deduction he made from the West Middlesex election returns. He used, in an interview, about 500 words to say that, while the town of Strathroy went "back" on the Government, the rural districts clearly and unmistakably endorsed Russian school legislation and his fractional local option legislation. Taking Mr. Whitney on his own ground, the rural districts condemned him, for, as a matter of fact, the rural districts in the late election gave, in 1907, young Mr. Ross a majority of 144, while in 1905 they gave his father a majority of only 124.

There are numerous petitions presented to the House of Commons against the continuation of the iron and steel bounties. These bounties are paid to encourage the smelting of iron and the production of steel in Canada. Admitting that the payment of these bounties is justifiable, it would seem logical that the same principle of encouragement should be extended to the industries that use iron and steel, as the chief element in their operation. With heavy bounties paid the iron and steel producers, one would think that the raw material should be furnished at a price that would compete with the imported article of a similar kind. If not, there should be such an adjustment of the tariff as would help, and not hinder, manufacturing industries. The Laurier Government acted wisely in readjusting the tariff in such wise as to cheapen the raw material of manufactures. If in any way this wise policy has been departed from in the last readjustment of the tariff, the action represented by this should itself be revised.

SKIN DISEASES

Salt Rheum, Pimples, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Shingles, Scald Head, Itching Sores.

All diseases of the skin are more or less directly caused by a bad state of the blood, which produces acrid humors and corrupts the secretions.

No one can expect to have a clear, bright skin when the blood is in a disordered condition, and the stomach, liver and bowels acting feebly in consequence.

All the above skin diseases, in fact, any disease arising from a bad condition of the blood, are curable by through its wonderful cleansing, purifying powers on the blood, and its renovating action on the system.

Mr A. Squire, Dominion, N.S., tells how he was cured of Salt Rheum. He writes: "For years I suffered with Salt Rheum, and was unable to find a curable remedy out of all the medicines I took, and Physicians consulted. Finally I was urged by a friend to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and after a very short space of time I was completely cured. I shall always recommend B.B.B. for such cases, as I consider it an indispensable remedy."

Backache, "The Blues"

Both Symptoms of Organic Derangement in Women —Thousands of Sufferers Find Relief.

How often do we hear women say: "It seems as though my back would break," or "Don't speak to me, I am all out of sorts?" These significant remarks prove that the system requires attention.

Backache and "the blues" are direct symptoms of an inward trouble which will sooner or later declare itself. It may be caused by diseased kidneys or some derangement of the organs. Nature requires assistance and at once, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years and the ablest judges agree that it is the most universally successful remedy for woman's ills known to medicine.

Read the convincing testimonials of Mrs. Oakes and Mrs. MacNamee.

Mrs. J. P. Oakes of Prince of Wales Hotel, Head of St. Margaret's Bay, near Halifax, Halifax County, Nova Scotia, Canada, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"After what your Vegetable Compound did for me, I am a firm believer that it is a wonderful medicine, and that any woman who is troubled with any of the ills we suffer from should try it and she will soon be convinced of its worth. Six bottles changed me from a peevish, despondent, sickly, ailing woman to a sweet-tempered, healthy one, who rarely ever has a pain now, and who before was rarely without one. As a regulator, strengthener and a tonic, I think it has no superior and I certainly endorse it."

Mrs. Anna R. MacNamee of corner Queen and Wellington Streets, Kingston, Ont. writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done all the good in the world for me. I suffered with irregularities, backache and severe pains all through my body, and was very nervous and blue. I think I used a dozen different kinds of medicines, some prescribed by the doctor and some recommended by friends, but one bottle of Vegetable Compound was worth more to me than all the other medicines put together. My general health began to improve as soon as I began to use the Compound, and in three weeks I was a perfectly well woman."

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacements or ulceration, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the female organs, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember, there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles. No other medicine in the world has received this widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse to buy any substitute.

FREE ADVICE TO WOMEN

Remember, every woman is cordially invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about her symptoms she does not understand. Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely and cheerfully given to every ailing woman who asks for it. Her advice and medicine have restored to health innumerable women. Address, Lynn, Mass.

NARROWLY MISSED THE ILL-FATED TRAIN

Mr. H. J. Booth, Diptor of Zephra Presentation, as a Few Seconds.

Mr. H. J. Booth of Boston, under whose direction the Zephra was presented here a short time ago, arrived in the city to-day. Mr. Booth had a very narrow escape from being in the disastrous Guelph railway wreck yesterday. His plans were made to go through from Toronto on the [illegible] train just in time to see the ill-fated train pull out.

He then said to come to Peterborough.

Some new wrinkles in shop-keeping caught his eye which were worth noting and may be utilized.

PROPOSE CELEBRATION FOR CIVIC HOLIDAY THIS YEAR

cases, be impossible tot ake the trips they otherwise would, because in the case of the Niagara Falls trip, which has been one of the most popular in the past it is impossible to go there and back in one day, and spend any time there unless a special train is run, and the same thing applies to several of the other trips which have been run in the past.

A majority of the fraternal societies in the city have made a practice of recouping their treasuries and providing their members and friends with a pleasant outing by running a Civic Holiday excursion, but in the future some other means will have to be found. One of the immediate results of the new order will no doubt be the popularizing of the water trips, and it is understood that the new steamer of the Otonabee Navigation Company has already been engaged for a Civic Holiday excursion down the river, and it will doubtless be largely patronized.

Another suggestion has been made. It is to the effect that since the fratrnal societies cannot run their excursions, they should join and give a celebration at home, and thus provide a day's pleasure for those who could not leave the city, and to whom the day would otherwise be somewhat of a dull one.

It is a number of years since Peterborough had a holiday celebration, and this is thought, by many to be an opportune time to begin to plan for holding one next Civic Holiday. Not only would the great majority of citizens remain in town for such a celebration, but it should be possible to attract a number from outside the city, in case a good programme of sports was given. A band tournament, which some years ago was a very popular form of celebration has been proposed, and the suggestion has been made by a prominent citizen that a meeting be called in the near future to consider the matter.

ORIENTAL OMNIBUS DAMAGED IN RUNAWAY

Caught on Gate Post as Team Was Entering Hotel Yard.

The Oriental 'bus was considerably damaged in a short runaway at noon to-day. It had just arrived at the hotel with a number of passengers from the noon trains, when the teams of grays attached got frightened and ran to the stable. Just before getting through the gate a tug broke and the big 'bus slewed against the gate post, breaking several windows, and badly breaking one of the front runners. Otherwise the damage was slight.

LOCAL SURVEYOR'S INTERESTING PAPER

Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald Addressed Annual Meeting of Association of Ontario Land Surveyors—An Interesting Session.

THE SURVEYORS SEND MEMORIAL.

Mr. J. W. Fitzgerald, surveyor, is in Toronto attending the annual meeting of the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors, and read a paper on Survey Work. The Globe in referring to the meeting, says:

It was decided by the Association of Ontario Land Surveyors at their fourteenth annual meeting yesterday to memorialize the Provincial and Dominion Governments. Representation will be made to Hon. Frank Cochrane, Minister of Lands, Forests and Mines, that the price now paid by the Government of ten cents per acre to surveyors for sub-dividing, is not nearly enough under present conditions, and is not as remunerative as was seven cents fifteen years ago. Surveyors who have to line out townships, pay much more now for assistance, etc., than they did a few years ago, it is claimed.

The other memorial will be to the Dominion Government to the effect that the association urges a trigonometric survey of Canada should be made; that is greatly needed and would be of the first importance in the preparation of accurate maps of the Dominion. In this connection the Ontario Government will be asked to memorialize the Dominion authorities to undertake this national work, so that the provinces may utilize it for their provincial, muniepal and other surveys.

These resolutions were the outgrowth of a report made by Dr. Otto Klotz, president of the organization, on topographical survey, and of a paper by Mr. Fitzgerald of Peterborough, on survey work.

Dyspepsia Is Often Caused By Catarrh of the Stomach—Peruna Relieves Catarrh of the Stomach and Is Therefore a Remedy For Dyspepsia.

Hon. M. C. Butler, Ex-U. S. Senator from South Carolina for two terms, in a letter from Washington, D. C., writes to the Peruna Medicine Co., as follows:

"I can recommend Peruna for dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I have been using your medicine for a short period and I feel very much relieved. It is indeed a wonderful medicine, besides a good tonic."

CATARRH of the stomach is the correct name for most cases of dyspepsia. In order to cure catarrh of the stomach the catarrh must be eradicated. Only an internal catarrh remedy, such as Peruna, is available. Peruna exactly meets the indications.

STEREOPTICON VIEWS AT DOWNER'S CORNERS

An Excellent Programme Presented by Mr. Herbert Peters—Coleman Brothers Present.

An excellent programme was presented at the Orange Hall, Downer's Corners, last night, by Mr. Herbert Peters, the moving picture man. Besides the realistic stereopticon views thrown on the canvas, there was a number of musical contributions, which delighted the audience.

The Coleman brothers of Peterborough were present and rendered some comic songs, which were much appreciated. Mr. Hicks of Otonabee, also contributed a number of gramaphone selections of a pleasing character.

In fact the good programme provided warranted a much larger audience than that which assembled.

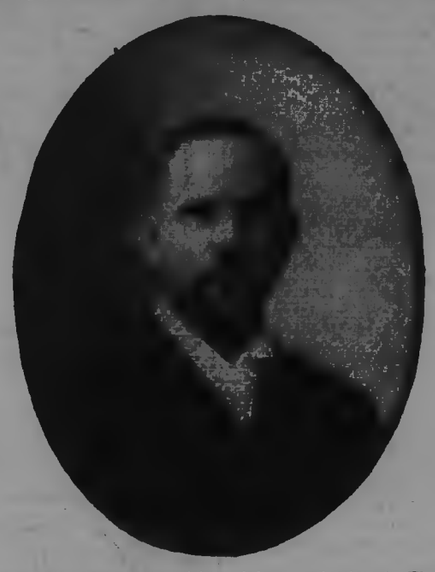
PROFITABLE NIGHT SPENT IN THE SKIES

Rev. Dr. Marsh Delighted Large Audience by His First Talk on Astronomy in Peterborough.

SUN AND PLANETS EXPOSED TO VIEW

More than half a thousand of Peterborough's citizens assembled in the Charlotte Street Methodist Sunday School room last evening to listen to a brilliant lecture, splendidly delivered by Rev. Dr. Marsh, Presbyterian minister at Springville, on "A Night in the Skies." It is but very seldom that a Peterborough audience is so fortunate as to have an opportunity to hear a talk on the subject of astronomy—the greatest of all the sciences—and when that opportunity was afforded they responded to tax the capacity of the Charlotte Street Sunday School room. The lecture was arranged by the Charlotte Street Young Men's Guild, who certainly deserve praise for their successful undertaking. Dr. Marsh, in addition to being a well-known Presbyterian divine, is also one of the best known astronomers in the Dominion. His deep knowledge and familiarity with the sun, the planets and the stars, and the ingenious faculty he possesses in making clear his statements, and the tendency to transport the voluntary mind into the regions beyond the earth. In that imaginary journey, conducted by the reverend doctor, the mind travelled over the surface of the moon, the various planets and the stars, and looked upon the fiery face of the sun. There, the marks of time were witnessed, which we below never dreamed of. Photographs were displayed upon the canvas of the heavenly bodies bearing testimony to the changes brought about by the ages of the past.



Rev. Dr. Marsh, who lectured last night on "A Night In The Skies"

The Oldest Science

The speaker dwelt chiefly upon the moon and sun, with their changes, eclipses and surfaces, giving facts and figures substantiated by eminent authorities, as well as by his own personal observations. His address was delightfully interspersed with humour, making a pleasing contrast to the instructive and much appreciated address.

By way of introduction, Dr. Marsh explained the course of his address, and touched upon the character of the study of astronomy as a whole. Astronomy, he said, was the oldest and most exact of the sciences, and it was the one most used in everyday life. Yet it was a science of which the great masses of the people knew but little.

Eclipse Of Moon

In the initial stages of the lecture, he showed views of the earth, explained its motions and its relation to the various other planets, and then passed on to the other bodies. The eclipses of the moon were shown and described. The penumbra and the umbra—the partial and total shadows—were plainly visible upon the canvas. The introduction of all the planets on the screen was an interesting part of the programme. Mercury, Mars, Juniper, Saturn, Uranus, Neptune, and the Earth, accompanied by their satellites, were all commented upon by the speaker, who gave their relative sizes and distances from the solar body around which they revolve.

Mars Not Inhabited

The opinion entertained by many that the planet Mars is inhabited, was questioned by Dr. Marsh. No astronomer of note, he said, would now make the statement that, in that respect, it was similar to our earth. However, from the best observations by men of science, it has been demonstrated that the conditions existing upon the distant planet are somewhat like those of our own. The fact that it is surrounded by an atmosphere is verified. Seasons come and go, but they are twice as lengthy as ours. Juniper, from its intense inherent light and heat, could not possibly be inhabited.

The Moon's Surface

Many excellent photographs of the surface of our satellite were displayed. The mountain ranges, the river channels, the sea beds, the craters of the volcanoes, were all distinctly shown. There is a mountain on the moon 27,000 feet high, a crater of a volcano 1700 feet deep, and scores of miles in width.

In connection with the sun, the speaker showed drawings of the hydrogen flames which are constantly shooting off from that great source of light and heat. Those flames, he termed "the grandest sight one could wish to see," and also displayed on the canvas, photographs of sun spots, due to the explosion of gases.

The Stars

The reverend doctor concluded his lecture by reference to a few of the constellations. The "Ursa Minor" and "Andromeda" were presented on the screen, and last, but not least, the giant, "Orion," which is considered the finest constellation visible in the heavens. He explained that it took light, travelling at the rate of 186,000 miles per second, 10,000 years to come from the latter named constellation, so great was its distance from the earth.

These are but a few of the many interesting statements made last night by the speaker, who more than satisfied his intelligent audience, and it is quite safe to predict that he will, in the near future, be called upon by other city organizations to duplicate his "Night in the Skies."

The meeting last night was presided over by His Worship the Mayor, who introduced the speaker, and the two soloists, who assisted in the programme. After devotional exercises, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Manning, Miss Carrie Reesor sang delightfully, by request, the solo, "Sunshine and Rain." Mr. Duncan Campbell also contributed a solo, "Island of Dreams," in splendid voice, which was warmly appreciated.

Before closing, a vote of thanks was tendered on motion of Rev. J. G. Potter and Mr. R. J. Kidd, to Rev. Dr. Marsh.

TWO DRUNKS APPEARED AT THE POLICE COURT

Found Last Night and Taken to the Police Station—Disposed Off This Morning.

Two drunks faced Magistrate Dumble this morning. Despite the cold weather the drunks are still drinking, and the policemen are still jailing them, and the world goes on just the same. One of them was found this morning on London street at 3 o'clock, helplessly intoxicated. He fined the usual two dollars.

John Williams came down from Lindsay yesterday to celebrate the anniversary of the day on which he first saw light. He drank one or two "fingers" too many, with the above-mentioned result. He was asked to get out of town as soon as possible and promised to do so. He started out with about ten cents in his pocket to return to Lindsay.

A RELIABLE MEDICINE

A Reporter Interviews Our Local Druggists, McDermid & Jury.

The Interview of Interest to Every Person in Peterborough.

So many patent medicines and advertised cures are now offered to the public that our readers should be glad to know the opinion of a man who has spent years in handling them, and profit by his advice.

Said Mr. McDermid of the above firm, "After having sold drugs and all kinds and makes of medicines for for so many years, naturally we have learned something about them, their value and power to cure.

"There is no one medicine that will cure everything, but this I do know, that if the people of Peterborough only realized the wonderful curative and strength-creating power of Vinol, we would not have clerks enough in our store to put up the orders for it."

Continuing Mr. McDermid said: — "You see Vinol is not a patent medicine, and it actually does contain everyone of the fifty odd medicinal curatives taken from fresh cods' livers, with other vitalizing ingredients. It contains no poisonous drugs or nauseating oils, and you know just what you are taking. Vinol has wonderful life-giving properties; it tones up and invigorates every organ of the body to do its work, and we know it will make rich, red blood, build up the depleted system and create strength.

"When I tell you that we have never sold in our store such a valuable remedy as Vinol, for the following ailments, and that if it fails to accomplish what we say it will, we will refund your money, it will show our faith in its wonderful curative and vitalizing powers.

"It will build up run-down, tired, debilitated people. It will make the weak and sickly strong and well. It will make flesh for thin people. It will increase the appetite. It will cure nervousness, irritability and sleeplessness. It will cure stomach troubles, dyspepsia and indigestion. It will make rich, red blood. It will make puny, weak, ailing children strong and robust. It is the greatest strengthener and body-builder in the world for old people. It is a great strengthener for weak women. It is a boon to nursing mothers. It will positively cure chronic coughs and colds. It will cure bronchitis. It makes weak lungs strong and is of untold value in consumption and all wasting diseases. For the convalescent it has no equal as a strength maker.

"I cannot make a stronger statement and can only ask such people in Peterborough to try Vinol on our guarantee." McDermid & Jury, druggists. Vinol is also sold at the Market Drug Store, the Ormond & Walsh old stand.

MOUNT CLEMENS, MICHIGAN.

Mount Clemens is famous throughout America, as an all-the-year-round health resort, and thousands of people testify to the benefits derived from its mineral waters in cases of rheumatism and kindred diseases. For bilious and liver troubles, digestive troubles, nervous disorders, general debility, etc., the efficacy of its waters is wonderful. Seventy-five per cent. of rheumatics are cured, and ninety per cent. benefitted. Write to J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Grand Trunk Railway System, Toronto, for handsome descriptive booklet, telling you all about it. 2d48

FAREWELL BANQUET GIVEN TO FELLOW WORKMAN

Mr. Alex. McDonald, of the Tool Department of the C. G. E., Was Given Rousing Farewell Reception at Long's Parlours.

TWENTY-FIVE TOOL MAKERS PRESENT

At an informal banquet held last night in Long's palm parlours, the tool-makers of the C.G.E., met to say farewell to one of their number, Mr. A. McDonald, who has severed his connection with the local firm and will in a short time leave for Detroit. About twenty-five of the men gathered around the festive board, which was spread as only Mine Host Hooper knows how. The tool-makers did full justice to the dainty repast and afterwards enjoyed themselves in song and story.

Mr. Charles Cookson acted as the toastmaster and an impromptu list of toasts was honoured. He first proposed the health of the King, in a neat speech.

Mr. N. Greenhaugh replied speaking in eulogistic terms of our Sovereign, King Edward VII., and the qualities which have made him beloved by his people. Mr. Leonard Patterson favoured the gathering with a comic song and was recalled.

Mr. George McDonald proposed the toast of the Department, which was responded to by several of the men. Mr. Charles Delaney sang two songs in a splendid manner, after which Mr. R. Marston proposed the health of the guest, Mr. McDonald. He spoke of the good fellowship and friendliness that existed in the department and of Mr. McDonald's uprightness and kindness which he showed to his fellow workmen. He wished him success in his new field, adn then started the old time song, "For he's a jolly good fellow."

Mr. McDonald made an appropriate reply, thanking his friends, and said that he would always remember the jolly fellows in the tool making department in the Peterborough shop. The last toast was to the ladies, which received general and varied treatment.

The farewell banquet was a great success. Messrs. Delaney, Greenhaugh, Patterson, Creedon, provided musical parts individually and in chorus. Mr. Wessendorff sang a song in German in a creditable manner. The programme was an impromptu one, but was enjoyed by everyone present.

KNOCKOUT BLOW TO THE JAW INJURES A BOY

Cecil Hayes Had to be Conveyed to His Home as a Result of Youthful Battle.

Knockout blows are not merely the spectacular events of the prize ring. In a boyish squabble with a schoolmate, named Willie Phelan, Cecil Hayes received a blow in the jaw which fractured that member and required medical attendance. It was just the same as all other boy fights, but resulted a little more disastrously for both of them.

THE FIRST BREATH OF SPRING - TIME

With it Comes a Complete Transformation Scene in Our Suit and Cloak Section

HANDSOME TAILORED WAISTS FOR EASTER:—We are justly proud of our beautiful and elaborate showing of new Spring Shirt Waists. Almost every known material is represented, such as sheer muslins, linens, mousseline-de-soie, point d'esprit, chiffon taffetas, taffeta silks, jap taffetas and plauen lace, etc.

TAILORED SUITS AND COATS:—The first word of Spring. It hints of pretty, new tailored effects. It brings costumes and frocks that you'll love and buy.

The fabrics of the Suits are the first charm, plaids, stripes, checks—all hinted; some few shepherd's checks are shown. Panamas, broadcloths, coverts, worsteds, and voiles, too, are the fabrics of some beauties among the suits.

The Coats are short, either semi-fitting affairs or pony jackets. But that's not quite a fair statement; for some snug-fitting coats are shown, too.

Among the demi-mode tailored Suits, preference is shown for the etons and "ponetas." Skirts are all plaited with inlaid treatment, braid trimming is used in abundance. Sleeves almost as you please. You forget the price when you see the real worthiness of material and tailored effect.

THE NEW SEPARATE SKIRTS:—Such tailored beauties would be hard to conceive even in a much larger fashion centre; plain and fancy worsteds, covert cloths, tweeds, granite cloths, voiles, plain and chiffon serges, Venetians, taffeta silks, etc., every one tailored to the highest point of excellence; priced by easy stages from $3.75 to $12.00.

All sorts of pretty conceits are worked into our Shirt Waists that make them perfect dreams of all that is lovely and catchy—prices range from $1.50 up to $10.00

P.S.:—The new Spring Dress Goods are fast piling up and such pretty and attractive materials were never before seen in this district. We cordially invite you to feast your eyes on the new things whether you buy or not.

Dissertation On Bridge Whist.

BY MR. BARTON EARLE.

NO. III.

I have stood near the brow of the precipice at Niagara, and watched the "Hell of waters" rushing and tumbling from ledge to ledge, as if preparing for the mad plunge into the gulf below, until the great river seemed endowed with life, and an evil personality. I have even felt it necessary to step farther back from the edge of the cliff, lest I be irresistibly drawn to its malignant bosom, and could easily understand that many of the suicides, for which the place is notorious, may have been entirely involuntary. such is the monster Speculation, whose name is a euphemism for Gambling, the offspring of Selfishness, who with relentless force is dragging mankind down to a more awful perdition. The contest is one between man's lower nature and his higher; between envy, hatred, malice, and all uncharitableness, and the gentle spirit of love; between the spirit of the World and the spirit of the Christ. True, though the outcome may seem doubtful, the result is certain. Divine Love must triumph; but it is not yet. What crimes must yet be committed! What rivers of blood and tears must yet flow! And, can nothing be done to mitigate the horrors of the reign of Greed, and hasten the ushering in of the rule of Love? Can the women do nothing? Or, will they, carried away by their insane desire for pleasure and excitement, continue to fight against gentle but omnipotent Love, and intensify and lengthen out the sufferings of humanity? Is Bridge Whist of more importance to them than their own salvation and the salvation of their brothers and sister.

The Effects Upon Women

I know that it will be urged that I am treating this matter too seriously, and exaggerating the effects of the evil. So far I have spoken in general terms only; but let me assure my critics that specific cases are not wanting. I have learned, on good authority, and my knowledge of human nature makes it quite easy for me to believe it true, that cases have been known, not in Peterborough, where women, not, by any means, of the poorer classes, have got drunk and fought over their play. Even in Peterborough most heinously conduct has been witnessed. Only this morning, I was told of a case in whist one of the players threw the cards, with anger, into her opponent's face. I can believe these things because they are the natural outcome of the gaming table. Such conduct is found among men, and it is but reasonable to expect it among women. And, just here, I may say that, not infrequently, angry and coarse words, and gamblers' slang, are heard, in the presence of children, from lips more fitted for the kisses of love, or gentle words to sooth the sick and the sorrowing. Some men who read this will say that gentlemen do not cheat, or get drunk, or fight, or throw cards into each other's faces. I might retort by saying that gentlemen are not gamblers.

Women's Duty Made Plain

But I undertook this very nauseous part of the subject with reluctance, and leave it with pleasure. We live in an age pregnant with great events. Mighty changes are casting their shadows before, and old systems are trembling to their foundations. The events of a decade surpass in number and magnitude those of a century during earlier times. The race for wealth is becoming more and more intense, and the struggle for existence harder and harder. Men run to and fro, and knowledge is increasing. The people are rapidly coming to understand their rights and their power. The volcanic fires are still smouldering; but an occasional outbreak serves to show that a mighty upheaval may take place at any time, and cannot, under present conditions, be long delayed. How, and by whom, shall modern civilization be saved, if saved it is to be, from the fierce conflagration which must follow? The agents of destruction, maddened by centuries of injustice, will be so intent on their wrongs and their work of destroying that they will take little thought of the consequences of their acts. The high-born, the rich, and the powerful among the men, in their eager race for honours, wealth, and position, will remain, in their cruel and insensate pride, blind to all the signs of the times. Whence, then, is help to come? I answer, from women, and, chiefly, from the good and pure women of the classes. Society will not be saved from below. Its salvation must come, if it is to come, from the upper strata.

The Way Indicated

Let these women come down to their poor and fallen sisters; let them show by their acts that they have a real faith in a common sisterhood; let them throw aside all patronizing airs, and avoid all appearance of condescension; let them meet their humble and fallen sisters frankly, face to face; let them put their arms around them, and compel them to believe that they love them; let them do all this and much more that their own better selves will suggest, and the threatened calamity will be averted, modern civilization will be saved and immeasurably advanced; and these saviours of society will have experienced the blessings of self-sacrifice. There are many thousands, yes, millions, let us hope, of noble women, in the world, who give freely of their time and substance for the relief and reformation of suffering and erring humanity. Nor are time and money the only, or the chief gifts. Many, let us hope most, if not all, of these, with others, less fortunately furnished with worldly goods, are not sparing of that which is more valuable, the sympathy of loving hearts.

Individual Effort

To those ministering angels among the women of the race, who have learned that there can be no real blessing without sacrifice, and to whom no thought of reward ever comes, we look for aid in this time of danger. I have said nothing, in these articles, about the Churches, partly because I know little of what is being done by them for the uplifting of the masses; partly, because it would be presumptuous in a layman to attempt to instruct the clergy in their duty; partly, because, in this work, I believe in individual, rather than in organized, effort; and partly, because, for this particular sphere, of labour, the laity, and, especially, the women of the laity, are better fitted than the clergy. I believe less in the efficacy of preaching than in the all-prevailing power of love. I know little of Theology, and have no intention of expressing an opinion on the subject; but I do know something of the religion of humanity, and hold very decided views in regard to it. Every thoughtful man must see that "the times are out of joint," and, if he takes a serious view of life, he cannot fail to concern himself with the question as to how they are to be set right. Many solutions are being proposed: I have given mine.

Value of Small Things

I am not so vain and weak as to think that anything I can say will, seriously, affect social customs. My reading and thinking, especially of late years, have tended to convince me that men do not learn from without, but from within; that knowledge is the result of a development which is aided by that force in the universe "which maketh for righteousness;" and that no knowledge can be of much value which is not the result of experience. Man, after all, can do but little to aid his brother; but that little may be just what is necessary to help him to overcome an unusual difficulty, or to start him on a better course and hasten his development. A mere suggestion may be of value, if it meets with a response from within. If we knew Hamlet's stops and keys, we could play on him without making discords; but, always, we must remember that the music is within himself. One thing let us never forget. Our brother will ever stand in need of our warmest sympathy. It is not possible, nor yet desirable, to smooth away all the difficulties of his upward path; but it is good to walk by his side and be mutually encouraged. It is well that the way is steep and rugged. They are blessed, indeed, who come up through great tribulations.

I have now finished what I set out to do. I trust that I have not been moved to write these articles by unworthy motives. I have honestly tried to "nothing extenuate, or set down aught in malice." If I have done no good to others, I have, at least, done some to myself. I know there is no creature in the universe of God whose happiness I would not gladly increase; but for that I take to myself no credit, believing, as I do most firmly that the All-Father is love, and that to love and be loved is the inclination and longing of all hearts.

MEETING OF THE LADIES' LITERARY SOCIETY

Of the T. A. S. on Friday Night—New Seats Have Been Made and Will be Used That Night.

Twenty-four new 9 foot benches are being made for the T. A. S. rooms to replace the old padded ones which have served their purpose. The new ones are similar to the old unpadded ones and are very good seats for the purpose required, being more comfortable than the ordinary chairs and are capable of seating more people. The most of them will be ready for Friday evening, March 1st, when Miss Tangney will read a paper on "Famous English Poets." A musical programme will also be presented. This will be the regular meeting of the Ladies Literary Society of the T.A.S.

OLD AGE

Comes to Everyone, But its Visits May Be Postponed

Old age is not a question of years. Some men are old at forty, others are young at sixty.

It's a mighty hard proposition to look young, no matter how young you feel, if your hair is falling out and your head becoming bald.

Perhaps you are tired trying ineffectual remedies for this evil.

We don't blame you if you are.

Why not try an effective one for a change.

Newbro's Herpicide kills the Dandruff germ—which is the cause of the whole trouble.

SIGNALLING CLASS FOR THE 57TH REGT. OFFICERS

Commanding Officer To-day Announces Organization of This Class to be Conducted During March.

Orders issued to-day by Lt.-Col. Miller, commanding the 57th Regiment, announce the organization of a signalling class for the month of March, open to officers and non-commissioned officers of the regiment. The orders are as follows:

Headquarters,
Peterborough, Feb. 27th.

Orders by Lt.-Col. J. W. Miller, Commanding the 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers:

By authority of the Militia Department a class will be organized in Peterborough, during the month of March, 1907, for the purpose of receiving instruction in signalling. The class will be open to officers and non-commissioned officers of all branches of the service, and all who intend to take advantage of it will at once hand in their names to Lt.-Col. Miller, 338 George street, Peterborough.

By order,
D. WALKER,
Capt. and Adjt.

SERIES OF SPECIAL MEETINGS TO BE HELD

Quarterly Board of the George Street Church Met Last Night.

At a meeting of the Quarterly Board of the George Street Methodist Church, Mr. T. W. Robinson was appointed steward to fill the vacancy caused by the removal from the city of Mr. J. Jeffries. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Crothers stated that he proposed to hold a series of special meetings in the near future, and this was approved of by the members of the Board.

TRAIN WRECK NEAR GUELPH

Three Passengers Killed, and Forty Injured.

CAUSED BY BROKEN RAIL

Grand Trunk Railway Express Derailed At Trainer's Cut Near Guelph —Cars Were Thrown Over the Embankment In Rounding Sharp Curve—Injured Removed to City Hospital—The List.

Guelph, Feb. 27.—By the derailment of five cars of G. T. R. train No. 5 from Toronto, in Trainer's Cut, two miles east of this city, at 2.50 yesterday afternoon, three lives were lost and half a hundred passengers more or less injured. A broken rail is held accountable for the accident.

The spot where the derailment occurred is about two miles east of Guelph, where there is a steep embankment, 55 feet or more in height. A few hundred yards east of a point where a sharp incline takes the place of the almost sheer declivity and is known as Trainer's Cut.

Had the wreck left the tracks here it is probable that all the passengers would have escaped with a shaking up.

There is but a slight curve at the spot where the run-off happened, the rails inclining slightly to the north and then curving a trifle southward. When the engine reached the break the south rail immediately flattened out, one section or rail being projected about 50 yards to one side.

The coaches jolted along for a few yards until the north rail also spread, and after a stumbling course of about 60 yards along the ties the baggage coach, with two passenger coaches and parlor car, were wrenched away from the express car which clung to the tender, and were precipitated over the bank.

The Grand Trunk Railway issued the following official statement last night:

"At about 2.50 p. m., No. 5, engine 955, Engineer Thompson, Conductor Woods, two baggage cars, two coaches and parlor car left the track on the embankment near Trainer's Cut, two miles east of Guelph. The entire train, with the exception of the engine and tender, went down the embankment. Three passengers were killed, one seriously injured, and 39 slightly injured, the names of whom are given below. Derailment caused by a broken rail.

"Immediately on advice of accident a special train, conveying surgeons, was despatched from Guelph to the scene of the accident, followed by another special corp of physicians. In addition to this a special train of coaches was immediately despatched from Toronto to take care of the passengers; the injured were given prompt medical attention and removed to the hospital at Guelph, where everything was done for their comfort."

The Killed.

KILLED IN COLLISION.

Two Men Lose Their Lives In Train Smash at Brookfield.

Halifax, N. S., Feb. 27.—A head-on collision took place at Brookfield, 50 miles from here, on the I.C.R., last night, between the Boston express, from Montreal and No. 9 passenger train, which left here at 9 last night, bound west, as a result of which two men were killed outright and one fatally injured.

The Boston express, which was two hours late, should have waited at Brookfield to cross No. 9, but failed to do so.

The killed are: Fireman Luther Hill, Halifax; Samuel Keith, baggagemaster, Sussex, N. B., injured fatally, John J. Flavin, Halifax.

Passengers on both trains were uninjured.

Twenty Lives Lost.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 27.—Twenty negro passengers were drowned or burned to death and a dozen more are missing as the result of the burning of the steamer Marion at Hart's Landing, on Wadmalaw River, about 40 miles from Charleston, Friday. There were seven white passengers and about 50 negroes.

The great loss of life seemed to have been owing to the negroes having become terror-stricken and neglecting to get life-preservers, of which there were 350 on board.

CAR FALLS IN STREET.

Track Collapses and Six Persons Are Severely Injured.

New York, Feb. 27.—Several persons were injured by the collapse of a portion of the Third avenue Elevated Railroad track at Chatham square, in the lower east side yesterday.

One end of the rear car of a train which was passing over the collapsed section fell into the street. The other end of the car hung to a part of the track, which did not fall. The car was almost on end.

Six passengers in this car were injured.

FROZEN TO DEATH.

Aged Woman Found on Vacant Lot, Covered With Ice.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—The body of a woman that has not yet been identified was discovered yesterday on a vacant lot owned by the C. P. R.. She was covered with snow and practically frozen into it. Her clothing was disarranged and near her were two empty whiskey flasks. She was about 60 years old, wore a black velvet hat, black short coat, black skirt and a red handkerchief around her neck. The body was taken to the morgue.

Mr. Preston Holds Seat.

Toronto, Feb. 27.—The Court of Appeal decided the Rainy River election case yesterday, dismissing H. W. Kennedy's appeal from the judgment of Justices Anglin and Teetsel, giving the Conservative member, W. A. Preston, the seat.

Justice Clute stated that it appeared a rather startling proposition that upon scrutiny an alien who has voted can be struck from the list of votes cast. He, however, refers to the object of the voters' list to settle in a cheap and satisfactory way the list of those entitled to vote, to avoid the ruinous expense formerly incurred in a scrutiny.

Kills His Benefactor.

New York, Feb. 27.—Thomas Noonan, a factory watchman, was arrested yesterday, charged with shooting his benefactor and best friend. His victim was Philip McNally, night engineer in the factory where Noonan was employed. Noonan admits the killing, but declares that he acted in self-defense.

SCORED ANOTHER WONDERFUL VICTORY

One More Added to the Long List of Cures Effected by Psychine.

This young lady, who lives in Brownsville, near Woodstock, Ont., tells her own story in a few effective words of how she obtained deliverance from the terrible grip of weakness and disease.

I have to thank Psychine for my present health. Two years ago I was going into a decline. I could hardly drag myself across the floor. I could not keep the carpet.

If I went for a drive I had to lie down when I came back. If I went for a mile on two on my wheel I was too weak to lift it through the gateway, and last time I came in from having a spin I dropped utterly helpless from fatigue. My mother would give me no peace until I procured Psychine, knowing it was excellent for decline or weakness. I must say the results are wonderful, and people remarked my improvement. Instead of a little, pale, hollow cheeked, listless, melancholy girl, I am to-day full of life, ready for a sleigh-ride, a skating match, or an evening party with anyone, and a few months ago I could not struggle to church, 50 roads from my home. I have never had the slightest cause to fear any return of the disease.

ELLA MURIEL WOOD.
Brownsville, Ont.

Thousands of women are using PSYCHINE, because they know from experience that in it they have a safe friend and deliverer. Psychine is a wonderful tonic, purifying the blood, driving out disease germs, gives a ravenous appetite, aids digestion and assimilation of food, and is a positive and absolute cure for disease of throat, chest, lungs, stomach and other organs. It quickly builds up the entire system, making sick people well and weak people strong.

FELL DOWN FLIGHT OF STEPS

Proved Zam-Buk Best in Three Different Emergencies.

One of the most valuable points about Zam-Buk, the herbal balm, is the variety of uses to which it can be applied.

Mrs. A. Livernois, of 131 Sydenham street, Toronto, says: "I have used Zam-Buk for colds on the chest and found when rubbed well in it gave almost instant relief to the "tightness" and "stiffness." One day I slipped when descending the stairs and fell to the bottom. My right arm was terribly discoloured and swollen and became quite stiff. As I still had a supply of Zam-Buk I rubbed some on the bruised limb and it was really surprising how quickly it removed the discolouration, cured the stiffness, and restored the arm to its proper form. Since that time I have had occasion to use Zam-Buk for rheumatism, and I have found it equally good."

Zam-Buk is so uniformly good because it is composed of the finest herbal balms, essences, and juices, known to medical science, compounded and refined in a special and peculiar way. It has such high germ-killing power that it is unequalled as an antiseptic. Its healing virtue is very great and as a household balm Zam-Buk is absolutely unique. It is a sure cure for eczema, itch, blood poison, ulcers, chronic sores, ringworm, children's rashes, spots, etc. It also cures cuts, burns, bruises, chapped hands, enlarged veins, piles and all diseased or injured conditions of the skin and subjacent tissues. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. a box, or post free from the Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 6 boxes sent for $2.50. Send one cent for dainty trial box.

TRIAL NEARLY OVER.

Mrs. Thaw's Ordeal Finished—Asked to Identify Her Diary — Alleged to Have Said Thaw Thrashed Her.

New York, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's long ordeal upon the witness stand at the trial of her husband for the alleged murder of Stanford White came to an end yesterday, when Mr. Jerome finished his cross-examination. The re-direct and re-cross-examinations yesterday afternoon were of the briefest character and just prior to adjournment it was announced that the district attorney will begin his cross-examination of Dr. Britton D. Evans, one of the alienists for the defence.

Said Thaw Beat Her.

The completion of Mrs. Thaw's examination followed an unsuccessful effort of the prosecution to draw from Abraham Hummel certain facts relating to the affidavit which Mrs. Thaw is said to have made in Hummel's law office. In this affidavit it is declared there was an allegation that Thaw had beaten the girl while abroad in 1903, while she told him there was no truth in the story about her relations with Stanford White.

Mr. Delmas, counsel for the defence, blocked practically every question put to Hummel. The witness got no farther than saying he knew Mrs. Thaw; that she came to his office Oct. 27, 1903, and that he dictated to a stenographer while she was there. Justice Fitzgerald held that, under the rules of evidence covering Mrs. Thaw's testimony the introduction of collateral facts was not permissible.

Jerome Handicapped.

Mr. Jerome said in open court that he realized that even if he could show Stanford White was in Europe the night Mrs. Thaw declares she was assaulted by him, he would not be allowed to introduce it as evidence.

It was reported that Mr. Jerome has much testimony to offer in rebuttal, but as it is nearly all of collateral character he will not be allowed to place it before the jury.

Mr. Jerome introduced in evidence her schoolgirl diary, and read certain extracts from it.

The Final Question.

Replying to a question, Mrs. Thaw said she had several times noticed signs of irrationality about Thaw. One night in a Broadway cab they passed White, and Thaw "had a fit," sobbing, crying, biting his nails and talking rapidly. The next time they saw White in a theatre, Thaw again became affected similarly.

Thaw told her White and others persecuted him by circulating stories about "us," and having things put in the papers. White, he told her, kept him from being elected to the Knickerbocker Club. Mr. Jerome asked his last question:

"Did Thaw recollect having seen White after these outbursts?"

"Yes."

Always Went to Sunday School.

Pittsburg, Feb. 27.—Chas. Holman, Mrs. Thaw's brother, issued a statement last night stating that Evelyn attended Sunday school from the time she was 15 months old as long as her mother "had control of her," and saying:

"Her mother never left her daughter in care of any man at any time. The public has heard but one side of the story. They have no right to express an opinion. Furthermore, Mr. Jerome has no affidavit from Mrs. Holman."

Prosperity Drives Man Mad.

Chicago, Feb. 27.—A despatch from Kankakee, Ill., says: To an increase of wages, from $35 to $50 which he could not understand, is attributed the insanity of Philip Couture, a painter, who was adjudged insane yesterday.

The sections in the accompanying map marked solid black illustrate the magnificent location of the Company's properties.

Two full mining claims of forty acres each, titles to which are perfect.

Situated within one and one-half miles of Cobalt town, and lying one on each side of the Cleveland Cobalt Company's claims. Next east of the south claim is the famous Hudson Bay, and on the south-east corner is the Argentite, while again ten chains east is the Silver Queen, the large vein of which runs through the Lake George Company's claim.

EACH OF THE COMPANY'S PROPERTIES has a Lake, and from one of these the Company derives its name. The vein, which undoubtedly runs into the south claim, from Silver Queen, has been traced from the east boundary through Lake George and a forty-foot shaft sunk on it, and an 18-inch vein discovered, besides four other promising veins, in some of which native silver and cobalt were discovered.

There is no better opportunity for investing in Cobalt than in Lake George Company's shares, because the capital is small and only half is offered for sale, and the location is magnificent in its prospects.

Safest Medicine for Women's Complaints

Women certainly do neglect themselves. They work too hard—over-tax their strength—and then wonder why they suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex.

Most cases of female trouble start when the bowels become inactive—the kidneys strained—and the skin not cared for. Poisons, which should leave the system by these organs, are taken up by the blood and inflame the delicate female organs.

Fruit-a-tives
(FRUIT LIVER TABLETS.)

remove the CAUSE of these diseases. "Fruit-a-tives" sweeten the stomach—make the bowels move regularly every day—strengthen the kidneys—improve the action of the skin—and thus purify the blood.

"Fruit-a-tives" take away those distressing headaches, backaches and bearing-down pains, and make women well and strong. "Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices, intensified, with tonics and antiseptics added. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50. At all druggists—or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa. 116

DATE OF THE GREAT PRESS GAME IS ANNOUNCED

Review and Examiner to Meet on Thursday of Next Week.

MOST EXCITING GAME IS EXPECTED

That noise you hear is the sharpening of skates, in the Review blacksmith shop, for the big event of the hockey world, the game that is waited for with breathless anticipation by thousands of fans, the contest that affords more excitement than a runaway road-roller, and more hockey than a Stanley cup game. The great Examiner-Review match will be played on Thursday night of next week.

This will be agreeable news to many, to whom the hockey season would not be complete without this game. The labour of getting the Review to play the contest has been arduous. For months have the members of the Examiner team been endeavouring to arrange the game and it is with a feeling of triumphant satisfaction that the announcement is made. Before going any further, the Review team should be congratulated upon their crawfish abilities, as they have dodged the Examiner's challenge all season.

Arrangements have been made for the two teams to meet at the Brock street rink at 8 o'clock on Thursday of next week. An admission fee of ten cents will be charged to everyone, including ticket holders, and the proceeds will be devoted to the Children's Aid Society. The game will be over at nine o'clock, which will give the public an hour's skating after the contest.

Uncle Pike McRae, of the Review team, has an outfit in active training already in the alleyway, much to the delight of the small boys. They will have to move faster than they are doing to beat the Examiner seven, who are in great condition and ready to go the limit. There are some changes in the Review seven from the line-up that went down to inglorious defeat last season. They have with them the aid of a Crane to lift the cup this year, but from here the equipment does not look good enough. Strenuous efforts are being made to get Charlie Sawle to tear himself away from the field of municipal politics long enough to play the game. Several ringers from Toronto have been brought in recently but the Examiner team has ascertained that there is no danger of their setting fire to the ice.

Both teams are now in training. Oyster suppers, liquid refreshments, etc., are strictly barred, and interested parties are asked to govern themselves accordingly.

Write to Caretaker Thirnbeck Thanking Him for Good Ice Provided For Bonspiel.

The curlers have written to Mr. John Thirnbeck, caretaker of the Brock Street Rink, expressing their pleasure and satisfaction at the splendid ice furnished at that rink for the bonspiel. Mr. Matthews, on behalf of the curlers, wrote as follows:

"On behalf of the officers and members of the Peterborough Curling Club, I beg to thank you for the assistance given us in our recent bonspiel by preparing such good ice in Brock Street Rink. I assure you that your courtesy and efforts on our behalf assisted in no small measure in making the bonspiel the success which it was."

AVOID LUNG TROUBLE

Take one-half ounce Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure,) two ounces of Glycerine and eight ounces of good Whiskey. Shake well and take in teaspoonful doses every four hours. It is said to break up a cold in twenty-four hours, and cure any cough that is curable.

An eminent authority on lung trouble says if this simple and effective formula was known and generally used, throat, lung and bronchial affections would seldom reach an acute stage. Care should be used to select pure ingredients, and to avoid substitution it is best that they be purchased separately and mixed in your own home.

The Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure) should be purchased in the original half-ounce vials put up expressly for druggists to dispense. Each vial is securely sealed in a round wooden case, with engraved wrapper, with the name—Virgin Oil of Pine (Pure), prepared only by Leach Chemical Co., Windsor, Ont., plainly printed thereon. Only the cheaper Oils are sold in bulk, but these produce nausea, and never effect the desired results.

WELL KNOWN HOCKEY PLAYER WAS KILLED

Mr. Chas. Rankin, of Stratford, Killed in Wreck—Games Postponed.

The tragic death of Mr. Charles Rankin, of Stratford, removes one of the best known players and referees in the O.H.A., and the news of his demise will be received with deep regret all over the Province. As a result of his passing away, the Stratford games scheduled for this week have been postponed. The Globe says: Out of respect for the memory of Mr. Chas. Rankin, who was killed in yesterday's railway accident at Guelph, President Darrock, of the Ontario Hockey Association, last night, ordered the postponement of the senior and junior final matches for this week, Stratford being engaged in both series. Mr. Rankin was an officer and a former player of the Stratford Club, a valued and popular referee for the Association, and has two brothers playing on the teams engaged in the finals. He had been asked to act as referee of the intermediate game here to-night between the St. Georges and Collingwood, but was not able on Monday to say if he could come back for the game. "I'll be home to-morrow afternoon," he said, "and if I can get away I'll wire you." The message never came, for he never reached home.

The Stratford juniors were to have played in Lindsay to-night and at home on Saturday. The seniors were to play in Kingston on Friday. All three games will now be carried over to next week, the dates to be arranged by the O.H.A. sub-committee.

THE CHAMPIONSHIP WILL BE DECIDED

Charlotee Street and Strathconas Battle For the Honours.

Both the Charlotte street and Strathcona teams practised last night and are in the best of shape for the big game to-morrow night for the championship of the City League. The game will be one of the most hotly contested seen in the series this year, and indications point to a bumper crowd for the contest. Both teams are in great condition and it would take an expert fan to pick the winners. On form, there is nothing to choose between the two teams, their records for the season are about even and they will put up a great exhibition of hockey. Mr. Geo. Lynch will referee the contest, and also the second one, which is between the Auburns and Orphans. This should also be a splendid article of hockey, and altogether the fans will be given a very enjoyable evening's entertainment.

HOCKEY

There will be a great game at the Brock Street Rink next Tuesday, when teams representing Toronto and Ottawa will meet. It is expected that the game will be of the lightning variety.

* * * *

The Peterborough senior team will practice to-night at 7 o'clock. All players are requested to be on hand early.

* * * *

Weatherston the left wing of the Strathconas may be out of to-morrow night's City League game, as he was hurt last night in practice.

* * * *

The Grafters' Hockey Club team hereby challenge any of the following teams to a game of hockey to be played at the Brock Street Rink any night the latter can secure the rink: Y.M.C.A. Ackerman's, Turnbull's, Richard Hall's, Cressman's. Answer in Thursday or Friday's paper. City League players barred.

* * * *

The Independent juvenile hockey team will probably meet a Lakefield Grove School team on Friday evening from 5 to 6 o'clock, at the Brock Street Rink.

* * * *

The Junior Independents and the Sovereigns played a tie game at Knox Church Rink last night, the score being two all at the end of a hotly contested game. Both teams showed up well and the match was a good exhibition. The Independents lined up as follows:

Goal—McDonald.
Point—W. Jackson.
Cover—Boswell.
Rover—Hilliard.
Centre—Carr.
Left—Rowail.
Right—Martin.
Referee—E. Lang.

* * * *

It is likely that Peterborough's case will be heard by the O.H.A. to-night. At least, this is the expectation of the local team. In view of the postponement of the Stratford-Kingston game, Peterborough might be ordered to play a sudden death game with Kingston.

PRESIDENT LEADS IN CURLING CONTEST

Only Four Points Ahead—Games Will Continue To-night and Will Conclude To-morrow.

The first night of the President vs. Vice-President curling series of games ended in a defeat for the latter by the small margin of four points. The games were all hotly contested, and although some of the scores are one-sided, the losers put up a hot fight. The ice was in the best of condition, a necessary requisite for scientific curling.

The series will be continued to-night and completed to-morrow night, after which a smoker will be held in the club rooms at the rink. The following were last night's rinks and scores:

President		Vice-President
W Savigny		G Maitland
R N Merritt		S Sharpe

CURLING

The Peterborough-Lindsay trophy games, as announced yesterday, will be played next week. These games have now been in progress ever since 1889, and have been among the most interesting of the season. For ten years during that period there were no contests, and in that time Lindsay held the silverware.

METER BRANCH OF A MONTREAL FIRM

Pre-payment Meter Company Enters Into Agreement With Allis Chalmers-Bullock Co.—Latter Takes Product.

WILL ENLARGE THE FACTORY AT ONCE

In future the factory of the Peterborough Pre-Payment Meter Company will be operated, practically as a branch of the Allis Chalmers-Bullock Company, of Montreal, an agreement having been entered into between the two companies by which the latter will take the entire output of the works here and sell the meters in connection with their electrical supply business.

At a meeting of the directors of the local company held last night, the President and Secretary were authorized to sign this agreement for the company, and, commencing on March 1st, the new arrangement goes into effect.

The matter has been under advisement for some time, and an agreement has at last been reached which, it is believed will work out to the decided advantage of the local concern. A sure market is assured for the whole output of the factory and there is no trouble with the selling end of the business.

The Montreal concern before entering into the agreement tested thoroughly the recording and pre-pay meters made by the local company and the result of these tests was so satisfactory that a desire was expressed that an arrangement along the lines indicated should be entered into, which has now been done.

The same works management will continue in charge here. Mr. Collier will manage the factory as he has done in the past and Mr. A. B. Cunningham will be the mechanical superintendent, a position which, since the inception of the company's operations he has filled satisfactorily. The present output of the factory is 30 meters a day, but it is considered probable that during the present year a new building, providing for increased output will be erected, the aim being to increase the output to fifty meters per day.

It appears that in the past, when contracting for an electrical equipment the Allis Chalmers-Bullock Company has had to buy its meters from either the Canadian General Electric Company or the Westinghouse Company, both opposition firms, and the desirability of being able to secure the meters independently was felt, and the solution reached by this present arrangement with the local company.

It is considered probable that this is but the thin end of the wedge so far as the eastern concern is concerned, and that in the near future other articles will be manufactured in Peterborough for them. Indeed, one of the men prominent in the affairs of the Meter Company, stated to the Examiner to-day that he would not be surprised if the Allis Chalmers-Bullock Company should in the near future, be employing five hundred hands in Peterborough, either directly or indirectly, making goods for them.

The Pre-Payment Meter Company is a comparatively new concern, having been in operation only a short time, and, that it has met with such success in the exploitation of the meter is a matter for general congratulation on the part of the citizens of Peterborough. It is a purely local concern, the officers and directors being:—

President—Mr. Wm. Hamilton.
Vice-President—Mr. J. H. Larmonth.
Managing Director—Mr. A. Parker.
Secretary-Treasurer — Mr. A. A. Hollingshead.
Director—Mr. J. H. McClellan.

The new arrangement goes into effect on the first of next month.

A New Branch in the Work of This Organization Will be Formed in Toronto Shortly.

Toronto, Feb. 26.—In the near future there will be established in Toronto by the Salvation Army an anti-suicide bureau as a branch of the one now working in Philadelphia. Anti-suicide work is the latest in which the Army has engaged, and its purpose is to bring into consultation and succor if possible, any persons bent upon ending their own life.

Translation Announced

At high mass at St. Mary's church, Lindsay, last Sunday, Ven. Archdeacon Casey, announced the approaching departure of Rev. Father O'Sullivan, curate of St. Mary's, for the past five years, His Lordship Bishop O'Connor, having been pleased to appoint him to the Port Hope parish. Rev. Michael Lynch, rector of St. Mary's Port Hope, has reached the ripe age of 82 years, and will rest from his labours. The news of Rev. Father O'Sullivan's departure, will be received with deep regret by many who are not members of St. Mary's congregation. Lindsay Post.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

THE MOUNTAIN MAID

Another crowded house greeted the Marks Bros. Dramatic Company at the Grand last night, when the romantic comedy-drama, "The Mountain Maid" was presented to the satisfaction of every one. The work of the entire company was excellent throughout, especially that of Grace Marks, the clever little lady who played a juvenile part in splendid manner, while J. Nolan was happily cast as an Irish servant and supplied most of the comedy.

The specialties were new and high-class throughout and there were no dull moments.

The trapeze work of the Sours, brother and sister, was decidedly clever, while the illustrated songs, "Just a Little Rocking Chair and You," and "I'll be Waiting in the Gloaming Genevieve," made big hits, the audience joining in the choruses.

SOCIETY WAS FORMED FOR STUDYING ASTRONOMY

Rev. Dr. Marsh's Talk on "A Night in The Skies" Bears Fruit Already—About Thirty-five Members.

COMMITTEE TO MAKE ARRANGEMENTS

Seldom is there such interest shown in an address of any kind as there was in that of the Rev. Dr. Marsh, on Astronomy, at the Charlotte street Methodist Sunday school rooms last night. On practically the first introduction of the great science into Peterborough, an association was formed at the conclusion of last night's lecture, which will have as its motive the study of Astronomy, the president of which is Rev. Dr. Marsh.

About thirty-five remained after the evening's programme, and in a short time there was a Peterborough branch of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada formed, which for the present, at least, will be affiliated with the Toronto branch. The fee for becoming a member of the Society was placed at two dollars annually.

A committee was also appointed to look after the necessary equipments for an observatory, and it is expected that in a short time the Society will be in a position to begin their astronomical work.

The after meeting was accompanied by much enthusiasm, and already 35 names are on the membership roll. The following officers were elected:

President—Rev. Dr. Marsh.
Secretary—Dr. Neal.
Committee—Rev. J. G. Potter, D. Easson, William Pringle, Dr. McFall, Mayor McWilliams, Rev. H. M. Manning and S. W. Lowry.

Rheumatics all tell the same story about

Bu-Ju
The Gentle Kidney Pill

Do you live near Picton, Ont., or know anyone who does? Then find out for yourself how Mr. Mills feels about Bu-Ju. Is it any wonder he thinks Bu-Ju is a life-saver?

"I have used Bu-Ju with great benefit to myself, and cheerfully recommend it to all who are suffering from Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble. I think it is the best remedy made."
JAMES MILLS.

After you have tried Bu-Ju, seen how quickly it relieves the pain, and how completely it cures you of Rheumatism, you will gladly recommend Bu-Ju to your friends, just as Mrs. Kidd, of Young's Point, Ont., does:

"Have found Bu-Ju very beneficial for Rheumatism. They are certainly a blessing. My husband is also receiving great benefit from Bu-Ju. He has had great pain in the small of his back, but is so much better now."
MRS. A. C. KIDD.

Mr. J. H. Cairncross, of Toronto, urges everyone to give Bu-Ju a fair trial. In a signed statement he says, after telling how Bu-Ju cured him:

REGINA

You will make more money by buying lots in Regina City, than by any other source at the present time. It is no gamble, no chance, but an absolutely sure investment. Property will increase at least 100 per cent. in less than two years. Buy now. Prices will be advanced in the spring. Here are a few things that are making Regina grow and making property increase in value:—

REGINA, the wholesale and distributing centre for Saskatchewan and the west, $6,000,000.00 worth of farm machinery sold from Regina last year. Regina is the head-quarters for Saskatchewan of:—

The American-Abell Engine and Thresher Co.
Massey Harris Company.
Frost & Wood Company.
Fairchild Company.
Waterloo Manufacturing Company.
J. I. Case Threshing Machine Company.
Garr-Scott Threshing Machine Company.
The International Harvester Company.
The North-west Thresher Company.
The New Hamburg Manufacturing Company.
Reeves Thresher Company.
Nichols & Shepherd Thresher Company.
Sawyer-Massey Company.
Noliss Plow Company.
Canadian Port Huron Company.
Cockshutt Plow Company.

Besides the above there are a number of large eastern wholesale houses located in Regina. At the present time some eighteen more wholesale firms have secured sites in Regina to build on this year.

REGINA, the only railroad centre in Saskatchewan.

Besides the present roads which run north, south, east and west, there will be six more lines built into Regina during the next two years, being the Great Northern from the south, the Canadian Northern from the southeast, the C. P. R. north to Prince Albert, and three G. T. P. roads—one northeast, one east, one southwest.

The following is what Mr. Morse of the G. T. P. said in Regina on Aug. 6, 1906;

The Leader, Aug. 6, 1906.

FRANK MORSE IN REGINA

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President and General Manager of the G. T. P. Railway, spent a few hours in the city on Saturday morning, and had a short conference with Mayor McArs and W. G. Pettingel, President of the Board of Trade. Mr. Morse had no new statement to make for publication regarding the plans of the G. T. P. in and around Regina. He repeated what he had said when in Regina on May 16th last that his Company would get into Regina at the earliest possible date, as they realized there was a large business to be done here. He confirmed the statement, which was first published by The Leader, that in addition to a branch line to Regina, from the main line near Yorkton, and from Regina to the international boundary on the south, a branch would be run to Regina from Brandon.

"The construction of branch lines would be carried on simultaneously with the main line," said Mr. Morse.

REGINA leads all cities from Winnipeg to the Coast in building for 1906.

Capital of Saskatchewan ranks fifth among the metropolitan centres of Canada, being surpassed by Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver. Leads all the Dominion in relative growth. Building permits in 1906:

Regina—$1,982,330.
Edmonton—$1,863,894.
Calgary—$1,109,161.

No other city in Canada shows as high a percentage of growth as Regina. 1907 will beat all records. A large number of expensive buildings are being erected. Among others include:—Four new hotels, at a cost of over half a million; municipal hospital, $100,000; Y. M. C. A. at $100,000; Baptist Church, $50,000; Masonic Temple, at $75,000; Dominion Land Titles Office at $110,000; New Public School at $54,000, and many other business blocks and residences. Chief amongst all buildings will be the new Provincial Parliament Buildings, at a cost of at least $1,500,000.

Facts About Regina City

Regina is the Capital of the Province of Saskatchewan.
Regina is the only commercial centre of Saskatchewan.
Regina is the only railroad and distributing centre in Saskatchewan.
Regina has eight chartered banks and four more coming.
Regina tax rate for 1906 is only 15 mills.
Regina has the finest sewer and waterworks system in the West.
Regina is the only city west of Winnipeg with paved streets.
Regina has a surplus of assets of over a million and a half.
Regina's population has increased over 300 per cent. in three years.
All public utilities are owned and operated by the city.
Regina is in the heart of the best farming country in the West.

THE CONTRACT FOR SUPPLYING CEMENT WAS AWARDED

The Peterborough Hardware Company Tender Was Accepted by the Board of Works Committee.

STREET WATERING WAS CONSIDERED

The Board of Works Committee of the City Council held a 5 o'clock tea session yesterday afternoon, when the tenders for the city's supply of cement for the season were considered. It was decided to accept the tender of the Peterborough Hardware Co., whose figure, $1.91 per barrel, was the lowest received. This tender includes both storage and inspection of the cement. The amount required by the Board of Works Department is 5000 barrels.

The other tenders received included the Owen Sound Portland Cement Co., $1.97 per barrel; the Bellsville Portland Cement Co., at $1.85, which with the cost of storage and inspection would amount to $1.91 1-2; and the Lakefield Co., $1.91 without storage. After discussing the tenders, it was moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. Wilson, that the tender of the Peterborough Hardware Co. be accepted, and that an agreement be entered into with them on the usual terms.—Carried.

A communication was read from the Dickson Company, asking for sewer connection with their property on Waterford street, and suggesting that if that would not be possible, they be allowed to empty their sewage into the river.

On motion of Ald. Wilson, seconded by Ald. Johnston, the matter was referred to the Board of Health.

The question of street watering was the next taken up, and, on motion of Ald. Wilson, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, it was decided to have the following additional streets watered:

Brock street, from Bethune to Stewart streets.

Sherbrooke street, from Rubidge to Park streets.

Crescent street, from Lock to Haggart streets.

It was moved by Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. McIntyre, that the City Solicitor be instructed to prepare a bylaw to authorize the watering the streets in the same areas as last year, with the addition of those mentioned above, and to levy a rate of half a mill on the assessment value of the property in question.

Ald. Johnston moved, seconded by Ald. Wilson, that the request of Mr. Drake, for a temporary crossing on Lansdowne street, be granted, and that the Commissioner be instructed to go ahead with the work.

There were present, Ald. Duncan, in the chair; Ald. Johnston, Wilson and McIntyre, and Street Commissioner Evans.

A SOUTH END BAKERY BURNED DOWN

Mr. John Grady Suffered Heavy Loss in Early Morning Fire.

An early morning fire caused the total loss of Mr. John Grady's bakery this morning. The flames and smoke were first noticed about 5 o'clock, and the fire appeared to have had its origin inside the building, as the walls and roof partially remain, while the interior is completely gutted. The bakery was situated on Park street, a short distance south of Romaine street, and was a frame building.

An alarm brought down the fire brigade in quick time, and the flames were rapidly extinguished. The loss will be considerable. A motor, 25 bags of flour, and almost all the equipment of the shop were lost in the flames.

At 1 o'clock Mr. Grady was in the building, when everything appeared to be all right. The origin of the fire is unknown, nor has the loss been learned.

Mrs. Walker Is Slightly Improved This Morning; Child Buried There To-day

Latest Report From Scene of Wreck in Guelph—Little Boy Only Slightly Injured—Fear That Mrs. Walker May Have Blood Poisoning—Condition of Other Injured Persons.

Special C. P. R. Despatch to The Examiner.

Guelph, Feb. 28.—The condition of Mrs. Walker, of Peterborough, who was injured in the wreck on the G. T. R. train here, is slightly improved this morning, and if blood-poisoning does not set in, where she had the large oak sliver run in her arm, she will pull through all right.

Her little two-year-old daughter, who was killed, will be buried here this afternoon. The four-year-old boy is doing well, his injuries being slight. Mr. Walker was not on the wrecked train. The only other serious cases are Mrs. J. L. Doran, of Toronto, and Mrs. Waldon, of Acton, both of whom are still in a serious condition, Mrs. Doran's being the most critical case of the two. With the exception of James Ryan, of Guelph, who had half his foot amputated, the balance of the injured will soon be able to return to their homes.

Greatest Railway Strike In History Is Anticipated

Examiner Special.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 28. — Deadlocked on the question of hours and wages, with the managers of forty-nine railways, west, south-west and north-west of Chicago, the chiefs of the Trainmen's and Conductors' Brotherhoods, have authorized a strike order. The lines involved embrace 55 per cent. of the mileage in the United States and Canada. The Brotherhoods include 50,000 men and as many more will be affected in the event of a strike. If the men vote to walk out the greatest railway strike in the history of the country will be precipitated.

A Popular Young Man's Sudden Death Recorded

Mr. John A. McDonald Passed Away in Toronto General Hospital After Short Illness---One of the City's Best Products--Was Preparing for Medical Profession.

Among the younger portion of the community no death in recent years will be learned of with more genuine regret than that of the demise of Mr. John A. McDonald, which sad event took place in the Toronto General Hospital last night, after a short illness from typhoid fever. It was known here that he was ill, but no serious results were anticipated, in fact word was being received daily by his friends here to the effect that he was doing nicely, and hopes were entertained for his speedy and complete recovery. A young man possessing a strong constitution and a rugged frame, made so by his active participation in athletics, and living a clean life, it was thought that his illness would be of short duration, and, in view of this general belief the news of his death came with all the greater shock. A friend of his, who was in Toronto yesterday telephoned to the hospital during the day and was told in answer to an inquiry that Mr. McDonald was doing well.

Later in the day, however, he apparently became worse and a telegram was received in the evening by his mother informing her that his condition was serious and advising her to prepare for the worst. She, with her son-in-law, Mr. Cottingham, prepared to leave for Toronto on the first train this morning, but before they could get away another wire was received stating that Mr. McDonald had passed away during the night.

The deceased was a native of the township of Smith, and was a son of the late Neil McDonald. He lived in Smith during the early part of his life, and attended the Collegiate Institute in Peterborough, graduating here, and afterwards attended model school at Norwood. He taught school in Lakefield for a year and later attended McMaster University, taking his B.A. and M.A. degrees in that institution. He was also an associate professor at McMaster for a time. Following this he went to Chicago, taking his Ph. D. degree in the University of Chicago, and accepted a professorship in the University of Colorado at Denver, remaining there for a few years.

Deciding to enter upon the study of medicine he returned to Canada and commenced his medical course at the University of Toronto, and was taking his second year when his fatal illness laid him low.

Few young men in Peterborough were more popular or more universally respected than the late Mr. McDonald, and he well deserved this popularity. He was known as a young man who was straight in every enterprise in which he engaged—sport or business. During his residence in Peterborough he took part in sport and was one of the best rugby players Peterborough has ever turned out. He also played lacrosse and was a member of the old Athletic team. His tennis ability was also well recognized.

The late Mr. McDonald was twenty-nine years of age and is survived by his mother, who lives in Peterborough, and six sisters, Mrs. Alfred Smeaton, city; Mrs. J. H. Edmison, Smith; Mrs. Samuel Cottingham and Mrs. T. J. Stenton, of this city; Mrs. George Brumwell, of Lindsay, and Mrs. W. A. Lewis, of London. Another sister, Mrs. Westlake, died in this city a few days ago. The deceased was a member of the Baptist church, and when in the city was a regular attendant upon the services at the Murray street Baptist church.

Funeral on Saturday, March 2nd, at 2.30 p.m., from 430 Donegal street, the residence of Mrs. Cottingham, to Little Lake Cemetery.

Mysterious And Startling Scenes In Haunted Building

Youth Tells of Midnight Experience in Front of Unoccupied Storehouse in West End--Dazzling Light Rose and Fell Accompanied by Uncanny Sounds.

Not since the days when a ghostly apparition was witnessed by the occupants of a Bethune street residence, have any similar occurrences been reported in the city until the present time. Observations, startling and mysterious in their character, were made on Tuesday evening by a young man in a west end unoccupied building which are beyond his powers to explain and which will probably remain inexplicable. The story of the ghostly scene was related to an Examiner representative last evening by a well known youth who is employed in one of the prominent George street offices and who since his remarkable observations is now no sceptic so far as believing in the supernatural is concerned. The reporter met him in the early evening on his way home and his parting words were that he would no longer spend his evenings away from home.

In very realistic words he related his midnight experiences to the scribe and left no doubt in the latter's mind that the relator of the uncanny tale was speaking the gospel truth. He first confessed he had been out spending the evening in a social manner with a number of young friends and that the company disbanded shortly before twelve o'clock.

While passing the old brick storehouse on the west side of Park street and a little south of Brock street, he heard a sharp, brief noise which immediately attracted his attention to the building. In it is stored away old counters, tables glass, etc., and is scarcely visited by the owners in a twelvemonth. From the sidewalk the youth could readily see through one of the old windows a most peculiarly coloured light which rose perpendicularly and periodically from the floor to the ceiling. The light was in the shape of a round ball of fire which at times appeared crimson and again took on a purplish colour.

Accompanying the strange light was a noise which, he stated, would make the hair stand on one's head. It sounded like the intermingling of moaning and heavy strokes made upon a counter or table with a hand.

"How was the state of your nervous constitution?" asked the scribe.

"Well, while I watched and listened from the sidewalk the light and noise remained," he said, "and to tell the truth I began to get cold feet as a person naturally would with meeting a similar experience for the first time in his life."

Questioned further, the young man stated that he made no energetic advances to investigate the mystery. But the moment he moved on a step the noise ceased and the bright ball of fire vanished. He stopped again and the same phenomena was there, startling in its measured movements.

"I thought I was glued to the spot," he said, "as I seemed to have made several fruitless efforts to tear myself away in the few moments I stood there. Stories of haunted houses and headless apparitions that I had often read about came to my mind; and you may be sure" he added, "I had no intentions of making a much closer investigation."

The Examiner's informant stated that when he got started only a few minutes intervened before he arrived safely home. His experiences were vividly portrayed but evidently from his countenance very few hours were spent in sleep since the singular observations. His ideas of superstitions is very much changed and he now is a firm believer in the superhuman.

It is reported that similar scenes had been seen in the old store-house a few nights ago, but as far as can be learned no crime, to which the phenomena might be attributed, was ever committed in the building. For the present the store-house is wrapped in a shroud of mystery.

TRENTON OUTLET IS CONSIDERED BEST

Report of Engineer Walsh on the Alternative Routes for Trent Canal Outlet Considered in the House.

THE PORT HOPE ROUTE UNSAFE ONE

Ottawa, Feb. 27. — By Order-in-council passed on Tuesday of last week, the Government has adopted the Trenton route as the outlet for the Trent Canal into Lake Ontario. Mr. E. J. Walsh, C.E., has been engaged upon surveys in connection with the southern link in the Trent system of navigation, and in December last he reported to the Chief Engineer of the Department that the cost of the different routes, for six foot navigation, would be as follows.

Rice Lake to Port Hope...$3,541,917
Rice Lake to Cobourg 7,906,401
Rice Lake to Trenton 3,118,311

For navigation with eight feet four inches of water on the sills the figures for the different routes are as follows:

Rice Lake to Port Hope...$3,956,051
Rice Lake to Cobourg 8,326,040
Rice Lake to Trenton 3,997,482

Commenting upon Mr. Walsh's report, the chief engineer, Mr. Butler, says that Mr. Walsh has not taken into consideration the value of the diversion of water so far as it affects water powers on the Otonabee river, and has not considered that any damage would accrue to the water-powers below Rice Lake. Mr. Butler is unable to find any authority, either by common law or by statute, which permits of a diversion of water from a natural channel into another watershed without compensation to riparian owners. The total fall from Rice Lake to Lake Ontario is 264 feet.

Trent Outlet The Best.

The Trent outlet, with eight feet four inches of navigation, is recommended by Mr. Butler, as such depth of water would enormously reduce the cost of transportation, and be had for $455,565 over and above the cost of six foot navigation. Were the other route adopted, owners of water powers on the Trent would be entitled to compensation. These powers represent a flow of 103 cubic feet per second, equivalent to 4,663 gross horse power. At the rate charged by the department for the use of those water powers, $2 per horse power per annum, the amount would be $8,106 annually, which capitalized at four per cent., equals the sum of $204,150, which would have to be added to the cost of the Cobourg or Port Hope routes.

From the standpoint of navigation also, Mr. Butler thinks the Trenton route is preferable, all the evidence tending in that direction. Moreover the adoption of the Trenton route would ensure the development of an immense amount of power alongside an excellent transportation route; while the Port Hope or Cobourg outlet would not admit of any power development. Mr. Butler says that in the best interests of the country the river route with eight feet four inches of navigation, should be adopted. The Cabinet concurred in the recommendation, and, accordingly, the Trenton route is the one which has now been adopted.

THE SOURCE AND THE STREAM

While not grudging to the Conservative Government of Sir John Macdonald, full credit for the great services it rendered in opening up, and developing, the Great West, it may not be amiss to point out that to the Ross and the Laurier Liberal Governments, great credit is also due for their services in promoting the development of this, and Quebec province, and the Northwest of Canada. Ontario has long suffered under the reproach that it was composed merely of a thin line of water-soaked settlements, bordering on the St. Lawrence and the Great Lakes. The Ross Government widened the fringe by its action in exploring the Ontario hinterland. The result was the discovery of New Ontario; that is, the revelation of its wonderful resources, of which we are now only gaining an adequate idea. The exploration was followed by development, and the latter was wonderfully stimulated, if not, indeed, made possible, by the pioneer enterprise in provincial railway construction and ownership, represented by the conception and construction of the Government railway, the Temiscamingue and Northern. Settlement and development with a rush followed the railway, whose justification is found in the agricultural and wonderful mineral wealth it has unearthed—a wealth so great that it is computed that the cost of the entire railway, including its extension to a junction with the Grand Trunk Pacific, will be met by the Government revenue from the mineral the railway has given knowledge of, and access to. To the conception and initiative of the Laurier Government, we owe the Transcontinental Railway, which, by its route through northern Quebec, and northern Ontario, will open up for settlement and commercial and industrial exploitation, an immense area of virgin wilderness, opulent in natural resources. It may be that but for the exploring parties sent out by the Ross Government in 1900, and the wealth thereby revealed, the idea of running the Grand Trunk Pacific over the proposed route, would not have been conceived. Nor is it probable, in the absence of their exploration, and attendant discoveries, the pioneer spirit would have been stimulated to the point of proposing access to Hudson Bay, and its wealth of fisheries, by railway. It is not too much to claim that the discoveries made of the wealth of previously unknown and neglected regions, by the Ross Government exploration, gave a stimulus to enterprise similar to that imparted to the adventurous and enterprising of Europe by the discovery of America by Columbus. From a railway to Hudson Bay, to a Hudson Bay water route to Great Britain, is a natural step. If this route is found to be feasible, it will be a mighty aid in the development of Northwestern Ontario and Quebec, and the Canadian West. Even with the completion of the two great railways that are now racing each other across the continent to the Pacific, the media of transportation will be taxed to the utmost, so great is the present and immediately prospective, growth in population and production of the great West. And all this more recent development, it is not extravagant to say, had its beginning, when the Ross Government exploration party packed their kits, and crated their Peterborough canoes, for their plunge into the then unknown wilds of New Ontario. The statesmanship that looks ahead, and has faith, was behind them. The source was small, but the stream has become great—and is daily widening and gaining depth and volume.

All efforts to municipally unite the rival towns, Fort William and Port Arthur, are swamped in the morass that separates the two towns. They are as bitter rivals as two social leaders in a country village.

Some exclusive London clubs purvey ginger ale that vies in delicate crispness with York Springs Dry Ginger Ale, but does not equal it in purity nor excel it in flavor, pungency and aroma. Try it with Rye or Scotch, or straight, or with a dash of lemon juice—simply fine! Your club, favorite bar or merchant can procure it for you. Demand it by name.

CENTRAL PRISON LABOUR AGAIN

The Central Prison labour contract of the Whitney Government—three cents an hour—came up in the Ontario Legislature on Tuesday, and provoked the first diversion this session, in which the Government had a majority of 35. Mr. Preston, of Brant, moved a resolution to the effect that the contract system of prison labour is harmful to the prisoners employed, prejudicial to both labour and capital employed outside of prisons, and contrary to sound public policy. The Conservative majority, of course, voted this down and approved of "the announcement of the Government that the whole question of prison labour would be inquired into forthwith," and made the basis of legislation that would prevent the competition of prison labour with free labour. It does not seem to require much consideration to determine the undesirable character of the Taylor contract, which is being fulfilled at a flat loss to the Province. While contract prison labour, at its best, may be objectionable, it can be managed better than in the ruinous manner in which the present Government is doing it. During the five years that Hon. Mr. Stratton was Provincial Secretary, and, in that capacity, had charge of the Central Prison, the profits from the Central Prison industries aggregated a net total of $128,786.80, or over $25,000 per year. During half of the past year, as a sample of the rest of the time, the Whitney Government, under Hon. Mr. Hanna's management, lost money, and did not receive from the contractor, three cents per hour for the labour of the men. This is strong condemnation, but it seems that the Government is bound to continue the system so long as public opinion will stand it. The motion passed by the Government on Tuesday spells considerable delay, if not failure, in removing an evil, which is unfair to both labour and capital.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Colonel Sam Hughes has hit the bullseye by endorsing the Ross rifle—a Canadian gun for Canadian soldiers.

It seems very appropriate for the Guelph "Mercury" to work off this parody — "Man wants but little here below"—zero.

Newspapers are advised to enlarge their offices. The report of the Insurance Commission has been laid on the table in the House of Commons, and will be forwarded by freight. The table very properly groaned under the burden. The report is a very bulky document.

The office of Conservative organizer of Ontario, seems to be hereditary. Mr. "Bob" Birmingham, of rather complicated fame, in that capacity, held the office for years. He struck for back pay and for some time the fortunes of the party were in the hands of an amateur. Mr. Birmingham came back to work. Now he is succeeded by his son, who has been recently appointed organizer.

L'Evenement, a Conservative journal of old Quebec, is in luck. Thirty-six members of the Quebec Legislature, are suing it for libel. The erring journal called these members who voted for a certain obnoxious motion, "fools," "miserables," and other unparliamentary names. This libel enterprise constitutes a great advertisement.

A sidelight is thrown on some of the sentiments elicited in the recent marriage correspondence in the Examiner. Some lady correspondents attributed the dearth of marriage to the fact that men were not worth marrying. A Wexford, Ontario, widow, thinks differently. Her husband was killed in a railway accident, and she is suing the company for $12,000 damages. If the jury agrees with her estimate a new quotation of the market value of husbands will be established.

The Ontario Department of Lands Forests, and Mines, estimates the timber cut in the province during the present season as follows: Pine, board measure, 1,000,000,000 feet; hemlock, 70,000,000 feet; spruce, 1,500,000 feet; squared timber, 1,250,000 cubic feet; railway ties, 4,500,0000; pulpwood, 100,000 cords. These estimates are all larger than the actual cut of last season, but it is expected that they will be realized owing to the great demand for timber of all kinds.

Sir Charles Tupper, one of the oldest of the "old guard," is still wearing jauntily a green old age. He is now 86 years of age, and is to be presented with a portrait of himself in London, England, next Friday. Sir Charles Tupper at the age of 75, was chosen leader of the Conservative Opposition. He is a great politician, and distinguished himself as that capacity. He, however, was never a shining success as a prophet. The election returns had a very rude way of discrediting his political forecasts.

It seems to be misfortune or fault of Conservative Governments to run foul of temperance sentiment. In the case of the Whitney Government, it's a head-on collision, and similar conditions exist in Manitoba, according to Rev. S. Goldworth Bland, of Wesley College, Winnipeg, who has never before, publicly, taken any part in politics. While he would be glad to vote for many of the Government candidates under other leadership, he finds "the Government intolerable"—their subservience to two—great corporations makes one feel that the interests of neither the city nor Province are safe in their hands." But upon the temperance question is Rev. Mr. Bland particularly stirred. He says:

"No Government, as far as I know, has ever betrayed and flouted temperance people like the present Government of Manitoba. Their scorn of pledges, their broken faith, their multiplication of licenses, their thrusting of licenses on protesting communities, do not merely stir my indignation as a temperance man and a Christian, they make every drop of British blood in me tingle."

WORKINGMEN'S HOUSES

As a rule our wants are met by the law of supply and demand, when it is allowed to work freely. A demand for a certain article generally results in the supply being forthcoming, but in the matter of workingmen's houses this law does not seem to work out quickly. The demand for these is urgent and has been for some time, but the supply has fallen far behind. Land speculators and building contractors appear to find it more profitable to build the more expensive style of house—houses that are beyond the reach of the average workingman. That has resulted in a house famine as far as the workers are concerned. The problem now is how to secure the building of such houses. A step in this direction has already been taken. The question has become a live one in Toronto, where action is to be taken by manufacturers and workmen to have such houses built. In Hamilton the Board of Trade wishes to make a move in the same direction conjointly with Trades and Labour Council; and it is to be hoped the movement will be a success. As Mr. Close says, too big a percentage of a man's wages has to go for rent. The manufacturers also feel that unless house accommodation suitable for their workmen can be obtained at a fair rental or cost they will have difficulty in keeping them, and those manufacturers who may contemplate coming here will hesitate to do so, if shelter cannot be found for their workmen. Spring will soon be here. There is not much time to lose. Action should be taken at once. Such matters are always best done as works of private enterprise, but the Board of Trade or Council might stimulate the work. And the system of taxation might be amended to encourage the building of such houses.—Hamilton Times.

Excited Nerves, Twitching Muscles
SYSTEM EXHAUSTED BY WORRY AND LOSS OF SLEEP—PERFECT HEALTH THE RESULT OF USING
Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Such cases as this made it impossible to doubt the restorative influence of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. E. J. Vanderburgh, of Eastern Welland avenue, St. Catharines, Ont., states: "For twenty-one years I was badly afflicted with heart trouble, nervousness and cramps in the limbs, also twitching of the muscles, and nervous headaches. I became weak, debilitated and emaciated. My condition was distressing and I was made worse through worry and loss of sleep.

"I tried a hundred remedies in vain, and, reading about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, I decided to try it. After having used half a dozen boxes of this preparation, my old trouble had entirely vanished and I was enjoying better health than I had since girlhood. I am now past middle life and am in perfect health. I would not take worlds to-day and go back to my former state."

There is more or less mystery and doubt as to the specific action of many drugs, but it is positively and definitely known that iron forms new, red corpuscles in the blood, or, in other words, makes the blood rich and nourishing.

But iron alone cannot be taken into a delicate stomach. The great secret of the success of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is the way iron is combined with certain other restoratives so as to make a preparation that can be used with the greatest benefit by even the most weak and delicate person.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is also slightly laxative as well as tonic in influence, and, while building up the system, insures the regular and healthful action of the digestive, filtering and excretory systems.

If you would enrich the blood, strengthen the nerves and replace weakness and disease with health and vigour, use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. 50 cents a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto.—2.

Rev. Henry J. Keith, of Smiths Falls, Will be in Knox Church on Sunday.

Rev. Henry J. Keith, of Smith's Falls, will occupy the pulpit of Knox Church next Sabbath. The Examiner is informed that Mr. Keith is a first-class honour graduate of McGill College in Arts. He took his theological course partly in Princeton and partly in the Presbyterian College in Montreal, from which he graduated in 1903, taking the highest stand of the year and the gold medal.

Having a strong inclination towards missionary work, he was selected by the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association to take up special work in India, but after two years he had to give up the work in the foreign field owing to the ill-health of his wife.

OBITUARY

MARY JANE JOHNSTON

The death occurred early this morning of Mary Jane Johnston, relict of the late Mr. John Crow, at the age of 68 years. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon, March 2nd, from the family residence, lot 22, concession 14, Cavan, and proceed to the Little Lake Cemetery.

CHAS. E. BRITTON

Death claimed Mr. Chas. E. Britton, of Detroit, on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, after a very short illness of only three days. The deceased was stricken with pneumonia and taken to Harper's Hospital in Detroit, but in spite of the medical aid of four doctors, death was the conqueror. The deceased was a former resident of Peterborough, and was the youngest son of the late Mr. John Britton. He was 44 years of age, and a moulder by trade.

The remains arrived in the city last night on the mid-night train, accompanied by his brother, Mr. John Britton, of Buffalo.

There remains to mourn his loss, two brothers and three sisters. They are, Mr. Thos. Britton, Bowmanville, and Mr. John Britton, of Buffalo, N.Y., and Mrs. Robt. Farrel and Mrs. E. Sutherland, Toronto, and Miss Martha, of this city.

The funeral will take place Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence, 13 Harvey street, to Little Lake Cemetery.

Reports have reached St. Petersburg that 130 to 150 Finnish and Esthonian fishermen had been carried out to sea on ice floes from Frederikshamn, gulf of Finland. Of this number it is added only ten men reached shore in safety. The bodies of seven have been recovered.

BOY COMPLAINS OF ILL TREATMENT FROM ANOTHER

Latest News From Hall of Justice—Case Heard But Neither Parties Present —Plaintiff to Pay Costs.

A little boy came into the police station this morning and complained that Edward Armstrong had been ill-treating and beating him. Armstrong, he says, is bigger than he is, and the youngster had a black eye which he said Armstrong gave him. The Chief takes this means of warning the offender, and further offence will bring Armstrong before the court.

There was no session of the court this morning and there was. This strange state of affairs arose from the fact that neither the complainant nor the defendant in a case were present. Their names were called thrice; the empty court room resounded like a huge hall, but no response was heard from either party. Magistrate Dumble therefore laid the costs of the case against the plaintiff.

PRACTICAL ANGLICAN CHURCH CO-OPERATION

Religious Men's Meetings in Grand Opera House, Sunday, March 10 and 24.

The west Guild Room of St. John's School was crowded last night when the local assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew met at 9.30 p.m.—after the mid-week Lenten service—to discuss the forthcoming mass meetings to be held in the Grand Opera House on Sundays the 10th and 24th of March. Mr. R. J. Dovey presided, supported by Rev. Mr. James, of Toronto; Rev. Canon Davidson, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, Mr. A. Kingdon and Mr. Bennett, of St. Luke's Chapter. A resolution was enthusiastically passed, thanking Mr. J. J. Turner for his generous offer of the Grand Opera House for the special services. Committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements. The Rev. Mr. James gave a short address and expressed his surprise and pleasure to meet such a large gathering of men at that late hour. The united efforts of the three Anglican parishes could not fail to have great influence in the city, if all their work is made the subject of earnest prayer and intercession. The closing chapter office was taken by the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, and one of the best winter meetings separated shortly before 11 o'clock.

DEMETRE BROS. STORE NOT TO BE LEASED

Manager of the Store Denied the Report To-day.

The report in a local paper to the effect that Messrs. Porter Bros. were to obtain possession of the store at the corner of Charlotte and George streets, now occupied by Messrs. Demetre Bros. as a confectionery store, was denied by Mr. George Andronopolis, the manager of the store this morning, when seen by The Examiner. He stated that their business was too large and assured to allow them to think of such a step, and that their lease extended over several years yet.

OPENING OF GEORGE ST. SOUTH WAS DISCUSSED

Board of Works Are Determined That There is No Delay in Matter.

The Board of Works is determined that George street south shall be opened as soon as possible. The matter was discussed briefly at the meeting of the Board, held yesterday afternoon, and will likely come up at the meeting of the City Council on Monday night next. There are three parties with whom arbitration will have to be entered, but in the meantime the street may be opened if the Council think fit to enter on this step.

COMPREHENSIVE PAPER ON MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

There was a good attendance at the Y.M.C.A. Debating Club last night and the meeting added another to the splendid series held this season.

The Club decided to accept the challenge of the St. Andrew's Guild to a debate next month in St. Andrew's hall. Messrs. Shiner and Little will represent the Club.

The feature of the programme was the comprehensive paper by Mr. Shiner on "Municipal Ownership — Facts and Figures from Great Britain."

The subject was handledf in a very clear and convincing mannuer by the reader of the paper—the weight of evidence going to show the success that had attended the ownership of public utilities by corporations not only in the Old Country but in Canada. Failures of some enterprises were also noted, but were attributed to bad management in most cases.

The successful management of the local Waterworks under the Commission in charge of it, was pointed out as a good argument for the taking over of electric light and other facilities by the city.

The paper was followed by a discussion in which many of the members participated.

Critic Hodgson, in summing up gave Mr. Shiner great praise for the paper, and congratulated the members on the knowledge they had shown of municipal affairs.

The Club then adjourned to meet on Wednesday, March 13th, when the subject will be "Resolved, that Modern Inventions have not Added to the Happiness of the Human Race."

THE "EMMA SMITH" MISSION BAND

A New Organization in Connection With the Mark Street Methodist Church —The Officers Elected.

The attendances yesterday afternoon in Mark street church at the meeting for the purpose of organizing a Mission Band, was most gratifying, there being a good representation of the ladies of the congregation as well as of the children.

Mrs. J. G. Lewis, President of the Auxiliary of the N. M. S., acted as chairman.

Mrs. (Rev.) J. Kilgour, District Organizer for the N.M.S., organized the Band with a membership of twenty-five, which unanimously adopted as its name "The Emma Smith Mission Band," in memory of the late Miss E. F. Smith, who was president of a former Band, and whose devotion and loving service are affectionately remembered by those who were associated with her at that time, some of whom are now active in the organizing of the new Band.

The officers elected were:—
President—Mrs. A. J. Throop.
Vice-Pres.—Mrs. Thos. Smiley.
Rec. Sec.—Clara Dodds.
Cor. Sec.—Maude Stevens.
Treasurer—Albert Chrowe.
Pianist—Addie Dickson.
Canvasser for "Palm Branch"—Josie Elliott.
Advisory Committee—Mesdames J. H. Smith and J. Speer, and Miss Mary Speer.

Insure Against Serious Colds

Of the many forms of insurance, probably that which protects you against the serious results of colds, is the most valuable at this time of year, when so many are becoming victims of la grippe and pneumonia. By the prompt use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, can keep the cough loose, prevent furtherr development of the cold and cure it in a few days.

HANDSOME SIGN PLACED IN POSITION

Messrs. Turner & Sons Have Completed One for Fashion Craft Store.

One of the handsomest signs in the city has just been placed in position at the Fashion Craft store, on Hunter street, and is attracting much attention and admiration. The sign was manufactured by Messrs. J. J. Turner & Sons and is a striking example of the high grade work turned out by this flourishing local firm. The sign bears the inscription, "Fashion Craft," in neat letters of gold upon a black background, while in the middle is a monogram, "I.C.," the initials of Messrs. Laidlaw and Oles, the proprietors of the store. The design is a splendid one and the workmanship is excellent.

The Railway Service To Stony Lake Improved

Transportation Committee of Stony Lake Cottagers Association Has Important Announcement to Make—Annual Meeting of the Association to be Held in Toronto Next Tuesday —A Banquet for Visiting Members.

This year a new departure in connection with the annual meeting of the Stony Lake Cottagers and Campers Association will be made, and instead of holding it in Peterborough, as has been the custom in the past, it will be held in Toronto, and the business meeting will be followed by a banquet to be tendered by the Toronto members to the visiting members of the Association.

Mr. James Acton, the President of the Association, has written the members, informing them of the date of the meeting, Tuesday, March 5th, at 3 o'clock, at the St. Charles' Hotel. The letter points out that it has been the custom in the past to hold a mid-winter meeting at Peterborough, but since the majority of the officers this year are Toronto men, and the Peterborough members have entertained the visitors for a number of years, it has been thought that for this time it should pass to Toronto.

At the meeting next Tuesday several important matters in connection with arrangements for the coming year will be discussed. The committees have been at work and will present their reports at the meeting. One of the most important matters to be taken up will be that represented by the report of the Transportation Committee. This committee has had a conference with the railway officials, and the result of the conference is that several important changes in the service to and from Stony Lake will be announced. What these changes are has not been stated, but it is understood that they will effect a considerably improved service.

In the evening the visiting members will be entertained by a banquet in the St. Charles Hotel, to which ladies as well as gentlemen, are invited, and an enjoyable time is looked for. It is hoped that there will be a large contingent from Peterborough, Lakefield and other points and in order to facilitate their attendance special railway rates will be arranged.

Mr. S. Henderson is chairman of the Entertainment Committee, and preparations are being made to give a pleasant day to those who attend. It is understood that a number of the Peterborough members will take advantage of this invitation and attend the meeting.

Cavendish Lumber Company Employees To Receive Books

Mr. George Buskin Will Supply Camps of This Company With Religious Works—His Twenty-fourth Annual Visit to Peterborough—The Result of His Appeal for Help for the Work.

For the twenty-fourth year in succession Mr. George Buskin, the energetic agent and missionary of the International Evangelical and Colportage Mission has paid Peterborough a visit in the interests of the work in which he is engaged, and today, at the close of his work here, reports receipts of $35.00, which is $3 less than the amount contributed last year by Peterborough citizens. This money will be devoted to the fund to provide Bibles and religious literature in the Algoma and Northwest Colportage Missions, in which Mr. Buskin is interested, and in which work he has spent thirty-three years.

There are some pleasant sides to work of this kind, he states, and, naturally some features which are not so pleasant. One of the more pleasing incidents was that related by Mr. Buskin to-day, when he told of receiving a letter from a man in Toronto, who enclosed $100, with the remark that while he did not believe in his religion, he thought he was doing a good work and wanted to help it along. Another gentleman gave him a similar amount, with the remark that he could pay it back when he got ready, and Mr. Buskin sent him the interest for a number of years on the amount. Recently he received a letter from the gentleman acknowledging the sum paid as interest, though the writer said he could not remember what it was on, and intimated that he would wipe off any indebtedness there might be, and sent a further donation to the work.

Mr. Buskin, at the suggestion made by Dr. Greer will communicate with Mr. Looms, of the Cavendish Lumber Company, with a view of placing a number of books in the camps of this company. While he was in the city collecting, Mr. Buskin called on Dr. Greer, as he does on all the professional men, and the latter remarked that it would be a good idea to get some of his books in the lumber camps. They will be sent, if Mr. Looms is willing, of which there is not much doubt, free, and the men can make what use of them they like. They may take them home or leave them in the camps, as they choose. At any rate there is little doubt that they will be glad to receive and will read them eagerly.

During the past year Mr. Buskin disposed of 1,102 copies of the Scriptures in one or more languages, and the donations for the year amounted to $1,888.09. The books and tracts published by the Mission for its work have numbered nearly half a million copies in five languages.

Hoodlums Attack Two Young Men In East City

Two young men living in East City, had an experience on Tuesday night, which they would not care to have repeated, and they intend to take steps to prevent its repetition, as well as to punish those who were guilty of this offence.

It appears that about nine thirty, the two young men referred to, were on their way homeward—they had been across the river—and when they reached the vicinity of Mr. J. C. Sullivan's, they were pounced upon by a crowd of six or seven persons, who would probably call themselves young men, and when they emerged from the mix-up they found that they had sustained some rather serious injuries. Bottles and pieces of ice were thrown, and one of the young men hit on the head by a bottle, and injured to such an extent that he was unable to be at work yesterday.

They claim that they know who, at least, some of the hoodlums are, and they intend to prosecute them. No reason, they state, can be attributed by them for the attack. It is understood that the matter has been reported to the police department, and more may be heard of it before long.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

A GIRL FROM THE SOUTH

The Grand Opera House was again crowded on the presentation of "A Girl From the South," by Marks Bros. last night. This comedy drama was well up to the standard of the former prices, and amused the large audience present. The specialties were very good and no monotonous moments were felt. H. Maxwell Wilgus sang songs which were illustrated on the screen. They were "When the Flowers Bloom in the Spring Time, Molly Dear," and "Hello, Allright, Goodbye." The play to-night is "The Limerick Lass."

LOVERS AND LUNATICS

Joe Morris and a singing and dancing company of forty people, in the screamingly funny musical farce, "Lovers and Lunatics," by Walter Coleman Parker, will be the unusually good offering at the Grand Opera House, March 4. The star of the organization needs no introduction to those who are familiar with the names of successful stage favourites, and the vaudeville stage has had no bigger favourite than Joe Morris. The management have surrounded him with a company that, for excellence, has seldom been equalled. The staging and costuming as well as the many catchy musical numbers have come in for our little amount of criticism, and lovers of music are sure to find much to their liking.

THE VOLUNTEER ORGANIST

William B. Gray's masterpiece, "The Volunteer Organist," will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House on Monday, March 4. It is of striking heart interest and an idyll in its way. The scenes are laid among the hills of Northern Vermont, and its many characters are as true to life as it is possible to make them.

The chief scene discloses the interior of a church, with the volunteer organist seated at his instrument, while the sweet, ringing voices of Master Willie Nelson is heard, and Trinity Church choir boys rendering those beautiful solos, "Too Holy City" and "The Palms." Master Nelson's voice is likened to that of a sweet-voiced thrush, and in the inevitable changes of time that will cause this voice to lose its high range, we may well admit it as a calamity, as the world has never produced its equal.

"Rambler" Tells Interesting Story Of Peterborough

Some Incidents of the Early Days Recalled--Mr. Mungovan Writes Interestingly of the Religious Census of This City--Forty Years Ago Incidents.

In this week's issue of the Catholic Register "The Rambler" has an interesting article relating his experiences in connection with a recent visit to this city, and recalling some now ancient history, which will be read with interest. He says:

The population of the city of Peterborough in the spring of 1901, when the census enumerator went on his decennial rounds, putting the usual questions, made and provided, was 10,454. In point of birth and origin this number included 4,032 English, 4,320 Irish, 1,818 Scotch, 44 of various British origin, 692 French, 222 German, 19 Dutch, 6 Scandinavian, 6 Austro - Hungarian, 53 Italian, 5 Belgian, 1 Indian, 5 Chinese, 5 negr. 4 of various origins and 8 whose nationality could not be ascertained, and hence remain unspecified. An overwhelming majority of the people have proclaimed themselves as belonging to some religion. Of this number there were 2,690 Catholics, 2,413 Anglican, 2,041 Presbyterians, 2,955 Methodists, 725 Baptists, 8 Lutherans, 13 Congregationalists, 13 Brethren, 5 Adventists, 3 Jews, 157 Salvation Army, 6 Friends, (Quakers), 2 Protestants, 235 belonging to various sects, and 28 who would not touch any form of religion with a forty-foot pole. The population of Peterborough since the last census has through the annexation of Ashburnham, as well as through its own lively method of hustling, increased fifty per cent., and there are those who watch the signs of the times, ready to stake their prophetic reputation that when the next enumerator is sent around by the Dominion Government it will be found that the handsome city on both banks of the Otonabee has within ten years grown to a city of 15,000 population. Before its annexation to Peterborough, there were in Ashburnham 460 people of English birth and descent, 892 Irish, 175 Scotch, 70 French, 16 German, 11 Dutch and 3 Italians, making a total of 1,647. Religion in Ashburnham appears to have its votaries; 539 professed the Catholic religion, 449 proclaimed themselves Anglicans, 253 are returned as Presbyterians, 351 as Methodists, 34 were Baptists, 10 Salvation Army, 8 belonged to other sects, and 3 who have not sufficient confidence in any form of religion to cause them to acknowledge it.

Forty years ago on a pleasant afternoon of the month of May now past, I set out from Peterborough, my base of operations being Otonabee township. Crossing the river I found myself in the unpretentious hamlet of Ashburnham, and from there I turned my face southward in the direction of the "Crowley Settlement." Meeting a man whose face was turned towards Peterborough I inquired for the way leading to Mr. Crowley's. "Arrah, a vicko, which Crowley do you want?" said he. "Is it Foxy Jim, or Jimmy Davy? Is it Patsy or Yankee Pat? Maybe it's David you're looking for? I bet a York shilling it is Jim Blossom you're after." I could not tell him of course, and proceeded on my journey until I reached the summit of a hill where I met a man who was very willing to give me all the information I needed, and would have given it to me did he not stutter at a rate which I never found equalled. "Can you tell me where Mr. Crowley lives?" I asked. "Wh—wh—which Crowley do you want? Is it Fo—Fo—Foxy Jim or Jim—Jimmy Da—Da—Davy, or B—B—B—B—" "Oh, don't bother me," said I, and off I started, but before I got to the top of the hill, he managed to drop the word "Blossom" in one unbroken lump. I managed to reach the Crowley settlement after a few more trifling inquiries, and there I met with "Mr. Crowley," and most of the other Crowleys, amongst whom I spent a few pleasant days, the remembrance of which will be enduring. They came to Canada on that wave of immigration to which I have referred in a recent communication, and I am pleased to observe that they inherit in a marked manner many of the finer qualities of the grand old race from which they sprung. Leaving the "Crowley settlement" in the very best of humour with myself and all the world besides I crossed in a south-easterly direction, that my next point of attack would be the "Cork House," owned and occupied by that genial Irishman, James, or as he was more generally called, "Jim" Hayes. I was a total stranger in that section at that pretty early period in my life's history, but the proprietor of the "Cork House," having by some means learned that I was around, and that I bore no likeness to a roaring lion, and that I would on a certain day, and at a certain time, open fire on that well known wayside caravansary, the 'Cork House,' resolved to await my arrival, having in his hands not a gun, but the Cruiskeen Lawn. I soon appeared in front of the "Cork House," and, after announcing myself his welcomes were numerous; they were hearty and all the more appreciated because they were given in Irish and in tones sufficiently resonant to chase the thrush and the blackbird from the wilds of Glengarriffe.
